Representation Statement

The court may construe the pleading liberally, Haines v. Kerner 404 U.S. 519-520-21 (1972) to re-review the merits of the writ of Mandamus and compel the J.D.C. to execute the writ and vacate the judgment entered in to a trial by guilty plea agreement that is constitutionally invalid under the contrary to clause and unreasonable application clause, U.S.D. v. Julian 108 S.Ct 1606, Shields v. State 634 P2d 468 by statute N.R.S. 176.156, or an order directing the Nevada Board of Parole to commence proceedings

1 to send application and consider 2 due process to which he may be in 3 titled to preserve his legal rights,
4 the failure of the court not to reach 5 the merits would further prejudice
6 and be a fundamental miscarriage
7 of Justice, see Coleman V. Thompson
8 501 U.S. 722, 118 S.Ct 1489-1503, Id.
9 Schlup V. Delo 513 U.S. 298-327 (1995).
10 demonstrating good cause Mr. Allen
11 is with counsel and has not yet
12 been provided with sentencing 13 transcripts, to advance his 14 claims affectively therefore 15 the factual predicate for the 16 grounds, claims omitted by his 17 appellant counsel, doc. 41274

1 without a copy of the answer
2 reply from the N. A. G. the factual 3 predicate for claims could not have 4 been discovered through exercise
5 of due diligence, Hathway v. State
6 71 P 3d 503. The Jurisdictional defect
7 is with the charging document tran-
8 mitted from, Arvada Colo P. D., 8101,
9 Ralston Rd, 80002 and offense sum-10 opsis, P & P No. 113236, because 11 she was in a treat center Colo
12 Spring 115 N. Parkside dr 80909.
13 ordered by Juvenile courts for 14 anger management at age 15, the 15 N. J. D. C. denied Mr. Banks P. D.'s
16 pre trial motion for an independent 17 psychological evaluation, the asse-

1 ssment would have substantiated
2 ted his claim of innocence, bi. Abbott 3 v. Lundy 138 P.3d 462 (Nev. 2006). The 4 defect in case as admitted by D.A.
5 David Rogers in previous opps.
6 from H/C and P.C.R. with in the plea
7 document that the defect read at trial
8 under extreme duress contained
9 conflicting information 11.R.S. 213-
10 1214, regarding the maximum 11 sentence to be served. The J.D.C.
12 ruled on the plea canves alone 13 to deny relief, his right to with-14 draw for any "fair and just reason"
15 F.R.Crim. Pro., rule 11, this involved 16 an unreasonable application, but 17 unreasonable applied the principle

1 to the facts of the case, can a 2 federal agent advise or repre-
3 sent a defd in a court of law see 4 Von Moltke v. Gillies 68 S.Ct. 316-330
5 - 333 (U.S. Mich. 1948) by contrast
6 when a court does not canvas a 7 defd on these issues of law at 8 the time of his plea, the Judge
9 can start and stop recording 10 at his discretion, the prejudice is 11 the prosecutor retains the right to 12 argue at sentencing see Jackson v.
13 Virginia 99 Sct 2781.

14 Facts of the Case

15 The defd was blindsided there
16 was no sentencing date on calendar
17 or was he informed to prepair a

1 defence which violated due process
2 See Farretta v. Calif 422 U.S.86 (1975).
3 sentenced in J.D.C. dept 16 by the 4 honorable John S. Mc. Groarty April 5 1st 2003 (without counsel) the 6 court did not explain or offer
7 the assistance of counsel, see 8 389 U.S. 128 (U.S. Wash. 1967) he was 9 not informed of any enhancement
10 as the conviction rests on hear-
11 say alone no D.N.A. See US v. Trala
12 386 F. 3d 536, Douber v. M.D.P. Inc.
13 113 S.Ct. 2786 a manifest injus-
14 tice alone there's no evidence
15 Citing, Coleman v. Rick 281 F. Supp
16 . 2d 549 the sentence before
17 it was breached see, next page,

1 as: to bar No 76542,
2 Count one, 20 years sentence with a minimum of 5 years until 3 Parole Eligibility begins, C.C. to 4 Count two, you will receive a life sentence with a minimum 5 of 10 years until Parole Eligibility begins.

