DOCKETING STATEMENT
CIVIL APPEALS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Appellants must complete this docketing statement in compliance with NRAP 14(a). The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in screening jurisdiction, identifying issues on appeal, assessing presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, scheduling cases for oral argument and settlement conferences, classifying cases for expedited treatment and assignment to the Court of Appeals, and compiling statistical information.

WARNING

This statement must be completed fully, accurately and on time. NRAP 14(c). The Supreme Court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate. Id. Failure to fill out the statement completely or to file it in a timely manner constitutes grounds for the imposition of sanctions, including a fine and/or dismissal of the appeal.

A complete list of the documents that must be attached appears as Question 27 on this docketing statement. Failure to attach all required documents will result in the delay of your appeal and may result in the imposition of sanctions.

This court has noted that when attorneys do not take seriously their obligations under NRAP 14 to complete the docketing statement properly and conscientiously, they waste the valuable judicial resources of this court, making the imposition of sanctions appropriate. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 344, 810 P.2d 1217, 1220 (1991). Please use tab dividers to separate any attached documents.

5. Does this appeal raise issues concerning any of the following?

- ☐ Child Custody
- ☐ Venue
- ☐ Termination of parental rights

6. Pending and prior proceedings in this court. List the case name and docket number of all appeals or original proceedings presently or previously pending before this court which are related to this appeal:

HG Staffing, LLC; and MEI-GSR Holdings, LLC, d/b/a Grand Sierra Resort Petitioners, vs. The Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Washoe; and the Honorable Lynne K. Simons, District Judge, Respondents, and Eddy Martel, a/k/a Martel-Rodriguez, Mary Anne Capilla, Janice Jackson-Williams, and Whitney Vaughan Real Parties in Interest. Docket NO. 79118

7. Pending and prior proceedings in other courts. List the case name, number and court of all pending and prior proceedings in other courts which are related to this appeal (e.g., bankruptcy, consolidated or bifurcated proceedings) and their dates of disposition:

8. Nature of the action. Briefly describe the nature of the action and the result below:

This action arises out of a dispute between Plaintiffs/Appellants employees and their employer Grand Sierra Resort ("GSR") regarding unpaid wages for all hours worked in violation of of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution; Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

The Defendants/Appellees contend that Plaintiffs/Appellants claims are outside the statute of limitations, that an expired CBA provides otherwise for overtime, that Plaintiffs cannot represent union and non-union employees, because union employees must proceed via a grievance procedure under the expired CBA.

9. Issues on appeal. State concisely the principal issue(s) in this appeal (attach separate sheets as necessary):

The issues on appeal are from two Orders. The 6/7/19 Order granted in part and denied in part Dfs/Appellees' Mot. to Dismiss on the grounds that NRS 608 statutory wage claims are subject to a 2-year SOL as opposed to the general Nevada Legislature mandated 3-year period set forth in NRS 11.190(3)(a).

The 11/3/20 Order granted Dfs/Appellees' Mot. for Summary Judgment on the basis that (1) Pls/Appellants' NRS 608.040-.050 continuation wage claims accrue on the last day worked as opposed to 30-days after the employment relationship ends; (2)(a) an unsigned expired collective bargaining agreement was valid and operative, (b) the allegedly valid CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime such that NRS 608.018 does not apply, and (c) Plf/ Appellant Jackson-Williams could not represent a putative class of union and non-union employees for statutory wage violations on the grounds that the union was the exclusive representative of union employees.

10. Pending proceedings in this court raising the same or similar issues. If you are aware of any proceedings presently pending before this court which raises the same or similar issues raised in this appeal, list the case name and docket numbers and identify the same or similar issue raised:

None

11. Constitutional issues. If this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute, and the state, any state agency, or any officer or employee thereof is not a party to this appeal, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

☒ N/A

☐ Yes

☐ No

If not, explain:

12. Other issues. Does this appeal involve any of the following issues?

☐ Reversal of well-settled Nevada precedent (identify the case(s))

☒ An issue arising under the United States and/or Nevada Constitutions

☒ A substantial issue of first impression

☐ An issue of public policy

☐ An issue where en banc consideration is necessary to maintain uniformity of this court's decisions

☐ A ballot question

If so, explain: Pls/Appallants allege that the Defendant-employer failed to pay wages in violation of Article 15 Section 16 of the Nevada Constitution and Pls/ Appellants assert as a matter of first impression the NRS 608.020-.050 continuation wages begin to run on the last day of employment but do not accrue until 30-days after the employment relationship ends thereby effecting the timeliness of a claim for NRS 608.020-.050 continuation claims.

13. Assignment to the Court of Appeals or retention in the Supreme Court. Briefly set forth whether the matter is presumptively retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, and cite the subparagraph(s) of the Rule under which the matter falls. If appellant believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals, identify the specific issue(s) or circumstance(s) that warrant retaining the case, and include an explanation of their importance or significance:

This case is presumptively assigned to the Supreme Court under NRAP 17(a)(11) because it includes questions on matters as a principal issue a question of first impression involving the Nevada Constitution and NRAP 17(a)(12) because it includes questions on matters raising a principal issue a question of statewide public importance to employees and employers in Nevada regarding NRS 608.020-.050 continuation wages and whether non-union and union employees can be represented in putative class actions for NTS 608 wage claims.

14. Trial. If this action proceeded to trial, how many days did the trial last? _____

Was it a bench or jury trial? _____

15. Judicial Disqualification. Do you intend to file a motion to disqualify or have a justice recuse him/herself from participation in this appeal? If so, which Justice?
No.

TIMELINESS OF NOTICE OF APPEAL

16. Date of entry of written judgment or order appealed from November 3, 2020

If no written judgment or order was filed in the district court, explain the basis for seeking appellate review:

17. Date written notice of entry of judgment or order was served November 6, 2020

Was service by:

☐ Delivery

☒ Mail/electronic/fax

18. If the time for filing the notice of appeal was tolled by a post-judgment motion (NRCP 50(b), 52(b), or 59)

(a) Specify the type of motion, the date and method of service of the motion, and the date of filing.

☐ NRCP 50(b) Date of filing _____

☐ NRCP 52(b) Date of filing _____

☐ NRCP 59 Date of filing _____

NOTE: Motions made pursuant to NRCP 60 or motions for rehearing or reconsideration may toll the time for filing a notice of appeal. See AA Primo Builders v. Washington, 126 Nev. ____, 245 P.3d 1190 (2010).

(b) Date of entry of written order resolving tolling motion _____

(c) Date written notice of entry of order resolving tolling motion was served _____

Was service by:

☐ Delivery

19. Date notice of appeal filed Originally filed 11/25/20; Amended by Order 4/30/21

If more than one party has appealed from the judgment or order, list the date each notice of appeal was filed and identify by name the party filing the notice of appeal:

20. Specify statute or rule governing the time limit for filing the notice of appeal, e.g., NRAP 4(a) or other

NRAP 4(a)(7)

SUBSTANTIVE APPEALABILITY

21. Specify the statute or other authority granting this court jurisdiction to review the judgment or order appealed from:

(a)

- ☒ NRAP 3A(b)(1)
- ☐ NRAP 3A(b)(2)
- ☐ NRAP 3A(b)(3)
- ☐ Other (specify)
- ☐ NRS 38.205
- ☐ NRS 233B.150
- ☐ NRS 703.376

(b) Explain how each authority provides a basis for appeal from the judgment or order:

NRAP 3A(b)(1) states that an appeal may be taken from a judgment and order of a district court in a civil cause of action if final judgment is an action or proceeding commenced in the court in which judgment is entered.

The District Court's November 3, 2020 Order states, "IT IS HEREBY ORDERED summary judgment is entered in favor of GSR and against Plaintiffs." However, the District Court's Order is unclear as to whether ALL the alleged claims and rights and liabilities of ALL the parties to the action below have been fully and finally adjudicated. Dfs/Appellants assert that ALL claims have been adjudicated, while Pls/Appellants believe that the analysis contained in the District Courts Order leaves claims remaining active in the District Court specific to Pl/Appellant Jackson-Williams. Pls/Appellants are seeking clarification from the District Court.

Per Order of this Court, dated April 29, 2021, Pls/Appellants file this Amended Docketing Statement, and will timely file their Order To Show Cause why Appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

22. List all parties involved in the action or consolidated actions in the district court:

(a) Parties:

Pls/Appellants Eddy Martel, a/k/a Martel-Rodriguez, Mary Anne Capilla, Janice Jackson-Williams, and Whitney Vaughan on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated.

Dfs/Appelleees HG Staffing, LLC; and MEI-GSR Holdings, LLC, d/b/a Grand Sierra Resort.

(b) If all parties in the district court are not parties to this appeal, explain in detail why those parties are not involved in this appeal, e.g., formally dismissed, not served, or other:

23. Give a brief description (3 to 5 words) of each party's separate claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, or third-party claims and the date of formal disposition of each claim.

Pls/Appellants allege their employer, GSR failed to: (1) pay wages for all hours worked in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; (2) pay minimum wages in violation of the Nevada Constitution; (3) pay overtime wage sin violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; (4) to timely pay all wages due and owing upon termination of employment in violation of NRS 608.020-.050. Dfs/Appellees contend that Appellants claims are time-barred, and an expired CBA provides otherwise for overtime wages, union members cannot represent non-union or union members in a putative class action because the union is the exclusive representative.

24. Did the judgment or order appealed from adjudicate ALL the claims alleged below and the rights and liabilities of ALL the parties to the action or consolidated actions below?

☐ Yes

☒ No

25. If you answered "No" to question 24, complete the following:

(a) Specify the claims remaining pending below:

Pl/Appellant Jackson-Williams', individual claims for unpaid non-overtime wages remain; specifically, Plaintiff Jackson-Williams' first, second, and fourth causes of action for (1) failure to compensate for all hours worked in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016, (2) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of the Nevada Constitution, and (4) failure to timely pay all wages due and owing in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.020.050 are still pending in the District Court.

(b) Specify the parties remaining below:
Plaintiff/Appellant Janice Jackson-Willams and fDs/Appelleees HG Staffing, LLC; and MEI-GSR Holdings, LLC, d/b/a Grand Sierra Resort Petitioners.

(c) Did the district court certify the judgment or order appealed from as a final judgment pursuant to NRCP 54(b)?

☐ Yes

☒ No

(d) Did the district court make an express determination, pursuant to NRCP 54(b), that there is no just reason for delay and an express direction for the entry of judgment?

☐ Yes

☒ No

26. If you answered "No" to any part of question 25, explain the basis for seeking appellate review (e.g., order is independently appealable under NRAP 3A(b)):

The District Court's November 3, 2020 Order states, "IT IS HEREBY ORDERED summary judgment is entered in favor of GSR and against Plaintiffs." However, the District Court's Order is unclear as to whether ALL the alleged claims and rights and liabilities of ALL the parties to the action below have been fully and finally adjudicated. Dfs/Appellants assert that ALL claims have been adjudicated, while Pls/ Appellants believe that the analysis contained in the District Courts Order leaves claims remaining active in the District Court specific to Pl/Appellant Jackson-Williams. Pls/Appellants are seeking clarification from the District Court.

27. Attach file-stamped copies of the following documents:

- The latest-filed complaint, counterclaims, cross-claims, and third-party claims
- Any tolling motion(s) and order(s) resolving tolling motion(s)
- Orders of NRCP 41(a) dismissals formally resolving each claim, counterclaims, cross-claims and/or third-party claims asserted in the action or consolidated action below, even if not at issue on appeal
- Any other order challenged on appeal
- Notices of entry for each attached order

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF
THE STATE OF NEVADA IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHOE

EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ), MARY ANNE CAPILLA, JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS, and WHITNEY VAUGHAN on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

HG STAFFING, LLC, MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: CV16-01264

Dept. No.: 6

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

(EXEMPT FROM ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO N.A.R. 5)

1) Failure to Compensate for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and NRS 608.016;

2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution;

3) Failure to Pay Overtime in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and

4) Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.020-050.

LIEN REQUESTED PURSUANT TO NRS 608.050

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COME NOW Plaintiffs EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ), MARY ANNE CAPILLA, JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS, and WHITNEY VAUGHAN

("Plaintiffs"), on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, and hereby alleges as follows:

All allegations in this Complaint are based upon information and belief except for those allegations that pertain to the Plaintiffs named herein and their counsel. Each allegation in this Complaint either has evidentiary support or is likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original jurisdiction over the state law claims alleged herein because the amount in controversy exceeds $15,000 and a party seeking to recover unpaid wages has a private right of action pursuant to the Nevada Constitution, Article 15 Section 16, and Nevada Revised Statute ("NRS") Chapter 608. See Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, Terrible Herbst, Inc., 133 Nev. Adv. Op. 95, 406 P.3d 499 (Dec. 7, 2017). Plaintiffs made a proper demand for wages due pursuant to NRS 608.140 on March 6, 2016.

2. Pursuant to NRS 608.050(2), the Nevada state district court has jurisdiction to foreclose the lien for the wages alleged due herein on the place of employment, as provided in NRS 108.221 to 108.246, inclusive.

3. Venue is proper in the Nevada state district court because one or more of the Defendants named herein maintains its principal place of business, or otherwise is found, in that judicial district, and the acts complained of herein occurred in Washoe County, Nevada.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ) is natural person who is and was a resident of the State of Nevada at all times relevant herein and was employed as an attendant in the Bowling Center by Defendants from on or about January 2012 through on or about July 2014. Plaintiff Martel believes his last hourly rate of pay was between $8.25 and $8.57. Defendants are the only Party in possession of Plaintiff's full schedule, pay, time, and employment records.

5. Plaintiff MARY ANNE CAPILLA is a natural person who is and was a resident of the State of Nevada at all times relevant herein and was employed as a dealer by Defendants from on or about March 2011 to on or about September 2013. Plaintiff Capilla believes her last hourly rate of pay was $7.25. Defendants are the only Party in possession of Plaintiff's full schedule, pay, time, and employment records.

6. Plaintiff JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS is natural person who is and was a resident of the State of Nevada at all times relevant herein and was employed as a room attendant by Defendants from on or about April 2014 through on or about December 2015. Plaintiff Jackson-Williams believes her last hourly rate of pay was $8.25. Defendants are the only Party in possession of Plaintiff's full schedule, pay, time, and employment records.

7. Plaintiff WHITNEY VAUGHAN is natural person who is and was a resident of the State of Nevada at all times relevant herein and was employed as a dancing dealer (part cards dealer, part go-go dancer) by Defendants from on or about August 2012 through on or about June 2013. Plaintiff Vaughan believes her last hourly rate of pay was $8.25. Defendants are the only Party in possession of Plaintiff's schedule, pay, time, and employment records.

8. Defendant HG STAFFING, LLC, is a Nevada Limited Liability Company whose managing member is MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC, located at 2500 East Second Street, Reno, NV 89585.

9. Defendant MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC is a Nevada Limited Liability Company located at 2500 East Second Street, Reno, NV 89585. Defendants MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC is doing business under the fictitious business name of Grand Sierra Resorts, or "GSR", which is located at 200 East Second Street, Reno, NV 89585.

10. Defendants, and each of them, are an employer under the provisions of Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 608. For labor relations purposes, Defendants are each and together constitute the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiffs and all Plaintiff class members (hereinafter referred to as "Class Members").

11. The identity of DOES 1-50 is unknown at this time and this Complaint will be amended at such time when the identities are known to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that each of Defendants sued herein as DOE is responsible in some manner for the acts, omissions, or representations alleged herein and any reference to "Defendant," "Defendants," or "GSR" herein shall mean "Defendants and each of them."

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants as non-exempt hourly employees.

13. Plaintiff Jackson-Williams was scheduled for, and regularly worked, five (5) shifts per week, at least eight (8) hours per shift, and forty (40) hours per workweek and worked split shifts with less than 16-hours in between the end of one shift and the beginning of another shift ("jammed shift") especially during special events and busy periods such as, but not limited to, concerts, Burning Man, Hot August Nights, and Street Vibrations during the relevant time periods alleged herein. Defendants are the only Party in possession of Plaintiff's schedule, pay, time, and employment records.

14. Plaintiffs Martel, and Vaughan worked shifts over eight (8) hours per shift one or more times a week on a regular basis and worked jammed shifts especially during special events and busy periods such as, but not limited to, concerts Burning Man, Hot August Nights, and Street Vibrations during the relevant time periods alleged herein. Specific to Plaintiff Vaughan, because, dance classes were usually held on Saturday mornings and it was not unusual to be scheduled to work a full shift the Friday night into Saturday, then be required to attend dance class that same morning resulting in a jammed shift. Defendants are the only Party in possession of Plaintiffs' schedule, pay, time, and employment records.

15. At all times relevant herein, Defendants maintained the following policies, practices, and procedures of requiring various employees to perform work activities without compensation. This was achieved by either rounding hours so that employees who were technically "on the clock" did not receive pay for all their recorded hours worked or by having employees perform work without being logged in to the timekeeping system. Indeed, Defendants maintain an unlawful rounding policy whereby it rounds the time recorded and worked by all hourly employees to the nearest 15 minutes for purposes of calculating payment of wages owed. Such rounding favors the employer and deprives the employees of pay for time they actually perform work activities.

16. At all times relevant herein, Defendants have been aware that their policies and practices of failing to fully compensate Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated for all hours worked was willful, oppressive, fraudulent, and illegal. Further, Defendants' practice as set forth herein is anti-competitive in that these illegal practices make one of Defendants' largest cost items, labor, lower than as compared to other casino/resort/hotel operators who comply with the labor laws of the State.

A. DEFENDANTS' CASH BANK POLICY

17. Defendants required employees who handle monetary transactions in the regular course of their employment to use or "carry" a cash bank. For example, the following job positions are some of the job positions that required employees to carry a cash bank: cashiers, bartenders, change persons, slot attendants, retail attendants, arcade attendants, and front desk agents.

18. Defendants required all employees who carry a cash bank to retrieve and deposit their respective cash bank both before and after the employees' regularly scheduled shifts without compensation. As an example of this policy, Named Plaintiff Martel was required to collect his bank of money at the dispatch cage prior to proceeding to his workstation and without compensation. Similarly, at the end of his regularly scheduled shifts, Plaintiff Martel was required to reconcile and deposit his cash bank to the same dispatch cage without compensation. Upon information and belief, Defendants required all employees who carry a cash bank in the performance of their work duties to retrieve their cash bank from the same dispatch cage pre- and post-shift without compensation.

Reno, NV 89511
(775) 284-1500 Fax (775) 703-5027
Email info@thiermanbuck.com www.thiermanbuck.com

19. Named Plaintiff Martel estimates it took him approximately 15 minutes to perform banking activities for which he was not paid the minimum, regular rate, or overtime wages required by law. Upon information and belief, all other GSR employees who carry a cash bank are similarly not compensated for the time in which they spend performing their banking activities.

20. As an example, only, Plaintiff Martel was employed from on or about January 25, 2012 through June 12, 2014 for approximately 443 shifts (3.56 shifts per week X 124.3 weeks = 443 shifts). See Exhibit 1 attached to the Toney Report, and attached as Exhibit 1 to this Complaint. One specific date where Plaintiff Martel conducted banking activities prior to clocking in and after clocking out is on May 28, 2013. Id. Although his shift was scheduled to start at 4:00 p.m. he picked up his bank at 3:42 p.m. Id. His shift ended at 12:00 a.m. on May 29, 2013 but did not drop off his bank until 12:03 a.m. Id. Because he conducted banking activities off the clock and without pay, he should have been paid for an additional, approximately 15 minutes of work time. Based on the data currently available to Plaintiffs, the additional 15 minutes of cash banking activities multiplied by 443 shifts equates to 110.8 hours of unpaid wages (15 minutes X 443 shifts = 6,645 minutes divided by 60 = 110.8 total pre-shift hours). Id. Based on a weighted overtime rate of $9.62 (not all pre-shift activities resulted in overtime), Plaintiff Martel is owed $1,065.90 in unpaid wages. Id. Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Martel should have been paid to January 31, 2019, he is owed an additional $496.28 in interest. Because Plaintiff Martel is no longer employed by Defendants, he is also owed waiting time penalties in the amount of $3,598.65 (7.27 hours per day X $8.25 = $59.98 X 60 = $3,598.65). Thus, Plaintiff Martel is owed approximately $5,160.83 for unpaid cash banking activities.

21. Upon information and belief, all other GSR employees who were similarly required to carry a cash bank were not compensated for the time in which they conducted banking activities. Based on a class list provided by Defendants for the period of June 24, 2010 through April 21, 2014[1] (attached as Exhibit 2, hereto), there are approximately 587 class members. Based on the average weekly shift count and pay rates for Plaintiff Martel, extrapolated for the full class period, the putative Cash Bank Class Members are owed approximately $700,927.63 in unpaid wages. Id. Additionally, 379 members of the Cash Bank Class are no longer employed as of April 21, 2014. Id. Thus, based on the failure to pay 379 class members all wages due and owing at the time of termination, formerly employed class members are owed an additional $1,363,888.35 in waiting time penalties. Id. If termination rates remain steady for the full class period, it is estimated that the putative Cash Bank Class Members would be owed $3,494,289.15 in waiting time penalties. Id. The total estimated damage amount due for the Cash Bank Class is $4,195,216.78. Id.

22. Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiff Martell and all putative Class Members who carried a cash bank. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate the exact amount of wages that Plaintiff Martell and all putative Class Members are owed and at the correct rate of pay those wages must be paid. Since Plaintiff was never compensated for the pre- and post-shift activities outlined herein, Plaintiff and all putative Cash Bank Class Members are owed compensation at the applicable hourly rate for each and every day they carried a cash bank.

B. DEFENDANTS' DANCE CLASS POLICY

23. Defendants required all employees who worked as a servetainer and/or dancing dealer to learn dance routines and attend rehearsals without compensation. If the employee did not attend dance classes, they would be taken off the schedule and written up for misconduct.

