However, the juil prevented Mr. Cano andor Mr. Pike
Is from doing so by saying that they provide defendant with the order items, according to what Mr. Cano disclosed to the defendant. Mr. Malone position is that the se County has not provided him with anything and only have charged him for each item he request(s) Being that the defendant is indigent what money he may trecieve will be extracted from his account depriving him of his personal care items.

THE COURT: All right, 224572. Mr. Pike is here for Mr. Malone. We have Mr. DiGiacomo for the State. This is Defendant's Motion for Paralegal. It says Financial Assistance assuming medical treatment and private investigator. Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: How are you doing, sir?

THE COURT: Just fine. You have anything to add to your motion, sir?

10

THE DEFENDANT: I thought maybe I had stated everything that I had 11 needed [indecipherable].

12

THE COURT: No. I've read it all. I just -- I was just wondering if you had 13 anything to add, anything new?

14

THE DEFENDANT: Nothing changed since the motion. I have nothing to ask except for I have a letter from another private investigator agency; that's about it. sir. Do I need to submit it or not?

15 16

17

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Pike, do you have anything to add on behalf of Mr.

18

Malone?

MR. PIKE: No, Your Honor. We received it and filed -- put a file cover on it because although he's in proper person the Clerk's Office would not accept it.

21

THE COURT: I appreciate that. Mr. DiGiacomo?

22

MR. DIGIACOMO: Judge, the only thing in the entire motion that concerns me particularly is I mean, the jail hasn't been served, so I don't know if the jail has any position on some of the items he's said in there. I don't know what -- what the concern with the legal library is nor do I know what the concern is whether or not he has a medical issue that needs attention or not, but I do think that the Court needs to do some inquiry of Mr. Dillard just based on the Terrell Young case; that was about attorneys not having contact, but in this particular case since he has an appointed investigator at least the Court should have some contact with Mr. Dillard to make sure that Mr. Dillard is doing something or is doing or is not doing something to -- to investigate the case at this point since we're six months from trial, so --

23

24

1 ha 2 to 3 at 4 at 5 to 6 so 7 so 8

THE COURT: Mr. Malone, since you filed your motion --

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: -- have you had any contact with Investigator Dillard?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. I met him one time; that's it and that's all. I had written him by letter 'cause I was getting in contact with him through my wife and he told my wife that he was working on another case, so writing him a letter informing him of the things that had to be done; that's what I had attached to the motion is the second letter that I had written to him because the first letter I didn't get a copy, but the second letter I got a copy and I attached it to the motion, sir.

To that date, I have not gotten a response from that or nothing and I know that some parts of the case is that my discovery was sent to him, other parts or portion that he had if he could be familiar with some of the case. Some of that discovery that I -- as we had first that I can't view up in here because I don't have the opportunity to review it.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, sir, we'll put a status check. Okay. We're going to pass it for Thursday to see if we can have Mr. Dillard here to give a little input to the Court.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. And, sir, you know there's obviously some delay going on because Mr. Dillard at least according to you is not performing certain 2 3 duties. 4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 5 THE COURT: And this is a perfect example of why if you had these two fine attorneys representing you, this matter would have been resolved a long time ago 7 and they have some excellent investigators in their office. 8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I see the problem. THE COURT: Okay. I hope you do 'cause you've -- we've been back to 9 10 Court a couple of times and each of the situation would have been resolved with Mr. 11 Pike and Mr. Cano representing you. 12 THE DEFENDANT: With the -- yes, sir, I agree. 13 THE COURT: Do you still want to represent yourself, sir? 14 THE DEFENDANT: Fortunately, sir, yes, sir. THE COURT: Okay. We'll be back on Thursday to get a hold of Mr. Dillard. 15 16 THE CLERK: July 22nd. 17 MR. PIKE: His defense attorney will also attempt to contact him too. 18 MR. DIGIACOMO: Thank you, Judge. 19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. 20 MR. DIGIACOMO: Thank you, Judge. 21 THE COURT: Thank you. 22 [Proceeding concluded at 8:30 a.m.] 23 24

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING RE: DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR PARALEGAL, FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE, MEDICAL, PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR

APPEARANCES:

For the State:

MARC DIGIACOMO, ESQ., CHRISTOPHER LALLI, ESQ., Deputy District Attorneys

For the Defendant:

RANDALL H. PIKE, ESQ., CHARLES A. CANO, ESQ., Special Public Defenders (Standby Counsel)

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

CLERK OF THE COURT

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, JULY 27, 2010

[Proceeding commenced at 8:41 a.m.]

THE COURT: 224572, Domonic Malone. Mr. Malone's present in custody.

We have Lalli. We have Mr. DiGiacomo. We have Mr. Pike. We have --

MR. LALLI: Mr. Wysocki is here, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LALLI: And I don't know. Perhaps I can quickly bring the Court and the Defendant up to speed on what was happening.

Initially, Mr. Dillard had accepted the appointment for whatever reason. His schedule did not permit him to follow through with that. Mr.

Christensen's office arranged for Mr. Wysocki to work at the Defendant's request in terms of doing investigative work.

When Mr. Wysocki was poised to accept that appointment, he was in a car accident which kind of debilitated him for awhile. He's now of sufficient health to resume working and to my understanding he could start; meet with the Defendant as early as today.

MR. WYSOCKI: That's correct.

MR. LALLI: But to my understanding, Your Honor, no investigative work has been done up to this point.

MR. PIKE: Mr. Dillard did come and gathered the documents and began an initial review. Mr. Wysocki has had the opportunity to review those in preparation for assuming the investigative position. I believe this would be the only death penalty case that he would be taken on at this time, so he'd be able to devote sufficient attention to it.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wysocki, are you able to accept appointment as an investigator in this case?

MR. WYSOCKI: Your Honor -- yes, Your Honor. I am. Just for the record, I was contacted also by Drew Christensen about doing it. Went and got all the paper work and had everything done. I believe Your Honor was out of Court or on vacation, so he said to hold up until he found out authorization from you. He contacted me on the morning of the 30th -- on the morning of the 30th of June and evening of the 30th I was in an accident.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. WYSOCKI: And I'm now just coming back to where I'm able to move.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. Malone, do you want Mr. Wysocki to handle your investigation in this case?

THE DEFENDANT: It don't matter to me, sir. I just wanted to work --

THE COURT: My question was, do you want him to handle this investigation for you?

THE DEFENDANT: If he wants to, yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. I can tell you Mr. Wysocki's handled these types of investigations for probably in excess of twenty years, perhaps longer. And so you need to cooperate with him; do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Now, you also had a motion on. You had a motion for paralegal --

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. Yes, sir.

THE COURT: -- motion for assuming some medical treatment.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, medical treatment, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. What's going on with your medical treatment, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: Well, it's been ongoing for like two years with my dental, the wisdom tooth. Now I got two of them. My gums been bleeding and stuff, right. Not just only where the teeth is, but my gum period. Well, I went down to the dental after doing my year -- yearly here 'cause every year they check you out here. I went down there and he say you never got that taken care of. I said no and I still got two of my gums still bleeding. But he's still unable to do the extraction themselves. If he was able to do it, he would have done it, but he's not -- he's unable to do it.

THE COURT: When is the medical clinic told you as far as why you're not getting that treatment?

THE DEFENDANT: Well because it's impacted, sir. The tooths [sic] are impacted; that's the only thing I know. And he's not able to do the extraction.

THE COURT: Who's not?

THE DEFENDANT: The dentist that's up in the jail.

THE COURT: Are they making arrangement? I don't know if it's a medical or dental necessity. Are they making arrangements for that?

THE DEFENDANT: That I know of, no, sir. I've been taking mouthwash every other month because the mouthwash that they give me to keep the blood out of my mouth, the taste of it, and that's about it, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Pike or -- oh, Mr. Cano is here as well. Either one of you have any information on this issue?

MR. PIKE: Your Honor, we looked towards that and attempted to locate a -- a dental practitioner that was close enough to the jail that there could be all the security issues could be addressed and as we went through that the reports we received did not indicate that it was a dental necessity at the time. If that has changed and if there's documentation concerning that and if you want us to follow through on that, we will do that.

So Mr. Malone has any indication that's a necessity or the dentist that he talked to or met with, then we'll make the determination as to whether or not that's a dental necessity and we'll put it on calendar for an order or if the State doesn't have an objection to it, we'll prepare a proposed stipulation and order regarding transfer and try and set that up with the approval of Clark County Detention Center's attorney as well as the guards for a secured transportation.

Of course, whenever that happens the -- the Defendant can never be aware as to when he's going to be transported or where he's going to be transported. So, as stand-by counsel if you want us to pursue that I'll follow through with that.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, it's not something that we would be willing to stipulate too. I'm not even sure that the Court respectfully has jurisdiction to order the jail to do anything absent some pending case or controversy on the issue, but I mean, the Defendant needs medical treatment, you know, I certainly want him to get it.

THE COURT: Well, the key is -- if it's a dental necessity; and has the Defendant signed any medical release to your office, Mr. Pike or Mr. Cano?

THE DEFENDANT: Once before and that was it.

THE COURT: Pardon?

THE DEFENDANT: Just -- just once when I had wrote the kite and gave them the information that was given to me two years ago, but as of late, no, sir. .

The pain in my mouth I can deal with the pain. I just can't deal with the fact that my gums are constantly bleeding, sir. And they're not bleeding because I'm brushing my teeth. They're bleeding as I --

THE COURT: Well, sir, if you want stand-by counsel to check into this matter, I'm assuming the jail's going to require you to sign a HIPAA release --

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: -- okay. And they should have the form there for you. You can fill -- if you want, you can fill that out in favor the Public Defender -- Special Public Defender's Office and then they can check into this matter for you, okay.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: So I'm not ordering any medical treatment or for him to be transported at this time. If you can just -- Mr. Cano or Mr. Pike, if you can check into this matter.

MR. PIKE: We will, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Anything else, Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. About the reason why I need a paralegal is the only thing we have is the legal library at the jail and the only thing I have to do is get the right [indecipherable].

THE MARSHAL: Hey, guys. Ms. Levi --

THE DEFENDANT: Ms. Ramsey, can you hear me?

THE COURT RECORDER: No, 'cause it was --

THE COURT: Go ahead, sir.

THE COURT RECORDER: -- do it again.

THE DEFENDANT: I talk low, so it's hard for her to type it in.

Okay. On the paralegal issue, reason why I need a paralegal is that the jail prevents me to go into the legal library now because that was taken from us. And when I write kites sometime they tell me to as of the one I have in my hand to please contact your attorney. Well, the person I write my kites too has been unaware that I have been representing myself since the beginning of 'O10, sir, this year. So I've been giving kites here so the information that I need from legal library I don't even to get that sometimes. You know, so I need outside source or somebody that can help me because I'm not able to do it myself. And I --

THE COURT: What you're telling me is because the documents in the jail identify that you have an attorney, they're -- they're limiting your access to the law library?

THE DEFENDANT: None of us in the jail can physically go to the legal library; no more period. None of us. It's just not me. On that fact, they sort of gave us the kite system when you fill out the kite you get the legal information that you requested. However, sometimes when I fill out kites and ask for legal information, I'm not able to get it from the jail or from the legal library and they tell me to refer to my counsel when they don't know what I'm looking for.

So therefore, instead of me being able to go into the library myself to go look for and pick it up myself and get a copy and then therefore prepare a motion I'm not able to do that so therefore when I do find information or try somehow to track it down through other sources I'm still behind and then sometimes my motion if I file it might be late. I don't know how long do I got to file a motions before I set it up with the trial when you no longer accept the motions. So I want to be able to file them first.

I note that [indecipherable] I was hoping that, you know, after the 14th Amendment of course, that I would have fairness to give and represent myself. As you had told me earlier that, you know, self representation it is hard, you know what I'm saying to represent yourself. However, that, sir, I'm not -- I know I'm not asking

1	for you to make it easy. All I'm asking this Court is to make it fair; that's it.
2	THE COURT: Excuse me, Officer; are you aware of any restrictions at the
3	jail?
4	THE DEFENDANT: I have the
5	THE COURT: Hang on. I'm asking the Officer.
6	THE OFFICER: In the North Tower, I don't believe there is a restriction. It's
7	just the South Tower and then disciplinary if they do it by kites, but as far as I know
8	that's where he's where he's housed, don't they have legal library?
9	THE DEFENDANT: Yes. I have the memo that was passed out when they
10	had started that.
11	THE OFFICER: Oh, they just started it?
12	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. They had I had attached it to my motion.
13	MR. LALLI: Your Honor, it almost sounds to me like he's making requests
14	for
15	THE DEFENDANT: They had the May 3, 2010.
16	THE COURT: All right.
17	THE DEFENDANT: That's when I asked for it.
18	MR. LALLI: Sounds like to me like he's making requests for legal materials -
20	THE DEFENDANT: No. No.
21	MR. LALLI: maybe a case name
22	THE COURT: Sir, one at a time.
23	MR. LALLI: or a case citation and perhaps the information he's giving the
24	jail is unintelligible and so they don't know what he wants; that's kind of his problem.
25	The Court warned him at the onset that this was a monumental task to represent himself. He has the right to do it, but you know it takes some understanding, some fundamental understanding of legal research if he wants to get these materials.

THE COURT: Sir, are you giving them an actual case citation?

THE DEFENDANT: Sir --

THE COURT: Listen to my question.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

THE COURT: Are you giving the jail or whoever you're requesting the --

THE DEFENDANT: Legal library.

THE COURT: -- legal materials; are you giving them a case citation?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, on some of my kites. Yes, sir. But the --

THE COURT: But some you are not?

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, 'cause some of them are not case cited like the Petrocelli hearing -- the Petrocelli hearing. It's not a cited case. It's just a Petrocelli hearing. Its information -- I have viewed this information once before in the legal library so when I referred to it on the kite, they told me to refer to my attorneys. Now I have the kite that I filled out. I have the response from the legal law library.

THE COURT: Well, they're not going to look up -- I mean, if you need to go there, you need a copy of the case. I'm assuming that's part of the rules down there, they'll get you copies of the case, but they're not going to do any research for you and that's one of the problems you have by representing yourself. And I still don't understand why you don't want these two fine gentlemen to represent you 'cause they would have these cases for you in about sixty seconds.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, like I said I'm not asking to make it easy.

Only thing I'm asking is to make it fair, sir. I'm not able to do the stuff. I've never came to this Court and asked about this saying that I had a problem anything with representing myself or about cases or anything until this problem had came up.

Now I have been successfully doing this stuff on my own. Right now ---

THE COURT: Well, you really haven't. What I'm going to do is, Mr. Pike or Mr. Cano, if you could be so kind if you could find out in a clear way what exactly going on. How's being limited and if you could get him that.

MR. PIKE: We'll do that. The problem that we run into is that other than the colloquy the Court has had with Mr. Malone, Petrocelli -- a Petrocelli hearing is based upon the case in the name of Petrocelli. So he actually is citing to a case, but he's not giving the cite. He's doesn't even know that it's a case. He's just asking for the hearing, so if -- and that is a hearing generally that the State brings in order to bring in evidence of other bad acts.

THE DEFENDANT: And they got to be clear and convincing.

THE COURT: Well, I understand that, sir.

MR. PIKE: The State — the State hasn't brought a motion to bring in other bad acts. At this point in time it hasn't been litigated prior to the last trial and I don't anticipate that between that trial setting in which we announced ready, they announced ready that they're going to change their tact all of a sudden and bring in a motion of — for a Petrocelli hearing for them to bring in more evidence against the Defendant.

Now, if he's -- if he's trying to say he wants to present evidence then he -- he should look towards those cases, but a Petrocelli hearing is to the benefit of the State, not to the Defendant. It's not something that they have sought to bring.

THE COURT: All right. I obviously understand that. Can counsel --

6	THE COURT: All right. Anything else, sir?
7	THE DEFENDANT: No. That's all that I need, sir. I'd submit it on that.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Defendant Domonic MANDINE (herein after referred to as Malone), by this reference, adopts the statements of facts contained within both the writ and Maximum to Sover heretofore filed with the Court.

Malore notes that on or about June 2006, Detectives Hosaka and Collins went to the residence of Correna Phillips (herein after reffered to as Phillips) to question her about the phone call that they (Detectives) intercepted between Codefendant (Icon McConty) and herself. The Detectives, pursuant to the policy of the Henderson Police Department had prior to interviewing Phillips had already obtained an recording of the 2 way conversation of Phillips & Merarty at the Henderson Jail where with He Carty and Molone was detained at.

Listening to the phone conversation intercepted by Detectives. It becomes clear that Phillips intentions where to come and decine the Court for the benifit of the co-defendant (her friend).

Officers knew as well as the Prosecutors, that prior Las copies of this recording were turned over to defense counsels) of Phillips potential and motivation for lieing under outh. However Prosecutor(s) by gross realigence aided in Phillips duplicity of the Court by allowing her to do so. ## LEGAL ARGUMENT

In the present cose Phillips have offered statements to the state that the state misused throughout this entire cose, a duplicity that has went unchecked for (4) years and (7) mos. now. "PANDERING" being the nexus which binds Malone to these counts as it provides motive for the states theory of Malone involvement in the anumber counts.

Malone position is that the misuse of Phillips technomy deprives him of his Due process 14th admend-right to a fair trial. As the States theory durives from a lie that Ms. Phillips told and admitted to doing so undercath." Any thing you said regarding his pimp or anything like that, its just blatant lies? Yeah (P217)

However in order for such false testimony to warrant the relief here sought. Defendant must show that it was material to the case.

Here Malone relys on the fact that Phillips testimony of the pandering as indicated in the States Return to with of Habeas Corpus and more defined in the States Opposition to descendants leconsideration of with of Habeas Corpus as so."

There was direct evidence of his pandering of Victoria and the facts and

MEDIA RELEASE: Facility Upgrades at C.C.D.C. Cause Temporary Visitation Restrictions

Attachments: PO 133 08-09-10 Facility Upgrades at C.C.D.C. Cause Temporary Visitiation Restrictions.pdf Please see attached release concerning the drilling samples being taken tonight (08/11/10) and the evening of August 18th. The release says social visitation is cancelled from 5:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. both nights, but should state ALL visitation is cancelled, including attorney's and law enforcement for those same times. We need to minimize the number of people in the facility should anything occur needing a partial evacuation of the CCDC.