6 It is now apparent a remand
7 is required because he does 8 not know or understand an un-
9 disclosed silent sentence, see 10 Mayers v. State 781 F.2d 1036, The 11 trial defaulted into a guilty plea 12 due to a conflict of interest as 13 the defd was physically and also 14 verbally assaulted before trial

15 See Frazer v. U.S. 18 F.3d 778

1 (C.A. 9 (Cal.) 1994).

6 mative defence in retaliation

7 for the comments made in

8 Justice Court dept 6, Nancey

10 read (19 amended counts) Mr

11 Allen was without counsel to 12 defd, Case No. 01F06359X, on

13 Aug 10th, 2001, after Mr. Banks

14 did not appear in court he

15 filed a pre-trial motion to

1 withdraw (denied) Mr Allen
2 had filed motion to dismiss 3 trial counsel (denied) with 4 further abuse of discretion
5 the court ordered defd to cop-
6 erate with counsel and prep-7 aire for trial. In retaliation for his 8 "Strickland" claim he did not dis-
9 close Brady", working product,
10 P.S.I. and discovery favorable
11 before trial, plea see U.S.D.J..V.
12 Julian 108 S.Ct 1606 (U.S. Ariz 13 1988). Shields V. State 634 P.2d
14 468 (Nev. 1981) N.R.S. 176.150.
15 The court can not bypass the

1 absence of counsel in a court of 2 law see Townsend v. Burke 68
3 S.Ct 1252 (U.S.Pa. 1948). In judicial 4 D.C. for H/C., for P.C.R. June 17th 08, 5 defd was denied the right of a secu-
6 tion and its functional equivalent
7 to self representation in a court
8 of law, see More v. Calderon 108 F.
9 3d 261 (C.A.9 (Cal.) 1997). The denial
10 of the J.D.C. not to appoint counsel
11 due to the complexity of the case
12 to aid in discovery, investigate,
13 no D.N.A. or assist a pro se
14 litigant to more effective pre-
15 sent his case was and is a

1 denial of due process and 2 equal protection, ~~see~~ Chandler
3 V. Freteq 75 S. Ct 1. (U.S. Tenn. 1994)

4 Trial - Guilty Plea

5 In J.D.C. at trial on Sept 17th, 18th
6 of 2002, P.D. Banks and Immermar
7 had left the court room, the plea
8 was explained to the defd by a 9 officer appointed to file m defence
10 key witness, ~~see~~ Big Pond 692
11 P. 2d 1288, the only advice by 12 Mr. Banks is I hope you know 13 what you are doing Sir. The 14 defd received the bareqin of 15 a "life time"

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

4-2-09
8:30 AM

15 COMES NOW Petitioner, appellant, in pro se, and moves 16 this Court for an order appointing him counsel in and for the instant petition 17 for writ of habeas corpus (post-conviction).

18 This motion is made and based upon NRS 12.015; NRS 34.750; all papers, 19 pleadings and documents on file herein; and the points and authorities below.

20 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

21 Petitioner is unable to afford counsel. See Application to Proceed In 22 Forma Pauperis on file herein.

23 The substantive issues and procedural requirements in this case are 24 difficult and Petitioner is unable to comprehend them or otherwise formulate 25 or develop any additional claims in support of his petition.

26 Petitioner, by reason of his incarceration, cannot investigate, take 27 depositions or otherwise proceed with discovery herein.

