20 ~~PROPOSED~~ FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

21 This matter came on for a non-jury trial on July 1, 2013 before the Court, Honorable
22 Patrick Flanagan, District Judge, presiding. The Court heard evidence for 9 days and the 23 arguments of counsel on the 10th day of trial. The Court, having carefully considered all of the 24 exhibits in evidence, the testimony of the witnesses, trial statements of the parties, and the 25 arguments of counsel, hereby issues the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

Findings of Fact

1. On or about April 15, 2008, ISLAM became an employee of the Golden Road Motor Inn, Inc., dba Atlantis Casino Resort Spa ("ATLANTIS").

2. On April 15, 2008, ISLAM executed the ATLANTIS Online System User Agreement ("Online System User Agreement"). Among other terms, the Online System User Agreement prohibits unauthorized downloading or uploading of software and information.

3. On April 15, 2008, in conjunction with her employment with ATLANTIS, ISLAM also executed an agreement with ATLANTIS concerning its Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct Acknowledgement and Conflicts of Interest Statement. This agreement ("Business Ethics Policy"), was again signed by ISLAM on January 23, 2009, February 26, 2010 and January 19, 2011. This policy in section 3.1 identifies confidential information as all nonpublic information regarding the company's operation and business activities and those of its customers and suppliers. Nonpublic means any information that is not officially disclosed through means such a press releases or other forms of publication, where it is not common knowledge. Section 4.4 prohibits the disclosure of inside information to persons outside the company or other persons within the company who are not authorized to receive such information. Pursuant to the terms of the Business Ethics Policy, ISLAM agreed not to disclose confidential information including customer lists or customer information (such as player tracking or club information) to any unauthorized persons, either during or after her termination, and not to take any documents or records belonging to ATLANTIS after her departure. She also agreed not to profit from confidential information of ATLANTIS. ISLAM's agreement to the terms of this contract was a condition of her employment with ATLANTIS.

4. On April 15, 2008, in conjunction with commencing her employment with ATLANTIS, ISLAM executed the ATLANTIS Company Policy regarding Company Property, Proprietary Information, and Trade Secrets (hereinafter referred to as "Trade Secret Agreement"). This agreement, including any updates, was again signed by ISLAM on January 23, 2009, February 26, 2010 and January 19, 2011. This agreement provides that any improper

1 use or dissemination of ATLANTIS intellectual property is a breach of the policy and may be a
2 violation of state and federal trade secrets laws and also warns that such violation is punishable
3 both civilly and criminally.

4 5. ISLAM was hired to be an Executive Casino Host at ATLANTIS. When she
5 was hired, she was under a contractual obligation to her former employer, Harrah's, which
6 prohibited her from working in a same or similar position within six months after separation
7 from employment at Harrah's. In order to honor this obligation, ATLANTIS placed her in the
8 position of concierge manager. She worked in the hotel side of the operation of the 9 ATLANTIS and not in the gaming side of the operation until the expiration of the six month
10 restriction imposed by her agreement with Harrah's. Thereafter, she was transferred to the 11 gaming operation and began her employment as a host.

12 6. When ISLAM began to work as a host at ATLANTIS, she brought with her
13 what she claimed to be her personal book of trade. ISLAM has identified Exhibits 75 and 80
14 as her book of trade.

15 7. Steve Ringkob, indeed almost every witness, testified that there were certain
16 items that hosts were entitled to take with them from property to property and that a host's
17 book of trade is the host's property and "nothing is wrong with her taking this information
18 wherever she goes." However, he also testified that the player's gaming history and tracking at 19 the ATLANTIS would become proprietary information.

20 8. Although the term "casino host book of trade" has been defined variously, it has 21 generally been defined as those names and contact information of guests with whom the host
22 has developed relationships through their own efforts. Ringkob defined it as those guests with 23 whom the host has developed a relationship and it was not information coming from the casino.

24 9. The evidence is clear that ISLAM intentionally downloaded, by hand copying
25 from the ATLANTIS computer screen, players' names, contact information, level of play,
26 game preferences and other proprietary information from the ATLANTIS Casino's, casino
27 management system, Patron Management Program.

1 10. On February 26, 2010, ISLAM signed a Non-Compete/Non-Solicitation
2 Agreement with ATLANTIS ("Non-Compete Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Non-
3 Compete Agreement, ISLAM agreed that she would not, without the prior written consent of
4 ATLANTIS, be employed by, in any way affiliated with, or provide services to any gaming
5 operation located within 150 miles of ATLANTIS for a cooling off period of one year after the 6 date that the employment relationship between she and the ATLANTIS ended.

