2. The parties were divorced as of August, 1998.
3. Statutory and case law regulating child custody and visitation do not have an impact on the issue before the court. As to the original child support provisions Scotlund had caused to be drafted and filed in the original divorce, the mixing of custody and visitation with child support is against public policy, and the court does not have jurisdiction over custody or visitation.
4. The Decree of Divorce required Scotlund to pay child support on a monthly basis to Cisilie; Scotlund himself determined the sum due to be $1,300 per month, and apparently paid that sum, per his determination, for an extended period of time after the parties divorced prior to the child abduction.¹
5. Scotlund's child support obligation should have been set at 25% of his gross income, pursuant to 125B.070 as it read at the time of the parties' divorce in 1998; the fact that Scotlund submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of being obligated to pay child support does not bind the Court, or the State of Nevada, to accept his erroneous methodology of calculating that child support.
6. Scotlund has never provided the Court with an Affidavit of Financial Condition.
7. No order altering the $1,300 per month child support obligation has ever been entered by any court of competent jurisdiction.
8. Since entry of the original Decree, Nevada law has been clarified to require court orders to express child support due as a dollar sum certain due each month.
9. Neither of the parties are living in Nevada. Cisilie and the children are residents of Norway, and Scotlund now lives in California.
10. The Nevada Supreme Court found that the District Court of this State has jurisdiction to order and collect child support; the Court continues to maintain jurisdiction to enforce its support order under UIFSA.

- 1 11. Under UIFSA, if both parties are outside the State of Nevada, each party would be
2 required to seek a modification by way of registering the Nevada support order where
3 the other party lived, and seeking a modification there. This has not, apparently, ever
4 been done, although the record indicates that Norway is independently attempting to
5 seek support for the children, who are located there. Nevada does not have
6 jurisdiction at this time to entertain a motion to modify the existing support order, but
7 the Court has inherent authority both to enforce its orders, and to clarify its prior
8 orders, as required by statute.
- 9 12. On February 27, 2006, the matter came before the United States District Court,
10 District of Nevada, and on March 13, 2006, that Court issued its Findings of Fact
11 and Conclusions of Law and Decision, and Judgment, in the course of that litigation
12 calculating the sum due to Cisilie in arrears in child support payments, including
13 interest and penalties as of February, 2006, of $138,500.
- 14 13. That calculation is not binding on this Court, which could recalculate support based 15 on the 1998 presumptive maximum of $1,000 per month. The Court also could find
16 that the parties had agreed to exceed the cap based on the uncontroverted statement
17 that Scotlund was earning in excess of a six figure income at that time, and acted in
18 partial performance of that agreement for a period of years by his offering, and her
19 accepting, of the $1,300 per month payments. The Court chooses the latter and, since
20 all calculations performed by the federal court, and previously by this Court, were
21 based on that number, the prior calculations remain correct.
- 22 14. Scotlund has refused to provide support for his children for a period of several years.
- 23 15. Under NRS 201.020(2)(a), a person who knowingly fails to provide for support of 24 his child is guilty of a category C felony and is to be punished as provided in NRS
25 193.130 if his arrearages for nonpayment of the child support total $10,000 or more
26 and have accrued over any period since the date that a court first ordered the 27 defendant to provide for such support.
- 28

- 1 16. Under any conceivable calculation methodology, Scotlund's child support arrearages
2 have exceeded the criminal prosecution threshold many times over.
- 3 17. The sums found as a matter of fact to be due and unpaid in the Judgment issued by
4 the United States District Court have continued to increase, and to accrue interest and
5 penalties and have grown to an overall arrearage of $226,569.23 as of January 15, 6 2008.
- 7 18. While the Court finds Scotlund's filings in this action for this hearing unpersuasive,
8 they have not been so utterly frivolous or clearly intended solely to harass that a
9 Goad order would be appropriate at this juncture.

10 Based upon the above findings this Court,

11
12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 13 1. Scotlund is in arrears in child support, inclusive of interest and penalties, of 14 $226,569.23 as of January 15, 2008, the entirety of which is reduced to judgment and 15 ordered collectable by all lawful means.
- 16 2. Child support shall continue to be due in the sum certain dollar amount of $1,300 per
17 month, until the emancipation of the children or further order of a court of competent
18 jurisdiction modifying this child support order.
- 19 3. Scotlund's arrears are in excess of the threshold set out in NRS 201.020(2), and he 20 is subject to criminal prosecution accordingly.
- 21 4. The Court's Order of January 15, 2008, is set aside, the orders and finding of this
22 order are substituted therefor.²
- 23 5. Motion to Dismiss is DENIED.
- 24 6. Motion to Reopen Discovery is DENIED.
- 25 7. Motion for Insufficiency of Process, and/or Insufficiency of Service of Process is
26 DENIED.