MAR 13 4
CLERK OF THE COURT

1 Petitioner's sentence structure is life-with.

2 There X are ___ are not additional facts attached hereto on separate 3 page(s) to be incorporated herein.

4 Counsel could not only assist Petitioner with a much better presentation
5 of his issues before this Court, but counsel would likewise make much easier 6 this Court's task of discerning the issues and adjudicating them as upon a 7 competent counsel's ability to present same to the Court.

8 Discretion is given this Court to appoint counsel to Petitioner under 9 NRS 34.750 if it determines first that Petitioner is indigent, and second, that 10 any of the following factors are met: (1) the issues are difficult; (2) the 11 Petitioner is unable to comprehend the proceedings; or (3) counsel is necessary 12 to conduct discovery. Id., §§ (1)(a) - (1)(c). The severity of Petitioner's 13 sentence is also to be considered. Id., § (1).

14 Although not binding on this Court, the Ninth Circuit has held that 15 counsel should be appointed in habeas corpus proceedings when the interests of 16 justice so require, Chaney v. Lewis, 801 F.2d 1191, 1196 (9th Cir.), cert.
17 denied, 481 U.S. 1023 (1987), which increases as the complexities of the case 18 and the penalties for the offense increase, id. Ultimately, attorneys should 19 be appointed for indigent petitioners who can "not adequately present their own 20 cases." Jeffers v. Lewis, 68 F.3d 295, 297-98 (9th Cir. 1995). See also 21 Hawkins v. Bennett, 423 F.2d 948 (8th Cir. 1970)(counsel must be appointed 22 where petitioner is a person of such limited education as to be incapable of 23 presenting his claims fairly).

24 Although Petitioner need meet but one (1) criteria of NRS 34.750 in order 25 to merit appointment of counsel, he has met all three (3) criteria therein. He 26 furthermore has satisfied the Ninth Circuit's interest of justice test in that 27 the sliding scale tips heavily in favor of appointing him counsel. Indeed, 28 Petitioner's sentence, coupled with the other factors set forth above,

1 demonstrate that counsel's appointment would satisfy not only justice, but 2 fundamental fairness, as well.

3 CONCLUSION

4 For the reasons set forth above, this Court should appoint counsel to 5 represent Petitioner in and for all further proceedings in this post-conviction 6 habeas corpus action.

7 Dated this 9th day of Feb, 2009.

During Voir Dire side bar discussion. Court thanked and excused the prospective jury panel for the evening.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS: Discussion regarding side bar discussion. Mr. Hendricks DA advised the State thanked and excused prospective juror number seven, then there was side bar discussion regarding Defendant's objection to excusing the only African American on the panel. The clerk then asked the Judge if prospective juror number 7 is excused in front of him and where the Judge orders him to remain on the panel. Now the prospective juror thinks the State did not want him as a juror and therefore the State will not get a fair judgment from this juror. Mr. Immerman stated if this prospective juror was excused and left, he could have been brought back. Secondly the State does not articulate the Batchin case correctly. The State has been asking any race neutral questions. The reason this prospective juror was excused by the State is because he is the only minority we have on this jury. Mr. Hendricks stated prospective juror is not the only minority if you include the Hispanics on the panel. COURT ORDERED, there is no pattern in the Courts mind and no charge to the Batchin case therefore DENIED.

	003447 Immerman, Stephen M.	Y
	005863 Banks, Jeffrey M.	Y

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS: Mr. Immerman advised Defense understands Courts ruling yesterday regarding the Batchin ruling. As to the appeal in this case, Defense would like to put a comma on the ruling. There was not a requirement to prove a systematic discrimination by the Defense and the Court denied that request. Batchin statute cited by Mr. Immerman. The State has not offered any racial ratio. Mr. Hendricks DA advised the State will not get a fair trial now after yesterday. This individual (prospective juror #7) is not married and obviously not educated and that is why the State kicked him off the panel. Also he was confused as to the question by both counsel. Mr. Immerman misstated the statute of minorities. The Defense has created a pattern of excluding white males however the State has not raised that issued. Mr. Banks stated as to Defense excluding white males, the point is the defendant is a minority and the State steals the only person in the panel who is the same race and our client is the member of that protective class. Mr. Immerman advised the State has brought this up three times they will not get a fair trial, however this black gentleman (prospective juror #7) was going to leave until I went to the bench and tried to convince the Court. COURT ORDERED, it finds the State was positive and racially neutral therefore prospective juror #7 will be excused from jury duty.

