DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, a Nevada Corporation, Plaintiff, vs. KAZUO OKADA, an individual, ARUZE USA, INC., a Nevada corporation, and UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP., a Japanese corporation, Defendants.	Case No.: A-12-656710-B Dept. No.: XI WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED'S OPPOSITION TO THE ARUZE PARTIES' MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED'S IMPROPERLY REDACTED DOCUMENTS, AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES
AND ALL RELATED CLAIMS.	Date of Hearing: May 3, 2016 Time of Hearing 8:30 a.m.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

With their latest motion, the Okada Parties seek to compel the re-production of documents from Wynn Resorts, Limited's non-party Macau affiliate, Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.,[1] without the redactions of personal information per the Macau Personal Data Protection Act ("MPDPA"). But rather than argue reasons to compel the documents unredacted now, the Okada Parties argue that the Court already ordered Wynn Resorts to produce the unredacted WRMSA documents. This is simply not true, as the record reflects. The argument is riddled with holes.

The Okada Parties also seek to compel the production of documents for which Wynn Resorts asserted privileges, protections, or obligations arising under Macau law separate and apart from the MPDPA privacy statute. This includes Macanese law 16/2001, which establishes the legal framework for the operation of games of chance in casinos, and contractual provisions in the gaming concession contract with the Macau government. Once again, rather than arguing the reasons the Macau law privileges and protections are improper and/or in bad faith, the Okada Parties simply argue that they have been overruled despite the Court's June 22, 2015 and January 13, 2016 orders expressly providing otherwise. The Okada Parties apparently believe that Wynn Resorts (and/or non-party WRMSA) not giving over its privileged information warrants sanctions but, once again, the record demonstrates otherwise, and the request for sanctions falls flat.

The Okada Parties' Motion is a patently obvious attempt to manipulate and manufacture facts in this case to try to squeeze it in to the facts and analysis of the Nevada Supreme Court's opinion in Las Vegas Sands v. Eighth Judicial District Court. But there simply is no legitimate comparison between the forthright conduct and candor of Wynn Resorts in this case as it relates to WRMSA documents in Macau and misconduct and lack of candor of Las Vegas Sands as described by the Nevada Supreme Court. There is no indication, nor would there be, that the Nevada Supreme Court intended that the invocation of soundbites, such as MPDPA or Macau operator, is sufficient to render any case or any litigant subject to the sanctions that Las Vegas Sands received due to their bad acts and violations of orders. The Okada Parties' Motion in favor of such a [mis]application of Nevada precedent fails as does its tag along sanctions motion for a purported violation of an order. The Motion must be denied, and is itself sanction-worthy.

II. DISCUSSION

A. The Las Vegas Sands Action Presented an Entirely Different Sets of Facts: Lack of Candor, and a Resultant Sanction Order Precluding the Use of the MPDPA as an Objection or Defense.

The Nevada Supreme Court recently had the opportunity to analyze and discuss the interplay of foreign privacy statutes and discovery in its state courts. See Las Vegas Sands Corp. v. Eighth Judicial District Court, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331 P.3d 876 (2014). The question considered by the Supreme Court: "[W]hether a Nevada district court may properly issue a discovery order that compels a litigant to violate a foreign international privacy statute." Id. at 877. The context: Sands China, a party to that action, "maintained that it [could] not disclose any documents containing personal information that are located in Macau due to restrictions within the Macau Personal Data Protection Act (MPDPA)." Id. (emphasis added).[2] Nearly a year later, "Sands disclosed for the first time that, notwithstanding the MPDPA's prohibitions, a large number of documents contained on hard drives . . . had been transported from Sands China in Macau to LVSC in the United States." Id.

Frustrated by the lack of candor to the court related to the Macau documents and the MPDPA, the district court issued a sua sponte order for an evidentiary sanctions hearing. Id. Based upon the evidence elicited during that evidentiary hearing, the court made the following findings: (1) the documents were knowingly transferred to Las Vegas Sands in house counsel; (2) the data was on a server at LVSC's property in Las Vegas; (3) in house and outside counsel were aware of the transfer; and (4) "had been concealing the transfer from the district court" and their adversaries.

[2] Note, Sands represented that documents in Macau could not be reviewed, disclosed, or produced. Wynn Resorts never made such a false representation. Wynn Resorts has made it clear that its non-party Macau affiliate's documents were being reviewed for responsiveness and, if responsive, would be produced and/or disclosed in this action subject to the privileges and protections under Macau law, including the MPDPA. Wynn Resorts has proceeded consistently with its representations to this Court and to opposing counsel.

PISANELLI BICE PLLC

Id. The failure to disclose was "repetitive and abusive, deliberate, done in order to stall jurisdictional discovery and led to a multitude of needless hearings" related to the MPDPA, among others. Id. at 877-78. The district court issued a sanctions order that, among other things, "precluded Sands from raising the MPDPA 'as an objection or as a defense to admission, disclosure or production of any documents.'" Id. at 878.

Sands China subsequently produced its documents from Macau but, despite the sanction order, still invoked the MPDPA as a defense and redacted the documents. Id. The plaintiff in that action moved for sanctions under NRCP 37. Id. And, the district court determined that the plaintiff established a prima facie showing that Sands' redactions based upon the MPDPA was a violation of the court's sanction order, which precluded Sands from asserting the MPDPA as a defense during the jurisdictional phase of that case. Id. The district court had not then issued any subsequent sanction, but Sands petitioned the Nevada Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus nonetheless, challenging the district court's authority to preclude the invocation of a foreign privacy statute and, essentially, order a party to violate the foreign privacy laws. Id. In this context, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the district court's authority, and held that Nevada litigants may not use foreign privacy statutes as a shield to excuse their compliance with discovery obligations. Id. at 877.[3]

The stark distinctions between the facts and procedural posture of this case and the Las Vegas Sands action are many:

- Wynn Resorts has been open and upfront about its invocation of the Macau Personal Data Privacy Act to protect (through redactions) personal information in documents that can only be located in and thus must be produced out of Macau; Sands was not.
- Wynn Resorts did not misrepresent to the Court or its adversaries that documents were not in the United States all the while reviewing the documents in the United States; Sands did.
- Wynn Resorts did not get sanctioned for a lack of candor to the Court related to the existence of Macau documents in the United States; Sands did.

