ORDER GRANTING STAY

This is an appeal from a district court order in a tort action. Before this court is appellant's motion to vacate the district court's November 17, 2011, order requiring a supersedeas bond. Appellant seeks a temporary stay of the November order pending resolution of its motion. Respondent has filed an opposition to the motion and appellant has filed a reply.

Having reviewed the documents before us and considering the parties arguments, we conclude that a stay of the district court order requiring appellant to post a supersedeas bond is warranted. NRAP 8(c); Fritz Hansen A/S v. Dist. Ct., 116 Nev. 650, 6 P.3d 982 (2000). Accordingly, the district court's November 17, 2011, order requiring appellant to post a supersedeas bond is hereby stayed pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
