26 NOTICE OF APPEAL TO AND RESPONSE TO JANUARY 19TH, 2024

27 Notice is hereby given that the innocent man, Matthew Travis Houston, 28 by and through himself in proper person, does now appeal to the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada, the malicious and erroneous 29 opinion of Jennifer L.G. Schwartz entered January 19, 2024. The Court is hereby reminded that Jennifer L.G. Schwartz is a Defendant in the 30 above titled actions retroactive from before September 2024 to 2016. Under the Points and Authorities See Attached Memorandum of actual innocence

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES PURSUANT
TO EDCR 2.20:
CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE VIA USPS AND
STATEMENT OF FACTS: Kidnapped from his home in

1. Iowa City, Iowa,

2. On July 14, 2021, MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON (hereinafter "Plaintiff-in-Error/
Petitioner-Appellant")

3 was abducted from his hotel room at the Best Western located out of state at 3041
4 St. Rose Parkway in Henderson, Nevada, as he was not served with any sort of 5 summons or WARRANT, nor was told or read that he had any kind of rights. This 6 false arrest prevented Petitioner-Appellant from attending his appointment the very
7 next day at Nevada Retina Specialists, with Dr. Tyson Ward on July 15, 2021, while 8 this continued imprisonment of his person also prevented him from attending his medical
9 disability rating in Reno, Nevada, on August 15, 2021, with Dr. Dwagleri. Both appointments
10 of which had been scheduled by the abductors, SEDAWICK's Dianne Ferrante, and her
11 alleged supervisor, Rosemarie McMorris-Alexander, as was the booking of his room.

12 The Petitioner-Appellant's attempt at release from CAGE was intended so that he could 13 search for, and hopefully, retrieve his service animals. However, the now-dismissed counsel, J.
14 Wood & Bernard Little, provided misinformation regarding the lack of a directly related "City Jail
15 Detainer Hold". Counsel had told Petitioner-Appellant, all the while coercing his client into a 16 potential release from custody, that he "did not see a detainer hold" - when, in fact, there was.
17 This coercion of the client by his previous representation created a second double-jeopardy -
18 in LAS VEGAS MUNICIPAL COURT #C1248374A + #C1237802A; with the first being by J. Wood
19 in the EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT 21-CR-019840 + 21-CR-035713 and JUSTICE COURT, LAS VEGAS
20 TOWNSHIP. These traumatic events are a cruel and unusual punishment being inflicted upon an abused

21 and innocent man, who was forced into an involuntary relocation, with unnecessary hardships
22 causing the eviction of his law office located at 435 South Lion Street #927, in Iowa
23 City, Iowa (52240), irreparable property damage and the destruction of his K-9(s).

24 Due to crimes both civil and criminal, not to mention the willful omissions of Rosemarie
25 McMorris-Alexander and Dianne Ferrante, SEDAWICK and the prosecutions' most unlawful use
26 of overreaching tactics ~~in~~ their exploitation of the innocent man has put the Petitioner-Appellant
27 into an unmanageable state of duress, homelessness, and extensive incarceration. Neither
28 Anthony M. Goldstein or Alexis M. Dwecker visited the innocent man, 29 as they neglected their duty to respond to Mr. Houston's legal 30 mail or Mr. Houston's legal telephone calls. NRC(P 5(b) exemption see Gluth v. Kangas, supra: -invoked ex parte-

HEARINGS

10/25/2022  Minute Order (3:00 AM) (Judicial Officer: Johnson, Eric)

Minute Order - No Hearing Held;

Journal Entry Details:

Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss, Motion for More Definite Statement, and Motion to Strike on September 21, 2022. The matter was subsequently scheduled for hearing on October 27, 2022. No opposition having been filed and good cause showing, pursuant to EDCR 2.20(e) and EDCR 2.23(c) the Court hereby GRANTS Defendant's Motion. Specifically, the Court finds that Plaintiff's Complaint does not properly identify any cause of action, nor does the Complaint satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCP 8(a). Instead, a review of Plaintiff's Complaint shows that it is a compilation of various court documents and filings, which include, among other things, a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-conviction), a direct appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court for Case No. C-21-357927-1, and a Motion for the Production of Records from Las Vegas Fire and Rescue. While the Court recognizes that Plaintiff is proceeding pro se, "a pro se litigant cannot use his alleged ignorance as a shield to protect him from the consequences of failing to comply with basic procedural requirements." Rodriguez v. Fiesta Palms, LLC, 134 Nev. 654, 659, 428 P.3d 255, 259 (2018). Consequently, the Court GRANTS Defendant's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint. The Court hereby VACATES the October 27, 2022 hearing and all future hearing dates in this matter. Counsel for Defendant is directed to prepare a proposed order and submit it to chambers for signature. Counsel is directed to email a word and pdf copy of the proposed order to dc20inbox@clarkcountycourts.us. CLERK S NOTE: This Minute Order was electronically served to all registered parties for Odyssey File & Serve and US mailed to: Matthew Houston, #1210652, PO Box 650, Indian Springs, NV 89070. 10-25-22 khm;

 Journal Entry Details:
Court advised it dismissed this case, by minute order, on October 25, 2022 because Plaintiff's complaint failed to identify a cause of action and the instant motion does not request reconsideration of the previous order dismissing the case. Instead the Motion requests the Court sanction Bernstein and Posin for failing to send Plaintiff's file; however, they are not a party in this matter. A Notice of Appeal was also filed in this case on November 23, 2022; thus, the Court does not have jurisdiction. Therefore, COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. ;

 Journal Entry Details:
Emergency Motion for Leave to File an Amended Complaint, Motion to Stay Original Complaint, and Notice of Formal Objection(s) to Response from Original Defendant No. 4 This matter was dismissed back on October 25, 2022. The Court found that Plaintiff s Complaint did not properly identify a cause of action, nor did the Complaint satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCP 8(a). After a review of the present Motion, the Court is unsure what Plaintiff is requesting. Plaintiff makes numerous accusations concerning judicial officials and other attorneys within Southern Nevada, but does not cite to any legal authority to back up his claims. Consequently, the Court cannot grant the relief Plaintiff is requesting. Further, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal in this case on November 23, 2022. Accordingly, this Court does not have jurisdiction over this case. See Smith v. Emery, 109 Nev. 737, 741, 856 P.2d 1386, 1389 (1993). Emergency Ex Parte Motion for an Extension of Time to Prepare and File an Opposition to Defendant s Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff s Motion seeks an extension of time to prepare and file an Opposition to a Motion to Dismiss. However, after a review of the file, the Court finds that there is no pending Motion to Dismiss in the instant case. Consequently, Plaintiff is asking for relief that this Court cannot grant him. Further, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal in this case on November 23, 2022. Accordingly, this Court does not have jurisdiction over this case. See Smith v. Emery, 109 Nev. 737, 741, 856 P.2d 1386, 1389 (1993). Plaintiff's Motion is titled as a Motion to Leave to add new defendants. However, the Motion contains no substantive legal argument as to why the Motion should be granted. Instead, the Motion merely contains a Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. The Court also notes that this matter was dismissed back on October 25, 2022 due to Plaintiff s failure to properly identify a cause of action and satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCP 8(a). Consequently, Plaintiff is asking for relief that this Court cannot grant him. Further, Plaintiff

 Journal Entry Details:
*Plaintiff filed his Renewed Ex Parte Emergency Motion to Add Defendant Tierra Danielle Jones and Notice of Default on March 8, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on April 12, 2023. After considering the pleadings and argument of counsel, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion. As a threshold matter, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion as it does not have jurisdiction. "[A] timely notice of appeal divests the district court of jurisdiction to act." Rust v. Clark Cnty. Sch. Dist., 103 Nev. 686, 688, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987). In this case, a notice of appeal was filed on September 8, 2023 and November 23, 2022. As a result, this Court cannot rule on Plaintiff's Motion because it does not have jurisdiction. Alternatively, if it is determined that Plaintiff's Notices of Appeal do not divest this Court of jurisdiction due to the unconventional way that Plaintiff titles his Motions (i.e., including the case numbers from eight other cases in the caption), the Court will address the merits of Plaintiff's Motion below. In this case, the Court entered an Order Dismissing Plaintiff's Case on October 31, 2022. As a result, for Plaintiff to continue litigating his case, he must seek relief from judgment under NRCP 60(b). Rule 60(b) provides: "On motion and just terms, the court may relieve a party or its legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief." Here, Plaintiff has failed to cite to Rule 60(b) or any other legal authority that would justify this Court to allow Plaintiff to add Tierra Jones as a Defendant to this litigation. Instead, Plaintiff's Motion merely lists a series of names that this Court can only assume that Plaintiff would like to add to one of his pending cases. Consequently, the Court denies Plaintiff's Motion. CLERK'S NOTE: The above minute order has been distributed to: Matthew Houston #1210652, HDSP, PO Box 650, Indian Springs, NV 89070. 4.10.23khhm;*