[3] Notably, even after the sanctions hearing and orders, Sands continued (and continues) to redact documents based upon the MPDPA.

PISANELLI BICE PLLC
400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

- Wynn Resorts never received a sanction precluding its assertion of the MPDPA; Sands did.

These distinctions are omitted from the Okada Parties' motion for good reason: they are fatal to the motion to compel and the spurious sanctions motion. Instead, the Okada Parties' motion is based on two false premises: (1) the existence of an order that precluded Wynn Resorts from invoking privileges and protections under Macau law; and (2) Wynn Resorts violated that order. Neither is true.

B. This Court's Discovery Order Does Not Preclude Wynn Resorts from Invoking Privileges and Protections Afforded Under Macau Law.

To try to squeeze the facts of this case into the framework of the Las Vegas Sands decision, the Okada Parties manufactured facts; namely, they manufactured the existence of an order that precluded Wynn Resorts from invoking privileges and protections afforded under the laws of Macau (or the United States). There is no such order.

1. The motion practice and order related to the discoverability of the 78 requests; not the ability or right to invoke the MPDPA or other Macau law privileges or protections.

The Okada Parties propounded three rounds of Rule 34 requests for production of documents on Wynn Resorts. Wynn Resorts served its objections to the three sets of requests. For many of the 315 requests then-served by the Okada Parties,[4] Wynn Resorts stated that "subject to and without waiving said objections," it would produce documents responsive to the requests that are not otherwise privileged or protected. (See, e.g., Ex. G to Mot., Request Nos. 76-81.) For other requests, Wynn Resorts stated clearly that it would not produce responsive documents unless and until the Okada Parties demonstrated that the subject matter of the request was reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence or the court issued an order compelling the production. (See, e.g., id., Request Nos. 82, 86, 89, 90.) The parties engaged in various meet

[4] The Okada Parties have served a total of 951 requests for production on the Wynn Parties: 359 requests on Wynn Resorts, 59 requests on each of the 9 director defendants (not including Mr. Wynn and Ms. Wynn), and 61 requests on Ms. Sinatra. (Ex. 1, Decl. of Debra L. Spinelli ("Spinelli Decl.") ¶ 2.)

and confer efforts and, ultimately, as to approximately 78 of the requests to which Wynn Resorts objected and stated it would not produce responsive documents, the Okada Parties moved to compel the production. (See generally Okada Parties' Mot. to Compel, filed April 28, 2015 ("Okada MTC, 4/28/2015"), on file.)

The Okada Parties' motion to compel argued that "the[ ] requests call for documents that are relevant or reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." (Okada MTC, 4/28/2015, 5:8-9.) They argued that they "explain[ed] the relevance of the requests and engaged in a lengthy meet and confer with WRL's counsel. . . ." (Id. at 5:16-17.) They also created a 130-page chart and attached it as Exhibit 36 to their motion that purportedly "[detail[ed] the specific reasons that each request is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." (Id. at 5 n.2; see also Ex. 36 to Okada MTC, 4/28/2015.) The motion articulated the discoverability standard under Nevada law, and discussing their arguments in favor of discoverability.

The record demonstrates an accurate truth: the motion practice, at the trial and appellate court levels, concerned discoverability. The Okada Parties challenged the discoverability and relevance objections to the 78 requests via a motion to compel; the Wynn Parties opposed; and the Court granted the Okada Parties' motion, finding that "[t]he pretext issue that has been raised by the Aruze parties is one that is subject to discovery. While it may not be something that ultimately has any relevance in the – after the motion practice in this case, I'm going to permit discovery on the issue." (Ex. 2, MTC Hr'g Tr. 64, June 4, 2015.) The Order was entered on June 22, 2015. (Ex. 3, Order, dated June 22, 2015 ("June 22 Order").)

Yes, Wynn Resorts sought writ relief from the Supreme Court, arguing that the order constituted a "blanket discovery order," without regard to the subject matter of the various requests. (See generally Wynn Resorts' Writ Petition, dated July 20, 2015, on file.) The Supreme Court denied Wynn Resorts' request for extraordinary relief, stating that Wynn Resorts had not demonstrated an abuse of discretion in deciding the discoverability of the 78 requests. (Ex. 4, Order Denying Petition, dated Nov. 12, 2015.)

PISANELLI BICE PLLC
400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

And, yes, the Wynn Parties moved this Court for relief form its order when it was demonstrated that neither Okada nor Aruze had any information that would come close to establishing a factual predicate for any of his "suspicions" related to the Macau operations. (See generally Wynn Parties' Motion for Relief from Order Granting Aruze Parties; Motion to Compel Supp. Responses to Their Second and Third Requests for Production of Documents to Wynn Resorts, dated Dec. 8, 2015 ("Motion for Relief"), on file.) But, when the Court denied, in part, the Motion for Relief, attorneys travelled to Macau to review documents for responsiveness to the requests that this Court determined were reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. (Ex. 5, Order dated Jan. 13, 2016; Ex. 6, Decl. of Debra L. Spinelli, Esq. in Support of The Wynn Parties' Motion for Additional Time, dated Feb. 1, 2016 ("Spinelli Feb. 2016 Declaration").) Consistent with this Court's orders, Wynn Resorts produced documents from Macau responsive to the 78 requests on February 29, 2016 (WRM00015741-19610) via its Twenty-Sixth Supplemental Disclosure. (Ex. 7, Wynn Parties' 26th Supp. Discl.) Simply, Wynn Resorts complied with this Court's orders.

2. The parties all believed and truthfully represented that any dispute over the MPDPA was "an issue for another day."

The Okada Parties next falsely argue that this Court and the Nevada Supreme Court rejected Wynn Resorts' (and non-party Wynn Macau (Resorts), S.A.'s) right to redact documents based upon the MPDPA or its ability to identify on a privilege log documents responsive to the 78 requests that are privileged or otherwise protected under Macau law. This is not true.

