TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing you in response to letters that I received from you concerning certain cases presently in the Nevada Supreme Court and alleged violations against me concerning said cases. I will give you my response in the order in which I received them

In LaMarr Rowell -vs.- The State of Nevada. The first notice I received from the court was file stamped August 21, 2008 (also stamped August 28, 2008), which is attached. If there were other notices mailed to me, they never reached me. It is possible that they didn't get to me because I moved to a new address in April, and for some reason a lot of my mail didn't reach me, even though I did put in a change of address form with the U.S. Postal Service. Be that as it may, when I did finally receive a notice, I immediately started working on the transcript and filed it on August 27th, six days later, and a copy of the certificate of delivery is attached. Although, according to my certificate of delivery I mistakenly put that it was filed August 26, and then realized it was the 27th, so I made a correction in pen to the 27th, which can be confirmed by checking with the District Court clerk's office as to when it was filed. As far as the order conditionally imposing sanctions is concerned, the court stated at that time I would have 15 days from the date of the order to comply, and any sanctions would be automatically waived if I did. Therefore, the six days it took me to file the transcript falls within the 15-day period they allowed. So it seems to me that any sanctions have been waived.

In Vanisacker -vs.- Daimler Chrysler. On June 6, 2008 the Supreme Court sent me a notice to file a certificate of delivery for a transcript that was never ordered by the attorneys on the case, which is attached. Being unable to file a certificate of delivery on a transcript that was never ordered or delivered, on August 29, 2008 the court entered an order conditionally imposing sanctions on me for not providing a transcript of said trial or a certificate of delivery of said transcript, also attached. Now being extremely upset with being brought into this fiasco, on September 2, 2008 I responded in a letter, which is attached, that I cannot file a transcript or a certificate of delivery because the attorneys involved never ordered the transcript, nor was the required deposit ever paid to me. On December 3, 2008 the court sent me an order regarding transcripts, which is attached, acknowledging that the transcripts were never ordered, no deposits were ever paid, and that any sanctions imposed are waived, and no action will be taken on any other relief that may be requested. Therefore, it seems to me that any sanctions on this case have also been waived.

In Delarian K. Wilson -vs.- The State of Nevada. The court mistakenly got me involved in this case and wanted to impose sanctions against me, even though at a later date they realized that I wasn't even the court reporter involved in the hearings they requested. The request for transcript was sent on September 10, 2008 to J & B Nelson, which there is no such person or entity, a copy is attached. On October 21, 2008 the Supreme Court sent me a notice to file a certificate of delivery within 10 days after the transcript was delivered, also attached. However, even though they never asked for it, another mistake on their part, I did provide a transcript of Mr. Wilson's sentencing that I was the court reporter on and filed it on November 12, 2008 and also filed a certificate of delivery on the same date, attached. So being that I wasn't the court reporter on the dates they requested, I couldn't file a transcript or a certificate of deliver for something that I wasn't even involved in. The real court reporters involved were Jackie Jennelle and Lee Bahr. On November 17, 2008 the Supreme Court issued an order acknowledging that upon further review they realized the court reporters were Jackie Jennelle and Lee Bahr, thereby relieving me of any sanctions that could have been imposed upon me, attached also.

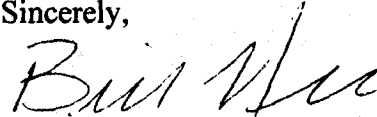

This is not the first time I have had to deal with the incompetence of attorneys or court employees. There was a case a few months ago (Julio Pavon -vs.- The State of Nevada) where I actually paid the Supreme Court Law Library a sanctioning fee that I didn't even owe, in which they once again had the wrong court reporter involved, it was Jackie Jennelle and Lee Bahr once again, and the court clerk put down the wrong name on her calendar, which she acknowledged later and made a correction, but they still wanted me to pay a sanctioning fee, so out of frustration I just sent them a check to get them off my back. I can send you the paperwork on that case too should you like to see it.