27
28

² The prior Order is attached as Exhibit A.

1 8. Motion to Stay Case is DENIED.

2 9. Motion for Prohibition on Subsequent Filings and To Declare This Case Closed is
3 not granted at this time, although this Order does constitute the final order in these
4 proceedings, and this case can be and is re-closed accordingly.

5 10. Cisilie was awarded the sum of $5,100 in and for attorney's fees for the hearing held
6 January 15, 2008. That order has been set aside, however; under NRS 18.010, NRS
7 125B.140(c)(2), and EDCR 7.60, and because a child support arrearage has been
8 found to exist, Cisilie is awarded and Scotlund is ordered to pay forthwith the sum
9 of $10,000 in and for attorney's fees and costs, which sum is reduced to judgment as
10 of March 3, 2008, and is collectable by all lawful means.

ORDER
AMENDING THE ORDER OF JANUARY 15, 2008

This matter having come before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion to Set Aside Order of January 15, 2008, and to Reconsider and Rehear the Matter, and Motion to Reopen Discovery, and Motion To Stay Enforcement Of The January 15, 2008 Order, and Defendant's Opposition and Countermotion For Fees and Sanctions Under EDCR 7.60, Defendant and Plaintiff having been duly noticed, and the Court having read the papers and pleadings on file herein by counsel and being fully advised, and for good cause shown:

FINDS AND CONCLUDES:

1. The Court had personal jurisdiction and subject matter jurisdiction over the original child support order, and has jurisdiction to state the child support due as a sum certain amount as required by state law.

- 1 2. The parties were divorced as of August, 1998.
- 2 3. Statutory and case law regulating child custody and visitation do not have an impact
- 3 on the issue before the court. As to the original child support provisions Scotlund
- 4 had caused to be drafted and filed in the original divorce, the mixing of custody and
- 5 visitation with child support is against public policy, and the court does not have
- 6 jurisdiction over custody or visitation.
- 7 4. The Decree of Divorce required Scotlund to pay child support on a monthly basis to
- 8 Cisilie; Scotlund himself determined the sum due to be $1,300 per month, and
- 9 apparently paid that sum, per his determination, for an extended period of time after
- 10 the parties divorced prior to the child abduction.¹
- 11 5. Scotlund's child support obligation should have been set at 25% of his gross income,
- 12 pursuant to 125B.070 as it read at the time of the parties' divorce in 1998; the fact
- 13 that Scotlund submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of being
- 14 obligated to pay child support does not bind the Court, or the State of Nevada, to
- 15 accept his erroneous methodology of calculating that child support.
- 16 6. Scotlund has never provided the Court with an Affidavit of Financial Condition.
- 17 7. No order altering the $1,300 per month child support obligation has ever been
- 18 entered by any court of competent jurisdiction.
- 19 8. Since entry of the original Decree, Nevada law has been clarified to require court
- 20 orders to express child support due as a dollar sum certain due each month.
- 21 9. Neither of the parties are living in Nevada. Cisilie and the children are residents of
- 22 Norway, and Scotlund now lives in California.
- 23 10. The Nevada Supreme Court found that the District Court of this State has jurisdiction
- 24 to order and collect child support; the Court continues to maintain jurisdiction to
- 25 enforce its support order under UIFSA.
- 26
- 27

28 ¹ Scotlund paid this amount for approximately two years before he kidnapped the children from their home in Norway.

- 1 11. Under UIFSA, if both parties are outside the State of Nevada, each party would be
2 required to seek a modification by way of registering the Nevada support order where
3 the other party lived, and seeking a modification there. This has not, apparently, ever
4 been done, although the record indicates that Norway is independently attempting to
5 seek support for the children, who are located there. Nevada does not have
6 jurisdiction at this time to entertain a motion to modify the existing support order, but
7 the Court has inherent authority both to enforce its orders, and to clarify its prior
8 orders, as required by statute.
- 9 12. On February 27, 2006, the matter came before the United States District Court,
10 District of Nevada, and on March 13, 2006, that Court issued its Findings of Fact
11 and Conclusions of Law and Decision, and Judgment, in the course of that litigation
12 calculating the sum due to Cisilie in arrears in child support payments, including
13 interest and penalties as of February, 2006, of $138,500.
- 14 13. That calculation is not binding on this Court, which could recalculate support based 15 on the 1998 presumptive maximum of $1,000 per month. The Court also could find
16 that the parties had agreed to exceed the cap based on the uncontroverted statement
17 that Scotlund was earning in excess of a six figure income at that time, and acted in
18 partial performance of that agreement for a period of years by his offering, and her
19 accepting, of the $1,300 per month payments. The Court chooses the latter and, since
20 all calculations performed by the federal court, and previously by this Court, were
21 based on that number, the prior calculations remain correct.
- 22 14. Scotlund has refused to provide support for his children for a period of several years.
- 23 15. Under NRS 201.020(2)(a), a person who knowingly fails to provide for support of
24 his child is guilty of a category C felony and is to be punished as provided in NRS
25 193.130 if his arrearages for nonpayment of the child support total $10,000 or more
26 and have accrued over any period since the date that a court first ordered the 27 defendant to provide for such support.
- 28