7 11. During ISLAM'S employment at ATLANTIS, she had access to and worked 8 with highly sensitive trade secrets and proprietary and confidential information of the 9 ATLANTIS. This information included customer and guest lists, customer information and 10 data including player contact information, tracking and club information, guest preferences and 11 gaming tendencies of the guests. This information included not just the information for guests
12 assigned to her, but also information for guests assigned to other hosts.

13 12. Before and during ISLAM'S employment, ATLANTIS undertook significant
14 precautions to maintain the secrecy of its confidential information. These efforts included
15 disabling USB ports in the computers at ATLANTIS, not providing or allowing printers, and 16 monitoring all emails that are sent to recipients off property.

17 13. Despite the precautions taken to protect ATLANTIS' confidential trade secret
18 information, during her employment at ATLANTIS ISLAM copied guest information by hand
19 from the screen of the ATLANTIS computer onto spiral note pads. Ms. ISLAM, in her
20 handwritten notes in spiral notebooks, which she identified as hers, copied players' names,
21 contact information and also the designation of whether or not they played table games or slots.
22 The information copied had the notation of the guests' marker information, for purposes of 23 knowing what their credit limit was. Some notations included information regarding previous 24 gaming results and losses incurred by that player. This is information Ms. ISLAM testified that 25 she wrote down from the ATLANTIS computer. A copy of some of those spirals is found in 26 Exhibit 80.

27 14. Ms. ISLAM testified that in the fall of 2011, she was becoming dissatisfied with 28 her employment at the ATLANTIS. She testified that she had not been given a raise, that she

1 had only been given one bonus and not the quarterly bonuses that she states were promised to
2 her, she felt isolated in her interpersonal relationships with other employees at the ATLANTIS
3 and she had come to a point in her career where she believed that if she was ever going to make
4 more money, she would have to seek employment elsewhere.

5 15. The evidence is that on or around October, Ms. ISLAM learned from Ms.
6 Antonetti that the Grand Sierra Resort ("GSR") was hiring new employees. Through an online
7 application, ISLAM applied for and interviewed with the GSR to obtain a position as a host.

8 16. At about that time, Ms. ISLAM asked Mr. DeCarlo for a copy of her Non-
9 Compete Agreement with the ATLANTIS.

10 17. Sometime in December and January, two interviews took place. The first was 11 with Ms. Hadley, at the GSR. Ms. Hadley testified that she was impressed with Ms. ISLAM.
12 She testified she did not ask for ISLAM's book of business at that time.

13 18. A second interview was arranged between ISLAM and Hadley and Flaherty of 14 the GSR. At that time, a more in-depth discussion took place relative to Ms. ISLAM's book of 15 business. Mr. Flaherty testified and it's confirmed by the transcript of a subsequent interview
16 that he told Ms. ISLAM not to bring anything from the ATLANTIS to the GSR, to bring
17 nothing, but herself and her relationships.

18 19. During the course of the interview process, ISLAM and representatives of GSR
19 discussed the fact that ISLAM was subject to an agreement restricting her employment with a
20 competitor of ATLANTIS and ISLAM provided GSR with a copy of the Non-Compete
21 Agreement. This conduct is consistent with ISLAM's testimony of her behavior when applying
22 for the position with the ATLANTIS. She testified that she provided a copy of the Harrah's
23 Non-Compete to the ATLANTIS prior to their offering of employment to her.

24 20. The testimony is that GSR then passed the ATLANTIS Non-Compete
25 Agreement to its legal counsel. Legal counsel apparently reviewed that and gave the green
26 light to hire Ms. ISLAM.

1 21. Ms. ISLAM was concerned that ATLANTIS would initiate litigation against her
2 and sought assurances that GSR would provide legal representation to her should there be
3 litigation over the Non-Compete. GSR agreed.

4 22. ISLAM terminated her employment as an Executive Casino Host with the
5 ATLANTIS on January 19, 2012 and accepted an offer with GSR as an Executive Casino Host
6 on the same day.

7 23. ISLAM began work at GSR at the end of January, 2012.