Clerk read the information to the jury and stated the defendant's plea thereto. Testimony and exhibits presented. (See worksheets.) OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS. Arguments as to State's objection to defendant's cross examination. Mr. Immerman stated the best evidence is the video tape. Mr. Hendricks stated this is not an official transcript, and the State has not had the benefit to look at defendant's transcript that they refered to on cross examination. Mr. Hendricks requested sanctions and thinks this transcript is not proper and taints the jurors. Mr. Immerman stated the police department taped a video conversation between detective Stephen, counselor Fly and the victim. The video tape was given to the defense by the State where it was sent to Bonanza Court Reporting. Defense has proof from the court reporter that the transcript was taken from the video and was signed, attested to and notarized. State and Court's inquiry if defense provided a copy of the transcript to the State. Mr. Immerman stated this is prosecutions evidence. Because the State did not get this tape typed is not defendant's burden. Mr. Hendricks stated the transcript would be reciprocal discovery. Mr. Immerman stated it is a work product. Court noted it does not see the transcript as work product. Mr. Immerman stated the term of reciprocal discovery where both parties have the evidence and one party in this case typed the tape and now prosecution is saying defense is unethical. According to the transcript this child told the detective that the victim was raped by her mothers friends and the defense can show the State and the jurors where it is on the tape. Mr. Hendricks advised the State was not going to play the tape because it showed prior bad acts. Objections by Mr. Immerman. Ms. Weckerly DA advised the State does not know if the transcript matches the tape, we do not have a copy of the transcript and the State is entitled to a copy of the transcript and now we will have to match it to the tape which could take three hours. Mr. Immerman stated he would provide counsel with a copy of the transcript to review however the defense would request the State billed for half the transcript, $250.00. COURT ORDERED, that is a post trial issue. FURTHER ORDERED, counsel will terminate any questions based upon that line and based upon the transcript. Ms. Weckerly advised the she does not want to put on a witness until she has looks at the transcript. Mr. Immerman stated he would provide a copy of the transcript to correlate with the tape. Ms. Weckerly requested a copy of the transcript and the State would be ready to proceed tomorrow. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Immerman to surrender the transcript to the bailiff to make copies for counsel.

Jennifer Lott, Court Clerk present at 2:40 P.M. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY: Counsel met with Court IN CHAMBERS to discuss transcript provided by Bonanza Reporting regarding a portion of transcript read into the record. Court indicated doctor's videotape deposition will be taken this afternoon at 4:30 p.m. JURY PRESENT: Court READ ADMONISHMENT to the jury to DISREGARD alleged statements made by Janna Taylor thus far. Juror #12 has a problem with late nights, however, she will look into it for next week. Court ADMONISHED the jury and ORDERED evening recess.

Court noted this is the 12th Writ this deft has filed in Proper Person. Deft has appealed almost every one of them. The last time he was chastised by the Supreme Court for the repeated writs, and the Supreme Court suggested the next time deft files a Writ he should be sanctioned by taking away earned credit. COURT ORDERED, motion to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED; the Court will set this matter down for evidentiary hearing, State prepare Order to Transport, and the Court will explain to deft what will happen to him. The Court will allow the deft an opportunity to withdraw the Writ and suffer no consequences. Deft has not stated any new grounds for a hearing in the last ten of his petitions.