We expect this to be a non-event. The areas where the drilling is too take place will be enclosed and monitored closely by the vendors, CC Safety personnel, Fire Department, and other entities. If there is a problem, we have a Command Post established and plans in place to evacuate the facility as necessary.

Thanks.

THE COURT: 224572, Dominic Malone. Mr. Malone is present in custody. We have Mr. Cano here, stand-by counsel. We have Mr. Lalli and Mr. DiGiacomo. This is Defendant's pro per motion to suppress statements of Ms. Phillips, Correna Phillips or in the alternative motion in limine to prohibit introduction of statements made by State witness, Phillips, at the time of trial. Did the State file an opposition?

MR. DIGIACOMO: We did, Judge.

10

THE COURT: I did not receive it.

11

MR. DIGIACOMO: May I approach?

12

THE DEFENDANT: I did not receive it either.

13

MR. DIGIACOMO: It was filed -- actually, the day for response -- I think it was filed yesterday; that's the jail and I thought it was sent to your Chambers yesterday.

15

THE COURT: Okay. Did the -- either the Special PD, stand-by or Mr.

17

Malone get a copy of this?

18

THE DEFENDANT: No.

19

MR. DIGIACOMO: Well, it was faxed to the pro per number at the jail. I don't know if they served him yet.

20 21

THE COURT: Okay.

22

THE DEFENDANT: No. I was not served, Your Honor.

23

THE COURT: You have an extra copy in your file this morning?

24

MR. DIGIACOMO: I don't; that's my only copy.

25

THE COURT: Okay. It would be easier to get this to him now. If you can, just fax it to my office. We'll pass this a week or two for argument on the motion.

MR. DIGIACOMO: That's fine.

THE CLERK: August 26th.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Judge, there's one other issue. Mr. Wysocki the investigator for Mr. Malone is here and my understanding is that he wants to put something on the record, so if we may.

MR. WYSOCKI: Yes, Your Honor, since I was appointed on July 27th and we have a very short period trial date, I think it's two weeks -- two months from today, I want to put on the record and ask also ask for clarification of something from the Court.

Number one is I've, since the 27th I've worked on this case richly every single day. I have met with Mr. Malone a number of times and I've established a good working relationship with him. One of the things that's happening such as the response or filing of motions, there's a lot of things that Mr. Malone does not have access to do that are would normally be clerical in nature; filing motions or any pleadings or even preparing subpoenas that he has no ability or it's taking time to get done.

In trying to keep the October 12th date a viable date to get everything done, I'm wanting to know if some of the things that would normally I would not do that the attorney's office do that I can do such as making sure that everybody's here. The idea of the motion that was today the Special PD's Office did not have it. I made a copy of it and informed them yesterday. Otherwise, they wouldn't have known.

MR. CANO: We weren't aware of it until yesterday, Your Honor.

MR. WYSOCKI: In trying to, in an abundance of caution, trying to make sure that this is done right of going above what I normally do as an investigator to make sure it goes.

THE COURT: I appreciate that, Mr. Wysocki, that you're going above and beyond the call of duty.

Mr. Malone, this is -- stand up, sir -- this is the problem that we've talked about every single time we go to Court that things are not being done properly. You have issues with getting other things accomplished and I just want to make sure you still want to represent yourself, sir.

As you can see, you should be able to see for all these times that we've come to Court that you're at an extreme disadvantage and you're looking at the death or potential death penalty in this case; do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: [unresponsive]

THE COURT: I'm going to keep asking every time we come to Court.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I understand that.

THE COURT: Do you still wish to represent yourself?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you understand these problems?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Well, Mr. Wysocki, it's up to you what you want to do; if you want to type up subpoenas for him or if you, you know if he has things that he wants you to file, he wants you to serve; that's between the two of you.

MR. WYSOCKI: I have told him I would do anything I can do to assist to get this done. This is the priority case that I have above everything else that's going on.

I would also having worked in the Federal Public Defender's Office in the Habeas Unit for a number of years, realize that like Mr. Malone's pleadings or motions are all in handwritten, I know how this is a potential death case that maybe sitting around being reviewed by a number of people over a number of years. Since his motions are handwritten, if I can turn around and take them and type them up and then have them sign them exactly as it is, so that they're not -- something that doesn't get lost in the translation five to ten years down the road if in -- if in fact --

THE COURT: Well, that's between the two of you.

MR. WYSOCKI: Okay.

THE COURT: If you want to retype his motions and he'll need to sign them and you can file them and serve them.

MR. DIGIACOMO: With all due respect, Judge, and not that we have a dog in this, but Mr. Wysocki is not going to be typing his motions for free and he's going to be submitting a bill to Mr. Christensen. Just so the Court is aware of that fact before you tell Mr. Wysocki he's authorized to type and be a clerical worker for Mr. Malone.

THE COURT: Well, I would suggest that you contact Mr. Christensen and see if he's going to pay those entries on your bill; that's up to you.

MR. WYSOCKI: I have not -- I don't bill for phone calls. I make a record of it, but I don't bill for phone calls. I don't bill for copying. The copies Mr. Pike and Mr. Cano have provided me -- I've got a box and a half of discovery that I got to go through. I've had good access. I don't bill. I'm not planning on billing for this.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Then it's fine with you.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. DIGIACOMO: I just want to make sure this Court is aware that you weren't putting some sort of legal requirement upon the County to pay for --

THE COURT: No, I was --

MR. DIGIACOMO: -- clerical work.

THE COURT: -- saying if you want to do that.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Okay; that's fine.

THE COURT: That's up to you.

MR. WYSOCKI: That's something that I don't do. I got one other secretary that can do it in a matter of minutes. It's not going to take any time, but in the long run I've had papers that were handwritten ten years before that are in the Court file some place and they tend to get lost, mangled or whatever. I'm trying to — this is a death case. I'm trying to make sure that if record is something that everybody can work with ten years down the road.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. WYSOCKI: The second -- secondly, there's -- I have one other issue.

Oh, I understand that in the mitigation issues, if there is a conviction on the death -the death case the Special Public Defender's Office will be doing the mitigation argument. Is -- if there is not a conviction on the death case, but there's a conviction on something else, will they be doing it or do I need to prepare for a sentencing hearing that Mr. Malone will be arguing?

THE COURT: I think, Mr. Cano, your motion was -- was to assist him in the mitigation hearing if we get that far.

MR. CANO: If we get that far, we will take care of all the mitigation aspects of this case if it gets to a penalty phase, but if he's found guilty of something less than first degree then there won't be a penalty phase.

MR. WYSOCKI: Yeah.

THE COURT: Right. Okay. And do you know -- I want to impose upon you, Mr. Lalli and Mr. DiGiacomo, can you put on the record one more time for Mr. Malone potential -- potential penalties for the charges he has? Do you have the list there in front of you?

MR. DIGIACOMO: Judge, the lists are lengthy. The most the -- the largest charge is obviously is the open murder charge which results in a first degree with use of a deadly weapon. There's actually two counts of that in this particular case. The sentences range from a possibility of death on both charges to a life without the possibility of parole with a consecutive life without the possibility of parole on both charges to life minimum with an equal and consecutive life minimum twenty or twenty to fifty with an equal and consecutive twenty to fifty.

Additionally, he has first degree kidnapping counts that allege substantial bodily harm which may result in a life without the possibility of parole sentence in and of themselves. There's a number of robbery with use of a deadly weapon charges which could have a maximum sentence of twelve to thirty years. There's a number of battery with a deadly with substantial bodily harm which could be as high as fifteen year sentence on him and there's a number of other miscellaneous charges.

His charge is ultimately if he were to be convicted of all of them could be to the point where I mean, substantially never leaves prison.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. Your Honor --

THE COURT: Do you understand that, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: I've been understand that.

- 11
1	THE COURT: I want to ask you, have
2	THE DEFENDANT: I'm not charged with
3	THE COURT: sir, listen.
4	THE MARSHAL: Just listen.
5	THE COURT: I have a question for you.
6	THE DEFENDANT: Okay.
7	THE COURT: I know we already went over this, but have you personally
8	reviewed these charges on your own
9	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
10	THE COURT: to determine what the possible penalties are?
11	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
12	THE COURT: On each and every charge?
13	THE DEFENDANT: [indecipherable]
14	THE COURT: I know we went over that during the Faretta Canvass. I want
15	to make sure that you also personally did that?
16	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I've been did that.
17	THE COURT: You've done it?
18	THE DEFENDANT: Numerous of times.
19	THE COURT: Okay. Great. Yes, sir. You have a question.
20	THE DEFENDANT: What I was going to address to DiGiacomo, I'm not
21	charged with battery with
22	THE COURT: Okay. Address it to me and then
23	THE DEFENDANT: Okay. I'm not charged with battery with substantial
24	bodily harm with a use. I have none of that charge. DiGiacomo just said that when
25	he was giving you all the potential charges I'm facing, that's not one of them.

1	MR. DIGIACOMO: Actually, you know what, he's right. I think maybe
2	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.
3	MR. DIGIACOMO: the battery with deadly with substantial was reduced at
4	- -
5	THE COURT: Okay.
6	MR. DIGIACOMO: the prelim, but
7	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, that was battery with substantial harm.
8	THE COURT: All right. Sir, every time I talk to you I refer to you as sir or
9	Mr. Malone.
10	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
11	THE COURT: If you're addressing one of the attorneys here, you refer to
12	them to Mr. DiGiacomo as a courtesy.
13	THE DEFENDANT: Okay.
14	THE COURT: All right?
15	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
16	THE COURT: All right. Anything else, sir?
17	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. The opposition that the State had just gave
18	you, it's not that big is it? It's just little right?
19	THE COURT: I have not seen it, sir.
20	THE DEFENDANT: Is it in why don't we just go do this today?
21	THE COURT: I need to review the pleadings to make the appropriate
22	decision.
23	THE DEFENDANT: Okay.
24	MR. CANO: Your Honor, my understanding is I think that there's a Court
25	date is already set for the 24 th on another motion Mr. Malone had filed.

1	THE COURT: All right. We can just hear them both.
2	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, on the 24 th .
3	MR. DIGIACOMO: I don't have another motion from Mr. Malone.
4	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, I have a motion for rehearing
5	THE CLERK: It's a motion for paralegal.
6	THE DEFENDANT: for the paralegal, sir.
7	MR. CANO: My suggestion would just be set this hearing date for that date
8	for convenience sake.
9	THE COURT: Have you served the District Attorney's Office?
10	MR. WYSOCKI: Your Honor
11	THE DEFENDANT: I have served the County's Clerk, sir.
12	THE COURT: Well, you need to well, actually, sir, it's up to you to figure
13	out how you serve and who you serve.
14	THE DEFENDANT: Okay.
15	MR. WYSOCKI: Your Honor
16	THE COURT: That's one of the things listen to me.
17	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
18	THE COURT: That is one of the items that when you represent yourself that
19	you need to figure out how to do. I can't be your attorney or assist you; do you
20	understand that?
21	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
22	THE COURT: If things are not calendared properly, they're not going to be
23	heard and then and then you're not not going to be able to argue well I didn't
24	have a motion because the Judge wouldn't hear it.
25	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: I'm not hearing a motion that's not filed properly, it's not served properly.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: That's another reason why you shouldn't represent yourself; you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. May I address the Court?

MR. WYSOCKI: Your Honor, just for clarification; that motion — he gave me the motion the other day. I made copies of it and had it filed. It had not come back yet; that was the reason for asking about making sure that everybody gets it. Same way with the Special Public Defender's Office, so make sure that this doesn't get delayed or cause things that happen like this; that was — that's the main reason for trying to get clarification.

THE COURT: No. I appreciate that, but it's not on calendar --

MR. WYSOCKI: I have the motion. It has not come back yet --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. WYSOCKI: -- from -- out of the Clerk's Office. It has been filed, but they do not have it and I will take it. Once it comes back, I'll take it up to Mr. Lalli and Mr. Cano and also back to Mr. Malone.

MR. CANO: And we'd also request perhaps District Attorney's Office to send us a courtesy copy of any of their oppositions; that way we're like make sure we don't miss that.

THE COURT: I think that's appropriate since you are stand-by counsel. We'll just give you a one or two week continuance.

[Colloquy between the Court and the Clerk]

THE CLERK: Okay. We'll move both motions to the 26th.

1	MR. CANO: The 26 th ?
2	THE CLERK: Uh-huh.
3	MR. CANO: Okay, so the 24 th is vacated? They're both on the 26 th ?
. 4	THE CLERK: Uh-huh.
5	MR. CANO: Okay.
6	THE COURT: Are you available, State?
7	MR. LALLI: Yes.
8	MR. DIGIACOMO: Yes, Judge.
9	THE COURT: All right.
10	MR. LALLI: Thank you.
11	THE COURT: We'll see you then.
12	MR. DIGIACOMO: Thank you.
13	THE DEFENDANT: We're done?
14	THE CLERK: The 26 th at 8:15.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES STATEMENT OF FACTS

The state in-correctly claims that the defendant, Malone, is charged with (3) counts of pandering when in fact he is only charged with (2) counts of pandering.

The State alleges that Correna was corroborated that Rome, Victoria and Christine showed up at their place in at the sportsman on Tuesday night. (PH, vol. 2, pp. 7-8) While there, Rome or D-Roc sent Victoria upstairs to "give a blow job to somebody for a rock." (PH, vol. 2,12). Also, D-Roc was on the phone talking about taking the girls out to the desert for "PT time" (PH, vol. 2, 14).

The State provided a live witness, Ms, Estores, who testified that she and Malone remained in the car, while Rome, Victoria and Christine went into the complex (PH, vol., pg 97). The only corroboration is that McCarthy, Victoria, & Christine enter Phillip's apartment however the conflicting element is the addition of Malone which therefore Phillips is not corroborated as indicated in the State's opposition.

The State would like to mislead this court to believe that on cross examination that what Ms. Phillips testified to the untruthfulness of her May 30th statements to the police, was not related to her testimony before the Court at the Preliminary Hearing.

In the States attempt to once again pull one over on the Court fail(s) to state that Ms.

Phillips 30th statement she admitted to being untruthful "Contain there in that Mr. Malone was prostituting Victoria and I believe was trying to help her by taking her (Victoria) form Him (Malone) – which was consistent with her testimony that she had given previously.

So when asked "then your knowledge about Mr. Malone's activities regarding prostituting women really doesn't exist? And answered correct. Was not only about Ms. Phillips May 30th statement to police but also was a clear challenge to the testimony she had given previously.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

The states asserts that Ms. Phillips did not make a false statement during the preliminary and that the state did not knowingly relied upon such a false statement and is supported in the record.

Suppression of evidence occurs where "evidence" is gathered in violation of a defendant's constitutional rights.

The states position is that absent on illegal government action in collection or gathering of the evidence, a suppression cannot occur. And that The testimony of a live witness due to an assertion of perjury has never been held to be subject to the prophylactic rule of exclusion, as it cannot deter government misconduct.

The State seems to believe that they are not to be held accountable for the evidence which Prosecutors present under the color of law to the Court(s) contrary to the state(s) belief No Attorney rather they be Defense Counsel or Prosecutor may not submit evidence which would put the integrity of the Court in jeopardy. In the state of Nevada as well in the United State of America.

Also the states claim that the defendant has no grounds upon which to exclude the evidence. Malone states that all he have to prove is that the evidence was false and the state knew of its falsity prior to the introduction; and or; use of.

- 1. Detectives in this instant case intercepted a (3) –way phone call from the remaining co-defendant and Ms. Phillips, there Ms. Phillips with co-defendant were discussing on how she was going to lie for the co-defendant.
- 2. Prior to the preliminary hearing copies were turned over to the District Attorney office who then turned copies of the recording(s) over to the defense counsel(s).

The State knew prior to the examining of the Ms. Phillips that not only that she was going

To lie but for whom she was going to lie for. However the State allowed Ms. Phillips to do so in hopes of obtaining an illegal conviction. Was clearly an direct violation of Malone(s) constitutional right(s). Addressing Napue v. Illinois; the prosecutor is intentionally neglecting the core issue in Napue which is "the GOVERNMENT INTENTIONALLY USED FALSE TESTIMONY" Which is the core argument in Malone's Motion to Suppress that the Prosecutor(s) intentionally used evidence that they (Prosecutor(s)) known to be false.

STANDING

In this stand case prosecutor had reason to believe or in fact knew that each item of evidence discussed above was untrue. Due process of law does not tolerate a prosecutor's selective inattention to such significant facts. It requires that he exercise good faith in prosecuting that case. Such good faith is not fulfilled where the prosecutor allows his witness to give false testimony of which he has advance knowledge and the accuracy of which he has reason to suspect. The duty of good faith is not merely a negative one, to omit from one's case outright lies. It imposes as well an affirmative duty to + 809 avoid even unintentional deception and misrepresentation, and in fulfilling that duty the prosecutor must undertake careful study of his case and exercise diligence in its preparation, particularly where he is confronted with facts tending to cast doubt upon his witness' testimony. The prosecutor's objective is justice; his role is not that of a mere advocate. The goal of justice is hardly satisfied by less. Citing IMBLER V. CRAVEN (298 F. Supp. 795) CIV. No. 68-1543-F April 23, 1969.

CONCLUSION

The Prosecutor(s) has duped the Court(s) long enough. I have been deprived of freedom without just cause for over (4) years now. The State have file numerous of OPPOSITION(S) knowingly that contained false evidence. Credibility of a witnesses is not only for the jury to decide, as this would mean the law that govern(s) the knowingly use of false and or perjured evidence would voided. Thus leaving the door open for any ole behavior. I the defendant in this case was told that I would be held to the exact standards as a licensed attorney would be. Then it is my duty to uphold the integrity of the Court.

Perjury and offering a false instrument for filing or Record is a felony. While he Prosecutor(s) in this case has duped our Honorable Court(s) for far too long its time to bring the prosecution(s) misrepresentation of facts; mischaracteration of facts; and the knowingly use of false evidence and perjured testimony to an end in the instant case. The prosecutor should not be held to any lower standard than the defendant should be and should be held just as accountable for any documents filed within this court that he (Prosecutor) knew prior to filing were false in content.

Based on the foregoing, Defendant Malone prays that this Honorable Court grants his Motion to Suppress Statements of Correna Phillips or In the Alternative Motion In Limine To Prohibit Introduction of Statements Made by State witness Phillips at the time of Trial.

