EX-99.2 3 rdi-20180223xex99_2.htm EX-99.2

CHARTER OF THE SPECIAL INDEPENDENT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.

I. PURPOSE

This Special Committee (the "Committee") is formed for the purpose set forth below with respect to the following background:

Up until his death on September 13, 2014, James J. Cotter, Sr., the father of Ellen Cotter, James J. Cotter, Jr. and Margaret Cotter, was the controlling stockholder of Reading International, Inc. ("Reading" or the "Company"), having the sole power to vote approximately 66.9% of the outstanding Class B Voting Stock ("Voting Stock") of the Company.

Since James Cotter, Sr.'s death, disputes have arisen among Ellen Cotter, James J. Cotter, Jr. and Margaret Cotter (collectively, the "Cotter Siblings') and between James J. Cotter, Jr. and the Company, including, among other things:

(A) The voting control of the Voting Stock owned by Mr. Cotter, Sr. and certain matters related thereto, which became part of the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. Deceased (the "Cotter Estate"), are currently being probated in the District Court of Clark County, Nevada (the "Cotter Estate Probate").

(B) Various matters regarding the living trust (the "Cotter Trust) and a voting trust to be created to hold the Class B Voting Stock held by the Cotter Trust (the "Voting Trust" and the "Trust Voting Shares", respectively) created by Mr. Cotter, Sr. which matters are being litigated in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles (the "California Superior Court"), captioned In re James J. Cotter Living Trust dated August 1, 2000 (Case No. BP159755) (the "Trust Case"), including, but not limited to, an Ex Parte Petition for Appointment of a trustee ad litem and of a guardian ad litem for the benefit of Cotter, Sr.'s, minor grandchildren (two of whom are the children of Margaret Cotter and three of whom are the children of James Cotter, Jr., and who are referred to herein as the "Cotter Grandchildren") (collectively, the "Trust Case").

(C) Mr. Cotter, Jr. filed a lawsuit entitled "James J. Cotter, Jr., individually and derivatively on behalf of Reading International, Inc. vs. Margaret Cotter, et al." Case No,: A-15-719860-V, Dept. XI, against our Company and each of the Company's then sitting Directors (Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Guy Adams, William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, and Tim Storey) in the Eighth Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada for Clark County (the "Nevada District Court"). Subsequently, Mr. Cotter Jr. added additional claims and also added as defendants Directors Judy Codding and Michael Wrotniak (the "Derivative Case"). Consequently, all of the current Directors, other than Mr. Cotter, Jr., are currently defendants in the Derivative Case. The requested relief include reinstatement of Mr. Cotter, Jr. as CEO of the Company.

(D) An arbitration matter with Mr. Cotter, Jr. (Reading International, Inc. v. James J. Cotter, AAA Case No. 01-15-0004-2384, filed July 2015)(the "Cotter Jr. Employment Arbitration").

Docket 75053 Document 2019-36554

(E) While the Company is presently unaware of any others, it is possible that other litigation, alternative dispute resolution proceedings or other proceedings may be brought in the future by any of the above referenced parties, by third parties or by the Company directly or indirectly related to the foregoing matters, including, but not limited to, claims related to Cotter family matters, Cotter Estate Probate or the Trust Case that directly or indirectly impact the Company (collectively "Future Proceedings").

Collectively, all matters described in paragraphs A through E above, including, but not limited to, the Cotter Estate Probate, the Trust Case, the Derivative Case, the Cotter Jr. Employment Arbitration, Employment Direct Action, and the Future Proceedings, are referred to herein as "Cotter Related Proceedings").

Mr. Cotter, Jr., is also seeking to have all of the Class B voting stock currently owned by the Cotter Trust (and which may upon the rollover of the Cotter Estate into the Cotter Trust, be owned in the future by the Cotter Trust) sold to the highest bidder in a public or similar auction sale process ("Trust Share Sale Process") in which Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter would be prohibited from participating. If Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter are permitted to participate in as potential buyers, Mr. Cotter, Jr., has stated to the Court his desire to likewise be permitted to participate as a potential buyer. The public auction proposed by Mr. Cotter, Jr., could result in a change of control of the Company (the "Potential Change of Control Transaction"). Due to the fact that the Voting Stock held by the Trust and the Estate represents less than 5%[1] of the outstanding equity of the Company, there is a risk that the interest of the person or group acquiring such a controlling block would not be consistent with the long term business strategy adopted by the Company's Board or would otherwise be inconsistent with the interests of holders of Class A Common Stock or other holders of Class B Common Stock. The Board had previously determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for the Company to pursue its long term business strategy as an independent company. Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and/or an entity in which they have a controlling interest may be involved in a Trust Share Sale Process as a potential purchaser of such shares, and have advised the Board that they intend to continue with the implementation of the business strategy adopted by the Board. Mr. Cotter, Jr., voted against the approval of that business strategy. The Board has an interest in the preservation of and execution on its business strategy. Bidders in the Trust Share Sale Process or any Potential Change of Control Transaction may seek the involvement of the Company in connection with due diligence or other aspects of such a Potential Change of Control Transaction.

Because of the material impact of the Cotter Related Proceedings and the Potential Change of Control Transaction on the Company, the Board, acting through the Executive Committee, has determined that it is in the best interests of the Company and the stockholders to delegate consideration of matters related to the Cotter Related Proceedings, the Trust Share Sale Process and the Potential Change of Control Transaction.,(collectively, the "Purpose").

The Committee has the authority to retain its own financial, legal and other advisors, consultants and experts in connection with the Purpose. The Company will pay or reimburse all reasonable costs, fees and expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Committee, including out-of-pocket expenses of members of the Committee, and the reasonable costs, fees and

[1] Based on 696,080 shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Voting Trust, 427,808 shares of Class B Common Stock held by the Estate, and 21,497,717 shares of Class A Common Stock and 1,680,590 shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding on December 31, 2016.

expenses of the Committee's financial, legal and other advisors, consultants and experts, if any.

The Committee will fulfill its purpose by carrying out the responsibilities and duties enumerated in Section IV of this Charter.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of more than one member of the Board as determined by the Board (or the Executive Committee). The members of the Committee may be appointed or replaced by the Board (or the Executive Committee) by majority action. The Committee may determine its own rules and procedures as are necessary and proper for the conduct of its business, including designation of a chair of the Committee, if determined to do so by the Committee.

Each Committee member must satisfy all of the following criteria (the "Criteria"): The Committee shall be composed of directors who are each (i) an "independent director", pursuant to the definition in section 5605(a)(2) of the NASDAQ Listing Rules; and (ii) is not a Cotter Sibling. The Committee shall be delegated authority to determine whether its members satisfy the Criteria.

The Committee shall initially be composed of [To Come], each of whom the Board has previously determined to satisfy the Criteria set forth in (i) above and none of whom is a Cotter Sibling. The Board, upon recommendation of the Compensation and Stock Options Committee, will establish compensation for service on the Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet periodically, as deemed necessary or appropriate by the Committee, to carry out its responsibilities and duties and to act upon matters falling within its responsibility. Written minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be maintained, and shall be distributed to each member of the Committee. Such meetings may be in-person, telephonically or electronically, at such locations as determined by the Committee. Additionally, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent of its members in lieu of a meeting.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Committee is authorized to, in its discretion:

i. Review, consider, deliberate, investigate, analyze, explore, evaluate, monitor and exercise general oversight of any and all activities of the Company directly or indirectly involving, responding to or relating to the Purpose or any directly or indirectly related proposals, agreements or transactions involving the Company, and any matters that it deems advisable with respect to the Purpose;

ii. Meet, confer and receive advice of legal counsel, advisors, management, other directors, stockholders and/or third parties in connection with the Purpose, and, instruct legal counsel representing the Company to take certain actions, including, but not limited to, file pleadings or other papers, appear in any proceedings, participate in any discovery or other proceeding of any kind, including any form of alternate dispute resolution forum, or any appellate body, and otherwise take such steps as the Committee deems to be in the best interest of the Company in any Cotter Related Proceedings or in connection with any Potential Change of Control Transaction;

iii. Participate in and direct legal counsel representing the Company to conduct negotiations and take actions to resolve matters related to the Cotter Related Proceedings, or any Potential Change of Control Transaction, including, without limitation, to negotiate the form of any and all requisite agreements and other documentation directly or indirectly related to the Purpose;

iv. Report to the Board, as it determines to be appropriate (subject to the maintenance of attorney-client privileges and with due regard for and the institution of appropriate safeguards in order to take into account any conflicts of interest that may exist involving other members of the Board and without limiting its delegated authority under this Charter), its recommendations and conclusions with respect the determinations delegated to it by this Charter; and

v. Take all such other actions as the Committee may deem to be necessary or appropriate in connection with the above.

In the execution of its duties, the Committee may rely upon the officers, executives and other employees of the Company, and such outside consultants as the Committee may from time to time determine to retain, including, without limitation, legal counsel.

The Committee shall have the authority to enter into or bind the Company in connection with a Cotter Related Proceedings, or any Potential Change of Control Transaction; provided, however, that the Committee shall not have any authority to issue or to obligate the Company to issue any shares of Company stock, or to approve any merger, consolidation or liquidation of the Company.

Each of the independent directors of the Company is named as a defendant in the Derivative Case. Nothing herein or in the delegation to the Committee to consider certain matters is intended to impact such directors' rights and defenses, representation by their own separate counsel or any other right in the Derivative Case. Any actions taken by the Committee in respect of the Derivative Case is intended to be taken with respect to the interests of the Company. Nothing herein in intended to limit, waive or reduce in any way such directors' rights and entitlement to defend the Derivative Case in their respective defendant capacities and to obtain all indemnification and other rights they may possess.

JUDY CODDING,
having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Codding.

A. Good afternoon.

Q. What did you do to prepare for your deposition today?

A. I read the materials that were given to us.

Q. And by "the materials that were given to us," are you referring to the materials given to the board of directors?

A. Yes.

Q. That's a yes?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And you're referring to a particular board package that was provided to you prior to a board meeting in December?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall that board meeting occurred on December 29 --

A. Yes.

Q. -- 2017?

A. Right.

Q. So you reviewed that board package in advance of the December 29 board meeting; right?

A. I did.

Q. To your right, next to the bottle of water, there's a small stack of documents, on the top of which is a document that's been marked previously as Exhibit 525. Take a look at that and let me know if you recognize it.

(Pause in proceedings.)

A. Yes.

Q. "This" -- "this" being Exhibit 525 is the board package you read in advance of the December 29, 2017, board meeting?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you read it?

A. The day or two before the September [sic] 29th meeting.

Q. Well, I direct your attention, Ms. Codding, to the first page of Exhibit 525.

Do you see that it appears to be a December 27th, 5:30 p.m. email from Laura Batista to you and others?

A. Yes.

Q. Does that refresh your recollection that you received the board package by email on December 27th, about 5:30 p.m.?

A. Yes.

Q. How much time did you spend reviewing it?

A. Several hours.

Q. Did you -- prior to the December 29, 2017, board meeting, did you have any discussions with anybody about the board package or any of the contents of the board package?

A. Not between September 27th and September 29th.

MR. TAYBACK: You mean December?

A. I mean December. Sorry.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Was there anything in Exhibit 525 that you viewed as providing you information that would enable you to make a decision about anything which information you did not know or possess previously?

MR. TAYBACK: Objection. Vague, "make a decision about anything."

You may answer. You can answer. I -- I just -- I can make an objection, but unless I instruct you not to answer, you should still answer the question.

Page 202

A. Oh, okay. Sorry. I didn't know about the Highpoint Associates document. I think that was the major issue that I didn't know about.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Okay.

A. Some of the material I had not seen, but I knew about.

Q. Okay. Did you have any discussions with anybody at any time prior to the December 29, 2017, board meeting about Highpoint Associates or anything you understood to relate to Highpoint Associates?

A. No.

Q. Was that discussed at the December 29, 2017, board meeting?

A. It was briefly mentioned.

Q. Who said what?

A. I think one of the lawyers said that this had been included for our knowledge.

Q. Did anybody say anything about what, if anything, the Highpoint Associates document or situation reflected?

MR. TAYBACK: At the meeting?

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. At the December 29, 2017, meeting, yes.

Page 203

A. I don't remember that.
Q. Okay. Did the Highpoint Associates document or any information regarding Highpoint Associates make any difference to you in any decision you made or conclusion you reached?
A. It's just one small piece of knowledge.
Q. What's your understanding of what happened at Highpoint Associates?
A. Well, I haven't seen the work order. I've only read the contract, and it appears that Jim Cotter, Jr., went out and hired a group to help him, it appears, with maybe strategy. But it wasn't that clear in the contract.
The contract called for him to -- for Highpoint Associates interview directors that had access to all materials, et cetera, but it wasn't clear to me, since there wasn't a work order, what the particulars were.
Q. Other than what you've already told me, have you had any conversations or been privy to any conversations about the Highpoint Associates' document or documents or Highpoint Associates?
A. After the meeting, I asked about what -- who was Highpoint Associates and why they were hired.