I am really getting frustrated at having to answer to the Supreme Court's demands, and now the court reporters board, when they don't even have the facts correct, and/or I am not even the right person they are making demands of. I am an extremely busy man and don't have time to waste on this unnecessary correspondence. There have been many other instances of attorney and/or court employee incompetence, and I don't appreciate being the scapegoat each time for everybody else's mistakes. I do my job to the best of my ability and have done so for the past 31 years.

I really think that the Supreme Court and the court reporters board should take a closer look at the attorneys involved in these cases, along with their own court employees, before always going after the court reporter and making threats to suspend or take away our license to make a living. If anybody's incompetence, other than my own, results in my court reporter license being suspended or revoked, thereby preventing me from making a living, I can assure you I will go straight to my attorney and file a legal action against all concerned.

Hopefully, this should clear everything up concerning these matters. If there is anything else you need from me, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

ORDER CONDITIONALLY IMPOSING SANCTIONS

On May 21, 2008, appellant filed a transcript request form requesting court reporter Bill Nelson to prepare the transcripts of numerous proceedings.¹ Accordingly, a certificate acknowledging the delivery of the requested transcripts (certificate of delivery) was due to be filed in this court on or before June 30, 2008. As Mr. Nelson failed to file a certificate of delivery, on July 10, 2008, the clerk of this court issued a notice directing Mr. Nelson to file a certificate of delivery on or before July 21, 2008. To date, Mr. Nelson has failed to file this document.

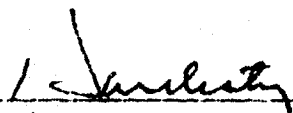

The failure of a party, or of an officer of this court, to file documents that are essential to the efficient processing of an appeal deprives the parties of a prompt resolution of their case. See Dougan v. Gustaveson, 108 Nev. 517, 523, 835 P.2d 795, 799 (1992) (recognizing this court's commitment to the proposition that "justice delayed is justice denied"); NRAP 13(a) (a person serving as a court reporter in a trial or hearing subject to Supreme Court review is, for such purposes, an officer of the Supreme Court and accountable to that court for the faithful performance of their duties). Consequently, this court has declared in the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure that the failure to pay the filing fee, or to file a case appeal statement, docketing statement, transcript request form, transcripts, or briefs in a timely manner, may be grounds for the imposition of sanctions. See NRAP 3(a); NRAP 9(c); NRAP 13(b); NRAP 14(c).

We conclude that Mr. Nelson's failure to file the certificate of delivery in compliance with the court's procedural rules and the notice issued in this matter warrants the conditional imposition of sanctions. Accordingly, Mr. Nelson shall, within 15 days from the date of order, pay the sum of $250.00 to the Supreme Court Law Library and provide this court with proof of such payment. However, this sanction shall be automatically vacated if Mr. Nelson files and serves the certificate of delivery or, alternatively, a motion to extend time, within ten days from the date of this order.²

It is so ORDERED.

Parraguirre, J.

Douglas, J.

²Any motion for extension of time shall explain the reasons for Mr. Nelson's failure to file the certificate of delivery in a timely manner and shall set forth sufficient cause for the requested extension of time.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION AND CONDITIONALLY IMPOSING SANCTIONS

Cause appearing, appellants' motion for an extension of time to obtain NRCP 54(b) certification from the district court is granted. NRAP 26(b). Appellants shall file a status report within 30 days of the date of this order, informing this court of the status of the NRCP 54(b) proceedings in the district court.

Further cause appearing, appellants' motion for an extension of time to file the opening brief is granted. NRAP 31(a)(1). Appellants shall have until September 29, 2008, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix.