Furthermore, Defendant prays that this honorable Court hold true to its word in protecting the rights of the accused.

Respectfully Submitted,

For the Defendant:

CHARLES A. CANO, ESQ., Special Public Defender (Standby Counsel)

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, AUGUST 31, 2010

[Proceeding commenced at 8:39 a.m.]

THE COURT: All right, Malone matter, 22 -- 224572, Domonic Malone. Mr. Malone's present. Stand-by counsel, Mr. Cano is here. Mr. DiGiacomo for the State. Is this your motion to suppress statements of Correna Phillips or in the alternative motion in limine to prohibit the introduction of her statements at the time of trial? Go ahead, Mr. Malone. Do you have anything to add?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. Can I have a moment? Okay, the Prosecutor in this case saying that I'm making an assertion of perjury of Correna Phillips. I'm certain -- I'm asserting that this was exactly what Correna Phillips did. I understand was perjury. I'm saying that the Prosecutor in this case knew prior before she even testified that she had a reputation to lie because the Henderson Police Department intercepted a telephone call of her talking to the Co-defendant how she was going to come to Court to lie for him.

However, she did not state exactly what exactly that it was she was going to lie about to the Court. It was just made known that she was coming to Court for that specific purpose. Henderson Detectives went to go interview her after intercepting that phone call and then the telephone call was turned over to the Prosecutor in this case which is Mr. DiGiacomo and then my stand-by counsel which is Mr. Cano.

We had a preliminary hearing that lasted for seven days. I believe seven days. I went there to Henderson a lot of times. In that, you know, Ms. Phillips, you know, specifically said about the pandering charges that she was lying only for the Co-defendant because originally I was the only one charged with the pandering. The Co-defendant was not charged with the pandering until after that testimony when she said in fact, that she was lying for him on me, but instead of the Burr -- Judge Burr who is the definitely [indecipherable] a little bit did not correctly catch all of that.

However, he was provided with the record of the transcripts to show that this is exactly what had happened, so the Prosecutor I'm thinking would practice good faith at the time and correct that mistake. However, they did not. You know, they presented the document in the Habeas Corpus up in Jackie Glass courtroom, District 5 --

THE MARSHAL: Judge Glass.

THE DEFENDANT: -- Judge Glass in District 5 of December 12, 2006. In that, you know, they had ample time to correct that mistake before even filing of that document. However, they did not done so. In the Habeas Corpus that was -- that was presented at that time did not provide -- include that information which I'm addressing this courtroom today.

I did mention that during 2006 beforehand that this is what had happened due to miscommunication or just different views between me and the counsel, my counsel, State appointed counsel, Mr. Cano; we had a difference. You know, it's not that -- it's just something that just slipped through the cracks. However, I addressed the Court to get that addressed the issue that Mr. DiGiacomo had made the mistake about doing it -- by allowing Correna Phillips to testify in the first place.

Now, to my understanding of my position as representing myself and the direction that you had told me that you holding me to the same standards as them, the counsels. So my understanding was that I cannot put nobody on the stand to lie for me in my benefit because then I would be making a mockery of the Court. You know, that's not what this Court system is for.

Now, I'm not saying that Mr. DiGiacomo made a mockery out this Court. I'm saying that he made a mistake by allowing Correna Phillips to testify and saying that what she testified too is the truth. When, in fact, that in the record it points out that no she was exactly lying and she admitted to lying. You know, so my understanding that this cannot go any forward with her as being a witness in this case because then he will be -- Mr. DiGiacomo, but they be putting on somebody -- Ms. Phillips don't understand that he know now to be lying. You know, these telephone calls was before the testimony even took place.

Now, you know, the Prosecutor have a wide discretion, but I never knew the discretion be as wide enough that you put anybody on the stand that you want too just to attain what you were trying to elicit from the Court to attain which I don't understand is a legal conviction. However, I'm not convicted yet, so this mistake can be corrected and that's what I'm asking this Court to do is correct the mistake.

You know, I'm asking the Prosecutor in this case to practice some good faith and refrain from the bad faith act. At least show cause that a person which is more educated as Mr. DiGiacomo and as talented as he is would have caught the mistake. I know there's a lot of cases that come before the courtrooms that is a lot of stuff that weren't -- he's only one man that he could have missed it, so I'm pointing it out that this is exactly what had happened.

So, that's it. You know, I'm just asking for the same -- to my understanding the same position that he had put me in, I would want you to hold Mr. DiGiacomo to the same standard; that if I can't do it, he shouldn't be allowed to do it as well.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir. Mr. DiGiacomo?

MR. DIGIACOMO: Judge, very briefly. Judge, while I appreciate Mr. Malone's argument to the Court, two things. One, he has no legal basis to exclude the testimony of a witness. Two, obviously Mr. Malone and I have a different take on the factual allegations in his motion and in our opposition, but that's why we have twelve people in our community that'll make a decision.

If Ms. Correna gets called to the stand and she testifies, Mr. Malone has all of her prior statements including the phone call where she makes the statement that he is alleging as well as the prior statements which they had at the preliminary hearing before she testified. And he will be able to cross-examine her and the jury can decide exactly what her credibility is; that's what they're entitled to do and unfortunately for Mr. Malone, she doesn't say that she has no evidence that he was pandering and there's a lot of other evidence.

To the extent that he's trying to attack the pandering charge that was a subject of the Writ and there were certainly more witnesses than Ms. Phillips that testified to that charge and I'll submit it to the Court.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Malone, you're asking the Court to suppress someone's testimony because you believe that she is lying; and that's something that you should — that you will be allowed to bring out at trial through cross-examination and any documents or other evidence you can confront her with. So this issue is proper before the trier factors which would be the jury, so for those reasons I'm going to deny your motion.

Mr. DiGiacomo, if you could please prepare the Order.

MR. DIGIACOMO: I will, Judge. Thank you.

1	THE COURT: Mr. Malone, any are you preparing for trial?
2	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I have been preparing
3	THE COURT: Okay.
4	THE DEFENDANT: for trial.
5	THE COURT: All right. Good.
6	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, I am.
7	THE COURT: All right.
8	THE DEFENDANT: May I speak?
9	MR. CANO: Your Honor, I think there was another motion
10	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.
11	THE COURT: All right.
12	MR. CANO: for the paralegal.
13	THE DEFENDANT: For the paralegal.
14	THE COURT: Okay.
15	THE DEFENDANT: The reason this is the reason why I need a paralegal
16	because I did not cite the case law 'cause at the time the legal library could not
17	provide me with the information which I was looking for when I had addressed the
18	fact that you cannot put nobody on the stand that wish the Prosecutor knew
19	beforehand a lie.
20	Your Honor, before I became representing myself in this case, that if
21	was to tell my counsel that I'm a lie
22	THE COURT: Sir, you're getting into a different issue.
23	THE DEFENDANT: No. No.
24	THE COURT: The issue

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: -- no, you listen to me. The issue is a motion for paralegal.

THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh.

THE COURT: Paralegal is someone that assists you. Somebody that does research for you. Someone that might prepare briefs for you. When you represent yourself, you've put yourself in that position. Now, is there -- before we had an issue of you getting copies or --

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: -- okay. Is that what you're asking for?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Or do you actually want someone to assist you in your defense?

THE DEFENDANT: I need somebody to assist me in researching, Your Honor, for I can be able to prepare an Order because after today that I was prepared to go to the Supreme Court on the Writ of Mandamus, so I need help with that, Your Honor. I can -- the legal library does not provide me with adequate stuff because I have to write it on a kite and if I do not know specifically the name of it, then they're unable to properly assist me, Your Honor.

MR. CANO: I think the breakdown, Your Honor, is that at the legal library he's not allowed to go to research himself. He has to make requests through --

THE DEFENDANT: The kite system.

MR. CANO: -- the kite system at the jail. Therefore, he can't go look up an issue to see if there's any case law to support whatever is his proposition is and that's the problem he's running into in doing some of his research.

THE COURT: Is there any reason why Mr. Malone; and, Mr. Cano, I appreciate you and I'm not sure if it's Mr. Schieck or Mr. Pike or I can't remember which ones the stand-by on this. And I know --

MR. CANO: Both myself and Mr. Pike.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: And Mr. Pike.

THE COURT: I know the two of you have been going above and beyond the call of duty as stand-by counsel here. Is there any reason Mr. Malone, and I know there's that fine line of your attorney of record or your stand-by, is there any reason Mr. Malone, that if you have any issue of let's say illegal search of a vehicle, I have no idea if that's an issue in this case --

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

THE COURT: -- that you can't ask Mr. Cano for him to pull or tell you the leading case on that particular issue and then you can ask the library in the jail to give you a copy of that particular case.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. Your Honor --

MR. CANO: Well, Your Honor, our office position is that if we're going to start taking that roll, you know, we are going to be counsel of record, so I mean our office position would be that we would not --

THE COURT: Right.

MR. CANO: -- prefer to do that.

THE COURT: No. I understand and appreciate that.

Sir, and this is -- every time you come in here, you're asking for things that you can't get for various reasons because of your situation and because of you representing yourself. And every time we come here, I tell you, you know, your decision is -- is not in your best interest.

Mr. Cano and Mr. Pike are very seasoned attorneys. They're very aggressive attorneys and I still don't understand why you wish to represent yourself.

I don't know if you're playing a game or at the last minute at Calendar Call you're going to say well, I want, you know, I want real attorneys.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Is that your -- is that your intent here?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. As I told you, this courtroom is not a game, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right.

THE DEFENDANT: This is serious. This is my life here. I'm asking for the paralegal because I'm trying to defend my life.

THE COURT: Well, sir, I'm not going to appoint someone to do research for you; that's the -- that's the problem when you represent yourself.

THE DEFENDANT: Point taken.

THE COURT: If you don't know the proper procedures or proper case law, it's unfortunate, but you put yourself in that position. I don't know why you don't want two seasoned attorneys to represent you, but that's your decision, sir, so I'm not going to appoint a paralegal to do research for you.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right.

THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

MR. CANO: Judge, in the alternative, I don't know if the Court might take under suggestion some kind of an Order to jail to allow him more research or access to the law library at least other than the kite system.

THE COURT: Officer, how does that work if someone requests?

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: They write, you know, the kite to the legal library system. It gets them through. They usually have like you said the cite specifics of why they need it, how it relates to the case and case law that they need and then they get photocopies of everything they ask for [indecipherable].

THE COURT: Are they able to go to -- I mean, is there an actual library in the jail?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: There is an actual library. I haven't been down next door for a little while in the North Tower. They used do it differently. It sounds like now North Tower --

THE DEFENDANT: There is.

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: -- you have to write kites where they used to go.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, we used to go --

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: But they stopped that --

THE DEFENDANT: -- due to --

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: -- because they were having --

THE COURT: Sir, hang on.

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: -- we've been -- there were too many problems with inmates being too loud not conducting themselves in a correct quorum in a library setting, so they've been gone to the kite system which how we've been doing since it's open.

THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. To get down to the legal library they got to use a transport officer, right. Due to, I don't know shortness of staff or anything how they doing it now, visits have changed up as well because the transport officers to cut back on money or something like that, so therefore to pull the officer out the unit just for me to go to legal library that would be taking a transport officer from a post that he's already assigned to for the day to do that, so that's why they don't do that.

They just do the kite system, sir.

THE COURT: What I'm going to do is I'm going continue this matter for two weeks. We're going to get a hold of the attorney for the jail to see, so I can get a better understanding of the -- of the system there. All right, so we'll continue this to two weeks and my office will contact or my law clerk will contact the jail attorney.

THE CLERK: September 14th, 8:15.

MR. CANO: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

[Proceeding concluded at 8:52 a.m.]

24 25 THE COURT: All right, 224572, Domonic Malone. Mr. Malone is present in custody with Mr. Cano. We have Mr. Lalli for the State. This is a status check on Court wanted to get some more information on the use of the library at the jail; is that correct, Mr. Cano --

MR. CANO: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- Mr. Malone?

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, it's also on I believe for his motion to suppress.

THE DEFENDANT: That was already denied.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. LALLI: Was that denied at the last Court date?

THE COURT: Right.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, it was. [indecipherable]

THE COURT: That's what he said. I believe Mr. Malone said that she was lying and therefore --

MR. LALLI: Right.

THE COURT: -- her statement should be suppressed.

MR. LALLI: Okay.

THE COURT: And the Court had found that that was an issue before the

Any information on the library situation?

MR. CANO: The Court was going to take it upon itself to inquire, Your Honor; that's what you said at the last Court hearing. You were going to have your well.

law clerk call the jail and find out what the status was and then you were going to let us know today.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, there was a miscommunication. We'll have that taken care of in a week or so, so we'll put it on next week.

MR. CANO: Judge, another matter I think Mr. Malone wanted to bring up as

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

THE DEFENDANT: My trial is coming up. However, I know the problem might be a little behind, but I need to hire an expert. First, can I file my motion in open Court to at least let the Court notice that that's what I'm trying to do at the present time before I run out of time?

THE COURT: Well, probably now is you probably have run out of time. I mean. I'll entertain the motion -

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

THE COURT: -- but you should have filed this a long time ago because now if I do grant the motion and I don't know what the expert is going to do. More than likely the expert won't have an opportunity to do whatever investigation he or she wants to do before October 11.

MR. CANO: I can clarify, Your Honor. I think what he needs an expert in is in like the area of forensic science as well as like crime scene, DNA, things like that. We have one on board that I anticipate Mr. Malone is probably going to, you know, try to hire on, you know, to consult with and to -- that we've already noticed. His name is George Schiro, so I'm sure Mr. Malone's trying to like get in contact with him, but considering that we're not -- you know, stand-by counsel obviously he needs to go through the Court to get expert witness fees that way he can, you know, notice this witness in a proper manner 'cause the expert witness is coming up due this week I believe.

THE DEFENDANT: I have my motion, but I -- may I submit this through my

THE DEFENDANT: I have my motion, but I -- may I submit this through my private investigator for it can be typed so it won't get lost in the system or whatnot if that's okay with you?

THE COURT: Well, Mr. Cano's willing to get it to your private --

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir, to typed [indecipherable].

THE COURT: Well that's fine. I mean, you can give it to Mr. Cano if he's willing to do that for you, then --

MR. CANO: Yeah, I mean, Mr. Wysocki's present here.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: He's present.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, just for everyone's edification, we certainly don't oppose Mr. Schiro coming into this case and testifying the court appointing him if that's what the Defendant wants. I'm sure the Court's familiar with Mr. Schiro.

THE COURT: All right. Well, then I'll accept it as an oral motion. Mr. Malone, I'm going to grant your motion for appointment of expert, Mr. Schiro.

MR. LALLI: I'm not sure that the Defendant is -- has actually said that --

THE COURT: You want him, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: Sir, I haven't been able to talk to Mr. Schiro at this point in time, but I have plans on hiring somebody. Mr. Schiro with his references that he has dealing with this case to my understanding prior to me representing myself, so you'd be the first person I have to talk to first to see about showing stuff. If I had known that he's going to be available and be ready to do that for me, sir, but he's most likely would be the type of candidate for [indecipherable]

THE COURT: Well, sir, your deadline for -- for noticing an expert is fast approaching; do you understanding that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I believe just -- just this week, sir.

THE COURT: I'm sorry.

THE DEFENDANT: I believe it's this week.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, it's not for me to tell you 'cause there's no pending motion --

THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

THE COURT: -- at this point, but this is another reason you shouldn't be representing yourself because you're probably not aware of the exact date of the deadline and Mr. Cano would have been aware of it and you would have this expert on.

MR. CANO: He's aware of it, Your Honor.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. I'm aware of it. I'm just -- I'm saying --

THE COURT: Well, actually then since --

MR. CANO: If you granted the oral motion then I think what we'll do is I'll facilitate the information for Mr. Malone to get and touch it with Mr. Schiro and we'll just take it from there.

THE COURT: All right, so --

MR. CANO: And then file a formal notice prior to it being --

THE COURT: Well, the oral motion for appointment of expert is granted not necessarily Mr. Schiro.

MR. CANO: Okay.

THE COURT: And that'll be up to you, Mr. Malone, to decide if you're going to have Mr. Schiro, but understand the trial's fast approaching and, you know, if -- if Mr. Schiro doesn't have time, I don't know if the State is going to file an opposition to motion to continue the trial date.

THE DEFENDANT: No. I don't think so, Your Honor.

MR. LALLI: We would want a report if an expert's going to be appointed. It would be our only request at this point.

MR. CANO: But that's not always required. Experts don't always, you know

THE COURT: Right.

MR. CANO: -- forward a report.

MR. LALLI: Well, who's -- I mean, I'm sorry I thought that the Defendant was representing himself.

THE DEFENDANT: I am, sir.

THE COURT: Well, when it comes before me, when that issue comes before me then I'll deal with it, but you just need to follow all the rules, sir. There's proper noticing, there's deadlines and it's not my job to tell you 'cause you're representing yourself.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right.

THE DEFENDANT: All right.

THE COURT: So right now you can have an expert. You just need to do the notice timely and do -- follow the statute.

MR. LALLI: And just so I'm clear, Your Honor, it is a crime scene

1	investigation type expert that we're talking about?
2	THE COURT: Is that correct, sir?
3	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
4	THE COURT: All right.
5	MR. CANO: Forensic science I believe.
6	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. [indecipherable]
7	THE COURT: All right. And I don't want to talk about the facts of the case,
8	Mr. Lalli; we have McCarty set for the same time. As far as you know, is that case
9	ready to go forward?
10	MR. LALLI: Yes.
11	THE COURT: 'Cause we set them back to back.
12	MR. LALLI: Right.
13	THE COURT: And as far as you know with the defense attorneys, are they
14	ready as far as you know?
15	MR. LALLI: To my understanding they are, Your Honor.
16	THE COURT: Okay. All right.
17	MR. CANO: And this matter will be trailing that matter is my understanding.
18	MR. LALLI: No.
19	THE COURT: No. Actually this ones first up. This one was set and then we
20	actually severed them. This is set. We're putting the McCarty matter at a different
21	time and then the State said why don't we just trail it in the event that Mr. Malone's
22	case doesn't go forward that we'd be ready on McCarty.
23	THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor
24	MR. CANO: I believe it's the other way around, Your Honor, to my
25	recollection.