Deft. present. Court advised this needed to be CONTINUED for deft. to be present as it reviewed the application and finds this is Deft's 9th petition. Further, Supreme Court that issued an order stating if deft. files anymore frivolous motions he would be sanctioned, and noted the only sanction can impose on deft. is to take away half of his credit for time served. LATER: Deft. present. Statement by deft. Court inquired if there are any new issues, not covered in any of the other nine petitions deft. has filed. Mr. Moreo stated at the last court appearance, the Court took away good time for deft filing yet another petition for writ of habeas corpus. Pursuant to Statute, the Court does not have the authority to do that, only the Director of the Department of Corrections. State will prepare an Amended Judgment of Conviction correcting the order. Court stated the last Remittitur from the Supreme Court directed the Court to do just that. However, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, the previous order is VACATED, credit time served taken away is reinstated. State to prepare an amended order.

DEFT'S PRO PER MOTION FOR REMAND...DEFT'S PRO PER MOTION FOR PSI AND PSR

Deft not present. Court stated, the deft repeatedly files appeals and writs. The Deft's current motion is in terms of a remand. There was a remand from the Supreme Court in January, 2008, but deft's motion to remand is not a viable motion. If deft wants to file another Writ, he has to file a Writ, not a motion for remand, therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, Deft's Motion for Remand and his motion for PSI and PSR are both DENIED.

Deft neither present nor represented. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. The Court has already ruled on Deft's motion to remand and informed Deft there is no such motion that exists. Deft has to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Court directed Mr. Carroll to research the law and find out if there is a sanction that can be imposed on a Deft when he repeatedly files frivolous writs with no new grounds. The sanction may possibly be for the prison to withhold good time credits.

Deft not present, incarcerated in NDC. Court inquired of Mr. Moreo if this is a new motion or an old motion resurfaced. Mr. Moreo stated this is a new petition. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED to 6/17/08, State prepare an Order to Transport Deft., all motions set for 7/1/08 will be moved up to 6/17/08. The Court may have the Attorney General present on this case on 6/17/08 to advise NDOC to start deducting good time credits from deft. Mr. Moreo stated he thought the Court ordered this done one year ago. Court thought this Court had the authority to take away credits from a deft., but apparently it is a function of the prison.

Deft present in custody, NDC making a special appearance at Court's direction. Court noted, deft has filed approximately 18 Petitions for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Court stated deft has gone through the process, and the first time everything was considered. The next 18 times deft made variations of things which either were considered or cannot be considered. Court informed deft his Writs are extremely untimely, and they fail to contain anything that can provide him with any relief. Statement by deft. Court advised deft all of his motions for appointment of counsel have been denied. Deft stated there is no prison library, and further, he is not trying to frustrate the Court or aggravate the system, but is trying to get into court. Deft stated he never received his sentencing transcript. Court inquired of deft if he read the Supreme Court Order, and read same into the record. Court advised deft if he loses his good time it will double the time he serves in prison. COURT ORDERED, Deft's Petition for Appointment of Counsel, and his Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus are hereby DENIED. Court advised deft he cannot have counsel until he passes the threshold that counsel is warranted. Court will send this to the Nevada Dept of Corrections. The Court will ask the Warden to deduct good time credits. Further argument by deft. FURTHER ORDERED, deft will need to file any further petitions for relief with the Federal Court. Court read the Remittitur from the Supreme Court to Deft denying his 15th Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. The Supreme Court has thoroughly addressed everything deft has requested. Court advised deft he is ORDERED to stop filing petitions. Deft requested an attorney. Court advised deft he does not Deft neither present nor represented, incarcerated NDC. The Court did not receive a response from the State so did not read this in its entirety, but the State needs to at least review the Writ, and ORDERED, State to file a response to the Writ by 4/13/09 and the Court will hear argument on deft's petition on 4/21/09. Court stated for the record, deft has filed at least 14 writs and this Court has heard several of them. The Court went so far as to sanction deft by taking away good time credits for excessive filing of writs, and he has lost one-half of his good time. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED.