8 24. The ATLANTIS alleges that soon after ISLAM terminated her employment,
9 ATLANTIS employees discovered that ISLAM had falsely modified, destroyed, falsely
10 changed and/or sabotaged confidential, proprietary, trade secret information of ATLANTIS,
11 including customer data belonging to the ATLANTIS on its online system to her benefit and
12 the benefit of GSR and to the detriment of ATLANTIS.

13 25. The evidence adduced in this matter by Ms. ISLAM herself and other witnesses
14 of the Plaintiff is that Ms. ISLAM did change the addresses, telephone number and/or the email
15 addresses of guests that had been coded to her in the ATLANTIS' casino customer or guest
16 database.

17 26. The evidence shows that shortly after Ms. ISLAM left the employ of the 18 ATLANTIS, the guests who had been assigned to her at the ATLANTIS were distributed
19 amongst the remaining ATLANTIS hosts who attempted to contact those guests to maintain
20 and establish a continued relationship with the ATLANTIS. Shortly thereafter, those hosts
21 reported difficulty, indeed inability to contact the guests. It quickly became apparent that the
22 contact information had been sabotaged. ATLANTIS staff testified that they restored old
23 copies of the Patron Management data to a location in the computer system where the auditors
24 could access the information and the information was restored to the Patron Management
25 Program, the guest marketing database, in a relatively short period of time.

26 27. Additionally, the evidence showed that none of the information was changed in 27 the LMS database, which is the database known as the Lodging Management System that 28 controls the hotel operations.

1 28. ISLAM testified that she did not show either Ms. Hadley or Mr. Flaherty the
2 spiral notebooks which contained the information she had wrongfully taken from the
3 ATLANTIS' database. Nevertheless, after her employment by the GSR began, Ms. ISLAM
4 began to input that information, the information taken from the ATLANTIS and contained on
5 the spiral notebooks, into the GSR database.

6 29. The testimony from the GSR representatives is that the database fields accessed
7 and completed by ISLAM are limited. They restrict the information that a host could input to
8 name, address, telephone number and contact information. There are no fields for a host to 9 themselves input information regarding a player's gaming history, level of play or preference of 10 game.

11 30. Both Ms. Hadley and Mr. Flaherty testified they never saw the spiral notebooks
12 containing the information ISLAM had wrongfully taken from the ATLANTIS' database.

13 31. After the database sabotage was discovered by the ATLANTIS, ATLANTIS'
14 general counsel, Debra Robinson, wrote a letter to GSR advising them that Ms. ISLAM was 15 subject to a Non-Compete, Non-Disclosure Agreement and that she may have confidential
16 information and ATLANTIS demanded the GSR cease and desist from the use of that 17 information and return it forthwith.

18 32. In response to the cease and desist letter from ATLANTIS to the GSR and Ms.
19 ISLAM relating to the ATLANTIS' concerns about ISLAM's employment, the counsel for the 20 GSR sent a letter rejecting the assertions of the ATLANTIS and essentially maintaining that
21 there was nothing confidential or proprietary that had been acquired by GSR and that all
22 information provided by Ms. ISLAM came from her own personal relationships and her book
23 of business.

24 33. The ATLANTIS reasonably initiated litigation.

25 34. On April 27, 2012, ATLANTIS filed its Complaint for relief with seven causes
26 of action.

27 35. On May 9, 2012, this Court, through its sister Department, entered a Temporary
28 Restraining Order barring Ms. ISLAM from any employment with GSR. That Order was

1 extended by Order of this Court dated July 5, 2012 which also applied to GSR. Thereafter, the
2 parties stipulated to a Preliminary Injunction ending this case pending the case's resolution.

3 36. To the extent appropriate and to give intent to this order, any finding of fact
4 should be found to be a conclusion of law. Similarly, to the extent appropriate any conclusion
5 of law shall be deemed a finding of fact.

6 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

7 Breach of Contract – Online Systems User Agreement, Business Ethics Policy, Trade 8 Secrets Agreement as to ISLAM

10 1. The elements for establishing a breach of contract claim are: (1) A valid and
11 existing contract was entered into between Plaintiff and Defendant; (2) Plaintiff performed or 12 was excused from performance of the contract; (3) Defendant breached; and (4) Plaintiff
13 sustained damages as a result of the breach. Reichert vs. General Insurance Co. of Amer., 68
14 Cal. 2d 822, 69 Cal. Rptr. 321, 442 P.2d 377 (1968); Marwan Ahmed Harara vs. Conoco
15 Phillips Co., 375 F. Supp. 2d 905, 906 (9th Cir. 2005).