On April 17, 2008, appellants filed a transcript request form requesting court reporter Bill Nelson to produce the transcripts of proceedings held on October 17, 2007, through October 22, 2007.¹ A certificate acknowledging delivery of these transcripts was due to be filed by May 27, 2008. See NRAP 9(b). As the certificate was not timely filed, ¹A copy of the transcript request form is attached to this order.

on June 6, 2008, the clerk of this court issued a notice directing Mr. Nelson to file the certificate by June 16, 2008. Mr. Nelson failed to file the certificate, and on July 8, 2008, this court entered an order directing Mr. Nelson to file the certificate by August 7, 2008.²

To date, Mr. Nelson has failed to file the certificate of delivery or otherwise communicate with this court. The failure of a party, or of an officer of this court, to file documents that are essential to the efficient processing of an appeal deprives the parties of a prompt resolution of their case. See Dougan v. Gustaveson, 108 Nev. 517, 523, 835 P.2d 795, 799 (1992) (recognizing this court's commitment to the proposition that "justice delayed is justice denied"); NRAP 13(a) (a person serving as a court reporter in a trial or hearing subject to Supreme Court review is, for such purposes, an officer of the Supreme Court and accountable to that court for the faithful performance of their duties). Consequently, this court has declared in the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure that the failure to pay the filing fee, or to file a case appeal statement, docketing statement, transcript request form, transcripts, or briefs in a timely manner, may be grounds for the imposition of sanctions. See NRAP 3(a); NRAP 9(c); NRAP 13(b); NRAP 14(c).

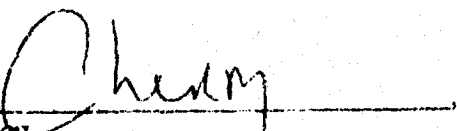

We conclude that Mr. Nelson's failure to file the certificate acknowledging delivery of the October 17, 2007, through October 22, 2007, transcripts in compliance with the court's procedural rules and the notice ²Our order specifically noted that Mr. Nelson was to notify this court, in writing, as soon as possible, but no later than August 7, 2008, if he has not commenced production of the transcripts because he has not received a deposit. NRAP 9(b)(1).

and order issued in this matter warrants the conditional imposition of sanctions. Accordingly, Mr. Nelson shall, within 15 days from the date of order, pay the sum of $250.00 to the Supreme Court Law Library and provide this court with proof of such payment. However, this sanction shall be automatically vacated if Mr. Nelson files and serves the certificate acknowledging delivery of the requested transcripts, or, alternatively, a motion to extend time, within ten days from the date of this order.³ If the requested transcript cannot be produced, Mr. Nelson shall so notify this court, in writing, within the same time period.

In Re: Vanisacker v. Daimler Chrysler, No: 50898

To Whom it May Concern:

I, Bill Nelson, CCR #191, cannot file a certificate of delivery for a transcript in the above-entitled case, as the transcript was never ordered by the attorney involved, contrary to the attached transcript order form that was never delivered to me, nor was a deposit for said transcript ever paid to me.

Once again you have me caught up in a web of incompetence and are ordering me to do things in an unfair manner and threatening to sanction me for something that I shouldn't even be involved in.

The last case you did this to me was the Julio Pavon case, No. 50013, in which you did the same thing, and as it turned out, after I went back and forth with you several times, wasting my time, and at my expense, it turned out that the clerk in the case wrote down the wrong Court Reporter on her appearance sheet, but I was the one that was treated improperly because of her incompetence.

You may think that I am just a Court Reporter, and that I should be the one to answer for everybody else's mistakes, but I am still a business man and should be treated as a professional. I have been doing my job for 31 years, and have handled many huge cases over those years, and I have never had a problem like this in all of that time.

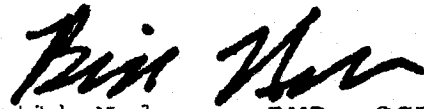

I truly resent having to keep taking my valuable time and spending my hard-earned money on sending letters to you to answer for something that I am not even involved in.