THE DEFENDANT: -- yes, sir. It's the other way around, sir. Mr. DiGiacomo was here present and he said that it's the State position on who they choose to go first for trial. I understand --

MR. LALLI: We want --

THE DEFENDANT: -- Mr. McCarty --

MR. LALLI: -- we want this Defendant tried first.

THE DEFENDANT: -- yeah, they try me first and then --

MR. LALLI: We want you tried first.

THE COURT: Whichever -- however, it fits in the calendar, the Court will select that.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, that's how it works.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm assuming you'll be ready, Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: Sir --

THE COURT: Yes.

THE DEFENDANT: -- when I was -- to my understanding when I was in trial -- when I had asked for this, you told me that I was going to go first. DiGiacomo said no Mr. McCarty's going to go first, so I've been preparing myself into the timely for me to actually prepare for the trials as far as going second. As I have some filing motions coming into view the trial and I did daily transcripts of the trial and that's [indecipherable] before mines which is I did not have today, but it should be in your courtroom there soon; that's what my understanding of it.

Now, to say that I'm going now this will be a clear surprise to me 'cause --

THE COURT: Sir, your Calendar Call was set many months ago.

THE DEFENDANT: -- [indecipherable] --

THE COURT: Sir, you were done talking. I'm talking now. Your Calendar is set for October 5th. You were advised of your Calendar Call day and if you had an attorney your attorney would tell you Calendar Call means that's the date we're going to set -- we're going to set your -- trial's going or not.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. So don't assume your case is being continued because you have a Calendar Call for October 5th with a Trial date of October 11, okay; there's probably ten trials set that week and all attorneys and since you're acting as an attorney, all attorneys are aware that they have a great possibility of going forward on that week; do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I do.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, so we'll just -- if there's any other motions then if they're calendared, the Court will hear them.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. LALLI: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

23 CLERK OF THE COURT

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2010

[Proceeding commenced at 8:47 a.m.]

THE COURT: Domonic Malone, 224572. Mr. Malone is present in custody. Mr. Pike, Mr. Lalli. This is status check on the Clark County Detention Center library access. The director of the jail has been contacted. Actually, can stand-by counsel and Mr. Lalli approach please.

[Bench Conference]

THE COURT: Actually, we're going to recall this matter. Mr. Pike is going to speak with Mr. Malone right now. We'll call it back in about two minutes here, Mr. Malone.

[Matter trailed]

[Matter recalled at 8:52 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay. Recalling the Malone matter. Mr. Pike, you're going to prepare an order for the Court for the Defendant's use of the library.

MR. PIKE: I will do that, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. PIKE: Thank you very much.

THE COURT: And now in this particular matter is there going to be a jury questionnaire?

MR. LALLI: Yes, I believe the Court already has that.

THE COURT: Do we already one; is that correct?

MR. PIKE: That's correct. We had had -- actually because of the manner in which the trial was previously continued, we actually had the questionnaires already

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. PIKE: -- provided and have gone through them.

THE COURT: And we also have piggy back on this case the McCarty matter. Are the attorneys and yourself, Mr. Lalli, in agreement on the questionnaire for that case?

MR. LALLI: It's the same one, Your Honor.

THE COURT: It's the same? Okay, just double it up, but we will need to have two separate panels.

MR. LALLI: Correct.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LALLI: Correct.

THE COURT: All right. We'll get that to the Jury Commissioner. If we have it, we'll get it to the Jury Commissioner.

MR. LALLI: Yes. And if you don't -- if the Department were to just let me know I'll make sure that the Court gets one.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CANO: Speaking of -- speaking of the questionnaire and the voir dire process, Your Honor, we should probably get some clarification how we're going to do that considering that we're going to be doing the penalty phase of this and Mr. Malone's doing trial phase of this.

THE COURT: Well, at this point, Mr. Malone, since you've insisting on representing yourself, you're going to -- you're going to be in charge of voir dire process to select the jury; do you understand that, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. In the event there's a guilty verdict and in the event we have a penalty phase, the Special Public Defender's Office will be presenting that portion of your case; do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: We've talked about that before.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. We did.

THE COURT: Any other matters, Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes. Just a clarification. I have the Court minutes from when I last talked to you about this who get to go to trial first and my Court minutes that I have here, Mr. DiGiacomo advised the State would prefer that Defendant, McCarty, go first and then I could follow immediately after. You Court ordered that and -- and then you said October date was staying and then you said detectives has sixty days prior to trial to shorten out discovery be provided.

I'm less than thirty days away from trial and I haven't been ensured that I met with nobody to talk about the discovery about any of that, sir.

THE COURT: Well, my understanding is that all discoveries been turned over to you already, sir; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: The paperwork that I have received from my stand-by counsel has been turned over to me. I have not been able --

THE COURT: Has -- has been turned over?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: It has been. The -- just the matter of the disc in the supplemental witness list anything else that I might not have it would be on the disc the things that I would not have [indecipherable].

THE COURT: Well, if there's -- if there's any -- in any case, sir, if there's any supplemental witness list or any supplemental list of experts if there are any in this

THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh.

THE COURT: -- the State is required to submit those to you under the Court

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. The same for you, if you have any experts, you are under the same constraints as an attorney; that you're under the same rules as far as providing proper notice; do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: We've talked about that before. And, sir, as far as the -which trial goes first, this matter is set for Calendar Call on October 5th as well as the McCarty matter and I'm assuming I have probably eight or ten other matters. At Calendar Call, the Court decides which case goes first.

THE DEFENDANT: Oh, yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

18

19

20

21

22

23

25

THE DEFENDANT: That was the -- the question was when we first here and you said I was going to go first and then DiGiacomo said that --

THE COURT: Okay, sir, I decide who goes first.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT: All parties should be ready. The attorneys for McCarty should be ready to go forward and attorneys, you, for Malone and probably my other eight to ten other cases should all be ready to go forward.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT: All right.

1	THE DEFENDANT: I do my best, sir.
2	THE COURT: Well, okay.
3	THE DEFENDANT: All right.
4	MR. LALLI: Thank you.
5	MR. PIKE: Thank you, Your Honor.
6	THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Pike, if you could expedite that Order over I'd
7	appreciate it.
8	MR. PIKE: Yes, Your Honor. Actually for the for the Court's edification
9	apparently they've already initiated that procedure, so it would just be a follow-up.
10	THE COURT: Okay. Great. Thank you.

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2010

[Proceeding commenced at 8:21 a.m.]

THE COURT: Is Mr. Malone here?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Malone's present. Mr. Pike, Mr. Schieck is stand-by counsel. Mr. Lalli for the State and you're on this case as well, Mr.

DiGiacomo?

MR. DIGIACOMO: Yes, Judge.

10

THE COURT: Okay.

11

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, just -- I know that the Court put it on calendar for the purposes of addressing the jury questionnaire --

12

13

THE COURT: Yes.

14

MR. LALLI: -- as I understand it. Essentially I took the old questionnaire.

15

There were some errors on it. I changed some things. I gave a copy to Mr. Malone in Court this morning, but I'm not sure what the Court's question is.

16

17

THE COURT: Well, that was the purpose. We just want to make sure.

18 19 Since we do have the two cases set for Calendar Call next week, just wanted to confirm with all parties that we were going to utilize the questionnaire that had previously been submitted.

21

23

25

MR. LALLI: Well, I can tell -- I can tell you, Your Honor, I did have a discussion with Mr. Oram last night, yesterday afternoon. Even though we had submitted this one before and all parties had agreed to it. Apparently they had done an about face and now we're going to have a brand new questionnaire that I haven't even seen yet, so just as I --

THE COURT: It's probably good that I put it on calendar today, so I could become aware of this. Okay.

MR. LALLI: Correct. And one other thing, Your Honor, it really pertains to Mr. Malone. Normally, we tell jurors in questionnaires that their answers will be given to counsel for all of the parties and are public record. I think because Mr. Malone is representing himself, it is absolutely necessary with the jury -- potential jury is informed that he -- this Defendant charged with murder will actually be getting the questionnaire. I think certainly the system owes our citizens that.

And I've also changed some things on it. For instance, the names of children, I don't think the Defendant needs to know the names of these juror's children or where they work; things of that nature, so we kind of toned it down a little bit in terms of the personal information that we got from our jurors because of Mr. Malone representing himself.

THE COURT: And I don't know that we need that for -- whether or not Mr.

Malone represents himself or not, that we need to have --

MR. LALLI: Right. Well, I just wanted to just tell the Court those --

THE COURT: Mr. Malone, have you had opportunity to review the proposed questionnaire that you received last time we were in Court?

THE DEFENDANT: No. I got one today --

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: -- from Mr. Lalli. And I got one here I've never seen before at all, but I got this one today. I haven't seen the original one though. No.

THE COURT: Are the parties available 9 tomorrow morning, so everyone has an opportunity to review the questionnaire and so we can finalize that 'cause we do need to get that to the jurors next week?

MR. LALLI: I'm available. 1 MR. ORAM: Judge, I'm not available tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. 2 3 MR. LALLI: We don't need Mr. Oram. MR. ORAM: Well, if they don't need me --THE COURT: I just want to get these prior resolved here, so on the Malone 5 matter and is one of the stand-by Special PD's available? 6 MR. PIKE: Yes. Mr. Cano from our office --7 THE COURT: Okay. 8 MR. PIKE: -- will be there. 9 THE COURT: And do you have a copy of the new proposed one from the 10 11 State? MR. PIKE: We do not, Your Honor. I'm receiving one right now. 12 THE COURT: All right. 13 MR. PIKE: I provided Mr. Malone with the -- the version that Mr. Oram had 14 indicated he preferred. We were able to get that from his office yesterday, so I 15 delivered it to Mr. Malone this morning. And that's the other questionnaire that he 16 17 has. THE COURT: Mr. Oram, do you have a copy for me? 18 MR. ORAM: Yes, I do, Your Honor. I brought four copies. This was one 19 that we used in the Luxor bombing that you approved. May I approach, Your 20 21 Honor? THE COURT: Yes. And the State has a copy? 22 MR. ORAM: They have --23 24 MR. DIGIACOMO: No.

MR. ORAM: -- a copy and I'll make sure they have a copy right now.

- 11	\
٦	THE COURT: And do you have an extra one for the Special PD
2	MR. ORAM: I do.
3	THE COURT: or Mr. Malone?
4	MR. ORAM: I believe they already have one
5	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: I have one.
6	MR. ORAM: but I have an extra copy, so everybody has one.
7	THE COURT: Okay.
8	MR. PIKE: I gave one to him that's what that's what I provided to him this
9	morning.
10	THE COURT: All right. All right. Great.
11	So, Mr. Malone, I want you to review the proposed one from the
12	State and the one that Mr. Oram provided your counsel, okay, and we're going to
13	discuss that tomorrow at 9 o'clock.
14	THE DEFENDANT: Okay.
15	THE COURT: All right. And for Mr. Oram, for your client, Mr. McCarty; is
16	Mr. McCarty present?
17	MR. ORAM: He is, Your Honor.
18	THE COURT: Okay. And you're not available
19	MR. ORAM: Tomorrow morning.
20	THE COURT: tomorrow?
21	MR. ORAM: Mr. Powell will be, but I'm not sure about Mr. Sgro.
22	THE COURT: I know we do need to have two attorneys here, but I'm
23	wondering if this is more of a as well as a substantive issue, I guess.
24	THE CLERK: Mr. Powell?
25	MR. POWELL: Yes.

1	THE CLERK: May I have your bar number, Mr. Powell?
2	MR. POWELL: 9153.
3	MR. ORAM: He's here for Mr. Sgro.
4	THE COURT: Are you available and the State available Monday at 10
5	o'clock? Oh, I'm not going to be here on Monday, so why don't we just do it at
6	MR. LALLI: Are you in trial, Judge? We could do it this afternoon.
7	THE COURT: You have time, Mr. Oram and Mr. Powell?
8	MR. ORAM: What time was Court looking at this afternoon? Can we do it at
9	1?
10	MR. LALLI: We've got some training.
11	THE COURT: How about 2:30?
12	MR. ORAM: That's pushing it. I can do it any time between 1 and 2 o'clock
13	or up to 2:30, but I have to be done.
14	THE COURT: How about at 2 o'clock?
15	MR. LALLI: Well, we've got training from 1:30 to 2:30 and then I have to
16	leave the office today at 3.
17	THE COURT: How about Friday? You're not available Friday?
18	MR. ORAM: I would be available all day Monday, all Tuesday, all day
19	Wednesday.
20	THE COURT: We'll do it Tuesday at 10 o'clock. We'll be here at Calendar
21	Call, but if it takes longer, set aside at 10 o'clock period.
22	MR. DIGIACOMO: Very good. Judge, should we do all parties at that time
23	'cause as of right now it's essentially a joint questionnaire?
24	THE COURT: Right. I understand. Well, we'll have two separate trials and
25	because Mr. Malone's in a different status, I just want to have a little extra time. All right.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, can I approach with a Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Testificandum for one of our witnesses?

THE COURT: All right.

Mr. Malone, have you been able to go to the law library?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have been able to go to the legal library.

THE COURT: All right. Great.

All right. Anything else by the Malone people? Mr. Malone, do you have anything else to add? We'll see you tomorrow then, right?

THE DEFENDANT: We'll see you tomorrow.

THE CLERK: Tuesday.

MR. LALLI: Tuesday.

THE COURT: I'm sorry, Tuesday.

THE CLERK: Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

THE COURT: All right.

THE CLERK: October 5th, 10 o'clock.

THE COURT: And how about for McCarty?

MR. ORAM: Just one thing, Your Honor. We have several experts that we have talked too, Mr. Sgro and I met with this week and we're flying them in and two of them are out of state. I want to make sure that the State gives us some indication. I know they can't tell us exactly how long they anticipate their case in chief, but what we're trying to do is, you know, not waste County expense by bringing these people in and so I anticipate that they'll be done with their case in chief within three weeks. Is that fair?

1 MR. LALLI: Yes. THE COURT: Is this trial still five weeks? 2 MR. LALLI: Well, in my own mind, Your Honor, I've kind of set three weeks 3 for each Defendant, so about a total of six. 4 MR. ORAM: So that's fine. I just wanted -- so we're going to be going from 5 October 11th and we should have our experts in probably two weeks out; is that fair? 6 THE COURT: Some where around there. 7 MR. LALLI: Unless -- unless, Mr. Sgro takes an inordinate amount of time 8 picking a jury which he has been known to do. 9 MR. ORAM: Oh, Mr. Sgro is very fast. 10 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Lalli, I had a trial with you and took two and a half 11 days. And so --12 MR. LALLI: That's a walk in the park. 13 14 MR. PIKE: Mr. Sgro --MR. LALLI: You're going to appreciate that once Mr. Sgro gets in the 15 16 courtroom. MR. DIGIACOMO: Mr. Sgro and Mr. Oram and I did a case --17 18 THE COURT: All right. MR. DIGIACOMO: -- a couple of years ago, it took seven days to get a jury, 19 20 whole days. MR. ORAM: That's because Mr. DiGiacomo is --21 THE COURT: Well, I --22 23 MR. ORAM: -- very slow. THE COURT: -- well, we'll see how this works out and hopefully everyone 24

1	MR. CANO: All right. Your Honor, just for clarification purposes, as of right
2	now, we anticipate that Mr. Oram and Mr. Sgro are going to be going first on the
3	11 th , you know, assuming that they're going to be ready
4	MR, ORAM: We are going to be ready, Your Honor.
5	MR. CANO: and Mr. Malone is trailing is trailing that?
6	THE COURT: I don't think any decisions been made.
7	MR. DIGIACOMO: 1 don't think any decisions
8	THE COURT: Right.
9	MR. DIGIACOMO: we'll discuss that at Calendar Call, Judge.
10	THE COURT: Right. Maybe the attorneys can talk about it the next couple
11	of days here.
12	MR. CANO: No, because it was previously stated on the record that Mr.
13	Malone was going to be trailing Mr. McCarty's case and so
14	MR. LALLI: I thought it was just the opposite.
15	MR. CANO: No, it wasn't.
16	THE COURT: I thought it was the opposite.
17	MR. CANO: It was on the record the other way around.
18	THE DEFENDANT: It is the other way.
19	MR. POWELL: There has been representations that we be going first for Mr.
20	McCarty.
21	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.
22	MR. DIGIACOMO: I'd actually spoken to Mr. Sgro and told him that !
23	thought we go first on Mr. Malone, but
24	THE COURT: All right. Well

MR. DIGIACOMO: -- we'll discuss that among the counsel --

THE COURT: -- all right.

MR. DIGIACOMO: - and we'll discuss it on Tuesday.

THE COURT: I want to make sure everyone's ready. Mr. Malone's in a different situation, so I want to make sure he's completely ready as well as the attorneys for Mr. McCarty.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: So we'll see everybody on Tuesday.

MR. LALLI: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

[Matter trailing]

[Matter resumed at 1:56 p.m.]

[Hearing heard by Judge Michael P. Villani]

THE COURT: Malone, McCarty matter. Okay. Today was Calendar Call first off. I don't know. Did Judge Barker handle that or just continue the Calendar Call 'til --

MR. LALLI: Everything's 'til today.

THE COURT: -- okay.

MR. LALLI: 'Til now, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay. First question is -- Mr. Malone, and we have stand-by counsel from the Special Public Defender's Office, Mr. Cano and Mr. Pike. Mr. Malone, are you ready to go to trial?

THE DEFENDANT: At this point, no, sir, I'm not ready.

THE COURT: Okay. Why not?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm not ready because I was told I was going to go second, so I prepared my -- prepared my preparation for trial as far as it going second. So I a lot of my witness list, certain evidence that I had to do, I'm not able to get those in time and if I had to go to trial like right now, today, like next week, I will not be able to get that in and I don't even know whether it even be allowed at this point in time. So, no, sir, I'm not ready.

THE COURT: I seem to recall a couple of weeks ago this issue came up and -- and about who was going first or second. I think I had advised everyone that I'm making that decision who goes first or second and I think I know you were here, Mr. Malone, at that time.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And so you haven't filed any list of witnesses, noticing witnesses; is that correct? Is that what you're saying that you -- I don't understand why didn't you get your witnesses lined up after -- after I advised everyone a couple of weeks ago that notices had been made?