Minute Order - No Hearing Held;

Journal Entry Details:

Plaintiff filed his Motion for Reconsideration to Vacate Order on March 27, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on May 3, 2023. After considering the pleadings and argument of counsel, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration. As a threshold matter, the Court denies Plaintiff's Motion as it does not have jurisdiction. "[A] timely notice of appeal divests the district court of jurisdiction to act." Rust v. Clark Cnty. Sch. Dist., 103 Nev. 686, 688, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987). In this case, a notice of appeal was filed on September 8, 2022 and November 23, 2022. As a result, this Court cannot rule on Plaintiff's Motion because it does not have jurisdiction. Alternatively, if it is determined that Plaintiff's Notices of Appeal do not divest this Court of jurisdiction due to the unconventional way that Plaintiff titles his Motions (i.e., including the case numbers from eight other cases in the caption), the Court will address the merits of Plaintiff's Motion below. A court may only "reconsider a previously decided issue if substantially different evidence is subsequently introduced or the decision is clearly erroneous." Masonry & Tile Contrs. v. Jolley, Urga & Wirth Ass'n, 113 Nev. 737, 741, 941 P.2d 486, 489 (1997). "Only in very rare instances in which new issues of fact or law are raised supporting a ruling contrary to the ruling already reached should a motion for rehearing be granted." Moore v. City of Las Vegas, 92 Nev. 402, 405, 551 P.2d 244, 246 (1976). A motion to reconsider is not a vehicle to "rehash[] old arguments" and is not meant to "give an unhappy litigant one additional chance to sway the judge." Phillips v. C.R. Bard, Inc., 290 F.R.D. 615, 670 (D. Nev. 2013). Here, Plaintiff requests that this Court reconsider its Order granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. In that Order, the Court found that Plaintiff's Complaint was defective as a matter of law as the Complaint was merely a compilation of various court documents and filings, which included, among other things, a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-conviction), a direct appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court of Case No. C-21-357927-1, and a Motion for the Production of Records from Las Vegas Fire and Rescue. The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's Complaint, and reaffirms its prior decision that his Complaint does not satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCP 8(a). Consequently, Plaintiff has not shown that the Court's October 31, 2022 Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss was clearly erroneous. As a result, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration. EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

CASE SUMMARY

CASE NO. A-22-856372-C

Journal Entry Details:

Plaintiff filed his Emergency Motion to Add Defendant Kristina Rhoades as a Defendant on June 29, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on August 2, 2023. After considering the pleadings and arguments of the parties, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion. In this case, the Court entered an Order Dismissing Plaintiff's Case on October 31, 2022. As a result, for Plaintiff to continue litigating his case, he must seek relief from judgment under NRCPC 60(b). Rule 60(b) provides: "On motion and just terms, the court may relieve a party or its legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief." Here, Plaintiff has failed to cite to Rule 60(b) or any other legal authority that would justify this Court to allow Plaintiff to add Kristina Rhoades as a Defendant to this litigation. Instead, Plaintiff's Motion merely indicates that he plans to seek a default judgment against Kristina Rhoades. Yet, this plainly does not satisfy Rule 60(b)'s requirements. Consequently, the Court denies Plaintiff's Motion and the August 2, 2023 hearing is vacated. CLERK'S NOTE: The above minute order has been distributed to: Matthew Houston #1210652, PO Box 650, Indian Springs, NV 89070. 8/2/23khm;

