PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS NRS 34.150 ET SEQ

Comes Now, the Petitioner, Frank M. Peck pro se hereinafter Mr. Peck with his Petition for writ of pleas file in this case as well as the attached points and authorities and affidavit of Mr. Peck.

Points and Authorities

Mr. Peck filed a motion to recuse Judge Elliott A Sattler on June 25 2015 for implied bias. The District Attorney Terrance McCarthy Esq filed a request for an answer to the motion for recusal on July 2, 2015, on June 30th 2015 the district court filed an order "DENYING" Mr. Peck's motion for extension of time (first request).

To date the district court has not complied with NRS 1.235 (a) or (b) and continues to file orders and ignore the statute, without jurisdiction to do so.

A writ of mandamus is available to control an arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion Barnes v. Eighth Judicial Dist Court ex rel County of Clark, 103 Nev 679 248 P.2d 483 1987 Nev Lexis 1899 (1997).

Writ to issue when no plain, speedy and adequate remedy in law, NRS 34.170.

The lower court has manifestly abused its discretion exercised arbitrarily and capriciously, when in its April 15 2015 ORDER at pg 4 lines 7-8 Holding Petitioner "to the same standards as Any other person practicing in this department." Id.

In the courts ORDER of 6-30-15 "Denying Mr. Peck's (FIRST REQUEST) for EXTENSION OF TIME while "NOTING" a) pg 2 fw 1 "The Court notes the Petitioner filed the Amendment on June 24 2015, which did not conform to the April Order."

Mr. Peck filed a timely motion for extension of time" on June 2 2015 the district court Judge after being served with the MOTION TO RECUSE denied Mr. Peck's Motion for Extension of time intentionally to make Mr Peck's Petition late / untimely, confirming apparent bias.

This court in its UNPUBLISHED OPINION TIFFANY v STATE LEXIS 876 Citing Hargrove v State 100 Nev 498 507-03 686 P2d 222,225 (1984) And NRS chapter 34 does Not contain [ANY] page limits. Concluding the district court abused its discretion in denying the petition because it was longer than 20 PAGES.

As such, an abuse of discretion exists and the WRIT SHOULD ISSUE Building & Constr Trades
Counsel v. State ex rel Pub Works Bd 108 Nev
605, 836 P.2d 633 1992 Nev LEXIS 130 (1992).

The lower court ordered Mr. Peck to raise all grounds for relief-restricting Mr. Peck to 35 pages. The issues Mr. Peck raises are "technically involved." Mr. Peck in good faith moved the court for an extension of the page limit set by the court on May 14 2015 this motion was also denied by the district court leaving Mr. Peck no choice but to file the reasonably sized document that he had perfected a total of 131 pages. Mr. Peck has a plastic needle guide in his writing hand left there by Valley Hospital and makes writing very painful and outright cruel. Mr. Peck has proceeded in good faith and the same cannot be said of the lower court.

Conclusion

Mr. Peck seeks an ORDER from this court recusing the lower court judge and striking the ORDERS lacking jurisdiction and contrary to the laws of this state namely NRS chapter 34 and NRCP 6(b).
