CASE NO: CR96-01581

DEPT. NO.: 10

17 ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR LEAVE OF COURT TO FILE A SUCCESSIVE
18 PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS (POST-CONVICTION)

19 The Court has read and considered Petitioner's Motion for Leave of Court to File A
20 Successive Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, filed April 14, 2003, as well as other
21 supporting and opposing documents in the record.

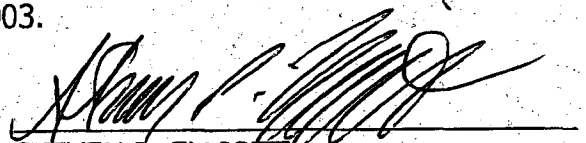

22 The Court finds that Petitioner has not complied with Nevada's limitations on time to
23 file a petition for post-conviction writ of habeas corpus. In particular, NRS 34.726 (1)
24 requires that a post-conviction petition for writ of habeas corpus be filed within one year
25 after the entry of the judgment of conviction. Here, Petitioner first directly appealed his 26 1996 conviction in 1999; however, the Nevada Supreme Court dismissed the appeal on 27 March 11, 1999. Thereafter, Petitioner filed a post-conviction petition for writ of habeas
28 corpus on March 09, 2000, which was denied by this Court after an evidentiary hearing on

1 June 08, 2001. Subsequently, Petitioner appealed this Court's ruling on said petition to the 2 Nevada Supreme Court, which issued an Order of Affirmance on January 17, 2002.

3 Now, more than six years after his conviction at a jury trial, and more than a year
4 after the denial of his first post-conviction petition was affirmed by the Nevada Supreme
5 Court, Petitioner seeks to have this Court consider a second post-conviction petition for writ
6 of habeas corpus. The Court, pursuant to NRS 34.726 (1)(a-b), finds that there is no good
7 cause in the record for Petitioner's delay in presenting the current issues he wishes to
8 unveil during his 1999 direct appeal from the 1996 conviction, or in his March 2000 petition
9 for writ of habeas corpus. Thus, the Court denies Petitioner's Motion to Seek Leave of 10 Court to File A Successive Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, and thereby makes moot
11 Petitioner's Motion to Produce Case Records, as well as his request to have an evidentiary
12 hearing to consider his second petition for writ of habeas corpus.

14 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Petitioner's Motion to Seek 15 Leave of Court to File A Successive Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction) is 16 DENIED.

Court does not find that the witness's statement would have impacted the issue of guilt; however, the Court does find that by the State not properly disclosing Edward Villardi's testimony, the State may have impassioned the sentencing court to impose a more severe sentence than which may have been rendered if that court had knowledge of said information.

COURT ORDERED: The Petition is hereby granted as to this claim insofar as it relates to sentencing. The Petitioner shall receive a new sentencing hearing.

The Court directed counsel for State to prepare appropriate findings of fact, conclusions of law and order in accordance with the Court's rulings herein.

Counsel for State expressed concerns with the Court's ruling and how said ruling was reached; further discussion between the Court and counsel for State. Counsel for State discussed the reliance by the sentencing court on the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report as well as the Petitioner's criminal history.

The Court confirmed said ruling.

Petitioner remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

Deputy Public Defender Conway addressed the Court regarding the testimony of Edward Vilardi stating it was material to the defense because the evidence against Defendant Voss was circumstantial and the credibility of the detectives who testified at the trial was impeachable to the extent that the defense could have used the undisclosed information to challenge the methods of the police investigation and argued in support; response and argument by Deputy District Attorney Walker.

COURT ORDERED: State's failure to produce information violates the discovery rules and took the matter under advisement. The State will not be permitted to refer to prior convictions.