The Okada Parties did argue in their motion to compel that "[t]he Wynn Parties Cannot Withhold Responsive Documents Based on Macau Law," but they argued that the "statutes do not support WRL's wholesale refusal to produce responsive documents." (Okada MTC, 4/28/2015, 15:20-25 (emphasis added).) This was a red herring because Wynn Resorts never took the position that its assertion of the protections for third parties under the MPDPA allowed it to not produce or not disclose responsive documents. Confusing the cases, this was Sands' position in the Las Vegas Sands case upon which the Okada Parties seek to rely. And it was that

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

[mis]representation by Sands and the subsequent reveal that it was untruthful that resulted in a sanction order that precluded Sands from asserting the MPDPA as a defense.

In contrast, Wynn Resorts made clear that its assertion of Macau law – the MPDPA or the gaming related laws – were not a "wholesale refusal to produce" or disclose. Even if the Okada Parties feign ignorance on this point, the record before the Court demonstrates otherwise.

First, Wynn Resorts' opposition to the motion to compel stated clearly that "Wynn Macau's documents are being reviewed for production in this action, and subject to Macau's data privacy laws, will be produced and/or disclosed by Wynn Resorts in this action." (Wynn Resorts, Limited's Opp'n to the Okada Parties' Mot. to Compel Supp. Responses to Their Second and Third Set of Requests for Production, filed on May 19, 2015 ("WRL MTC Opp'n"), at 16 n. 9.) In fact, at the time of the motion practice, attorneys had already travelled to and were then-presently in Macau reviewing and preparing to produce Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.'s documents in response to the Okada Parties' requests that had not been objected to on discoverability or relevance grounds (as opposed to the 78 requests subject to the discoverability motion practice. (Ex. 1, Spinelli Decl. ¶¶ 3-4.)

Second, Wynn Resorts' opposition noted that while "[t]he Okada Parties take issue with the possibility that Wynn Resorts will in the future withhold or redact documents located in Macau in order to comply with Macau's data privacy laws[,] . . . . that is an issue for another day, when there is a concrete dispute about particular documents that Wynn Resorts has withheld or redacted in order to comply with Macau's data privacy laws." (WRL MTC Opp'n, 15:20-21, 16:13-15 (emphasis added).)

Acknowledging their acceptance of this statement and the process, the Okada Parties actually recited it to the Nevada Supreme Court in their Answer to the writ petition: "WRL makes no argument to this [the Supreme] Court about the MPDPA, nor could it because it told the District Court that the MPDPA was 'an issue for another day.'" (Okada Parties' Answer to the Writ Petition, dated Oct. 15, 2015, at 24 n.12, on file.) And, indeed it was since, consistent with all parties' understanding and acknowledgement that Wynn Resorts was not asserting the MPDPA or other Macau law as a "wholesale refusal to produce" responsive documents from Macau, Wynn Resorts produced documents from Macau in response to the un-objected to requests on July 28, 2015 (WRM00000001-8777) in its Eighth Supplemental Disclosures, on August 14, 2015 (WRM000008778-13364) in its Tenth Supplemental Disclosures, and on October 29, 2015 (WRM00013365-15740) in its Fourteenth Supplemental Disclosure.[5] (Ex. 8, Wynn Parties' Eighth Supp. Discl.; Ex. 9, Wynn Parties' Tenth Supp. Discl.; Ex. 10, Wynn Parties' Fourteenth Supp. Discl.; Ex. 1, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 5.) And, as already stated above, when the motion practice related to the discoverability of the 78 requests was complete, documents were reviewed in Macau for responsiveness to the 78 requests, and produced on February 29, 2016 (WRM00015741-19610) via its Twenty-Sixth Supplemental Disclosure. (Ex. 7, Wynn Parties' 26th Supp. Discl.)

3. This Court's discoverability order did not overrule Wynn Resorts (or, more practically, non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.) right to assert Macau-law based privileges and protections.

As the next step in their analysis, the Okada Parties argue that the Court's order precluded Wynn Resorts from asserting any protections or privileges afforded under Macau law. The Court's order did no such thing.

a. This Court's discoverability order expressly permitted Wynn Resorts (or, more practically, non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.) to assert Macau-law based privileges and protections.

First, the Court's June 22, 2015 Order expressly states that "[t]he Wynn Parties shall produce all non-privileged documents responsive to the Aruze Parties' Requests No. . . . " (Ex. 3, June 22 Order.) There were no words in the written order or words stated during the hearing that lend itself to the conclusion that the Okada Parties pray for here. Again, the debated issue was discoverability. In the Supreme Court, the debated issue was discoverability of the 78 different requests that were wrapped up in what Wynn Resorts believed to be an improper blanket discovery order, and the number of different factors that were not discussed and appeared not to have been weighed or [5] Two of the three supplemental Rule 16.1 productions were served before the Okada Parties filed their answer to the writ petition. (Compare Ex. 8 (July 28, 2015), and Ex. 9 (Aug. 14, 2015), with Okada Parties' Answer to the Writ Petition, filed on Oct. 15, 2015.) Thus, when the Okada Parties were focused on the discoverability battle, they were truthful in their statement that the MPDPA being an "issue for another day." Their strategy apparently shifted, and so, too, has the candor of their representations.

analyzed by the district court. And, with respect to Wynn Resorts' motion for relief that came after the Okada and Aruze depositions where it was clear there was no factual predicate for the requests, the Macau laws and protections were discussed only in the context of shifting the burden and proportionality of costs, e.g., burden associated with redacting documents under the MPDPA, burden associated with disclosing on a privilege log documents and/or communications afforded privileges or under Macau law or by contracts to which non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A., is bound. As a final point on this issue, the Court's January 13, 2016 order also expressly states that "[t]he Wynn Parties shall produce all non-privileged documents responsive to the Requests for Production at issue in the Motion no later than February 5, 2016." (Ex. 5 (emphasis added).)

b. The Court never was presented with nor considered the assertion of the MPDPA or Macau law privilege and protections.

Second, the Court was never presented with, considered, weighed, or determined that Wynn Resorts (or, more practically, Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.) had to breach the concession contract with the Macau government or violate a Macau statute related to the concession granted by the Macau government.