[1] Although the Class List provided spans the time period of June 24, 2019 through April 21, 2014, the Class period is limited to March 30, 2011 to the present, because the current owners, HG STAFFING, LLC, MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC purchased the property known as the Grand Sierra Resort ("GSR"), March 31, 2011.

24. When named Plaintiff Vaughan was a dancing dealer, she was required to attend dance classes of an hour or more, two to four times a week for which she was not paid her minimum, regular rate, or overtime wages. Additionally, dance classes were usually held on Saturday mornings and it was not unusual to be scheduled to work a full shift the Friday night into Saturday, then be required to attend dance class that same morning.

25. As an example, only, Plaintiff Vaughan was employed from on or about August 1, 2012 through June 13, 2013 for 46 weeks. See Exhibit 2 to the Toney Report. Upon information and belief, one specific date where Plaintiff attended dance classes off the clock occurred when Plaintiff Vaughan worked April 26, 2013 from 8:30 p.m. to April, 27, 2013 at 4:00 a.m. (7.5 hours), was required to attend dance class (2 hours), then worked from 8:15 p.m. on April 27, 2013, to 1:00 a.m. on April 28, 2013 (4.75 hours). See Exhibit 6. Because she was required to attend dance classes off the clock and without pay, she should have been paid for 2 hours. Based on the data currently available to Plaintiffs, the two hours per week of unpaid dance classes amounts to 92 hours (46 X 2 = 92). See Exhibit 2 to Toney Report. Ninety-two hours at Plaintiff Vaughan's straight-time rate of $8.25 amounts to $759.00 of unpaid wages. Id. Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Vaughan should have been paid to January 31, 2019, she is owed an additional $428.08 in interest. Because Ms. Vaughan is no longer employed by Defendants, she is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $2,623.50 (average of 5.3 hours per shift, multiplied by $8.25 = $43.725 per day X 60 = $2,623.50). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Vaughan is owed approximately $3,810.58 for unpaid dance classes.

26. Upon information and belief, all other GSR employees who were similarly required to attend dance classes were not compensated for the required dance class time. Based on a class list provided by Defendants for the period of June 24, 2010 through April 21, 2014, there are approximately 48 class members. See Exhibit 2. Based on the average weekly shift count and pay rates for Plaintiff Vaughan, extrapolated for the full class period, the putative Dance Class Members are owed approximately $143,081.40 in unpaid wages. See Exhibit 2 attached to the Toney Report. Additionally, 21 members of the Dance Class are no longer employed as of April 21, 2014. Id. Thus, based on the failure to pay 21 class members all wages due and owing at the time of termination, formerly employed class members are owed an additional $55,093.50 in waiting time penalties. Id. If termination rates remain steady for the full class period, it is estimated that the putative Dance Class Members would be owed $139,045.50 in waiting time penalties. Id. The total estimated damage amount due for the Cash Dance Class is $282,126.90. Id

27. Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiff Vaughan and all putative Class Members who attended dance classes. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate the exact amount of wages that Plaintiff Vaughan and all putative Dance Class Members are owed and at the correct rate of pay those wages must be paid. Since Plaintiff was never compensated for the dance classes outlined herein, Plaintiff and all putative Dance Class Members are owed compensation at the applicable hourly rate for each and every dance class they attended.

C. DEFENDANTS' ROOM ATTENDANT PRE-SHIFT POLICY

28. Defendants required all employees who worked as a room attendant/housekeeper to engage in pre-shift work activities off the clock and without compensation. Room attendants were required to arrive 20 minutes or more prior to their regularly scheduled start time to present themselves to their shift supervisors for room/floor assignments, a uniform inspection, and to retrieve tools necessary to complete their work tasks, including but not limited to filling their caddies with room amenities, and their cleaning carts. These tasks were completed off the clock and without compensation.

29. As an example, only, Plaintiff Jackson-Williams[2] was employed from on or about April 9, 2014 through December 31, 2015 for approximately 90.3 weeks. See Exhibit 3 attached to the Toney Report. She alleges she worked an average of five shifts per week or 452 shifts (90.3 X 5 = 451.5). She also alleges that each and every shift she worked during her 90.3 weeks of employment, she was required to work approximately twenty (20) minutes each and every shift of unpaid pre-shift time amounting to 150.7 hours (452 X 20 minutes = 9,040 minutes, divided by 60 = 150.7 hours). One-hundred fifty point seven hours multiplied by the overtime rate of $12.375 ($8.25 X 1.5 = $12.375) equates to $1,864.91 in unpaid wages. Id. Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Jackson-Williams should have been paid to January 31, 2019, she is owed an additional $561.34 in interest. Id. Because Ms. Jackson-Williams is no longer employed by Defendants, she is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $3,960.00 (average of 8 hours per shift, multiplied by $8.25 = $66.00 per day X 60 = $3,960.00). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Jackson-Williams is owed $6,386.25 for unpaid pre-shift activities. Id.

30. Named Plaintiff Jackson-Williams was required to complete these work tasks each and every shift worked and was not paid her minimum, regular rate, or overtime wages. Based on her knowledge and belief all employees who were similarly employed as room attendants/housekeepers followed the same policy and procedure as mandated by Defendants. Upon information and belief, all other GSR employees who were similarly employed as room attendants were not compensated for the required ore-shift time. Based on a class list provided by Defendants for the period of June 24,

[2] Plaintiff Jackson-Williams is not in possession, custody or control of any of her schedules, time, or pay data, however she was scheduled to work and did work five shifts per week. Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiff Jackson-Williams and all putative Room Attendant Class Members. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate the exact amount of wages that Plaintiff Jackson-Williams and all putative Room Attendant Class Members are owed and at the correct rate of pay those wages must be paid.

2010 through April 21, 2014, there are approximately 217 class members. See Exhibit 2. Based on the average weekly shift count and pay rates for Plaintiff Jackson-Williams, extrapolated for the full class period, the putative Room Attendant Class Members who were employed fulltime, are owed approximately $1,109,860.54 in unpaid wages. See Exhibit 3 attached to the Toney Report. Additionally, 83 members of the Room Attendant Class are no longer employed as of April 21, 2014. Id. Thus, based on the failure to pay 83 class members all wages due and owing at the time of termination, formerly employed class members are owed an additional $328,680.00 in waiting time penalties. Id. If termination rates remain steady for the full class period, it is estimated that the putative Room Attendant Class Members would be owed $839,520.00 in waiting time penalties. Id. The total estimated damage amount due for the Room Attendant Class is $1,949,380.54.[3] Id

31. Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiff Jackson-Williams and all putative Room Attendant Class Members. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate the exact amount of wages that Plaintiff Jackson-Williams and all putative Room Attendant Class Members are owed and at the correct rate of pay those wages must be paid. Since Plaintiff was never compensated for the pre-shift work activities outlined herein, Plaintiff and all putative Room Attendant Class Members are owed compensation at the applicable hourly rate for each and every shift worked.

D. DEFENDANTS' PRE-SHIFT MEETING POLICY

32. Defendants required all employees who worked as cocktail waitresses, bartenders, dealers, security guards, technicians, construction workers, and retail attendants to attend a pre-shift meeting without compensation. The pre-shift meetings were held in order to instruct employees on job duties, special events in the area and at the GSR, occupancy, and other job related information. Pre-shift meetings could take 10 minutes or more and were either held off the clock or during the period of time that was improperly rounded off of employees' time cards.

[3] This figure is limited to full-time employed room attendants and does not take into account the part-time room attendants who were also required to complete work activities off the clock and without compensation. See Exhibit 3. Part-time employees for the period of March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 have damage ranges from $960,347.03 to $1,037,708.10. Id.

33. As an example, only, Plaintiff Capilla was employed from on or about March 23, 2011 through September 9, 2013 for approximately 128.9 weeks. See Exhibit 4 attached to the Toney Report. Because she was required to attend pre-shift meeting off the clock and without pay, she should have been paid for an additional 10 minutes of compensable work time in addition to her regular work hours. Based on the data currently available to Plaintiffs, she worked an average of 3.82 shifts per week or 493 shifts (3.82 X 128.9 = 493). Id. Ten minutes multiplied by 493 shifts equates to 82.2 hours of unpaid pre-shift meeting work (10 X 493 = 4,930 divided by 60 = 82.16 hours). Id. Eighty-two hours multiplied by the weighted rate of $8.47 (not all hours worked were overtime hours) equates to $696.23 in unpaid wages due ($8.47 X 82.2 = $696.23). Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Jackson-Williams should have been paid to January 31, 2019, she is owed an additional $375.96 in interest. Id. Because Ms. Capilla is no longer employed by Defendants, she is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $3,001.50 (average of 6.9 hours per shift X $7.25 = $50.03 X 60 = $3,001.50). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Capilla is owed approximately $4,073.69 for unpaid pre-shift meetings. Id.

34. As an example, only, Plaintiff Martel was employed from on or about January 25, 2012 through June 12, 2014 for approximately 124.3 weeks. See Exhibit 4 attached to the Toney Report. Because he was required to attend pre-shift meetings off the clock and without pay, he should have been paid for an additional 10 minutes of compensable work time in addition to his regular hours. Based on the data currently available to Plaintiffs, he worked an average of 3.56 shifts per week or 443 shifts (3.56 X 124.3 = 443). Ten minutes multiplied by 443 shifts equates to 73.8 hours of unpaid pre-shift meeting work (10 X 443 = 4,430 divided by 60 = 73.8 hours). Id. Seventy-three point 8 hours multiplied by the weighted rate of $9.62 (not all hours worked were overtime hours) equates to $709.96 in unpaid wages due ($9.62 X 73.8 = $709.96). Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Martel should have been paid to January 31, 2019, he is owed an additional $383.38 in interest. Id. Because Mr. Martel is no longer employed by Defendants, he is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $3,598.65 (average of 7.27 hours per shift, multiplied by $8.25 = $59.98 per day X 60 = $3,598.65). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Martel is owed approximately $4,691.99 for unpaid pre-shift meetings. Id.

35. Named Plaintiffs Capilla and Martel were required to attend these pre-shift meetings without compensation and for which they were not paid their minimum, regular rate, or overtime wages. Based on their knowledge and belief all employees who were similarly employed as dealers, cocktail waitresses, baristas, security guards, bartenders, and retail attendants followed the same policy and procedure as mandated by Defendants. Upon information and belief, all other GSR employees who were similarly required to attend pre-shift meetings were not compensated for the required pre-shift time. Based on a class list provided by Defendants for the period of June 24, 2010 through April 21, 2014, there are approximately 609 class members. See Exhibit 2. Based on the average weekly shift count and pay rates for Plaintiff Capilla and Plaintiff Martel, extrapolated out for the entire class period, the putative Pre-Shift Meeting Class Members are owed approximately $571,434.92 in unpaid wages. See Exhibit 4 to the Toney Report. Additionally, 417 members of the Pre-Shift Class are no longer employed as of April 21, 2014. Id. Thus, based on the failure to pay 417 class members all wages due and owing at the time of termination, formerly employed class members are owed an additional $1,371,396.24 in waiting time penalties. Id. If termination rates remain steady for the full class period, it is estimated that the putative Pre-Shift Class Members would be owed $3,512,352.96 in waiting time penalties. Id. The total estimated damage amount due for the Cash Bank Class is $4,083,787.88. Id

36. . Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiffs Capilla and Martel and all putative Pre-Shift Meeting Class Members. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate the exact amount of wages that Plaintiffs Capilla and Martel and all putative Pre-Shift Meeting Class Members are owed and at the correct rate of pay those wages must be paid. Since Plaintiff was never compensated for the pre-shift work activities outlined herein, Plaintiffs and all putative Pre-Shift Class Members are owed compensation at the applicable hourly rate for each and every shift worked.

E DEFENDANTS' UNIFORM POLICY

37. Defendants required all employees who worked as dancing dealers, cocktail waitresses, and baristas to change into and out of their uniforms on the GSR premises without compensation.

38. Named Plaintiff Vaughan was required to change into and out of her uniform on the GSR premises without compensation and for which she was not paid her minimum, regular rate, or overtime wages. Changing into and out of uniforms could take 15 minutes or more and employees either changed off the clock and/or were changing during the period of time that was improperly rounded off of employees' time cards.

39. As an example, only, Plaintiff Vaughan was employed from on or about August 1, 2012 through June 13, 2013 for 45.3 weeks or approximately 95 shifts (45.3 X 2.1 = 95.13). See Exhibit 5 attached to the Toney Report. Upon information and belief, one specific date where Plaintiff attended dance classes off the clock occurred when Plaintiff Vaughan worked April 26, 2013 from 8:30 p.m. to April, 27, 2013 at 4:00 a.m. (7.5 hours), was required to attend dance class (2 hours), then worked from 8:15 p.m. on April 27, 2013, to 1:00 a.m. on April 28, 2013 (4.75 hours). See Exhibit 6 to Toney Report. Because she was required to engage in uniform changing on premises and off the clock and without pay, she should have been paid for 15 minutes of additional work time. Fifteen minutes per shift of unpaid uniform changing time per shift amounts to 23.8 hours (95 X 15 = 1,425 divided by 60 = 23.75). See Exhibit 5 attached to the Toney Report. Twenty-three point seven-five hours at Plaintiff Vaughan's weighted wage rate of $8.46 (not all hours were overtime hours) amounts to $201.35 of unpaid wages (23.75 X $8.46 = $201.35). Id. Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Martel should have been paid to January 31, 2019, he is owed an additional $113.76 in interest. Id. Because Ms. Vaughan is no longer employed by Defendants, she is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $2,623.50 (average of 5.3 hours per shift, multiplied by $8.25 = $43.725 per day X 60 = $2,623.50). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Vaughan is owed approximately $2,938.61 for unpaid uniform changing activities. Id.

40. Based on Plaintiff Vaughan's knowledge and belief all employees who were similarly employed as dancer dealers, cocktail waitresses, and baristas followed the same policy and procedure mandated by Defendants. Upon information and belief, all other GSR employees who were similarly required to change in to and out of uniforms on the GSR premises were similarly not paid. Based on a class list provided by Defendants for the period of June 24, 2010 through April 21, 2014, there are approximately 240 class members. See Exhibit 2. Based on the average weekly shift count and pay rates for Plaintiff Vaughan, the putative Uniform Class Members are owed approximately $50,970.65 in unpaid wages. See Exhibit 5 to the Toney Report. Additionally, 157 members of the Unifrom Class are no longer employed as of April 21, 2014. Id. Thus, based on the failure to pay 157 class members all wages due and owing at the time of termination, formerly employed class members are owed an additional $411,889.50 in waiting time penalties. Id. If termination rates remain steady for the full class period, it is estimated that the putative Uniform Class Members would be owed $1,054,647.00 in waiting time penalties. Id. The total estimated damage amount due for the Uniform Class is $1,197,561.78. Id

41. Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiff Vaughan and all putative Uniform Members. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate the exact amount of wages that Plaintiff Vaughan and all putative Uniform Class Members are owed and at the correct rate of pay those wages must be paid. Since Plaintiff was never compensated for the uniform changing activities outlined herein, Plaintiff and all putative Uniform Class Members are owed compensation at the applicable hourly rate for each and every shift worked.

F. DEFENDANTS' SHIFT JAMMING POLICY

42. In addition to requiring employees to perform work activities without compensation, Defendants engaged in the unlawful practice known as "shift-jamming."

43. Pursuant to NRS 608.018(1), employees who are paid less than one and one half times the minimum wage must be paid daily overtime if they work more than 8 hours a day (or 10 hours in a day if they are on a recognized and agreed upon 4-10 workweek—four days a week at ten hours a day).

44. NRS 608.0126 defines a "Workday" as a period of 24 consecutive hours, which begins when the employee begins work.

45. Upon information and belief, Defendants did not offer health insurance to qualify for the lower minimum wage for insured employees.

46. Thus, hourly employees paid less than $12.375 who the Defendants required, suffered or permitted to return to work before the expiration of 16 hours between when they last worked for the employer and started their next shift, must be paid at overtime rates until the end of that workday.

47. Defendants routinely required employees who were entitled to daily overtime to return to work sooner than 16 hours from when they last worked, whether it to be for their normal job duties or a special event, during high occupancy periods such as for concerts, Burning Man, Hot August Nights, and Street Vibrations, or mandatory meetings, without paying the proper overtime rate.

48. Plaintiffs were scheduled to and did work shifts with less than 16 hours between the end of one shift and the beginning of the next without being paid overtime premium for hours worked over eight in a workday.

49. As an example, only, Plaintiff Martel was employed from on or about January 25, 2012 through June 12, 2014. Where KRONOS (time) data is available, he worked approximately 101 weeks. See Exhibit 6 attached to the Toney Report. For instance, Plaintiff Martel worked from 6:45 p.m. on August 10, 2013 to 4:15 a.m. on August 11, 2013 (8.0 hours). Id. He then worked 4:00 p.m. on August 11, 2013 to 12:30 a.m. on August 12, 2013 (8.0 hours). Because he was required to return to work before he received 16 hours off between the end of his first shift and the beginning of the next, he worked a jammed shift. The available KRONOS clock time contains 362 shifts. Id. Of the analyzed shifts, a shift jam was observed in 37 shifts or 10% of the time. Id. Of the jammed shifts, 21 or 6% resulted in unpaid overtime premium due. Id. When an overtime impact existed, the average overtime hour amount was 1.52. Id. The total shift jam hours with overtime premium due is 21 shifts, resulting in an underpayment of 31.9 hours (21 shifts X 1.52 hours = 31.9 hours). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Martel is due and additional $138.77 in unpaid overtime premium (31 X $4.13 (half-time rate) = $131.75). Id. Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Martel should have been paid to January 31, 2019, he is owed an additional $67.19 in interest. Id. Because Mr. Martel is no longer employed by Defendants, he is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $3,598.65 (average of 7.27 hours per shift, multiplied by $8.25 = $59.98 per day X 60 = $3,598.65). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Martel is owed approximately $3,797.59 for jammed shifts. Id.

50. As an example, only, Plaintiff Vaughan was employed from on or about August 1, 2012 through June 13, 2013. Where KRONOS (time) data is available, she worked approximately 45.3 weeks. See Exhibit 6 attached to the Toney Report. Upon information and belief, one specific date where Plaintiff attended dance classes off the clock occurred when Plaintiff Vaughan worked April 26, 2013 from 8:30 p.m. to April, 27, 2013 at 4:00 a.m. (7.5 hours), was required to attend dance class (2 hours), then worked from 8:15 p.m. on April 27, 2013, to 1:00 a.m. on April 28, 2013 (4.75 hours). Id. Because she was required to change and attend dance classes off the clock and without pay, and did not receive 16 hours off between the end of her first shift and the beginning of the next, she worked a jammed shift. The available KRONOS clock time contains 95 shifts. Id. Of the analyzed shifts, a shift jam was observed in 8 shifts or 9% of the time. Id. Of the jammed shifts, 4 resulted in unpaid overtime premium due. Id. When an overtime impact existed, the average overtime hour amount was 1.12. Id. The total shift jam hours with overtime premium due is 8 shifts, resulting in an underpayment of 9.0 hours (8 shifts X 1.12 hours = 9.0 hours). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Vaughan is due and additional $37.17 in unpaid overtime premium (9 X $4.13 (half-time rate) = $37.17). Id. Based on a simple 10% interest rate from the time Plaintiff Vaughan should have been paid to January 31, 2019, she is owed an additional $21.00 in interest. Id. Because Ms. Vaughan is no longer employed by Defendants, she is owed waiting time penalties equal to 60 days of wages in the amount of $2,623.50 (average of 5.3 hours per shift, multiplied by $8.25 = $43.725 per day X 60 = $2,623.50). Id. Thus, Plaintiff Vaughan is owed approximately $2,681.67 for jammed shifts. Id.

51. Defendants have admitted that they did not pay employees for jammed shifts for the period of time between November 4, 2011 and July 11, 2014 for "certain team members." See Exhibit 3 attached, hereinafter "Audit Letter."

52. It is not possible for Plaintiff to estimate class damages because Defendants are the sole Party in this action who have access to the relevant schedule, time, and pay data required to conduct further analysis. Defendants are legally required to maintain the employment records for Plaintiffs Martell and Vaughan and all putative Shift Jamming Class Members. GSR is therefore in possession (or should be in possession) of the necessary scheduling, gate data (swipe in/out of the GSR property), punch data (clock in/out records), and pay data to demonstrate whether or not employees were subject to a jammed shift and whether or not these Class Members received proper overtime premium pay. The claim for unpaid overtime wages pursuant to Defendants' shift jamming policy is only brought on behalf of employees who are not covered by a valid and effective collective bargaining agreement.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

53. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by this reference all the paragraphs above in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

54. Plaintiffs seek to represent the following classes of employees in Defendants' employ during the relevant time period[4]:

A. Cash Bank Class: All Nevada residents who were employed by Defendants at the time of filing the original complaint in this action and who were required to carry a cash bank and performed banking activities without compensation, including (but not limited to), cashiers, bartenders, slot attendants, retail attendants, change attendants, and front desk agents, at any time from March 31, 2011 to the present[5];

B. Dance Class: All Nevada residents who were employed by Defendants at the time of filing the original complaint in this action and who were required to attend dance classes without compensation at any time from March 31, 2011 to the present;

[4] On June 21, 2013 Plaintiffs Tiffany Sargent and Bailey Cryderman filed a proposed class action for failure to pay wages due and owing in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Washoe. (See CV13 01351.) Defendants removed that action to the United States District Court District of Nevada on August 22, 2013. Plaintiffs' claims asserted in the instant Complaint were dismissed prior to being certified as a class action on January 12, 2016. The Nevada Supreme Court grants equitable tolling for all putative class members. Golden Coin, Ltd., 124 Nev. at 34, 176 P.3d at 275 ("[C]lass actions brought under NRCP 23 toll the statute of limitations on all potential unnamed plaintiffs' claims[.]"); see also Allen v. KB Home Nevada, Inc., 2013 WL 8609775 (Nev. Dist. Ct. July 25, 2013) (It is determined that pursuant to Jane Roe Dancer I-VII v. Golden Coin, Ltd., 124 Nev. 28, 176 P.3d 271 (2008), that based on the complaint filed on December 2, 2008, which alleges class action status as a remedy, the statute of limitations and/or repose is tolled for all putative class members." (citations omitted)). Accordingly, pursuant to Golden Coin tolling, Plaintiffs and putative class members' wage claims go back to June 21, 2010, three years prior to the original filing of the Sargent action.