THE DEFENDANT: Sir, I was just going off what you originally said, sir. Is that I know that when I was here a couple of weeks ago, you had told me that I was — it's up to your discretion what you going to do and I was trying to let you know that on the record we — you had said that originally and Mr. DiGiacomo had actually told you it was the discretion of the State about who was going first. And that's when they had told you that Mr. McCarty is willing to take the trial first. So therefore, you say okay. So that's why I had prepared my case for. So I was just stuck into doing that, sir.

I understand that you had told me a couple of weeks ago that it's upto your discretion, but I'm kind of in ping pong here so I'm like --

THE COURT: Actually, I mean, not to be flippant, but my opinion is the one that matters.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. I thought it would have been clear to you that I had advised you that my opinion matters as to who's going first.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: What if Mr. McCarty for, just saying what if, decides to take a deal today, your case is next up.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Would you -- would you not be ready on Monday?

THE DEFENDANT: Sir, I would have to take whatever I have, sir.

THE COURT: Any -- anything to add, Mr. Cano or Mr. Pike --

MR. CANO: Just for clarification --

THE COURT: -- as stand-by?

MR. CANO: -- just for clarification on the record, I think it was back in April of this year, Your Honor, when you were kind of like deciding what the order of trial was going to be and I believe that everybody was relying on that. I think Mr. Oram and Mr. Sgro were present when you said that they were going to go first in -- in order of time. And that Mr. Malone's case was going to be following.

Although a few weeks you did state to Mr. Malone that that was decision up to the Court as to who's going to be going first and who's going to be going second. He needed to be aware of that in order to follow whatever he needs to do in a timely manner.

I don't believe that Mr. Oram or Mr. Sgro were present for that Court appearance itself. So I'm not sure that they were aware that the Court on its own had changed its mind as to what the order of -- order of cases that we're going to proceed forth. I just wanted to make sure that that was clear on the record.

THE COURT: I think we were here one or two weeks ago and I think Mr.

Oram had said that your -- McCarty's ready.

MR. ORAM: McCarty, we're ready.

MR. SGRO: And we've been frankly relying on it, Your Honor. And I brought the transcript from the April hearing where the --

THE COURT: Oh, I believe what you're saying.

MR. SGRO: No, I just want to point out that the Court did order we were going to go first and the reason that's relevant is because this case is lengthy. It's always been estimated to be about four or five weeks. We have three experts in our case. Two from out of state and we have other trials that if we were to go second would be impeded.

We -- I have a case in California that a Judge is yelling at our office about for stop -- stop delaying it. It starts -- I have hearings starting in December, trial in January. We have Prentice Marshall with Mr. DiGiacomo in February and I have State versus Kentrell Welch I think in either late April or May. Prentice Marshall is a capital and will -- and will require significant preparation. And the case in California also will require extensive prepare -- so we have locked down our experts. We got them ready to testify and I'd never heard anything about -- about us not going first by the Court until Mr. Oram came back and said Mr. DiGiacomo said something in Court.

I contacted Mr. DiGiacomo and we spoke and I actually asked him if he would have an objection if I asked the Court to begin next week Tuesday or Wednesday instead of Monday. And he jokingly I thought said: oh, you'll be fine. I wanted to do something with my kids this weekend 'cause they have staff development day on Friday and they're off.

So he joking and then he says: you'll be fine. Malone's going first any way. And I said: that's a knee-jerk. Unfiltered out of my mouth I said: that's BS. I don't recall abbreviating and I said we're going first and that's exactly the conversation. And I hung up and I was going to come to you and ask you if we could start Wednesday. Then Oram — Mr. Oram comes back and he says they made noises about Malone first and I said no that's absolutely not what we talked about ever. So --

MR. ORAM: And, Your Honor, I said last week in Court because I had never heard this. Actually, I heard rumblings of it, but I said to the Court you may recall that we have experts, three experts, from out of state and so we were going three weeks from October 11th and I remember and that was the last I heard and I heard yes, so I went over and told Mr. McCarty okay we're ready. You know, to assure him that I'm not going to ask for a continuance. We'll be ready to go and so I also continued a Federal Trial based upon the fact that I told the Federal Court that I can't go because I have McCarty.

This isn't a situation where we're trying to be lazy. We are just being prepared and ready to go.

THE COURT: Is the State ready to go against Mr. McCarty?

MR. DIGIACOMO: Judge, we're ready as to both Defendants, but just so the record was clear, the Court said in that hearing that they have the transcript just a moment ago that when you severed it over our objection because we didn't feel the Defendant being pro per person would be a basis for severance. You then said Malone would go first and in my knee-jerk reaction I said no we're going to do McCarty first and then there's a discussion about moving one of the two trial dates and I said no let's keep the same date 'cause you never know what's going to happen.

After that time I discussed with -- when Mr. Oram says rumblings, I'm the one that told him hey Malone should go first. And here's the reason why the Court should order Mr. Malone to go first 'cause as the Court's very well aware that the tactic used to get the severance in this case is Mr. Malone representing himself.

The moment you ordered Mr. Malone to go to trial on Monday, then it's put up time.

He really wants to represent himself, let him represent himself, but otherwise, he'll request his lawyers back in which case now the case is joined back together and they're tactic failed because otherwise allowing the Co-defendants to do that, Judge, would -- would allow Co-defendants to control severances in the Eighth Judicial District; something you don't want to do.

So as a pure policy consideration, you got to set Malone first because if he really wants to represent himself he knew this was his trial date. If he doesn't really want to represent himself, then you don't need to waste the resources of perhaps the next three months trying to a case that you could have tried in six weeks.

MR. SGRO: The difficulty, Your Honor, is that argument is Johnny come lately. When we were in Court and you were invited to consider by the parties who would go first because we knew in April you had told us this is a firm date. I'm not screwing around any more. It was very terse comments from the bench that everyone had to be on notice that we were going. And you gave us both the same date and then the Court says, you actually do say: do you want to do Malone first.

Here's Mr. DiGiacomo: All due respect to the Court, the State would prefer to try Mr. McCarty first. You're severing the case. I think the State should have the right to make that choice. We choose to try McCarty first, Judge. We can try them back to back. You then say: all right.

Then Mr. DiGiacomo says we'll go 12, 14 weeks which is consistent with that 5-week estimate or so.

Then you say to Mr. Oram and I: I'm assuming, Mr. Sgro, Mr. Oram, you'll be ready; correct? We'll be ready. We will. Then here's the order. All right.

We'll go with McCarty first. We got the trial date. Any outstanding discovery issues? That's actually what occurred.

So we took this to the bank. It's a Court order regarding trial. After we got somewhat chastised for making sure we were going to be ready. No more continuances, etcetera, etcetera. So we then got our out of state experts on board to be present during this trial date. So --

THE COURT: I think at this point for a couple of reasons, we'll go forward on the McCarty matter. If the State says they're ready, then we'll go forward. And we'll start it on — now, is there an issue of starting Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or — because I hate to drag this out longer if it's four to five weeks we're trying to get a jury to sit four to five weeks and now we're going to make it four and a half weeks to five and a half weeks.

MR. SGRO: There is not a legal issue, Your Honor. It was only an opportunity to take advantage of a day off when I may not be home that much for the next month.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. SGRO: And it's strictly not legal. Strictly a hundred percent personal. I was going to ask you accommodate a day or two. If the Court is -- is unable to do that for calendaring reasons, I understand and I'll figure it out.

THE COURT: I'm assuming he's going to take at least two to three days to select a jury.

MR. DIGIACOMO: I think it's going to take significantly a little longer than that.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. DIGIACOMO: I'm just joking.

THE COURT: No. What I'm saying the best case scenario -- I had a non capital case with Mr. Lalli and he took three days.

MR. DIGIACOMO: You haven't seen Mr. Sgro. We don't oppose --

MR. LALLI: And that wasn't my fault either.

MR. SGRO: I'm standing here.

MR. DIGIACOMO: I mean, literally, Judge, I mean, the fact of the matter is that a day or two probably won't make a significant difference in the length of the trial because we're not talking about getting a jury maybe that first week even. And so the fact of the matter is is that we told Mr. Sgro that we didn't oppose if he got a day or two in order to handle a personal matter.

MR. SGRO: I was just --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SGRO: Right.

MR. DIGIACOMO: But it's up to the Court obviously if you want to go --

THE COURT: And that won't affect your experts?

MR. SGRO: It will not. Well, because they have to do their case in chief first, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. SGRO: We're ball parking it about two, three weeks out from when we get a jury.

THE COURT: Are you asking for a Tuesday start?

MR. SGRO: Either Tuesday or Wednesday, whatever the Court would prefer. All of it is extremely helpful and appreciated. We'll take whichever one the Court gives us. I know I heard in the prior case that the Court began a bench trial tomorrow. I don't know if you'll be done by Friday or Monday or if you need that day.

THE COURT: No. We'll be done --

MR. SGRO: Okay.

THE COURT: -- mid Friday.

MR. SGRO: Can we do Tuesday then at 1:30, Your Honor? Is that — or do you start in the morning for a jury?

THE COURT: We start at 10.

MR. SGRO: Okay.

THE COURT: We start at 10.

MR. SGRO: Thank you, sir.

THE COURT: Let's start Tuesday at 10. All right, Mr. Cano, Mr. Pike, thank you very much for showing up. And Mr. Malone, actually we're going to give you a new trial date; and the, State, you need to be ready.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, we need to resolve the jury questionnaire.

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Yeah. Yes, sir.

MR. LALLI: I think we need Mr. Malone present for that.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, I had a proposed one from Mr. Oram and one from the State; have both sides been able to look at those and I don't know if you guys were communicating?

MR. LALLI: We looked at them, but I can represent to the Court perhaps his Honor remembers that a year ago, it was over the weekend we discovered that the case needed to be continued, but questionnaires had been completed and using the questionnaire essentially in the form that we provided to the Court.

Now at the last minute I had phoned Mr. Oram last week and asked him if there was any last minute tweaking he wanted to do to the questionnaire and his response to me was well no I don't want to use that questionnaire any more. I'm going to have my own. And if the Court is concerned about how long it's going to take jury selection to take, the questionnaire that we used last time was 34 questions long. This new proposed questionnaire which is highly objectionable is 63 questions long. It's twice as long. And here's just an example of some of the questions in it. Question number 42, what do you believe the roles of the following are: Judges, defense attorneys, prosecutors? Who cares what a juror believes the roles of Judge or prosecutor are.

Another question 45, when was the last time you hosted someone of a different racial background? What does that mean? Why is that relevant to these proceedings?

Another question, again highly improper, how would knowing that a Defendant made admissions regarding his involvement affect your opinion on why we are having a trial? Fifty-one. So they're asking jurors to prejudge the evidence.

Then you go to question that is titled attitude regarding sentencing and the death penalty. They list out aggravating circumstances which is inappropriate. They incidentally list the wrong aggravating circumstances. These are not even the aggravating circumstances relevant or alleged in this case. They've got a large statement of the law which is in direct violation of District Court Rule 7.70. I mean, and I can go on and on and on.

What I would propose that we would do is be more than happy to give the defense the opportunity to add, tweak, amend questions in the questionnaire that we've already used in this case and that they agreed to previously, but I think it is certainly a waste of everyone's time to go back to the drawing board especially when you have the highly improper questions that we're seeing in this questionnaire.

THE COURT: Mr. Oram?

MR. ORAM: Your Honor, it's come to my attention and I do recall last time I really had just slipped my mind. Mr. Lalli's correct when he says he called me the other day. I looked over the questionnaire and my gut reaction was no, this is not sufficient. We use the one from the Luxor bombing and then they pointed out that last year at this time that a jury had already filled out a questionnaire and it was based on what had happened in my personal life that there was a continuance.

So I do feel I sort of understand the State's position in that regard.

There are some questions we would like in -- in the State's questionnaire we'd like to add to that specifically. We want to make sure about ways and there's a couple of other questions perhaps we can do that to make that acceptable to all parties.

THE COURT: And there's a certain deadline for us to get the questionnaires to the jurors. They have to come in a week before --

MR. ORAM: I don't think --

THE COURT: -- simply --

MR. ORAM: -- I don't think we need more than probably ten minutes in the back room.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. DIGIACOMO: If you can give us a few minutes, we might be able to resolve it.

THE COURT: If the parties can work it out then I'm happy.

MR. LALLI: All right.

THE COURT: All right, just call -- just tell the Marshal.

MR. LALLI: Mr. Malone has a question.

1	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Excuse me, Your Honor.
2	THE COURT: Yes, sir.
3	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: I've never agreed to the first one nor have I
4	received the first one that they have submitted to the Court.
5	MR. LALLI: I handed it to him the last time we were in Court.
6	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: No. You handed me this.
7	MR. LALLI: That's the one we used last time.
8	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Is this the one you submitted?
9	MR. LALLI: Yes.
10	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Okay. You didn't tell me you said you
11	personally stated it's different at the time I wasn't representing myself, so
12	MR. LALLI: Okay. Well you
13	THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: I take it
14	MR. LALLI: So just for the record, the Defendant has had that since the last
15	time we were all in Court.
16	THE COURT: Right.
17	THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.
18	MR. LALLI: I personally handed it him a copy of it.
19	THE COURT: All right. Well, why don't you go out and meet.
20	MR. SGRO: Your Honor
21	THE COURT: Yes.
22	MR. SGRO: just a quick logistical for scheduling purposes. What time
23	generally will the Court begin? Is there a different start time on different days?
24	What time will we conclude?
25	THE COURT: We'll typically start between 9:30 and 10 everyday.

MR. SGRO: Okay. And run until?

THE COURT: Five. What we do is everyday we check with the jurors to see if they can stay later, but we will typically tell you the day, let's say on Tuesday, we'll tell you this will be our schedule for Wednesday.

MR. SGRO: Okay.

THE COURT: But we typically will start at 9:30 to 10 and we'll go to 5 o'clock. We've been asked to try to minimize overtime because of our economy.

MR. SGRO: Right. Thank you, sir.

THE COURT: All right.

THE CLERK: October 12th at 10 and three weeks and so that will be November 2nd.

THE COURT: No. We don't have a date yet.

MR. DIGIACOMO: No.

THE CLERK: Okay.

THE COURT: We'll get that in just a minute. They're going to go out and meet and see --

THE CLERK: Okay.

THE COURT: -- if they hash out some problems.

One of the things, Mr. Lalli, if you can tell Mr. Oram, we do need on which if we're using the majority of the old one we just need to tweak under question 32 concluding questions as far as start time and ending time.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, last week your law clerk requested that I email her a copy of the -- of the most up to date questionnaire.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LALLI: Which I did send her. It does have those -- the correct dates in

|| it.

 THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LALLI: It also indicates that something that I feel is that we certainly owe to our jurors and that is to know at least one of these Defendants represents himself and that Defendant himself will see the questionnaires. It's a little unusual, but I think just out of responsibility to the jury, they must be informed that at least Mr. Malone is representing himself. So those are really the only two substantive changes, but —

THE COURT: All right.

MR. LALLI: -- we'll look at that.

THE COURT: See if you can work it out with Mr. Sgro and Mr. Oram.

MR. LALLI: Thank you.

MR. SGRO: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: Just call me when everyone's ready.

[Matter trailed]

[Matter recalled at 2:45 p.m.]

THE COURT: Okay. We're on the record. This is the questionnaire. I have a copy of the questionnaire that appears to have been worked out between the parties. Is there a section here that talks about the length of the trial? Am I just missing it?

MR. LALLI: There is, Your Honor. It should be on page 7, concluding questions. This trial is expected to last five weeks. On page 7 under concluding questions, it's all caps, bolded.

THE COURT: Oh, okay. Okay.

MR. LALLI: We tried to make it obvious. I guess we failed.

25

THE COURT: I'm looking at one of the questions. And actually I would put in -- in the actual question: this trial is expected to last five weeks, is there any reason we can't serve?

MR. SGRO: We can add that; that's fine with us, Your Honor.

MR. LALLI: It's your questionnaire.

THE COURT: All right, Michelle, just change that. And that's it. Okay, so and all we're going to add on number 36, the list of -- of both State's and defense potential witnesses will be listed.

MR. LALLI: Yes.

THE COURT: And, Michelle, or someone is going to email her those --

MR. LALLI: Yes.

THE COURT: -- those names.

MR. LALLI: We will email those hopefully by days end. We'll have to go through all -- all the notices of witnesses that have been --

THE COURT: Right.

MR. LALLI: -- filed and call those off, but we'll do that.

THE COURT: All right, since you're standing, Mr. Sgro, I'll direct the questions to you.

MR. SGRO: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you have any objection to the jury questionnaire that's been proposed?

MR. SGRO: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. And, Mr. Lalli, do you?

MR. LALLI: No.

THE COURT: Okay. For Malone, since his trial we'll have to reset his trial.

We can work on a questionnaire prior to that trial that Mr. Malone and the State can agree upon. If not, then obviously I'll select the questionnaire.

All right. Mr. Malone, on your questionnaire -- well, let's first off give you a trial date.

MR. LALLI: Well, can we request it in three weeks, Your Honor, just — just in case number one, so he knows in three weeks now he's got to be ready to go to trial, number one. Number two, if for whatever reason we are moving quicker through our case and the defense case, well then its easier to trail it then move it — move it up sooner if that makes sense. So we would request that he be given a date of three weeks from Monday knowing that it will probably be a little earlier than would eventually happens, but at least you'll have that date to work from.

MR. CANO: The only issue we got, Your Honor, is this I mean, we'd like to get a certain date because myself and Mr. Pike have to adjust our calendars 'cause we're trailing this case. And we have other cases that we're setting in November that we're going to have to be trailing, so if we have a certain date, we can address those other Courts letting them know that we're going to be in a capital case that's trailing this case starting this date 'cause otherwise if there's a gap in between there, the other Court's are going to expect us to go back to back.

MR. LALLI: Well, here's the -- here's the problem, Your Honor. Nobody wants to not get to Mr. Malone's case. We want to get to it now. And it would be ashamed if this trial were to finish -- Mr. McCarty's trial were to finish in three weeks and then Mr. Malone is given five weeks from now and we've got two weeks that we could be using that are just going to be wasted. Nobody wants that to happen. Its better that they're trailing then there's an untimely gap in between the two.

