EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

JAMES J. COTTER, JR. individually and derivatively on behalf of Reading International, Inc., Plaintiff, v. MARGARET COTTER, et al., Defendants. AND READING INTERNATIONAL, INC., a Nevada corporation, Nominal Defendant.	Case No.: A-15-719860-B Dept. No.: XI Case No.: P-14-082942-E Dept. No.: XI Related and Coordinated Cases BUSINESS COURT NOTICE OF CROSS-APPEAL

NOTICE OF CROSS-APPEAL

Please take notice that, pursuant to Rules 4(a)(2) and 28.1 of the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure and in response to Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr.'s ("Plaintiff") February 1, 2018 Notice of Appeal (resulting in Supreme Court Case No. 75053), Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak hereby cross-appeal to the Supreme Court of Nevada and/or the Appeals Court of the State of Nevada from:

1. The District Court's December 28, 2017 Order granting summary judgment in favor of Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak on all of Plaintiff's claims against them. Though the District Court awarded judgment in favor of these five Defendants, its rulings left open the possibility that Plaintiff has standing to bring a derivative suit on behalf of the stockholders of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI") where the relief he seeks is to be reinstated as President and Chief Executive Officer of RDI—relief that would not benefit any stockholder other than him—and also while seeking additional relief in other litigation that does not serve the interests of other RDI shareholders.

2. All other orders made final as to Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak as a result of the District Court's December 28, 2017 Order, including:

- The District Court's October 15, 2015 Order Regarding Motion to Dismiss Complaint, pursuant to which the District Court concluded that Plaintiff had derivative standing and could adequately represent the interests of RDI's stockholders;

- The District Court's December 20, 2016 Order denying Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (No. 1) re: Plaintiff's Termination and Reinstatement Claims, pursuant to which the District Court concluded that Plaintiff had derivative standing and left open the possibility of reinstatement (an Order to which Defendants previously filed a petition for writ of prohibition or mandamus, which the Nevada Supreme Court denied in an Order on April 14, 2017 due to its concern that granting the writ would not resolve all claims in the case and because it could not determine if the District Court clearly addressed Defendants' NRCP 23.1 argument); and

- The District Court's November 20, 2017 Minute Order denying Defendants' Motion for Evidentiary Hearing Regarding James Cotter, Jr.'s Adequacy as Derivative Plaintiff.

By Order dated January 4, 2018, the District Court certified its December 28, 2017 Order dismissing these defendants as final under Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) and entered judgment in favor of them. Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak cross-appeal to alter the rights of the parties under the Court's judgment and because a successful cross-appeal on standing issues would resolve all claims remaining before the District Court and be case dispositive.

Cross-Appellants are represented by retained counsel on appeal.

8. Indicate whether Cross-Appellants were granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis and the date of entry of the district court order granting such leave:

Not applicable.

9. Indicate the date the proceedings commenced in the district court:

Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. filed his derivative complaint instigating this litigation on June 12, 2015.

10. Provide a brief description of the nature of the action and result in the district court, including the type of judgment or order being appealed and the relief granted by the district court:

Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff"), the former President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI"), brought this purported stockholder derivative case following the RDI Board's June 12, 2015 decision to terminate Plaintiff after extensive discussion due to major problems with Plaintiff's temperament, managerial skills, and knowledge of RDI's business. In retaliation, Plaintiff filed a derivative complaint on behalf of RDI's stockholders, which he has twice amended, seeking reinstatement and alleging that RDI's Directors Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Guy Adams, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak breached their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, and candor as a result of their termination decision and through numerous subsequent board decisions with which he disagrees. Plaintiff also alleges that Ellen and Margaret Cotter aided and abetted these breaches of fiduciary duty.

In light of Plaintiff's numerous conflicts with the class of stockholders he purports to represent, including the fact that he is seeking reinstatement (relief that would not benefit any stockholder other than him), Defendants filed a motion to dismiss for lack of standing, which the District Court denied in an order dated October 15, 2015. Discovery then ensued, following which Defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Guy Adams, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak filed motions for partial summary judgment on every transaction or board decision identified by Plaintiff as an independent breach of fiduciary duty, and Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Guy Adams, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak filed a motion for summary judgment on all claims asserted against them on the grounds that they were each independent and disinterested directors protected by Nevada's business judgment rule as a matter of law. Defendant William Gould, represented by separate counsel, also moved for summary judgment on all claims against him. In an order dated December 20, 2016, the District Court denied Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (No. 1) re: Plaintiff's Termination and Reinstatement Claims, pursuant to which the District Court concluded that Plaintiff had derivative standing and left open the possibility of reinstatement. The District Court's December 20, 2016 Order also continued most of Defendants' other motions for summary judgment, and ordered additional discovery.

While additional discovery was ongoing, Defendants filed a petition for writ of prohibition or mandamus on the District Court's December 20, 2016 denial of their Motion for Summary Judgment (No. 1) re: Plaintiff's Termination and Reinstatement Claims, specifically with respect Plaintiff's standing as a derivative plaintiff (Supreme Court Case No. 72261). Without ruling on the substance of Defendants' arguments, the Nevada Supreme Court denied Defendants' petition in an Order on April 14, 2017 due to its concern that granting the writ would not resolve all claims in the case and because it could not determine if the District Court clearly addressed Defendants' NRCP 23.1 argument. In light of the Nevada Supreme Court's ruling and new concerns regarding Plaintiff's standing as a derivative plaintiff due to conflicts, Defendants brought a Motion for Evidentiary Hearing Regarding James Cotter, Jr.'s Adequacy as Derivative Plaintiff, which the District Court denied in a Minute Order on November 20, 2017.

Following the completion of the additional discovery and as contemplated by the District Court, Defendants filed a round of supplemental motions for summary judgment. After oral argument at a hearing held on December 11, 2017, the District Court granted summary judgment in favor of Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak because there were no genuine issues of material fact relating to their disinterestedness and/or independence. The District Court also left Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams as defendants in the case, and largely denied Defendants' other motions for partial summary judgment on the individual transactions or board decisions identified as purported breaches of fiduciary duty. In addition, the District Court left open the possibility that—contrary to the arguments in the moving papers submitted by Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak and in derogation of their rights as board members of RDI—Plaintiff may be reinstated as President and CEO of RDI against their wishes and judgment. The District Court codified its rulings in an order dated December 28, 2017. The District Court certified its dismissal of Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak as final under Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) by order dated January 4, 2018.

