COMES NOW, Christopher R. Oram, Esq., attorney for Appellant, JASON MCCARTY, and moves this Court for an Order granting an extension of time of twenty-one (21) days from the date the Reply Brief is now due, to wit: October 7, 2013, and extend the time to and including, October 28, 2013 for the filing of the Reply Brief. POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Time for Serving and Filing Briefs.

The appellant shall serve and file the OPENING brief within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court. The respondent shall serve and file his answering brief within thirty (30) days after service of the brief of the appellant. After service of respondent's brief, any OPENING brief must be served and filed within thirty (30) days. . . . By written stipulation timely filed with the Supreme Court, the parties may extend the time for filing any brief for a total of thirty (30) additional days unless the court otherwise orders. Applications for extensions of time beyond that to which the parties are permitted to stipulate are not favored, and will be considered only on motion for good cause clearly shown, or ex parte in cases of extreme and unforeseeable emergency. The Supreme Court may shorten the periods prescribed above for serving and filing briefs, either by rule for all cases or for classes of cases, or by order for specific cases."

Mr. McCarty's Reply Brief is currently due on October 7, 2013. This is the third request for an extension of time. The instant case is an appeal from a murder conviction, and Mr. McCarty is sentenced to death. Mr. McCarty's trial lasted twenty-three full days. The Opening Brief in the instant case was approximately 90 pages and the Answering Brief comprised of forty-five pages. The State was granted approximately nine months to file the Answering Brief. As the briefing is so voluminous and the case very complex, it is essential the undersigned be granted additional time to file the Reply Brief.

The undersigned has begun drafting the Reply Brief but as there are numerous significant issues, additional time is extremely necessary. Moreover, Mr. McCarty has specifically requested the undersigned mail a copy of the brief for his review prior to the brief being filed.

Therefore, Counsel respectfully request that this Court permit him twenty-one (21) days in order to properly reply to these issues.

DATED this 7th day of October, 2013.