16 2. In order to succeed on a breach of contract claim in Nevada, a plaintiff must 17 show "(1) the existence of a valid contract, (2) a breach by the defendant, and (3) damage as a
18 result of the breach." Saini v. Int'l Game Tech., 434 F. Supp. 2d 913, 919-920 (D. Nev. 2006),
19 citing Richardson v. Jones, 1 Nev. 405, 405 (1865).

20 3. In its first cause of action the Plaintiff alleges the violation of three contracts.
21 These are the Online User Agreement, the Business Ethics Policy, and the Trade Secrets
22 Agreement. These agreements were signed by Defendant ISLAM and a representative of 23 Plaintiff, ATLANTIS. This Court finds that these are valid contracts. The Court further finds
24 that the Defendant ISLAM breached these contracts.

25 4. Based upon the fact that ISLAM downloaded players' names, contact
26 information, level of play, game preferences and other proprietary information from the 27 ATLANTIS Casino's, casino management system, Patron Management Program, the Court
28 finds that she has breached these contracts and that the ATLANTIS has suffered damages as a

1 result of the breach. Consequently, the Court finds in favor of the Plaintiff and against
2 Defendant Sumona ISLAM on the first cause of action.

3 5. The Court finds that damages should be awarded in favor of ATLANTIS and
4 against ISLAM on this claim. These are made up of compensatory damages of $10,941 plus an
5 additional $2,119 to repair the database, totaling $13,060.

6 Breach of Contract—Non-Compete Agreement as to ISLAM

7 6. The Non-compete/Non-solicitation Agreement was signed by ISLAM and a
8 representative of ATLANTIS in 2010. The law presumes that all parties have the freedom to
9 contract and establish the terms of employment between themselves. However, restrictive
10 covenants are not favored in the law. The determination of the validity of such a contract as 11 written is governed by whether or not it imposes upon the employee any greater restraint than 12 is reasonably necessary to protect the business and the goodwill of the employer.

13 7. A restraint of trade is unreasonable if it is greater than that required to protect 14 the person for whose benefit the restraint is imposed or imposes an undue hardship on the 15 person restricted. Hansen v. Edwards, 83 Nev. 189, 426 P.2d 792 (1967). See also, Jones v.
16 Deeter, 112 Nev. 291, 294, 913 P.2d 1272, 1274 (1996).

17 8. The public has an interest in seeing that competition is not unreasonably limited
18 or restricted.

19 9. In the instant matter, this Court finds that the term restricting employment for a 20 period of one year is reasonable and necessary to protect the interests of the ATLANTIS.

21 10. This Court finds that the term restricting employment within 150 miles from 22 ATLANTIS is reasonable. It encompasses the markets of Sacramento and the evidence
23 supports the threat that Thunder Valley and indeed other Northern California casinos pose to 24 the casinos of Northern Nevada.

25 11. The Court finds, however, that the total exclusion from employment with a
26 competitor is unreasonable. This Court finds that excluding the employment of an individual
27 such as Ms. ISLAM, who has attempted to create a career in this industry from any role in any 28 casino in any capacity is an unreasonable restraint on her and it imposes an undue hardship on

1 Ms. ISLAM and it is a restraint that is greater than that required for the protection of the person
2 for whose benefit the restraint is imposed, the ATLANTIS. Therefore, the Court finds the
3 Non-Competition contract unenforceable and dismisses the second cause of action related to
4 breach of that contract.

5 Conversion of Property as to ISLAM

6 12. The elements of conversion are that a defendant exercises an act of dominion
7 wrongfully exerted over the personal property of another in denial of or inconsistent with title
8 rights therein, or in derogation, exclusion or defiance of such rights. M.C. Multi Family
9 Development, L.L.C. v. Crestdale Associates Ltd., 124 Nev. 901, 910, 196 P.3d 536 (2008)
10 citing Evans v. Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., 116 Nev. 598, 606, 5 P.3d 1043, 1048 (2000).

12 13. The caselaw here states that conversion generally is limited to those severe,
13 major and important interferences with the right to control personal property that justified
14 requiring the actor to pay the property's full value. Courts have noted that this remedy in 15 general is harsh and is reserved for the most severe interferences with personal property.