Plaintiff filed his Emergency Motion for Transportation of Inmate for Court Appearance on August 23, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on October 11, 2023. After considering the pleadings and argument of counsel, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion. Plaintiff's Motion requests to be transported for a Court appearance before this Court on August 10, 2023 and August 15, 2023. The hearing for this Motion was set for October 11, 2023, which is well after the August 15, 2023 hearing. Consequently, this Motion is denied as moot. Plaintiff filed a Motion for New Trials Under NRCPC 60 Emergency Motion and Order for Transportation on October 18, 2023. No opposition has been filed. The matter was subsequently scheduled for hearing on November 22, 2023. After considering the pleadings and arguments of the parties, the Court hereby DENIES Petitioner's Motion. Pursuant to NRCPC 60 (b) a party may be entitled to relief from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief. The Court finds Petitioner presented no new evidence in its motion for reconsideration. The Petitioner's motion includes Plaintiff's request for transportation to hearings, Petitioner's information regarding his prior documentation regarding Plaintiff's Request/List of Additional Defendants, Petitioner's Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, Petitioner's requests for Brady discovery and other discovery information, Plaintiff's section of the Plaintiff's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Petitioner's Motion for Modification of Sentence filed in September of 2023. As Petitioner states no facts which could support a granting of a new trial under NRCPC 60, the Court Denies

Minute Order (1:25 PM) (Judicial Officer: Johnson, Eric)

Minute Order - No Hearing Held;

Journal Entry Details:

Petitioner filed an Emergency Motion to Add Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades as an Expedited on October 19, 2023. No opposition has been filed and the matter was subsequently scheduled for hearing on November 22, 2023. After reviewing the arguments and pleadings of counsel, the Court hereby DENIES the Petitioner's Motion to Add Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades as an Expedited. Pursuant to NRCP 15, any amendment to a filing a party may amend its pleading only with the opposing party's written consent or the court's leave. Such amendments must be made within the time remaining to respond to the original pleading or within 14 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever is later. Here, the Petitioner's case was opened on August 3, 2022. The Petitioner's Complaint was further dismissed on October 31, 2022. The Motion to Amend the complaint to include a defendant is therefore, untimely under NRCP 15 and is therefore, Denied. Pursuant to NRCP 55 and EDCR 2.70, a default judgment may be taken by a plaintiff against a non-answering defendant only if accompanied by an affidavit, based on personal knowledge which set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence and would avoid mere general conclusions or argument. EDCR 2.70. The Motion filed by Petitioner merely states that Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades should take notice of the Petitioner's intent to enter default against Defendant. However, there is no support for Petitioner's Notice of Intent to file Default against Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades, of specific note, Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades has not been served. Therefore, Petitioner's Motion is Denied as it pertains to any default being taken against Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades. The Court hereby VACATES the November 22, 2023 hearing. Counsel for Defendant is directed to prepare a proposed order and to circulate it to opposing counsel for approval as to form and content before submitting it to chambers for signature. - Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss, Motion for More Definite Statement, and Motion to Strike on September 21, 2022. The matter was subsequently scheduled for hearing on October 27, 2022.

No opposition having been filed and good cause showing, pursuant to EDCR 2.20(e) and EDCR 2.23(c) the Court hereby GRANTS Defendant's Motion.

Specifically, the Court finds that Plaintiff's Complaint does not properly identify any cause of action, nor does the Complaint satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCP 8(a). Instead, a review of Plaintiff's Complaint shows that it is a compilation of various court documents and filings, which include, among other things, a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-conviction), a direct appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court for Case No. C-21-357927-1, and a Motion for the Production of Records from Las Vegas Fire and Rescue. While the Court recognizes that Plaintiff is proceeding pro se, "a pro se litigant cannot use his alleged ignorance as a shield to protect him from the consequences of failing to comply with basic procedural requirements." Rodriguez v. Fiesta Palms, LLC, 134 Nev. 654, 659, 428 P.3d 255, 259 (2018). Consequently, the Court GRANTS Defendant's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint.

The Court hereby VACATES the October 27, 2022 hearing and all future hearing dates in this matter.

- Emergency Motion for Leave to File an Amended Complaint, Motion to Stay Original Complaint, and Notice of Formal Objection(s) to Response from Original Defendant No. 4

This matter was dismissed back on October 25, 2022. The Court found that Plaintiff s Complaint did not properly identify a cause of action, nor did the Complaint satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCPC 8(a).

After a review of the present Motion, the Court is unsure what Plaintiff is requesting. Plaintiff makes numerous accusations concerning judicial officials and other attorneys within Southern Nevada, but does not cite to any legal authority to back up his claims. Consequently, the Court cannot grant the relief Plaintiff is requesting.