In fact, during the hearing on Wynn Resorts' motion for relief, when the Court directed the Okada Parties to narrow their incredibly broad and burdensome requests related to Wynn Resorts' (as opposed to non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.) gaming/compliance-related investigations because of the "significant privilege issues that relate to that with both gaming privileges, as well as personal information of third parties that may be included in those documents," the Okada Parties' counsel was quick to point out that "the Compliance Committee of Wynn Resorts[,] Limited is not bound by the MPDPA . . . ." (Ex. 11, Hr'g Tr. 12/22/2015, at 26.) This is an acknowledgement of at least two things: (1) there is an entity bound by the MPDPA (and thus it needs to be considered); and (2) this Court recognized the parties' desire and intent (a) to protect third parties' personal data (whether under Nevada or Macau law) through redactions, and (b) to assert and protect their gaming related privileges and protections (whether under Nevada or Macau law). The propriety or challenge to any assertion or redaction was, in other words, "an issue for another day."

PISANELLI BICE PLLC
400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

Simply, the Orders expressly provides that "[t]he Wynn Parties shall produce all non-privileged documents responsive to . . . " the Okada Parties' 78 Requests for Production that were then at issue. (Ex. 2, June 22 Order (emphasis added); Ex. 5, Jan. 13, 2016 Order (emphasis added).) Wynn Resorts complied with those orders via its production via its Twenty-Sixth Supplemental Disclosure (and index) on February 29, 2016, its Amended and Superseding Disclosure (and index) of [All WRMSA] Documents on March 11, 2016, and its Fourteenth Supplemental Privilege Log (WRM Documents) on March 14, 2016. (Ex. 7; Ex. K to Mot.; Ex. N to Mot.)

4. The Okada Parties never before claimed a violation of an order.

The Okada Parties' basic premise – that Wynn Resorts' redactions based upon the MPDPA and its assertion of gaming-related privileges afforded under Macau law violated a discovery order of this Court -- is a newly formed argument. It was never mentioned in any correspondence or meet and confer where the MPDPA redactions were discussed and debated.[6] (See, e.g., Ex. 12, Dec. 28, 2015 Ltr. from D. Krakoff (objecting to the MPDPA redactions as a defense to discovery obligations); Ex. 13, Jan. 12, 2016 Ltr. from D. Spinelli (responding and pointing out the absence of an order precluding the use of the MPDPA); Ex. 14, Feb. 1, 2016 Ltr. from B. Kunimoto (challenging the MPDPA redactions and misconstruing the Las Vegas Sands decision as "rul[ing] that foreign privacy laws cannot serve as a basis to withhold or redact documents"); Ex. A to Mot., Kunimoto Decl. (describing the meet and confer discussions and not once referencing an argument that the MPDPA redactions constituted a violation of an order).)

All the while these MPDPA discussions were being had, the parties were also discussing Wynn Resorts' request for more time to review and produce documents responsive to the 78 requests. The discussions concerned the additional time associated with the Macau review because, among other things, the MPDPA redactions, and the nuances of the training and review to account for the many privileges and protections afforded in this case. (See Wynn Parties' Motion for Additional Time for Production of Documents, filed on Feb. 2, 2016, 6:10-13, on file; see also

[6] None of these exchanges were attached to the Okada Parties' motion, which is telling as to their tactics.

PISANELLI BICE PLLC
400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

Ex. 6, Spinelli Feb. 2016 Declaration ¶ 6.) The Okada Parties never stated or argued that the time was not necessary because the Court overruled the assertion of those privileges and protections. (See generally Opp'n to the Wynn Parties' Motion for Additional Time for the Production of Documents, filed on Feb. 3, 2016; see also Ex. 1, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 6.) With good reason: no one believed that to be the case because it was not true.

Rather, during the meet and confers on the MPDPA, the Okada Parties were confronted with the legitimate bases for Wynn Resorts' redactions and the great efforts of Wynn Resorts and non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A. to search for and produce documents responsive to the 78 requests in compliance with Macau law. (See Ex. 1, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 7. See generally Ex. 6, Spinelli Feb. 2016 Declaration.) So, the Okada Parties had to change course to come up with some other way to challenge the MPDPA redactions and the assertions of Macau law privileges/protections. They apparently decided that the commonality between the two cases – the existence of documents in Macau in the possession of a Macau operator – was sufficient to squeeze this case into the framework of the Las Vegas Sands decision. With all due respect, the commonality ends with Macau. As discussed above, the differences between Wynn Resorts' candor and actions in this case related to the review and production of documents of its non-party Macau affiliate and the lack of candor and conduct of Las Vegas Sands and Sands China (its Macau affiliate and a named party in that action), are many and dispositive. The facts of this case simply cannot be squeezed into the Las Vegas Sands analysis.

C. There is No Basis for Sanctions to Issue Against Wynn Resorts Related to the Assertion of the MPDPA and Macau Law Privileges and Protections.

1. Sanctions require a violated order and, as discussed above, there was no order, and thus no violation.

For the Court to entertain the portion of the Okada Parties' Motion requesting that sanctions issue against Wynn Resorts, the Okada Parties must first establish that there was an order that Wynn Resorts violated. For all of the reasons stated above, the Okada Parties have not demonstrated that there was an order that precluded Wynn Resorts from asserting its privileges and protections afforded under Macau law, including the MPDPA, Macau Law 16/2001 Section 1,

PISANELLI BICE PLLC
400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

Article 16, and/or Clause 92 of its Concession Contract with the Macau government, which is governed by Macau law. Because there is no such order, there can be no violation of any such order. And because there is no violation of any order, there can be no sanctions.

2. If the Court believes an order has been violated related to MPDPA redactions applied to non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.'s documents, the Court must hold a sanction hearing.

In spite of the above, if this Court believes that the MPDPA redactions over non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.'s documents are violative of an issued order, then Las Vegas Sands requires an evidentiary hearing to weigh all of the various factors to determine what, if any, sanctions should issue. The issue never having been briefed to this Court in this case, there are many efforts that Wynn Resorts and Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A. took to review and produce WRMSA's responsive documents and, at the same time, comport with Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A.'s legal and contractual obligations in Macau. This includes multiple communications with the Office of Personal Data Privacy ("OPDP"), the process of obtaining consents,[7] searching for documents in the United States that may be all, or in part, duplicative of documents in Macau,[8] applying redactions to documents that could only be located in Macau,[9] making sure that redaction

[7] WRMSA ultimately obtained 68 consents under the MPDPA for this action, and the related state and federal derivative actions, many of which are from individuals who most frequently appear on the responsive documents. (Ex. 1, Spinelli Decl. ¶ 8.) Counsel for the Okada Parties refused to provide consent. (Ex. 15, June 17, 2015 email from S. Peek to D. Spinelli.)

