ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY [Signature] DEPUTY CLERK

MOTION TO APPOINT COUNSEL

Comes now the petitioner in Solitary Confinement pro se, and moves the Court for an order appointing him counsel for the foregoing proceedings. Parham v. Marshall, 120 F.3d 454.

This motion is based upon all documents in the original record and/or appellate record herein, NRAP 46(c) and the following. U.C.C.. N.D.C.C.. record for review.

This Court may "appoint counsel to represent indigent criminal defendants and indigent habeas corpus petitioners in original proceedings" before it. NRAP 46(c). See also George v. State, 122 Nev. 1, 127 P.3d 1055 (2006) (Court may remand case to district court for appointment of counsel for appeal).

Appointment would properly promote justice herein, as (1) the issues at bar are complex, (2) the movant is financially unable to obtain counsel at his own expense, and (3) the issues presented in this matter are meritorious and entitle movant to relief. (Check if applicable)  There are additional or expanded reasons supporting appointment of counsel attached hereto on additional page(s), which are incorporated as if set

1 forth herein. These factors demonstrate the propriety of
2 appointment of counsel herein. See e.g. NRS 34.750(1) (examples
3 of criteria warranting appointment of counsel in habeas corpus
4 proceedings). See Redman, 108 Nev. 240, 84 L.E.D.2d.
5 58. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should order
6 the appointment of counsel for and in relation to the instant
7 proceedings. 2011 U.S. Dist. Lexis 13217 (2011).