Further, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal in this case on November 23, 2022. Accordingly, this Court does not have jurisdiction over this case. See Smith v. Emery, 109 Nev. 737, 741, 856 P.2d 1386, 1389 (1993).

- Plaintiff filed his Renewed Ex Parte Emergency Motion to Add Defendant Tierra Danielle Jones and Notice of Default on March 8, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on April 12, 2023.

After considering the pleadings and argument of counsel, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion.

As a threshold matter, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion as it does not have jurisdiction. "[A] timely notice of appeal divests the district court of jurisdiction to act." Rust v. Clark Cnty. Sch. Dist., 103 Nev. 686, 688, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987). In this case, a notice of appeal was filed on September 8, 2023 and November 23, 2022. As a result, this Court cannot rule on Plaintiff's Motion because it does not have jurisdiction.

Alternatively, if it is determined that Plaintiff's Notices of Appeal do not divest this Court of jurisdiction due to the unconventional way that Plaintiff titles his Motions (i.e., including the case numbers from eight other cases in the caption), the Court will address the merits of Plaintiff's Motion below.

In this case, the Court entered an Order Dismissing Plaintiff's Case on October 31, 2022. As a result, for Plaintiff to continue litigating his case, he must seek relief from judgment under NRCP 60(b). Rule

60(b) provides: "On motion and just terms, the court may relieve a party or its legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief."

Here, Plaintiff has failed to cite to Rule 60(b) or any other legal authority that would justify this Court to allow Plaintiff to add Tierra Jones as a Defendant to this litigation. Instead, Plaintiff's Motion merely lists a series of names that this Court can only assume that Plaintiff would like to add to one of his pending cases.

Consequently, the Court denies Plaintiff's Motion.

- Plaintiff filed his Motion for Reconsideration to Vacate Order on March 27, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on May 3, 2023.

After considering the pleadings and argument of counsel, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration.

As a threshold matter, the Court denies Plaintiff's Motion as it does not have jurisdiction. "[A] timely notice of appeal divests the district court of jurisdiction to act." Rust v. Clark Cnty. Sch. Dist., 103 Nev. 686, 688, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987). In this case, a notice of appeal was filed on September 8, 2022 and November 23, 2022. As a result, this Court cannot rule on Plaintiff's Motion because it does not have jurisdiction.

Alternatively, if it is determined that Plaintiff's Notices of Appeal do not divest this Court of jurisdiction due to the unconventional way that Plaintiff titles his Motions (i.e., including the case numbers from eight other cases in the caption), the Court will address the merits of Plaintiff's Motion below.

A court may only "reconsider a previously decided issue if substantially different evidence is subsequently introduced or the decision is clearly erroneous." Masonry & Tile Contrs. v. Jolley, Urga & Wirth Ass'n, 113 Nev. 737, 741, 941 P.2d 486, 489 (1997). "Only in very rare instances in which new issues of fact or law are raised supporting a ruling contrary to the ruling already reached should a motion for rehearing be granted." Moore v. City of Las Vegas, 92 Nev. 402, 405, 551 P.2d 244, 246 (1976). A motion to reconsider is not a vehicle to "rehash[] old arguments" and is not meant to "give an unhappy litigant one additional chance to sway the judge." Phillips v. C.R. Bard, Inc., 290 F.R.D. 615, 670 (D. Nev. 2013).

Here, Plaintiff requests that this Court reconsider its Order granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. In that Order, the Court found that Plaintiff's Complaint was defective as a matter of law as the Complaint was merely a compilation of various court documents and filings, which included, among other things, a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-conviction), a direct appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court of Case No. C-21-357927-1, and a Motion for the Production of Records from Las Vegas Fire and Rescue.

The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's Complaint, and reaffirms its prior decision that his Complaint does not satisfy the pleading requirements of NRCP 8(a). Consequently, Plaintiff has not shown that the Court's October 31, 2022 Order Granting Defendant's Motion to Dismiss was clearly erroneous. As a result, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration.

- Plaintiff filed his Emergency Motion to Add Defendant Kristina Rhoades as a Defendant on June 29, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on August 2, 2023.

After considering the pleadings and arguments of the parties, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion.

In this case, the Court entered an Order Dismissing Plaintiff's Case on October 31, 2022. As a result, for Plaintiff to continue litigating his case, he must seek relief from judgment under NRCPC 60(b).