On February 1, 2018, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal, indicating that he is appealing to the Supreme Court of Nevada and/or the Appeals Court of the State of Nevada the portion of the December 28, 2017 order granting summary judgment in favor of the five dismissed Defendants. Plaintiff's appeal is proceeding as Nevada Supreme Court Case No. 75053. In response and pursuant to Rules 4(a)(2) and 28.1 of the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure, Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak now cross-appeal from the District Court's December 28, 2017 order, and all other orders made final by that order—including the District Court's October 15, 2015 Order Regarding Motion to Dismiss Complaint, District Court's December 20, 2016 Order denying Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (No. 1) re: Plaintiff's Termination and Reinstatement Claims, and District Court's November 20, 2017 Minute Order denying Defendants' Motion for Evidentiary Hearing Regarding James Cotter, Jr.'s Adequacy as Derivative Plaintiff. Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak cross-appeal to alter the rights of the parties under the Court's December 28, 2017 judgment and because a successful cross-appeal on standing issues would resolve all claims remaining before the District Court and be case dispositive.

11. Indicate whether the case has previously been the subject of an appeal to or original writ proceedings in the Supreme Court and, if so, the caption and Supreme Court docket number of the prior proceeding:

This case was previously the subject of four writ proceedings: (1) Petition for Writ of Prohibition or, in the Alternative, Mandamus, Case No. 71267; (2) Petition for Writ of Prohibition or, in the Alternative, Mandamus, Case No. 72261; (3) Petition for Writ of Prohibition or, in the Alternative, Mandamus, Case No. 72356; and (4) Petition for Writ of Mandamus, Case No. 74759.

12. Indicate whether this appeal involves child custody or visitation:

Not applicable.

13. If this is a civil case, indicate whether this appeal involves the possibility of settlement:

Cross-Appellants do not believe that a settlement of the claims asserted by Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. is a possibility.

AFFIRMATION

The undersigned does hereby affirm that the preceding document does not contain the social security number of any person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the Individual Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (No. 2) re: The Issue of Director Independence is GRANTED with respect to Defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak because there are no genuine issues of material fact related to the disinterestedness and/or independence of those directors, and is DENIED with respect to Defendants Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, and Guy Adams because there are genuine issues of material fact related to the disinterestedness and/or independence of those directors.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT RDI's Motion to Redact Opposition to Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr.'s Motion in Limine No. 1 re: Advice of Counsel and File Exhibit "E" Under Seal is GRANTED.

[PROPOSED] ORDER REGARDING DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NOS. 1–6 AND MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY

Date of Hearing: October 27, 2016
Time of Hearing: 8:30 a.m.

Lewis Roca ROTHGERBER CHRISTIE 3993 Howard Hughes Pkwy, Suite 600 Las Vegas, NV 89169-5996

READING INTERNATIONAL, INC., a Nevada corporation,

Nominal Defendant.

THESE MATTERS HAVING COME BEFORE the Court on October 27, 2016, Mark G. Krum appearing for plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff"); H. Stanley Johnson, Christopher Tayback, and Marshall M. Searcy appearing for defendants Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, Douglas McEachern, Guy Adams, Edward Kane, Judy Codding and Michael Wrotniak; Mark E. Ferrario and Kara Hendricks appearing for Reading International, Inc.; and Ekwan Rhow, Shoshana E. Bannett appearing for William Gould, on the following motions:

- Individual Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment (No. 1) Re: Plaintiff's Termination and Reinstatement Claims;

- Individual Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (No. 3) On Plaintiff's Claims Related to the Purported Unsolicited Offer;
- Individual Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (No. 4) On Plaintiff's Claims Related to the Executive Committee;
- Individual Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (No. 5) On Plaintiff's Claims Related to the Appointment of Ellen Cotter as CEO;
- Individual Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (No. 6) Re: Plaintiff's Claims Related to the Estate's Option Exercise, the Appointment of Margaret Cotter, the Compensation Packages of Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, and the Additional Compensation to Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams; and

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 1 is DENIED. There are genuine issues of material fact as to the issues related to interested directors participating in the process.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Rule 56(f) relief is GRANTED with respect to Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 2, and supplemental briefing will be discussed once the relevant discovery is complete. The independence issue needs to be evaluated on a transaction or action-by-action basis, because the independence related to each needs to be separately evaluated; even though facts overlap, the Court cannot evaluate this in a vacuum. Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 2 is CONTINUED pending Plaintiff's submission of a supplemental opposition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Rule 56(f) relief is GRANTED with respect to Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 3, because depositions have not been completed and the relevant documents have not been produced. Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 3 is CONTINUED pending Plaintiff's submission of a supplemental opposition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 4 is GRANTED IN PART. As to the formation and revitalization (activation) of the Executive Committee, the motion is GRANTED; as to utilization of the committee, the motion is DENIED. Formation and revitalization includes a decision by the company to make use of their previously dormant Executive Committee and put people on that Executive Committee.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Rule 56(f) relief is granted with respect to Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 5. Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 5 is CONTINUED pending Plaintiff's submission of a supplemental opposition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Rule 56(f) relief is granted with respect to Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 6. Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 6 is CONTINUED pending Plaintiff's submission of a supplemental opposition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the Motion in Limine to Exclude Expert Testimony of Myron Steele, Tiago Duarte-Silva, Richard Spitz, Albert Nagy, and John Finnerty is GRANTED IN PART. With respect to Chief Justice Steele, he may testify only for the limited purpose of identifying what appropriate corporate governance activities would have been, including activities where directors are interested, including how to evaluate if directors are interested. As to Dr. Finnerty, the Motion In Limine was WITHDRAWN. As to the other experts, the motion is DENIED.

THIS MATTER CAME BEFORE THE COURT on the Motion for Rule 54(b) Certification and Stay of plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff"). The Court, having considered any papers filed and arguments made in support of and in opposition to the Motion, and for good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Plaintiff's Motion for Rule 54(b) Certification is GRANTED because Plaintiff will be severely prejudiced if required to wait to appeal and the remaining defendants will not be prejudiced if the Court's December 28, 2017 order dismissing defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak is certified.