[8] Although computers and ESI make this process de-duplication process much easier, it is not perfect. Therefore, to the extent all or part of WRMSA documents are found in the United States, Wynn Resorts will produce the documents in unredacted form in the United States. For example, there is no MD5 hash tag duplicate for one of the emails strings in Exhibit H to the Okada Parties' current motion (WRM00007428-29). But a portion of that string was located in the United States and thus that portion will be produced without MPDPA redactions in the next supplemental NRCP 16.1 production on May 2.

[9] The Okada Parties misconstrue the obligations of non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau) S.A., under the MPDPA. The issue under the MPDPA is who is producing the document and from where. If the document is a WRMSA document being produced out of Macau, then the MPDPA redactions must be applied. When Wynn Resorts could identify a U.S. duplicate, a U.S. custodian or a U.S. recipient, Wynn Resorts located and produced that document from the United States without the MPDPA redactions. However, if Wynn Resorts could not locate that document in the United States, then WRMSA had to produce its responsive document from Macau and, therefore, that document was produced with MPDPA redactions. That is why the first two emails strings in Exhibit H to the Motion, WRM00008868-69 and WRM00000821-823, were produced in redacted form by WRMSA from Macau. Although the email strings identify a U.S. recipient, Wynn Resorts could not locate these documents in the United States to produce without redaction.

logs and privilege logs identified as much information as possible without revealing any personal information protected under the MPDPA (e.g., replacing the name of a WRMSA employee who had not given consent by stating not only "WRMSA employee" but also the department in which they worked so the subject matter and the context of the document was still clear), and doing the same for the privilege logs.

The sanction hearing analysis will also consider the (flawed) argument that Wynn Resorts is asserting the MPDPA as a sword and a shield. It is not true. As stated in the record in this action, Wynn Resorts "never intentionally violated Macau's data privacy laws . . . ." (Opp'n to MTC, 16 n. 10.) In the course of the Freeh Group's investigation related to the Okada Parties, members of the Freeh team did travel to Macau to interview Wynn Macau employees.[10] During the investigation, the Freeh Group was provided with documents that contained personal data, and those documents were transmitted outside of Macau. When the Freeh Report became a public document, the Macau government commenced an investigation, and the Macau Office of Data Privacy subsequently determined that the transfer of documents outside of Macau constituted a violation of the MPDPA.[11] Related to this transfer, in May 2013, Wynn Macau Ltd. was fined by the Macau OPDP for unauthorized transfer of personal data to its parent company, Wynn Resorts.[12]

The Okada Parties cite to Wardleigh v. Second Judicial District Court, 111 Nev. 345, 355, 891 P.2d 1180, 1186 (1995), to try to make an analogy to the prohibition of using privilege assertions as both a sword and shield accusation. The Wardleigh decision concerns subject matter

[10] This is not a violation of the MPDPA nor is it a violation of any other protection afforded under Macau law invoked by Wynn Resorts in this case.

[11] It appears from Chertoff documents that the Okada Parties produced following a sanction order that the Okada Parties believe that the provision of documents to Freeh for his investigation constituted a violation of the MPDPA. As discussed below, WRMSA was fined by the Macau OPDP for this act (though the name of the complainant is confidential), and Wynn Resorts has produced the subject documents in this action without MPDPA redactions. But, as to other WRMSA documents located in Macau only, the Okada Parties cannot be permitted to move to compel WRMSA in Nevada courts to violate a foreign statute and then seek to have WRMSA fined by the Macau OPDP just for fun.

waiver of a privilege and provides that "where a party injects part of a communication as evidence, fairness demands that the opposing party be allowed to examine the whole picture." Id., cited in the Okada Parties' Motion, 9:25-28. The analogy fails here for a multitude of reasons.

First, and an important fact tellingly omitted from the Motion, Wynn Resorts produced, in unredacted form, the WRMSA documents that Freeh was provided for his investigation, and that were the subject of the OPDP fine. (See, e.g., Ex. D and G to Mot.) The Okada Parties either have these documents in unredacted form, or they are subject to a privilege claim and have been identified on a privilege log (with no personal data redacted or substituted). Therefore, there is no partial redaction of these documents so that Wynn Resorts may use them as a sword, but then redact part or all of another document provided to Freeh such that the MPDPA is being used as a shield. The Okada Parties have the "whole picture" as it relates to the documents provided to Freeh (subject to privilege claims). Neither fairness nor the law dictates anything more.

Second, assuming a "subject matter waiver" would apply to statutorily-mandated confidentiality redactions in the same manner it does in a privilege context, the multitude of subject matters that fall within the subject 78 requests are not the same as the subject of the documents provided to Freeh. As an example, Freeh did not investigate the sale of the gaming subconcession, or the acquisition of the Cotai land, or the tender process for the original gaming license in Macau. There, thus, is not and cannot be a "subject matter waiver" of all of the various different subject matters that neither Wynn Resorts nor WRMSA brought into this case.

In any event, should a sanction hearing ever come about, the circumstances regarding the fine by the OPDP and the production of the same documents to the Okada Parties will be discussed, assessed and balanced by the Court. The issue, however, is not ripe.

E. The Privileges and Protections Afforded Under Macau Law Require a Different Analysis than Las Vegas Sands.

As discussed above, the Macau law related to concessionaires and the concession contract were never considered by this Court. It warrants attention here.

1. Macau law related to concessionaires and the concession contract mandate confidentiality and prohibit disclosure from third parties.

The Macau government created a statutory framework regulating its gaming concessionaires and their affiliates. Macanese law also provides for confidentiality of documents and data related to the regulatory entities' role, duties, and authority. Specifically, Macanese Law 16/2001 establishes the legal framework for the operation of games of chance in casinos. Article 16 of Law 16/2001 (unofficially) translates as follows:

> The bidding processes, the documents and data included therein, as well as all documents and data relating to the tender, are confidential and access to or consultation of such documents by third parties is prohibited, and for this purpose the provisions of article 63 to 67 and 93 to 98 of the Codigo de Procedimento Administrativo ("Code of Administrative Proceedings"), approved by Decree-Law no. 57/99/M of October 11 are not applicable.