Page 204

Q. Who did you ask?
A. I asked Ellen Cotter, the CEO.
Q. What did she say, if anything?
A. She said that she didn't know about it during the time and she thinks that Jim Cotter hired them to help him think about issues that had to be addressed within the company, but she wasn't sure since she didn't know anything about it. She just knew that there -- we had paid $60,000, and we had received no product as a result.
Q. The December 29, 2017, board meeting included two matters with respect to which you were asked to ratify prior decisions; right?
A. Yes.
Q. And what were those two matters, in your words?
A. One was on Mr. Jim Cotter as CEO, and the second matter had to do with a stock, with Ellen Cotter and Mark Cotter.
Q. It had to do with their request to exercise an option to acquire 100,000 shares of RDI Class B voting stock; right?
A. For one of them, yes.
Q. For the second one you just described; right?

A. Right.
Q. For ease of reference, Ms. Codding, I'm going to refer to that as the 100,000 share option.
A. Okay.
Q. Ms. Codding, with respect to --
(Miscellaneous comments.)
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Ms. Codding, with respect to either of the two ratification matters you just identified, when did you first hear or learn that either/or both of them would be or might be raised at the December 29, 2017, board meeting?
A. We had a discussion in the special committee about the ratification of Jim Cotter, Jr., being the CEO before that meeting -- shortly before that meeting.
Q. And by "that meeting," you're referring to the December 29th, 2017 --
A. Right.
Q. -- board meeting?
MR. KRUM: Did you hear the answer?
THE REPORTER: Yes.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Who was present for or a party to the special committee discussion you just referenced?

Page 206

A. Our attorney, Mike Bonner --
Q. Uh-huh.
A. -- and Bill Gould, Doug McEachern.
Q. Was this in person, by telephone, or both?
A. By telephone.
Q. Who raised the subject of ratification?
A. I don't --
MR. TAYBACK: You can just answer the question who, only because there's a lawyer present. So I'm going to make -- make objections.
So you can answer the question, though, as it was phrased.
A. I don't remember whether it was Bill Gould or whether it was Mike Bonner.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. And without saying what was said, meaning without speaking to the substance, did one or the other of -- or both, Mike Bonner or Bill Gould, explaine the notion of ratification of these two issues?
A. Yes.
Q. At the special committee meeting, was there any discussion that you viewed as bearing upon the merits of either ratification decision as distinct from the fact of or reasons for ratification?

MR. TAYBACK: Object as being confusing.
A. I'm not -- I'm not sure whether there was a distinction in my mind between those two.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Okay. So -- and what's your best estimate of when in time -- meaning how far shortly before the December 29, 2017, board meeting -- that the special committee telephonic meeting occurred?
A. Just a couple of days.
Q. Are there minutes?
A. There are minutes that have not been approved that -- with our attorney. We haven't had a meeting with our attorney.
Q. You have minutes of every special committee meeting; is that right?
A. I think most, if not all.
Q. And when you say "our attorney," are you referring to Mr. Bonner?
A. I am.
Q. At Greenberg Traurig?
A. Yes. And on other occasions, other attorneys have joined --
Q. Who?
A. -- to explain.

Page 208

MR. TAYBACK: Let -- let her finish her answer. Just --
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Sure. Please go ahead.
A. To -- to explain whatever issue we were dealing with at that time, and I -- because we dealt with lawyers in the special committee and we dealt with them in other kinds of discussions, basically, we have dealt with Chris and with Mark and with Marshall and with Mike.
Q. Okay. Mike is Mike Bonner of Greenberg Traurig?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Yes?
A. Yes.
Q. Chris being Mr. Tayback?
A. Yes.
Q. And Marshall being his colleague, Marshall Searcy?
A. Yes.
Q. And Mark being Mr. Ferrario with Greenberg --
A. Yes.
Q. -- Traurig?
Has the special committee ever discussed

engaging its own independent counsel?
MR. TAYBACK: I'm going to -- I'm just going to admonish the witness. If you had a discussion about retaining independent counsel with counsel for the company or with counsel for any of the directors, I suppose, that would be privileged.
THE WITNESS: Okay.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. So -- so he's instructing you not to answer insofar as the answer is yes with Quinn Emanuel lawyers or yes with Greenberg Traurig lawyers, and I'll understand that you're excluding that from your answer.
So with that understanding, meaning excluding those lawyers and those law firms, based on the instruction that Mr. Tayback just gave, has the special committee ever discussed the subject of engaging separate independent counsel for the special committee?
A. No.
Q. Do you understand that Greenberg Traurig represents RDI?
A. Yes.
Q. And that Mr. Tayback and Mr. Searcy represent you and certain other directors individually?

A. Yes.
Q. And you understand that they represent -- represented you in connection with this derivative lawsuit; right?
A. Yes.
Q. And you understand Mr. Tayback and any of his colleagues or anyone else at Quinn Emanuel to represent you in any context or for any purpose other than this derivative lawsuit?
A. I think that's what they represent us for.
MR. KRUM: So you weren't here this morning, Chris. I asked the minutes for this meeting be produced. And I don't know what Marshall and Mark have done, but that request stands.
Q. What did you do, Ms. Codding, if anything, other than review Exhibit 525 to prepare yourself for the December 29, 2017, board meeting?
A. For that specific meeting?
Q. Right.
A. Nothing.
Q. Now, directing your attention to the ratification decision you've identified earlier concerning the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr., as

Page 227

A. I covered that in the last deposition about my conversations with Ellen, Margaret, and Jim in hopes that we could find a way to resolve it.

Q. And you have not had any additional conversations since your last deposition?

A. On that issue -- I've had many conversations since that last issue [sic]. On that particular issue, I'm constantly asking Ellen and Margaret. I've even asked Jim at different board meetings if there was any way that they could find a way to settle all their issues and have a family.

I come from a family where my father and his two brothers ran a business, and they ran it together. And they got along beautifully and business prospered and grew. I've seen it work. And I'm -- I was very hopeful that Ellen and Margaret and Jim could find a way to take the asset that their father had started and grow it in ways that they would all be proud of.

Q. Other than what you just said, including with respect to your personal family's business, are there any other reasons why you've continued to ask -- to raise this issue with Ellen, Margaret, and Jim?

A. Yes, because it's in the best interest of Reading and its stockholders. That goes, to me, without saying that that's -- it -- it could be a win-win for everyone, a win for the Cotter family and a win for Reading and its stockholders. And I don't quite understand all of these lawsuits, why they're necessary.

Q. How do you -- how do you anticipate that it would be a win for Reading stockholders?

A. Because I think it would put all of the -- these issues aside. I think the money that is being spent on this is outrageous, and I think having an end to disagreements is always beneficial.

Q. Directing your attention back to the May 21, 29, and June 12, 2015, minutes that is part of Exhibit 525, you do not know what, if anything, is omitted from those minutes because you weren't there; right?

A. Right. And I also understand that minutes are not a verbatim, but they capture the essence of what happens in meeting. And so I would expect that the major issues that were dealt with would be reflected in the minutes.

Q. Accurately?

A. Accurately.

Q. I direct your attention, Ms. Codding, to the page of Exhibit 525 that ends in production number 7193. You'll see that is the third page of the May 29, 2015 --

A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- minutes.

Do you have that?

A. I do.

Q. At the end of the last full paragraph on that page, it reads as follows: "The meeting went into recess at approximately 2:00 p.m. to permit Mr. Cotter and Madams Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter to continue their discussion of settlement terms," close quote.

Do you see that?

A. I do.

Q. Do you know if that's accurate?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did you ever hear or learn or were you ever told that Jim Cotter, Jr., was told, in words or substance, "We're going to reconvene this meeting telephonically at 6 o'clock, and if you do not resolve your differences with your sisters by then, we're going to proceed with the termination vote"?

A. I didn't hear that.

Q. Have you read any of the deposition transcripts in this case?

A. No. My own.

Q. Have you looked at any of the documents marked as deposition exhibits other than those in your own deposition?

A. No.

Q. What is it exactly that you understand that you voted to ratify with respect to the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr.?

A. That we would not hire Jim Cotter, Jr., as the CEO.

MR. TAYBACK: You're asking for her recollection, not what's written in the --

MR. KRUM: Right.

MR. TAYBACK: -- minutes?

MR. KRUM: Yeah.

A. To ratify that the vote that was taken to not have him as a CEO, that we concurred with.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Ms. Codding, to your right there are two other documents that have been marked previously. I'd ask that you take a look at the one that has been marked --

A. This one?
Q. No. Okay. It should be -- you should have one that says 526 and one that says 527.
Do you have those?
A. Yes.
Q. I'd ask you to take a look at Exhibit 527.
A. Yeah.
Q. Have you seen Exhibit 527 previously?
A. I have not seen it, but I knew that we had requested that a note be sent to Ellen.
Q. How did you know that?
A. I knew it from discussion, asking with the special committee that Bill Gould was going to ask Ellen for a discussion of these matters.
Q. Okay. And by the special committee and Bill Gould, are you referring to the December 27, 2017, special committee meeting about which you've testified earlier today?
A. Whatever date that was. I don't remember. Earlier, as I said, I didn't know whether it was 26th, 27th, 28th. I don't remember.
Q. Okay. But whatever the date was --
A. Whatever the date --
Q. -- the same reference --

Page 232

A. Yeah.
Q. Okay. Did you have any discussions with anybody about the phraseology of either Items 1 -- either Item 1 or 2 of Exhibit 527?
A. Not the phraseology. The intent, yes.
Q. What was your personal understanding of the -- of the purpose for which you were going to be doing this?
A. My understanding was that since the judge made the decision that myself and Bill Gould and Doug McEachern and Ed Kane and Michael were now declared definitely independent, that we would have the opportunity to ratify a decision if we so chose.
Q. What was your understanding of why you would do so?
A. To make sure that the court knew where we stood about Jim Cotter, Jr., being the CEO.
Q. Was your decision to vote in favor of ratification based in any respect on your view of this derivative lawsuit?
MR. TAYBACK: Objection. Vague.
And if you can answer the question without divulging attorney-client communications, you can answer it.

A. I can't answer it.
MR. TAYBACK: If her understanding, with respect to the relationship of this issue to the lawsuit, came from a conversation with a lawyer, I'd instruct her not to answer.
MR. KRUM: Right.
Q. Is that the case, Ms. Codding?
A. It is.
Q. Okay. So independent of that conversation or those conversations with lawyers, with respect to the ratification or otherwise, do you have an independent view of this derivative lawsuit?
MR. TAYBACK: Object to the form of the question. Does she have a view of the derivative lawsuit?
MR. KRUM: Yes.
MR. TAYBACK: She can answer that question.
MR. FERRARIO: Other than what she's already testified to that she thought it was a waste and all that.
MR. KRUM: I'm not asking her to repeat it.
MR. FERRARIO: Okay. All right.
MR. KRUM: I mean, I don't think that's a fair characterization. Well, it doesn't matter whether it is. She can answer.

A. I don't really understand the lawsuit as it exists today. I -- I really don't understand it. I don't understand how it's a derivative lawsuit, and I've asked for an explanation of it from our attorneys. And it's hard for me to understand why there is this derivative lawsuit.
And the attorneys can verify that I've asked that question many times.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. So if you were able to vote on whether this derivative lawsuit should proceed or not, would you -- how would you vote, if at all?
A. Well, I don't think it should -- I don't think it should go forward. I don't see the purpose of it. I don't understand it.
Q. Ms. Codding, take a look at Exhibit 526. You have that in front of you as well. And take such time as you need to review it.
My first question is, have you ever seen Exhibit 526?
A. I have.
Q. When did you first see it?
A. I don't remember the date.

committee, and he registered some complaints in that email?
A. I do.
Q. And do you recall that there were no complaints where -- listed there about the ownership?
A. And he didn't.
Q. One of the --
A. He never discussed that was one of his concerns in what I was -- what I could read.
Q. You were also asked the question about what's been marked as Exhibit 176.
A. Yeah.
Q. And you were asked the meaning of a footnote, this first --
A. Right.
Q. -- sentence in Footnote 2.
Now, I think you took a closer look at it outside in the hallway.
A. Yeah, I asked you about it because I had not seen it before.
Q. And -- and when you read it -- when you read it more closely, I will ask you now: Do you -- can you tell -- from reading that whether the 100,000 shares that are referenced in the first clause, the Class B stock shown, includes 100,000 shares subject to stock options and 1,023,888 shares owned by the James J. Cotter Living Trust of which Mr. Cotter, Sr., is the sole trustee, can you tell whether those 100,000 shares are themselves owned by the trust, according to that clause, or whether they're separate from the million-plus shares that are described?

A. Well, when I read it more carefully -- that's the reason I asked you outside about it -- when I read it more carefully, this was the first time I saw it, and it -- it sort of took me by surprise. When I read it more carefully, it says, "100,000 shares are subject to stock options," and then it goes on to talk about the million-plus shares that are owned by the living trust.
So it appears to me, on closer reading, that they're two separate things.
Q. Not that the 100,000 shares of stock option are owned by the living trust?
A. Correct.
MR. TAYBACK: I have no further --
A. And I had to -- I had to more -- the reason I brought it up to you was I had to more carefully look at this.