The Court therefore finds and determines, under Nev. R. Civ. P. 54(b), that there is no just reason for delay and hereby directs entry of judgment as to defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak on all of Plaintiff's claims against them.

READING INTERNATIONAL, INC., a Nevada corporation,
Nominal Defendant.

THIS MATTER CAME BEFORE THE COURT on the Motion for Rule 54(b) Certification and Stay of plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff"). The Court, having considered any papers filed and arguments made in support of and in opposition to the Motion, and for good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Plaintiff's Motion for Rule 54(b) Certification is GRANTED because Plaintiff will be severely prejudiced if required to wait to appeal and the remaining defendants will not be prejudiced if the Court's December 28, 2017 order dismissing defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak is certified.

The Court therefore finds and determines, under Nev. R. Civ. P. 54(b), that there is no just reason for delay and hereby directs entry of judgment as to defendants Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak on all of Plaintiff's claims against them.

- Appearances continued: Attorney Michael Hughes for the Defendants; Attorneys Michael Searcy and Christopher Tayback, Pro Hac Vice pending, for the Defendants; Attorney Alexander Robertson for Intervenors; in related case P082942, Attorney Mark Ferrario for Reading International; Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr.; Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter; Ann Margaret Cotter, present in the gallery.

MOTION TO ASSOCIATE COUNSEL (CAFORIO) set in P082942: There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, motion to associate ADVANCED from August 25, 2015 and GRANTED.

MOTION TO INTERVENE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO EXPEDITE DISCOVERY AND SET A HEARING ON MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Argument in support thereof by Mr. Krum. Response by Mr. Ferrario, as to Mr. Cotter's termination, and request to stay this matter so claims can be addressed in ongoing arbitration proceedings in California. Mr. Searcy noted, the motion to intervene does not change anything because it is intervention in the same complaint, and the primary issue here involves the employment agreement. Mr. Krum provided the Court with a copy of the employment agreement and argued there is no basis for a stay.

Court inquired as to whether anyone had an objection to advancing Reading International, INC's Motion to Compel Arbitration, set on August 25th in P082942, to next week. Mr. Krum stated he did, as the motion is untimely and he will need until sometime next week to file a response. Court so noted.

COURT ORDERED, request for expedited discovery GRANTED, only as to those issues where a shareholder would have fiduciary duty claims. Upon counsel's inquiry, Court clarified, motion granted only on breach of fiduciary duty claims to shareholders; counsel cannot pursue whether or not it was appropriate for Mr. Cotter to be terminated; however, there is an overlap, which Mr. Robertson may have more of because it is cleaner for him. Court DIRECTED Mr. Krum to provide a more narrow scope of discovery. Mr. Krum stated he can do so, if not tomorrow, then by Thursday. Court so noted; Mr. Krum to SUBMIT on Thursday, August 13; Mr. Robertson, if he has anything to add, will do so at the same time by noon; any issues will be addressed by conference call on Friday, August 14, at 1:00 PM. Mr. Ferrario will circulate the call-in information.

Mr. Ferrario advised he will be in trial in Louisiana and requested to continue the motion to compel arbitration. There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, Reading International, INC's Motion to Compel Arbitration currently set on August 25, 2015 in P082942 RESET to September 1, 2015 at 8:30 AM.

Cotter, Jr.; Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter

Argument by Mr. Ferrario that Mr. Crum's appears to be requesting the Court to get involved in retooling corporate processes and procedures; requests are overbroad; and he does not see any need for the expedited discovery request. Mr. Krum stated that Mr. Ferrario is re-arguing the motion he lost last week; that the requests are appropriate. Court noted Mr. Krum's requests were numbered 1-17 and Mr. Robertson's requests were numbered 1-33. Mr. Ferrario argued that there is nothing emergent with Mr. Robertson's requests, having nothing to do with the injunction but deal with matters that occurred three and four years ago. Argument by Mr. Robertson that they requested records going back three year three year history for many decisions made regarding compensation for the directors which is highly relevant to the issue of whether these directors were interested or disinterested regarding the termination of Mr. Cotter Jr. Court noting derivative issues would be handled in the normal course, inquired of Mr. Crum and Mr. Robertson as to which requests are more emergent issues which would be subject to injunctive relief. Following representations by counsel, COURT ORDERED, the following requests are permitted on an expedited discovery schedule within 30 days: as to Mr. Krum's requested Item Nos. 6, 11, 13, 14, 16 and 17 and as to Mr. Robertson's requested Item Nos. 26-30 and 33. Court encouraged counsel to serve the identified items on the appropriate people in order to respond within thirty days in anticipation of having a hearing set for some time in October, 2015. Mr. Ferrario advised that an appropriate Confidentiality Order will be circulated.

MOTIONS TO ASSOCIATE COUNSEL (RHOW AND MOORE) set in P082942: There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, Motions ADVANCED from September 8, 2015, and GRANTED.

- MANDATORY RULE 16 CONFERENCE...PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Appearances continued: Attorney Alexander Robertson for the Intervenor Plaintiffs; Attorney Alan Freer and Attorney Harry Susman for Ellen Marie Cotter and Ann Margaret Cotter, as well as Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr., in related case P082942.

Mr. Susman participated by telephone.

Mr. Krum stated parties need to proceed apace with the so-called expedited discovery, and detailed the status of document production. Mr. Krum noted the Company has begun producing a substantial amount of documents and they have agreed not to wait for that to finish before commencing depositions; Ellen Cotter is the only one who has not produced a single document to date, but they have been advised it will be done next week; parties have tentatively talked about commencing depositions in mid-November, with the scope divided by the issues raised in the Amended Complaint as well as some moving parts, such as the annual meeting scheduled on November 10. Mr. Krum also noted people being added to the RDI Board with personal relationships to Margaret or Ellen Cotter; parties have also talked about a briefing schedule for a hearing in the second week of February; they need to commence the Rule 16 disclosure process, so people can do what they need to do; however, he will be surprised if discovery that has been done so far is not a substantial part of the total production in this case. Finally, Mr. Krum requested a discovery cut-off in the spring and trial thereafter.

