1           IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

2           1.     The Court agrees with the Defendants that the decision of the United States District
3 Court of Nevada in Lucas v. Bell Trans., 2009 WL 2424557 (D. Nev. 2009), is sound and persuasive.
4 The Nevada Supreme Court strongly disfavors implied repeal. The decision in Lucas v Bell Trans.,
5 supra, although not binding authority on this Court, is persuasive authority, and therefore adopted by 6 this Court.

7           2.     The Court concludes that the adoption of the constitutional amendment by Nevada voters
8 in 2006, now known as Article 15, Section 16 (the "Minimum Wage Amendment"), did not repeal
9 NRS 608.250 by "implication." The Court finds there is another reasonable construction of the 10 Minimum Wage Amendment that does not require the repeal of NRS 608.250 by implication. The 11 Minimum Wage Amendment made absolutely no reference to NRS 608.250. The focus of the 12 Minimum Wage Amendment was the actual minimum wage. The Minimum Wage Amendment's
13 definition of "employee" is not in conflict with NRS 608.250's exceptions, which include taxi and 14 limousine drivers. As a result, this Court holds that the Minimum Wage Amendment did not repeal
15 NRS 608.250 or its exceptions. Because NRS 608.250(2)(e) expressly states that Nevada's minimum
16 wage does not apply to taxicab and limousine drivers, Plaintiffs cannot sue for a violation of unpaid
17 minimum wages under Nevada law. NRS 608.250(2)(e).

18           3.     The Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' Complaint, brought by Defendants, NEVADA
19 YELLOW CAB CORPORATION, NEVADA CHECKER CAB CORPORATION and NEVADA
20 STAR CAB CORPORATION, is granted in its entirety and with prejudice. Accordingly, this case is 21 dismissed.

22           DATED this 30 day of August, 2012.