THE COURT: And just so you understand, November 15th starts my civil

MR. LALLI: All the more reason to set it in three weeks.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Judge, look with jury trial as we all know, you know, while you set us to start Tuesday morning, there's always a possibility that for whatever reason Mr. McCarty's case does not go forward and so you vacate him and reset this thing out a year now and now a year and farther down the road. I would urge the Court not to.

I mean, if you want to give him a firm date three weeks from now that's one thing, but to vacate it and reset it forever and then ultimately have the possibility that either case winds up resolving when everybody's ready to go --

THE COURT: Mr. Cano or Mr. Pike --

MR. DIGIACOMO: -- I would say would be problematic.

THE COURT: -- are you available start November 1st?

MR. CANO: Well, obviously this case is going to take precedent. We have to move some other cases that we have set. Both Mr. Pike and myself have cases. They're set on November 8th that would have to be moved.

MR. PIKE: We understand this case takes precedence over --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. PIKE: -- over all of our other cases.

THE COURT: I'll set this to start November 1st and Calendar Call is October 26th at 8:15.

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: October 26th?

THE COURT: October 26th is Calendar Call. November 1st is Trial. Mr. Malone, I expect you to be ready on that day.

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Yes, sir.

 THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Do we address the jury questionnaire now or

THE COURT: If you have a proposed questionnaire please file it with the Court.

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Uh-huh.

THE COURT: And then I'll -- let's put Mr. Malone back on calendar for --

MR. CANO: Would it be fair --

THE COURT: -- October --

MR. CANO: -- would it be fair to say, Your Honor, that he should file it no later than October 22nd that way we have a week to resolve it or maybe earlier that week by the 20th?

THE COURT: See, we have to get the questionnaire a week before the Trial starts.

MR. CANO: Right. If we're set for the 1st, the week of the 25th would be a week before. So perhaps we could be back in Court by the 20th of October to finalize anything on the questionnaire that way you have, you know, that we can get to the jury services by the 22nd?

MR. LALLI: That's fine, Your Honor. As long as Mr. Malone files whatever he wants to be used.

THE COURT: We'll set it on the 19th -- we'll set it on the 19th to discuss your questionnaire. Mr. Malone, we'll make sure you get a copy of the questionnaire we're using for the McCarty matter and you maybe -- it appears Mr. Sgro or Mr. Oram don't have a problem with the questionnaire for their client. We'll make sure you get a copy of this questionnaire and likewise you may not have a problem with #### it. Okay?

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right, so we'll make sure you get a copy of it and we'll see you back on was it the 19th.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, can you just order that the Defendant files whatever his proposed -- if he proposes any changes so that we can look --

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. LALLI: -- we can look at them before the 19th?

THE COURT: All right, sir, you'll need to have that filed by the 12th if you have your own you wish to propose.

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Sir, I'm going to have two issues. The one that I have -- the one that's right in front of me now the one that you said is the original one, I'm going to have two issues.

THE COURT: Okay. Well here's the -- here's a newer one. Like I said it's been approved by the McCarty attorneys. It doesn't mean you have to approve it, but i'm saying they've checked it out and they're satisfied with it. You maybe satisfied with it as well. Okay, so we'll give you a copy of it. You know, you review it. Okay?

THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. And we're good to go then. We'll start Tuesday at 10. And Cliff how many jurors fit in this courtroom?

THE MARSHAL: We don't need to have more than 50 in here.

THE COURT: All right, so we can -- we'll bring in 50.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Okay.

THE COURT: See how that goes.

MR. ORAM: Okay.

THE COURT: -- 42 or whatever it may be.

MR. ORAM: Okay.

THE COURT: You can streamline it.

MR. LALLI: All right.

MR. SGRO: Are you making four copies, Your Honor, then?

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. SGRO: Okay. Great. Thank you.

MR. LALLI: Thank you.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Thanks, Judge.

THE COURT: And that information will be emailed --

MR. LALLI: Yes.

THE COURT: -- forthwith to Michelle?

MR. LALLI: Yes.

THE COURT RECORDER: I have a question. On the questionnaire, did you want both Defendants on the caption?

MR. SGRO: No.

THE COURT RECORDER: No.

MR. LALLI: That's fine.

THE COURT: Officer, before we leave, Carol if you can run a copy of this and we'll get a copy to Mr. Malone. 2 THE CLERK: Okay. THE COURT: Mr. Malone, the only item that is not filled out is item 36 which 3 will be a list of all potential witnesses, so if you have a different list than the McCarty 4 5 people, we'll -- we'll include your witnesses as well. 6 THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Okay. THE COURT: So that's the only change would be item 36 will be a list of the 7 8 State's witnesses and yours. Okay? 9 THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Everything else will be the same. Okay? 10 11 THE DEFENDANT, MALONE: Yes, sir. THE COURT: All right. Thank you everybody. 12 13 MR. LALLI: Thank you, Your Honor. 14 THE COURT: We'll see you next week. 15 MR. Supreme Court of Nevada. Daimon MONROE a/k/a Daimon Devi Hoyt, Appellant,

> The STATE of Nevada, Respondent. No. 52234.

> > Sept. 10, 2009.

Background: Defendant was convicted by jury in the District Court, Clark County, David Wall, J., of two counts of burglary, grand larceny, and possession of burglary tools. Defendant appealed.

Holding: The Supreme Court held that trial court's failure to hold evidentiary hearing on defendant's motion to suppress evidence required reversal of order denying suppression motion and remand. Reversed and remanded.

ORDER OF REVERSAL AND REMAND

*1 This is an appeal from a judgment of conviction, pursuant to a jury verdict, of two counts of burglary, one count of grand larceny, and one count of possession of burglary tools. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; David Wall, Judge. The district court adjudicated appellant Daimon Monroe as a habitual criminal and sentenced him to concurrent terms totaling 96 to 240 months in prison.

On appeal, Monroe raises claims related to the district court's denial of his motion to suppress evidence seized from a van he was driving when he was arrested for the instant offenses. Regarding the underlying merits of the motion, he argues that the stop of the van was not supported by probable cause; the investigation exceeded the scope of the initial stop; the protective sweep of the van constituted an unlawful search; the warrantless search of the van violated the Fourth Amendment; and absent the suppressed evidence, there was insufficient evidence to sustain the conviction.

Monroe argues that the district court erred in refusing to conduct an evidentiary hearing on the suppression motion. In particular, he asserts that factual disputes existed that neither the preliminary hearing nor the oral argument on the motion adequately resolved. We agree.

"The interplay of the factual circumstances surrounding a search or seizure and the constitutional standards for when searches and seizures are reasonable requires the two-step review of a mixed question of law and fact .... We review the district court's findings of historical fact for clear error but review the legal consequences of those factual findings de novo." Somee v. State, 124 Nev. ---, ----, 187 P.3d 152, 157-58 (2008). For this court to conduct this analysis, "district courts must make specific factual findings." Id. at ---, 187 P.3d at 158. We "cannot review a district court's decision to admit or suppress evidence" absent such findings. Id.; see also State v. Ruscetta, 123 Nev. 299, 304, 163 P.3d 451, 455 (2007) (noting that while certain facts may be inferred from ruling, this court will not speculate about factual inferences drawn by district court).

"An automobile stop by police is a seizure within the meaning of the Fourth Amendment." U.S. v. Garcia, 205 F.3d 1182, 1186 (9th Cir.2000); see also Whren v. United States, 517 U.S. 806, 809-10, 116 S.Ct. 1769, 135 L.Ed.2d 89 (1996). A police officer may initiate an investigatory stop if the officer has a reasonable articulable suspicion that an individual "has committed, is committing or is about to commit a crime." NRS 171.123(1); Terry v. Ohio, 392 U.S. 1, 88 S.Ct. 1868, 20 L.Ed.2d 889 (1968). The detention must be limited in scope and duration. Florida v. Royer, 460 U.S. 491, 500, 103 S.Ct. 1319, 75 L.Ed.2d 229 (1983). During such a detention, a limited search for weapons is permitted so long as the police reasonably believe the suspect is armed and dangerous. Somee, 124 Nev. at ----, 187 P.3d at 158; see also NRS 171.1232(1).

In addition, a police officer may conduct a warrantless search of a vehicle under the "automobile exception" to the warrant requirement if two conditions exist: "first, there must be probable cause to believe that criminal evidence was located in the vehicle; and second, there must be exigent circumstances sufficient to dispense with the need for a warrant." State v. Harnisch, 113 Nev. 214, 222-23, 931 P.2d 1359, 1365 (1997) (citation omitted); see also State v. Harnisch, 114 Nev. 225, 228-29, 954 P.2d 1180, 1183 (1998), clarified on remand, 114 Nev. 225, 954 P.2d 1180 (1998). This court has defined exigent circumstances as conditions which would cause a reasonable person to believe that a search was necessary " 'to prevent physical harm to the officers and other persons, the destruction of relevant evidence, the escape of the suspect, or some other consequence improperly frustrating legitimate law enforcement efforts.' "Camacho v. State, 119 Nev. 395, 400, 75 P.3d 372, 374 (2003) (quoting Howe v. State, 112 Nev. 458, 466, 916 P.2d 153, 159 (1996)).

*2 Here, the district court heard argument but did not conduct an evidentiary hearing on Monroe's motion to suppress. In making its decision, the district court apparently relied on conclusions it reached during an evidentiary hearing concerning Monroe's codefendant in the same incident. It is not clear if Monroe was present or participated in that evidentiary hearing. Further, without a record of the codefendant's evidentiary hearing, it is unclear if the district court's factual findings from that hearing are supported by the evidence or are clearly erroneous. In addition, in resolving Monroe's motion, the district court did not make specific factual findings concerning whether reasonable suspicion existed to stop the van that Monroe was driving or perform a protective sweep of the van. The district court also failed to make findings regarding the amount of time that Monroe was detained and when the police officers learned specific information regarding the suspected burglaries.

Given the district court's failure to conduct an evidentiary hearing respecting Moore's motion and the lack of specific findings, we cannot conclude that the State met its burden of proving that the stop of the van was supported by reasonable suspicion, the investigation of the van did not exceed the scope of the stop, the protective sweep of the van was supported by reasonable suspicion, and the search of the van fell within an exception to the warrant requirement. See Somee, 124 Nev. at ---, ---, 187 P.3d at 158, 161 (reversing district court order denying motion to suppress where district court did not conduct evidentiary hearing or make written findings); cf. Ruscetta, 123 Nev. at 302, 163 P.3d at 453 (similar); State v. Rincon, 122 Nev. 1170, 1177, 147 P.3d 233, 238 (2006) (similar).

Having determined that the district court erred in denying Monroe's motion to suppress evidence, we

ORDER the judgment of conviction REVERSED AND REMAND this matter to the district court for proceedings consistent with this order.

DONALD HERB IS NOT A CO-CONSPIRATOR AS A MATTER OF LAW, AND THEREFORE NEED NOT BE CORROBORATED

NRS 175.291 states:

- 1. A conviction shall not be had on the testimony of an accomplice unless he is corroborated by other evidence which in itself, and without the aid of the testimony of the accomplice, tends to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense; and the corroboration shall not be sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense or the circumstances thereof.
- 2. An accomplice is hereby defined as one who is liable to prosecution, for the identical offense charged against the defendant on trial in the cause in which the testimony of the accomplice is given.

While a reading of the statute appears to only apply to trial, the Nevada Supreme Court has ruled that the corroboration rule applies to preliminary hearings. See Lamb v. Bennett, 87 Nev. 89, 482 P.2d 298 (1971).

Under 175.291, an accomplice is defined as a person who is liable to prosecution for the identical offense charged against the defendant. If, from the testimony of the witness' alone, there is no doubt the witness is liable for the charged crimes, he is an accomplice as a matter of law. See Rowland v. State, 118 Nev. 31, 39 P.3d 114 (2002). However, if the testimony of the witness leaves doubt whether he is liable for the charged crime, then the question of whether or not he is an accomplice is a matter of fact. See id (citing Austin v. State 87 Nev. 578, 588-89, 491 P.2d 724, 730-31 (1971)). Matters of fact are determinations for a jury. See Ford v. State, 99 Nev. 209, 660 P.2d 992 (1983).

Donald Herb's testimony taken at face value alone does not establish that he is liable for the murders of Christine and Victoria. From his testimony, there is no evidence to support an accusation that Donny participated in the killing of Victoria and Christine. At most, it may be argued that at some point, he had knowledge that the murder was occurring. However, mere knowledge or approval of, or acquiescence in, the object and purpose of a conspiracy without an agreement to cooperate in achieving such object or purpose does not make one a party to conspiracy. Doyle v. State, 112 Nev. 879, 894, 921 P.2d 901, 911 (1996)

C:\Program Files\Neevia.Com\Document Converter\temp\858003-974433.DOC

(overruled on other grounds by, Kaczmarek v. State, 120 Nev. 314, 91 P.3d 16 (2004)). Mere presence is never sufficient to make someone liable for a crime. See Winston v. Sheriff, Clark County, 92 Nev. 616, 555 P.2d 1234 (1976). Moreover, in order to hold someone liable for a crime on an aiding and abetting theory, it must be shown that the person had the specific intent that the crime be committed. See Sharma v. State, 118 Nev. 648, 56 P.3d 868 (2002). As such, Defendant is not a co-conspirator as a matter of law. Therefore, the determination of whether or not he is a co-conspirator is a question left to the jury. As such, he need not be corroborated, unless and until, a jury determines he is a co-conspirator. See Rowland v. State, 118 Nev. 31, 39 P.3d 114 (2002) and Ford v. State, 99 Nev. 209, 660 P.2d 992 (1983).

VI.

EVEN IF DONNY WERE A CO-CONSPIRATOR AS A MATTER OF LAW, HE WAS CORROBORATED

The Nevada Supreme Court has defined sufficient corroboration as:

Corroboration evidence need not be found in a single fact or circumstance and can, instead, be taken from the circumstances and evidence as a whole. LaPena v. State, 92 Nev. 1, 544 P.2d 1187 (1976). Corroboration evidence also need not in itself be sufficient to establish guilt, and it will satisfy the statute if it merely tends to connect the accused to the offense. See State v. Hilbish, Et. Al., 59 Nev. 469, 97 P.2d 435 (1940).

Cheatham v. State, 104 Nev. 500, 761 P.2d 419 (1988). As discussed supra, even without the testimony of Donny, there was sufficient evidence to hold Defendant to answer for the charges of murder. However, that is not the standard. Donny is sufficiently corroborated should there be any evidence which "merely tends to connect the accused to the offense." Id (citing State v. Hilbish, Et. Al., 59 Nev. 469, 97 P.2d 435 (1940)).

As has been repeatedly discussed, there is a mountain of evidence which tends to connect Defendant Malone to the instant offense. He participated in the kidnapping and beating of Red the night before. He threatened to kill the victims in the exact manner they were killed. He made statements to Corrina Phillips both before and after the crime connecting him to the offenses. Finally, he engaged in destruction of evidence and

CALENDAR CALL

For the State:

CHRISTOPHER LALLI, ESQ., MARC DIGIACOMO, ESQ., Deputy District Attorneys

For the Defendant:

RANDALL H. PIKE, ESQ., CHARLES A. CANO, ESQ., Special Public Defender (Standby Counsel)

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2010

THE COURT: Malone. Malone matter. Domonic Malone, 224572.

This is Calendar Call.

MR. LALLI: State's ready to proceed, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And we have Mr. Pike here.

MR. PIKE: Yes, Your Honor. Charles Cano and Randall Pike present as stand-by counsel.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. PIKE: Mr. Malone's present in custody.

THE COURT: You may know 'cause I've seen you in Court, Mr. Cano, and that we probably have another two weeks to go on the McCarty matter and may go a little further if there's a guilty verdict and it goes to penalty phase. And so we're just going to have to reset this trial 'cause it's not overflow eligible obviously. We'll give you the next --

MR. PIKE: We are ready for the penalty phase pursuant to the Court's ruling. I believe Mr. Malone is present or is ready for the trial, but just so the Court is aware we understand this trial, the Co-defendant's trial is running a little bit longer than was expected.

THE COURT: You understand that, Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: I understand it now. Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm still in trial.

THE DEFENDANT: No. I understand that.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: I was kind of hoping they hurry this along 'cause -- hurry up and go.

THE COURT: I'm sorry.

THE DEFENDANT: I was hoping they was [sic] hurry it up. You know, get some additional time if they need too; that, you know, 'cause I'm pretty much really ready to go.

THE COURT: I understand that.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, so you know.

MR. LALLI: We're -- we're -- I understand the Court's position.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. LALLI: We would like to have it tried now. I know that the --

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

MR. LALLI: -- Court had some scheduling issues that prevent it from hearing this matter and I just wanted for the record to urge the Court to find a way to hear the matter. I'm not sure that that's possible under the circumstances, but we are ready to go.

There are --

THE COURT: Right.

MR. LALLI: -- a number of witnesses from out-of-state.

THE COURT: We'll give you the very next available date that has four weeks open.

MR. LALLI: Well, that's the problem. I have a -- I am 1 booked well into January -- well into next year and I know Mr. DiGiacomo is also. Many of those are firm sets. I know I have a number of death penalty cases at the first part of the year and I don't -- I don't have Mr. DiGiacomo's --5 THE COURT: He's behind you. 6 MR. DIGIACOMO: I'm right here. 7 MR. LALLI: Oh, there he is. 8 9 MR. DIGIACOMO: I'm pulling mine up. MR. LALLI: He's hard to see. 10 [Colloquy between the Court and the Clerk] 11 THE CLERK: So do you want March? Its three weeks. 12 MR. PIKE: We have a death penalty case on the 14th. 13 THE COURT: How about June? 14 THE CLERK: We could do March 15th -- oh, no we can't do that. 15 May? 16 MR. PIKE: May --17 MR. LALLI: I've got a case that's been continued a number of 18 times; that's going to be set mid May. 19 THE CLERK: May 23rd. 20 MR. LALLI: I won't be able to do it then. 21 MR. CANO: That's on top of Duarte-Herrera. 22 THE COURT: Okay. 23 MR. CANO: So if you want to stack it on top of that. 24

THE COURT: Well, this would take priority --

MR. CANO: Right.

MR. LALLI: It's not.

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: How about June 6th?

MR. PIKE: I have an older death penalty case that's also a go. Double homicide set for June 13th.