Mr. Ferrario argued there is no need for expedited discovery, as an Amended Complaint has just been filed which postdates the request for preliminary injunction; they have done the protective coding process with iterations, as well as imaged computers; yesterday, he talked about depositions to Noah, as Mr. Searcy was unavailable, about the concern of what they were supposed to discuss given the filing of the Amended Complaint; Mr. Krum indicating a preliminary injunction hearing in February belies the need for immediate relief. Mr. Ferrario requested the Court set a discovery schedule and dispense with the request for preliminary injunction.

COURT ORDERED, today is the parties' joint case conference and the filing of the joint case conference report is WAIVED. Court inquired about 16.1 disclosures understanding that with ESI issues there is a rolling production. Parties agreed on 3 weeks. Mr. Ferrario added they have entered into a stipulated protective order. With regards to an ESI protocol, Mr. Ferrario advised the people behind Mr. Krum and Mr. Coburn have a spent a lot of time on it; parties have not entered into a written ESI protocol but they can reduce what has been discussed into writing. COURT ORDERED, status check on the ESI protocol SET on the Chambers calendar in 5 weeks.

COURT ORDERED, Discovery OPENED AS OF TODAY, including counter claims. Ms. Moore, Mr. Searcy, and Mr. Ferrario advised they will be filing motions to dismiss on behalf of their clients. Court so noted.

Mr. Ferrario advised that in going through company documents they have encountered a number of privilege issues and requested 6 weeks out to complete a privilege log.

Colloquy regarding disciplines of experts. COURT ORDERED, discovery cut-off SET on August 26, 2016; percipient witness cut-off SET on April 29, 2016; if parties feel that is not enough time, they have some flexibility without impacting the trial date. Matter SET for Trial on the stack beginning November 14, 2016. Court noted based upon counsel's representation that trial is estimated to last 3 to 4 weeks. COURT ORDERED, jury demand, if any, to be filed within five (5) business days; otherwise, matter will be set for a bench trial. Trial Setting Order will ISSUE, which will be filed in the Business Court case.

COURT ORDERED, Plaintiff's motion for preliminary injunction VACATED. Court further DIRECTED Mr. Krum, when he is ready to set the time for an evidentiary hearing, to re-notice the motion, file a supplemental brief, and a date will be negotiated.

Upon counsel's inquiry, Court clarified its ruling regarding the prior motion to dismiss and interlineation on the Court's order.

Mr. Robertson participated by telephone.

Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Tayback, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel GRANTED IN PART; with respect to request for production no. 3, Defendants are correct; they do not need to provide any information in the form of documents related to gross income; however, during the deposition, Mr. Krum may inquire as to percentage that the Cotter related income forms of the gross income to make any determination he thinks is appropriate. - Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr., and Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter, in related case P082942.

Mr. Lattin participated by telephone.

STATUS CHECK: SCHEDULING: Court acknowledged receipt of the status report and response to status report and inquired as to the status of accounting and inventory. Mr. Freer advised the accounting is being finalized and they are simply mapping values; they intend to file it by April 1st but sooner but he will be out of town next week. Mr. Shipley added that they need things to move along and do not see a good faith basis for the co-executors not to make a distribution of shares. Court noted counsel will get the accounting, either object or not, and someone will request authority for partial distribution. Mr. Krum advised that on the derivative case, counsel have conferred and reached an agreement on how to complete discovery and maintain the trial date; subject to any disputes that arise or discovery due to recent developments, counsel have agreed each lawyer for each set of litigants will conclude or do their best to conclude document production related activities, such as correct privilege logs and supplemental 16.1 disclosures, in the next 2 to 4 weeks; in terms of depositions, Mr. Searcy indicated he will provide dates for his client in April and if that does not work then in May; everyone has also agreed, subject to the Court's approval, to modify dates in the scheduling order, as follows: percipient witnesses to June 10th, the discovery cut-off to September 19th, initial disclosures to July 10th, and rebuttal disclosures to August 15th; however, they will not be modifying the deadline for dispositive motions and motions in limine. Mr. Ferrario responded that he agreed with Mr. Krum's announcement; they have kept the summary judgment date, but it is imperative that they keep the current trial date. Court noted that although it is not going to work counsel is welcome to SUBMIT a stipulation with those representations, signed by everyone; trial in this case is currently on the same stack as the Mace Management vs. Hard Rock case. Mr. Ferrario reiterated, they cannot lose this trial date. Finally, Mr. Krum advised that with regards to the probate case it is his opinion that they are dragging their feet with an eye toward retaining class B voting stock in the estate so they are in the position to vote that stock in the next annual shareholders' meeting.

On the phone: Ms. Shoshana Bannett, for Attorney Ekwan Rhow.

PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL DIRECTOR DEFENDANTS' DEPOSITIONS ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum submitted an agreed schedule for depositions to the Court. COURT ORDERED, schedule MARKED as Court's Exhibit 1. (See worksheet.) Mr. Krum advised that with respect to the location for Mr. Kane's deposition, Mr. Kane wants to move it to San Diego; they also have one day for Mr. McEachern. Mr. Searcy advised Mr. Kane usually rides up with Mr. McEachern as he is uncomfortable driving and wants to stay close to his wife because of her condition. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Kane may have his deposition in San Diego. Court finds the issues expressed by Mr. Kane are appropriate for his convenience and for his wife's condition.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY DIRECTED TO DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum advised he thinks parties have reached an agreement; with respect to request for production nos. 4 and 5 Mr. Searcy's clients will produce documents responsive to those requests and they will do a supplemental response indicating they have done so; there is a mutuality and Plaintiff previously agreed to do the same; on no. 18, Defendants have agreed to produce all responsive documents, and it appears a vast majority has already been produced; on no. 3, a point of confusion, he understands Defendants will respond to the request and produce documents; however, they are likely none, and by way of clarification, they are not asking Defendants to go to the phone company for documents that Mr. Kane does not have. Mr. Searcy concurred with Mr. Krum's representations.

Pursuant to counsel's request, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel currently set on May 3rd RESET to May 5, 2016.

Colloquy regarding hitting deadlines in light of the depositions. Ms. Hendricks advised they will need time before Mr. Cotter's deposition. Court NOTED, if it turns out documents are produced after depositions are completed and counsel feel the need to take a deposition on issues that came to their awareness as a result of newly produced documents, the Court will GRANT the request to take a deposition on those issues; however, it is better to produce documents ahead of time.

IN SUPPORT OF T2 PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter , Jr., in related case P082942.

COURT ORDERED, motion to file exhibits under seal GRANTED.