C. Room Attendant Class: All Nevada residents who were employed by Defendants at the time of filing the original complaint in this action and who were employed as room attendants and were required to perform pre-shift work activities without compensation at any time from March 31, 2011 to the present;

D. Pre-shift Meeting Class: All Nevada residents who were employed by Defendants at the time of filing the original complaint in this action and who were required to attend pre-shift meetings without compensation, including (but not limited to), cocktail waitresses, bartenders, dealers, security guards, technicians, construction workers, and retail attendants, at any time from March 31, 2011 to the present.

E. Uniform Class: All Nevada residents who were employed by Defendants at the time of filing the original complaint in this action and who were employed as cocktail waitresses and/or baristas and were required to change into and out of their uniforms on property without compensation at any time from March 31, 2011 to the present.

F. Shift Jamming Class: All Nevada residents who were employed by Defendants at the time of filing the original complaint in this action and who were employed by Defendants as non-exempt hourly paid employees and were not covered by a valid and effective collective bargaining agreement and who worked subjected to Defendants' shift jamming policy.

55. Class treatment is appropriate in this case for the following reasons:

A. The Class is Sufficiently Numerous[6]: Upon information and belief, Defendants employ, and have employed, at least 587 Cash Bank Class Members; at least 48 Dance Class Members; at least 217 Room Attendant Class Members; at least 609 Pre-Shift Meeting Class Members; at least 240 Uniform Class; and approximately 200 Shift Jamming Class Members.

[6] Plaintiffs base the approximate class members on number of employees who hold and/or held the positions encompassed by the subclasses, which were provided as part of the Master Class List in the Sargent case attached as Exhibit 2.

B. Plaintiffs' Claims are Typical to Those of Fellow Class Members: Each Class Member is and was subject to the same practices, plans, or policies as Plaintiffs—Defendants required Plaintiffs to work "off the clock" and without compensation; Defendants' engaged in improper shift jamming; and Defendants failed to pay wages due and owing at the time of separation of employment.

C. Common Questions of Law and Fact Exist: Common questions of law and fact exist and predominate as to Plaintiffs and the Class, including, without limitation: Whether the time spent by Plaintiffs and Class Members engaging in the alleged "off-the-clock" work is compensable under Nevada law; whether Defendants' engaged in improper shift jamming; and whether Defendants failed to pay wages due and owing at the time of separation of employment.

D. Plaintiffs are Adequate Representatives of the Class: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Class because Plaintiffs are members of the Classes, they have issues of law and fact in common with all members of the Class, and they do not have interests that are antagonistic to Class Members.

E. Predominance/Superiority: Class issues predominate, and a class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since individual joinder of all members of the Class is impractical. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without unnecessary duplication of effort and expense. Furthermore, the expenses and burden of individualized litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual members of the Class to redress the wrongs done to them, while an important public interest will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016

(On Behalf of All Plaintiffs and the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, and Uniform Classes Against All Defendants)

40. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by this reference all the paragraphs above in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

41. NRS 608.140 provides that an employee has a private right of action for unpaid wages.

42. NRS 608.016 states, "An employer shall pay to the employee wages for each hour the employee works." Hours worked means anytime the employer exercises "control or custody" over an employee. See NRS 608.011 (defining an "employer" as "every person having control or custody . . . of any employee."). Pursuant to the Nevada Administrative Code, hours worked includes "all time worked by the employee at the direction of the employer, including time worked by the employee that is outside the scheduled hours of work of the employee." NAC 608.115(1).

43. By failing to compensate Plaintiffs and members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting and Uniform Classes for the time spent performing the work activities without compensation identified above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and members of those classes for all hours worked in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016.

44. Despite demand, Defendants willfully refuse and continue to refuse to pay its employees wages for each hour the employee works.

45. Wherefore, Plaintiffs demand for themselves and for all members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting and Uniform Classes payment by Defendants at the regular hourly rate of pay for all hours worked during the during

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution

(On Behalf of All Plaintiffs and the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, and Uniform Classes Against All Defendants)

46. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by this reference all the paragraphs above in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

47. Article 15 Section 16 of the Nevada Constitution sets forth the requirements the minimum wage requirements in the State of Nevada and further provides that "[t]he provisions of this section may not be waived by agreement between an individual employee and an employer. . . . An employee claiming violation of this section may bring an action against his or her employer in the courts of this State to enforce the provisions of this section and shall be entitled to all remedies available under the law or in equity appropriate to remedy any violation of this section, including but not limited to back pay, damages, reinstatement or injunctive relief. An employee who prevails in any action to enforce this section shall be awarded his or her reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

48. By failing to compensate Plaintiffs and members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, and Uniform Classes any sort of compensation (zero dollars) for the time spent performing the work activities identified above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and members of those classes minimum wages for all hours worked in violation of the Nevada Constitution.

49. Despite demand, Defendants willfully refuse and continue to refuse to pay its employees minimum wages for each hour the employee works as required by the Nevada Constitution.

50. Wherefore, Plaintiffs demand for themselves and for all for all members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, and Uniform Classes payment by Defendants at the minimum wage rate for all hours worked during the relevant time period alleged herein together with attorneys' fees, costs, and interest as provided by law.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018

(On Behalf of All Plaintiffs and the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes Against All Defendants)

51. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by this reference all the paragraphs above in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

52. NRS 608.140 provides that an employee has a private right of action for unpaid wages.

53. NRS 608.018(1) provides as follows:

> An employer shall pay 1 1/2 times an employee's regular wage rate whenever an employee who receives compensation for employment at a rate less than 1 1/2 times the minimum rate prescribed pursuant to NRS 608.250 works: (a) More than 40 hours in any scheduled week of work; or (b) More than 8 hours in any workday unless by mutual agreement the employee works a scheduled 10 hours per day for 4 calendar days within any scheduled week of work.

54. NRS 608.018(2) provides as follows:

> An employer shall pay 1 1/2 times an employee's regular wage rate whenever an employee who receives compensation for employment at a rate not less than 1 1/2 times the minimum rate prescribed pursuant to NRS 608.250 works more than 40 hours in any scheduled week of work.

55. By failing to compensate Plaintiffs and members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes for the time spent performing the work activities without compensation identified above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and those class members overtime premium pay for all hours worked over eight (8) hours in a workday to those Class Members who were paid a regular rate of less than one and one half times the minimum wage premium pay and, failed to pay a weekly premium overtime rate of time and one half their regular rate for all members of the Class who worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a week in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018.

56. Despite demand, Defendants willfully refuse and continue to refuse to pay its employees 1 ½ times their regular rate of pay for hours worked over forty (40) in a workweek and/or over eight (8) hours in a workday.

57. Wherefore, Plaintiffs demand for themselves and for and members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes that Defendants pay Plaintiffs and those class members one and one half times their "regular rate" of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and in excess of forty (40) hours a workweek during the relevant time period alleged herein together with attorneys' fees, costs, and interest as provided by law.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050

(On Behalf of All Plaintiffs and former employees of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes Against All Defendants)

58. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by this reference all the paragraphs above in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

59. NRS 608.140 provides that an employee has a private right of action for unpaid wages.

60. NRS 608.020 provides that "[w]henever an employer discharges an employee, the wages and compensation earned and unpaid at the time of such discharge shall become due and payable immediately."

61. NRS 608.040(1)(a-b), in relevant part, imposes a penalty on an employer who fails to pay a discharged or quitting employee: "Within 3 days after the wages or compensation of a discharged employee becomes due; or on the day the wages or compensation is due to an employee who resigns or quits, the wages or compensation of the employee continues at the same rate from the day the employee resigned, quit, or was discharged until paid for 30-days, whichever is less."

62. NRS 608.050 grants an "employee lien" to each discharged or laid-off employee for the purpose of collecting the wages or compensation owed to them "in the sum agreed upon in the contract of employment for each day the employer is in default, until the employee is paid in full, without rendering any service therefor; but the employee shall cease to draw such wages or salary 30 days after such default."

63. By failing to pay Plaintiffs and former employees of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes for all hours worked in violation of the state laws identified herein, Defendants have failed to timely remit all wages due and owing to Plaintiffs and all members of those classes who are former employees.

64. Despite demand, Defendants willfully refuse and continue to refuse to pay Plaintiffs and members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes who are former employees all the wages that were due and owing upon the termination of their employment.

65. Wherefore, Plaintiffs demand thirty (30) days wages under NRS 608.140 and 608.040, and an additional thirty (30) days wages under NRS 608.140 and 608.050, for all members of the Cash Bank, Dance, Room Attendant, Pre-shift Meeting, Uniform, and Shift Jamming Classes who have terminated employment from Defendants during the relevant time period alleged herein together with attorneys' fees, costs, and interest as provided by law.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiffs hereby demand a jury trial pursuant to Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 38.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all Members of the Classes alleged herein, pray for relief as follows:

1. For an order certifying the action as a class action under Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23 on behalf of all members of the Classes;
2. For an order appointing Plaintiffs as the Representative of the Classes and their counsel as Class Counsel for the Classes;
3. For damages according to proof for regular rate pay under NRS 608.140 and 608.016 for all hours worked;
4. For damages according to proof for minimum wage rate pay under the Nevada Constitution for all hours worked;
5. For damages according to proof for overtime compensation at the applicable rate under NRS 608.140 and 608.018 for all hours worked for those employees who earned a regular rate of less than one and one half times the minimum wage for hours worked in excess of 8 hours per day and/or for all subclass members for overtime premium pay of one and one half their regular rate for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week;
6. For sixty days of waiting time penalties pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.040-.050;
7. For interest as provided by law at the maximum legal rate;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees authorized by statute;
9. For costs of suit incurred herein;
10. For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, as provided by law, and
11. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Re: EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ) vs. HG STAFFING, LLC, MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT
Case No. CV16-01264

Dear Ms. Jones,

Per your request, I have reviewed documentation related to the hours worked in the Grand Sierra Resort or "GSR" matter.

Partial data provided includes: class lists which contained employment dates for each group for the time period March 30, 2011 through April 21, 2014; partial Time Clock Plus and Kronos time records, partial cage dispatch records, and partial related pay rates. The analysis requested included the following three components:

- Calculate unpaid hours tied to required off-the-clock work
- Calculate unpaid premium hours related to required off-the-clock work
- Waiting Time Penalties for terminated employees

Within this report, calculations for both the employment weeks and average shifts worked per week will be provided for specific class members. The Class Member data will be used to extrapolate damages to the full group provided in the class lists.

Per Plaintiff's allegation, additional pay is required for time spent on work activities that were not compensated. The following six groups were impacted by working off-the-clock hours.

- Cash Bank Employees – 15 minutes per shift
- Dance Class – 2 hours per week
- Pre-Shift Housekeeping – 20 minutes
- Pre-Shift Meetings – 10 minutes per shift
- Uniform Donning – 15 minutes per shift
- Shift Jamming

Damages for the class will be calculated for two periods.

- March 30, 2011 – April 21, 2014 – the end date is based on the final employee termination available in the class list data.
- March 30, 2011 – January 31, 2019 – the end date is the end of the current month. Amounts are based on the data observed in the class lists provided.

Background – James R Toney

I am the principal of JTCalcs, a firm located in Little Rock Arkansas that specializes in data analysis and damage exposure in wage and hour matters. I obtained my master's degree in Business Administration from Chapman University in Orange, CA and my BS in Accounting from Long Beach State University in Long Beach, CA.

I have gained extensive payroll experience in both general accounting and payroll responsibilities at: Rockwell International, The Boeing Company, and Capital Group Companies. I have provided data analysis and damage exposure for over 400 cases, in both mediation and trial settings. I have reviewed and analyzed data provided in numerous formats for multiple business types – retail, entertainment, warehouse, construction and transportation.

Documents Reviewed

The following documents were provided by Plaintiff's attorney and were used in preparing the opinions and conclusions within the report. It should be noted that the data is incomplete and does not include full pay data for any of the named parties, potential class members, and nor does it encompass the full class period for time punch data.

Calculation of Cash Bank Employee Damages

Cash Bank employees worked 15 minutes per shift before their clock in punch. Based on a review of KRONOS data, E. Martel-Rodriguez worked an average of 3.6 shifts per week over his employment period which spanned 124.3 weeks. Damages and penalties were calculated for Mr. Martel-Rodriguez and for the full class and are provided in Exhibit 1. Below are the total amounts for both Mr. Martel-Rodriguez and the full class.

- E. Martel Rodriguez - $5,160.83
- Full Class for the period March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 - $4,195,216.78

Calculation of Dance Class Damages

Employees in this group were required to work off-the-clock activities each week. These activities amounted to 2 hours per week. Based on the class provided, W. Vaughn's employment period spanned 46 weeks. Damages and penalties were calculated for Ms. Vaughan and for the full class, they are provided in Exhibit 2. Below are the total amounts for both Ms. Vaughan and the full class.

- W. Vaughan - $3,810.58
- Full Class for the period March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 - $282,126.90

Calculation of Pre-Shift Activity-Housekeeping Damages

Housekeeping employees worked 20 minutes per shift before their clock in punch. Based on a review of estimates provided, J. Jackson-Williams worked and average of 5.0 shifts per week over her employment period which spanned 90.3 weeks. Damages and penalties were calculated for J. Jackson-Williams and for the full class and are provided in Exhibit 3

Below are the total amounts for both J. Jackson-Williams and the full class. The full class is comprised of both full and part time employees. The full-time employees are assumed to work 5 shifts a week whereas the part time employees work between 1 and 4 shift a week.

- J. Jackson-Williams - $6,386.25
- Full Time Employees for the period March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 - $1,949,380.54
- Part Time Employees for the period March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 ranges from $960,347.03 to $1,037,708.10 based on the weekly shift count

Calculation of Pre-Shift Meeting Damages

Employees attended 10 minutes meetings, prior to their clock in, for each shift. Based on a review of KRONOS data, M. Capilla and E. Martel- Rodriguez worked and average of 3.7 shifts per week over their employment periods which spanned 128.9 weeks for Ms. Capilla and 124.3 weeks for Mr. Martel-Rodriquez. Damages and penalties were calculated for Ms. Capilla and Mr. Martel-Rodriguez and for the full class and are provided in Exhibit 4. Below are the total amounts for Ms. Capilla, Mr. Martel-Rodriguez and the full class.

- M. Capilla - $4, 073.69
- E. Martel Rodriguez - $4,691.99
- Full Class for the period March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 - $4,083,787.88

Calculation of Uniform Donning Damages

Employees in this group were required to don uniforms prior to their shift clock in. The donning activity is estimated to be 15 minutes per shift. Uniform donning employees worked 15 minutes per shift before their clock in punch. Based on a review KRONOS data, W. Vaughn worked and average of 2.1 shifts per week over her employment period which spanned 45.3 weeks. Damages and penalties were calculated for Ms. Vaughan and for the full class and are provided in Exhibit 5. Below are the total amounts for both Ms. Vaughan and the full class.

- W. Vaughan - $2,938.61
- Full Class for the period March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019 - $1,197,561.78

Calculation of Shift Jamming Damages

Kronos records were reviewed for E. Martel-Rodriguez and W. Vaughan with a focus on shift jamming. Shift Jamming, that resulted in a need for overtime payments, occurred in 6% of the shifts for Mr. Martel-Rodriguez and in 8% of the shifts for W. Vaughan. The calculation of amounts owed for these shifts are provided in Exhibit 6. No calculation was made for the class as information was not provided to determine the impact on the larger group. When additional time records are provided, they can be analyzed to determine the class size and the extent of damages owed for shift jamming. The below amounts for Ms. Vaughan and Mr. Martel-Rodriguez include Waiting Time penalties.

- E. Martel-Rodriguez - $3,797.59
- W. Vaughan - $2,681.67

Conclusion

It is my understanding that Plaintiff allege that employees were not paid for all hours worked. The specifics of these unpaid hours vary depending on the class assignment. This report captures the monies owed to employees based on their work assignment.

To a reasonable degree of professional certainty, the contents of this report represent my opinion. I alone conducted the analysis contained in this report. I reserve the right to alter my opinion should additional information become available.

The estimated termination count is based on the observed terminations in the class list provided and estimated to be 212 full time employees through January 31, 2019.
Total	$1,949,380.54

House Keeping Calculations - PART TIME Employees

The calculation methodology is consistent with the "Full Time" employees with the exception of shifts. The Part-Time employee numbers were calculated based on four scenarios with the single variable being the number of shifts worked. Below are the numbers for a weekly shift count between 1 and 4.

The first period for calculation is March 30, 2011 through April 21, 2014

	1 Shift	2 Shifts	3 Shifts	4 Shifts
Employee Ct.	94	94	94	94
Work Week Ct	2,759.70	2,759.70	2,759.70	2,759.70
Weekly Shift Ct	1	2	3	4
Total Shift Ct	2,759.70	5,519.40	8,279.10	11,038.80
Minutes Per Shift	20	20	20	20
Total Minutes	55,194.00	110,388.00	165,582.00	220,776.00
Total Hours	919.9	1839.8	2759.7	3679.6
Overtime Rate	$12.375	$12 375	$12.375	$12.375
Sub-Total Damages	$11,383.76	$22,767.53	$34,151.29	$45,535.05
Waiting Time	$40,095.00	$40,095.00	$40,095.00	$40,095.00
Total	$51,478.76	$62,862.53	$74,246.29	$85,630.05

- *The termination count through April 21, 2014 is 80. The penalty amount is 60 days multiplied by 8 hours, multiplied by $8.25. This calculation (60 * 8 * $8.25) equals $3,960 multiplied by the termination count of 80, yields a total amount of $316,800.00*

The second period for calculation is March 30, 2011 through January 31, 2019.

	1 Shift	2 Shifts	3 Shifts	4 Shifts
Employee Ct.	94	94	94	94
Work Week Ct	6,251.40	6,251.40	6,251.40	6,251.40
Weekly Shift Ct	1	2	3	4
Total Shift Ct	6,251.40	12,502.80	18,754 20	25,005.60
Minutes Per Shift	20	20	20	20
Total Minutes	125,028.00	250,056.00	375,084.00	500,112.00
Total Hours	2083.8	4167.6	6251.4	8335.2
Overtime Rate	$12.375	$12 375	$12.375	$12.375
Sub-Total Damages	$25,787.03	$51,574.05	$77,361.08	$103,148.10
Waiting Time	$114,840.00	$114,840.00	$114,840.00	$114,840.00
Total	$140,627.03	$166,414.05	$192,201.08	$217,988.10

- The termination count through April 21, 2014 is 80 and when extrapolated out to January 31, 2019 is estimated to 207. The amount of $3,960 multiplied by 207 terminations totals $819,720.00

- The "Total Pre-Shift Hours" is determined by multiplying the shift count by the "Pre-Shift Minutes Per Shift" and then dividing by 60.
- The "Weighted Average Overtime Rate" takes into account that not all shift worked contain premium hours.
- The Waiting Time Penalty is based on a 60 day period multiplied by the average daily hours and the S.T. rate.

