ERNESTO MANUEL GONZALEZ,

vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 64249

TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY R. Malone
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING MOTION

Appellant has filed a motion requesting a second extension of time (30 days) to file the opening brief. When the prior motion was granted, counsel was warned that further extensions would only be granted on showing of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need, NRAP 31(b)(3)(B), and that his caseload normally would not be deemed an extraordinary circumstance, cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Based on the circumstances set forth in counsel's declaration and his representation that he has declined to accept some new clients in order to meet his obligations in various pending appeals, the motion is granted. Appellant shall have until November 5, 2014, to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Any additional extensions will be granted only on showing of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions.

It is so ORDERED.