Following arguments by Mr. Robertson, Mr. Krum, Mr. Tayback, and Mr. Ferrario on the T2 Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction, COURT ORDERED its position has not changed and the shareholders' meeting will proceed as they did last year.

Court and counsel discussed the current trial setting, given the Court's schedule in the prior and subsequent stacks. Mr. Ferrario anticipated the trial would last 2 weeks. Mr. Krum advised that to be prudent he would say 3. Mr. Ferrario further advised that they have scheduled depositions in July and as a practical matter have agreed to extend the percipient witness date. Court noted the motion date is its real concern. Mr. Ferrario stated they will submit a stipulation moving the percipient witness date and continue to shoot for the November trial date.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Defendants' Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Produce Adequate Privilege Log, currently scheduled for May 27, 2016 in Chambers; Defendants' Motion to Disqualify Intervening Plaintiffs and Reading's Joinder thereto, currently scheduled for June 17, 2016 in Chambers, ADVANCED to Thursday, June 16, 2016 at 8:30 AM, with the understanding that counsel will determine an alternative date for argument, unless they wish to appear at 8:00 AM on a Monday or Wednesday.

Court inquired about the settlement conference in California. Mr. Ferrario advised it was done through the estate case with a private, retired judge mediator, in one day.

Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr. and Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter under related case P082942.

Mr. Robertson participated by telephone.

Court noted parties have agreed to extend their percipient witness date though October 14, 2016, where here the trial is on a stack that begins on November 14, 2016. COURT ORDERED, this means that not a single motion in limine or any related motion will be filed after the September 23, 2016 deadline, and no orders shortening time will be signed. Mr. Ferrario stated he conveyed this to all parties and they understand. Court signed the stipulation and order in open court and returned it to the Law Clerk to be routed back to counsel for filing.

DEFENDANT ELLEN COTTER, MARGARET COTTER, GUY ADAMS, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, EDWARD KANE, JUDY CODDING, AND MICHAEL WROTNIAK'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS: Arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Robertson. Mr. Bragonje stated he had nothing to add to the written opposition. Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding any specific items such as documents produced under the protective order that are material non-public information counsel believes were in the possession of T2 Plaintiffs that they had made trades on, and request by Mr. Searcy to supplement his brief in order to set out those items. COURT ORDERED, motion to disqualify DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Counsel may file another motion.

DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR. TO PRODUCE ADEQUATE PRIVILEGE LOG: Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Bragonje, COURT ORDERED, (1) a column with a numeric designation for each privilege entry will be ADDED; typically this is done with Bates numbers or sometimes sequential numbers; the Court will permit counsel to decide; however, this needs to be done so there is an ability for counsel to do a meet-and-confer; (2) documents that existed after the filing of the complaint will be ADDED; (3) counsel will CONFIRM there are no additional documents that fall within that period for which discovery was previously ordered.

Also present: Attorney James Murphy, Bar No. 8586, for non-party Diamond A Investors and Diamond A Partners.

JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Ferrario stated there is no objection. Mr. Murphy advised his clients wish to lodge an objection to the settlement; they tried to file papers yesterday but those were rejected; they also tried to enter an appearance by filing a notice of appearance but that was rejected as well. Colloquy regarding payment of the appropriate court fees. Mr. Murphy reiterated he was tasked to object. Mr. Ferrario argued this is procedurally improper. Copy of Mr. Murphy's brief submitted to the Court. Mr. Ferrario further argued Mr. Shapiro has been involved since prior to the filing of the Complaint by T2, his deposition has been taken, and he is late to these proceedings. Argument by Mr. Krum and statement by Mr. Robertson. Court noted its concern with Mr. Ferrario's form, i.e. the Court usually does a 60-day setting from execution of the form instead of the 55 days requested, and that it usually does not require the objectors to serve everyone on the case but requires them to serve counsel who will then serve everyone. The Court understands the issues raised by Mr. Krum and Mr. Murphy but believes it is appropriate to address the issue as to whether it is a fair settlement at the time of a fairness hearing, as opposed to a preliminary approval hearing. Court further NOTED a website must be added. COURT ORDERED, hearing SET for October 6, 2016 and directed Mr. Ferrario not to place the Judicial Executive Assistant's name or number but his own office number, as well as the date, in the order.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel GRANTED; parties need to resume Mr. McEachern's deposition only and ask questions; an answer may be designated as confidential if it is appropriate to do so; if Mr. Krum wishes to re-open any other depositions it will have to be addressed after this one. Mr. Krum to file a motion. Court further noted it is improper to instruct a witness not to answer a question based on relevance; if there is a problem regarding the public nature of a disclosure then the appropriate thing to do is designate that portion of the deposition as confidential.

Also present: Attorney Michael Sherman and Attorney Kristen Gallagher for Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. in related case A735305.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR. TO PRODUCE OR LOG ALL RESPONSIVE DOCUMENTS IN COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S ORDER ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Searcy confirmed he has received Plaintiff's supplemental privilege log; counsel argued the log still fails the Court's order and requested to schedule a conference call with the Court where they can go over the deficiencies. Mr. Krum submitted on the papers. COURT ORDERED, since a privilege log has been produced, the Court will REQUIRE counsel to meet and confer at an actual meeting where they sit down and talk, or, hold a conference call; if parties have

resolved their differences on the log it is to be sent to the Court so it can be discussed.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum argued in support of the motion. Mr. Ferrario argued potential delay in proceedings and Mr. Searcy noted he has made his clients available for deposition. COURT ORDERED, motion to amend complaint GRANTED. The Court FINDS that demand would be futile on the Board under the circumstances; however, this does not preclude counsel for Defendants from filing a motion to dismiss related to other issues.

- COURT ORDERED, the OST submitted yesterday for a motion to compel production related to the advice of counsel will be SET for August 30, 2016. Upon the inquiry of Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Krum stated this motion pertains to Mr. Adams. OST signed in open court and returned to counsel for filing.