Employee Name	Data Start Date	Date End Date	Employment Weeks	Shift Count	Average Shifts Per Week	Pre Shift Minutes Per Shift	Total Pre-Shift Hours	Weighted Average Overtime Rate	Damages
Vaughan, Whitney	08/03/12	06/15/13	45.3	95	2.1	15.0	23.8	$8.46	$201.35
							Interest through 1/31/19		$113.76
							Waiting Time at 60 Days		$2,623.50
							Total		$2,938.61

- The "Total Pre-Shift Hours" is determined by multiplying the shift count by the "Pre-Shift Minutes Per Shift" and then dividing by 60.
- The "Weighted Average Overtime Rate" takes into account that not all shift worked contain premium hours. The base S.T. Rate utilized was $8.25
- *The Waiting Time Penalty is based on a 60 day period with 5.3 hours per day at a rate of $8.25 (60 * 5.3 * $8.25)*

Extrapolation to Full Class - through April 21, 2014

Class Count	240	- Based on the class list provided for "Status" codes "FULL", "PART" and "TEMP"
Total Employment Weeks	11,475.9	- Based on the class list provided for the period March 30, 2011 through April 21, 2014
Average Shifts Per Week	2.1	- The average weekly shift count is based on data for W. Vaughan
Total Shift Count	24,099.4	- This number is the product of the average shift count multiplied by the employment week count
Pre Shift Minutes Per Shift	15	- The Pre-Shift minutes are based on class representative input
Total Minutes	361,491.0	- The product of the shift count multiplied by the average pre-shift minutes
Total Hours	6,024.9	- The product of the total minutes divided by 60 minutes.
Weighted Average O.T. Rate	$8.46	- This is a weighted average rate based on W. Vaughan data
Sub-Total Damages	$50,970.65
Waiting Time Penalties	$411,889.50	- During the period of March 30, 2011 through April 21, 2014 there were 157 terminations. Penalties are based on the class representative's data which is 60 days at 5.3 hours at a rate of $8.25.
Total	$462,860.15

Extrapolation to Full Class - through January 31, 2019

Class Count	240	- Based on the class list provided for "Status" codes "FULL", "PART" and "TEMP"
Total Employment Weeks	32,177.2	- Based on the class list provided for the period March 30, 2011 extrapolated through January 31, 2019
Average Shifts Per Week	2.1	- The average weekly shift count is based on data for W. Vaughan
Total Shift Count	67,572.1	- This number is the product of the average shift count multiplied by the employment week count
Pre Shift Minutes Per Shift	15.0	- The Pre-Shift minutes are based on class representative input
Total Minutes	1,013,581.5	- The product of the shift count multiplied by the average pre-shift minutes
Total Hours	16,893.0	- The product of the total minutes divided by 60 minutes.
Weighted Average O.T. Rate	$8.46
Sub-Total Damages	$142,914.78
Waiting Time Penalties	$1,054,647.00	- During the period of March 30, 2011 through April 21, 2014 there were 157 terminations. Penalties are based the class representative's data which is 60 days at 5.3 hours at a rate of $8.25. The estimated termination count is based on the observed terminations in the class list provided and estimated to be 402 through January 31, 2019.
Total	$1,197,561.78

								Interest through 1/31/19	$67.19
								Waiting Time at 60 Days	$3,598.65
								Total	$3,797.59

- *The Waiting Time Penalty is based on a 60 day period with 7.27 hours per day at a rate of $8.25 (60 * 7.27 * $8.25)*
- Kronos records available for shift jamming analysis were 363. A shift jam was observed in 37 or 10% of the shift records.
- A review of the shifts that were jammed, showed that 21 or 6% contained an overtime impact. When an overtime impact existed the average overtime hour amount was 1.52.
- The total shift jam hours with overtime premium due is 21 shifts multiplied by 1.52 hours for a total of 31.9 hours
- *Only the overtime premium is due for the shift jam hours. The rate was calculated by taking the S.T. Rate multiplied by 0.5 or $8.25 * 0.5, which yields $4.13.*

- Kronos records available for shift jamming analysis were 95. A shift jam was observed in 9 or 9% of the shift records.
- A review of the shifts that were jammed, showed that 8 or 8% contained an overtime impact. When an overtime impact existed the average overtime hour amount was 1.12.
- The total shift jam hours with overtime premium due is 8 shifts multiplied by 1.12 hours for a total of 9.0 hours
- *Only the overtime premium is due for the shift jam hours. The rate was calculated by taking the S.T. Rate multiplied by 0.5 or $8.25 * 0.5, which yields $4.13.*

Dear ,

An audit of our payroll system revealed that overtime was not being paid accurately for certain team members. Nevada law states that if an individual works over 8 hours in a 24 hour period, and does not earn at least 1-1/2 times the minimum wage, overtime must be paid. For example, if an individual worked 8 AM – 4 PM on Monday, and came in at 5 AM on Tuesday – the hours between 5 AM and 8 AM on Tuesday would be considered overtime if the person's base rate is less than 1.5 times minimum wage.

The period of time that the calculation was performed inaccurately was November 4, 2011 to July 11, 2014. Enclosed please find a check which pays you for the overtime you are owed.

If you have any questions, please contact the Human Resources Department.

CODE NO. 3370

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHOE

EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ), MARY ANNE CAPILLA, JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS and WHITNEY VAUGHAN on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

HG STAFFING, LLC, MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, Defendants.

_____/

Case No. CV16-01264

Dept. No. 6

ORDER GRANTING, IN PART, AND DENYING, IN PART, MOTION TO DISMISS

Before this Court is a Motion to Dismiss First Amended Complaint ("Motion") filed by Defendants HG STAFFING, LLC and MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT (collectively, "GSR" unless individually referenced), by and through their counsel, Cohen|Johnson|Parker|Edwards.

Plaintiffs EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ) ("Mr. Martel"), MARY ANNE CAPILLA ("Ms. Capilla"), JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS ("Ms. Jackson-Williams"), and WHITNEY VAUGHAN ("Ms. Vaughan") (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), on behalf of

themselves and all others similarly situated, filed Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint ("Opposition"), by and through their counsel, Thierman Buck, LLP. GSR filed its Reply in Support of Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint ("Reply") and submitted the matter for decision thereafter.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This action arises out of an employment dispute between Plaintiffs and GSR regarding wages paid by GSR to Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees. On June 14, 2016, Plaintiffs filed a Class Action Complaint ("Complaint") alleging GSR maintained the following policies, practices, and procedures which required various employees to perform work activities without compensation: (1) GSR's Cash Bank Policy, (2) Dance Class Policy, (3) Room Attendant Pre-Shift Policy, (4) Pre-Shift Meeting Policy, (5) Uniform Policy, and (6) Shift Jamming Policy. Complaint, pp. 4-8. As a result of said policies, Plaintiffs allege four causes of action against GSR: (1) Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016, (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution, (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018, and (4) Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050. Id., pp. 11-15.

On October 9, 2018, this Court entered its Order After Hearing Granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss ("Order"). The Court found Plaintiffs failed to provide sufficient information to support its claims, and therefore granted GSR's Motion to Dismiss. Thereafter, Plaintiffs filed Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss or in the Alternative Leave to File an Amended Complaint ("Motion for Reconsideration") requesting the Court reconsider its Order pursuant to NRCP

Rule 60(b). Motion for Reconsideration, p. 2. This Court entered its Order Re Motion for Reconsideration denying Plaintiffs request on the grounds they failed to state a claim but granting Plaintiffs leave to amend their Complaint.

On January 29, 2019, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint ("FAC") asserting the same four (4) claims. Thereafter, GSR filed the instant Motion requesting this Court dismiss the FAC pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5). Motion, p. 2. GSR contends the claims asserted in the FAC "have no more merit than Plaintiffs' original claims." Motion, p. 2.

First, GSR contends all of Plaintiffs' claims asserted after June 14, 2014 are barred by the two-year statute of limitations pursuant to NRS 608.260. Motion, p. 5. GSR asserts the Nevada Supreme Court held claims made under the Minimum Wage Amendment ("MWA") are governed by a two-year statute of limitations. Motion, p. 5; citing Perry v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 75, 383 P.3d 257, 260-62 (2016). GSR further asserts, all individual and class claims brought prior to June 14, 2014 are not tolled pursuant to Archon Corp. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 407 P.3d 702 (Nev. 2017) and China Agritech, Inc. v. Resh, 138 S. Ct. 1800, 1804 (2018). Motion, p. 9.

Second, GSR maintains Plaintiffs' First, Third, and Fourth claims should be dismissed for failure to exhaust administrative remedies with the labor commissioner as required by NRS Chapter 607. Motion, p. 11. GSR argues Plaintiffs were required to first file and pursue their state law wage claims with the Nevada Labor Commissioner before seeking relief from this Court. Motion, p. 11; citing NRS 608.016; Allstate Ins. Co. v. Thrope, 123 Nev. 565, 571-72, 170 P.3d 989, 993-94 (2007).

Third, GSR argues Plaintiffs First, Third, and Fourth Claims for Relief should be dismissed for failing to make good faith attempt to collect their wages before filing their claim for wages with the Court. Motion, p. 13; citing NAC 608.155(1).

Fourth, GSR asserts Plaintiffs lack standing to represent union employees because they are exclusively represented by their respective unions pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A Section 159(a). Motion, p. 14.

Fifth, GSR contends Plaintiffs have again failed to state a claim for wages, including minimum wages. Motion, p. 15. GSR argues Plaintiff do no allege any facts which would show that any plaintiff was paid less than the minimum wage and do not allege how much they were paid in any week. Motion, p. 16. GSR asserts Plaintiffs failure to claim how much they worked in a week results in mere speculation as to whether Plaintiffs were underpaid. Motion, p. 16.

Sixth, GSR maintains Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims for wages and overtime are barred for failing to exhaust grievance procedures of the collective bargaining agreement. Motion, p. 17. GSR argues Ms. Jackson-Williams is subject to a collective bargaining agreement and, therefore, her statutory claims for wages or overtime are dependent upon finding a breach of that agreement to maintain those claims. Motion, p. 18. Moreover, GSR asserts Ms. Jackson-Williams is not entitled to overtime pursuant to NRS 608.018 because the collective bargaining agreement provides otherwise. Motion, p. 19.

Seventh, GSR contends Plaintiffs' claims are barred by claim and issue preclusion. Motion, p. 20. GSR maintains United States District Judge Hicks already determined Plaintiffs' wage claims cannot proceed in a class action; and, they are therefore barred from re-litigating the federal district court's judgment denying class certification. Motion, p. 2; citing Five Star Capital Corp. v. Ruby, 124 Nev. 1048, 1054, 194 P.3d 709, 713 (2008). Lastly, GSR argues Plaintiffs should not be able to re-litigate the federal action on principles of comity and the first-to-file rule. Motion, p. 23.

In their Opposition, Plaintiffs first maintain they are not required to exhaust administrative remedies with the Office of the Labor Commissioner prior to filing suit. Opposition, p. 7; citing Neville v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 133 Nev. Adv. Op. 95, 406 P.3d 499, 504 (Dec. 7 2017).

Second, Plaintiffs assert they meet the pleading standard because they alleged specific work activities for which they are not paid their minimum wage, provided estimated damages owed to Plaintiffs and the putative classes, and provided documentary evidence in their possession and control specifying hours, dates, and times worked without pay. Opposition, p. 9.

Third, Plaintiffs maintain their claims are not barred by issue or claim preclusion because their Nevada wage claims were not certified in the Sargant action. Opposition, p. 13. Specifically, the federal court never reached determination of the state law claims because it dismissed them on the "incorrect premise" that Nevada employees do not have a private right of action for wage claims, at summary judgment, and prior to the court's decertification order. Opposition, p. 13.

Fourth, Plaintiffs contend its claims are not barred by any statutes of limitation. Opposition, p. 22. Plaintiffs contend NRS 11.190(3)(a)'s three-year statute of limitation for "an action upon liability created by statute, other than a penalty or forfeiture" applies to this action because NRS Chapter 608 lacks an express limitation period and NRS 11.190 provides the three-year statute of limitation applies "unless further limited by specific statute. . . ." Opposition, p. 22; citing NRS 11.190.

Plaintiffs further contend Defendants reliance on Perry is impermissibly broad because the Court did not hold a two-year statute of limitation period applicable to the Minimum Wage Amendment, extended to NRS 608 private causes of action claims. Opposition, p. 23.

Fifth, Plaintiffs maintain their claims are not preempted by any alleged collective bargaining agreement because they are only trying to enforce the statutory obligation to pay overtime. Opposition, p. 29.

In their Reply, Defendants reiterate that a two-year statute of limitations applies to the claims. Reply, p. 2. Defendants assert Plaintiffs concede they did not exhaust administrative remedies or grievance procedures. Reply, p. 3. Lastly, Defendants assert Plaintiff do not address or dispute that they are not entitled to seek class certification on behalf of GSR employees represented by a union. Reply, p. 3.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW; LAW AND ANALYSIS

A complaint should be dismissed under NRCP 12(b)(5) "only if it appears beyond a doubt" that the plaintiff is entitled to no relief under any set of facts that could be proved in support of the claim. Buzz Stew, LLC v. City of North Las Vegas, 124 Nev. 224, 228, 181 P.3d 670, 672 (2008); Blackjack Bonding v. City of Las Vegas Mun. Court, 116 Nev. 1213, 1217, 14 P.3d 1275, 1278 (2000). When analyzing the merits of a 12(b)(5) motion to dismiss, the court recognizes all of the factual allegations in the plaintiff's complaint as true, and draws all inferences in favor of the non-moving party. Id. Dismissal is appropriate "where the allegations are insufficient to establish the elements of a claim for relief." Stockmeier v. Nevada Dept. of Corr. Psychological Review Panel, 124 Nev. 313, 316, 183 P.3d 133, 135 (2008); see also Torres v. Nev. Direct Ins. Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 54, 353

P.3d 1203, 1210 (2015) (same). Nevada is a notice-pleading jurisdiction, therefore, "[t]he test for determining whether the allegations of a cause of action are sufficient to assert a claim for relief is whether the allegations give fair notice of the nature and basis of the claim and the relief requested." Ravera v. City of Reno, 100 Nev. 68, 70, 675 P.2d 407, 408 (1984); W. States Const., Inc. v. Michoff, 108 Nev. 931, 936, 840 P.2d 1220, 1223 (1992); NRCP 8.

A. All Claims Accruing Prior to June 14, 2014 are Barred by the Statute of Limitations

1. A Two-Year Statute of Limitations Applies to all Claims

The Minimum Wage Act (MWA) guarantees employees payment of a specified minimum wage and gives an employee whose employer violates the MWA the right to bring an action against his or her employer in Nevada. Perry v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 383 P.3d 257, 258 (Nev. 2016). A two-year statute of limitation applies to actions for failure to pay the minimum wage in violation of the Nevada constitution. Id. at 262. This two-year statute of limitation period applies to NRS 608 statutory wage claims that are analogous to a cause of action for failure to pay an employee the lawful minimum wage. Id. Accordingly, a two-year statute of limitation applies to: Plaintiffs' First Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; Second Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution; Third Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and, Fourth Cause of Action for Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

2. Cross Jurisdictional Tolling Does Not Apply

Class-action tolling suspends the statutes of limitation for all purported members of the class until a formal decision on class certification has been made, or until the individual plaintiff opts out of the class. Archon Corp. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 407 P.3d 702 (Nev. 2017). Cross-jurisdictional class-action tolling suspends the statutes of limitation for all purported class members even if the class action was pending in a different jurisdiction than where the later suit is brought. Id.

The United States Supreme Court in American Pipe held the timely filing of a class action tolls the applicable statutes of limitation for all persons encompassed by the class complaint. The Court further ruled that, where class action status has been denied, members of the failed class could timely intervene as individual plaintiffs in the still-pending action, shorn of its class character.

Recently, however, the United State Supreme Court declined to apply American Pipe tolling to successive class action claims, holding the maintenance of a follow-on class action past the expiration of the statute of limitations is not permitted. China Agritech, Inc. v. Resh, 138 S. Ct. 1800, 1803, 201 L. Ed. 2d 123 (2018). The Court explained that allowing tolling for successive class actions would allow the statute of limitation to be extended time and again; as each class is denied certification, a new named plaintiff could file a class complaint that resuscitates the litigation. Id.

Whether cross-jurisdictional tolling applies to a case like the present case is an issue that has not yet been decided by the Nevada Supreme Court. See Archon Corp. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 407 P.3d 702 (Nev. 2017). In Achron Corp, the Court declined to consider the issue, finding an advisory mandamus was not warranted because the issue was not raised in the district court. Id. Nevertheless, the case presented compelling grounds to refrain from recognizing cross-jurisdictional tolling. Specifically, cross-jurisdictional class-action tolling would allow the federal judiciary's actions to indefinitely extend the statutes of limitation beyond a five-year period of repose under NRS 11.500. Id. Moreover, Achron Corp was considered before the United States Supreme Court's decision in China Agritech, Inc.

This issue has been similarly addressed in regards to individual actions. In Clemens v. Daimler Chrysler Corp., 534 F.3d 1017, 1025 (9th Cir. 2008), the Ninth Circuit held American Pipe does not "mandate cross-jurisdictional tolling as a matter of state procedure." The Illinois Supreme Court addressed this issue in Portwood v. Ford Motor Co., 701 N.E.2d 1102, 1103-05 (Ill. 1998), holding a state "statute of limitations is not tolled during the pendency of a class action in federal court," even though the court had previously "adopted the American Pipe rule for class actions filed in Illinois state court." The Court reasoned such cross-jurisdictional tolling of a state statute of limitation would "increase the burden on that state's court system" because it would expose the state court system to the evils of "forum shopping." Id. at 1104. The court further found that because "state courts have no control over the work of the federal judiciary, . . . [s]tate courts should not be required to entertain stale claims simply because the controlling statute of limitations expired while a federal court considered whether to certify a class action." Id. at 1104.

Moreover, pursuant to NRS 11.500, the Nevada Legislature has determined that a statute of limitation should only be tolled based on an action filed in another jurisdiction when "the court lacked jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action," (which it did not here), and then limited tolling to "[n]inety days after the action is dismissed."

Here, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint on June 14, 2016. As such, all claims accruing before June 14, 2014 are barred unless cross-jurisdictional tolling applies. Under the unique facts of this case, the Court finds cross-jurisdictional tolling does not apply. The Court looks to the history of this litigation. Specifically, Plaintiffs in this case previously brought a substantially similar action in the Second Judicial District Court for the State of Nevada. The case was removed to federal court where class certification was denied and the case dismissed. Plaintiffs again seek recourse in the Second Judicial District Court and assert their claims were tolled by the federal action.

To permit tolling claims under these specific circumstances provides for never-ending successive class actions because the statute of limitation would never expire. Newly named plaintiffs could always file a class complaint that would resurrect the litigation. Accordingly, class action claims shouldn't be tolled. Therefore, all of Plaintiffs' class action claims that accrued prior to June 14, 2014, two (2) years before Plaintiffs filed their Complaint, are barred and shall be dismissed.

Plaintiffs' Complaint alleges that Plaintiff Capilla was employed by GSR from "March 2011" to "September 2013;" Plaintiff Vaughan was employed by GSR from "August 2012" through "June 2013;" Plaintiff Martel was employed by GSR from "January 2012" to "July 2014;" and Plaintiff Williams was employed by GSR from "April 2014" to "December 2015." See Complaint at 3, ¶¶ 5 - 8. Accordingly, all of Ms. Capilla and Ms. Vaughan's claims, all but one (1) month of Mr. Martel's claims, and all but eighteen (18) months of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are dismissed.

B. Remaining Claims

Two Plaintiffs remain pursuant to this Court's dismissal of all claims accrued prior to June 14, 2016. First, Mr. Martel's claims regarding a one-month period remains; and, second, Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims remains regarding an eighteen months period. GSR assert the remaining claims should be dismissed for (1) failure to exhaust administrative remedies of the collective bargaining agreement; (2) issue preclusion; (3) claim preclusion; (4) lack of standing to represent union employees; and, (5) failure to state a claim.

The Court addresses each argument in turn.

1. Mr. Martel and Ms. Jackson-Williams are not Required to Exhaust Administrative Remedies

Where an administrative agency has exclusive jurisdiction over statutory claims, the failure to exhaust administrative remedies before proceeding in district court renders the matter unripe for district court review. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Thorpe, 123 Nev. 565, 571, 170 P.3d 989, 993 (2007). A private cause of action generally cannot be implied when an administrative official is expressly charged with enforcing a section of laws. Baldonado v. Wynn Las Vegas, LLC, 124 Nev. 951, 194 P.3d 96 (2008). However, the Nevada Supreme Court has determined an employee has a private right to pursue claims for unpaid wages pursuant to NRS 608.140. Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 406 P.3d 499, 504 (Nev. 2017). As such, the Labor Commissioner does not have exclusive jurisdiction over statutory claims. Therefore, Plaintiffs were not required to exhaust administrative remedies before proceeding to district court.

2. Issue and Claim Preclusion Does not Apply

In Five Star Capital Corp. v. Ruby, the Nevada Supreme Court set forth a three-part test for determining whether claim preclusion applies to a later action: (1) [T]he parties or their privies are the same, (2) the final judgment is valid, and (3) the subsequent action is based on the same claims or any part of them that were or could have been brought in the first case. 124 Nev. at 1054. In Five Star Capital Corp., the Court reasoned, claim preclusion applies to preclude an entire second suit that is based on the same set of facts and circumstances as the first suit. Id.

The Court also set forth a four-part test for determining whether issue preclusion applies to a later action:

> (1) the issue decided in the prior litigation must be identical to the issue presented in the current action; (2) the initial ruling must have been on the merits and have become final; ... (3) the party against whom the judgment is asserted must have been a party or in privity with a party to the prior litigation"; and (4) the issue was actually and necessarily litigated.

124 Nev. 1048, 1055, 194 P.3d 709, 713 (2008) (citations omitted) (emphasis added).

Here, class certification was never addressed in Sargent for the Nevada wage claims and the Court in Sargent has since reversed the grant of summary judgment in light of Neville. There is no issue or claim preclusion because class certification was never independently decided; there has been no ruling on the merits of any of the employees' FLSA or Nevada wage claims; and, the Plaintiffs' NRS 608 and Nevada Constitution minimum wage claims have not actually and necessarily been litigated.

3. Standing to Represent Union Employees

Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 159(a),

> Representatives designated or selected for the purposes of collective bargaining by the majority of the employees in a unit appropriate for such purposes, shall be the exclusive representatives of all the employees in such unit for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment.

29 U.S.C. § 159(a). In Baker v. IBP, Inc., 357 F.3d 685, 690 (7th Cir. 2004), the Seventh Circuit held that where a "suit is at its core about the adequacy of the wages [the employer] pays," individual employees may not represent union workers in a class action when the Union has not breached its duty of fair representation.

The court reasoned that union workers "have a representative—one that under the NLRA is supposed to be 'exclusive' with respect to wages" and therefore "Plaintiffs' request to proceed on behalf of a class of all workers shows that they seek to usurp the union's role." Id. at 686, 690. Moreover, state law rights and obligations that do not exist independently of private agreements, and that can be waived or altered by agreement as a result, are pre-empted by those agreements. MGM Grand Hotel-Reno, Inc. v. Insley, 102 Nev. 513, 517, 728 P.2d 821, 824 (1986).

Plaintiffs do not dispute that they may not pursue class actions on behalf of union employees because they are not union representatives, who have the exclusive right to represent members of the union with respect wage. However, Plaintiffs dispute that an enforceable collective bargaining agreement was in place. Specifically, Plaintiffs argue that: (1) the CBA is not valid and has expired by its own terms on or about May 1, 2011 (over seven years ago); (2) because it has expired and no subsequent CBA has been ratified or signed, Plaintiffs may sue in this Court for unpaid wages, overtime wages, and penalties due; and, (3) even if the CBA was valid it does not provide otherwise for overtime wages and Plaintiffs may bring their claims in this Court. See Opposition, generally. The Court declines to consider evidence, such as the collective bargaining agreement, outside the pleadings at this time.[1] Considering the claims in Plaintiffs' Complaint as true, and drawing all conclusions in favor of the Plaintiffs, dismissal in not appropriate on these grounds.

