CASE SUMMARY

CASE NO. C-20-350623-1

Events: 03/29/2021 Notice of Motion

State's Notice of Motion and Motion in Limine to Admit Certain Evidence Under the Doctrine of Res Gestae, or in the Alternative State's Motion to Admit Evidence Related to Other Crimes

Matter Continued;

Granted;

Journal Entry Details:

Court stated it was inclined under the Doctrine of Res Gestae to allow certain videos and photos since the only way Detective Byrd was able to prepare the Declaration of Arrest was from the identity of the other burglaries. Further, the Court stated its concern about the body cam footage due to the nature of the angle which could prejudice the Defendant; Court will preview before ruling on the footage. Additionally, Court stated it is okay with the State sanitizing the footage as indicated in the Motion. Mr. Brooks confirmed the directions of the Court regarding the sanitization of the photos. Mr. Fischer argued that this creates the same problem as indicated in the defense's Motion and the reason a severance was requested. Further, Mr. Fischer argued that although this detective is not related to the case, having history with the Defendant as he was investigating another issue related to the Defendant, he is the only detective that can put the Defendant into the situation. Additionally, Mr. Fischer argued the severance appropriately addressed the issue; however, the issue is being limited and an issue of prejudice is created and is violating the Defendant's due process rights. Court stated the prejudice is being removed since the State has agreed to sanitize them and limited their witnesses. Further arguments by counsel regarding order of trial. CLERK'S NOTE: The above minute order was prepared from the review of JAVS. //cj 04/21/21;

Status Check (8:30 AM) (Judicial Officer: Trujillo, Monica)

Status Check: Counts

Matter Heard;

Journal Entry Details:

Court stated this matter is for the status check regarding order of trial. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Brooks advised DC 10 sent this matter back to DC 3 to decide the order of trial. Mr. Fischer requested the last two counts in the Indictment, Counts 24 and 25 go first and argued that since the evidence in those two counts are non-existent but for the fact that there will now be an opportunities to bring sanitized pictures related to identification into evidence. Further, Mr. Fischer argued the evidence is much weaker in that case, there is a higher possibility of obtaining an acquittal on those counts and the issue of prejudice to the Defendant that would be created related to the images. Additionally, Mr. Fischer argued from a judicial economy, it would be more practical to get the first trial completed before the more lengthy trial and advised of a possible scheduling conflict with another matter in Federal Court in Reno on May 3. Mr. Brooks argued in support of hearing the portion of the trial with the 22 counts first thus, eliminating continuing the appearances of the witnesses. Further arguments by counsel regarding the Defendant's due process rights. Colloquy regarding the number of witnesses and the length of trial. COURT stated it FINDS, the witness issue concerning and there would be no prejudice to the Defendant to hear the burglary counts first since the counts have been separated and ORDERED, the two burglary counts will go first and the attempt murder to follow. Court reminded Mr. Brook to submit the Order from the April 14, 2021 hearing regarding Res Gestae. CLERK'S NOTE: The above minutes were completed by a review of JAVS. //cj 04/21/21. ;

- Court stated it was inclined under the Doctrine of Res Gestae to allow certain videos and photos since the only way Detective Byrd was able to prepare the Declaration of Arrest was from the identity of the other burglaries. Further, the Court stated its concern about the body cam footage due to the nature of the angle which could prejudice the Defendant; Court will preview before ruling on the footage. Additionally, Court stated it is okay with the State sanitizing the footage as indicated in the Motion. Mr. Brooks confirmed the directions of the Court regarding the sanitization of the photos. Mr. Fischer argued that this creates the same problem as indicated in the defense's Motion and the reason a severance was requested. Further, Mr. Fischer argued that although this detective is not related to the case, having history with the Defendant as he was investigating another issue related to the Defendant, he is the only detective that can put the Defendant into the situation. Additionally, Mr. Fischer argued the severance appropriately addressed the issue; however, the issue is being limited and an issue of prejudice is created and is violating the Defendant's due process rights. Court stated the prejudice is being removed since the State has agreed to sanitize them and limited their witnesses. Further arguments by counsel regarding order of trial.

- Court stated this matter is for the status check regarding order of trial. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Brooks advised DC 10 sent this matter back to DC 3 to decide the order of trial. Mr. Fischer requested the last two counts in the Indictment, Counts 24 and 25 go first and argued that since the evidence in those two counts are non-existent but for the fact that there will now be an opportunities to bring sanitized pictures related to identification into evidence. Further, Mr. Fischer argued the evidence is much weaker in that case, there is a higher possibility of obtaining an acquittal on those counts and the issue of prejudice to the Defendant that would be create related to the images. Additionally, Mr. Fischer argued from a judicial economy, it would be more practical to get the first trial completed before the more lengthy trial and advised of a possible scheduling conflict with another matter in Federal Court in Reno on May 3. Mr. Brooks argued in support of hearing the portion of the trial with the 22 counts first thus, eliminating continuing the appearances of the witnesses. Further arguments by counsel regarding the Defendant's due process rights. Colloquy regarding the number of witnesses and the length of trial. COURT stated it FINDS, the witness issue concerning and there would be no prejudice to the Defendant to hear the burglary counts first since the counts have been separated and ORDERED, the two burglary counts will go first and the attempt murder to follow. Court reminded Mr. Brook to submit the Order from the April 14, 2021 hearing regarding Res Gestae.
