Respondent/Cross-Appellant Lynda Hascheff partially opposes Appellant/Cross-Respondent Pierre A. Hascheff's Motion to Seal Portions of Appellant's Appendix Under Seal filed on November 16, 2023.

On its face, the complaint that Pierre seeks to file under seal shows that it was filed in the public record in the First Judicial District Court. It also separately appears in the publicly filed Appendix Volume 3 in this case at pages AA0671-0676. Moreover, it was filed in the public record in the parties' previous appeal, Case No. 82626, at Volume 1, pages AA000110-00115. The order cited by Pierre (located at 6AA1419-1421) says nothing about sealing this complaint. As a result, Lynda opposes Pierre's request to seal this complaint.

Lynda does not oppose Pierre's request to file the other documents under seal. The invoices of Lynda's attorney contain privileged and confidential information that were submitted under seal in the district court pursuant to court order and an acknowledgement that their submission was not a waiver. See 7AA1656-1658. Lynda agrees that they should remain under seal in this Court.

Pierre claims that the invoices of his attorney contain privileged and confidential information. Unredacted versions were filed under seal in the district court by court order. See 6AA1420. Lynda does not oppose them remaining under seal in this Court.