4. Failure to State a Claim

As stated dismissal is appropriate pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5) "where the allegations are insufficient to establish the elements of a claim for relief." Stockmeier v. Nevada Dept. of Corr. Psychological Review Panel, 124 Nev. 313, 316, 183 P.3d 133, 135 (2008); see also Torres v. Nev. Direct Ins. Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 54, 353 P.3d 1203, 1210 (2015) (same). Nevada is a notice-pleading jurisdiction, therefore, "[t]he test for determining whether the allegations of a cause of action are sufficient to assert a claim for relief is whether the allegations give fair notice of the nature and basis of the claim and the relief requested." Ravera v. City of Reno, 100 Nev. 68, 70, 675 P.2d 407, 408 (1984); W. States Const., Inc. v. Michoff, 108 Nev. 931, 936, 840 P.2d 1220, 1223 (1992); NRCP 8.

[1] The Court notes this issue may be more appropriate for a motion for summary judgment.

Plaintiffs filed their FAC on January 29, 2019. This Court finds Plaintiffs have provided sufficient factual allegations regarding hours worked and exacting estimates of shifts and unpaid hours and for the applicable time period to put Defendants on notice of the nature and basis of the claims and relief requested. See FAC, generally.

III. ORDER.

The Court finds a two-year statute of limitation applies to this case. As such, the Court dismisses all of Ms.Capilla and Ms. Vaughan's claims, all but one (1) month of Mr. Martel's claims, and all but eighteen (18) months of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims. However, the Court declines to dismiss the remaining claims at this time.

Based on the foregoing, and good cause appearing thereto,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, in part, and DENIED, in part.

Dated this 7th day of June, 2019.

Case No. CV16-01264

Dept. No. 6

ORDER GRANTING, IN PART, AND DENYING, IN PART, MOTION TO DISMISS

Before this Court is a Motion to Dismiss First Amended Complaint ("Motion") filed by Defendants HG STAFFING, LLC and MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT (collectively, "GSR" unless individually referenced), by and through their counsel, Cohen|Johnson|Parker|Edwards.

Plaintiffs EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ) ("Mr. Martel"), MARY ANNE CAPILLA ("Ms. Capilla"), JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS ("Ms. Jackson-Williams"), and WHITNEY VAUGHAN ("Ms. Vaughan") (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), on behalf of

themselves and all others similarly situated, filed Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint ("Opposition"), by and through their counsel, Thierman Buck, LLP. GSR filed its Reply in Support of Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint ("Reply") and submitted the matter for decision thereafter.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This action arises out of an employment dispute between Plaintiffs and GSR regarding wages paid by GSR to Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees. On June 14, 2016, Plaintiffs filed a Class Action Complaint ("Complaint") alleging GSR maintained the following policies, practices, and procedures which required various employees to perform work activities without compensation: (1) GSR's Cash Bank Policy, (2) Dance Class Policy, (3) Room Attendant Pre-Shift Policy, (4) Pre-Shift Meeting Policy, (5) Uniform Policy, and (6) Shift Jamming Policy. Complaint, pp. 4-8. As a result of said policies, Plaintiffs allege four causes of action against GSR: (1) Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016, (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution, (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018, and (4) Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050. Id., pp. 11-15.

On October 9, 2018, this Court entered its Order After Hearing Granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss ("Order"). The Court found Plaintiffs failed to provide sufficient information to support its claims, and therefore granted GSR's Motion to Dismiss. Thereafter, Plaintiffs filed Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss or in the Alternative Leave to File an Amended Complaint ("Motion for Reconsideration") requesting the Court reconsider its Order pursuant to NRCP

Rule 60(b). Motion for Reconsideration, p. 2. This Court entered its Order Re Motion for Reconsideration denying Plaintiffs request on the grounds they failed to state a claim but granting Plaintiffs leave to amend their Complaint.

On January 29, 2019, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint ("FAC") asserting the same four (4) claims. Thereafter, GSR filed the instant Motion requesting this Court dismiss the FAC pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5). Motion, p. 2. GSR contends the claims asserted in the FAC "have no more merit than Plaintiffs' original claims." Motion, p. 2.

First, GSR contends all of Plaintiffs' claims asserted after June 14, 2014 are barred by the two-year statute of limitations pursuant to NRS 608.260. Motion, p. 5. GSR asserts the Nevada Supreme Court held claims made under the Minimum Wage Amendment ("MWA") are governed by a two-year statute of limitations. Motion, p. 5; citing Perry v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 75, 383 P.3d 257, 260-62 (2016). GSR further asserts, all individual and class claims brought prior to June 14, 2014 are not tolled pursuant to Archon Corp. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 407 P.3d 702 (Nev. 2017) and China Agritech, Inc. v. Resh, 138 S. Ct. 1800, 1804 (2018). Motion, p. 9.

Second, GSR maintains Plaintiffs' First, Third, and Fourth claims should be dismissed for failure to exhaust administrative remedies with the labor commissioner as required by NRS Chapter 607. Motion, p. 11. GSR argues Plaintiffs were required to first file and pursue their state law wage claims with the Nevada Labor Commissioner before seeking relief from this Court. Motion, p. 11; citing NRS 608.016; Allstate Ins. Co. v. Thrope, 123 Nev. 565, 571-72, 170 P.3d 989, 993-94 (2007).

Third, GSR argues Plaintiffs First, Third, and Fourth Claims for Relief should be dismissed for failing to make good faith attempt to collect their wages before filing their claim for wages with the Court. Motion, p. 13; citing NAC 608.155(1).

Fourth, GSR asserts Plaintiffs lack standing to represent union employees because they are exclusively represented by their respective unions pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A Section 159(a). Motion, p. 14.

Fifth, GSR contends Plaintiffs have again failed to state a claim for wages, including minimum wages. Motion, p. 15. GSR argues Plaintiff do no allege any facts which would show that any plaintiff was paid less than the minimum wage and do not allege how much they were paid in any week. Motion, p. 16. GSR asserts Plaintiffs failure to claim how much they worked in a week results in mere speculation as to whether Plaintiffs were underpaid. Motion, p. 16.

Sixth, GSR maintains Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims for wages and overtime are barred for failing to exhaust grievance procedures of the collective bargaining agreement. Motion, p. 17. GSR argues Ms. Jackson-Williams is subject to a collective bargaining agreement and, therefore, her statutory claims for wages or overtime are dependent upon finding a breach of that agreement to maintain those claims. Motion, p. 18. Moreover, GSR asserts Ms. Jackson-Williams is not entitled to overtime pursuant to NRS 608.018 because the collective bargaining agreement provides otherwise. Motion, p. 19.

Seventh, GSR contends Plaintiffs' claims are barred by claim and issue preclusion. Motion, p. 20. GSR maintains United States District Judge Hicks already determined Plaintiffs' wage claims cannot proceed in a class action; and, they are therefore barred from re-litigating the federal district court's judgment denying class certification. Motion, p. 2; citing Five Star Capital Corp. v. Ruby, 124 Nev. 1048, 1054, 194 P.3d 709, 713 (2008). Lastly, GSR argues Plaintiffs should not be able to re-litigate the federal action on principles of comity and the first-to-file rule. Motion, p. 23.

In their Opposition, Plaintiffs first maintain they are not required to exhaust administrative remedies with the Office of the Labor Commissioner prior to filing suit. Opposition, p. 7; citing Neville v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 133 Nev. Adv. Op. 95, 406 P.3d 499, 504 (Dec. 7 2017).

Second, Plaintiffs assert they meet the pleading standard because they alleged specific work activities for which they are not paid their minimum wage, provided estimated damages owed to Plaintiffs and the putative classes, and provided documentary evidence in their possession and control specifying hours, dates, and times worked without pay. Opposition, p. 9.

Third, Plaintiffs maintain their claims are not barred by issue or claim preclusion because their Nevada wage claims were not certified in the Sargant action. Opposition, p. 13. Specifically, the federal court never reached determination of the state law claims because it dismissed them on the "incorrect premise" that Nevada employees do not have a private right of action for wage claims, at summary judgment, and prior to the court's decertification order. Opposition, p. 13.

Fourth, Plaintiffs contend its claims are not barred by any statutes of limitation. Opposition, p. 22. Plaintiffs contend NRS 11.190(3)(a)'s three-year statute of limitation for "an action upon liability created by statute, other than a penalty or forfeiture" applies to this action because NRS Chapter 608 lacks an express limitation period and NRS 11.190 provides the three-year statute of limitation applies "unless further limited by specific statute. . . ." Opposition, p. 22; citing NRS 11.190.

Plaintiffs further contend Defendants reliance on Perry is impermissibly broad because the Court did not hold a two-year statute of limitation period applicable to the Minimum Wage Amendment, extended to NRS 608 private causes of action claims. Opposition, p. 23.

Fifth, Plaintiffs maintain their claims are not preempted by any alleged collective bargaining agreement because they are only trying to enforce the statutory obligation to pay overtime. Opposition, p. 29.

In their Reply, Defendants reiterate that a two-year statute of limitations applies to the claims. Reply, p. 2. Defendants assert Plaintiffs concede they did not exhaust administrative remedies or grievance procedures. Reply, p. 3. Lastly, Defendants assert Plaintiff do not address or dispute that they are not entitled to seek class certification on behalf of GSR employees represented by a union. Reply, p. 3.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW; LAW AND ANALYSIS

A complaint should be dismissed under NRCP 12(b)(5) "only if it appears beyond a doubt" that the plaintiff is entitled to no relief under any set of facts that could be proved in support of the claim. Buzz Stew, LLC v. City of North Las Vegas, 124 Nev. 224, 228, 181 P.3d 670, 672 (2008); Blackjack Bonding v. City of Las Vegas Mun. Court, 116 Nev. 1213, 1217, 14 P.3d 1275, 1278 (2000). When analyzing the merits of a 12(b)(5) motion to dismiss, the court recognizes all of the factual allegations in the plaintiff's complaint as true, and draws all inferences in favor of the non-moving party. Id. Dismissal is appropriate "where the allegations are insufficient to establish the elements of a claim for relief." Stockmeier v. Nevada Dept. of Corr. Psychological Review Panel, 124 Nev. 313, 316, 183 P.3d 133, 135 (2008); see also Torres v. Nev. Direct Ins. Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 54, 353

P.3d 1203, 1210 (2015) (same). Nevada is a notice-pleading jurisdiction, therefore, "[t]he test for determining whether the allegations of a cause of action are sufficient to assert a claim for relief is whether the allegations give fair notice of the nature and basis of the claim and the relief requested." Ravera v. City of Reno, 100 Nev. 68, 70, 675 P.2d 407, 408 (1984); W. States Const., Inc. v. Michoff, 108 Nev. 931, 936, 840 P.2d 1220, 1223 (1992); NRCP 8.

A. All Claims Accruing Prior to June 14, 2014 are Barred by the Statute of Limitations

1. A Two-Year Statute of Limitations Applies to all Claims

The Minimum Wage Act (MWA) guarantees employees payment of a specified minimum wage and gives an employee whose employer violates the MWA the right to bring an action against his or her employer in Nevada. Perry v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 383 P.3d 257, 258 (Nev. 2016). A two-year statute of limitation applies to actions for failure to pay the minimum wage in violation of the Nevada constitution. Id. at 262. This two-year statute of limitation period applies to NRS 608 statutory wage claims that are analogous to a cause of action for failure to pay an employee the lawful minimum wage. Id. Accordingly, a two-year statute of limitation applies to: Plaintiffs' First Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; Second Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution; Third Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and, Fourth Cause of Action for Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

2. Cross Jurisdictional Tolling Does Not Apply

Class-action tolling suspends the statutes of limitation for all purported members of the class until a formal decision on class certification has been made, or until the individual plaintiff opts out of the class. Archon Corp. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 407 P.3d 702 (Nev. 2017). Cross-jurisdictional class-action tolling suspends the statutes of limitation for all purported class members even if the class action was pending in a different jurisdiction than where the later suit is brought. Id.

The United States Supreme Court in American Pipe held the timely filing of a class action tolls the applicable statutes of limitation for all persons encompassed by the class complaint. The Court further ruled that, where class action status has been denied, members of the failed class could timely intervene as individual plaintiffs in the still-pending action, shorn of its class character.

Recently, however, the United State Supreme Court declined to apply American Pipe tolling to successive class action claims, holding the maintenance of a follow-on class action past the expiration of the statute of limitations is not permitted. China Agritech, Inc. v. Resh, 138 S. Ct. 1800, 1803, 201 L. Ed. 2d 123 (2018). The Court explained that allowing tolling for successive class actions would allow the statute of limitation to be extended time and again; as each class is denied certification, a new named plaintiff could file a class complaint that resuscitates the litigation. Id.

Whether cross-jurisdictional tolling applies to a case like the present case is an issue that has not yet been decided by the Nevada Supreme Court. See Archon Corp. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 407 P.3d 702 (Nev. 2017). In Achron Corp, the Court declined to consider the issue, finding an advisory mandamus was not warranted because the issue was not raised in the district court. Id. Nevertheless, the case presented compelling grounds to refrain from recognizing cross-jurisdictional tolling. Specifically, cross-jurisdictional class-action tolling would allow the federal judiciary's actions to indefinitely extend the statutes of limitation beyond a five-year period of repose under NRS 11.500. Id. Moreover, Achron Corp was considered before the United States Supreme Court's decision in China Agritech, Inc.

This issue has been similarly addressed in regards to individual actions. In Clemens v. Daimler Chrysler Corp., 534 F.3d 1017, 1025 (9th Cir. 2008), the Ninth Circuit held American Pipe does not "mandate cross-jurisdictional tolling as a matter of state procedure." The Illinois Supreme Court addressed this issue in Portwood v. Ford Motor Co., 701 N.E.2d 1102, 1103-05 (Ill. 1998), holding a state "statute of limitations is not tolled during the pendency of a class action in federal court," even though the court had previously "adopted the American Pipe rule for class actions filed in Illinois state court." The Court reasoned such cross-jurisdictional tolling of a state statute of limitation would "increase the burden on that state's court system" because it would expose the state court system to the evils of "forum shopping." Id. at 1104. The court further found that because "state courts have no control over the work of the federal judiciary, . . . [s]tate courts should not be required to entertain stale claims simply because the controlling statute of limitations expired while a federal court considered whether to certify a class action." Id. at 1104.

Moreover, pursuant to NRS 11.500, the Nevada Legislature has determined that a statute of limitation should only be tolled based on an action filed in another jurisdiction when "the court lacked jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action," (which it did not here), and then limited tolling to "[n]inety days after the action is dismissed."

Here, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint on June 14, 2016. As such, all claims accruing before June 14, 2014 are barred unless cross-jurisdictional tolling applies. Under the unique facts of this case, the Court finds cross-jurisdictional tolling does not apply. The Court looks to the history of this litigation. Specifically, Plaintiffs in this case previously brought a substantially similar action in the Second Judicial District Court for the State of Nevada. The case was removed to federal court where class certification was denied and the case dismissed. Plaintiffs again seek recourse in the Second Judicial District Court and assert their claims were tolled by the federal action.

To permit tolling claims under these specific circumstances provides for never-ending successive class actions because the statute of limitation would never expire. Newly named plaintiffs could always file a class complaint that would resurrect the litigation. Accordingly, class action claims shouldn't be tolled. Therefore, all of Plaintiffs' class action claims that accrued prior to June 14, 2014, two (2) years before Plaintiffs filed their Complaint, are barred and shall be dismissed.

Plaintiffs' Complaint alleges that Plaintiff Capilla was employed by GSR from "March 2011" to "September 2013;" Plaintiff Vaughan was employed by GSR from "August 2012" through "June 2013;" Plaintiff Martel was employed by GSR from "January 2012" to "July 2014;" and Plaintiff Williams was employed by GSR from "April 2014" to "December 2015." See Complaint at 3, ¶¶ 5 - 8. Accordingly, all of Ms. Capilla and Ms. Vaughan's claims, all but one (1) month of Mr. Martel's claims, and all but eighteen (18) months of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are dismissed.

B. Remaining Claims

Two Plaintiffs remain pursuant to this Court's dismissal of all claims accrued prior to June 14, 2016. First, Mr. Martel's claims regarding a one-month period remains; and, second, Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims remains regarding an eighteen months period. GSR assert the remaining claims should be dismissed for (1) failure to exhaust administrative remedies of the collective bargaining agreement; (2) issue preclusion; (3) claim preclusion; (4) lack of standing to represent union employees; and, (5) failure to state a claim.

The Court addresses each argument in turn.

1. Mr. Martel and Ms. Jackson-Williams are not Required to Exhaust Administrative Remedies

Where an administrative agency has exclusive jurisdiction over statutory claims, the failure to exhaust administrative remedies before proceeding in district court renders the matter unripe for district court review. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Thorpe, 123 Nev. 565, 571, 170 P.3d 989, 993 (2007). A private cause of action generally cannot be implied when an administrative official is expressly charged with enforcing a section of laws. Baldonado v. Wynn Las Vegas, LLC, 124 Nev. 951, 194 P.3d 96 (2008). However, the Nevada Supreme Court has determined an employee has a private right to pursue claims for unpaid wages pursuant to NRS 608.140. Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 406 P.3d 499, 504 (Nev. 2017). As such, the Labor Commissioner does not have exclusive jurisdiction over statutory claims. Therefore, Plaintiffs were not required to exhaust administrative remedies before proceeding to district court.

2. Issue and Claim Preclusion Does not Apply

In Five Star Capital Corp. v. Ruby, the Nevada Supreme Court set forth a three-part test for determining whether claim preclusion applies to a later action: (1) [T]he parties or their privies are the same, (2) the final judgment is valid, and (3) the subsequent action is based on the same claims or any part of them that were or could have been brought in the first case. 124 Nev. at 1054. In Five Star Capital Corp., the Court reasoned, claim preclusion applies to preclude an entire second suit that is based on the same set of facts and circumstances as the first suit. Id.

The Court also set forth a four-part test for determining whether issue preclusion applies to a later action:

> (1) the issue decided in the prior litigation must be identical to the issue presented in the current action; (2) the initial ruling must have been on the merits and have become final; ... (3) the party against whom the judgment is asserted must have been a party or in privity with a party to the prior litigation"; and (4) the issue was actually and necessarily litigated.

124 Nev. 1048, 1055, 194 P.3d 709, 713 (2008) (citations omitted) (emphasis added).

Here, class certification was never addressed in Sargent for the Nevada wage claims and the Court in Sargent has since reversed the grant of summary judgment in light of Neville. There is no issue or claim preclusion because class certification was never independently decided; there has been no ruling on the merits of any of the employees' FLSA or Nevada wage claims; and, the Plaintiffs' NRS 608 and Nevada Constitution minimum wage claims have not actually and necessarily been litigated.

3. Standing to Represent Union Employees

Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 159(a),

> Representatives designated or selected for the purposes of collective bargaining by the majority of the employees in a unit appropriate for such purposes, shall be the exclusive representatives of all the employees in such unit for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment.

29 U.S.C. § 159(a). In Baker v. IBP, Inc., 357 F.3d 685, 690 (7th Cir. 2004), the Seventh Circuit held that where a "suit is at its core about the adequacy of the wages [the employer] pays," individual employees may not represent union workers in a class action when the Union has not breached its duty of fair representation.

The court reasoned that union workers "have a representative—one that under the NLRA is supposed to be 'exclusive' with respect to wages" and therefore "Plaintiffs' request to proceed on behalf of a class of all workers shows that they seek to usurp the union's role." Id. at 686, 690. Moreover, state law rights and obligations that do not exist independently of private agreements, and that can be waived or altered by agreement as a result, are pre-empted by those agreements. MGM Grand Hotel-Reno, Inc. v. Insley, 102 Nev. 513, 517, 728 P.2d 821, 824 (1986).

Plaintiffs do not dispute that they may not pursue class actions on behalf of union employees because they are not union representatives, who have the exclusive right to represent members of the union with respect wage. However, Plaintiffs dispute that an enforceable collective bargaining agreement was in place. Specifically, Plaintiffs argue that: (1) the CBA is not valid and has expired by its own terms on or about May 1, 2011 (over seven years ago); (2) because it has expired and no subsequent CBA has been ratified or signed, Plaintiffs may sue in this Court for unpaid wages, overtime wages, and penalties due; and, (3) even if the CBA was valid it does not provide otherwise for overtime wages and Plaintiffs may bring their claims in this Court. See Opposition, generally. The Court declines to consider evidence, such as the collective bargaining agreement, outside the pleadings at this time.[1] Considering the claims in Plaintiffs' Complaint as true, and drawing all conclusions in favor of the Plaintiffs, dismissal in not appropriate on these grounds.

4. Failure to State a Claim

As stated dismissal is appropriate pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5) "where the allegations are insufficient to establish the elements of a claim for relief." Stockmeier v. Nevada Dept. of Corr. Psychological Review Panel, 124 Nev. 313, 316, 183 P.3d 133, 135 (2008); see also Torres v. Nev. Direct Ins. Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 54, 353 P.3d 1203, 1210 (2015) (same). Nevada is a notice-pleading jurisdiction, therefore, "[t]he test for determining whether the allegations of a cause of action are sufficient to assert a claim for relief is whether the allegations give fair notice of the nature and basis of the claim and the relief requested." Ravera v. City of Reno, 100 Nev. 68, 70, 675 P.2d 407, 408 (1984); W. States Const., Inc. v. Michoff, 108 Nev. 931, 936, 840 P.2d 1220, 1223 (1992); NRCP 8.