Macau Law 16/2001, Art. 16 (emphasis added).

This prohibition in Macau law related to gaming concessions is buttressed by the language of the concession agreement itself. Clause 92 of the concession agreement provides additional confidentiality protections to concessionaires beyond the bidding and tender process. The clause breaks down into three parts, which (unofficially) translate as follows:

> 1. The documents produced by the Government or by the concessionaire, in keeping with the conditions of law or the present concession contract, have a confidential character, and can only be made available to third parties with the authorization of the other Party.
> 2. The Government and the concessionaire take all the necessary steps to ensure that, respectively, the workers of the Public Administration of the Macau Special Administrative Region, and the workers of the concessionaire are bound by the duty of secrecy.
> 3. The Government and the concessionaire undertake to enforce the duty of secrecy on other persons who have had or who might have access to confidential documents, namely through consulting services and other contracts.

(Ex. 16, Concession Contract for the Operation of Games of Chance or Other Games in Casinos in the Macau Special Administrative Region, Clause 92.)

Similar to the Nevada Legislature empowering the Nevada gaming regulatory authorities to enact gaming regulations, the Macanese gaming regulatory arm, the Dirrecção de Inspecção e

PISANELLI BICE PLLC

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

Coordenação de Jogos ("DICJ"), enacted what it calls instructions. Article 8 of DICJ's Instruction 1/2014 provides for the confidentiality of personal information gathered by gaming concessionaires and sub-concessionaires.[13] Article 8 of DICJ Instruction 1/2014 (unofficially) translates as follows:

> Without prejudice to the legal framework for the protection of personal data set forth in Law 8/2005, the personal data collected by the gaming concessionaires and sub-concessionaires is subject to the confidentiality regimen set out in the legal framework governing the concession of the exploration of games of chance in a casino which includes law 16/2001, Administrative Regulation 6/2002 as revised and re-published by Administrative Regulation 27/2009, Law 5/2004, and Law 10/2012, as well as the respective gaming concession and sub-concession agreements, with any transfer of personal data being prohibited without the prior authorization of the competent public entities.

DICJ Instruction 1/2014, Article 8 (emphasis added).

Pursuant to these laws and contract, documents related to the bidding process, tender, and concession are confidential, and third parties are prohibited from access to or consultation of those documents. On this basis, non-public communications with the Macau government related to the tender or concessions have been redacted or, on occasion, withheld. If the document was available publicly (or through some means unknown to Wynn Resorts (Macau), Wynn Resorts produced the document.

There is no impropriety in these redactions or privilege assertions. There is no basis to overrule these Macau-law based protections. The Okada Parties were provided the responsive documents, redactions were properly made, and proper logs produced with all of the necessary information disclosed. And the Okada Parties have failed to argue why these privileges and protections afforded non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A. should be disregarded in this action.[14] [13] This instruction is specific to the Macau gaming concessionaires and sub-concessionaires, and is distinct from the Macau Personal Data Privacy Act which this Court addressed in Las Vegas Sands v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331, P.3d 876 (2014).

[14] If the Court overrules WRMSA's Macau-law privileges and protections (not including the MPDPA), and orders the disclosure of "assertedly privileged information," non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A. and/or Wynn Resorts will have "no plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law" other than by seeking writ relief because absent such relief the information "would irretrievably lose its confidential and privileged quality." Wardleigh v. Second Jud. Dist. Court In & For County of Washoe, 111 Nev. 345, 350-51, 891 P.2d 1180, 1183-84 (1995). A party must seek a stay of an order from the district court before seeking a stay from the Nevada Supreme Court pending resolution of a writ petition, NRAP 8(a)(1); see also Hansen v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Court

400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

2. The differences between the MPDPA and the other Macau privileges is significant here.

Las Vegas Sands concerned foreign privacy statutes; specifically the MPDPA. If this Court orders or believes it has ordered Wynn Resorts and/or WRMSA to produce documents without MPDPA redactions, the Las Vegas Sands decision requires an evidentiary hearing to balance the various and competing factors. However, the Las Vegas Sands decision did not concern foreign law privileges and protections under than more generic privacy statutes. Therefore, a sanction hearing where competing factors are weighed and balanced is not the appropriate next step.

Thus, and to the extent that the Okada Parties (and this Court) believe the previous order precluded the assertion of the Macau law privileges and protections (separate and apart from the MPDPA), Wynn Resorts seeks clarity and then a stay to allow it time to petition the Supreme Court for writ relief.

IV. CONCLUSION

In light of the foregoing, Wynn Resorts respectfully requests that the Okada Parties' Motion to Compel and for Sanctions should be denied in its entirety.

PISANELLI BICE PLLC

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on June 3, 2016, Plaintiff/ Counterdefendant Wynn Resorts, Limited ("Wynn Resorts" or the "Company") and Counterdefendants Linda Chen, Russell Goldsmith, Ray R. Irani, Robert J. Miller, John A. Moran, Marc D. Schorr, Alvin V. Shoemaker, Kimmarie Sinatra, D. Boone Wayson, and Allan Zeman (collectively, the "Wynn Parties"), submitted documents for in camera review, as directed by this Court during the hearings on May 3, 2016 and May 5, 2016 in the above-captioned matter.

On May 13, 2016, the Okada Parties provided an Excel spreadsheet of all documents they believe fell within the Court's directive. Upon request, on May 16, the Okada Parties provided an updated spreadsheet that differentiated between the MPDPA documents and the Macau law documents. (Exhibit 1.) As explained in more detail below, the Wynn Parties believe the Okada Parties' index is broader in scope than the Court's directive.

I. MACAU PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY ACT ("MPDPA")

Wynn Resorts produced in this action approximately 2,181 documents that were in the possession of non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau) S.A. ("WRMSA"). Because they are WRMSA documents, WRMSA is bound by the MPDPA. And because WRMSA's documents were reviewed and produced out of Macau, they contained redactions based upon the MPDPA, unless a written consent was provided.[1]

Wynn Resorts searched for ESI duplicates (e.g., same MD5 hash) that appeared in both the United States and Macau databases before the Macau review commenced, and de-duplicated the documents. Therefore, any exact duplicate that appeared in both the United States and Macau was reviewed and (if responsive) produced out of the United States only.

