DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION

These are appeals from district court orders denying post-conviction petitions for a writ of habeas corpus in a death penalty case. Appellant seeks to consolidate these appeals as a practical matter considering the appeals involve the same parties and the claims arise from the same trial and judgment.

Having reviewed the briefs filed in this case, we conclude that consolidation of these appeals is not warranted. See NRAP 3(b). Accordingly, appellant's motion to consolidate these appeals is denied.

It is so ORDERED.