Plaintiffs filed their FAC on January 29, 2019. This Court finds Plaintiffs have provided sufficient factual allegations regarding hours worked and exacting estimates of shifts and unpaid hours and for the applicable time period to put Defendants on notice of the nature and basis of the claims and relief requested. See FAC, generally.

III. ORDER.

The Court finds a two-year statute of limitation applies to this case. As such, the Court dismisses all of Ms.Capilla and Ms. Vaughan's claims, all but one (1) month of Mr. Martel's claims, and all but eighteen (18) months of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims. However, the Court declines to dismiss the remaining claims at this time.

Based on the foregoing, and good cause appearing thereto,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED, in part, and DENIED, in part.

Dated this 7th day of June, 2019.

CODE NO. 3370

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHOE

EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ), MARY ANNE CAPILLA, JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS and WHITNEY VAUGHAN on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

Case No. CV16-01264

Dept. No. 6

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Before this Court is the Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, or in the Alternative, Summary Adjudication ("Motion") filed by Defendants HG STAFFING, LLC and MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT (collectively, "GSR" unless individually referenced), by and through their counsel, Cohen|Johnson|Parker|Edwards.

Plaintiffs EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ) ("Mr. Martel"), MARY ANNE CAPILLA ("Ms. Capilla"), JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS ("Ms. Jackson-Williams"), and WHITNEY VAUGHAN ("Ms. Vaughan") (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, filed Plaintiffs' Response to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment/Summary Adjudication ("Response") by and through their counsel, Thierman Buck, LLP. GSR filed its Reply in Support of Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, or in the Alternative, Summary Adjudication ("Reply") and submitted the matter for decision thereafter.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY.

This action arises out of an employment dispute between Plaintiffs, employees, and GSR, employer, regarding wages paid by GSR to Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees. Mr. Martel was employed as an attendant in the Bowling Center. Ms. Capilla was employed as a dealer. Ms. Jackson-Williams was employed as a room attendant. And, Ms. Vaughan was employed as a dancing dealer (part cards dealer, part go-go dancer). See Class Action Complaint ("Complaint") and First Amended Class Action Complaint ("FAC"), generally. On June 14, 2016, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint alleging GSR maintained the following policies, practices, and procedures which required various employees to perform work activities without compensation:

(1) GSR's Cash Bank Policy;

(2) Dance Class Policy;

(3) Room Attendant Pre-Shift Policy;

(4) Pre-Shift Meeting Policy;

(5) Uniform Policy; and,

(6) Shift Jamming Policy.

Complaint, pp. 4-8. As a result of said policies, Plaintiffs assert four (4) claims for relief against GSR:

(1) Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016;

(2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution;

(3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and,

(4) Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

Id., pp. 11-15.

On October 9, 2018, this Court entered its Order After Hearing Granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss ("Order"). The Court found Plaintiffs failed to provide sufficient information to support their claims and granted GSR's Motion to Dismiss. Order, pp. 9-10. Thereafter, Plaintiffs filed Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss or in the Alternative Leave to File an Amended Complaint ("Motion for Reconsideration") requesting the Court reconsider its Order pursuant to NRCP Rule 60(b). Motion for Reconsideration, p. 2. This Court entered its Order Re Motion for Reconsideration on January 9, 2019 and denied Plaintiffs' request on the grounds they failed to state a claim but granted Plaintiffs leave to amend their Complaint. Order Re Motion for Reconsideration, pp. 8-9.

On January 29, 2019, Plaintiffs filed their FAC asserting the same four (4) claims. Thereafter, GSR filed its Motion to Dismiss First Amended Complaint ("Motion to Dismiss"), requesting this Court dismiss the FAC pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5). Motion to Dismiss, p. 2. GSR argued the claims asserted in the FAC "have no more merit than Plaintiffs' original claims." Motion to Dismiss, p. 2. On June 7, 2019, the Court entered its Order Granting, in Part, and Denying, in Part, Motion to Dismiss ("MTD Order") concluding a two-year statute of limitation applies to the Plaintiffs' claims. MTD Order, p. 7. As such, the Court dismissed all of Ms. Capilla and Ms. Vaughan's claims, all but one (1) month of Mr. Martel's claims, and all but eighteen (18) months of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims. MTD Order, p. 14.

On May 23, 2019, GSR filed its Motion for Summary Judgment on all Claims Asserted by Plaintiffs Martel, Capilla and Vaugh (sic) ("First MSJ") and argued Plaintiffs claims are barred by claim preclusion. First MSJ, p. 4.

On June 28, 2019, GSR filed its Answer to First Amended Class Action Complaint ("Answer"). In addition to admissions and denials to Plaintiffs' allegations in the FAC, GSR asserted, among other affirmative defenses: failure to state a claim; claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations; and, claims are barred due to GSR's full performance of underlying obligations. Answer, generally.

On July 8, 2019, GSR filed Defendants' Second Motion for Summary Judgment as to Plaintiff Martel; Motion for Summary Adjudication on Plaintiffs' Lack of Standing to Represent Union Employees; and Motion for Summary Judgment as to Plaintiff Jackson-Williams ("Second MSJ"). GSR made the following arguments: (1) Mr. Martel's claims are time-barred; (2) Plaintiffs lack standing to represent union employees who are exclusively represented by their unions; (3) Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are barred for failing to exhaust grievance procedures of the Culinary Collective Bargaining Agreement ("CBA") and/or based on federal preemption; and, (4) Ms. Jackson-Williams' claim for overtime is barred pursuant to NRS 608.018 because the CBA provides otherwise for overtime. See Second MSJ, generally.

On July 9, 2019, before this Court rendered its decision on the First MSJ and Second MSJ, GSR filed its Notice of Filing Petition for Writ of Mandamus and/or Prohibition ("Petition") with the Supreme Court of Nevada. In the Petition, GSR argued the dismissal of Plaintiffs' first, third, and fourth claims for relief is mandatory on the grounds: Plaintiffs failed to exhaust administrative remedies as required by NRS Chapter 607; legislative mandated remedies must be exhausted despite an implied private right of action; and, NRS 607.215 requires Plaintiffs exhaust administrative remedies before pursuing wage claims under NRS 608.005 to 608.195. See Petition, generally.

This Court entered its Order Re Stipulation to Stay All Proceedings and Toll of the Five Year Rule ("Stipulation") on July 17, 2019 and withdrew GSR's pending motions for summary judgment from submission, without prejudice, allowing renewal upon the Supreme Court of Nevada's decision. Stipulation, p. 9.

On May 7, 2020, the Supreme Court of Nevada entered its Order Denying Petition. The Supreme Court of Nevada reasoned Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court held, by necessary implication, exhaustion of administrative remedies is not required before filing an unpaid-wage claim in district court. 133 Nev. 77, 406 P.3d 499 (2017).

On June 9, 2020, GSR filed the instant Motion and renewed the claims presented in the Second MSJ filed on May 23, 2019. GSR asserts Mr. Martel's claims are time-barred because the Court's June 7, 2019, Order Granting, in Part, and Denying, in Part, Motion to Dismiss found a two-year statute of limitations applies, barring claims accruing prior to June 14, 2014. Mr. Martel worked his last shift on June 12, 2014. Motion, p. 3. GSR argues Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are barred for failing to exhaust grievance procedures of the Culinary CBA and/or based on federal preemption because state law rights that can be altered by CBAs are preempted by CBAs and employees must make use of the grievance procedures in the CBAs or the claims will be dismissed as preempted by federal law. Motion, p. 4; citing Allis-Chalmers Corp. v. Lueck, 471 U.S. 202, 210-20 (1985); MGM Grand Hotel-Reno, Inc. v. Insley, 102 Nev. 513, 517, 728 P.2d 821, 824 (1986). GSR contends Ms. Jackson-Williams' claim for overtime is barred because Article 9.01 of the CBA entitled, "WORK, SHIFTS, WORKWEEK, AND OVERTIME," "provides otherwise" for overtime, therefore exempting Ms. Jackson-Williams from the overtime provisions in Sections 1 and 2 of NRS 608.018. Motion, pp. 5-6. GSR argues the Plaintiffs lack standing to represent union employees who are exclusively represented by their respective unions. This is so, GSR maintains, because they are not in the same unions and the bargaining representatives of each union have not been given the opportunity to be present. Motion, p. 7; citing 29 U.S.C. § 159(a); Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171, 186 (1967).

In the Response, Plaintiffs argue Mr. Martel's claim is not time-barred because an employee's claim for unpaid wages accrues thirty (30) days after the employment relationship ends. Response, p. 2; citing NRS 608.040-.050. Additionally, Plaintiffs argue GSR admitted it violated overtime requirements when it sent Mr. Martel and hundreds of other current and former employees checks for the unpaid overtime but did not pay continuation wages as mandated by NRS 608.040 and 608.050. Id. Plaintiffs assert, based on what they contend is black letter law, purported union employees are not required to exhaust internal union grievance procedures before filing suit. Response, p. 12; citing NRS 608.140 and 608.050. Plaintiffs next argue courts consistently find union and non-union employees can sue for and on behalf of each other when all allege they are victims of unlawful pay practices. Response, p. 13. Plaintiffs state Ms. Jackson-Williams is entitled to statutory overtime protections because the Culinary CBA is not a valid and operable CBA since it is an unsigned draft, and even if operable, the CBA does not provide overtime benefits beyond those conferred by NRS 608.018. Response, pp. 17-18. Plaintiffs request the opportunity to conduct further discovery on whether the Culinary Union and the CBA are operational if the Court is inclined to hold the CBA is valid. Response, p. 17.

In its Reply, GSR argues Mr. Martel conceded his underlying wage claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitation, and his derivative waiting time penalty claims under NRS 608.040 and 608.050 fail because they are contrary to accrual of claims case law and statutory language. Reply, p. 1. GSR argues Courts have repeatedly rejected assertions similar to Plaintiffs' assertion the Culinary CBA is invalid due to lack of execution. Reply, p. 2. GSR further maintains the Culinary CBA has affirmed the validity of the CBA. Id. GSR contends during the entire term of her GSR employment Ms. Jackson-Williams was subject to the CBA, and the CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime, disqualifying Ms. Jackson-Williams from receiving overtime compensation. Reply, p. 9-10. GSR argues Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims for overtime are barred both because she did not exhaust the valid and binding CBA grievance procedures. Reply, pp. 12-13. GSR states, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 159(a), the Culinary Union is the exclusive representative of the employees and Plaintiffs have not alleged a breach of the duty of fair representation, thereby conceding Plaintiffs cannot represent the employees. Reply, p. 16. Finally, GSR argues Plaintiffs are not entitled to further discovery under NRCP 56(d) because Plaintiffs failed to provide the requisite affidavit. Reply, p. 17; citing Choy v. Ameristar Casinos, Inc., 127 Nev. 870, 872, 265 P.3d 698, 700 (2011) and Bakerink v. Orthopaedic Assocs., Ltd., 94 Nev. 428, 431, 581 P.2d 9, 11 (1978).

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW; APPLICABLE LAW AND ANALYSIS

Summary judgment is appropriate under Rule 56 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure "when the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, admissions, and affidavits, if any, that are properly before the court demonstrate that no genuine issue of material fact exists, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Cuzze v. Univ. & Cmty. Coll. Sys. of Nevada, 123 Nev. 598, 602, 172 P.3d 131, 134 (2007). A factual dispute is genuine when the evidence is such that a rational trier of fact could return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 731, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2005). Further, a fact is material if the fact “might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law.” Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 2510 (1986). The pleadings and other proof "must be construed in a light most favorable to the nonmoving party," who bears the burden to "do more than simply show that there is some metaphysical doubt as to the operative facts in order to avoid summary judgment" in favor of the moving party. Id., 121 Nev. at 732, 121 P.3d at 1031. The substantive law controls which factual disputes are material and will preclude summary judgment; other factual disputes are irrelevant. Id., 121 Nev. at 731, 121 P.3d at 1031.

The manner in which each party may satisfy its burden of production depends on which party will bear the burden of persuasion on the challenged claim at trial. Cuzze, 123 Nev. at 602, 172 P.3d at 134. If the moving party will bear the burden of persuasion, that party must present evidence that would entitle it to a judgment as a matter of law in the absence of contrary evidence. Id. If the nonmoving party will bear the burden of persuasion at trial, the party moving for summary judgment may satisfy the burden of production in two ways: (1) the moving party may submit evidence which negates an essential element of the nonmoving party's claim, or (2) the moving party may merely point out the absence of evidence to support the nonmoving party's case. Id. Therefore, in such instances, in order to defeat summary judgment, the nonmoving party must transcend the pleadings and, by affidavit or other admissible evidence, introduce specific facts that show a genuine issue of material fact. Id. "The non-moving party must not simply rely on the pleadings and must do more than make 'conclusory allegations [in] an affidavit.'" Choi v. 8th Bridge Capital, 2020 WL1446700, Slip Copy, March 25, 2020 (C.D. Cal.), citing, Lujan v. Nat'l Wildlife Fed'n, 497 U.S. 871, 888, 110 S.Ct. 3177, 3188 (1990); see also, Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 2553 (1986). "Summary judgment must be granted for the moving party if the nonmoving party 'fails to make showing sufficient to establish an element essential to that party's case, and on which that party bears the burden of proof at trial.'" Choi v. 8th Bridge Capital, 2020 WL1446700, Slip Copy, March 25, 2020 (citing same).

In this case, GSR is the moving party that may submit evidence negating an essential element of Plaintiffs' claims, point out the absence of evidence, or establish the elements of a defense. Plaintiffs are the nonmoving party who must introduce specific facts that show a genuine issue of material fact exists.

Pursuant to NRCP 56, even if the undisputed factual matters are established, a party must still establish the party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Kuptz-Blinkinsop v. Blinkinsop, 136 Nev. ___, ___, 466 P.3d 1271, 1273 (2020) (citing Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. at 729, 121 P.3d at 1029 (2005)).

III. FINDINGS OF UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACT.

The Court finds the following material facts are undisputed:

1. The Complaint was filed in this matter on June 14, 2016.

2. GSR is an employer. FAC, ¶ 10; Answer, ¶ 8.

3. Mr. Martel was employed from on or about January 25, 2012 through June 13, 2014. FAC, ¶ 20, 34, 49; Motion, p. 2; Response, p. 6.

4. Mr. Martel was employed as an arcade attendant and was not covered by a union or a collective bargaining agreement. Response, p. 7.

5. Mr. Martel voluntarily resigned from his employment with GSR on June 14, 2014. Decl. of Eddy Martel-Rodriguez, ¶ 4; Reply, p. 3, n.1.

6. Mr. Martel's timeclock indicates he clocked into his final shift at GSR at 6:10 p.m. on June 12, 2014. Mr. Martel clocked out on June 13, 2014 at 12:26 a.m. Motion, p. 2, Ex. 1, Decl. of Eric Candela; Response, p. 6.

7. Mr. Martel was paid every two weeks and last paycheck was paid on June 16, 2014. Reply, Ex. 1, Decl. of Cynthia Williams, ¶ 3.

8. Ms. Jackson-Williams was employed as a guest attendant from April 2014, through December, 2015. FAC, ¶ 6; Motion, p. 2; Response, p. 7.

9. The Culinary CBA is unsigned. Motion, p. 7, n.1; Response, p. 16; Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶ 2.

10. Article 9.01 of the Culinary CBA provides:

> The workweek pay period shall be from Friday through Thursday. For purposes of computing overtime, for an employee scheduled to work five (5) days in one (1) workweek, any hours in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. For an employee scheduled to work four (4) days in one (1) workweek, any hours worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. . . . Employees absent for personal reasons on one (1) or more of their first five (5) scheduled days of work in their workweek shall work at the Employee's request on a scheduled day off in the same workweek at straight time.

Motion, p. 6; Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Hilden, Ex. 1; Response, pp. 18-19.

11. Pursuant to the Operating Engineers CBA, GSR recognizes the International Union of Operating Engineers Stationary Local No. 39 AFL-CIO as "the exclusive bargaining representative for . . . all draftsmen, carpenters, engineers, locksmiths, painters, upholsters, certified pool operators and engineering department laborers." Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Hilden, ¶ 11; Response, p. 6.

12. Pursuant to the IATSE CBA, GSR recognizes the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, its Territories and Canada, AFL-CIO, CLC LOCAL Union No. 362 ("IATSE") as "the Exclusive collective bargaining representative for . . . all entertainment department employees performing carpentry, electrical, electronic, sound and property work, including stage hands, stage technicians, stage laborers, lounge technicians, convention technicians, spotlight operators and technicians, stage electricians, sound personnel, projectionists, operators of all audio-visual equipment used in connection with the Employer's entertainment and convention operations and all wardrobe personnel . . ." Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Hilden, ¶12; Response, p. 6.

13. The Culinary Union has filed grievances under the Culinary CBA, and arbitrations have taken place. Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶¶ 3-7; Ex. 3, Decl. of Larry Montrose, ¶ 5.

14. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law include, or may be construed to include, findings of fact, they are incorporated here.

IV. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

To the extent any of the foregoing findings of fact constitute, or may be construed to constitute, conclusions of law they are incorporated here:

A. STATUTE OF LIMITATION.

1. The Minimum Wage Act (MWA) guarantees employees payment of a specified minimum wage and gives an employee whose employer violates the MWA the right to bring an action against his or her employer in Nevada. Perry v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 383 P.3d 257, 258 (2016).

2. A two-year statute of limitation applies to actions for failure to pay the minimum wage in violation of the Nevada constitution. Id. at 262.

3. The two-year statute of limitation period applies to NRS 608 statutory wage claims that are analogous to a cause of action for failure to pay an employee the lawful minimum wage. Id.

4. NRS 608.040 provides:

> 1. If an employer fails to pay:
> (a) Within 3 days after the wages or compensation of a discharged employee becomes due; or
> (b) On the day the wages or compensation is due to an employee who resigns or quits, the wages or compensation of the employee continues at the same rate from the day the employee resigned, quit or was discharged until paid or for 30 days, whichever is less.
> 2. Any employee who secretes or absents himself or herself to avoid payment of his or her wages or compensation, or refuses to accept them when > fully tendered to him or her, is not entitled to receive the payment thereof for the time he or she secretes or absents himself or herself to avoid payment.

NRS 608.040.

5. NRS 608.050 provides:

> 1. Whenever an employer of labor shall discharge or lay off employees without first paying them the amount of any wages or salary then due them, in cash and lawful money of the United States, or its equivalent, or shall fail, or refuse on demand, to pay them in like money, or its equivalent, the amount of any wages or salary at the time the same becomes due and owing to them under their contract of employment, whether employed by the hour, day, week or month, each of the employees may charge and collect wages in the sum agreed upon in the contract of employment for each day the employer is in default, until the employee is paid in full, without rendering any service therefor; but the employee shall cease to draw such wages or salary 30 days after such default.
> 2. Every employee shall have a lien as provided in NRS 108.221 to 108.246, inclusive, and all other rights and remedies for the protection and enforcement of such salary or wages as the employee would have been entitled to had the employee rendered services therefor in the manner as last employed.

NRS 608.050.

6. When a derivative claim is dependent on the success of an underlying claim and the underlying "claim having not been established," then the derivative claim "must fail as well." Turner v. Mandalay Sports Entm't, LLC, 124 Nev. 213, 222 n.31, 180 P.3d 1172, 1178 n.31 (2008).

7. A two-year statute of limitation applies to the claims in this action. Claims which accrued prior to June 14, 2014 are therefore barred by the statute of limitation. See Order Granting, in Part, and Denying, in Part, Motion to Dismiss pp. 7-11.

8. Mr. Martel maintains his fourth cause of action for waiting time penalties under NRS 608.040 and 608.050 is timely because his cause of action did not accrue until thirty (30) days after his last day of work.

9. Based on its plain language, NRS 608.050 is inapplicable to Mr. Martel. Section 608.050 applies to employees who are discharged or laid off by their employer. See NRS 608.050(1). Mr. Martel resigned from his job.

10. Section 608.040 of the Nevada Revised Statutes does not apply to wages that are not accrued during the final pay period of the employee.

11. No shift jamming, no off-the-clock banking, and no pre-shift meetings occurred during Mr. Martel's final pay period. Mr. Martel's last shift ended on June 13, 2014.

12. Therefore, the two-year statute of limitation applies to Mr. Martel's claims. The Complaint was filed on June 14, 2016.

13. NRS 608.040 does not save Mr. Martel's claims. "[W]hen a statute 'is clear on its face, a court cannot go beyond the statute in determining legislative intent.'" State v. Lucero, 249 P.3d 1226, 1228 (2011) (citing Robert E. v. Justice Court, 99 Nev. 443, 445 (1983)). The Court finds NRS 608.040 is clear on its face that it does not apply to all wages, but rather wages due for the pay period before the employee is discharged or quits. Nothing in the statute indicates the rule applies to previously unpaid wages or exists to create a cause of action for those wages.

14. The two-year statute of limitation applies to: Plaintiffs' First Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; Second Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution; Third Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and, Fourth Cause of Action for Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

15. Defendants met their burden and established their statute of limitation defense to Plaintiffs' claims as a matter of law.

16. Summary judgment should be entered on each of Mr. Martel's claims as they are time-barred.

17. After application of the two-year statute of limitation, Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims remain for an eighteen-month period only.

B. CBA VALIDITY AND ABILITY TO PROVIDE OTHERWISE FOR OVERTIME

1. Validity of the CBA

18. The CBA purportedly expired by its own terms on or about May 1, 2011. The CBA has not been extended by signature, however, GSR contends the CBA has been extended by ratification.

19. Unsigned CBAs have been found valid and operative when an employer has continued to treat the CBA as binding and effective and employee could not point to evidence to the contrary. Bloom v. Universal City Studios, 933 F.2d 1013, 1991 WL 80602 at *1 (9th Cir. 1991) (unpublished); See Retail Clerks Int'l Ass'n v. Lion Dry Goods, Inc., 369 U.S. 17, 24 n. 6 (1962) (finding CBA valid even when parties did not negotiate directly and did not consolidate signatures on one document).