Page 277

MR. KRUM: Okay. I have a couple more.
FURTHER EXAMINATION
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Notwithstanding Mr. Tayback's questions, at no time prior to today, did you consider the issue of whether the 100,000 share option was held by the trust or the estate; correct?
A. I just thought that what we were being told -- and I asked for a lawyer -- was correct, and I still have -- even after reading this, I still have no reason to believe that it wasn't correct.
Q. Okay. Did you speak to Mr. Kane about this?
MR. TAYBACK: Mr. Kane?
MR. KRUM: Yeah.
A. No.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Did you speak to Mr. Tompkins about it?
A. No.
Q. Did you hear or learn or have you ever been told that they had extensive discussions in 2015 about how to reconcile the fact that the company's proxy statement said -- described the 100,000 share option as owned by the trust with a request by Ellen Cotter to exercise that option on behalf of the estate?

A. No. I would assume that whatever those issues were would have been cleared up in order for the event to have happened with the approval of the CFO and the lawyers.
MR. KRUM: I'm going to leave that one alone. I don't have anything further.
Ms. Codding, thank you for your time.
MR. TAYBACK: Thank you. Normal stipulation?
MR. KRUM: Yeah, sure.
THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This concludes the deposition of Judy Codding, Volume II, on February 28, 2018.
We're off the video record at 4:37 p.m.
(Miscellaneous comments.)
THE REPORTER: Counsel, would you like to order a copy of the transcript?
MR. TAYBACK: Yes, please.
MR. KRUM: And a rough, too, please.
MR. TAYBACK: Yes, please.

Q. So take such time as you would like to review it, I will direct you to particular entries about which I intend to ask questions.

A. Okay.

Q. Have you seen Exhibit 528 before?

A. You know, I don't -- I don't think so. This is a big document.

Q. I direct your attention, Ms. Cotter, to page 27 of 37. Let me know when you have that.

A. (Perusing document)

Q. Do you have it?

A. 27 of 37.

Q. Okay. I direct your attention to the first entry. It has "RDI." The production number in the left-hand column ends with "60533." The date is "12/21," in other words, December 21, 2017.

Do you see that line?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. And the fourth box that has some information, which is the e-mail subject column says, quote: "Special Committee/Stockholder Action Alternatives." Close quote.

Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. And if you continue left to right, you'll see that this document -- you'll see that the entry on Exhibit 528, first line of page 27, indicates that this is a document sent from Mike Bonner, to Craig Tompkins and Mark Ferrario, and copied to you and Margaret Cotter.

Do you see that?

MR. TAYBACK: You have to look at the second page in order to see what those columns are.

THE WITNESS: Okay. (Perusing document)

A. So it's an e-mail to Craig from Mike Bonner?

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Right. It's the first -- the box that says Craig Tompkins and Mark Ferrario is the e-mail "to" box.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. That box that identifies Mr. Bonner is the e-mail "from" box. And the box that identifies you and Margaret is the e-mail "CC" box.

A. Okay.

Q. So now, having brought that to your attention, does that refresh your memory that on or about December 21, 2017, you received an e-mail from Mr. Bonner, the subject of which was "Special Committee/Stockholder Action Alternatives"?

MR. TAYBACK: I object to the form of the question.

But you can answer.

MS. HENDRICKS: I join.

A. I see this, but I still don't -- I don't recall the document.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Okay. Without regard to the particulars of this document, does this refresh your recollection of having received any documents that discussed Special Committee or stockholder action alternatives, including ratification?

MR. TAYBACK: Object to the form of the question. Asked and answered.

MS. HENDRICKS: Join.

MR. TAYBACK: You can answer.

A. No.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Did you ever have any discussions or communications of any type with Margaret Cotter about ratification? Meaning, either the concept generally, or the matters that came to be addressed at the December 29, 2017 board meeting.

A. Yes.

Q. Were any of those communications prior to this is because we already marked it. I mean, it's not because I'm trying to get somebody to inadvertently waive privilege.

MR. TAYBACK: I'm just preserving my objection.

MR. KRUM: We're okay. We understand each other.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Directing your attention, Ms. Cotter, to the second page of Exhibit 525.

Do you see that's the agenda for the December 29 meeting?

A. Yes.

Q. When was the first draft of that agenda? And I don't necessarily mean the entire agenda. But when was the first draft of any version of this agenda prepared?

A. Sometime probably at the end of December, last couple weeks of December. I can't place exactly when the first draft was prepared.

Q. Who prepared the draft?

And by "prepared" I mean drafted to text, not actually typed or formatted the document.

A. I don't remember. It could have been me. I don't recall.

Q. Well, item 3 came from Bill Gould. Right?

A. Yes. Those items were inserted based on what I had received from Bill.

Q. But you don't know whether Mr. Gould actually was the author of that. Correct?

A. No.

Q. "No" meaning --

A. No, I don't know if Bill actually crafted the language.

Q. Did you ever have any discussions with Craig Tompkins about the language that is found on the agenda item 3, or any prior version of that language?

MR. TAYBACK: You can answer that question yes or no.

A. I don't recall specific conversations with Craig about it, but I typically coordinate with him on the agenda before any board meeting.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. To your knowledge, did Mr. Tompkins have communications with Mr. Gould about the phraseology that is found either in item 3 of the agenda on the second page of Exhibit 525, or in -- if I may, I'll hand you back Exhibit 527. (Proffering document)

MR. TAYBACK: Objection. Lack of witness. I'll make sure that the witness receives it and has 30 days in which to review and make any changes.

If no changes are made, it will be deemed to have been reviewed and signed as transcribed.

If for some reason the original is not available upon reasonable notice for use at any court proceedings, parties stipulate that a certified copy can be used in lieu thereof?

MR. KRUM: Yes.

MS. HENDRICKS: Yes. I'm going to go ahead and log off. You have a good afternoon.

December 29th meeting of the Board of Directors.

Q. And when you say your lawyer, is that Ms. Bannett?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone other than her in anticipation of your deposition today? With respect to the deposition or the possible subjects to be covered.

A. The only -- I had no conversation, but I was in a meeting where I did hear one of the other persons who had been deposed commenting on the deposition.

But it was not a conversation.

Q. So you understand that the focus of the deposition today is going to be matters relating to the ratifications that occurred at the December 29, 2017 board meeting?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So let's try to develop some terminology that will work for both of us, and perhaps expedite the process.

First of all, as you may recall, I'm going to refer to Reading, International, Inc. as RDI.

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. If I refer to "ratifications," that will be a shorthand for the purported ratifications of December 29 relating to two subjects: One being the June 2015 vote to terminate Jim Cotter, Jr., as president and CEO; and the second being the September 2015 decision by the Compensation Committee insofar as that was, quote, ratified.

Does that work for you to use the term "ratification" --

A. Yes.

Q. -- for those?

A. Yes, it does.

Q. I may also ask you about the concept of ratification generally. And in that case, Mr. Gould, I'm talking about whatever you think the word means, independent of these particular events of December 29.

Do you understand that?

A. Yes.

Q. So let me start with that.

A. Okay.

Q. What is your understanding of the word "ratification" as used in the context it was used at Reading International, RDI, in December of 2017, including the December 29 board meeting?

MS. BANNETT: Objection to the extent that the question calls for potential attorney-client information.

MS. HENDRICKS: Join.

MR. HELPERN: Join.

A. Ordinarily, to put that in context, a ratification in a corporate context means that the Board of Directors of a company approves, after the fact, an action that had been taken earlier, or re-approved that action.

In the case of the March -- the December 29 ratification, what that was intended to do is have the independent board members of Reading officially re-approve action that had been taken earlier.

So what it really did was said, even though we think the action taken earlier was effective, this is "suspenders in a belt," we're now going to go back and ratify whatever action had been taken.

So that's really the essence of it.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. So you refer to "independent board members."

What do you mean by independent board members?

A. What I really mean, I really mean non-Cotter board members. So I would exclude the three family members, Jim, Margaret and Ellen.

And I think for the purposes of the ratification, we excluded Guy Adams because he had not been dismissed by the Nevada court and was still -- and the Nevada Court's still evaluating whether he is independent.

So to be safe, we just took the people who clearly had evidence that they were independent.

Q. And the evidence you're referencing is the Court's summary judgment in their favor?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you or anybody else on the RDI board take any steps to make an independent assessment of the independence of those five people?

A. Well, this assessment has been going on, actually, since the litigation started. And so there was no -- at the December 29th meeting, there was no individual review of each person to make sure they were still independent. But this had been an ongoing process.

Q. So when did you first have a communication with someone else with respect to the subject of ratification at RDI with respect to any prior conduct or decisions, including but not limited to the two that were the subject of the December 29 something I work hard not to do.

Okay. Sorry, Mr Gould.
MS. HENDRICKS: Your comments are unnecessary, Mark. You're the one making the speaking objections. Let's move forward.
MR. KRUM: Okay. So now that we've got the last word from GT, that adds nothing as usual, I will move forward.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. What was the next communication or event with respect to ratification after this early December call with McEachern and Codding and Mr. Bonner?
A. There were follow-up calls with Mr. Bonner and Mr. Ferrario as to the specifics of the ratification --
MS. BANNETT: Don't talk about what the conversations were.
THE WITNESS: No.
MS. BANNETT: That wasn't the question.
THE WITNESS: Okay.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. When was the first time, Mr. Gould, you had any communications about ratification, either a concept or notion generally, or the particular ratifications that were raised at the December 29 meeting, with anyone other than the committee members, meaning McEachern and Codding and the GT lawyer, whether it be Mr. Bonner or Mr. Ferrario or someone else?

A. I think the first time was when I called Ellen Cotter to tell her that we were going to be putting this on the agenda.
Q. When was that?
A. Sometime, I'd say, mid December, late -- close to Christmas.
Q. Well, that was my next question.
Was it before or after Christmas?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Who was on that call?
A. I believe it was just Ellen and myself, although Craig Tompkins may have also been on the call. But I know I had called Ellen, but quite often Craig is there with her. Some conversations he's there, sometimes he's not.
Q. How long did that call last?
A. My recollection, it was a relatively short call and she seemed to be aware of what I was calling about.
Q. So excluding anything that Mr. Tompkins said, if he was on the call -- you don't recall that he was?

A. No, I don't remember.
Q. Okay. So excluding anything that either you or Ellen Cotter said that was repeating any legal advice, what did you say and what did she say, as best you can recall?
A. I told her that I would be sending her a notice requesting a meeting, special meeting, or that this be put on the agenda, the meeting.
And she said she would take care of it if -- when she received it.
Q. How much explanation, if any, did you give her what the notice was going to concern?
A. I don't think I gave her much of an explanation.
Q. Did she ask any questions?
A. I can't --
MS. BANNETT: Objection to the extent that it would call for attorney-client privilege.
MR. KRUM: Yeah, let me be clear. And I trust that Mr. Gould understands this.
MS. BANNETT: Yeah.
MR. KRUM: I'm not asking, in any question, for you to disclose the substance of any legal advice, the words any lawyer said, questions that anybody asked to a lawyer seeking advice, or anything that you would understand to be privileged.

And if you have any questions about that, Mr. Gould, you can ask me to clarify, or you can have a sidebar with Ms. Bannett.
Does that work?
MS. BANNETT: Yes.
THE WITNESS: That's fine.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Okay. So I don't see the answer. It said: I can't --
My question was: Did she ask any questions?
And what was your answer, Mr. Gould?
A. I started to say, I just can't remember if she asked questions during that meeting. I believe she did, but I can't remember what they are -- what they were.
Q. How long before you transmitted to her whatever document you sent, or had sent, was this call? As best you can recall.
A. I'm going to give it a range of maybe four or five days to a week and a half.
Q. Now, the next question is intended to make this easier for you and me to not be asking about your personal life.

Did you travel over the year-end holidays?

A. No.

Q. Well, that doesn't help, then.

Two prior witnesses did and said they were in different places and it helped them place things in time, is why I asked.

A. Uh-huh. Uh-huh.

Q. So what was the next communication or action you had or did with respect to ratification?

A. The next action was a meeting of the Special Committee to request that the board consider the ratification.

And we sent that out -- after it had been approved, that notice was then sent to Ellen Cotter and the company.

Q. When was this -- and by the "Special Committee" you're referring to you, McEachern and Codding, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And was Mr. Bonner there or on the phone, as the case may be?

A. He's on the phone for every meeting of the Special Committee.

Q. For the entire meeting?

A. Unless we have to meet with him, we have a session in camera, but that's it.

Q. When did this Special Committee meeting occur?

A. I would have to think it would be the week immediately -- right around Christmas. Right around that time.

Q. Christmas was on Monday. The notice, I think, you're calling it, was set on Wednesday, the 27th. And the meeting was on Friday, the 29th.

Does that chronology sound right?

A. That sounds right to me, yes.

Q. Okay. With that in mind, can you identify the date of the Special Committee meeting as the week of Christmas or the week before?

A. I can't identify it with accuracy, but I think it was certainly in that range, either the week before or the week of Christmas.

MR. KRUM: So I don't know what lawyers should be handling this. I previously asked that the minutes of the Special Committee be produced.

So I'll ask it again. And we don't need to talk about whether it's Greenberg Traurig, or whoever else.

I just ask that the lawyers at this deposition do what the lawyers previously didn't, which is follow through and tell me they're going to be produced or they're not.

MS. HENDRICKS: Mark, I don't think anybody's made that request to RDI, at least that I've been told. I'll look into it.

MR. KRUM: Well, in my view, the documents are responsive to our written requests. And it was raised, Kara, at a deposition that you did not attend. I think Mark was at that deposition for RDI.