17 14. The Court finds that the evidence adduced shows that the interference with the 18 property of the ATLANTIS was not severe, that the information, although altered, was not lost
19 and was easily restored. One measure of that is the fact that the damages sought for the 20 restoration expense is de minimus in light of the value of not only Ms. ISLAM's book of trade,
21 which she estimated at $3.5 to $4 million, but the operation of the ATLANTIS itself.
22 Therefore, this Court finds that the Plaintiff has failed to establish the elements of conversion
23 and the third cause of action is therefore dismissed.

25 Tortious Interference with Contractual Relations and Prospective Economic Advantage as 26 to ISLAM

27 15. To establish intentional interference with contractual relations, ATLANTIS
28 must show: (1) a valid and existing contract; (2) the defendant's knowledge of the contract; (3) intentional acts intended or designed to disrupt the contractual relationship; (4) actual

1 disruption of the contract; and (5) resulting damage. Sutherland v. Gross, 105 Nev. 192, 772
2 P.2d 1287, 1290 (1989).

3 16. The elements of the tort of wrongful interference with a prospective economic
4 advantage are: (1) a prospective contractual relationship between the plaintiff and a third
5 party; (2) the defendant's knowledge of this prospective relationship; (3) the intent to harm the
6 plaintiff by preventing the relationship; (4) the absence of a privilege or justification by the
7 defendant; and, (5) actual harm to the plaintiff as a result of the defendant's conduct. Leavitt v.
8 Leisure Sports, Inc., 103 Nev. 81, 88, 734 P.2d 1221, 1225 (1987); Las Vegas-Tonopah-Reno
9 Stage v. Gray Line, 106 Nev. 283, 792 P.2d 386, 388 (1990).

10 17. Based upon the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Frantz v. Johnson, 116
11 Nev. 455, 999 P.2d 351(2000), this Court is directed to look to the specific evidence adduced at 12 trial to determine whether or not the acts of a defendant are more appropriately adjudicated
13 under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act than under a claim for tortious interference with contract
14 or prospective economic advantage. In an examination of the facts here, this Court has 15 determined that the facts adduced in this trial make it more appropriate that the claim against 16 Sumona ISLAM be adjudicated under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act.

17 Violation of Uniform Trade Secret Act, NRS 600A.010 et. seq. as to ISLAM and GSR

18 18. To establish a misappropriation claim under NRS § 600A.010 et. seq., the 19 plaintiff must show: (1) a valuable trade secret; (2) misappropriation¹ of the trade secret

21 ¹ "Misappropriation" per NRS 600A.030(2) means:

- 22 (a) Acquisition of the trade secret of another by a person by improper means;
23 (b) Acquisition of a trade secret of another by a person who knows or has reason to know that the trade secret was
24 acquired by improper means; or
25 (c) Disclosure or use of a trade secret of another without express or implied consent by a person who:
26 (1) Used improper means to acquire knowledge of the trade secret;
27 (2) At the time of disclosure or use, knew or had reason to know that his or her knowledge of the trade
28 secret was:
(I) Derived from or through a person who had used improper means to acquire it;
(II) Acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to maintain its secrecy or limits its use; or
(III) Derived from or through a person who owed a duty to the person seeking relief to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or
(3) Before a material change of his or her position, knew or had reason to know that it was a trade secret and that knowledge of it had been acquired by accident or mistake.

1 through use, disclosure, or nondisclosure of the use of the trade secret; and (3) the requirement
2 that the misappropriation be wrongful because it was made in breach of an express or implied
3 contract or by a party with a duty not to disclose. Frantz v. Johnson, 116 Nev. 455, 466, 999
4 P.2d 351, 358 (2000).

5 19. A trade secret is information that derives independent economic value, actual or
6 potential, from not being generally known to and not being readily ascertainable by proper
7 means by the public, as well as information that is subject to efforts that are reasonable under
8 the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. NRS 600A.040.

9 20. The determination of what is a trade secret is a question of fact for the trier of 10 fact. Frantz, 116 Nev. at 466, 999 P.2d at 358. The caselaw indicates that contractual
11 restrictions alone or designations alone do not control whether or not a particular design,
12 compilation, or mechanism is a trade secret. To determine whether or not an item is a trade
13 secret, the Court considers these factors. First, the extent to which the information is known
14 outside the business and the ease or difficulty with which the information could be properly
15 acquired by others. Second, whether the information was confidential or secret. Third, the 16 extent and manner in which the employer guarded the secrecy of the information. Fourth, the 17 former employee's knowledge of the customer's buying habits and other customer data and 18 whether this information is known by the employer's competitors.