THE COURT: Is that definitely going or should we -- can we trail? We could give you two trial dates.

MR. LALLI: June -- June 6th works for me.

THE DEFENDANT: It doesn't work for me.

THE COURT: You have some place to go, Mr. Malone?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: What?

THE DEFENDANT: Home.

THE COURT: All right.

THE DEFENDANT: I've been waiting to go home for four years now.

THE COURT: I understand. We're trying -- we're trying to get you some place.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. I'm trying to hurry up and go home.

This -- you know, I have a family to take care of too.

THE COURT: Well, what we can do, Mr. Pike, is set -- set it for June 6th. If your other case negotiates or gets continued, then we can try this one. If it doesn't, I'll give you another trial

1 date right now.
2 MR. CANO: Okay.

THE COURT: So, we'll -- Carol, we'll give them June 6th for this trial. We'll also give them a date in August to see if there's --

THE CLERK: Okay, so Calendar Call would be May 31st with Jury Trial starting on June 6th. And then --

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, I have a capital case that's going to go about three weeks. It's already set in August.

THE COURT: Can we start -- does it start the first part of August or --

MR. LALLI: Starts August 8th. It's going to go approximately three weeks.

THE COURT: And I know we were here with Mr. Schieck on a case earlier today from the Special PD's Office where he took --

MR. PIKE: That was Gamble,

THE COURT: -- three weeks in October.

MR. PIKE: Yes.

MR. DIGIACOMO: Do you have anything in September?

THE CLERK: It would be October.

THE COURT: If this is a civil case, sure. You know what, let's pass this a week. Trial date's vacated right now and because of my schedule, well mostly your guys' schedule, let me check with the criminal Chief Judge for next year see if we can have this case transferred. See if someone's willing to pick it up. I mean, we're looking at November or 2012 and I don't want to wait that long.

MR. LALLI: I have a case that's -- I hate to be the stick in the mud, but I've got a case with twelve different Co-defendants that's set October, November.

THE COURT: Actually, you know what I'm going to do, we're going to pass this two weeks for setting a trial date. If counsel can forward to me with a fax cover sheet the dates you are not available next year.

MR. LALLI: Are we going with, I believe it was the -- the tentative -- is it May?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. LALLI: Are we going to -- okay.

THE COURT: Well, depending on Mr. Pike's case.

MR. LALLI: Right.

THE COURT: If you tell your office to give him a good deal then he'll be available.

MR. DIGIACOMO: What's the date again?

MR. LALLI: I'm not in charge any more, Your Honor, or I might do that.

THE CLERK: May 31st, June 6th.

THE COURT: All right. So we'll pass this two weeks counsel to fax us a cover sheet --MR. PIKE: All right. 2 THE COURT: -- of saying when you're not available. MR. PIKE: We'll do that, Your Honor. 4 THE COURT: And if it's a two week trial, make sure you're 5 setting forth two weeks --MR. LALLI: You just want our 2011 dates? 7 THE COURT: Right. When you're not available. All right. 8 9 So two weeks. MR. PIKE: Thank you. 10 THE DEFENDANT: Two weeks, sir? 11 12 THE COURT: Yes, sir. THE DEFENDANT: Come back in two weeks? 13 THE COURT: Yes. 14 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. 15 THE CLERK: November 9th. 16 THE COURT: Sir, but you're announcing ready at this point? 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I'm ready. 18 THE COURT: All right. You've done all your research? 19 20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Reviewed --21 THE DEFENDANT: I'm still -- I'm still --22 THE COURT: Hang on. 23 THE DEFENDANT: -- using the legal library. 24

25

THE COURT: Great. Done all your research you need?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm still doing it in the legal library, sir, but yes I'm ready to go.

THE COURT: Okay. And you've reviewed the evidence code?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. I just want to make sure you've done that; and also you've reviewed the possible penalties that could be imposed on the charges filed against you? You've done that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Great. We'll see you back in two weeks. All right.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I'll be back.

THE COURT: All right.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, one more issue with this Defendant.

I was informed yesterday I believe there was some issue as to his bail amount because we have a material witness in custody under this case number and his bail was set at ten thousand dollars; I think there was some question at least that the jail had as to what this Defendant's bail amount was.

THE COURT: You got that, Officer?

THE DEFENDANT: As of right now --

CORRECTION'S OFFICER: I don't have that information, Your Honor.

THE DEFENDANT: -- Your Honor, it's six and a half million right now, sir. Six and a half million I got no bail on the two

1 | murder counts, sir.

MR. LALLI: Okay.

THE CLERK: Sir, it says two million in the computer.

MR. LALLI: But it should be no bail on the -- on the

THE COURT: That's what our records show, that's what it is.

MR. LALLI: There was some information that maybe he was attempting to bail out, but I'm not sure what the situation was, but I just want to make sure his home stays at the Clark County Detention Center for now.

THE COURT: Well, he's held without bail.

MR. LALLI: Thank you.

THE COURT: Sir, have you had an opportunity to prepare a jury questionnaire or review the one the State had provided? Do you know -- or you can use the same one that we've used for Mr. McCarty?

THE DEFENDANT: My understanding that you said that if I didn't prepare one that you prepare one that was more suitable for the Court.

THE COURT: No. I would use the McCarty one. You received a copy of that a couple of weeks ago.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you have any objection to that one?

THE DEFENDANT: Just only the stuff that -- that has McCarty up in it, but that's about it, sir. No.

1	THE COURT: All right. Great. We'll use that one.
2	MR. LALLI: Very good.
3	THE COURT: We'll just change the names on it.

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING RE:

STATUS CHECK: TRIAL SETTING

APPEARANCES:

For the State:

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

DOMONIC RONALDO MALONE,

Plaintiff,

Defendant.

CHRISTOPHER LALLI, ESQ., Deputy District Attorney

For the Defendant:

RANDALL H. PIKE, ESQ., CHARLES A. CANO, ESQ., Special Public Defender (Standby Counsel)

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2010

[Proceeding commenced at 8:39 a.m.]

THE COURT: All right. Domonic Malone. Where's Mr. Malone?
There he is.

THE MARSHAL: Stand up and join us.

THE COURT: We have Mr. Pike, Mr. Cano, Mr. Lalli for the State. Status check on trial setting.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, I want to apologize. The Court had asked Mr. DiGiacomo and myself to send you our schedules and with being in trial we just -- we just didn't do it and I apologize for that.

THE COURT: And I believe we did receive some from defense --

THE COURT: -- and we appreciate that.

MR. CANO: Yes.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, they're talking after September of 2011 and Mr. DiGiacomo's schedule and my schedule do not accommodate something that late in the year. Mr. DiGiacomo has two trials in October, one of which is a capital case and --

THE COURT: Let me stop you there 'cause, counsel, what I was endeavoring to do, and I don't know I would be successful, is every stack next year I have probably at least two firm settings, but they maybe just one week long. It's a sex case or a perhaps a one week long murder trial, not a death penalty case or a child abuse case.

And I was going to meet with Chief Criminal Presiding

Judge to see if there's a way that I can just block out one of my
- one of my stacks and just farm out my other cases, so I could hear this case earlier.

MR. CANO: I think the Court maybe was contemplating a May date originally.

THE COURT: I don't know if that's --

MR. CANO: I didn't know if that was amenable to the State itself. If we started earlier after May, we could possibly do May. The only issue that we have is that Mr. Pike has another capital case beginning early June.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. CANO: So we kind of have to try to get that done.

THE COURT: I want to look at both schedules and I can see what I can move on my schedule with the assistance of the other Judges here and I can just give you my whole stack earlier and so, but I have to look at everything first.

So, let's pass this a week.

MR. CANO: But we are -- we are free after mid September. For the rest of the year we are open.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CANO: Just so the Court has that.

THE COURT: All right. And I'll get the State's list here.

MR. LALLI: Do you want us to send those, Your Honor?

THE COURT: E-mail it to me today. We can pass this 'til next Thursday and I should be able to coordinate with the Chief; look at my schedule, look at your schedule see what we can do to get the earliest trial date possible. 3 MR. LALLI: Okay. 4 THE COURT: All right. 5 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor? 6 7 THE COURT: Yes, sir. THE DEFENDANT: I have a motion on the 16th of Tuesday -- of 8 next week; is that still going to go forward? THE COURT: Yes, 'cause whatever's scheduled its -- I'll here 10 11 it on that day. THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Thank you very much. 12 THE COURT: All right. And --13 MR. CANO: If he has his motion --14 THE DEFENDANT: May I also have a copy of it? What's going 15 on here? I didn't get no schedules or anything. 16 THE COURT: When you say a copy of everything --17 THE DEFENDANT: Copies of the schedules. 18 MR. LALLI: I'm not giving Mr. Malone my trial schedule. 19 THE COURT: Right. 20 THE DEFENDANT: I just wanted, you know, make sure that 21 everybody going to be available on the date --22 THE COURT: Well, sir --23

THE COURT: -- your stand-by counsel I'm going to confirm

with their calendar and I'm assuming you'll be available when I pick a trial date.

THE DEFENDANT: Well, I'm still here.

THE COURT: That's what I'm saying.

THE DEFENDANT: I just remembered that -- remember I had addressed this Court on this issue several months ago about how this case would be -- keep continuing and keep continuing on. I just wanted to know when is it going to be confirmed date that is set in stone at least I can at least have an opportunity to be able to return back to society if I can take care of my family.

THE COURT: Right.

THE DEFENDANT: [indecipherable]

THE COURT: Well, sir -- sir, that's why I said we're going to pass this Thursday 'cause I'm going to give you a trial date.

THE DEFENDANT: Thank you very much.

THE COURT: I want to match up everyone's calendar.

MR. LALLI: And if I could just make a record on that point.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. LALLI: The Court will certainly recall Mr. Malone had the opportunity to go first. And he vehemently objected to that, so part of the reason his trial isn't going is because of his own fault and I just wanted to make sure that there was a record of that.

MR. CANO: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Record speaks for itself.

MR. LALLI: Thanks.

MR. CANO: Just come in on one day?

THE COURT: Okay. There's a motion to dismiss set for the 16th Tuesday. We'll move that to Thursday so we can have both matters on the same day.

MR. CANO: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: I have two motions.

MR. PIKE: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Whatever motions you have on, sir, for Tuesday will be bumped to Thursday.

THE CLERK: That'll be November 18th.

VILLANI, DISTRICT COURT JUDGE 15 TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2011 16 RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING RE: 17 ALL PENDING MOTIONS 18 APPEARANCES: MARC DIGIACOMO, ESQ., 20 For the State: Deputy District Attorney 21 CLERK OF THE COURT 22 RANDALL H. PIKE, ESQ., For the Defendant: CHARLES A. CANO, ESQ., Special Public Defenders

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2011

THE COURT: Mr. -- Mr. Malone is present in custody. Mr. Cano, Mr. Pike, Mr. DiGiacomo for the State.

We have two motions filed by Mr. Malone. The first one is a motion to dismiss stand-by counsel. Mr. Malone, you -- your motion is just -- what I've received is one page.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

10

THE COURT: Is that the extent of your motion?

11

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

12

THE COURT: And --

13

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

14

THE COURT: -- and why do you want to dismiss stand-by 15 16 counsel?

had came here --

THE DEFENDANT: Well, okay I like to remind you that, you know, you say you wanted to protect my rights at the beginning of this case January 5, 2009. Remember that, sir? You know, when I

18 19

THE COURT: Sir, you don't ask me questions.

20 21

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

22

THE COURT: You have anything to say?

23

THE DEFENDANT: Yes. Well, you know, NRS 34.500 states that when the process defective in some matter of substance by law render it void. Well, the procedure issue that I had in the case

24

1 | is that the first two counts that was the battery and -- battery substantial bodily harm and kidnapping that which I was -- Las Vegas case and I was arrested in Las Vegas, but taken to Henderson Correctional Center where I was booked and charged and I had a preliminary hearing that on those charges that was in the Las --Henderson Courtroom which was bound up together with all the rest additional charges.

To my understanding that Judge Byrd did not have procedural rights to even hear that case nor was it allowed to bound up over to District Court which had happened as it was in Las Vegas jurisdiction, not Henderson.

Now, I have promptly stated and told the attorneys five years ago that this is exactly what had occurred. Now, I had asked them promptly to correct this. They have, you know, in the position when they was my counsels at the time, they was like telling me that you know, we're going to do that. We shouldn't do it right now because the State would just dismiss it and refile the charges. And at the time I was like okay fine let's do that. You know, 'cause -- it's correct.

Now --

THE COURT: So your -- your claim is that your stand-by counsel have failed to file those motions they told you they were going to file?

THE DEFENDANT: My Court argument is that the stand-by counsel has jeopardized my case for five years because if the procedure is not correct, sir, that means that I've been sitting here for five years without having properly due process which is a violation of my Fifth Amendment. I've been sitting her patiently for five years for that to be simply corrected.

Now --

THE COURT: Sir, you have stand-by counsel, why don't you file the motion yourself? They're not -- they're not sort of standing by in case you have any questions.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I understand that, sir. And during my Faretta hearing I had asked for, you know what I'm saying, counsel and stuff like that. You said that you would apply them as stand-by counsel after I stated to the Court that the conflict is with the current stand-by counsel. So in essence, if this case was to get to the point where I need not no longer represent myself, you still give the counsels in which I had contained conflict with which is under the constitution which is that you provided -- you denied me the right to have representation even though you have in presence stand-by counsel which is from the Special Public Defender's Office whom I have a conflict with has not provided me with representation at all, not even on a stand-by level.

THE COURT: Okay. Let me hear from Mr. Cano or Mr. Pike.

MR. PIKE: Thank you, Your Honor. That issue is brought up and we discussed in detail with him. As the Court is well aware, the Justices of the Peace have County-wide jurisdiction and it's not just a limited to a specific areas.

Mr. Malone wanted to challenge the arrest by officers on probable cause and -- and actually in North Las Vegas and not the Las Vegas jurisdiction as was done by SWAT officers and then he was transported upon that basis of probable cause held -- he was arrested on the battery charges held on that and then they filed the murder charges before he was released, so they were investigating it.

We raised those issues during the time of the preliminary hearing regarding any statement or to preserve any issues regarding statements or anything else. And we did file the Writ of Habeas Corpus after the time of the preliminary hearing, so those issues will -- were all addressed.

Mr. Malone as was seen in his arguments will find a statute and then attempt to establish a claim. We researched all the claims and tried to raise every constitutionally affirm and identifiable motion that we did during the course of our representation while we were lead counsel on this.

So, it's -- it's an old saw that he's applying and we consider that and it doesn't -- and we did not file a separate motion other than to separate the claims which is the relief that he sought. He wants to have it done by dismissal and then refiling new charges as opposed to a motion to -- to sever both the counts and the causes of actions. So we brought motions on behalf of the relief that he sought already under the constitutionally firm grounds that we could find.

The motion that he's arguing right now is again because of the County-wide jurisdictions of the Justices of the Peace and the ability to rest outside of a jurisdiction on a -- on a probable cause arrest within Clark County was not an issue that was specifically raised in the way in which he wanted it raised.

However, the relief sought was raised in other manners.

MR. CANO: And additionally, Your Honor, the original crimes that are being alleged happened in Henderson jurisdiction.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. DiGiacomo, do you have anything to add?

MR. DIGIACOMO: No, Judge. Only that the crimes that he was arrested on actually did happen in Henderson. Counts 1 and 2 that he's alleging that he was charged with -- actually I don't believe he's ever been arrested on that was part of the criminal complaint filed by our office. Obviously we have County-wide jurisdiction as well. They were properly found to be joined, so any argument would be futile.

So I don't think that's the basis and I don't hear any other basis and I don't think the Court ever found that there was a conflict between counsel. I think what you said was there isn't a conflict so I'm not going to appoint new counsel, but you're free to represent yourself if he passed the Faretta canvass. If he does not want to represent himself any more, he's free to have the Public -- the Special Public Defenders back as counsel.

THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

THE DEFENDANT: That is incorrect. The May 23rd audio states clearly that I was arrested for the Las Vegas jurisdiction battery counts, not the Henderson battery counts which is the first two counts, sir. That is -- I do not have the audio with me. As you see I'm in jail. However, there is an audio stating exactly what I got arrested for essentially about from the Henderson Detective. It was not for a Henderson battery. It was for the Las Vegas jurisdiction and also, Your Honor, on the transcript, the officer himself stated that the reason why he did not arrest the Codefendant once who assaulted the Codefendant because it was a Las Vegas case; that's the correct argument. That's on record and also to have audio detailing exactly what the argument which I'm stating today, sir.

THE COURT: All right, sir, it sounds like your attorneys, Mr. Pike and Mr. Cano, have thoroughly reviewed your legal issues and they're not required to file any frivolous motions or site any case law that does not apply to the argument you -- that you wanted them to make in the past.

You are now, as you know, your own attorney. You can file any motion to reconsideration whether I grant them or not, but you are free to file the appropriate motions.

And, sir, your motion to dismiss counsel that I have here and also for transcripts, do not have any points and authorities attached to the motion. Therefore, they're improper.

I advised you last time that if you -- if you did not follow the rules as you're supposed to that could be grounds for me to no longer allow you to represent yourself. You break the rules again, 3 I'm going to determine that you cannot follow the rules and therefore you'll have these gentleman who will represent you as 5 opposed to stand-by; do you understand that, sir? 6 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. 7 THE COURT: Okay. 8 THE DEFENDANT: So you're telling me today you're denying me 9 the right to have representation? 10 THE COURT: Sir, you heard by decision. All the legal claims 11

THE COURT: Sir, you heard by decision. All the legal claims that you've brought up were -- were reviewed and evaluated by two very seasoned attorneys. I'm denying your motion.

Your request for transcript, you need to set forth specific reasons why you need particular transcripts and which particular transcripts you do, in fact, want. So that motion is denied without prejudice. Okay.

We'll see you back at trial, sir. If you have any other motions, please file them appropriately.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Yes, sir.

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

CASE NO. C224572-2

DEPT. XVII

BEFORE THE HONORABLE DOUGLAS SMITH, DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 2011

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING RE:

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR COMPLETE ROUGH DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

APPEARANCES:

For the State:

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

DOMONIC RONALDO MALONE,

CHRISTOPHER LALLI

Deputy District Attorney

For the Defendant:

Pro Se

RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 2011

[Proceeding commenced at 8:19 a.m.]