All right. So, by the way --

MS. BANNETT: I haven't been present at any other depos --

MR. KRUM: You haven't been there, no. That's why I didn't ask you. And you're not in the litigation, so --

MS. BANNETT: Correct.

MR. KRUM: -- although I think it's responsive to the request, let me help you out.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Have you received the minutes, or draft minutes of that meeting? Presumably yes. It's now April.

Page 528

A. Yes.

Q. Have they been approved?

A. Yes, I believe they have.

Q. Okay.

A. I believe they have, yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. KRUM: All right. So anyway, I'll reiterate my request for those minutes.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. So to clarify, Mr. Gould, did the Special Committee formally take some action with respect to ratification?

A. Yes.

Q. And what was that?

A. It requested that the company include the subject on the agenda for its next meeting, and call for a special meeting if there was not a regular meeting being scheduled.

Q. What was the next communication or action you personally had or did with respect to ratification after that Special Committee meeting?

A. Then we had the December 29th board meeting. And I gave a report at that meeting about the ratification and why it was being requested.

Q. What did you say about why it was being requested? Excluding anything that you understand to be privileged.

A. I indicated that we had been advised by our counsel, Greenberg Traurig, that it would be advantageous -- I shouldn't even be getting into that.

MS. BANNETT: Yeah --

THE WITNESS: I should stop. We were advised that this was something the corporation should consider doing.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Okay. Well, I knew that already. If one can't infer that from the sequence you described, one's not listening.

So let me show you a document that's been marked previously, Mr. Gould. (Perusing documents) Okay. Not yesterday.

MR. KRUM: Mr. Gould, I hand you what was previously marked as Exhibit 527.

(PREVIOUSLY MARKED DEPOSITION EXHIBIT 527 FIRST REFERRAL)

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Take such time as you need to review it, and let me know when you've done so.

Page 530

A. (Perusing document) I've read it.

Q. Do you recognize Exhibit 527?

A. I do.

Q. What do you recognize it to be?

A. This is the request for the call on the special board meeting to consider the ratification of these actions.

Q. Is this what you were referencing earlier, Mr. Gould, when you referenced the word "notice"?

A. Yes.

Q. And Ms. Wizelman is your assistant?

A. Yes, she is.

Q. She sent this at your direction?

A. Yes, she did.

Q. She sent it shortly before 8:00 P.M. on December 27th?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you draft this?

A. No.

Q. Who did?

A. Mr. Bonner and Mr. Ferrario.

Q. Did you see any drafts of it?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Did you make any changes to it?

A. No.

Q. And when you say that Mr. Bonner and Ferrario drafted it, did you discuss with them the drafting of it? By which I'm asking for a yes or no question.

A. Yes.

Q. And they said to you in words or substance -- one or both of them said to you in words or substance: I'll draft it and send it to you?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you provide them -- I'm not asking anything other than a yes or no question, Mr. Gould.

Did you provide them any input about what you thought it should say?

A. No --

MS. BANNETT: Objection.

MR. HELPERN: I think that's crossing the line of attorney-client privilege.

MS. BANNETT: I agree.

MS. HENDRICKS: I would as well join.

THE WITNESS: I'm not going to comment on that.

MS. BANNETT: Bill, even if it's a yes or no question, if it's about a question or a conversation with attorneys, just wait a beat so I can interject.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Pardon me.

MS. BANNETT: That's okay. It's natural.

MR. KRUM: So my view is that he didn't seek any advice. So I guess if the answer is no, it's fine. And if the answer was yes, it's problematic. I understand. Let's go on.

MS. BANNETT: The instruction was just to wait a beat to allow people to make an objection, that's all.

MR. KRUM: Yeah. Of course.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Did -- to your knowledge, did either Mr. McEachern or Ms. Codding see Exhibit 527 before your assistant transmitted it on December 27th?

A. To my knowledge they did, yes.

Q. And did you provide it to them?

A. I believe I did.

Q. How and when?

A. I don't recall. Either I provided it, or Mr. Bonner did. I just don't remember. But they did see it.

Q. And you know that how?

A. Because we wouldn't, as a matter of routine and corporate practice, would not, I don't think, privileged, what was your understanding, Mr. Gould, of what the words as such outlined -- "actions are outlined in the minutes," and so forth, meant to this ratification?

A. Well, I interpreted that to mean that the action of the board, which I opposed as you know at the time, back in 2015, should be ratified at this juncture, and it should be approved anew.

Q. And by "action of the board" you're referring to what?

A. I'm referring to the decision to terminate Jim Cotter, Jr., in 2015, I believe it was.

Q. Nothing else?

A. No. That's, I think, the essence of it. It was his termination.

Q. So, for example, do you recall at the May 29 meeting, the meeting adjourned, and then it reconvened telephonically about 6:00 P.M. that evening?

A. Yes, I do remember that generally.

Q. And do you recall that at or about the time it adjourned, Mr. Cotter was told, in words or substance, that he needed to reach a resolution with his sisters, failing which, when the meeting reconvened at 6:00 that evening, the termination vote would proceed.

A. Yes, I do remember that, yes.

Q. So my question, then, with that as a foundational question is:

Was that also part of the ratification?

A. There was nothing --

MS. HENDRICKS: [inaudible]

(REPORTER REQUESTED CLARIFICATION)

MS. HENDRICKS: [Inaudible]

A. I don't remember that specifically being raised, but I think it would be included in the overall ratification. The bottom line is he was terminated for whatever took place in those minutes which were set forth, and we were then at that point, as the board, basically ratifying that earlier action that was taken by the board in 2015.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Item 3 on Exhibit 527 says: "Such other actions as are necessary to accomplish the above."

Do you see that?

A. I do.

Q. As you sit here today, Mr. Gould, do you know whether there have been any such other actions taken?

A. I don't believe so.

Q. Was -- when was the first time you saw Exhibit 527?

A. A few days before it was -- maybe one or two days before it was sent to Ellen Cotter.

Q. Did you have any communications with Michael Wrotniak about ratification prior to the May 29, 2017 telephonic board meeting?

A. You mean December 29?

Q. I'm sorry. You're right. Let me ask it again.

Did you have any conversations with Michael Wrotniak about ratification prior to the December 29, 2017 telephonic board meeting?

A. I believe I did, but I can't say for certain.

I believe he called me to understand it better. But I'm not sure that actually took place.

Q. How would you check that?

A. It would be very difficult to do. I could ask him if he recalls. That would be my first way to check it.

Secondly, I would look -- I don't know if it's possible to go back and get all of my telephone -- telephone -- incoming telephone calls during that period of time. Maybe there is.

Q. Do you recall the substance of the call with Wrotniak?

A. Well, my recollection is Mr. Wrotniak would call me from time to time because he's not a lawyer. One of the very few people on the board who's not a lawyer. And he sometimes gets mystified by lawyers' devices, and will call me to get a reading on it.

So that's why it's kind of in keeping with our relationship. He calls if he has questions about some legal things that are going on.

But I don't remember the specific conversation with him.

Q. Did you have any communications with Ed Kane about ratification prior to the December 29, 2017 board meeting?

A. I can't recall.

Q. Other than what you've already told me, did you have any communications with anyone else, or any additional communications with any other board members, that in any respect concerned either the concept or notion of ratification generally, or the particular matters that were the subject of ratification on December 29, 2017 board meeting, prior to that board meeting?

A. I don't recall anything I specifically said to anybody else on those things, or the people you mentioned.

But I think on the day of the board meeting, during the early parts of the board meeting, there were conversations going on about this, but they were very fleeting.

They were not -- we were sitting in a room and Jim, Jr., was either on the phone or there, so the conversations were obviously not totally candid.

Q. When you say they obviously were not totally candid, that's because Jim was there?

A. Well, because it was an adversarial lawsuit, and so we weren't like we were all on the same team.

Q. Well, what difference did that make to this particular subject, ratification?

A. Because -- because the ratification might be a litigation strategy.

Q. Did you have any discussions with Judy Codding about the termination of Jim Cotter, including any and all of the matters referenced in the May 21 and 29, and June 12, 2015 board minutes, in this time frame from mid December up to December 29 board meeting?

A. No. Judy -- Judy made it clear that she had done a pretty good diligence review of what had happened, and seemed to be pretty much up to speed on what had occurred. So she and I never had a conversation about the details of what went on during that period back in 2015.

Q. When she said -- when you said she made it clear, was this comments that she made at the December 29 board meeting?

A. No, comments at the Special Committee meeting.

Q. What did she say that she had done?

A. She didn't say what she had done, but it was clear from her -- the extent of her comments at that meeting that she was very well aware of what had happened, how it happened, read the minutes, and felt very comfortable that she knew what the facts were.

Q. What did she say that -- from which you draw the conclusion that you just described?

A. She said I looked into this and I feel I'm comfortable that I understand what happened at that time. Words to that effect.

It's not a direct quote, obviously.

Q. Prior to the December 29, 2017 board meeting, had you had any conversations with Michael

Wrotniak about the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr.?

A. I don't believe I had, no.

Q. Did you have any communications with Ellen Cotter about ratification, being either the concept or notion generally, or ratifications that were the subject of the December 29 board meeting, other than what -- the conversation you've already described this morning, at any time prior to the board meeting on December 29?

A. No.

Q. Did you have any conversations with Margaret Cotter about ratification, either generally, conceptually or particularly as raised on the 29th of December, prior to the December 29th board meeting?

A. No.

Q. Why did you vote to ratify item 1 on Exhibit 527?

A. Because I thought it was in the best interest of the company to do so.

Q. As of December 29, 2017?

A. Yes.

Q. Why?

A. Well, going back to -- you know, I feel sort of like I could be called John Cary, because I voted against it before I voted for it.

But you remember that, back in 2015, I was one of two directors who voted against the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr.

And things had changed, in my mind, from that date to the date, December -- whenever it was -- December 29, '17, where my decision was now made on a whole different set of assumptions and factors that weighed into the equation.

Q. Was one of those factors the decision by the Los Angeles Superior Court in validating the 2014 trust documentation?

A. No.

Q. Was one of those factors the effect that the ratification might have on the pending derivative lawsuit?

A. No -- well, let me take that back. I'm sure it had some bearing in my mind, but that was not one of the key factors.

Q. What were the key factors?

A. The key factors, in my mind, were at the time, back in 2015, you recall that Jim, Jr., was terminated when -- at a time when we were -- I thought, in my opinion, we gave him a period of time to have his performance monitored, and then there

A. Correct. That's correct.
MR. KRUM: Bear with me. I'm struggling to read these numbers.
THE WITNESS: Okay.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Mr. Gould, would you look back to page 1 of Exhibit 528.
A. Okay.
Q. So four items from the bottom, there's a document with a number 59768, and it purports to be an e-mail from -- strike that. It's not to you. I'm not going to ask you about it.
Let's look at two items from the bottom, Mr. Gould. The document is given number 59792.
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Do you have that?
A. Yes, I do.
Q. Okay. You see it's an e-mail from Bonner to you, with copies to some other Greenberg Traurig lawyers, on December 27th?
A. Yes.
Q. And the re: line or the subject matter is "Forward for Bill Gould to sign."
Do you see that?
A. I do.

Page 562

Q. And the lawyer description says: "Communication regarding draft letter re: special board meeting."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. So is this either the same or -- do you think this is the same as the one we looked at before or --
A. I do.
Q. Okay.
The company undertook to de-duplicate this privilege law, and it's a task that isn't always achieved.
MS. BANNETT: Mark, just for the record, when you referred to page numbers of exhibit -- I think it was 528, you were referring to page numbers for the Privileged Log that's attached?
MR. KRUM: Yes.
MS. BANNETT: So when you say page 1, it's the second page of the exhibit?
MR. KRUM: Right, second page of the exhibit.
Thanks, Shoshana. I was, in fact, referring to the Privilege Log page numbers.
MS. BANNETT: Uh-huh.

MR. KRUM: Let's go off the record.
THE VIDEO OPERATOR: We're off the record at 11:07 A.M.
(RECESS TAKEN FROM 11:07 TO 11:13 A.M.)
THE VIDEO OPERATOR: And we are back on the record. The time now is 11:13 A.M.
MR. KRUM: Mr. Gould, I'm handing you what has been marked as Exhibit 532.
(DEPOSITION EXHIBIT 532 MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION)
MR. KRUM: For the lawyers, this is the e-mail of December 29, attaching and transmitting the board package. So it's the same document we've previously marked as Exhibit 525. I'm marking this one. So we've marked one that has, so I'm told, redactions to minutes.
So that should make the GT lawyers happy.
MS. HENDRICKS: Thank you, Mark.
MR. HELPERN: Thank you as well. I had the redacted copies to substitute for you, and I don't get to do it.
(LAUGHTER)
MR. KRUM: Who says old guys can't keep track of stuff?
BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Okay, Mr. Gould, do you recognize Exhibit 532?
A. I do.
Q. What do you recognize it to be?
A. Materials that were sent out by Ellen Cotter for the board members for the meeting.
Q. And excluding your December -- well, strike that.
Excluding what you've already told us, what involvement, if any, did you have in putting this document together?
A. Nothing.
Q. Okay. I mean, basically your involvement was limited to providing Exhibit 527, which was used to create part of the agenda?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you review Exhibit 532?
A. Yes.
Q. Prior to the December 29th meeting?
A. Yes.
Q. Were there any parts of it of which you made note at the time that made any difference to your thinking on December 29?
A. Not that I can recall, no.
Q. I direct your attention, Mr. Gould, to the

A. Correct.
Q. I direct your attention to the middle of the Ed Kane e-mail at the top. There's a sentence that reads as follows: "Bill suggested we ask Ellen to seek judicial approval for the exercise."
Do you see that?
A. I do.
Q. Does that refresh your recollection?
A. A little bit, yes.
Q. And how so? What do you now recall?
A. Well, again, as I said, I do remember quite clearly when I did talk to Ed, he first was just calling me because I have had experience with this area as a lawyer. And I told him that I would -- I didn't see a problem with it, but that to be safe here, given the litigation -- or the controversies -- that he should have counsel -- independent counsel give him an opinion on it.
Q. Well --
A. But I also -- I might have mentioned if it was possible -- practical to get approval, that it would be obviously the best way to go, and that would eliminate any question.
Q. Did you ever have any communications with any or all of -- well, strike that.