19 21. There was a consensus amongst all the witnesses that in the case of a customer
20 with whom a host has established a relationship, that customer's name, address, contact
21 information is not a trade secret. All of the witnesses here have identified certain items that 22 they consider trade secrets in the gaming industry and these are well-qualified witnesses who
23 have spent decades in this industry. Those items have been identified as, (1) player tracking
24 records; (2) other hosts' customers; (3) initial buy-ins; (4) level of play; (5) whether the player
25 plays table games or slots; (6) time of play; (7) customers' personal information that is personal
26 to them, such as a Social Security number; (8) customers' casino credit; (9) customer's location,
27 whether they are an international, regional or local player; (10) marketing strategy; (11)
28 customers' birth date, which one witness testified was critical for credit accounts; (12) tier

1 levels, which is different than player ratings, they are more specific in terms of measurement;
2 (13) comp information for the player; (14) players' history of play; (15) players' demographics;
3 (16) players' financial information; (17) the company's financial information; (18) the
4 company's marketing strategy; (19) other employees' information and customer information.
5 The Court does not by this list deem this list to be exclusive. There may be other instances and
6 other items that are properly designated as trade secrets, however, this was the evidence
7 adduced in this trial.

8 22. This Court finds that this information is not known outside of the business of the 9 ATLANTIS. Indeed, the previous 19 items are not easy to learn, in fact, it is difficult to 10 acquire this information properly.

11 23. This Court further finds that there is no question that this information was 12 confidential within the ATLANTIS and that has been demonstrated amply by the extent and 13 manner in which the ATLANTIS took steps to guard the secrecy of this information.
14 Specifically, Mr. Woods testified that there were no printers and that the USB ports on the 15 computers were restricted, that the hosts had no ability to print or download guest lists. He 16 further explained that security access was determined by the job designation. There was 17 testimony that the passwords for this access were changed frequently and therefore it has been 18 established beyond any reasonable doubt that the ATLANTIS considered all of this
19 information a trade secret and this Court does so find.

20 24. This Court finds that the information written down in the spiral notebooks
21 which Ms. ISLAM identified as hers was taken from the ATLANTIS' computer and is not
22 information open to the public.

23 25. This Court finds that Ms. ISLAM has violated not only the terms and conditions
24 of her contract, but also has committed a violation of the Uniform Trade Secrets Act.

25 26. This Court finds that Damages are appropriately awarded against ISLAM for 26 violation of the Uniform Trade Secrets Act and awards damages totaling $10,814.

27 ///

1 Declaratory Relief

2 27. The sixth cause of action filed by the Plaintiff is a request for declaratory relief.
3 The Courts grants and denies this claim as follows.

4 28. This Court finds that the Online System User Agreement is a valid contract.
5 This Court finds that the Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct Agreement is a valid
6 contract. This Court finds that the Trade Secrets Agreement is a valid contract. This Court
7 finds that the Non-compete Agreement is overbroad and unenforceable. This Court also finds
8 that those contracts have been breached.

9 29. This Court finds that the Defendant has violated the Uniform Trade Secrets Act
10 and that the Plaintiff has suffered damages.

11 Proof of Damages

12 30. There are two distinct damage models proffered in this case. One is based on 13 theoretical win based upon a customer lifetime value analysis proffered by the Plaintiff. The 14 other is a damage analysis based on actual win - loss proffered by the Defendants in this case.

15 31. This Court has examined all of the exhibits in support of both models. This 16 Court has listened to the testimony of Brandon McNeely, who testified on behalf of the 17 Plaintiff in support of a valuation based upon theoretical wins. This Court finds that the 18 customer lifetime value analysis is a solid one and is supported by scholarly research and 19 empirical data.

20 32. This Court has also considered Mr. Aguero's testimony and reviewed his expert
21 report, which is Exhibit 32. The Court has also reviewed Brandon McNeely's reports and the
22 Exhibits included within Exhibit 59, A, B, C, D and E.

23 33. The Court has also considered the testimony of Mr. Frank DeCarlo when he 24 testified about the mitigation marketing costs, and Lilia Santos, who testified to the loss of
25 guests of the ATLANTIS to the GSR.

26 34. Having considered both models, this Court feels the more appropriate model in 27 this particular case is the actual win-loss model. That model is based upon the data provided by 28

1 both parties, the hard data and an analysis that is well reasoned and supported not only by the
2 evidence, but scholarly review.

3 35. Therefore, the compensatory damages as to Defendant ISLAM, as previously
4 described will be on the first count for breach of contract, $10,941 plus an additional $2,119.
5 As to the violation of the Uniform Trade Secret Act, judgment will be in favor of Plaintiff,
6 against Defendant ISLAM in the amount of $10,814.

7 Punitive Damages

8 36. The Plaintiff has requested punitive damages be awarded in this case and this
9 Court finds that punitive damages are warranted here.

10 37. Ms. ISLAM testified that her actions were malicious, as they were intended to 11 hurt the ATLANTIS. Despite whatever reason she may have felt justified her actions, her
12 actions were unjustified, they were willful, they were malicious, and they were intentional.

13 38. Punitive damages have a two-pronged effect. One is to punish the transgressor
14 and the other is to serve as an example to deter others similarly situated from engaging in the 15 same conduct. Therefore, there are several factors to be taken into consideration, including the 16 willfulness of the conduct, the public interest that is at stake, and not the least of which is the 17 Defendant's financial condition. Ms. ISLAM testified that she makes $80,000 per year. This 18 Court is assessing significant compensatory damages against her. However, the Court feels 19 that a significant punitive damage is necessary in order to deter others from violating those 20 contracts between the ATLANTIS and its employees. This Court therefore has determined that 21 a punitive damage award of $20,000, representing one quarter of her annual salary, is an
22 appropriate punishment to Ms. ISLAM.

23 Attorney Fee Award

24 39. The Uniform Trade Secrets Act also provides for the award of Attorney's fees in 25 the case of willful and malicious misappropriation.

26 40. Having found in favor of the Plaintiff as the prevailing party against the 27 Defendant ISLAM, under the circumstances of this case, this Court will award attorney's fees
28

1 and litigation costs. Those fees will be awarded after appropriate affidavit of fees and the
2 memorandum of costs are timely submitted.

3 Injunctive Relief

4 41. This Court further finds that this is an appropriate matter in which to impose a
5 Permanent Injunction, pursuant to NRS 600A.040, prohibiting ISLAM from any further use of
6 the trade secret information at issue until such time as the information becomes ascertainable
7 by proper means by the public or is otherwise no longer a Trade Secret as defined by NRS
8 600A.030(5). In this regard, ISLAM is Ordered to destroy any and all customer lists obtained
9 from or originating from ATLANTIS, including specifically the spiral notebooks, copies of 10 which have been marked at trial as Exhibits 6, 80 and 81. Further, ISLAM is Ordered to purge
11 from any electronic record or physical records, any and all information (including any 12 information not previously produced by her in the litigation which is subsequently located)
13 which has been identified in this decision as a trade secret, originating from the ATLANTIS.

14 CONCLUSION

15 42. Judgment in favor of ATLANTIS against Defendant ISLAM.

16 DATED AND DONE this 26 day of AUGUST, 2013.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND JUDGMENT

24 This matter came on for a non-jury trial on July 1, 2013 before the Honorable Patrick
25 Flanagan, District Judge, presiding. The Court having heard the testimony of witnesses, reviewed
26 the exhibits submitted into evidence and having heard the argument of Counsel finds in favor of
27 the Defendant MEI-GSR HOLDINGS, LLC, d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT on all causes of
28 action alleged against it and awards Defendant MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC d/b/a GRAND
SIERRA RESORT attorneys' fees pursuant to NRS 600A.060 and costs pursuant to NRS 18.110
and further makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law

FINDINGS OF FACTS:

1. That in 2005 Sumona Islam became a casino host for Harrah's Casino in Reno.
2. That during the course of her employment with Harrah's she developed a list of players with information concerning those players commonly known as her "book of trade"
3. In April 2008 Sumona Islam left Harrah's and became employed by Plaintiff

1 Golden Road Motor Inn as a host at the Atlantis Casino.

2 4. At the time of her employment at Atlantis, Sumona provided a copy of her "book
3 of trade" to Atlantis which was incorporated into the Atlantis data base. During her employment
4 with Atlantis, she obtained additional players whom she included in her "book of trade".

5 5. In January 2011 Sumona Islam entered into a non-competition agreement with the
6 Atlantis which provided that she could not be employed by any casino in any capacity within 150
7 mile radius for one year from her termination of employment with Atlantis.

