ORDER DENYING RELIEF

JANE E. M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Bloom
DEPUTY CLERK

On January 10, 2007, this court entered an order affirming the district court's dismissal of appellant's post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.¹ On January 11, 2007, this court received a document labeled, "N.R.A.P. Rule 7.5 'no-dispute.'" Attached to this document is a notice sent to appellant from the district court indicating that a criminal case has been reassigned to a different district court judge — Judge James Bixler. Appellant offers no argument and provides no indication of the purpose of the "no-dispute" document. Moreover, there is no rule of appellate procedure numbered "NRAP 7.5." To the extent that appellant seeks any relief from this court's order of affirmance, this court concludes that no relief is warranted. This matter is closed. The clerk of this court shall neither receive nor file any further proper person documents in this matter.

It is so ORDERED.