Did you ever have any communications with Judy Codding and/or Michael Wrotniak about either the notion of obtaining a legal opinion, as you just described, or the notion of obtaining a court order as you just described, with respect to the exercise of the 100,000 share option?
A. I don't believe I ever had a conversation with either one of them about that.
Q. Did you ever have a conversation of that nature with Doug McEachern?
A. I might have, yes.
Q. Okay.
As you sit here today, what's your best recollection? Did you?
A. I don't have any -- my best recollection is I somehow believe that I did, but I don't recall anything, when it was, or what was said.
I do remember specifically the conversation with Ed Kane.
Q. Okay.
MR. KRUM: I don't have any further questions at this time.
Mr. Gould, thank you for your time.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
MR. KRUM: So we can go off the record?

Kara?
MS. HENDRICKS: Okay with me.
THE VIDEO OPERATOR: This concludes the deposition of William Gould, volume 3, on April 5th, 2018.

(Off video record)
THE REPORTER: Did you have a stipulation from before?
MS. HENDRICKS: 'Bye, everybody.
THE REPORTER: Do you have a stipulation that you would like to use from a prior deposition for this witness?
MR. KRUM: Yes, the same as we've been doing.

VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF EDWARD KANE, defendant herein, noticed by Lewis, Roca, Rothgerber, Christie, LLP, taken at Litigation Services, 655 West Broadway, Suite 880, San Diego, California, on Friday, April 20, 2018, at 9:26 a.m., before Marc Volz, CSR 2863, RPR, CRR, crc

Job No.: 465069

MR. KRUM:

Q. I'm sorry. So is it Mr. Bonner's responsibility to prepare the minutes for the committee meetings? Is that what --

A. It has been, yes. Yes.

Q. I'm not asking about what they said. Have you had at any point in time any communications with Mr. Bonner with respect to ratification of any prior actions or decisions of either the RDI board or the RDI board committee?

A. I have no such recollection.

Q. Have you ever had any communications with Mr. Ferrario about ratification of any prior RDI board actions or decisions or committee actions or decisions?

A. I don't recall any.

Q. Excluding the December 29, 2017 board meeting, and excluding any communications you had with your lawyers in preparation for your deposition today, have you ever had any communications with anyone about ratification of any prior actions taken by the RDI board of directors or any committees of the RDI board of directors?

A. I'm not sure I understand your question. You mentioned committees. I don't recall any conversations about ratification that specific meeting. I obviously have discussions with committee members about committee agendas or substance of the forthcoming committee meetings.

Q. My question, Mr. Kane, is confined to the subject of ratification. Let me approach this a little more incrementally. What is your understanding, if any, as to what ratification matter or matters were taken up at the December 29, 2017 RDI board meeting?

A. The ratification was as to the termination of Mr. Cotter, Jr. As CEO of Reading.

Q. Anything else?

A. I believe there was an issue regarding the sale of stock by -- or exchange of shares by Ellen Cotter of Reading. A shares for Reading, B shares held by the estate of James J. Cotter, Sr.

Q. What is the source or what are the sources of your understanding of the two ratification matters you just described?

A. I'm not sure I understand you. You say the source of...

Q. Let me ask it differently, Mr. Kane. How do you know what you just told me about ratification?

A. I was presented with or had seen documents yesterday dealing with those matters, I recall.

Q. Other than the documents you reviewed yesterday in preparation for your deposition today do you have any other source or sources of understanding regarding the ratification matters you've just described?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: I remember voting at the meeting of the 29th to ratify the termination of James J. Cotter, Jr. as CEO of Reading.

MR. KRUM: I ask that the witness be provided Exhibit 527.

MR. SEARCY: Mr. Krum, I've just handed Exhibit 527 to the witness, and I have a copy and Mr. Ferrario now has a copy.

MR. KRUM: Thank you.

Q. Mr. Kane, take such time as you need to review Exhibit 527. My first question is going to be whether you have ever seen it previously. So have you seen Exhibit 527 previously?

A. I don't have any recollection of seeing this previously.

Q. Mr. Kane, did you have any communications with Bill Gould, I believe December 25, 2017, prior to the December 29, 2017 RDI board meeting?

A. I don't recall any.

Q. Did you have any communications with Craig Tompkins the week of December 25 but prior to the

Page 684

December 29, 2017 RDI board meeting?

A. If I did I don't recall any.

Q. Did you have any communications with Ellen Cotter the week of December 25, 2017 but prior to the December 29, 2017 RDI board meeting?

A. If I did I don't recall any.

Q. Mr. Kane, I direct your attention back to Exhibit 525. Do you have that in front of you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please turn to the second page and read to yourself paragraph 3a. And let me know when you've done that.

A. Paragraph 3a and b is -- no, wait a second. I'm on the wrong page. I'm on the wrong page.

Q. The second page, the lower right hand it ends with the number 7143. Why don't you read paragraph 3, subparagraph a and subparagraph b. And let me know when you're done. And I'll ask you some questions about that.

A. Okay. Yes, sir.

Q. At the December 29, 2017 RDI board of directors meeting what did you say, if anything, Mr. Kane, relating to the subject matter of paragraph 3a -- that is, the ratification of the termination of Mr. Cotter?

A. I don't recall saying anything. I may have.

Page 689

Highpoint Associates?

A. I was given yesterday, I think, some pages of Highpoint. I scanned them. I didn't pay much attention to it.

Q. Prior to yesterday have you ever seen any documents relating to or concerning Highpoint Associates?

A. I may have. But when it was given to me yesterday it didn't refresh my recollection of having seen it previously. I'd only heard about it.

Q. From whom had you heard about it?

A. It was so long ago I don't remember.

Q. Did Mr. McEachern tell you about Highpoint Associates?

A. I don't remember how I knew.

Q. Did Mr. McEachern ever give you any documents about Highpoint Associates?

A. I have no recollection of discussing it with him or him giving it to me.

Q. Do you possess any documents concerning Highpoint Associates?

A. No, sir.

MR. FERRARIO: Other than --

THE WITNESS: Well, other than what I was given by --

Page 690

MR. SEARCY: Mr. Searcy.

THE WITNESS: Mr. Searcy. Sorry. I'm sorry. I missed it. Other than what Mr. Searcy gave me I don't recall. I may have but I just don't recall it.

MR. KRUM:

Q. If you were afforded the opportunity today to vote on whether this derivative lawsuit should proceed or be terminated how would you vote?

A. Terminate it tomorrow, please, sir.

Q. And why?

A. And why? We had -- that, as you well know, sir, that derivative suit was joined by an independent investor in Reading, T-2. They put a lot of money into it. They were present at one or more of my depositions. And they came to the conclusion that the company was well run. And they were laudatory as to how it is run and they pulled out. They didn't receive anything for pulling out. Their expenses were their expenses.

If someone with that sophistication and their own money in it said the company is well run, without Mr. Cotter, Jr., then I cannot foresee why there even is a derivative action. Never made much sense to me. And I'm not criticizing you, sir. You're his counsel. But to me it's a total waste of time and money of all parties.

And if the directors of a company who are operating, as I was and what I thought, in the best interest of the company and thought it was in the best interest of the company that Mr. Cotter step down from his role, how else can I think, other than there shouldn't have been a derivative suit and it's a waste of his money and our money.

Q. Directing your attention, Mr. Kane, to your last response insofar as it concerned the intervening plaintiffs. What is the basis or what are the bases for your understanding of the conclusions you described them as reaching?

A. I saw some -- at the time I believe I saw some correspondence from them to that effect. And there was also some discussion with regard to the peer group. They made some recommendations for a change in the peer group which we used to determine compensation. It was well thought out. And we had already adopted some of their recommendations of the peer group. And in there they again I believe -- it's a long time ago when I saw the correspondence -- that they were pleased with the way the company was being run and going forward. And they were making recommendations as to the peer group for compensation.

Q. When you refer to correspondence are you actually -- do you actually have in mind a press release issued by RDI that included a quote ascribed to one of the intervening plaintiff representatives?

A. I wasn't but now that you mentioned it I did -- I must have. And I have some vague recollection of some of that press release.

Q. Mr. Kane, excluding your prior depositions in this case, have you ever met or communicated with any representative of any of the intervening plaintiffs?

A. By intervening plaintiffs you mean T-2?

Q. Right. T-2 or the folks you referenced earlier as having settled.

A. No. I never personally discussed it with any of them.

Q. What or who was the source of the information you've described about interactions with T-2 and the intervening plaintiffs?

A. I can't recall. I do know that I saw -- maybe it was directed to me, I don't know -- their recommendations for companies that we should use as part of our peer group for compensation purposes. So I probably saw that as chair of the compensation committee. But otherwise, I don't know whether they sent things to the board as a whole or things were given to me. I just don't recall.

Q. Okay. This calls for a yes or no response, Mr. Kane. Was counsel, meaning an attorney who represents you and/or an attorney who represents RDI, the source of some or all of the information you received regarding T-2 and the intervening plaintiffs?

A. Sir, I can't recall so I can't say yes or no.

Q. Very well.

MR. KRUM: Let's take a break.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record. The time is 10:21 a.m.

(Recess.)

MR. KRUM: Back on the record. So in light of what we've covered and how we've covered it and the circumstances that bear upon that I don't have anything further at this time. Mr. Kane, thank you for your time. Have a nice day, sir.

THE WITNESS: Thank you. You too.

MR. SEARCY: Thank you.

MR. KRUM: Bye, guys.

(The proceedings concluded at 10:41 a.m.)

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the beginning of Media 1 in the deposition of Douglas McEachern, Volume IV, in the matter of Cotter, Jr., versus Cotter, et al., held at 1901 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 1600, Century City, California, on February 28, 2018, at 11:02 a.m.

Q. -- to the prior compensation committee decision or decisions. On what basis or bases did you do so?

A. Number one, I didn't think there was an issue here at all for the board to deal with. It was delegated to the compensation committee to handle this type of matters. We were approving this. And I believe we had -- I think we had a call to talk about a couple of issues that were still existing in this -- in this derivative case by Jim Cotter, Jr., and we were trying to address them in a fashion to resolve them.

Q. When you say you were trying to address them in a fashion to resolve them, what does that mean? Does that mean you were trying to moot the issues?

A. I don't know what "moot" means. I'm sorry. I'm not an attorney.

Q. Okay. Well, when you say you were trying to address them in a fashion to resolve them, resolve them how?

A. To say that the -- the corporation ratified these, and that -- that there was no -- no issue or concern that we approved them. If anybody in the past thought that there was an issue, our action there was to cure any issue anybody might think existed.

Q. What did you do, meaning what documents did you review, with whom did you have conversations, or anything else, to inform yourself to make the decision you made to vote in favor of ratifying or affirming the prior compensation committee decision?

A. I reviewed whatever documents were handed out, Mr. Krum, in this -- this package. But I had been there at the time that this transaction took place. I was aware of what went on. At the time, I couldn't understand why this was an issue. I still couldn't understand why it was an issue. And it seemed to me to be pretty perfunctory to approve.

Q. Directing your attention, Mr. McEachern, to Exhibit 525, that's the board package for the December 29 meeting; correct?

A. I believe so, yes.

Q. Now, this is not intended to require you to look at every page, but if you think you need to do so, you are welcome to do so.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. My question is: Was there anything in particular in Exhibit 525, the December 27 board package, that you considered or valued in making the decision you made to vote in favor of ratifying the September 2015 compensation committee decision?

A. Uh-huh. And did you say the December 27th board meeting or the December 29th?

Q. I called the package -- the package December 27 because it has a December 27 transmission date. But -- so I'm not confusing you, I am referring to the December 29 board meeting and your vote there.

So with that clarification, let me ask: Is there anything in Exhibit 525 that made any difference to your vote on December 29 to vote in favor of ratifying or approving the 2015 decision by the compensation committee that's the subject of -- one subject of this package?

A. No.

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

A. And no.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Okay. Directing your attention back to your prior testimony to the effect that you first heard or learned in early to mid-December that the ratification or approval of the prior compensation committee decision might or would be taken on the December 29 board meeting, was that -- did you learn that by speaking to somebody, by receiving an email, or otherwise?

A. I just couldn't tell you, Mr. Krum.

Q. Okay. What was the next communication you had with anybody, after that initial one, with respect to the possible ratification or approval of the September 2015 compensation committee decision regarding the 100,000 share option, at any time prior to the December 29 board meeting?

A. I could have been involved in discussions that predated this. I just can't remember. I'm generally aware that it was raised as an issue. As I said, I still don't understand why. I know that we had a call with Mike Bonner, maybe Mark Ferrario, and maybe somebody from Greenberg, I'm not certain, to discuss this --

MR. SEARCY: Let me just caution you. When you start to get into attorney-client privileged discussions, I want you to be able to answer the question, but I don't want you to get into the specifics of any particular discussions you may have had with Mr. Ferrario or Mr. Bonner.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. SEARCY: I mean, just to a general level for purposes of answering his question.

A. I was generally aware that we were going to be talking about this issue and the ratification or the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr., in this conference call. And the background of that action, of being able to do it, was something that I believe Mr. Bonner communicated to us was the result of a law that he wrote in the state of Nevada.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Who was on this call with Mr. Bonner and/or Mr. Ferrario?

A. I'm not certain if this was an entire board meeting or it was a meeting of the special committee of myself, Bill Gould, and Judy Codding. I suspect it was the three of us.

Q. Did the special committee have meetings in person or telephonic in December of 2017?

A. I believe so. But there were 12, 14, 15 meetings that took place telephonically and in person from July, August of 2017, through the end of December.

Q. Of the special committee?

A. Uh-huh.

Page 512

Q. That's a yes, uh-huh?

A. That's a yes. I'm sorry. That's a yes.

Q. What discussions, if any, did you have with Bill Gould -- strike that.

What discussions did you have with Bill Gould, if any, other than the call with Bonner and/or Ferrario in December of 2017 with respect to the subject of the special committee's prior approval of the exercise of the 100,000 share option?

MR. FERRARIO: You said the special committee's prior approval of it?

MR. KRUM: Yes, I'm referring to September '15. My mistake.

MR. FERRARIO: That was the compensation committee.

MR. KRUM: Compensation committee. Thank you, Mark.

Let me try it again.

Q. Mr. McEachern, what discussions did you have with Bill Gould, if any, excluding the call with Bonner and/or Ferrario in December 2017 about the compensation committee's September 2015 approval of the exercise of the 100,000 share option?

A. I don't think I had any.

Q. Did you have any with Judy Codding?

A. I don't recall a discussion with Judy about that, no.

Q. Did you have any such discussions -- strike that.

What discussions did you have with Ellen Cotter in December 2017, if any, regarding the subject of the compensation committee's prior approval in September 2015 of the exercise of the 100,000 share option?

A. I'm not certain. I think I had a discussion with Ellen Cotter about who owned the option, who owned the stock, and what took place in the -- in the transaction. And that was it. But I couldn't tell you if it took place in December. I know I had a chat with -- with Ellen Cotter. I just can't tell you when it was.

Q. When you say "who owned the option," you are referring to the 100,000 share option?

A. Huh? Yes, I am.

Q. And when you say "who owned the stock," you are referring to the Class A stock that was used as consideration for the exercise of the 100,000 share option?

A. Yes, I am.

Page 514

Q. And this discussion with Ellen Cotter, who else, if anyone, was present or privy to that?

A. I believe it was a phone conversation, and I don't think anybody else participated in the call.

Q. Was that the sole subject of that telephone conversation between you and Ellen Cotter?

A. I'm not certain. I just don't remember. I have a general impression of having had that discussion with Ellen. I couldn't tell you what else took place in that call.

Q. How did it come about that that call occurred?

A. I don't know.

Q. So you don't recall, for example, if you had a question about who owned the option or who owned the stock and you decided to call her and ask?

A. I probably speak with Ellen Cotter once or twice a week. I initiate a call or she calls me. We talk about various things, and different topics come up. I'm certain we had a call about who owned the option and who owned the stock, but we probably talked about other corporate matters that were

MR. KRUM: Well, I gave him a birthday present also; right?

MR. FERRARIO: That's right, you did.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. So I --

A. You gave him wine?

Q. No, I didn't give him wine, I -- I told him he didn't -- I told counsel that Mr. Kane did not need to appear for further depositions. So I'm sure he appreciated that.

MR. KRUM: Why don't we take a short break.

MR. SEARCY: Sure.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are off the record at 12:07 p.m.

(Recess taken from 12:07 p.m. to 12:21 p.m.)

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record. The time now is 12:21 p.m.

MR. KRUM: I will ask the court reporter to mark as Exhibit 527 a single-page document bearing production number RDI63918.

(Deposition Exhibit 527 was marked for identification by the reporter and is attached hereto.)

(Miscellaneous discussion.)

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Mr. McEachern, take such time as you need. My question is: Have you seen Exhibit 527 before?

A. I don't recall having seen this before, but I do recall speaking in our special committee with Bill Gould and Judy Codding about asking to have this done.

Q. When was that conversation with the special committee to which you just referred?

A. Sometime in mid to late December.

Q. Who said what?

A. Generally, I believe it was a special committee meeting. I can't remember if Mr. Kane and Michael Wrotniak were part of it or not, with Michael Bonner of Greenberg Traurig referring again to the law that he wrote for the state of Nevada on ratification matters by the board of director -- directors.

Q. Was this meeting scheduled for that purpose, or was the meeting scheduled for other purposes as well?

A. The meeting of the special committee?

Q. Yeah.

A. I don't recall if there were any other topics at the meeting.

Page 545

Q. Does the special committee take or maintain meeting minutes?

A. Yes, they do.

Q. Are there minutes of the meeting you just described?

A. I believe they are drafts. I don't think we have done anything to approve -- I take that back. I'm not sure if the committee's approved them or not. I know they have not been presented to the board.

MR. KRUM: Okay. Mark and Marshall, I would ask getting special meetings minutes that referred to these matters also be produced.

Q. What was the conclusion, if any, reached at that meeting with respect to the subject of ratification?

A. That we would pursue that activity and -- and present it to the board of directors.

Q. Who first raised the subject?

A. I believe Mike Bonner.

Q. Is Mr. Bonner ordinarily at the meetings of the special committee?

A. I believe he's attended all of them. He may have missed one or two.

Q. Now, the special committee in question, which committee -- which special committee is that, Mr. McEachern?

A. It's a committee that was put together by the board in the summer of 2017 to deal with the litigation matters, and specifically the derivative lawsuit, and/or reacting -- figuring out what our reaction would be given actions that may or may not be taken with respect to the trust and the estate case.

Q. And the actions that may or may not be taken with respect to the trust and estate case, do those include the appointment of a trustee ad litem with responsibilities with respect to the controlling block of RDI Class B voting stock?

A. Can you restate that again? I'm sorry.

MR. KRUM: I will ask the court reporter to read it.

A. That's fine.

(Reporter read back the requested text.)

A. I don't know that we have anything to do with the appointment of a trustee ad litem. But in reacting to whatever takes place in that, that's what the committee is of, to react to. I believe we have a charter that was approved by the board that one could get and see what our charter is.

BY MR. KRUM:
Q. Has the committee directed counsel, Greenberg Traurig, or anybody else, to take action? And by "committee," I'm referring to the same special committee about which you are testifying.
MR. FERRARIO: I'm going to object. Overbroad.
A. I remember sometime in the fall of 2017, Mike Bonner was -- and when I say "Mike Bonner," I'm not sure if it was Mike Bonner and Bill Gould, who is the chairman of the committee.
MR. FERRARIO: Don't -- don't divulge attorney-client communications. Okay. So that's what I'm trying to get. If somebody directs a lawyer to do something, that to me implicates attorney-client communication, because it could be reflective of advice or a scope of litigation, something like that. I don't want to impede this because it's been going very smooth, but that's my admonition. I don't really understand the question, but go ahead without divulging any attorney-client communication.
THE WITNESS: Can I ask a question? So if we asked Mike Bonner to participate with Bill Gould in doing something, that's attorney-client privilege?

MR. FERRARIO: If you're asking -- if you are asking him, Bill Gould, to the grocery store and pick up sodas for a meeting, I don't care. If you are asking him to do something that would encompass the giving of legal advice that is going be reflective of what -- you know, what was being discussed between the lawyer and the client, I would instruct you not to answer that.
A. Then I won't answer that question.
BY MR. KRUM:
Q. All right. Well, let me weigh in on this. What I'm attempting to ascertain is the scope of the actions with respect to the special committee. So let me just ask you about a couple of subjects.
Has the special committee taken any steps to communicate any positions in any action, whether the derivative action or the California trust action?
A. No, not to my recollection.
Q. Directing your attention, Mr. McEachern, specifically with respect to the subject of ratification, as best as you can recall, sir, when and how did that subject first arise before the special committee?

A. Ratification of what? The actions by the compensation committee or the ratification of the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr.?
Q. Either or both.
A. I think it's in late fall sometime of 2017. But there was nothing that could be done, I don't think, until such time as -- as I recall, the judge in the derivative case took some action with respect to dismissing directors from the lawsuit.
Q. So the subject was raised in the late fall of 2017 and, in effect, it was tabled for the time being?
A. I believe that's correct.
Q. What did you say, if anything, about that subject in the late fall of 2017?
A. I do not recall.
Q. What about did Bill Gould say?
A. I do not recall.
Q. What did Judy Codding say?
A. I do not recall.
Q. Did it concern the ratification of the termination decision or the decision to authorize the exercise of the 100,000 share option by way of Class A voting stock or both?
A. I believe the main focus was on the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr.

Q. What was said, if anything, at that time about the subject of Guy Adams' disinterest in this independence or both?
A. With respect to what?
Q. The vote to terminate Jim Cotter, Jr., in 2015.
MR. SEARCY: Let's have the question read back.
THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?
MR. SEARCY: I was asking if we could have the question read back.
(Reporter read back the requested text.)
MR. SEARCY: And you're asking about -- involved 2017?
MR. KRUM: Right.
MR. FERRARIO: It's to non-lawyers.
A. I don't recall, but the judge dismissed five directors from the case, and the case still has Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams as defendants. And I believe the discussion was as long as he was a defendant in the case, he couldn't vote on this type of matter. I don't recall a discussion about his independence at that -- in connection with that.

MICHAEL WROTNIAK, called as a witness, having been first duly sworn by a Notary Public of the State of New York, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION BY

MR. KRUM:

Q. Please state your name for the record.

A. Michael Wrotniak.

Q. Good morning, Mr. Wrotniak.

A. Good morning.

Q. Would you spell your last name for us, please.

A. W-R-O-T-N-I-A-K.

Q. Thank you.

Have you ever been deposed before?

A. Yes.

Q. On how many occasions?

A. Once.

Q. When was that?

A. 2002, 2003, sometime in that time frame.

Q. Were you a party to a legal proceeding?

A. Company I worked for had a shipping problem, and the company was.

Q. What did you do to prepare for your deposition today?

A. I read the documents that my counsel provided to me and I met with my counsel yesterday.

Q. That's Mr. Searcy?

A. Yes.

Q. For how long?

don't specifically recall if I read those or not.
Q. At any point in time between around the time you were nominated and put on the board and reading board minutes concerning the termination or possible termination of Jim Cotter in preparation for the December 29, 2017 meeting, did you read or review such minutes?
A. I'm sorry, repeat that.
Q. Yes. At any time between when you were nominated and put on the board of RDI, at which time you may or may not have read the minutes, and when you did read these minutes in anticipation of the December 29, 2017 meeting, did you read any minutes that concerned the termination or possible termination of Jim Cotter, Jr.?
A. I don't recall.
Q. And when you say you don't recall, you have no recollection of doing so, or do you have no recollection one way or another? Or is that the same for you?
A. Would you clarify what the difference is?
Q. I don't mean to make this is an epistemology course, Mr. Wrotniak. I don't mean to be a pointy-headed lawyer. If you have no recollection whatsoever about reading any minutes in that time frame, then say you have no recollection. If you just don't recall whether you read these particular minutes, then I'd say you don't recall these particular minutes. If that distinction doesn't make sense to you, then you can say so.

A. "Whatsoever" in the legal term is a very important word. So I hesitate to use such a word. I have read a lot of minutes and I don't recall when was the first time I read those specific minutes.
Q. All I'm trying to do, sir, is get your best recollection. I'm not embedding any legal gotchas in the questions. Thank you for your patience.
A. I understand.
Q. Let's take a look at --
MR. KRUM: Did you bring yours?
MR. SEARCY: No, I didn't bring mine.
MR. KRUM: I'm going to give the witness what previously was marked as deposition Exhibit 525. It bears production number DM 00007142 through 7251.
Q. Mr. Wrotniak, I'm first going to ask you if you recognize Exhibit 525. So take such time as you need, sir, to familiarize yourself with the document. I will give you more time any time I ask you about any particular pages or portions of it. So the threshold question is, do you recognize Exhibit 525?

A. The entirety of this is document 525?
Q. That's correct.
A. I do recognize it.
Q. What do you recognize it to be?
A. The documents which were prepared for the board for our December 29th, 2018 meeting.
Q. This is the so-called board package for that meeting, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you receive it on or about the date and time reflected at the e-mail on the first page, 5:30 p.m. Pacific time on Wednesday, December 27th?
A. Yes.
Q. When did you first learn that there was going to be a board meeting on December 29th?
A. In late December, prior to this.
Q. Was Exhibit 525 the first time you had seen an agenda for the December 29 board meeting?
A. Yes.
Q. And you see on the agenda, which is the second page of Exhibit 525, paragraph 3, subparagraphs A through C have some matters that are referred to as ratification matters. Do you see that?
A. You're referring to this?
Q. Yes.