Content duplicates are more difficult to locate because it must be manually done. Since the Court's directive, Wynn Resorts did a deliberate search for content-duplicates (as opposed to ESI duplicates) for all or part of each WRMSA document produced in this action. The Wynn Parties will provide a chart that will cross-reference near duplicates, in all or part, produced out of the United States, However, during this process, the Wynn Parties located some near-content-duplicates that had not been produced out of the United States. The Wynn Parties are preparing these documents for a supplemental production by June 10, 2016, and will provide all documents and their full or part content duplicates in camera to the Court on the same date.[2] For the Court's in camera review, the Wynn Parties will provide the Court a series of binders of each WRMSA document. To the extent there is a full or partial unredacted content-duplicate produced out of the United States, it will appear in the binders following the WRMSA document.

[1] WRMSA ultimately obtained 68 consents under the MPDPA for this action, and the related state and federal derivative actions, many of which are from individuals who most frequently appear on the responsive documents. (Wynn Resorts, Limited's Opposition To The Aruze Parties' Motion To Compel Production Of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Improperly Redacted Documents, And Motion For Sanctions And Attorneys' Fees, filed on May 2, 2016, p. 13, n.7; Ex. 1 thereto Spinelli Decl. ¶ 8.) Counsel for the Okada Parties refused to provide consent. (Id. at Ex. 15.)

II. MACAU LAW PRIVILEGES/PROTECTIONS RELATED TO CONCESSIONAIRES.

This Court also directed Wynn Resorts to submit for in camera review documents withheld or redacted on the basis of Macau law only,[3] to the extent they exist in the United States.[4] The Macau law-based privileges and protections are explained in Wynn Resorts, Limited's Opposition to the Aruze Parties' Motion to Compel Production of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Improperly Redacted Documents, and Motion for Sanctions and Attorneys' Fees, which is incorporated herein. They include Macau Law 16/2001, Art. 16, Clause 92 of the Concession Contract for the Operation of Games of Chance or Other Games in Casinos in the Macau Special Administrative Region, and DICJ Instruction 1/2014, Article 8. The Okada Parties' index of documents withheld based on Macau law privilege is part of Exhibit 1 hereto.

A. Redacted Documents.

1. WRMSA documents – There are approximately 14 WRMSA document families REDACTED on the basis of Macau law only.[5] These documents are in the United States, after being reviewed and redacted based upon the MPDPA. The Wynn Parties' privilege log excerpts for these documents is attached hereto as Exhibit 2, and the documents are being submitted in camera for the Court's review. The Macau law redactions are transparent so that the Court can see through them. The MPDPA redactions are not transparent and the Court cannot review through or behind those redactions. (The documents with the MPDPA redactions are addressed separately in the MPDPA section above, and related though a separate and forthcoming in camera submission.)

2. Wynn Resorts documents – There are approximately 9 document families located in the United States REDACTED based upon Macau law only. The Wynn Parties' privilege log excerpts for these documents is attached hereto as Exhibit 3, and the documents are being submitted in camera for the Court's review.

B. Withheld documents

1. Wynn Resorts documents – The Okada Parties identified 52 Wynn Resorts document families WITHHELD on the basis of Macau law only (though 6 have been released

[5] The Okada Parties' index includes documents for which privileges and protections other than and/or in addition to the Macau law protections have been asserted. This is inconsistent with the Court's directive.

During the May 5, 2016 hearing, Wynn Parties' counsel stated that there were 19 documents in the United States with Macau law only redactions. Counsel misspoke. There are 14 documents in the United States redacted for Macau law only, and an additional 5 documents in the United States that have been redacted on the basis of Macau law AND other privileges/protections. Counsel corrected herself on the next page of the transcript. We understand the latter 5 documents were not part of the Court's desired in camera review. (See, e.g., May 3, 2016 Hr'g Tr. 35 ("THE COURT: I am not looking at documents that are otherwise claimed for privilege, only those documents for which Macau law privilege has been claimed."); see also id. 37 ("THE COURT: [H]ow many of the documents that have not been produced are Macau privilege withheld only, not attorney-client, attorney work product?").)

during our privilege log QC process).[6] The Wynn Parties' privilege log excerpts for these documents is attached hereto as Exhibit 4. Because these are Wynn Resorts documents, they are located in the United States and are being submitted in camera for the Court's review.

2. WRMSA documents – There are approximately 67 WRMSA document families WITHHELD on the basis of Macau law protections only. These documents are located in Macau, and cannot be taken from Macau unless and until they are reviewed and redacted based upon the MPDPA.

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED, a Nevada Corporation, Plaintiff, vs. KAZUO OKADA, an individual, ARUZE USA, INC., a Nevada corporation, and UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORP., a Japanese corporation, Defendants. AND ALL RELATED CLAIMS	Case No.: A-12-656710-B Dept. No.: XI SECOND NOTICE OF SUBMISSION OF MATERIALS FOR IN CAMERA REVIEW REGARDING (1) MACAU PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY ACT; AND (2) MACAU LAW PROTECTIONS RELATED TO CONCESSIONAIRES

PISANELLI BICE PLLC
400 SOUTH 7TH STREET, SUITE 300
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on June 10, 2016, Plaintiff/ Counterdefendant Wynn Resorts, Limited ("Wynn Resorts" or the "Company") and Counterdefendants Linda Chen, Russell Goldsmith, Ray R. Irani, Robert J. Miller, John A. Moran, Marc D. Schorr, Alvin V. Shoemaker, Kimmarie Sinatra, D. Boone Wayson, and Allan Zeman (collectively, the "Wynn Parties"), submitted additional documents for in camera review, as directed by this Court during the hearings on May 3, 2016 and May 5, 2016 in the above-captioned matter.

On May 13, 2016, the Okada Parties provided an Excel spreadsheet of all documents they believe fell within the Court's directive. Upon request, on May 16, the Okada Parties provided an updated spreadsheet that differentiated between the MPDPA documents and the Macau law documents. On June 3, 2016, the Wynn Parties provided the Court for in camera review the documents that have been withheld or redacted on the basis of Macau law only, to the extent they exist in the United States. And now, on June 10, 2016, the Wynn Parties have provided the Court for in camera review documents related to the Macau Personal Data Privacy Act (the "MPDPA").

