CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING MOTION

Appellant has filed a motion requesting a seventh extension of time to file the opening brief. Extreme and unforeseeable circumstances having been shown, we grant the motion. Appellant shall have until August 5, 2009, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Because this appeal has been pending for almost one year and appellant has now been afforded 240 days beyond the time allowed by NRAP 31(a)(1) to file the opening brief, further extension requests will not be looked upon favorably and may result in the imposition of sanctions against counsel for appellant. Any additional extensions will be granted only on showing of the most extreme and unforeseeable circumstances. Counsel's caseload will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974).

It is so ORDERED.
