CONCLUSION

In that Appellant needed to prepare and copy numerous pleadings to be filed with the Supreme Court, take care of her two small children, this Appellant was not able to file this Civil Proper Person Appeal Statement by the July 27th due date.

Therefore, based upon inadvertence, error, family urgency and the fact that this Appellant is appearing In Proper Person, See Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972), Hall v. Bellmon, 935 F. 2d 1106 (10th Cir.) (1991), F.R.C.P. 8 and under the Supreme Court's rules, whereby a proper person litigant is not held to the same standard as an attorney or represented party and the Courts are to render their decisions/orders/rulings on the merit of the pleading(s), Appellant respectfully requests an extension of time to August 5, 2011 in which to file and serve her seven (7) Civil Proper Person Appeal Statements in the above-entitled matter¹.

Dated this 28th day of July, 2011.
