NRAP 27(e) CERTIFICATE OF PETITIONER LISA MYERS

Petitioner hereby states the following as per NRAP 27(e)3:

(A) Lisa Myers, Petitioner In Proper Person, 9360 West Flamingo Road, Suite. 110-326, Las Vegas, Nevada 89147; (702) 401.4440; and,

Caleb Haskins, Respondent through his counsel Amanda M. Roberts, Esq., 2011 Pinto Lane, Suite 100, Las Vegas, Nevada 89106.

(B) At the January 19, 2011 hearing, which was to be a 16.2 Case Management Conference, Judge Moss allowed opposing counsel, Amanda Roberts Motion to be heard even though it was provided to this Petitioner 5 minutes prior to the hearing. Therefore, the Judge allowed Respondent three full unsupervised days with the parties minor child, Sydney Rose Myers-Haskins (age 10mos.) despite the evidence of his mental and physical impairments, conviction, extensive history of drug and alcohol abuse, anger problems, domestic abuse issues, his abandonment of the minor child who has a history of RSV. Recently, the minor child was returned to Petitioner lethargic, dehydrated, listless and ill. She was then diagnosed with a serious, contagious illness in which her Pediatrician wrote a note stating she is to remain in Petitioner's care.

Further, Respondent previously signed a Joint Agreement giving Petitioner Sole Physical and Sole Legal Custody of the parties minor child waiving any visitation. Respondent also waived any visitation and refused a drug test at the prior TPO hearing, as well.

1 The Court further Ordered the Petitioner to undergo a psychological evaluation
2 based on a completely unrelated matter which is currently on Appeal (reference
3 Supreme Court Case No. 56426) and specifically a 2003 report by an unqualified
4 individual (per the State Psychological Board) and despite the acceptance of 5 expert testimony and reports rebutting same. The Court not only forced Petitioner
6 to discuss in detail this completely unrelated matter which is on Appeal, but placed
7 her in the position of defending herself in this matter.

8 Petitioner is extremely concerned about the health and safety of the minor child
9 during the 3 days while in Respondent's "care" and "custody" and requests her
10 emergency Motion be granted so as to protect the child, her best interests, rights
11 and overall safety.

12 (C) Counsel for Respondent Caleb Haskins was served a copy of the Motion in its 13 original form February 1, 2011 and is being served with this Amended Motion
14 February 15, 2011.

15 Dated this 15th day of February, 2011.