20. A union will generally be held defunct if it has ceased to exist as an effective labor organization and is no long fulfilling responsibilities in administering the contract. Hershey Chocolate Corp., 121 NLRB 901, 911, 42 LRRM 1460 (1958); see also Pioneer Inn Associates v. N.L.R.B., 578 F.2d 835, 839-40 (1978) (explaining inactivity, failure to monitor contract provisions, and failure to pursue grievances may indicate a failure to administer the contract).

21. Signatures on collective bargaining agreements are "not a prerequisite to finding an employer bound to that agreement." Line Const. Ben. Fund v. Allied Elec. Contractors, Inc., 591 F.3d 576, 580 (7th Cir. 2010); N.L.R.B. v. Electra-Food Mach. Inc., 621 F.2d 956, 958 (9th Cir. 1980) (holding oral agreements are sufficient to create binding collective bargaining agreements even when written agreement is unsigned); N.L.R.B. v. Haberman Const. Co., 641 F.2d 351, 356 (5th Cir. 1981) (en banc) ("[A] union and employer's adoption of a labor contract is not dependent on the reduction to writing of their intention to be bound").

22. If the union and the employer continue to operate as if the CBA is operative, the CBA is binding. Here, the union and GSR engaged in arbitration and negotiation when mandated by the CBA. GSR continued to negotiate and arbitrate with the union on multiple occasions. For example, Mr. Montrose confirmed he interacts with the Culinary Union Representative Nicolaza De La Puente weekly and he was notified of at least two different grievances in 2015. Motion, Decl. of Larry Montrose, Ex B., Ex. C. The CBA was "ratified by the Union on November 17, 2011, and it was in effect through March 10, 2018, when a subsequent Culinary CBA was ratified." Motion, Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶ 2. An arbitration was held on August 25, 2016, in which the parties introduced the CBA as Joint Exhibit 1. Motion, Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶ 2. Following the August 25, 2016, arbitration, the Culinary Union submitted a Post-Hearing Brief dated October 24, 2016 in which the Union states, "Local 226 has been party to three successive collective-bargaining agreements at the hotel casino that is now known as the Grand Sierra Resort." Id. Plaintiffs contend the CBA expired in May of 2011 but provide the Court with no evidence to dispute that the union and the GSR continued to treat the CBA as binding. Undisputed evidence confirms the CBA was valid and operative.

2. The CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime

23. NRS 608.018(1)-(2) governs compensation for overtime and reads:

> 1. An employer shall pay 1 1/2 times an employee's regular wage rate whenever an employee who receives compensation for employment at a rate less than 1 1/2 times the minimum rate set forth in NRS 608.250 works:
> (a) More than 40 hours in any scheduled week of work; or
> (b) More than 8 hours in any workday unless by mutual agreement the employee works a scheduled 10 hours per day for 4 calendar days within any scheduled week of work.
> 2. An employer shall pay 1 1/2 times an employee's regular wage rate whenever an employee who receives compensation for employment at a rate not less than 1 1/2 times the minimum rate set forth in NRS 608.250 works more than 40 hours in any scheduled week of work.

NRS 608.018(1)-(2).

24. Section 608.018(3) of the Nevada Revised Statutes provides, "[t]he provisions of subsections 1 and 2 do not apply to . . . (e) Employees covered by collective bargaining agreements which provide otherwise for overtime . . ." NRS 608.018(3) (emphasis added).

25. The CBA provides:

> The workweek pay period shall be from Friday through Thursday. For the purposes of computing overtime, for an employee scheduled to work five (5) days in one (1) workweek, any hours in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. For an employee scheduled to work four (4) days in one (1) workweek, any hours worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. Overtime shall be effective and paid only after the total number of hours not worked due to early ours is first subtracted from the total number of hours actually worked per shift, per workweek. Overtime shall not be paid under this Section for more than one (1) reason for the same hours worked. Employees absent for personal reasons on one (1) or more of their first five (5) scheduled days of work in their workweek shall work at the Employer's request on a scheduled day off in the same workweek at straight time. If the employer anticipates such scheduling, the Employer provide five (5) days' advance notice.

> This provision will remain in effect for the duration of this Agreement. However, at the expiration of the Agreement, the Employer shall have the right to compute and pay overtime in accordance with the provisions of existing federal and state law, and Union employees shall not have the right to overtime pay above and beyond the applicable federal and state law requirements.

See Motion, Ex. 2A, p. 15.

26. CBAs "provide otherwise" for overtime payments when the CBA "contains a negotiated provision on the same subject but different from the statutory provision." Firestone v. Southern California Gas Co., 219 F.3d 1063, 1067, 164 L.R.R.M. 2897, 2897 (9th Cir. 2000); Jacobs v. Mandalay Corp., 378 F. App'x 685, 687 (9th Cir. 2010) ("[S]ection 608.018 exempts from coverage those employees 'covered by collective bargaining agreements which provide otherwise for overtime.").

27. The instant CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime. The CBA provides otherwise for overtime because there are differences in both the practical effects of the overtime provisions in NRS 608.018 and in the CBA's overtime provisions, as well as the textual provisions. For example, NRS 608.018(1) provides that an employer shall pay 1 1/2 times the employee's regular wage when the employee works more than 40 hours in a week or more than 8 hours in a day. The CBA does not specify what the pay rate shall be. Additionally, the CBA provides for overtime regardless of the employee's wage, while NRS 608.018 only mandates overtime for employees making more than 1 1/2 the minimum wage. NRS 608.018 provides overtime regardless of how many days are worked in a week, while the CBA allows overtime only when employees work five days in one workweek. NRS 608.018 does not limit overtime if an employee misses a scheduled day and works an alternate day, however, the CBA does. Accordingly, the CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime.

28. The CBA "provides otherwise" for Ms. Jackson-Williams' claim for overtime and NRS 608.018 does not provide a legal basis for her claim.

3. Grievance Procedures of the Culinary CBA

29. Section 301 of the Labor Management Relations Act states:

> Suits for violation of contracts between an employer and a labor organization representing employees in an industry affecting commerce ... may be brought in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the parties....

Labor Management Relations Act of 1947 § 301(a), 29 U.S.C. § 185(a) (1982).

30. Employees may pursue claims for unpaid wages through a private cause of action and without enforcing the claim through the Labor Commissioner. Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 133 Nev. 777, 782, 406 P.3d 499, 504 (2017).

31. State law rights and obligations that do not exist independently of private agreements can be waived or altered by agreement as a result and are pre-empted by those agreements. MGM Grand Hotel-Reno, Inc. v. Insley, 102 Nev. 513, 517, 728 P.2d 821, 824 (1986) (citing Allis Chalmers v. Lueck, 471 U.S. 202, 105 S.Ct. 1904 (1985)).

32. Workers do not have to submit to arbitration procedures when redressing grievances because a CBA provides contractual rights, but workers may have an independent statutory right to enforce individual rights. Albertson's, Inc. v. United Food & Commercial Workers Union, ALF-CIO & CLC, 157 F.3d 758, 762 (9th Cir.).

33. Whether Ms. Jackson-Williams must follow the grievance procedures contained in the CBA depends on whether she has an independent statutory right to enforce her claims for wages and overtime outside of the CBA. Ms. Jackson-Williams brought claims for Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016, Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution, Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018, and Failure to Pay All

Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608-040-050. The State of Nevada provides independent statutory rights to each of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims through the Nevada Revised Statutes and the Nevada Constitution. Albertson's Inc. explains, "in filing a lawsuit under [a statute], an employee asserts independent statutory rights . . . The distinctly separate nature of these contractual and statutory rights is not vitiated merely because both were violated as a result of the same factual occurrence." 157 F.3d at 761. Since there are state-law rights at issue, Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are not preempted, and the claims are not mandated to proceed through the grievance procedure of the CBA.

4. Lack of Standing to Represent Union Employees

34. Section 159(a) of the United States Code states:

> Representatives designated or selected for the purposes of collective bargaining by the majority of the employees in a unit appropriate for such purposes, shall be the exclusive representatives of all the employees in such unit for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment.

29 U.S.C. § 159(a).

35. Baristas, bartenders, and cocktail servers are represented by the Culinary CBA; construction workers are covered by the Operating Engineers CBA; and, technicians are represented by the AFL-CIO Local Union. Plaintiffs, as members of the "shift jamming class" attempt to represent union members from other sub-classes.

36. Employees may bring an action against an employer without exhausting contractual remedies, but the employees must "prove that the union as bargaining agent breached its duty of fair representation in its handling of the employee's grievance." Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171, 186, 87 S.Ct. 903, 914 (1967).

37. When employees sue to vindicate "uniquely personal rights" as opposed to rights reserved to unions like picketing, renegotiating a contract, or protesting relocation, the employees have standing to sue on their own behalf and on behalf of other union members. Lucas v. Bechtel Corp., 633 F.2d 757, 759 (9th Cir. 1980) (citing Hines v. Anchor Motor Freight, Inc., 424 U.S. 554, 562, 96 S.Ct. 1048, 1055 (1976)).

38. In Baker v. IBP, Inc., 357 F.3d 685, 690 (7th Cir. 2004), the Seventh Circuit held that where a "suit is at its core about the adequacy of the wages [the employer] pays," individual employees may not represent union workers in a class action when the union has not breached its duty of fair representation." The court reasoned union workers "have a representative—one that under the NLRA is supposed to be 'exclusive' with respect to wages" and therefore "Plaintiffs' request to proceed on behalf of a class of all workers shows that they seek to usurp the union's role." Id. at 686, 690.

39. Plaintiffs do not assert the Union has breached its duty of fair representation. The CBA is valid and operative. Plaintiffs cannot represent those other union members who are represented by separate unions without asserting those union representatives breached their duty of fair representation.

C. PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY PURSUANT TO NRCP 56.

40. Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 56 provides:

> (d) When Facts Are Unavailable to the Nonmovant. If a nonmovant shows by affidavit or declaration that, for specified reasons, it cannot present facts essential to justify its opposition, the court may:
> (1) defer considering the motion or deny it;
> (2) allow time to obtain affidavits or declarations or to take discovery; or
> (3) issue any other appropriate order.

NRCP 56(d).

41. A party opposing summary judgment pursuant to NRCP 56(d) has the burden of affirmatively demonstrating by a good-faith affidavit (1) the identification of the specific facts that further discovery would reveal; (2) the specific reasons why such evidence is presently unavailable; and (3) how those facts would preclude summary judgment. Family Home & Fin. Ctr., Inc. v. Fed. Home Loan Mortgage Corp., 525 F.3d 822, 827 (9th Cir. 2008); Collins v. Union Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n, 99 Nev. 657, 669-70, 262 P.3d 705, 714 (2011).

42. Plaintiffs request additional discovery to ascertain whether the CBA is valid or not. Plaintiffs have not provided an affidavit, have not articulated the specific reasons why the evidence they need is unavailable to them, and have not stated how those facts would preclude summary judgment.

V. CONCLUSION AND ORDER.

Based on the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law and good cause appearing therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED summary judgment is entered in favor of GSR and against the Plaintiffs.

DATED this 2nd day of November, 2020.

Case No. CV16-01264

Dept. No. 6

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Before this Court is the Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, or in the Alternative, Summary Adjudication ("Motion") filed by Defendants HG STAFFING, LLC and MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT (collectively, "GSR" unless individually referenced), by and through their counsel, Cohen|Johnson|Parker|Edwards.

Plaintiffs EDDY MARTEL (also known as MARTEL-RODRIGUEZ) ("Mr. Martel"), MARY ANNE CAPILLA ("Ms. Capilla"), JANICE JACKSON-WILLIAMS ("Ms. Jackson-Williams"), and WHITNEY VAUGHAN ("Ms. Vaughan") (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, filed Plaintiffs' Response to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment/Summary Adjudication ("Response") by and through their counsel, Thierman Buck, LLP. GSR filed its Reply in Support of Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, or in the Alternative, Summary Adjudication ("Reply") and submitted the matter for decision thereafter.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY.

This action arises out of an employment dispute between Plaintiffs, employees, and GSR, employer, regarding wages paid by GSR to Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees. Mr. Martel was employed as an attendant in the Bowling Center. Ms. Capilla was employed as a dealer. Ms. Jackson-Williams was employed as a room attendant. And, Ms. Vaughan was employed as a dancing dealer (part cards dealer, part go-go dancer). See Class Action Complaint ("Complaint") and First Amended Class Action Complaint ("FAC"), generally. On June 14, 2016, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint alleging GSR maintained the following policies, practices, and procedures which required various employees to perform work activities without compensation:

(1) GSR's Cash Bank Policy;

(2) Dance Class Policy;

(3) Room Attendant Pre-Shift Policy;

(4) Pre-Shift Meeting Policy;

(5) Uniform Policy; and,

(6) Shift Jamming Policy.

Complaint, pp. 4-8. As a result of said policies, Plaintiffs assert four (4) claims for relief against GSR:

(1) Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016;

(2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution;

(3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and,

(4) Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

Id., pp. 11-15.

On October 9, 2018, this Court entered its Order After Hearing Granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss ("Order"). The Court found Plaintiffs failed to provide sufficient information to support their claims and granted GSR's Motion to Dismiss. Order, pp. 9-10. Thereafter, Plaintiffs filed Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss or in the Alternative Leave to File an Amended Complaint ("Motion for Reconsideration") requesting the Court reconsider its Order pursuant to NRCP Rule 60(b). Motion for Reconsideration, p. 2. This Court entered its Order Re Motion for Reconsideration on January 9, 2019 and denied Plaintiffs' request on the grounds they failed to state a claim but granted Plaintiffs leave to amend their Complaint. Order Re Motion for Reconsideration, pp. 8-9.

On January 29, 2019, Plaintiffs filed their FAC asserting the same four (4) claims. Thereafter, GSR filed its Motion to Dismiss First Amended Complaint ("Motion to Dismiss"), requesting this Court dismiss the FAC pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5). Motion to Dismiss, p. 2. GSR argued the claims asserted in the FAC "have no more merit than Plaintiffs' original claims." Motion to Dismiss, p. 2. On June 7, 2019, the Court entered its Order Granting, in Part, and Denying, in Part, Motion to Dismiss ("MTD Order") concluding a two-year statute of limitation applies to the Plaintiffs' claims. MTD Order, p. 7. As such, the Court dismissed all of Ms. Capilla and Ms. Vaughan's claims, all but one (1) month of Mr. Martel's claims, and all but eighteen (18) months of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims. MTD Order, p. 14.

On May 23, 2019, GSR filed its Motion for Summary Judgment on all Claims Asserted by Plaintiffs Martel, Capilla and Vaugh (sic) ("First MSJ") and argued Plaintiffs claims are barred by claim preclusion. First MSJ, p. 4.

On June 28, 2019, GSR filed its Answer to First Amended Class Action Complaint ("Answer"). In addition to admissions and denials to Plaintiffs' allegations in the FAC, GSR asserted, among other affirmative defenses: failure to state a claim; claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations; and, claims are barred due to GSR's full performance of underlying obligations. Answer, generally.

On July 8, 2019, GSR filed Defendants' Second Motion for Summary Judgment as to Plaintiff Martel; Motion for Summary Adjudication on Plaintiffs' Lack of Standing to Represent Union Employees; and Motion for Summary Judgment as to Plaintiff Jackson-Williams ("Second MSJ"). GSR made the following arguments: (1) Mr. Martel's claims are time-barred; (2) Plaintiffs lack standing to represent union employees who are exclusively represented by their unions; (3) Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are barred for failing to exhaust grievance procedures of the Culinary Collective Bargaining Agreement ("CBA") and/or based on federal preemption; and, (4) Ms. Jackson-Williams' claim for overtime is barred pursuant to NRS 608.018 because the CBA provides otherwise for overtime. See Second MSJ, generally.

On July 9, 2019, before this Court rendered its decision on the First MSJ and Second MSJ, GSR filed its Notice of Filing Petition for Writ of Mandamus and/or Prohibition ("Petition") with the Supreme Court of Nevada. In the Petition, GSR argued the dismissal of Plaintiffs' first, third, and fourth claims for relief is mandatory on the grounds: Plaintiffs failed to exhaust administrative remedies as required by NRS Chapter 607; legislative mandated remedies must be exhausted despite an implied private right of action; and, NRS 607.215 requires Plaintiffs exhaust administrative remedies before pursuing wage claims under NRS 608.005 to 608.195. See Petition, generally.

This Court entered its Order Re Stipulation to Stay All Proceedings and Toll of the Five Year Rule ("Stipulation") on July 17, 2019 and withdrew GSR's pending motions for summary judgment from submission, without prejudice, allowing renewal upon the Supreme Court of Nevada's decision. Stipulation, p. 9.

On May 7, 2020, the Supreme Court of Nevada entered its Order Denying Petition. The Supreme Court of Nevada reasoned Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court held, by necessary implication, exhaustion of administrative remedies is not required before filing an unpaid-wage claim in district court. 133 Nev. 77, 406 P.3d 499 (2017).

On June 9, 2020, GSR filed the instant Motion and renewed the claims presented in the Second MSJ filed on May 23, 2019. GSR asserts Mr. Martel's claims are time-barred because the Court's June 7, 2019, Order Granting, in Part, and Denying, in Part, Motion to Dismiss found a two-year statute of limitations applies, barring claims accruing prior to June 14, 2014. Mr. Martel worked his last shift on June 12, 2014. Motion, p. 3. GSR argues Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are barred for failing to exhaust grievance procedures of the Culinary CBA and/or based on federal preemption because state law rights that can be altered by CBAs are preempted by CBAs and employees must make use of the grievance procedures in the CBAs or the claims will be dismissed as preempted by federal law. Motion, p. 4; citing Allis-Chalmers Corp. v. Lueck, 471 U.S. 202, 210-20 (1985); MGM Grand Hotel-Reno, Inc. v. Insley, 102 Nev. 513, 517, 728 P.2d 821, 824 (1986). GSR contends Ms. Jackson-Williams' claim for overtime is barred because Article 9.01 of the CBA entitled, "WORK, SHIFTS, WORKWEEK, AND OVERTIME," "provides otherwise" for overtime, therefore exempting Ms. Jackson-Williams from the overtime provisions in Sections 1 and 2 of NRS 608.018. Motion, pp. 5-6. GSR argues the Plaintiffs lack standing to represent union employees who are exclusively represented by their respective unions. This is so, GSR maintains, because they are not in the same unions and the bargaining representatives of each union have not been given the opportunity to be present. Motion, p. 7; citing 29 U.S.C. § 159(a); Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171, 186 (1967).

In the Response, Plaintiffs argue Mr. Martel's claim is not time-barred because an employee's claim for unpaid wages accrues thirty (30) days after the employment relationship ends. Response, p. 2; citing NRS 608.040-.050. Additionally, Plaintiffs argue GSR admitted it violated overtime requirements when it sent Mr. Martel and hundreds of other current and former employees checks for the unpaid overtime but did not pay continuation wages as mandated by NRS 608.040 and 608.050. Id. Plaintiffs assert, based on what they contend is black letter law, purported union employees are not required to exhaust internal union grievance procedures before filing suit. Response, p. 12; citing NRS 608.140 and 608.050. Plaintiffs next argue courts consistently find union and non-union employees can sue for and on behalf of each other when all allege they are victims of unlawful pay practices. Response, p. 13. Plaintiffs state Ms. Jackson-Williams is entitled to statutory overtime protections because the Culinary CBA is not a valid and operable CBA since it is an unsigned draft, and even if operable, the CBA does not provide overtime benefits beyond those conferred by NRS 608.018. Response, pp. 17-18. Plaintiffs request the opportunity to conduct further discovery on whether the Culinary Union and the CBA are operational if the Court is inclined to hold the CBA is valid. Response, p. 17.

In its Reply, GSR argues Mr. Martel conceded his underlying wage claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitation, and his derivative waiting time penalty claims under NRS 608.040 and 608.050 fail because they are contrary to accrual of claims case law and statutory language. Reply, p. 1. GSR argues Courts have repeatedly rejected assertions similar to Plaintiffs' assertion the Culinary CBA is invalid due to lack of execution. Reply, p. 2. GSR further maintains the Culinary CBA has affirmed the validity of the CBA. Id. GSR contends during the entire term of her GSR employment Ms. Jackson-Williams was subject to the CBA, and the CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime, disqualifying Ms. Jackson-Williams from receiving overtime compensation. Reply, p. 9-10. GSR argues Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims for overtime are barred both because she did not exhaust the valid and binding CBA grievance procedures. Reply, pp. 12-13. GSR states, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 159(a), the Culinary Union is the exclusive representative of the employees and Plaintiffs have not alleged a breach of the duty of fair representation, thereby conceding Plaintiffs cannot represent the employees. Reply, p. 16. Finally, GSR argues Plaintiffs are not entitled to further discovery under NRCP 56(d) because Plaintiffs failed to provide the requisite affidavit. Reply, p. 17; citing Choy v. Ameristar Casinos, Inc., 127 Nev. 870, 872, 265 P.3d 698, 700 (2011) and Bakerink v. Orthopaedic Assocs., Ltd., 94 Nev. 428, 431, 581 P.2d 9, 11 (1978).

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW; APPLICABLE LAW AND ANALYSIS

Summary judgment is appropriate under Rule 56 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure "when the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, admissions, and affidavits, if any, that are properly before the court demonstrate that no genuine issue of material fact exists, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Cuzze v. Univ. & Cmty. Coll. Sys. of Nevada, 123 Nev. 598, 602, 172 P.3d 131, 134 (2007). A factual dispute is genuine when the evidence is such that a rational trier of fact could return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 731, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2005). Further, a fact is material if the fact “might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law.” Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 2510 (1986). The pleadings and other proof "must be construed in a light most favorable to the nonmoving party," who bears the burden to "do more than simply show that there is some metaphysical doubt as to the operative facts in order to avoid summary judgment" in favor of the moving party. Id., 121 Nev. at 732, 121 P.3d at 1031. The substantive law controls which factual disputes are material and will preclude summary judgment; other factual disputes are irrelevant. Id., 121 Nev. at 731, 121 P.3d at 1031.