- 1 16. Under any conceivable calculation methodology, Scotlund's child support arrearages
2 have exceeded the criminal prosecution threshold many times over.
- 3 17. The sums found as a matter of fact to be due and unpaid in the Judgment issued by
4 the United States District Court have continued to increase, and to accrue interest and
5 penalties and have grown to an overall arrearage of $226,569.23 as of January 15, 6 2008.
- 7 18. While the Court finds Scotlund's filings in this action for this hearing unpersuasive,
8 they have not been so utterly frivolous or clearly intended solely to harass that a
9 Goad order would be appropriate at this juncture.

10 Based upon the above findings this Court,

11
12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 13 1. Scotlund is in arrears in child support, inclusive of interest and penalties, of 14 $226,569.23 as of January 15, 2008, the entirety of which is reduced to judgment and
15 ordered collectable by all lawful means.
- 16 2. Child support shall continue to be due in the sum certain dollar amount of $1,300 per
17 month, until the emancipation of the children or further order of a court of competent
18 jurisdiction modifying this child support order.
- 19 3. Scotlund's arrears are in excess of the threshold set out in NRS 201.020(2), and he 20 is subject to criminal prosecution accordingly.
- 21 4. The Court's Order of January 15, 2008, is set aside, the orders and finding of this
22 order are substituted therefor.²
- 23 5. Motion to Dismiss is DENIED.
- 24 6. Motion to Reopen Discovery is DENIED.
- 25 7. Motion for Insufficiency of Process, and/or Insufficiency of Service of Process is
26 DENIED.

27
28

² The prior Order is attached as Exhibit A.

1 8. Motion to Stay Case is DENIED.

2 9. Motion for Prohibition on Subsequent Filings and To Declare This Case Closed is
3 not granted at this time, although this Order does constitute the final order in these
4 proceedings, and this case can be and is re-closed accordingly.

5 10. Cisilie was awarded the sum of $5,100 in and for attorney's fees for the hearing held
6 January 15, 2008. That order has been set aside, however; under NRS 18.010, NRS
7 125B.140(c)(2), and EDCR 7.60, and because a child support arrearage has been
8 found to exist, Cisilie is awarded and Scotlund is ordered to pay forthwith the sum
9 of $10,000 in and for attorney's fees and costs, which sum is reduced to judgment as
10 of March 3, 2008, and is collectable by all lawful means.

- Mr. Dempsey stated he did not receive notice of today's hearing and is unprepared to proceed. COURT STATED it wishes to proceed in the matter. COURT FINDS, it needs to ascertain whether or not the Decree is accurate, and if it needs to be set aside. The Court will need to set a Residency Hearing to determine whether Plaintiff had residency at the time he filed the Decree. Parties stipulated to Nevada, and now a year later Defendant is claiming she did it under duress. If Plaintiff can not prove residency, then this Court does not have jurisdiction over these parties at all. Mr. Willick stated his concerns that the Court needs to act immediately because the children are located in Pilot Point, TX, a small RV stop north of Dallas close to the Mexico border, and the Mexico entry point near Pilot Point does not require passports. Mr. Willick requested the Court return the children here to Las Vegas.

COURT ORDERED, a PICK UP ORDER is to issue, and the Courts and law enforcement agencies of Texas are asked to pick up the children for them to be returned to the State of Nevada and placed in this Court's custody. Upon return to Las Vegas the children are to be placed in Child Haven, and immediately upon receiving the children, Child Haven is to call this Court's chambers to set up an immediate FMC Interview for the girls and to schedule a court hearing. All other matters will be deferred until return on jurisdictional matters. The Court will notify counsel of the children's return and the next hearing date and time. Mr. Willick will prepare the pick up Order.

COURT CLERK:JOURNAL ENTRIES

- COURT FINDS, parties FAILED TO MEDIATE. Mr. Dempsey submitted tax returns discussed at last hearing. Arguments by Mr. Cerceo regarding jurisdiction and the estopple argument. Mr. Cerceo stated Virginia was Plaintiff's state of residence for '98 tax return, and he was a resident of VA until 7/14/00, the date he applied for a Nevada Driver's License. Argument by Mr. Dempsey regarding Plaintiff's understanding of the Nevada residency requirements, and by filing an answer Defendant submitted personal jurisdiction to this Court. Rebuttal by Mr. Cerceo regarding issue of subject matter and personal jurisdiction.