1 Maybe in the future you should look to the attorneys
2 involved in these appeals and make sure they do their
3 job properly, and/or other court personnel that don't 4 do their job correctly, before coming down on me or 5 other Court Reporters whenever somebody makes a
6 mistake or sends a document to you that is not true,
7 as the attorney did in this case with the false
8 transcript order.

9 By the way, I did receive the notice from the clerk
10 dated June 6, 2008, but I didn't respond at that time
11 with a certificate of delivery because there was no
12 transcript delivered or ordered. Also, the only 13 documents that I received following that are the 14 attached documents that you mailed to me this past 15 week. Up until that time, I have never received the 16 transcript order form from the attorney, nor the 17 clerk's order dated July 8, 2008.

18 I feel that these constant orders to impose sanctions
19 on me are unwarranted, and I don't feel that I, or any 20 other Court Reporter that finds themselves in this
21 precarious position, deserve this kind of treatment
22 from anybody, as I work very hard to make sure that my 23 job is done with the utmost professionalism and that 24 the records that I produce are accurate, precise and 25 timely based on my vast experience and qualifications.

ORDER REGARDING TRANSCRIPTS

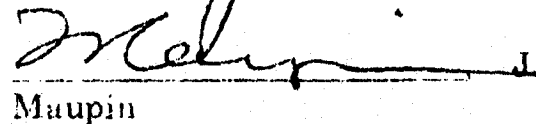

On August 29, 2008, this court entered an order conditionally imposing sanctions on court reporter Bill Nelson for his failure to file the transcripts requested of him on April 17, 2008. Our order stated that the sanctions would be automatically vacated if Mr. Nelson filed a certificate acknowledging delivery of the requested transcripts, or a motion to extend time, by September 8, 2008. On September 8, 2008, Mr. Nelson filed a notice indicating that he never received the April 17, 2008, transcript request form and that no deposit for the transcripts was ever paid.

Because Mr. Nelson timely filed a response to our August 29, 2008, order, the sanctions imposed therein have been automatically vacated. Pursuant to NRAP 9(b)(2), because no deposit has been made, Mr. Nelson is not required to produce any transcripts that have been requested from him in this appeal. No action will be taken on any other relief that may be requested in Mr. Nelson's notice.

ORDER REGARDING TRANSCRIPTS

On September 10, 2008, appellant filed a transcript request form requesting "J & B Nelson, Court Reporter" to produce transcripts of numerous district court proceedings, including proceedings held on March 28, 2008.¹ Accordingly, a certificate acknowledging delivery of the requested transcripts was due to be filed by October 20, 2008. See NRAP 9(b). As no certificate of delivery was filed, on October 21, 2008, the clerk of this court issued a notice directing court reporters Jackie Jennelle (formerly Nelson) and Bill Nelson to file a certificate of delivery by November 3, 2008.

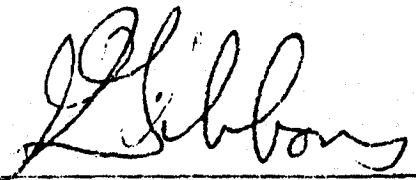

On November 4, 2008, Ms. Jennelle filed a letter indicating that the October 21, 2008, notice was "the first communication [she has] received regarding this case." Further, a review of the district court minute entries indicates that Lee Bahr was the court reporter present during the March 28, 2008, proceedings. We admonish appellant's counsel for his failure to properly identify the responsible court reporters, and for his failure to properly serve the responsible court reporters.

Accordingly, Ms. Jennelle and Mr. Bahr shall have 30 days from the date of this order to prepare the requested transcripts, file them in district court, and deliver certified copies to counsel for appellant. Ms. Jennelle and Mr. Bahr shall have 40 days from the date of this order to file, in this court, a certificate acknowledging delivery of the transcripts. Appellant shall have 70 days from the date of this order to file and serve the opening brief and appendix.

It is so ORDERED.
