JOURNAL ENTRIES- EVIDENTIARY HEARING: ARGUMENT

Deft. not present. Mr. Oram advised he wants to argue his writ and other motions as a whole and then he is going to request an evidentiary hearing and appointment of investigator and expert. Court advised after reviewing everything it has not been persuaded that there has been ineffective assistance of counsel nor does it agree with the death penalty being unconstitutional argument. Further, Court doesn't see an evidentiary hearing would change anything in this case and is inclined to deny motion. Arguments by counsel. Colloquy between Court and Mr. Oram. COURT stated findings and ORDERED, Motion DENIED, State to prepare the order and include the reasons set forth in State's opposition in the order.

- STATE'S SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION TO ADMIT EVIDENCE OF OTHER CRIMES, WRONGS OR BAD ACTS...STATE'S MOTION TO ADMIT EVIDENCE OF OTHER CRIMES, WRONGS OR BAD ACTS...DEFT'S MOTION IN LIMINE REGARDING EVENTS RELATED TO DEFT'S ARREST FOR SHOPLIFTING ON SEPTEMBER 1, 1995...DEFT'S MOTION IN LIMINE REGARDING DETAILS OF DEFT'S RELEASE FROM JAIL AND FACT THAT HE WAS ON PROBATION

Offer of proof made by Ms. Silver. Court's exhibits A-D offered and admitted per worksheet. Court inquired if the hearing is going to proceed with live testimony. Mr. Harmon advised they are making an offer of proof in lieu of testimony. Mr. Brooks advised his position is that the State has to present clear and convincing evidence by actual testimony and not by offer of proof. Argument by Mr. Brooks and advised deft. Chappell has offered a stipulation that he did kill the woman. Court advised the State has not accepted that stipulation at this time. Mr. Harmon advised this is all evidence of deft's motive and intent and it is their position that he intended to kill the victim when he was released from the County jail. Mr. Harmon advised they would accept deft's stipulation, but ask the Court to allow them to continue to offer the evidence as they have to convince the jury. Mr. Brooks objected and advised the pattern of domestic violence is highly inflammatory because it is character evidence. Further arguments by counsel. Court stated his findings and ORDERED, State's Motion and Supplemental Motion to Admit Evidence of Other Crimes, Wrongs or Bad Acts are GRANTED.

As to deft's motions, Mr. Harmon argued he believes the shoplifting is admissible as proof of motive and intent and as to deft's release from jail and that he was on probation, the Jury does not need to know that, however, they do need to know he was in custody as the State has letters that were written while deft. was in a custodial status; deft. was in jail for domestic violence. Court FINDS the fact that deft. was in custody and released is probative, however, why deft. was in custody does not need to be known and ORDERED, Deft's Motion in Limine Regarding Details of Deft's Release From Jail and Fact That He Was on Probation is GRANTED IN PART. Mr. Harmon advised the State will stipulate deft. was in custody for domestic violence and that he was released in the morning of August 31, 1995, and was to report to law enforcement at 1:30 p.m. that date and did not report. Mr. Brooks advised he would like to think about that stipulation. Court advised he will allow that evidence in absence of a stipulation. Further argument by Mr. Brooks as to the motion in limine re the shoplifting charge. COURT ORDERED, RULING DEFERRED as to this motion. As to the stipulation currently on file, COURT ORDERED, the State may read that in their opening statement if they wish. Court advised we will start jury selection at 1:30 p.m. today and go to about 6:00 p.m. Court advised he has cleared his civil calendar tomorrow except for one matter. Colloquy between Court and counsel as to a starting time tomorrow. COURT ORDERED, this matter will proceed at 9:15 a.m. tomorrow morning. Court stated he has advised counsel there will be no proceedings for the next two Wednesdays. Counsel acknowledged.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY, Court stated immediately following the voir dire of Mr. Fittro, the Court inquired of defense counsel why they did not voir dire this juror as to the victim and deft. being of different ethnicity as he had indicated in his questionnaire that it may be a problem and Mr. Brooks advised that issue cuts both ways and he had made a tactical decision not to go into that further. Mr. Brooks concurred. Mr. Harmon advised both prospective jurors were equivocal on the death penalty. Following arguments by counsel, Court stated he FINDS the reason for the challenges is race neutral. Whether minorities are being excused because of their stand on capital punishment and whether capital punishment is being given more often to minorities has not been reached by the Supreme Court and is a matter for future courts. - 9:37 A.M.--PATSY SMITH, COURT REPORTER. Deft's Motion to Dismiss All Charges Based on the State's Violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment FILED IN OPEN COURT. Mr. Brooks argued the State's charging practices are biased and they are seeking the death penalty in this case where a black killed a white, however, in two other cases he has, one where a white man killed a white man and another where a Thai killed a Thai, no death penalty was sought and the fact patterns are almost identical. Ms. Silver advised she recently prosecuted a case where a black man killed a black woman and the death penalty was sought and obtained. The District Attorney's office has a panel that decides which are death cases; the decision is not made unilaterally by one person. Arguments by counsel as to African/ Americans that were excused or challenged off the Jury. Court stated he feels the current practice of selecting jurors is about as race neutral as it can be, it is based on persons who have driver's licenses. Court advised there is no question in this case that the victim is Caucasian and the deft. is African/ American, however, at this point there is insufficient foundation and ORDERED, motion DENIED. 10:05 a.m.--Counsel stipulated to the presence of the Jury. Further testimony and exhibits presented per worksheets. 10:43 a.m.-- OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY, Mr. Harmon advised his next three witnesses will relate to the detention of the deft. at a Lucky's Food Store on September 1, 1995, in the early afternoon and made an offer of proof. Argument in opposition by Mr. Brooks. Court stated his findings and ORDERED, this testimony will be ALLOWED. Mr. Brooks requested a continuing objection as to anything reference the shoplifting. COURT SO ORDERED and advised Mr. Brooks need not object in front of the Jury. 11:02 a.m.--Counsel stipulated to the presence of the Jury. Further testimony and exhibits presented. Jury admonished and excused for the lunch recess at 11:55 a.m. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY, Court advised, as to the evidence of shoplifting, one of the defense theories is this was a crime committed in the heat of passion and the shoplifting evidence is evidence that deft. felt no remorse and went on with the everyday activities of his life. Court adjourned at 11:57 a.m.