After reviewing the issues, COURT FINDS, both parties wanted a divorce and did not want to wait another year to achieve it. It was the intention of Mr. Vaile to remove his residence from Virginia to Nevada, and he could not be in Nevada because of the custodial issues happening. This Court is going with the intent to be here and is relying on the changing of address to move here. The Court DOES NOT FIND Plaintiff intentionally trying to defraud this Court. Nevada did have subject and personal jurisdiction in order to achieve the Decree of Divorce and the separation of property. Regarding the Haig Convention, if the Court were to make a Decision it would find the habitual state of residence would be the state of Nevada, and Defendant was wrongfully obtaining the children from Plaintiff at the time Mr. Vaile secured his children. On Equitable Estopple, Defendant did not sign the Decree under duress. These parties were not in Virginia and neither one had intentions of going back to Virginia. It was the desire of the parties to relocate to Nevada and they came here and Plaintiff didn't know when he was going to leave at the time he signed the Decree.

COURT FINDS, it never had jurisdiction over the children, they never lived in the state of Nevada.

At the time the Motion for the Pick Up Order was before the Court, the Court knew nothing.

COURT ORDERED, this Court will keep emergency jurisdiction until another Court states it relieves Nevada and takes jurisdiction. The Courts in Texas and Norway need to talk to one another and decide who has jurisdiction, and this Court will relinquish jurisdiction to that Court. Counsel is to contact Norway and Texas Courts as to who has jurisdiction to make the custodial decisions in this case. In the interim, the children are to remain here until 10/25/00, the date mom must return to Norway, and then the children are to return to Texas to attend school until a decision is made by the Norway and Texas Courts. The Court encouraged parties to continue mediating, and if parties stipulate they need to take the stipulation to the Court who takes jurisdiction.

The Court has ruled in what it believes is in the best interest of the children, and does NOT FIND any INTENTIONAL FRAUD on the State of Nevada by either of these parties. Defendant (mom) is to have significant visitation with the children before they return to Texas. The children are to remain here in Las Vegas until 10/25/00.

- Plaintiff appeared telephonically, sworn and testified. Defendant's Supplemental Exhibit FILED IN OPEN COURT. COURT FINDS, there is no venue argument. Pursuant to International Law and the Hague Convention this Court is the Hague Court and has jurisdiction to award fees. There is to be no double billing with the Texas Order.

COURT FURTHER FINDS, the Texas Order remains enforceable, but will keep the Orders separate. Based on the pleadings and oral arguments, COURT ORDERED, $116,732.09 in Attorney's Fees and Costs are GRANTED and Reduced to Judgment, bearing interest at the legal rate.

Mr. Willick advised this Court that he has filed a Tort Action in Federal Court on behalf of the Defendant and if awarded the fees in this Court, will lodge a copy of the Order in Federal Court. Mr. Willick requested this Court sign an Order to release information, that request is DENIED, as the information would be used for the Tort Action in Federal Court, therefore, a Federal Court Judge should sign the Order.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED and DIRECTED Mr. Willick to lodge a copy of this Court's Order in Federal Court and Notice this Court.

Mr. Willick is to prepare the order from today's hearing, Plaintiff is to review as to form and content. CASE CLOSED.

- PLTF'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MARSHAL WILICK AND THE WILICK LAW GROUP AS ATTORNEY'S OF RECORD...DEFT'S OPPOSITION AND COUNTERMOTION FOR DISQUALIFICATION OF GRETA MUIRHEAD AS ATTORNEY OF RECORD, FEES AND SANCTIONS. Atty Marshal Willick, Bar #2515, also present. Argument on issues. Atty Crane made an Oral Request for a bond to cover ATTORNEY FEES awarded to The Willick Law Group from Plaintiff. COURT FINDS, Bar proceedings are completely confidential and anything pertaining to those proceedings is to be stricken from the record. Atty Muirhead attached Bar proceeding documents to her pleadings; therefore, those documents are to be stricken. COURT FURTHER FINDS, there are no rules as to how many times an attorney may appear UNBUNDLED; therefore, Atty Muirhead is recognized as appearing in this capacity. COURT FURTHER FINDS, this Court does not need to have information on the Virginia case to resolve issues in the Nevada case. COURT FURTHER FINDS, Atty Willick's statements on the record as to the Marshal Law Program had to do only with the design and function of the software and is completely irrelevant to the Court's decision as to interpretation of the Statute at issue. There was no testimony provided. Further, The Willick Law Group has been counsel of record on this case for a substantial amount of time. COURT ORDERED: 1. Exhibit 4 of Atty Muirhead's original Motion, a letter dated 06/16/08 to the State Bar of Nevada from Willick Law Group RE: Bar Complaint Concerning Greta G. Muirhead, Bar #3957, shall be STRICKEN from the record. This document has not been read by the Court. 2.