Rule 60(b) provides: "On motion and just terms, the court may relieve a party or its legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief."

Here, Plaintiff has failed to cite to Rule 60(b) or any other legal authority that would justify this Court to allow Plaintiff to add Kristina Rhoades as a Defendant to this litigation. Instead, Plaintiff's Motion merely indicates that he plans to seek a default judgment against Kristina Rhoades. Yet, this plainly does not satisfy Rule 60(b)'s requirements.

Consequently, the Court denies Plaintiff s Motion and the August 2, 2023 hearing is vacated.

- Plaintiff filed his Emergency Motion for Transportation of Inmate for Court Appearance on August 23, 2023. The matter was subsequently set for hearing on October 11, 2023.

After considering the pleadings and argument of counsel, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion. Plaintiff's Motion requests to be transported for a Court appearance before this Court on August 10, 2023 and August 15, 2023. The hearing for this Motion was set for October 11, 2023, which is well after the August 15, 2023 hearing. Consequently, this Motion is denied as moot.

- Plaintiff filed a Motion for New Trials Under NRCP 60 Emergency Motion and Order for Transportation on October 18, 2023. No opposition has been filed. The matter was subsequently scheduled for hearing on November 22, 2023. After considering the pleadings and arguments of the parties, the Court hereby DENIES Petitioner's Motion.

Pursuant to NRCP 60 (b) a party may be entitled to relief from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or (6) any other reason that justifies relief.

The Court finds Petitioner presented no new evidence in its motion for reconsideration. The Petitioner's motion includes Plaintiff s request for transportation to hearings, Petitioner s information regarding his prior documentation regarding Plaintiff s Request/List of Additional Defendants, Petitioner's Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, Petitioner's requests for Brady discovery and other discovery information, Plaintiff's section of the Plaintiff's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Petitioner's Motion for Modification of Sentence filed in September of 2023. As Petitioner states no facts which could support a granting of a new trial under NRCP 60, the Court Denies Petitioner s Motion.

As the Motion pertains to Petitioner's Request for Transportation of Inmate for the hearing dated May 24, 2023, the Court Denies the Petitioner's Motion. Plaintiff's Motion requests to be transported for a Court appearance before this Court on May 24, 2023. The hearing for this Motion was set for November 22, 2023, which is well after the May 24, 2023 hearing. Consequently, this section of Petitioner's Motion is denied as moot.

The Court hereby VACATES the November 22, 2023 hearing. Counsel for Defendant is directed to prepare a proposed order and to circulate it to opposing counsel for approval as to form and content before submitting it to chambers for signature. Counsel is directed to email a word and pdf copy of the proposed order to dc20inbox@clarkcountycourts.us.

- Petitioner filed an Emergency Motion to Add Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades as an Expedited on October 19, 2023. No opposition has been filed and the matter was subsequently scheduled for hearing on November 22, 2023. After reviewing the arguments and pleadings of counsel, the Court hereby DENIES the Petitioner's Motion to Add Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades as an Expedited.

Pursuant to NRCP 15, any amendment to a filing a party may amend its pleading only with the opposing party's written consent or the court's leave. Such amendments must be made within the time remaining to respond to the original pleading or within 14 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever is later. Here, the Petitioner's case was opened on August 3, 2022. The Petitioner's Complaint was further dismissed on October 31, 2022. The Motion to Amend the complaint to include a defendant is therefore, untimely under NRCP 15 and is therefore, Denied.

Pursuant to NRCP 55 and EDCR 2.70, a default judgment may be taken by a plaintiff against a non-answering defendant only if accompanied by an affidavit, based on personal knowledge which set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence and would avoid mere general conclusions or argument. EDCR 2.70. The Motion filed by Petitioner merely states that Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades should take notice of the Petitioner's intent to enter default against Defendant. However, there is no support for Petitioner's Notice of Intent to file Default against Defendant Kristina A.

Rhoades, of specific note, Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades has not been served. Therefore, Petitioner's Motion is Denied as it pertains to any default being taken against Defendant Kristina A. Rhoades.

The Court hereby VACATES the November 22, 2023 hearing. Counsel for Defendant is directed to prepare a proposed order and to circulate it to opposing counsel for approval as to form and content before submitting it to chambers for signature.
