Re: Public meeting and comments on Proposed Rule changes for the FMP

Dear Justice Pickering:

Enclosed is a screen shot of the Supreme Court web page entitled "Pending Rule Amendments" as it appeared on November 26, the day before the deadline for the public comment on the pending amendments to the Foreclosure Mediation Rules.

The web page incorrectly stated that there were no proposed rule amendments at that time. Although this error was eventually corrected, the Court did not extend the deadline for comments.

The lack of appropriate public notice through media sources utilized by the general public continues to be a disturbing problem regarding the operation of this Program.

I request the Court allow additional time to provide written comment on these proposed rules and schedule another hearing for public discussion of same.

Sincerely,