Page 41

A. Yes, I do see it.
Q. When was the first time you heard or learned that the board ratifying any prior conduct would be taken up at the December 29 board meeting?
MR. SEARCY: Objection; vague.
A. We had an advice from counsel.
Q. Was that written or oral?
A. Oral.
Q. When was that?
A. Specifically, I don't know.
Q. How did you receive it? Was it a telephone call?
A. Yes.
Q. Who else was on the call?
A. Our Reading corporate counsel, Judy Codding.
Q. Who was the Reading corporate counsel?
A. Mark Ferrario. And Bonner.
Q. Mike Bonner?
A. Yes.
Q. Both from Greenberg Traurig.
A. Yes, Greenberg Traurig. There are a few of you.
Q. How was this call scheduled? If it was.
A. I don't know.

Page 42

Q. How long did it last?
A. I don't specifically recall.
Q. Who initiated the call?
A. Greenberg Traurig.
Q. I'm not asking you to tell me about who said what. I'm just asking about the subject matter, or the substance in the most general way.
During that call, one or both of Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Bonner explained to you and Ms. Codding the ratification matters?
MR. SEARCY: I'm going to object to that. Maybe there's a way that you can come at it a little more generally.
MS. HENDRICKS: I'm going to join in that objection. I have a concern about attorney-client privilege here. So if you can ask it a different way, Mark.
Q. Well, what was the subject matter of the call?
MR. SEARCY: He's asking you at a very general level. I'll let you answer it at a very general level about the subject matter. But I don't want you to get into any specifics.
A. The general matter was the agenda and protection for Reading.

Page 43

Q. Prior to this telephone call that you and Ms. Codding had with Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Bonner, had you had any communications with anyone about the same subject or subjects?
MR. SEARCY: Objection; vague.
A. Can you clarify?
Q. Well, the reason I phrased it as "same subject or subjects" is so that I didn't characterize your testimony. But I guess no good deed goes unpunished, so let me attempt to quote it.
MR. SEARCY: I think the term he used was the agenda and protection of the company.
Q. Okay, so prior to the call with Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Bonner, had you had any communications with anyone else about the same subject or subjects, the agenda and protection of the company, or however you'd characterize it?
A. No.
Q. Did you have any communications with Ellen Cotter about those subjects or any other subjects in anticipation of or preparation for the December 29, 2017 board meeting?
A. I don't recall.
Q. At the time of the call that you and Ms. Codding had with Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Bonner, had you received the board package, Exhibit 525?

A. I don't recall.
Q. How long did that call last?
A. Specifically, I don't recall.
Q. Well, can you give it a range? Was it five to ten minutes, three to five hours, something else?
A. Less than an hour.
Q. Where were you when you took that call?
A. In Florida.
Q. When were you in Florida?
A. I go there frequently.
Q. When were you there in the time frame of this telephone call?
A. I flew on the 26th from New York to Florida.
Q. So the 26th was a Tuesday, obviously the day after Christmas for a lot of people. And the 29th, the day of the telephonic board meeting, was a Friday. So it was sometime in that time frame that you had this call with Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Bonner and Ms. Codding?
A. Yes. Must have been.
Q. Other than reviewing the board package, Exhibit 525, what, if anything, did you do to prepare for the telephonic board meeting of December 29, 2017?

Page 45

A. I thought a lot.
Q. About what?
A. The contents of the board package.
Q. How much time did you spend reviewing Exhibit 525?
A. I don't recall.
Q. When did you review it?
A. We had a compensation committee meeting prior to the board meeting, the day before. And I had to prepare for that. And much of what was contained in here was in that, and I was ready for that meeting.
Q. So what had happened is the compensation committee approved certain matters on the 28th, and those same matters were submitted to the full board on the 29th, right?
A. Yes.
Q. So setting aside the compensation committee matters, meaning the subjects that you prepared for and discussed at the compensation committee meeting on the 28th and again at the telephonic board meeting on the 29th, how much time did you spend looking at Exhibit 525, meaning with respect to the ratification matters?
A. I don't recall.
Q. Let's go to page production in the lower

Page 86

Q. And prior to seeing that, you've never heard or learned that Jim Cotter raised any question about the ownership of the 100,000-share option, correct?
A. That's correct.
Q. Do you intend to ask Guy Adams or Ed Kane about this subject; that is, the ownership of the 100,000-share option?
MR. SEARCY: Objection; vague, calls for speculation.
A. I don't know.
Q. I'm going to show you what previously has been marked as Exhibit 526. This document bears production number RDI 0063804 through 09. It purports to be -- I guess these are draft, right?
MR. SEARCY: Correct.
Q. Draft minutes of the December 29, 2017 meeting.
If I recall correctly, you saw these minutes yesterday for the first time, Mr. Wrotniak.
A. Yes.
Q. How much time did you spend reviewing them?
A. I read them twice I believe.
Q. Did you read them for the purpose of assessing whether they were accurate and/or complete?

A. Yes.
Q. What did you conclude in that regard, if anything?
A. I find them to be a good representation of the meeting.
Q. Did you request that the December 29, 2017 meeting address or include the ratification matters?
MR. SEARCY: Objection; vague.
A. Yes.
Q. When and how did you make that request?
A. It was agreed in the meeting with Mark Ferrario.
Q. When did that meeting occur?
A. Prior to the compensation committee, when we were advised of the Nevada law.
Q. When you say the meeting with Mark Ferrario, Mr. Wrotniak, are you referring to the telephone call you and Ms. Codding had with Mark Ferrario and Mike Bonner?
A. Yes.
Q. When you say prior to the compensation committee meeting, you're talking about the compensation committee meeting of December 28th?

Page 88

A. Yes.
Q. And when you say prior to that, you mean prior to that the same day?
A. I don't recall.
Q. How many conversations did you have with Mark Ferrario and Mike Bonner the week of Christmas, which was Monday, December 25?
A. One that I recall.
Q. And it's the one that you and Ms. Codding had with Ferrario and Bonner?
A. Yes.
Q. What is your understanding of the import or significance of the two ratification votes that occurred on December 29, 2017?
MR. SEARCY: I'm going to object to the extent it calls for attorney-client privilege. If you have information beyond that, Mr. Wrotniak, you're welcome to testify in that regard.
A. I don't have any further information about that.
Q. Meaning you don't have an understanding beyond what you learned from counsel?
A. Correct.
Q. I direct your attention, Mr. Wrotniak, to Exhibit 526, and in particular the page that has the production number ending in 63807 in the lower right. Let me know when you have that page.

A. We're going backwards?
Q. We could be, yes.
MR. SEARCY: What was the page number again, Mark?
MR. KRUM: 807 are the last three digits. It's also numbered 4, page 4 of the draft minutes.
A. Oh, I'm sorry.
Q. It's approximately where we were I think.
A. So you said --
Q. I'm sorry, it's Exhibit 526. We're looking at a different document. You're looking at 525.
MR. SEARCY: You're looking at the board package. He's asking about the minutes.
A. These minutes.
Q. Yes.
A. Okay.
Q. Okay, now that we're squared away with the document, I direct your attention, Mr. Wrotniak, to page 4 of Exhibit 526.
A. One moment while I fix my mic, please.
Q. Of course.
A. 4, okay.
Q. The last full paragraph on that page begins with the words "Mr. Wrotniak also expressed his views." Do you have that paragraph?

A. Yes.
Q. Let me know when you've finished reading it.
A. (The witness reviews the document.) Yes.
Q. Does that fairly summarize comments you made?
A. Yes.
Q. When you said in words or substance that the board has attempted to work with Mr. Cotter but had no alternative to take the action it did, termination, what were you referencing when you said "work" with him?
A. They offered him a position as president working under a CEO.
Q. When you say they had no -- in words or substance, had no alternative but to vote to terminate him, what exactly were you saying or referencing?
A. That if they concluded based on his performance that he was not fulfilling his responsibilities, that he needed to be terminated.
Q. I direct your attention to page 6, the last page of Exhibit 526. Do you have that?
A. Yes.

Page 91

Q. The first full paragraph on that page reads as follows: "Upon motion duly made by Director McEachern and seconded by Dr. Wrotniak, the following resolution was adopted." Do you see that paragraph?
A. I do.
Q. Is that correct, that you seconded the ratification motion with respect to the 100,000-share option?
A. Yes.
Q. How did that come to pass?
A. I don't understand the question.
Q. Had you had any discussions about seconding that motion --
A. No.
Q. -- prior to doing so?
A. No.
Q. Mr. Wrotniak, I show you what previously has been marked as Exhibit 527. It bears production number RDI 0063918.
Have you seen Exhibit 527 previously?
A. Yes.
Q. When?
A. I don't recall when the first time I saw it was.
Q. You saw it yesterday, correct?

Page 92

A. Oh, I did see it yesterday.
Q. Do you recall whether you saw it prior to yesterday?
A. I don't recall.
Q. Do you see that you're not identified as either a -- well, you're not identified on the from, to or cc section.
A. Correct.
Q. Does that refresh your recollection that the first time you saw Exhibit 527 was yesterday?
MR. SEARCY: Objection; lacks foundation.
A. I don't recall when I saw it.
Q. Did you ever see a draft of Exhibit 527?
A. I don't recall.
Q. Did you ever have any discussions with anybody about Exhibit 527, excluding any you had with Mr. Searcy yesterday?
A. Yes.
Q. When and with whom?
A. In my conversation with Mike Bonner and Mark Ferrario.
Q. This is the telephone call you and Ms. Codding had with Bonner and Ferrario?
A. Correct.
Q. Have you had any other communications regarding Exhibit 527?

Page 93

A. No.
Q. In your call with Bonner and Ferrario, did you have 527 or a draft of that in your hand or in front of you at the time of the call?
A. No.
Q. Had you seen it at that time?
A. No.
MR. KRUM: Let's go off the record.
THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now off the record at 12:16 p.m.
(Whereupon, a short recess was taken.)
THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is tape 3, part 2 of the deposition of Michael Wrotniak. We are now on the record at 12:25 p.m.
MR. KRUM: Marshall, there was a particular document that was mentioned at the last two depositions that you were going to check on. Were you able to do that?
MR. SEARCY: Oh, that was something that Ferrario was going to look into. I'll follow up with him.
MR. KRUM: Okay.
MR. SEARCY: That had to do with special committee meeting minutes, is that right?

MR. KRUM: I believe that was, yes.
MR. SEARCY: I'll follow up with him on that.
MR. KRUM: I don't think there's any reason to take Mr. Wrotniak's time about that.
MR. SEARCY: He's not even part of that committee, so.
MR. KRUM: I don't have any further questions. All rights are reserved.
Thank you, sir, for your time and off we go to the next one I guess.
MR. SEARCY: Thank you. No questions from me.
THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This concludes today's deposition of Michael Wrotniak. We are now off the record at 12:25 p.m.
(Whereupon, at 12:25 P.M., the Examination of this witness was concluded.)

contingency plan if they win the lawsuit. But if Tim has been offered something, he cannot continue on the independent committee, as it would taint the committee and their position."

Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. To what does that refer?

A. What it refers to is if Tim really was interested in becoming C.E.O., then he should have gotten off the committee, because we would make that decision. And it would be inappropriate for him to be on the committee of non-Cotter directors.

That was my view.

Q. And what did Ellen say that she had done, if anything, with respect to Tim or anyone else serving as interim C.E.O.?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: I don't think Ellen -- I don't know if I ever had a discussion with Ellen about it.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. To what does the term "contingency plan" refer in the sentence I read?

Page 175

Or I guess I should say to what does "contingency plan if they win the lawsuit" refer to?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: I'm not 100 percent sure what I had in mind.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. How many times did you ask Ellen whether she had -- she or Margaret had discussed with Tim Storey his becoming interim C.E.O.?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Assumes facts, misstates testimony, is vague.

THE WITNESS: This was probably the only time.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Well, I refer your attention, Mr. Kane --

A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- to the third line that's not redacted which begins,

"I did talk with Ellen to ask again whether she or Margaret had discussed with Tim his becoming interim C.E.O." --

A. I see that, but I don't think I had more than one discussion with her.

Page 176

Q. You don't think you had more than one -- one discussion with Ellen regarding the subject of Tim Storey becoming interim C.E.O.?

A. I don't think so.

Q. You have discussions with her about the subject of an interim C.E.O. other than that what you believe to be one discussion about Tim Storey?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: I don't think so.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Did you ever have any communications with Ellen Cotter about Guy Adams serving as interim C.E.O.?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: I may have. I just don't recall.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. Three lines from the bottom of your March 1 email on Exhibit 105, it reads,

"According to Ellen, Craig is also on the 'team';"

Do you see that?

A. Yeah.

Q. What team are you referencing there?

A. I think it was Ellen and Margaret versus

Page 177

Jim.

Q. Was that word "team" used by Ellen? Is that why you put it in quotes?

A. No.

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Lacks foundation.

THE WITNESS: No.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. That was just your usage?

A. Yes.

Q. Why was that, if you recall?

A. That's the kind of writer I am. I don't know.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't have a secretary. I make this stuff up myself.

