completed the task that was assigned by the creation of standardized forms for domestic violence protection orders.

D. Give the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) the authority and responsibility to maintain the standardized forms and to determine when revisions to the forms are necessary.

E. Give the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) the authority and responsibility to make technical changes to the forms, when necessary, without the necessity of submitting a new motion or this Court conducting a further hearing or convening another Study Committee.

F. Give the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) the authority and responsibility to determine when substantive changes to the forms are necessary, to bring the information to the Judicial Council of the State of Nevada for the Council to determine if the revisions can be made through the Council or if a new committee should be convened. Substantive revisions must be submitted to the Court for final approval before distribution.

In support of the motion, it is set forth as follows:

1. On April 17, 1998, this Court entered its Order Appointing Members of the Study Committee, directing that a committee be formed to study the need for adoption of standardized forms for protection orders in cases of domestic violence. This Order was entered in response to the Petition of the undersigned, filed on January 8, 1998, requesting the creation of such a committee.

2. On June 1, 1999, this Court entered its Order Granting Motion for Adoption of Standardized Forms for Use in Domestic Violence Protection Order Cases. In response to that Order, the seven forms approved by the Court for voluntary use were implemented in courts throughout the state.

3. On January 31, 2000, the study committee filed with this courts its findings and recommendations in the form of a motion for adoption of seven (7) standardized forms for mandatory use in domestic violence protection order cases and adoption of five (5) additional forms for voluntary use.

4. On June 7, 2000, this Court entered its Order Granting Motion for Adoption of Standardized Forms for Mandatory Use in Domestic Violence Protection Order Cases. The Order adopted the seven forms for mandatory use by the courts and approved, for immediate use on a voluntary basis, the five additional forms recommended by the Study Committee.

5. The Study Committee met on November 6, 2000 to review all submitted suggestions for improvement to the forms since this Court entered its order dated June 7, 2000.

6. The Committee concluded that four (4) of the mandatory forms should be revised and that this Court adopt the following revised forms for mandatory use by all courts issuing orders for protection against domestic violence in the State of Nevada (Exhibits B – E):

- i. Domestic Violence Order for Protection Information Sheet
- ii. Application for a Temporary and/or Extended Order for Protection Against Domestic Violence
- iii. Temporary Order for Protection Against Domestic Violence
- iv. Extended Order for Protection Against Domestic Violence

7. The committee has also revised the five (5) additional forms that this Court adopted for voluntary use and now asks this Court to adopt the following forms for mandatory use by all courts issuing orders for protection against domestic violence in the State of Nevada (Exhibits F – J):

- i. Motion and Affidavit
- ii. Order
- iii. Notices to the Adverse Party for Temporary Order
- iv. Notices to the Adverse Party for Extended Order
- v. Certification of Order for Protection

BASED ON THE FOREGOING, it is respectfully requested, as follows:

1. That the Nevada Supreme Court approve the submitted forms, Exhibits B – J, for use on a mandatory basis by the District and Justice Courts of the State of Nevada in cases involving orders for protection against domestic violence, effective immediately.

2. That the Nevada Supreme Court continue the use of the three (3) remaining forms that have already been adopted and approved for mandatory use by the District and Justice Courts of the State of Nevada in cases involving orders for protection against domestic violence. The mandatory forms not revised are the Order for Protection Return of Service; Order for Hearing to Extend, Modify, or Dissolve the Order for Protection; and Notice for Hearing to Extend, Modify, or Dissolve the Order for Protection (Exhibits K – M).

3. That the Study Committee for Adoption of Standardized Forms for Protection Orders in Cases of Domestic Violence be dissolved as the Committee has completed the task it was assigned to do by the creation of standardized forms for domestic violence protection orders.

4. That this Court grant the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) the authority and responsibility of maintaining the standardized forms and to determine when revisions to the forms are necessary.

5. That this Court grant the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) the authority and responsibility to make technical changes to the forms, when necessary.

6. That this Court grant the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) the authority and responsibility to determine when substantive changes to the forms are required and to bring the information to the Judicial Council of the State of Nevada. The Council shall determine if the revisions can be made through the Council or if a new committee should be convened, under the auspices of the Judicial Council. This Court must approve substantive revisions to the standardized forms before distribution to the courts.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Study Committee this 26 day of March, 2002.
