DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER AMENDING THE NEVADA RULES OF APPELLATE
PROCEDURE BY THE ADOPTION OF RULE 16 AND FORM 10

Pursuant to a petition filed by the Honorable Cliff Young, Justice, and it appearing to the court that such action is warranted,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure shall be amended by the adoption of Rule 16, to read as follows:

RULE 16. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES IN CIVIL APPEALS

(a) Submission of Case to Settlement Conference. Any civil appeal may be scheduled for a settlement conference. The Supreme Court, or any person designated by the court, shall determine whether to schedule an appeal for a settlement conference. The settlement conference shall be presided over by a senior justice, senior judge, or other judicial officer appointed by the Supreme Court, who shall be designated the settlement judge.

(b) Scheduling of Settlement Conference. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall notify the parties of the scheduling of a settlement conference, and of the name of the presiding settlement judge. No later than thirty (30) days from the date of the clerk's notice, the settlement judge will schedule the appeal for a settlement conference.

(c) Suspension of rules. The clerk's issuance of a scheduling notice automatically stays the time for filing a request for transcripts under Rule 9, and for filing briefs under Rule 31. Issuance of the notice also stays the preparation and filing of any transcripts ordered pursuant to Rule 9.

(d) Settlement Statement. Each party to the appeal shall submit a settlement statement directly to the settlement judge within fifteen (15) days from the date of the clerk's scheduling notice. A settlement statement shall not be filed in the supreme court and shall not be served on opposing counsel.

A settlement statement is limited to five (5) pages, and shall concisely state: (1) the relevant facts; (2) the issues on appeal; (3) the argument supporting the party's position on appeal; (4) the weakest points of the party's position on appeal; (5) the settlement proposal that the party believes would be fair or would be willing to make in order to conclude the matter; and (6) all matters which, in counsel's professional opinion, may assist the settlement judge in conducting the settlement conference. Form 10 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of a settlement statement.

(e) Settlement Conference. The settlement conference shall be held at a time and place designated by the settlement judge. Counsel for all parties and their clients must attend the conference. The settlement judge may, for good cause shown, excuse a client's attendance at the conference, provided that counsel has written authorization to resolve the case fully or has immediate telephone access to the client.

The agenda for the settlement conference and the sequence of presentation shall be at the discretion of the settlement judge. A subsequent settlement conference may be conducted by agreement of the parties or at the direction of the settlement judge.

If a settlement is reached, the parties shall immediately execute a settlement agreement and a stipulation to dismiss the appeal, and shall file the stipulation to dismiss with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(f) Failure to Participate in Settlement Conference. The failure of a party, or the party's counsel, to participate in good faith in the settlement conference process is grounds for sanctions against the party, the party's counsel, or both. Sanctions include, but are not limited to, payment of attorney's fees and costs of the opposing party, dismissal of the appeal, or reversal of the judgment below.

(g) Settlement Conference Report. Within ten (10) days from the date of any settlement conference, the settlement judge shall prepare and file with the clerk of the Supreme Court a settlement conference report. Such report must state the result of the settlement conference, but shall not disclose any matters discussed at the conference. When the settlement judge determines that a party has failed to participate in good faith in the settlement conference process, the report must state the basis for the determination.

(h) Confidentiality. Papers or documents prepared by counsel or a settlement judge in furtherance of a settlement conference, excluding the settlement conference report, shall not be available for public inspection or submitted to or considered by the Supreme Court. Matters discussed at the settlement conference and papers or documents prepared pursuant to this Rule shall not be admissible in evidence in any judicial proceeding and shall not be subject to discovery.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Appendix of Forms to Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure shall be amended by the adoption of new Form 10 as follows:
