

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

JACK LEAL,
Appellant,
vs.
CALVIN JOHNSON, WARDEN,
Respondent.

No. 83451

FILED

JAN 07 2022

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

When this court granted respondent's first motion requesting a 90-day extension of time to file the answering brief, it stated that no further extensions would be granted absent demonstration of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. Respondent's counsel has now filed a motion requesting an additional 30-day extension to file the answering brief. Counsel cites his caseload and leave that is scheduled to begin after the date the answering brief is to be filed. Counsel fails to demonstrate extraordinary circumstances and extreme need to warrant further extension. However, because counsel avers that appellant's counsel does not oppose the request, the motion is granted in this instance only.

Respondent shall have until February 3, 2022, to file and serve the answering brief. No further extensions shall be granted absent demonstration of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions against respondent's counsel. NRAP 31(d).

It is so ORDERED.