1:45 P.M.--MARCIA LEONARD, COURT REPORTER. Counsel stipulated to the presence of the Jury. Further testimony and exhibits presented. 2:20 p.m-- COURT ORDERED, the minutes of this Court will reflect this Court's pride and affection for Ms. Jennifer Newton-Taylor, Mr. Bryan Sims and Ms. Madeline Diekmann all of whom have served as this Court's law clerks here in Department VII of the Eighth Judicial District and all of whom received notice of their passing grades on the Nevada Bar Exam this 11th day of October 1996. Further testimony and exhibits presented. 3:08 p.m.--OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY, COURT ORDERED, the record will reflect deft. does have shoes and socks on, though when one of the witnesses was describing him he had his shoes off. Further, Court stated his findings as to the state-of-mind exception to hearsay and requested the State prepare the appropriate limiting instruction. Mr. Brooks stated his position is the state of mind of the victim is not relevant. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Brooks will be allowed a continuing objection. 3:42 p.m.-- Counsel stipulated to the presence of the Jury. Further testimony and exhibits presented. Mr. Harmon stated, as the Court is well aware, counsel have entered into certain stipulations and would like to make the Jury aware of those at this time. COURT ORDERED, counsel may read the stipulation into the record as part of their case-in-chief. Mr. Harmon advised the Jury as to deft's times in jail for domestic violence and that, as to exhibits 69-73, counsel have stipulated that the handwriting on those papers is NOT that of deft., but that the ones signed "James" or "James Chappell" are in deft's handwriting. Mr. Harmon read a written stipulation into the record. COURT ORDERED, Court officially accepts all stipulations recited and the Jury is advised they are evidence in this case. Further testimony and exhibits presented. Court admonished the Jury and excused them for the weekend at 5:02 p.m. to return at 10:30 a.m. Monday morning.

admonished to make every effort to be here on time. Juror Gritis excused for the evening. Mr. Brooks moved to strike the testimony of Lisa Duran and Mike Pollard and moved for a mistrial of the guilt phase based on the State's willful failure to present conflicting evidence. Mr. Brooks advised his position is that Pollard's testimony was essential at the Petrocelli hearing as it brings Duran's credibility into question and the State had a duty to have Pollard testify during the guilt phase. Mr. Harmon stated he believes they are at liberty to engage in certain trial tactics; Mike Pollard was not a mystery to anyone at the preliminary hearing as Lisa Duran referred to him. Further, Pollard was listed as a potential witness on the Information and the defense had the same opportunity to interview him as anyone else. Mr. Harmon advised Pollard was originally on their list of witnesses to be served and was not contacted for some reason prior to the guilt phase. Mr. Harmon advised they did not formally interview Mike Pollard until after the guilt phase. Mr. Harmon argued, just because one witness contradicts another, their testimony is not vulnerable to a motion to strike. Court stated he believes that Brady does not compel the State to put on consistent testimony and, in this case, the time frames described by witnesses are inexact and the Jury has been allowed to decide this case based on the evidence before it. This witness was mentioned at the preliminary hearing and his name was endorsed on the Information and defense counsel could have interviewed him. Based on the totality of the evidence, this does not create an ineffective assistance of counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. CUSTODY

- Mr. Schieck noted that the argument today centers on whether the trial outcome would have been different if witnesses would have been used during guilt phase and penalty phase. He stated that Mr. Brooks, feels it would have made a difference.

Mr. Peterson argued that in reference to the written opposition and the State's brief; there is overwhelming evidence of guilt. Deft. conceded he killed her and knifed her and then committed sexual assault. He further argued that the killing was established and that the other witnesses went toward domestic violence. He reiterated that the Deft. admitted the killing. There is no prejudice by presumed failure by Deft's counsel and the Petition should be denied.

Mr. Schieck reiterated that Michigan witnesses would have relevance to the jury re the first degree murder and affected the death sentence.

The Court noted that when the Supreme Court denied a rehearing and rendered their opinion on 3/17/99, they cited the fact that jurors returned a verdict of death after finding that the two mitigating circumstances (the murder was committed while under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance and any other mitigating circumstances) did not outweigh four aggravating factors (the murder was committed during the commission of a robbery, burglary, and sexual assault, and the murder involved torture or depravity of mind). As to the penalty phase, Deft and Deft's counsel have an obligation to present evidence.

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's opinion, COURT ORDERED, a new Penalty Hearing is to be held in this matter.

Mr. Schieck was directed to draft the Order.

CLERK'S NOTE 4/13/04sc: S. Chun, Clerk, phoned Mr. Schieck to verify that counsel were going to request a hearing date in the Order. Mr. Schieck responded that he had spoken to Mr. Peterson and that the State was going to file an Appeal, so no hearing date would yet be requested.