The manner in which each party may satisfy its burden of production depends on which party will bear the burden of persuasion on the challenged claim at trial. Cuzze, 123 Nev. at 602, 172 P.3d at 134. If the moving party will bear the burden of persuasion, that party must present evidence that would entitle it to a judgment as a matter of law in the absence of contrary evidence. Id. If the nonmoving party will bear the burden of persuasion at trial, the party moving for summary judgment may satisfy the burden of production in two ways: (1) the moving party may submit evidence which negates an essential element of the nonmoving party's claim, or (2) the moving party may merely point out the absence of evidence to support the nonmoving party's case. Id. Therefore, in such instances, in order to defeat summary judgment, the nonmoving party must transcend the pleadings and, by affidavit or other admissible evidence, introduce specific facts that show a genuine issue of material fact. Id. "The non-moving party must not simply rely on the pleadings and must do more than make 'conclusory allegations [in] an affidavit.'" Choi v. 8th Bridge Capital, 2020 WL1446700, Slip Copy, March 25, 2020 (C.D. Cal.), citing, Lujan v. Nat'l Wildlife Fed'n, 497 U.S. 871, 888, 110 S.Ct. 3177, 3188 (1990); see also, Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 2553 (1986). "Summary judgment must be granted for the moving party if the nonmoving party 'fails to make showing sufficient to establish an element essential to that party's case, and on which that party bears the burden of proof at trial.'" Choi v. 8th Bridge Capital, 2020 WL1446700, Slip Copy, March 25, 2020 (citing same).

In this case, GSR is the moving party that may submit evidence negating an essential element of Plaintiffs' claims, point out the absence of evidence, or establish the elements of a defense. Plaintiffs are the nonmoving party who must introduce specific facts that show a genuine issue of material fact exists.

Pursuant to NRCP 56, even if the undisputed factual matters are established, a party must still establish the party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Kuptz-Blinkinsop v. Blinkinsop, 136 Nev. ___, ___, 466 P.3d 1271, 1273 (2020) (citing Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. at 729, 121 P.3d at 1029 (2005)).

III. FINDINGS OF UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACT.

The Court finds the following material facts are undisputed:

1. The Complaint was filed in this matter on June 14, 2016.

2. GSR is an employer. FAC, ¶ 10; Answer, ¶ 8.

3. Mr. Martel was employed from on or about January 25, 2012 through June 13, 2014. FAC, ¶ 20, 34, 49; Motion, p. 2; Response, p. 6.

4. Mr. Martel was employed as an arcade attendant and was not covered by a union or a collective bargaining agreement. Response, p. 7.

5. Mr. Martel voluntarily resigned from his employment with GSR on June 14, 2014. Decl. of Eddy Martel-Rodriguez, ¶ 4; Reply, p. 3, n.1.

6. Mr. Martel's timeclock indicates he clocked into his final shift at GSR at 6:10 p.m. on June 12, 2014. Mr. Martel clocked out on June 13, 2014 at 12:26 a.m. Motion, p. 2, Ex. 1, Decl. of Eric Candela; Response, p. 6.

7. Mr. Martel was paid every two weeks and last paycheck was paid on June 16, 2014. Reply, Ex. 1, Decl. of Cynthia Williams, ¶ 3.

8. Ms. Jackson-Williams was employed as a guest attendant from April 2014, through December, 2015. FAC, ¶ 6; Motion, p. 2; Response, p. 7.

9. The Culinary CBA is unsigned. Motion, p. 7, n.1; Response, p. 16; Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶ 2.

10. Article 9.01 of the Culinary CBA provides:

> The workweek pay period shall be from Friday through Thursday. For purposes of computing overtime, for an employee scheduled to work five (5) days in one (1) workweek, any hours in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. For an employee scheduled to work four (4) days in one (1) workweek, any hours worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. . . . Employees absent for personal reasons on one (1) or more of their first five (5) scheduled days of work in their workweek shall work at the Employee's request on a scheduled day off in the same workweek at straight time.

Motion, p. 6; Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Hilden, Ex. 1; Response, pp. 18-19.

11. Pursuant to the Operating Engineers CBA, GSR recognizes the International Union of Operating Engineers Stationary Local No. 39 AFL-CIO as "the exclusive bargaining representative for . . . all draftsmen, carpenters, engineers, locksmiths, painters, upholsters, certified pool operators and engineering department laborers." Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Hilden, ¶ 11; Response, p. 6.

12. Pursuant to the IATSE CBA, GSR recognizes the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, its Territories and Canada, AFL-CIO, CLC LOCAL Union No. 362 ("IATSE") as "the Exclusive collective bargaining representative for . . . all entertainment department employees performing carpentry, electrical, electronic, sound and property work, including stage hands, stage technicians, stage laborers, lounge technicians, convention technicians, spotlight operators and technicians, stage electricians, sound personnel, projectionists, operators of all audio-visual equipment used in connection with the Employer's entertainment and convention operations and all wardrobe personnel . . ." Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Hilden, ¶12; Response, p. 6.

13. The Culinary Union has filed grievances under the Culinary CBA, and arbitrations have taken place. Motion, Ex. 2, Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶¶ 3-7; Ex. 3, Decl. of Larry Montrose, ¶ 5.

14. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law include, or may be construed to include, findings of fact, they are incorporated here.

IV. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

To the extent any of the foregoing findings of fact constitute, or may be construed to constitute, conclusions of law they are incorporated here:

A. STATUTE OF LIMITATION.

1. The Minimum Wage Act (MWA) guarantees employees payment of a specified minimum wage and gives an employee whose employer violates the MWA the right to bring an action against his or her employer in Nevada. Perry v. Terrible Herbst, Inc., 383 P.3d 257, 258 (2016).

2. A two-year statute of limitation applies to actions for failure to pay the minimum wage in violation of the Nevada constitution. Id. at 262.

3. The two-year statute of limitation period applies to NRS 608 statutory wage claims that are analogous to a cause of action for failure to pay an employee the lawful minimum wage. Id.

4. NRS 608.040 provides:

> 1. If an employer fails to pay:
> (a) Within 3 days after the wages or compensation of a discharged employee becomes due; or
> (b) On the day the wages or compensation is due to an employee who resigns or quits, the wages or compensation of the employee continues at the same rate from the day the employee resigned, quit or was discharged until paid or for 30 days, whichever is less.
> 2. Any employee who secretes or absents himself or herself to avoid payment of his or her wages or compensation, or refuses to accept them when > fully tendered to him or her, is not entitled to receive the payment thereof for the time he or she secretes or absents himself or herself to avoid payment.

NRS 608.040.

5. NRS 608.050 provides:

> 1. Whenever an employer of labor shall discharge or lay off employees without first paying them the amount of any wages or salary then due them, in cash and lawful money of the United States, or its equivalent, or shall fail, or refuse on demand, to pay them in like money, or its equivalent, the amount of any wages or salary at the time the same becomes due and owing to them under their contract of employment, whether employed by the hour, day, week or month, each of the employees may charge and collect wages in the sum agreed upon in the contract of employment for each day the employer is in default, until the employee is paid in full, without rendering any service therefor; but the employee shall cease to draw such wages or salary 30 days after such default.
> 2. Every employee shall have a lien as provided in NRS 108.221 to 108.246, inclusive, and all other rights and remedies for the protection and enforcement of such salary or wages as the employee would have been entitled to had the employee rendered services therefor in the manner as last employed.

NRS 608.050.

6. When a derivative claim is dependent on the success of an underlying claim and the underlying "claim having not been established," then the derivative claim "must fail as well." Turner v. Mandalay Sports Entm't, LLC, 124 Nev. 213, 222 n.31, 180 P.3d 1172, 1178 n.31 (2008).

7. A two-year statute of limitation applies to the claims in this action. Claims which accrued prior to June 14, 2014 are therefore barred by the statute of limitation. See Order Granting, in Part, and Denying, in Part, Motion to Dismiss pp. 7-11.

8. Mr. Martel maintains his fourth cause of action for waiting time penalties under NRS 608.040 and 608.050 is timely because his cause of action did not accrue until thirty (30) days after his last day of work.

9. Based on its plain language, NRS 608.050 is inapplicable to Mr. Martel. Section 608.050 applies to employees who are discharged or laid off by their employer. See NRS 608.050(1). Mr. Martel resigned from his job.

10. Section 608.040 of the Nevada Revised Statutes does not apply to wages that are not accrued during the final pay period of the employee.

11. No shift jamming, no off-the-clock banking, and no pre-shift meetings occurred during Mr. Martel's final pay period. Mr. Martel's last shift ended on June 13, 2014.

12. Therefore, the two-year statute of limitation applies to Mr. Martel's claims. The Complaint was filed on June 14, 2016.

13. NRS 608.040 does not save Mr. Martel's claims. "[W]hen a statute 'is clear on its face, a court cannot go beyond the statute in determining legislative intent.'" State v. Lucero, 249 P.3d 1226, 1228 (2011) (citing Robert E. v. Justice Court, 99 Nev. 443, 445 (1983)). The Court finds NRS 608.040 is clear on its face that it does not apply to all wages, but rather wages due for the pay period before the employee is discharged or quits. Nothing in the statute indicates the rule applies to previously unpaid wages or exists to create a cause of action for those wages.

14. The two-year statute of limitation applies to: Plaintiffs' First Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; Second Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution; Third Cause of Action for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; and, Fourth Cause of Action for Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608.020-.050.

15. Defendants met their burden and established their statute of limitation defense to Plaintiffs' claims as a matter of law.

16. Summary judgment should be entered on each of Mr. Martel's claims as they are time-barred.

17. After application of the two-year statute of limitation, Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims remain for an eighteen-month period only.

B. CBA VALIDITY AND ABILITY TO PROVIDE OTHERWISE FOR OVERTIME

1. Validity of the CBA

18. The CBA purportedly expired by its own terms on or about May 1, 2011. The CBA has not been extended by signature, however, GSR contends the CBA has been extended by ratification.

19. Unsigned CBAs have been found valid and operative when an employer has continued to treat the CBA as binding and effective and employee could not point to evidence to the contrary. Bloom v. Universal City Studios, 933 F.2d 1013, 1991 WL 80602 at *1 (9th Cir. 1991) (unpublished); See Retail Clerks Int'l Ass'n v. Lion Dry Goods, Inc., 369 U.S. 17, 24 n. 6 (1962) (finding CBA valid even when parties did not negotiate directly and did not consolidate signatures on one document).

20. A union will generally be held defunct if it has ceased to exist as an effective labor organization and is no long fulfilling responsibilities in administering the contract. Hershey Chocolate Corp., 121 NLRB 901, 911, 42 LRRM 1460 (1958); see also Pioneer Inn Associates v. N.L.R.B., 578 F.2d 835, 839-40 (1978) (explaining inactivity, failure to monitor contract provisions, and failure to pursue grievances may indicate a failure to administer the contract).

21. Signatures on collective bargaining agreements are "not a prerequisite to finding an employer bound to that agreement." Line Const. Ben. Fund v. Allied Elec. Contractors, Inc., 591 F.3d 576, 580 (7th Cir. 2010); N.L.R.B. v. Electra-Food Mach. Inc., 621 F.2d 956, 958 (9th Cir. 1980) (holding oral agreements are sufficient to create binding collective bargaining agreements even when written agreement is unsigned); N.L.R.B. v. Haberman Const. Co., 641 F.2d 351, 356 (5th Cir. 1981) (en banc) ("[A] union and employer's adoption of a labor contract is not dependent on the reduction to writing of their intention to be bound").

22. If the union and the employer continue to operate as if the CBA is operative, the CBA is binding. Here, the union and GSR engaged in arbitration and negotiation when mandated by the CBA. GSR continued to negotiate and arbitrate with the union on multiple occasions. For example, Mr. Montrose confirmed he interacts with the Culinary Union Representative Nicolaza De La Puente weekly and he was notified of at least two different grievances in 2015. Motion, Decl. of Larry Montrose, Ex B., Ex. C. The CBA was "ratified by the Union on November 17, 2011, and it was in effect through March 10, 2018, when a subsequent Culinary CBA was ratified." Motion, Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶ 2. An arbitration was held on August 25, 2016, in which the parties introduced the CBA as Joint Exhibit 1. Motion, Decl. of Susan Heaney Hilden, ¶ 2. Following the August 25, 2016, arbitration, the Culinary Union submitted a Post-Hearing Brief dated October 24, 2016 in which the Union states, "Local 226 has been party to three successive collective-bargaining agreements at the hotel casino that is now known as the Grand Sierra Resort." Id. Plaintiffs contend the CBA expired in May of 2011 but provide the Court with no evidence to dispute that the union and the GSR continued to treat the CBA as binding. Undisputed evidence confirms the CBA was valid and operative.

2. The CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime

23. NRS 608.018(1)-(2) governs compensation for overtime and reads:

> 1. An employer shall pay 1 1/2 times an employee's regular wage rate whenever an employee who receives compensation for employment at a rate less than 1 1/2 times the minimum rate set forth in NRS 608.250 works:
> (a) More than 40 hours in any scheduled week of work; or
> (b) More than 8 hours in any workday unless by mutual agreement the employee works a scheduled 10 hours per day for 4 calendar days within any scheduled week of work.
> 2. An employer shall pay 1 1/2 times an employee's regular wage rate whenever an employee who receives compensation for employment at a rate not less than 1 1/2 times the minimum rate set forth in NRS 608.250 works more than 40 hours in any scheduled week of work.

NRS 608.018(1)-(2).

24. Section 608.018(3) of the Nevada Revised Statutes provides, "[t]he provisions of subsections 1 and 2 do not apply to . . . (e) Employees covered by collective bargaining agreements which provide otherwise for overtime . . ." NRS 608.018(3) (emphasis added).

25. The CBA provides:

> The workweek pay period shall be from Friday through Thursday. For the purposes of computing overtime, for an employee scheduled to work five (5) days in one (1) workweek, any hours in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. For an employee scheduled to work four (4) days in one (1) workweek, any hours worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week shall constitute overtime. Overtime shall be effective and paid only after the total number of hours not worked due to early ours is first subtracted from the total number of hours actually worked per shift, per workweek. Overtime shall not be paid under this Section for more than one (1) reason for the same hours worked. Employees absent for personal reasons on one (1) or more of their first five (5) scheduled days of work in their workweek shall work at the Employer's request on a scheduled day off in the same workweek at straight time. If the employer anticipates such scheduling, the Employer provide five (5) days' advance notice.

> This provision will remain in effect for the duration of this Agreement. However, at the expiration of the Agreement, the Employer shall have the right to compute and pay overtime in accordance with the provisions of existing federal and state law, and Union employees shall not have the right to overtime pay above and beyond the applicable federal and state law requirements.

See Motion, Ex. 2A, p. 15.

26. CBAs "provide otherwise" for overtime payments when the CBA "contains a negotiated provision on the same subject but different from the statutory provision." Firestone v. Southern California Gas Co., 219 F.3d 1063, 1067, 164 L.R.R.M. 2897, 2897 (9th Cir. 2000); Jacobs v. Mandalay Corp., 378 F. App'x 685, 687 (9th Cir. 2010) ("[S]ection 608.018 exempts from coverage those employees 'covered by collective bargaining agreements which provide otherwise for overtime.").

27. The instant CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime. The CBA provides otherwise for overtime because there are differences in both the practical effects of the overtime provisions in NRS 608.018 and in the CBA's overtime provisions, as well as the textual provisions. For example, NRS 608.018(1) provides that an employer shall pay 1 1/2 times the employee's regular wage when the employee works more than 40 hours in a week or more than 8 hours in a day. The CBA does not specify what the pay rate shall be. Additionally, the CBA provides for overtime regardless of the employee's wage, while NRS 608.018 only mandates overtime for employees making more than 1 1/2 the minimum wage. NRS 608.018 provides overtime regardless of how many days are worked in a week, while the CBA allows overtime only when employees work five days in one workweek. NRS 608.018 does not limit overtime if an employee misses a scheduled day and works an alternate day, however, the CBA does. Accordingly, the CBA "provides otherwise" for overtime.

28. The CBA "provides otherwise" for Ms. Jackson-Williams' claim for overtime and NRS 608.018 does not provide a legal basis for her claim.

3. Grievance Procedures of the Culinary CBA

29. Section 301 of the Labor Management Relations Act states:

> Suits for violation of contracts between an employer and a labor organization representing employees in an industry affecting commerce ... may be brought in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the parties....

Labor Management Relations Act of 1947 § 301(a), 29 U.S.C. § 185(a) (1982).

30. Employees may pursue claims for unpaid wages through a private cause of action and without enforcing the claim through the Labor Commissioner. Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 133 Nev. 777, 782, 406 P.3d 499, 504 (2017).

31. State law rights and obligations that do not exist independently of private agreements can be waived or altered by agreement as a result and are pre-empted by those agreements. MGM Grand Hotel-Reno, Inc. v. Insley, 102 Nev. 513, 517, 728 P.2d 821, 824 (1986) (citing Allis Chalmers v. Lueck, 471 U.S. 202, 105 S.Ct. 1904 (1985)).

32. Workers do not have to submit to arbitration procedures when redressing grievances because a CBA provides contractual rights, but workers may have an independent statutory right to enforce individual rights. Albertson's, Inc. v. United Food & Commercial Workers Union, ALF-CIO & CLC, 157 F.3d 758, 762 (9th Cir.).

33. Whether Ms. Jackson-Williams must follow the grievance procedures contained in the CBA depends on whether she has an independent statutory right to enforce her claims for wages and overtime outside of the CBA. Ms. Jackson-Williams brought claims for Failure to Pay Wages for All Hours Worked in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016, Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution, Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018, and Failure to Pay All

Wages Due and Owing Upon Termination Pursuant to NRS 608.140 and 608-040-050. The State of Nevada provides independent statutory rights to each of Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims through the Nevada Revised Statutes and the Nevada Constitution. Albertson's Inc. explains, "in filing a lawsuit under [a statute], an employee asserts independent statutory rights . . . The distinctly separate nature of these contractual and statutory rights is not vitiated merely because both were violated as a result of the same factual occurrence." 157 F.3d at 761. Since there are state-law rights at issue, Ms. Jackson-Williams' claims are not preempted, and the claims are not mandated to proceed through the grievance procedure of the CBA.

4. Lack of Standing to Represent Union Employees

34. Section 159(a) of the United States Code states:

> Representatives designated or selected for the purposes of collective bargaining by the majority of the employees in a unit appropriate for such purposes, shall be the exclusive representatives of all the employees in such unit for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment.

29 U.S.C. § 159(a).

35. Baristas, bartenders, and cocktail servers are represented by the Culinary CBA; construction workers are covered by the Operating Engineers CBA; and, technicians are represented by the AFL-CIO Local Union. Plaintiffs, as members of the "shift jamming class" attempt to represent union members from other sub-classes.

36. Employees may bring an action against an employer without exhausting contractual remedies, but the employees must "prove that the union as bargaining agent breached its duty of fair representation in its handling of the employee's grievance." Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171, 186, 87 S.Ct. 903, 914 (1967).

37. When employees sue to vindicate "uniquely personal rights" as opposed to rights reserved to unions like picketing, renegotiating a contract, or protesting relocation, the employees have standing to sue on their own behalf and on behalf of other union members. Lucas v. Bechtel Corp., 633 F.2d 757, 759 (9th Cir. 1980) (citing Hines v. Anchor Motor Freight, Inc., 424 U.S. 554, 562, 96 S.Ct. 1048, 1055 (1976)).

38. In Baker v. IBP, Inc., 357 F.3d 685, 690 (7th Cir. 2004), the Seventh Circuit held that where a "suit is at its core about the adequacy of the wages [the employer] pays," individual employees may not represent union workers in a class action when the union has not breached its duty of fair representation." The court reasoned union workers "have a representative—one that under the NLRA is supposed to be 'exclusive' with respect to wages" and therefore "Plaintiffs' request to proceed on behalf of a class of all workers shows that they seek to usurp the union's role." Id. at 686, 690.

39. Plaintiffs do not assert the Union has breached its duty of fair representation. The CBA is valid and operative. Plaintiffs cannot represent those other union members who are represented by separate unions without asserting those union representatives breached their duty of fair representation.

C. PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY PURSUANT TO NRCP 56.

40. Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 56 provides:

> (d) When Facts Are Unavailable to the Nonmovant. If a nonmovant shows by affidavit or declaration that, for specified reasons, it cannot present facts essential to justify its opposition, the court may:
> (1) defer considering the motion or deny it;
> (2) allow time to obtain affidavits or declarations or to take discovery; or
> (3) issue any other appropriate order.

NRCP 56(d).

41. A party opposing summary judgment pursuant to NRCP 56(d) has the burden of affirmatively demonstrating by a good-faith affidavit (1) the identification of the specific facts that further discovery would reveal; (2) the specific reasons why such evidence is presently unavailable; and (3) how those facts would preclude summary judgment. Family Home & Fin. Ctr., Inc. v. Fed. Home Loan Mortgage Corp., 525 F.3d 822, 827 (9th Cir. 2008); Collins v. Union Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n, 99 Nev. 657, 669-70, 262 P.3d 705, 714 (2011).

42. Plaintiffs request additional discovery to ascertain whether the CBA is valid or not. Plaintiffs have not provided an affidavit, have not articulated the specific reasons why the evidence they need is unavailable to them, and have not stated how those facts would preclude summary judgment.

V. CONCLUSION AND ORDER.

Based on the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law and good cause appearing therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED summary judgment is entered in favor of GSR and against the Plaintiffs.

DATED this 2nd day of November, 2020.
