ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF AND TO BE HEARD AT ORAL ARGUMENT

This is an appeal from a district court order dismissing an employee wage matter. The Livery Operators Association of Las Vegas (LOA) has filed a motion, under NRAP 29, for leave to file an amicus curiae brief in support of respondents and to be heard at oral argument. Appellants oppose the motion and the LOA has filed a reply in support of its request.

Under NRAP 29(f), a motion for leave to file an amicus curiae brief must be filed no later than seven days after the brief of the party being supported is filed. Here, the LOA seeks to file a brief in support of respondents, but its motion for leave to file the amicus brief was untimely filed more than three months after respondents' answering brief was filed and more than two months after briefing of this matter was completed.

Under these circumstances, LOA's motion is denied. The clerk of this court is directed to return, unfiled, the LOA's proposed amicus curiae brief and appendix, which were provisionally received on June 3, 2013.

It is so ORDERED.