THE COURT: C224572, Domonic Malone, present in custody with

MR. LALLI: Morning.

THE COURT: I don't have an opposition. This is Defendant's motion for complete rough draft transcript of co-defendant's trial.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, these have been available for months. They were dailies produced when the trial was ongoing last year.

I'm not sure why this pro per Defendant is putting a motion on in front of the Court.

Also, what's occurring if you see the second page of this motion, he actually put in a KITE to have the jail get him his transcripts which Judge Villani has admonished him before he can't do. It's incumbent upon him or an investigator that he has to obtain these transcripts. Not the jail.

THE COURT: You're not going to get any benefit that an attorney isn't given. And in your motion for the complete rough draft, you don't cite any law or any competent argument.

THE DEFENDANT: Well, Your Honor, I didn't write the jail a KITE. The KITE attached to the motion I --

THE COURT: I'm talking about the motion. The KITE --

THE DEFENDANT: I didn't --

THE COURT: You shouldn't be sending KITE's. KITE's aren't going to get you any where with it.

THE DEFENDANT: I didn't send a KITE to the jail. I sent the KITE to the -- the County Clerk because I had filed a motion --

THE COURT: That's not the way to do it with the County Clerk.

THE DEFENDANT: I know. It was just -- that was just for my records to say that I have written them. The paperwork saying -- 'cause I had sent motions to the County Clerk and they -- it was not filed 'cause I filed a memorandum to this Court. The Court never received it. So I was just letting the County Clerk know that it did not get filed with the Courts.

THE COURT: So by -- you think by mistake this motion for complete rough draft was a mistake putting it on?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. The motion for rough draft transcripts is for the daily trial transcripts that was ordered by the Judge Villani. At the time, I never received them though; that's all I put the motion in for I can't receive them 'cause I never did.

THE COURT: You didn't put any argument in your motion.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: You didn't serve it on State. Your -- you're representing yourself.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And you're not -- you're not following the rules.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I can only go by what the legal library sent. I filed a KITE --

THE COURT: So it's the legal library is -- is representing you?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. The legal library sent me information to file --

THE COURT: You chose to represent yourself, huh?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Huge mistake.

THE DEFENDANT: I know, sir. I do agree. I do agree, but what I have to do.

THE COURT: You want a lawyer?

THE DEFENDANT: I did. Not the ones I got now. No, sir.

THE COURT: You're wrong there too. Our contract attorneys are some of the better criminal attorneys in town, but that's up to you.

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. I have --

THE COURT: You got to follow the rules and if you don't follow the rules you're going -- you're going to be denied. And then you can't come back at the end and say, well, that's ineffective assistance. I have ineffective assistance 'cause I didn't know I was supposed to serve subpoenas and I didn't know I was supposed to file this motion and I didn't know -- oh, no, it's Clerk fault 'cause the motions didn't get put on.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I'm in jail based on -THE COURT: You think you're smarter than the system and --

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

THE COURT: -- the attorneys. Sure you do or you would have an attorney standing there next to you.

THE DEFENDANT: That's an issue with the County Judge on the stand, sir. That wasn't technically my choice. It's just that the choice that he left, left me [indecipherable], sir.

THE COURT: You chosen --

THE DEFENDANT: So I had to --

THE COURT: -- not to take one of the -- obviously, I haven't even looked at it. I don't have a dog in this fight, but I'm telling you it's a mistake. The Supreme Court will tell you it's a mistake for -- for you not to have an attorney, but that's your choice because this is a free Country. So you've chosen to do that. You don't want somebody that the -- that the Court will appoint. You don't want these guys that -- that practice law everyday handling your stuff. You want to do it yourself 'cause you think you're smarter than they are.

So, you file the proper motion and this Court will follow it. If you don't file a proper motion, this Court won't follow it. It's all I can tell you. Thanks.

MR. LALLI: So, motion denied?

THE COURT: Motion's denied.

MR. LALLI: Thank you.

THE DEFENDANT: So my motion for --

THE COURT: You didn't follow the proper motion. That can -- get with the law library.

THE DEFENDANT: No. Okay.

THE COURT: You're the one that wants a law degree where these guys are practicing law and have a degree and know what they're doing and you don't want to listen to them.

[Proceeding concluded at 8:24 a.m.]

ATTEST: I hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio/video proceedings in the above-entitled case to the best of my ability.

PIKE, ESQ., Stand-by counsel: 23 CHARLES A. CANO, ESQ., Special Public Defenders 24 RECORDED BY: MICHELLE L. RAMSEY, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 2011

[Proceeding commenced at 8:40 a.m.]

THE COURT: All right, Domonic Malone. Mr. Malone is present in custody, 2 -- C224572. We have Mr. Pike is present. He's one of the stand-by counsel --

MR. PIKE: That's correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- in this matter.

MR. PIKE: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Lalli for the State. Defendant's pro per motion for discovery of prosecutorial records, files and information necessary to a fair trial.

MR. LALLI: Your Honor, this is probably the third discovery motion he's filed in a -- in a fairly short period of time. To read through it, I mean, it's really a bunch of psycho-babble. It makes absolutely no sense.

He talks about specifically articulating those things that he wants at the beginning of his motion and he never gets to that during the body of the motion nor in the conclusion. So, we're really at a loss as to what he's requesting.

The Special Public Defender, they have been through our trial numerous times and have everything that we are in possession of, so we're really at a loss in terms of a response.

THE COURT: Mr. Malone, what do you want?

THE DEFENDANT: Okay, Your Honor. For the record, Your Honor

[Colloquy between stand-by counsel and Defendant]

THE COURT: Sir, after conferring with Mr. Pike, have you -can you tell me what you want in your motion?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes. Your Honor, I'm asking for the Courts to -- to have the Prosecutor follow the law. It states that they have to give me the discovery. They have not done so. They put the burden on the stand-by counsel for the stand-by counsel to give me the discovery and then they refer to as the arguments that I make prior to the private investigator to give me the discovery.

Your Honor, the private investigator and the stand-by counsel is not the -- what the law states that the Prosecutor's supposed to have done. It's the Prosecutor duties to hand me the discovery. Not push the burden off on the stand-by counsel or the private investigator.

In my hand for which -- for the record, in my hand what I am holding is what was provided to me in the Banker Box when you allowed the stand-by counsel to give me the discovery. In these documents is the document that's provided by Mr. Patrick Farrell [phonetic] and it's a lot of duplicates up in this. It's not complete evidence impound report.

Now, if I've known directly was missing, only thing I can say is that up in these reports it's just a bunch of duplicates to make it seem like it's complete impound report sheet. It's not, sir. I have it right here in my hand.

Also --

THE COURT: Is this funny, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: No. No. No. No. Something else is funny.

I'm not -- I'm trying not to be mad in this situation, just articulate. Just best way I can, Your Honor.

each individual that's involved in this case. Apartment 217 had some cell phones taken away from Apartment 217. The apartment taken from my -- a cell phone was taken from Donald Herb. A cell phone was taken to -- from Jason McCarty. A cell phone, an ounce of dope was taken from my car. This I know personally because none of these phones nor the ounce of dope appear into the evidence impound report.

Also, reason why I believe that is not in the evidence impound report, sir, because on the tape that was taken of the preliminary hearing and -- on June 19th, 2006 where Melissa Estores comes in to testify, she -- you know, it's a video that shows her best friend being intoxicated at that time. Reason why that's important, I bring this up to this Court today and why this is discoverable material because the missing items that's from the evidence impound report only can speak about the things that I know of.

THE COURT: Okay, sir, you're arguing some of the facts of the case. What items, what documents do you want?

THE DEFENDANT: I want the complete discovery, sir.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: I want the --

THE COURT: Hang on. Mr. Lalli, have you turned over the discovery either to Mr. Malone's investigator or Mr. Pike who in turn, turn it over to Mr. Malone? Have you handed a complete copy of the discovery to the Defendant?

MR. LALLI: Well, I haven't handed a complete copy of anything to the Defendant. On numerous occasions before I was involved in the case and after, I know that Mr. Pike and Mr. Cano have come over to our office, they've reviewed our files. Mr. DiGiacomo has always given them anything that they believe that they were missing.

Mr. Pike is an extremely meticulous attorney. He has a very good handle of the -- the boxes and boxes of discovery in this case. I'm fully confident that if there was something that Mr. Pike did not have, he would have requested it or erred on the side of caution and -- and obtained it.

It almost seems -- so I'm confident they have everything, investigators. Whoever the Defendant wants to send other than the Defendant himself, of course, to review our files, they're more than welcome to do that.

It almost sounds when the Defendant talks about some videotape from the preliminary hearing at Justice Court, I don't know -- I've never seen that. It's my belief we don't have any such videotape. It's almost as though he wants us to be his investigator for him and go out and get things for him; that's not our responsibility. He has an investigator to do that. We can provide him the discovery we have, but we're not going to investigate his case for him.

THE COURT: Mr. Pike or Mr. Cano, is everything that the State has turned over to you been turned over to Mr. Malone?

MR. PIKE: Your Honor, I went through and did an inventory because we want to make sure that the client had a copy of everything. We did an inventory of all the discovery that was received, provided a list of the inventory, asked Mr. Malone to indicate the items that he did not have and then made certain that he had a copy of everything that we had.

And we've gone through and have -- not only did we need them to go through and do everything as we do normally which is meet with the -- the District Attorney's Office and meet with the detective to determine whether or not we have gone through the detective's folder or file or notebook rather. And so we did all that.

In addition to that, we obtained copies of the daily transcripts from the trial of the Co-defendant and provided them to Mr. Wysocki who is Mr. Malone's investigator. If he -- if he is not articulating, what I think he is wanting is the cell phones that were impounded to be processed for any text messages or any recording -- recorded messages, but that from the brief conference that I had with him, that's what I believe that he is trying to articulate.

THE COURT: The inventory of documents that you've received and have turned over to Mr. Malone, does that inventory contain any privilege communication or attorney-work product?

MR. PIKE: I can redact that if you want me to.

THE COURT: Is this what -- 'cause Mr. Malone seems -- Mr. Malone, you seem to make some generalities of what you're missing or not and if -- if Mr. Pike has prepared an inventory of all documents you have, then the State can better address any further request you have, but right now it's all generalities and I don't know what you want me to order at this point.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I'm -- I'm trying to articulate to this Court in general that I did not receive my complete discovery. It's my understanding of what the NRS and what the law states that it's the Prosecutors [indecipherable] to the defense, Your Honor. I am the defense. They came up with many excuses why I cannot get that -- the discovery; saying its in audio disc. It's video conference and different material. So that they're saying that the jail would not allow me to have.

So it's a lot of bulk of discovery that I did not see, Your Honor. It's a lot of bulk discovery that I need to see in order to prepare myself properly for trial. I cannot properly defend myself if I don't know what I'm defending myself against, Your Honor. So in a general, I ask in a general as any other attorney would ask for, Your Honor, is for the Prosecutor to just hand over the discovery for which they have; that's in their possession.

THE COURT: They handed over to the stand-by counsel who have in turn handed it over to you.

THE DEFENDANT: That's what I'm telling this Court, Your Honor, the stand-by counsel only handed me a certain portion of the materials of which they had that was on paper, Your Honor. They did not hand over the complete discovery which all the documents they have because some of the stuff they need to be transcribed and it's on disc. So I cannot say that they had given me everything 'cause they did not, Your Honor.

My understanding of that is that it's not their job to do so. Just like it's not the job of the Prosecutor -- I mean, the private investigator to do so whom I haven't seen in five months, Your Honor. I don't know what's going in this case. I have been blinded in this case for 15 months now.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, sir, you're the one that selected or through some suggestions --

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: -- Mr. Wysocki. So what you need to do is contact him and find out why he's not coming down to speak with you.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I have no way of contacting Mr. Wysocki at all. I have made that --

THE COURT: You don't have his phone number?

THE DEFENDANT: Sir, the phone system is set up differently in the jail now. The phone doesn't go through, sir -- Your Honor.

THE COURT: You send him a letter? You have his address?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

THE COURT: You don't have an address for him?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. Never had an address for Mr. Wysocki at all, sir.

MR. CANO: We did send Mr. Wysocki an email that Mr. Malone wanted to get in contact with him and provide us an address so we can provide it to Mr. Malone. I haven't -- he hasn't responded.

MR. PIKE: And Mr. Wysocki did come over and pursuant to his appointment as investigator, he has -- he's had complete access to all of our files.

THE DEFENDANT: So --

MR. CANO: And if we need to burn some discs for him so Mr. Wysocki has access to provide it for Mr. Malone we're more than happy to do that. I do believe we had provided some of the discs that Mr. Malone maybe speaking about to Mr. Wysocki, but in case that there, you know, is any mistakes we can make sure that we run another copy for him.

THE COURT: Mr. Malone, your motion -- we need to have more specificity, just set forth some general allegation of discovery.

Mr. Pike and Mr. Cano, again if you feel comfortable for some way to redact the inventory of documents, I don't know that that would be attorney-client privilege, just to say we gave you these police reports and forensic reports, whatever that maybe. And can make -- I'm assuming Mr. Malone has a copy. If not, if you can give him a copy of your inventory list. Give a State a copy.

And, sir, I'm going to deny your motion as is without prejudice. You can refile with more specificity as far as specifically what you're saying that Mr. Pike did not hand over to you.

THE DEFENDANT: But, Your Honor, for the record, you asking me to do something that's impossible to do. I cannot tell you something what I expect to know 'cause I don't -- I'm in jail, sir.

THE COURT: Well, sir --

THE DEFENDANT: I haven't been able to see nothing.

THE COURT: -- well, listen. Mr. Pike has inventory list and it's I don't know probably twenty, fifty or a hundred items on it and you can file a motion and say that Mr. Pike is not being truthful to me and didn't give you item number 90 and if he didn't give you item number 90, we'll make sure you get it.

THE DEFENDANT: So --

I just can't believe that Mr. Pike or Mr. Cano THE COURT: prepared a fraudulent inventory sheet and say they gave you documents and when they didn't.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, for the record I have no intentions on sitting her in this courtroom wasting the Court's time and lying on Mr. Pike or Mr. Cano about saying something that they did do that they didn't. That would be me committing perjury on the stand and wasting the Court's time and my time, sir.

For the record, this is -- I'm only telling you what is going on to my understanding of what I have. If I have to bring this whole box back myself to show you every item that's in the box that was given to me for that report to show you that I am telling the truth --

THE COURT: Well, sir, listen.

THE DEFENDANT: -- that that's what I have to do, sir.

THE COURT: File a motion with specifics. You're going to have a list of inventory of items and if you believe that some of those items were not provided to you, then put that in your motion. It's all I'm telling you.

MR. CANO: For example, if I'm missing X report, I'm missing this report or I'm missing this statement, I'm missing this thing; I think that's what the Court is telling you give specific examples of what you think you're missing.

THE DEFENDANT: But how is it for me to authenticate what I'm supposed to be missing if I can't --

THE COURT: Well, sir, you're going to need -- you know, that's one of the problems --

THE DEFENDANT: I don't --

THE COURT: -- sir, listen. That's one of the problems of you representing yourself. We've gone over this every time and majority of motions we get into the same issues here that they're not really well thought out and you have issues here because you are representing yourself and that is one of the down sides of doing that.

Every time you've been in Court, I think you've -- I've brought this to your attention, this is why it was I think in my opinion a bad decision for you to represent yourself; that's your right. You're entitled to do that. You're going to have to follow rules. If Mr. Pike is representing someone on any other case, he would have to articulate to the Court specific documents the State has not turned over. You are under the same rules as an attorney.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. So what I'm telling you is, your motion is denied without prejudice. Please refile it with specificity.

Mr. Pike, if you can please give Mr. Malone --

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, not to --

THE COURT: -- listen.

MR. PIKE: I will. I'll provide it to Mr. Wysocki also.

MR. CANO: And, Judge --

THE COURT: And also if you can give copy to Mr. Lalli.

Again, please redact anything you feel would be attorney-client privilege, but basically I'm assuming it's going to be a list of hundred things. You say, this is what I turned over to you.

MR. CANO: And, Your Honor, I think Mr. Malone had mentioned or I think Mr. Lalli had mentioned a videotape from the preliminary hearing. To my understanding, in Henderson when we did the preliminary hearing, everything was transcribed and we do have transcripts of that that had been provided to Mr. Malone.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor --

MR. CANO: There was a film crew though, an independent film crew that was filming the entire preliminary hearing. They were doing a documentary on our office regarding several cases. They decided not to pursue this case as part of the documentary. We have been in contact with them and trying to get a hold of that videotape 'cause they videotaped all the witnesses and unfortunately they weren't willing to turn over that videotape to us. So we have made contact with them.

THE COURT: Okay. That's something, sir, that you can subpoena the TV station or what have you to obtain the documents.

MR. CANO: It's a French company.

THE COURT: Whatever.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor --

THE COURT: It's not the State's responsibility when some independent company videotaped the proceeding.

THE DEFENDANT: The reason why I brought that up, Your Honor, for the record, for the State because Marc DiGiacomo and Christopher Oram was the one who was mike'd [phonetic] up at the time. It wasn't --

THE COURT: Okay, sir, they don't -- they weren't in control of the cameras. They don't have them. You need to file the appropriate motions and have the appropriate subpoenas served on whatever individual. 1 THE DEFENDANT: Also, Your Honor --2 3 THE COURT: Okay. THE DEFENDANT: -- I have --4 THE COURT: Sir, we're done. Please refile your motion with 5 6 more specificity. THE DEFENDANT: But, Your Honor, for the record, I wasn't 7 finished making my record though. 8 THE COURT: Okay. 9 I'm not trying to --THE DEFENDANT: 10 THE COURT: No. We're done now. Your motion did not have 11 enough specificity. You're under the same rules as Mr. Pike and I 12 would tell Mr. Pike to refile the motion if he's filed a general 13 motion without specificity. We're done. 14 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, but --15 THE COURT: We're done. 16 THE DEFENDANT: -- can I finish making my record? 17 THE COURT: We're done. Put it in writing. 18 THE DEFENDANT: All right. 19 [Proceeding concluded at 8:57 a.m.] 20 21 I hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio/video proceedings in the above entitled case 23 to the best of my ability. 24