Argument by Mr. Krum in support of the instant motion, noting discovery is incomplete, discovery has taken place due to the developments of the last 60 days or so regarding the offer to acquire the stock, and the October 6th hearing date on the T2 Plaintiffs' settlement. Response by Mr. Ferrario as to this litigation draining the company's resources and that they have made it clear in their papers that this idea of sandbagging is not going to happen. Further argument by Mr. Krum regarding the offer. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Ferrario and Ms. Hendricks advised parties agreed to move their expert disclosure date to August 25th. Mr. Krum noted that is without prejudice to anybody's rights. COURT ORDERED, the motion to reopen and vacate the trial date is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The Court does not agree with Mr. Krum's assessment related to the potential impact of the settlement of T2, based on representations made to the Court in writing and orally; however, the Court recognizes that several depositions are ongoing; those will be completed as schedules permit.

- Mr. Krum inquired whether the Court has read the email exchange. Court NOTED it does not read counsel's emails. Mr. Krum advised he asked counsel for an initial week of one possible expert disclosure, meaning the balance would be made today; however, Mr. Searcy said no. Mr. Searcy stated, the expert date has been moved 3 different times, with the last being August 18; the Court had expressed some concerns, but as an accommodation to Mr. Krum, they gave him an additional week; Mr. Krum is now asking for more time, but he ought to be held to the date that the parties agreed to. Mr. Ferrario noted this issue was not entirely clear to him in the email, but what is troubling at this stage in the proceedings is that it does not make any sense that the expert is still looking for something to support his opinion. Mr. Krum advised the request is only for a second week for one possible designation. COURT ORDERED, request DENIED; however, if additional information is provided to Mr. Krum that counsel does not otherwise have now that results in his expert needing to provide an opinion or supplemental opinion, counsel may file a motion on OST to have that expert file an opinion or supplemental designation.

A 30(b)(6) from the company related to the offer and the reason it was not pursued can be taken NOT TO EXCEED two (2) hours and the document requests that were attached may be RESPONDED TO within fifteen (15) days.

JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING

To the extent any directors relied on advice of counsel in performing their duties which are the subject of the breach of fiduciary duty claim, which includes this, they cannot also protect the communication even though it is the company's privilege; so, the parties all have to make a decision. Upon Ms. Hendricks' inquiry, Court clarified, only the information provided to board members in the course of making their decision. Mr. Searcy inquired as to the Plaintiff asking his clients at trial if they received advice of counsel. Court stated that it does not know at this stage if the actions Mr. Searcy's clients have taken related to the exercise of the option were information directly related to communications from counsel; it may be appropriate for a motion in limine to not permit that to go to the jury because it is not information for which Defendants will be seeking protection under the business judgment rule.

Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Krum, COURT ORDERED, the mere fact that Mr. Krum's and Mr. Robertson's clients were both Plaintiffs is not sufficient for a common interest. Thus, the motion is GRANTED. Plaintiff to COMPLY in seven (7) days.

- JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...HEARING

Also present: Attorney Nicholas Santoro for Craig Tompkins, Defendant, in the T2 matter.

Attorney Jahan Raasi, Pro Hac Vice pending, present with Mr. Murphy.

Mr. Robertson participated by telephone.

Arguments by Mr. Santoro, Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Raasi, Mr. Krum, and Mr. Tayback. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED given the language contained in paragraph 21; it does not appear there is sufficient consideration to support any release of this type; however, this does not preclude the T2 Plaintiffs from dismissing their claims voluntarily.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, all matters currently scheduled for October 25, 2016 RESET to November 1, 2016 at 8:30 AM.

At the request of Mr. Ferrario, Court permitted the parties to confer in the hallway.

Matter RECALLED. Mr. Ferrario, as a proposal, read page 4 of Diamond's objection, and stated he believes this can be solved and no further burden would be placed on the company to send out mailers and incur cost; they will limit the release to claims asserted by T2 in this lawsuit, period. Court directed counsel to submit a revised version. Colloquy regarding continuing the matter and scope of the release. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED to 1:00 PM today.

Proceedings resumed with Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Tayback, Mr. Johnson, Ms. Hendricks, Mr. Santoro, and Mr. Murphy in the courtroom, as well as Ms. Shoshana Bannett on the telephone.

Court acknowledged receipt of the revised version of the settlement agreement and noted, per the Law Clerk, that Mr. Krum still objects. Mr. Murphy advised he has reviewed the revised version. Court noted its discomfort with paragraph 4(a) "and any other Defendants' releasees", the long description, and, given the lack of consideration, the two words "Reading and" at the beginning of 4(a). Mr. Murphy added his concern as to "whereas all the parties...". Court further noted "asserted or unasserted" needs to be removed. Mr. Murphy stated it should read "asserted in the T2 action". Court so noted. Court, RECONSIDERING its denial, GRANTED the motion for preliminary approval given the adjustments made to the release language, recognizing that the people who were not parties to the T2 action are not being released and that Reading itself is not executing a release of those claims.

CLERK'S NOTE: Motions to Seal inadvertently set by Master Calendar on the November 4, 2016 Chambers calendar belong to a different case and are being VACATED.

- Also present: Attorney Ekwan Rhow for Defendant William Gould; Mr. Tompkins observing in the gallery. Court advised the new law clerk for Probate, Atty. John Waite, is observing today as well.

Ms. Bannett participated by telephone.

Following arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows:

READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR CLARIFY ORDER GRANTING JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, JUDY CODDING, AND MICHAEL WROTNIAK'S JOINDER TO

READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR CLARIFY ORDER GRANTING JAMES J COTTER, JR'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED IN PART; if documents or information were not provided to Mr. Kane and Mr. Adams, it does not fall within the delineated items in the October 3rd order.

Court briefly RECESSED for a conference call in another matter.

Proceedings resumed. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows:

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO VACATE AND RESET PENDING DATES AND TO REOPEN DISCOVERY ON SHORTENED TIME (FOURTH REQUEST): Motion GRANTED to the extent a motion to compel has been sought and relief has been received or not, to the extent it relates to Mr. Tompkins' information on the privilege log, and to the extent that the depositions of Mr. Kane, Ms. Codding, Mr. Adams, Mr. McEachern, Mr. Tompkins, the 30(b)(6), and 5 experts, need to completed. The goal is to complete them as soon as possible, and the Court is hopeful they are done by December 2nd. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check on December 1, 2016, regarding the status of depositions and resetting the trial date.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO 3) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER...DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S JOINDER IN INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO.3) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 3 RE THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER: 56(f) relief GRANTED because depositions have not been completed and the document has not been produced. Motion CONTINUED to December 1, 2016, for Mr. Krum to FILE a supplemental opposition related to those issues.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 2) RE: THE ISSUE OF DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 2 ON THE ISSUE OF DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE: Because of the request for 56(f) relief and because depositions have not been completed, this matter is CONTINUED to December 1, 2016. The Court anticipates there will be a discussion of any supplemental brief at that time. Court further notes that the independence issue needs to be evaluated on a transaction or action-by-action basis because the independence related to each needs to be separately evaluated; even though facts overlap, the Court cannot evaluate this in a vacuum.