MR. KRUM: I'll ask the court reporter to mark as Exhibit 106 a one-page document bearing production number GA5123.

(Whereupon the document referred to was marked Plaintiffs' Exhibit 106 by the Certified Shorthand Reporter and is attached hereto.)

I -- I said to him at one point, "Take it. You have nothing to lose. You're going to get terminated if you don't. If you can work it out with your sisters, it will go on and I will support you. I'll even make a motion to see if the company will reimburse the legal fees."

I did not want him to go.

And you, I'm sure, see emails in there to that effect. Even though I voted -- was voting against him, I wanted him to stay as C.E.O.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. If you wanted him to stay as C.E.O. --

A. Right.

Q. -- why did you vote against him?

A. Because I wanted him to stay as C.E.O., working with his sisters who were work -- willing to work with him for the benefit of the company.

And to me it was a wonderful solution, and it had no adverse impact. If it didn't work out, then we would deal with it. But he would work with them and -- as an executive committee.

He told me that he didn't want Guy Adams on there. And I told him, "I'll do my best to make sure that he isn't on that; just you and your sisters."

And if they could work together, that's all we wanted.

Q. Are you drawing a distinction, Mr. Kane, between Ellen and Margaret working with Jim Cotter, Jr., as distinct from working for him?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: I don't think I ever made that distinction, but I think he would glean and learn a lot working with them.

After all they were the operating executives of this company.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. And did you understand that -- strike that.

But that resolution did not come to pass because Jim Cotter, Jr., rejected it, correct?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: He rejected it, yes.

(Whereupon Ms. Bannett left the deposition proceedings at this time.)

BY MR. KRUM:

Q. And he got himself terminated, right?

MR. SEARCY: Objection. Vague.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. KRUM: Marshall, you wanted to quit at 4:30, and I see it's 4:29. So --

Let me be clear.

You advised me we were going to quit at 4:30 to accommodate Mr. Kane, and we're going to do that.

So, it's 4:30, we'll go off the record.

MR. SEARCY: Appreciate that.

VIDEOTAPE OPERATOR: This concludes the deposition of Edward Kane, volume one on May 2, 2016, which consists of four media files. The original media files will be maintained by Hutchings Litigation Services.

Off the video record.

The time is 4:30 P.M.

(Whereupon at 4:30 P.M. the deposition proceedings were concluded.)

EVIDENTIARY HEARING

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 2018

COURT RECORDER:	TRANSCRIPTION BY:
JILL HAWKINS District Court	FLORENCE HOYT Las Vegas, Nevada 89146

Proceedings recorded by audio-visual recording, transcript produced by transcription service.

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PLAINTIFF:	MARK G. KRUM, ESQ. STEVE L. MORRIS, ESQ. AKKE LEVIN, ESQ.
FOR THE DEFENDANTS:	SHOSHANA E. BANNETT, ESQ. MARSHALL SEARCY, ESQ. KEVIN M. JOHNSON, ESQ. MARK E. FERRARIO, ESQ. KARA B. HENDRICKS, ESQ.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

Mr. Krum.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q What was the consequence of the actions taken at the December 29 board meeting?

A A ratification of the acts that were considered at that time.

Q And the minutes were needed to do what?

A Memorialize the action taken.

Q Why?

A Good corporate practice.

Q So they were prepared on a expedited basis for the purpose of putting them in the minute book?

A They were prepared on an expedited basis to memorialize the action taken by the board of directors, as opposed to a status conference call that had no legal consequence.

Q The action needed to be memorialized on an expedited basis why?

A Because there was a particular import to that action.

Q When did RDI start preparing minutes on an expedited basis because the minutes memorialized an action?

A You mischaracterize what I said, and you mischaracterize the policy of Reading. There is no such policy. The intent is to prepare the minutes when you can. import, whether it's a loan closing, a transactional approval, something that has some legal consequence, you typically prepare those resolutions quite quickly.

Q What was the particular legal import in this instance?

A The ratification of the matters that were considered at the December 29 meeting.

Q And is it your testimony, Mr. Bonner, that the existence of minutes had some legal import?

A Well, no. I think as you probably know, the board's vote constitutes the action of the board. The minutes are merely a memorialization of that. But where there's something that had some significance you typically prepare the resolutions quite quickly.

Q To what use have those minutes been put since they were drafted?

MR. FERRARIO: We used them in the motion.

THE COURT: Yeah. We all know that. But Mr. Bonner has to now say that.

MR. FERRARIO: He's the minute guy. I'm the litigator.

THE COURT: He may not -- he may not know that, because he's a transactional guy.

MR. FERRARIO: You're right.

Ferrario. You see that?

A I do.

Q You see that the date is December 26?

A I do.

Q See that the re line, apparently, on the email said, "Draft for your review"?

A I do see that, yes.

Q See the description of it -- for the privilege log purposes is "Communication regarding notice and agenda for upcoming board meeting? See that?

A I do.

Q You recall you were involved in the preparation of the notice and agenda for the board meeting; right? The December 29 board meeting.

A I was involved in the -- in that meeting. I don't recall if I prepared the notice, but --

Q To what use, if any, was Plaintiffs' Exhibit 1 put in the preparation of any of the board materials, including in particular the agenda?

MR. FERRARIO: Could you flip that around and just ask, was it put to any use, so I can see if there's any --

MR. KRUM: Of course.

MR. FERRARIO: -- attorney-client.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q Was Plaintiffs' Exhibit 1, the December 27 Gould

email, put to any use in preparation of the board package, including in particular the agenda?

THE COURT: And that's a yes or no. Was it put to a use?

THE WITNESS: Presumably, yes.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q I direct your attention, Mr. Bonner, to page 1 of this document. Page 1 of 37.

THE COURT: You're back on the privilege log?

MR. KRUM: Yes, back on the privilege log.

THE COURT: That's P-2.

MR. KRUM: Thank you.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q Do you have that?

A 1 of 37?

Q That's correct.

A Yes.

Q I direct your attention, Mr. Bonner, to the next-to-last entry on the left-hand side. It ends in 59792, I think. Do you have that?

A Yes.

Q Do you see that's an email from you to Mr. Gould with copies to others?

A I see that, yes.

Q You see the description is "Fwd: For Bill Gould to sign"? That apparently is the re line; is that right?

A I assume it is just by looking at the top column.

Q Okay. And do you see on the right-hand side the description for privilege log purposes is "Communication regarding draft letter re special board meeting"?

A I see that, yes.

Q Okay. So did you on or -- on December 27th send Mr. Gould an email concerning a draft letter for a special board meeting?

A Based on this description, yes.

Q Does that comport with your independent recollection?

A I don't know if I remember this specific email, but generally I do. Generally the whole --

Q That's what I'm asking. So I direct your attention on the same page, Mr. Bonner, two entries left of the entry ending in 68, I believe the numbers are. Do you have that?

A I do.

Q Do you see that has the -- apparently the re line is "For Bill Gould to sign." Do you see that?

A I do.

Q And the description is the same as the last one at which we looked, "Communication regarding draft letter re special board meeting"; right?

A I see that, yes.

Q You see this is an email from you to Craig Tompkins and others?

A I see that, yes, indicated in the box.

Q So did you -- did you have email communications with Mr. Tompkins on or about the 27th of December with respect to the matters reflected in the re line of the privilege description?

A Based on this document I guess I did, yes.

Q Did you disclose to Mr. Gould that you had had communications with Mr. Tompkins about a draft letter regarding a special board meeting?

MR. FERRARIO: Objection. Attorney-client, Your Honor.

MR. KRUM: Yes or no, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. KRUM:

Q Did you have any communications -- strike that.

Did you ever have any discussions with any or all of the members of the special independent committee about the subject matter of Greenberg Traurig jointly representing the company and the special independent committee?

MR. FERRARIO: Objection, Your Honor. That's beyond the scope of this hearing, calls the attorney-client --

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. KRUM: Your Honor, it actually goes to exactly

Defendant Margaret Cotter ("Defendant"), by and through her counsel, and pursuant to N.R.C.P. 33, hereby provides these objections and responses to Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr.'s January 12, 2018 Interrogatories (the "Interrogatories").

GENERAL OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

1. Defendant is presently pursuing her investigation of the facts and law relating to Plaintiff's Interrogatories. Defendant's objections and responses are based on the knowledge, information, and beliefs of Defendant at this time, as well as the documents in Defendant's possession, custody, or control. Therefore, the objections and responses are given without prejudice to Defendant's right to produce evidence of subsequently discovered facts or to add, modify, or otherwise change or amend the objections and responses or to rely on additional evidence at trial or in connection with any pretrial proceedings. Defendant expressly reserves the right to amend or supplement these objections and responses.

2. Defendant objects to each and every instruction, definition, and Interrogatory to the extent that that they seek information that is neither relevant to this action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

3. Defendant objects to each and every instruction, definition, and Interrogatory to the extent they are vague and ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome, and/or seek information that is not within her possession, custody, or control.

4. Defendant objects to each and every instruction, definition, and Interrogatory to the extent that they seek information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, common interest privilege, joint defense privilege, trade secret protections, confidentiality and/or non-disclosure agreements, third-party privacy rights, and/or any other available law, privilege, immunity, doctrine, or other ground for limiting disclosure. The inadvertent disclosure of any such information shall not constitute a waiver of any such law, privilege, immunity, doctrine, or other ground for limiting disclosure with respect to such information, the subject matter of such information, or of Defendant's right to demand the return of inadvertently disclosed materials or to object to the use of any such information during any subsequent proceeding in this action or elsewhere.

5. Defendant objects to each and every instruction, definition, and Interrogatory to the extent that they attempt to impose any burdens inconsistent with or in addition to the obligations under the Nevada Revised Statutes, Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court's local rules, or any other applicable law.

6. Defendant objects to the definition of the term "Documents," as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, and unduly burdensome to the extent that it seeks to impose obligations on Defendant beyond those under the Nevada Revised Statutes, Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court's local rules, or any other applicable law.

7. Defendant objects to the definitions of the term "Identify," as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, and unduly burdensome to the extent that they seek to impose obligations on Defendant beyond those under the Nevada Revised Statutes, Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court's local rules, or any other applicable law.

8. Defendant objects to the Interrogatories to the extent that they are duplicative, cumulative, and/or seek information that may be obtained from other sources or through other means of discovery that are more convenient, more efficient, more practical, less burdensome, or less expensive.

9. Defendant objects to each and every instruction, definition, and Interrogatory to the extent that they are speculative, lack foundation, or improperly assume the existence of hypothetical facts that are incorrect or unknown to Defendant.

10. Defendant objects to each and every instruction, definition, and Interrogatory to the extent that they call for a legal conclusion. Any response by Defendant shall not be construed as providing a legal conclusion regarding the meaning or application of any terms or phrases used in Plaintiff's instructions or definitions.

11. Defendant objects to the Interrogatories to the extent the Interrogatories call for information protected by the privacy rights of Defendant and/or third parties.

12. Defendant objects to the Interrogatories to the extent the Interrogatories call for information containing confidential or personal business information or other proprietary information, including material nonpublic information.

13. Defendant objects to the Interrogatories to the extent the Interrogatories seek information equally or more available to Plaintiff.

14. Defendant objects to the Interrogatories pursuant to N.R.C.P. 33(d), to the extent the answers to the Interrogatories would necessitate the preparation or the making of a compilation, abstract, or summary of or from Defendant's documents, and the burden or expense of preparing or making it would be substantially the same for Plaintiff as for Defendant. As such, it is a sufficient answer to specify the writings from which the answer may be derived or ascertained.

15. Defendant objects to the Interrogatories to the extent the Interrogatories seek information outside the scope of the limited issues on which the Court has re-opened discovery, the ratification and demand-futility issues raised in the motions denied without prejudice on January 8, 2018. See Jan. 8, 2018 Trial Tr. at 28:18-23, 34:11-15.

16. The following responses constitute Defendant's best information and belief at this time, based upon reasonable inquiry and the facts presently available and, except for explicit facts admitted herein, no incidental or implied admissions are intended hereby. The fact that Defendant has answered or objected to any Interrogatory or part thereof should not be taken as an admission that Defendant accepts or admits the existence of any facts set forth or assumed by such Interrogatories, or that such answer or objection constitutes admissible evidence. The fact that Defendant has responded to part or all of any Interrogatory is not intended and shall not be construed to be a waiver by Defendant of all or any part of any objection to any Interrogatory.

17. Where indicated, Defendant will respond to the Interrogatories. These responses are based on the information presently known to Defendant following a reasonable and diligent inquiry.

18. Each of the foregoing general objections is incorporated by reference into each and every specific objection set forth below.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

Defendant incorporates by reference her General Objections. Defendant further objects to this Interrogatory because it seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, common interest privilege, or joint defense privilege. Defendant further objects to the term "spoke" as vague and ambiguous because it is not clear whether it is limited to oral communications or may also include written communications; depending on what "spoke" means, the answer to the Interrogatory may necessitate the preparation or the making of a compilation, abstract, or summary of or from Defendant's documents, the burden or expense of preparing or making it would be substantially the same for Plaintiff as for Defendant, and therefore pursuant to N.R.C.P. 33(d), it is a sufficient answer to specify the writings from which the answer may be derived or ascertained.
