EXHIBIT A

Amendment to SCR 216

Rule 216. Creation of foundation.

- 1. The board of governors, with the approval of the supreme court, shall designate a tax-exempt bar foundation for the purposes of providing [legally-related] legally related services to the poor, to the victims of domestic violence, and to children protected by or in need of protection of the juvenile court; promoting or providing law-related educational programs for members of the public; and providing similar programs which qualify for tax-exempt status by the United States Internal Revenue Service under I.R.C. section 501(c)(3) or any additions thereto or amendments thereof. To carry out these purposes, the bar foundation may utilize the income accrued from interest-bearing client's trust accounts (IOLTA funds) as authorized by Rules 216 through 221, and as the supreme court may otherwise order.
- (a) A major portion of all IOLTA funds shall be disbursed for the purposes of providing [legally-related] legally related services to the poor, to victims of domestic violence, and to children protected by or in need of protection of the juvenile court. The remainder of the IOLTA funds shall be spent as the bar foundation deems appropriate, keeping in mind the purposes set forth in this rule.
- (b) Among factors to be considered in disbursing the funds should be the geographic origin of the funds.
- 2. The governing body of the designated bar foundation shall be composed of [twenty-one] a minimum of 11 and no more than 17 members. [Fourteen] At maximum capacity, 12 of the members shall be members in good standing of the state bar, and [seven] 5 shall be lay persons who have knowledge of and are acquainted with the needs of the poor, victims of domestic violence, and children protected by or in need of protection of the juvenile court. The Board shall include at least 4 lay persons at all times.

- (a) None of the members of the bar foundations' governing body shall also be a member of the board of governors of the state bar or be related to any member of the board of governors within the third degree of consanguinity.
- (b) The members of the bar foundations' governing body shall not be members of the governing body or employees of grantee organizations.
- 3. The terms of office of the members of the governing body of the bar foundation shall be staggered. Each member shall be appointed for a term of [two] 2 years. No member may serve on the governing body for more than a lifetime total of [ten] 10 years. The time served in filling a partial term created by a vacancy shall not be included in computing the [ten year] 10-year lifetime limit.
- 4. [In even-numbered years, the supreme court shall appoint for two-year terms, commencing June 30th, seven attorneys and four lay persons as members of the governing body of the bar foundation.] All appointments shall be for a term of 2 years, commencing June 30th, to be made by the supreme court in even-numbered years and by the board of governors of the state bar in odd-numbered years.
- 5. [In odd numbered years, the board of governors of the state bar shall appoint for two-year terms, commencing June 30th, seven attorneys and three lay persons as members of the governing body of the bar foundation. 6.] Vacancies on the governing body of the bar foundation shall be filled by the [supreme court] original appointing entity by appointment.

[7.] 6. The principal office of the bar foundation shall be situated in Clark County.