RECESS.

Proceedings resumed. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows:

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 4) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 4 RE PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Motion GRANTED IN PART; as to formation and revitalization (activation) of the committee the motion is GRANTED; as to utilization of the committee, the motion is DENIED; formation and revitalization includes a decision by the company to make use of their previously dormant executive committee and put people on that executive committee.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 1) RE: PLAINTIFF'S TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT CLAIMS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 1 RE PLAINTIFF'S TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT CLAIMS: Motion DENIED as there are genuine issues of material fact as to the issues related to interested directors participating in the process.

Court made a disclosure regarding participating in a forum in 2013 with Chief Justice Steele and stated the Court does not believe this will affect its ability to be fair and impartial.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE, TIAGO DUARTE-SILVA, RICHARD SPITZ, ALBERT NAGY, AND JOHN FINNERTY...DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S JOINDER IN DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE, TIAGO DUARTE-SILVA, RICHARD SPITZ, ALBERT NAGY, AND JOHN FINNERTY...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE, TIAGO DUARTE-SILVA, RICHARD SPRITZ, ALBERT NAGY AND JOHN FINNERTY: Motion as to Mr. Finnerty WITHDRAWN per Mr. Searcy's request. Motion GRANTED IN PART, with respect to Chief Justice Steele, for the limited purpose of what appropriate corporate governance activities would have been including what activities directors are interested. As to the other experts, the motion is DENIED.

Court noted based on the status reports it appears counsel will not be ready for trial. Upon Court s inquiry, Mr. Krum stated they have 1 1/2 days of expert depositions to finish and they have one of those days scheduled for next week. Mr. Krum referenced three categories of documents. Court advised it signed an Order which, it believes, correctly reflects the issues related to the advice of counsel issue. Court informed Mr. Krum if he has a new document production issue it would have to be raised in a Motion, not in the status report. Mr. Krum stated it has to do with an offer of documents and once they have those issues resolved they can schedule the depositions. Mr. Krum will file that motion next week. Upon Court s inquiry, Mr. Johnson has no objection to the motion being filed on an Order Shortening Time. Counsel advised they will speak and try and work out a date. ...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT : Court inquired as to the status of discovery. Mr. Krum advised they are done with half a day with a single expert on fact discovery; as he understands that based on emails exchanged with Mr. Ferrario regarding issues on offer discovery, the scope of the documents to be produced have now been resolved so they will not need a motion; documents issues to be resolved, unless a writ is taken up on that issue; the good news is that they can schedule depositions for fact witnesses; their projection is that offer documents will be produced next week; other witnesses advice of counsel witnesses. Court noted documents for advice of counsel are not in dispute and inquired when they can be produced. Mr. Ferrario stated he will talk to Mr. Krum out in the hallway; on the express of interest they are providing those to Mr. Krum. COURT ORDERED, motions will not be reset today. Matter SET for a status check on rescheduling motions on December 22, 2016. If Mr. Krum files a motion an OST for it will be signed for the same day.

STATUS CONFERENCE: Mr. Ferrario advised Mr. Searcy was headed here but he does not know where he is. Court acknowledged status report regarding deposition discovery and it appears that discovery will not be done until mid-to-late April. Mr. Krum advised that understanding the pendency of the writ documents should be submitted for in camera review; he understands a stay is sought; parties are not yet at a position for the Court to order certain documents to be produced. Mr. Ferrario responded that he believes it is prudent to maintain the current posture of the case and it does not make sense to deliver documents to the Court while the writ is pending. - Court noted this is the supplemental briefing requested by the Court about the attorney-client documents that were reviewed and relied upon by the board members in making their decisions. Mr. Ferrario submitted on their pleading. Argument by Mr. Krum. COURT ORDERED, given the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Wynn vs. Okada, while the Court understands that the at issue waiver remains viable and there are certain circumstances under which discovery into the information provided to a board for exercise of their business judgment rule is appropriate, the Court has been specifically told that inquiring behind attorney client privilege to the opinions provided to the board members and basis for those opinions as well as the substantive information provided by the attorneys to the board is inappropriate for discovery purposes, unless there is a waiver. As the Court does not see a waiver that has occurred merely by the production of the email communications asking the questions, the request for this information to be disclosed is DENIED. This does not preclude Mr. Krum at a later period in time if he is able to establish that an at issue waiver exists, because they place it in issue, then the Court will not reconsider its ruling, but at this point the Court has not been convinced.

Court inquired as to when parties would be ready for trial. Counsel advised they have 2 - 3 depositions left. Court noted this trial will occur before Wynn vs. Okada, appx. January 16. COURT ORDERED, matter SET for status check on Monday, September 25, at 8:30 AM. Parties to provide a date by which they can file their motions. Trial anticipated to take 2 - 3 weeks.

Mr. Krum, Ms. Bannett, and Mr. Tayback appeared by telephone.

Mr. Ferrario advised they spoke amongst themselves; RDI would like to go to trial the first quarter of 2018 as they definitely wish to go before Wynn Okada. Mr. Krum concurred as to scheduling trial here in the first quarter, as he has personal conflicts the end of 2017 and a spring break and a family trip beginning March 16, 2018. Court inquired how long counsel anticipate trial will take. Mr. Krum replied that it would be foolish to go for less than 3 weeks. Ms. Bannett advised that Mr. Rhow, Mr. Gould's counsel, has a trial in January and February. Court noted that as it does not have a regular courtroom counsel are encouraged to use electronic exhibits. Court further noted that this will be a jury trial. Mr. Ferrario noted that the estimate for the length of trial should then be 4 weeks. Mr. Krum agreed. Court noted its preference would be January. Mr. Krum advised that some expert witnesses said January may be problematic, but they only need a day or two so it should not be impossible. Mr. Ferrario requested the parties caucus and afterwards submit a status report. COURT

DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, WILLIAM GOULD, JUDY CODDING, MICHAEL WROTNIAK'S SUPPLEMENT TO MOTIONS FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NOS. 1, 2, 3, 5 AND 6...REQUEST FOR HEARING ON DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S PREVIOUSLY FILED MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT [Advanced from January 8, 2018]:

Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 1, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART. It is GRANED with respect to Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak, and DENIED as to Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams as there are genuine issues of material fact related to the disinterestedness of each of those individuals. As a result, they cannot at this time rely on the business judgment rule. Mr. Tayback inquired whether there is a ruling on the aspect of the motion that goes to the inability to hold those individuals personally liable for this claim. Court noted that for those 3 individuals, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams, there is no ruling to that effect.

Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 2, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART to the extent counsel is asking the Court to make a determination as to whether there has been a showing of a lack of disinterestedness. There is a lack of disinterestedness for Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, and Guy Adams. With respect to the other directors who are involved in the motion, there does not appear to be sufficient evidence presented to the Court to proceed with a claim of lack of disinterestedness.

Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 3, COURT ORDERED, because of the failure of damages related to an unenforceable, unsolicited, and non-binding offer, the Court is GRANTING the motion; however, Plaintiff is not precluded from utilizing that factual basis for claims of a breach of fiduciary duty.

Following argument by Mr. Searcy regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 5, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED.

Following argument by Mr. Searcy regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 6, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED.

DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE IRRELEVANT SPECULATIVE EVIDENCE: Following arguments by Mr. Rhow and Ms. Levin, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED as premature.

PLAINTIFF JAMES COTTER JR'S MOTION IN LIMNE NO. 3 REGARDING AFTER-ACQUIRED EVIDENCE: Following arguments by Ms. Levin and Ms. Searcy, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. Evidence will be admitted at trial with a limiting instruction that it only goes to suitability. Counsel for Defendants to think about whether they want the limiting instruction and what the text will be.

RENEWED MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE BASE ON SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY: The Court DECLINED to re-hear argument as it had previously ruled on this motion.

COURT ORDERED, Calendar Call will REMAIN on December 18, 2017. Call-ins will not be permitted. The Court will ask at that time if the amount of time needed for trial will change given the rulings today and the space issue.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Final Pre-Trial Conference SET for January 5, 2018 at 3:00 PM. Parties do not need to bring their exhibits to this conference but need to bring their proposed jury instructions and proposed void dire questions, which are to be exchanged beforehand; any limiting instructions that counsel think are appropriate need to be brought to the conference as well. Court and counsel will also discuss what exhibits they may wish to place in a jury notebook that will not be more than 3 inches thick.

With regards to the trial, Court advised jury selection will be in Judge Denton's courtroom on Monday, January 8th at 1 PM. Parties to bring all original deposition transcripts to the Pre Trial Conference, which will be in 10-C. Mr. Searcy advised that his recollection is that there was a written order, but it has been 2 years. Mr. Morris advised the hearing was in September of 2016. Mr. Searcy added his recollection is that there was a written order but he will look for it; the Supreme Court is not directing the Court enter an order. Court stated it will research if the prior proposed order was logged out in case a runner from another firm picked it up.

Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Searcy regarding the instant motion, COURT ORDERED, certification GRANTED as all the claims related to disinterestedness of directors have been resolved.

- Electronic exhibit drives VALIDATED by Court I.T. on the record and LODGED with the Clerk.

Jury selection: Court advised that each side will have 4 peremptory challenges for jurors and 3 peremptory challenges for alternate jurors, a total of 28 people to pass for cause, and a final jury panel of 14.

Counsel randomly selected the seat numbers of the alternates. Court noted the first alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 12; the second alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 2; the third alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 10; the fourth alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 11; the fifth alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 6; the 6th alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 13. Parties stipulated to having the alternate jurors remain blind until the conclusion of closing arguments. Court explained peremptory challenge and Batson challenge process.

Court reminded counsel to avoid speaking objections, or counsel will be excused from the courtroom, held in contempt, or have their pro hac vice admission revoked.

Mr. Krum argued the exclusionary rule apply in opening statements. COURT ORDERED, the exclusionary rule will be imposed after opening statements.

Court acknowledged receipt of proposed voir dire questions and noted that the Defendants have no objections to the Plaintiff's proposed questions. Mr. Morris objected to the Defendants' proposed and supplemental questions, arguing that they are ambiguous and will not elicit germane responses. Reply by Mr. Tayback. COURT ORDERED, OBJECTION to 12 OVERRULED; the question will be PERMITTED to the extent it is seeking the juror's experience in dispute resolution. Following further argument by Mr. Morris and Mr. Tayback regarding the section on relevant attitudes 1 through 10, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, 1, 9, and 10 in this section will be PERMITTED; the others are either duplicative or too much like a hypothetical question.

Court reminded counsel that their brief opening remarks need to be fact-based.

Court inquired whether parties would be using a jury notebook. Counsel advised they could not agree. Court noted that if there are add-on exhibits that are admitted and that counsel want to be placed in the jury notebook, they need to provide 15 copies, three-hole punched with their own binders if not sharing binders.

Court further acknowledged receipt of proposed jury instructions and DIRECTED the parties to SUBMIT any special interrogatories by Wednesday (January 10, 2018) morning. In addition, all PowerPoint presentations to be used in the presentation of exhibits and examination of witnesses are to be PROVIDED to the other side at least 24 hours before use and a hard copy PROVIDED to the Clerk to be marked as a demonstrative exhibit.

Mr. Krum advised there may be some experts with scheduling issues; one witness is travelling from New Zealand, but he assumes parties will accommodate people if they have to; Mr. Storey will only be in Las Vegas on January 17, 18, and 19. Mr. Ferrario advised Defendants' witnesses will generally be available, that they have made arrangements and told Mr. Krum who would be called first, and that they do not anticipate issues on availability; one director will not be available during the first two weeks of trial.

Defendants submitted deposition transcripts in open court; Plaintiffs to submit theirs later as the transcripts are still en route via FedEx.

After review of both sides' proposed orders for the September 16, 2016 hearing, Court SIGNED in open court the version submitted by Mr. Morris as accurately reflecting the Court's ruling. Signed
