

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

CISILIE A. VAILE,

No. 36969

Petitioner,

vs.

THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF CLARK, AND
THE HONORABLE CYNTHIA DIANNE
STEEL, DISTRICT JUDGE, FAMILY COURT DIVISION,

FILED

MAR 23 2001

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. R. [Signature]
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

Respondents,

and

R. SCOTLUND VAILE,

Real Party in Interest.

ORDER

On February 15, 2001, petitioner Cisilie A. Vaile filed a motion requesting leave to file supplemental exhibits. Specifically, petitioner requested permission to file a translation of an order issued by a Norwegian appellate court. On February 16, 2001, this court entered an order granting the motion. See NRAP 27(b) (motions for procedural matters may be acted upon at any time without awaiting response).

On February 26, 2001, real party in interest R. Scotlund Vaile filed an opposition to petitioner's motion. We elect to treat the opposition as a motion for reconsideration or our order entered on February 16, 2001. No good cause appearing, we deny the motion for reconsideration.

On March 5, 2001, real party in interest R. Scotlund Vaile filed a motion to supplement the record in this matter with a copy of a district court order entered in the proceedings below on February 18, 2000. A copy of the order is attached to the motion as Exhibit 1. On March 12, 2001, petitioner filed an opposition to the motion to supplement the record. Although petitioner does not object to supplementation of the record, petitioner does object to "misstatements in the explanatory text making up [the] motion to supplement the record." Petitioner's opposition contains a discussion of the purported inaccuracies.

01-05191

Cause appearing, we grant the real party in interest's motion to supplement the record in this matter. Accordingly, in taking this matter under consideration this court shall consider the real party in interest's motion to supplement, the district court order attached to the motion, and petitioner's points and authorities in opposition to the motion.

Finally, we note that since the initial filing of the writ petition and four-volume appendix, the parties have moved to supplement the record before this court on three separate occasions. It appears that the record before this court is sufficient and adequate to fully dispose of the questions presented in the petition. Accordingly, absent unforeseeable and extreme circumstances, this court does not expect additional motions for leave to supplement the record.

It is so ORDERED.