Wynn Resorts produced in this action approximately 2,181 documents that were in the possession of non-party Wynn Resorts (Macau) S.A. ("WRMSA"). Because they are WRMSA documents, WRMSA is bound by the MPDPA. And because WRMSA's documents were reviewed and produced out of Macau, they contained redactions based upon the MPDPA, unless a written consent was provided.[1]

Wynn Resorts searched for ESI duplicates (e.g., same MD5 hash) that appeared in both the United States and Macau databases before the Macau review commenced, and de-duplicated the documents. Therefore, any exact duplicate that appeared in both the United States and Macau was reviewed and (if responsive) produced out of the United States only.

[1] WRMSA ultimately obtained 68 consents under the MPDPA for this action, and the related state and federal derivative actions, many of which are from individuals who most frequently appear on the responsive documents. (Wynn Resorts, Limited's Opposition To The Aruze Parties' Motion To Compel Production Of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Improperly Redacted Documents, And Motion For Sanctions And Attorneys' Fees, filed on May 2, 2016, p. 13, n.7; Ex. 1 thereto Spinelli Decl. ¶ 8.) Counsel for the Okada Parties refused to provide consent. (Id. at Ex. 15.)

Content duplicates are more difficult to locate because it must be manually done. Since the Court's directive, Wynn Resorts searched for content-duplicates (as opposed to ESI duplicates) for all or part of each WRMSA document produced in this action. The Wynn Parties completed a search for content-duplicates in the United States, and identified documents that had already been produced and located some near-content-duplicates that had not been produced out of the United States.[2]

With this Notice, the Wynn Parties provided to the Court for in camera review a series of binders containing each WRMSA document produced in this action. Where there is a full or partial content-duplicate document produced out of the United States without MPDPA redactions, that unredacted (for MPDPA) document appears in the binders immediately following the redacted WRMSA document.[3] All documents are Bates numbered.

Per the Court's directive, the Wynn Parties also provided a chart that cross-references content-duplicates and near content-duplicates produced out of the United States. (Exhibit 1.) This chart identifies individual members of a document family, and for each member of the document family, whether a duplicate was produced from the United States, a near match was produced from the United States, that no duplicate or near match was located in the United States, or the WRMSA had no MPDPA redaction in the first instance.

[2] To ensure a timely production of all documents to the Court today, Friday, June 10, a supplemental disclosure and production will be served on the parties on Monday, June 13, 2016.

[3] To the extent the United States version was produced as a native document without redactions, the binders will include a slip sheet identifying that the document was produced in native format. The Okada Parties were provided the native version at the time of service. If necessary, the Wynn Parties can provide the Court with the native version.

A summary of the search results is as follows:

- 137 documents have been produced in full, unredacted form by Wynn Resorts because they existed in the United States;
- 586 documents have a partial United States, unredacted counterpart produced by Wynn Resorts because they existed in the United States;
- 2140 documents have no content-duplicate that could be located in the United States; and
- 109 documents have no MPDPA redactions.[4]

[4] In compliance with the Protocol Governing Production of Electronically Stored Information, entered on December 1, 2014, the Wynn Parties code all document families consistently. Therefore, if one member of a document family contains personal data subject to redaction pursuant to the MPDPA, the entire document family is coded as having MPDPA redactions. For the purpose of this in camera exercise, Exhibit 2 identifies individual documents in a family that do not have MPDPA redactions.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101

Finally, during the content duplicate review process, the Wynn Parties identified documents currently withheld for attorney-client or accountant-client privilege that contain some duplicate content to that in the WRMSA documents. The Wynn Parties intend to complete this more nuanced review (and apply any necessary privilege redactions) in short order, with a target date of two weeks from the date of this submission, or June 24, 2016.

DATED this 10th day of June, 2016.

Plaintiffs Wynn Resorts, Limited ("WRL") and Defendants Kazuo Okada, Aruze USA, Inc., and Universal Entertainment Corp. (the "Aruze Parties" and, together with WRL, the "Parties"), by and through their undersigned counsel of record, respectfully submit this Joint Status Report to the Court regarding the Court's recent question about the waiver of the Macau Personal Data Protection Act ("MPDPA") in this case.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Aruze Parties filed a Motion to Compel Production of Wynn Resorts, Limited's Improperly Redacted Documents and Motion for Sanctions and Attorneys' Fees ("Motion to Compel") on April 15, 2016. WRL filed its Opposition to the Motion to Compel on May 2, 2016. At the hearing, held on May 3, 2016, the Court stated that it had yet to make a "wholesale ruling" about whether WRL could rely on the MPDPA. Hr'g Tr. (May 3, 2016), at 13-14. The Court believed it needed "to do a document-by-document or at least category-by-category analysis" and ordered that WRL submit the subject documents for in camera review. Id. at 26. Wynn Resorts submitted the ordered materials related to the MPDPA for the Court's in camera review on June 10, 2016. Second Notice of Submission, filed on June 10, 2016.

Later and during a conference call on June 17, 2016, the Court asked the parties whether waiver of the protection of the MPDPA could apply to the Aruze Parties and/or its employees under a theory similar to that which the Court invoked in Jacobs v. Las Vegas Sands Corp., et al. (A-10-627691-C). See Tel. Conf. Tr. (June 17, 2016), at 16:15-20. The Court later explained that it had ceased the in camera review pending resolution of its question regarding waiver. Tel. Conf. Tr. (July 7, 2016), at 9-10.

II. WAIVER DOES NOT APPLY IN THIS CASE

Counsel for the Parties have conferred multiple times about the Court's question. The Parties are in agreement that there is no waiver in this case because a corporate entity cannot waive its employee's MPDPA rights. Consequently, the filing of counterclaims by Aruze USA and Universal Entertainment Corp. did not create a waiver of any MPDPA rights held by Mr. Okada or any other individual(s) employed by Aruze USA or Universal. And unlike Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Okada himself did not file any counterclaims, so he did not waive his own rights under the MPDPA.

III. SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING SCHEDULE

The Parties further agree and request that they provide additional briefs relating to the Motion to Compel to address, among other things, additional issues raised by the Court's question. The Parties will present the Court with a proposed Order containing a briefing schedule as soon as possible.