8 6. In January 2012 she applied for a position as an executive casino host with GSR,
9 a hotel casino in Reno owned by Defendant MEI-GSR HOLDINGS INC.

10 7. She informed GSR of her non-competition agreement with Atlantis and provided
11 a copy of that document to GSR. GSR sent the document to its counsel for review and received
12 an opinion that the agreement was unenforceable as written.

13 8. At the time of her hiring GSR through its agents told Sumona Islam not to bring 14 any information from Atlantis, except for herself and her relations.

15 9. Although Ms. Islam was in possession of spiral notebooks in which she had 16 copied information from the Atlantis' data base, she did not give or show those notebooks to 17 anyone at GSR.

18 10. Upon her hiring in January 2012, Sumona entered certain information from her
19 "book of trade" into the GSR database. This consisted of approximately 200 guests, that she
20 wished to be assigned to her as a host based on her statement that she had prior relationships with 21 these individuals.

22 11. The GSR database restricted the information which could be inputted by hosts to 23 a player's name, address telephone number and contract information and has no fields in which
24 Sumona could have inputted player ratings, casino credit history, or player history.

25 12. A customer's name, address and contact information are not trade secrets.

26 For purposes of this litigation it was determined that the following would constitute a trade secret

27 a) player tracking records;

28 b) other hosts customers;

- c) initial buy-ins;
- d) level of play;
- e) table games;
- f) time of play;
- g) customer's personal information such as a Social Security number
- h) customer's casino credit;
- i) customer's location, whether they're international, regional or local player beyond any information contained within the customer's address;
- j) marketing strategy;
- k) customer's birth date;
- l) customer's tier ratings;
- m) comp information ;
- n) player's history of play;
- o) player's demographics;
- p) players' financial information;
- q) company's financial information;
- r) company's marketing strategy;
- s) other employee's information and customer information.

13. In April 2012 house counsel for Atlantis sent a letter to GSR stating that Sumona had taken proprietary information from the Atlantis computers and changed other customer information in the Atlantis database.

14. Counsel for GSR informed plaintiff that Ms. Islam denied taking any proprietary information from Atlantis and requested Atlantis to provide the information which it believed had been misappropriated by Ms. Islam. Plaintiff did not provide any information.

15. Atlantis filed suit against Ms. Islam and GSR alleging that GSR had tortuously interfered with Atlantis' non-competition agreement, tortuously interfered with a prospective economic advantage belonging to Atlantis and violation of NRS 600A.010 commonly known as the Nevada Trade Secret Act.

1 16. Plaintiff sought a preliminary injunction which enjoined GSR from using any
2 information provided to it from Sumona Islam. GSR took reasonable steps to insure good faith
3 and timely compliance with the injunction.

4 17. Atlantis knew that among the names it claimed were misappropriated were names
5 which were legally and properly included in Ms. Islam's "book trade" but despite this knowledge
6 brought and obtained an injunction preventing GSR from marketing to these individuals from 7 August 27, 2012 through the trial of this matter in 2013.

8 18. Atlantis presented no credible evidence that GSR had a duty to investigate the 9 names in Ms. Islam's "book of trade" beyond making inquiries of Ms. Islam. To the contrary
10 there was credible testimony that casinos have a right to rely on the host's statements.

11 19. GSR provided a list of all the names and information concerning those individuals
12 added to the GSR data base by Ms. Islam which showed that the information was limited to the 13 individual player's name, address and contact information. None of which constitutes a trade
14 secret under NRS 600A .10.

15 20. Atlantis presented no credible evidence that GSR had tortuously interfered with 16 its non-competition agreement with Islam. Atlantis knew that GSR had hired Ms. Islam based on 17 its attorneys legal opinion that the agreement was overly broad in denying Ms. Islam the right to 18 work in any capacity in any casino. Atlantis further knew or should have known that the non-
19 competition agreement was overly broad and unenforceable and unenforceable as a matter of law
20 but continued to prosecute the claim.

21 21. Atlantis presented no credible evidence that GSR misappropriated any 22 information constituting a trade secret and in fact maintained the litigation and the injunction to
23 include names of persons which it knew and admitted at trial were legally in Ms. Islam's book of 24 business and that she was entitled to provide to GSR.

25 22. Atlantis continued and maintained the litigation against GSR for misappropriation
26 of trade secrets even when it knew that GSR was acting in good faith by relying on Ms. Islam's
27 assertions concerning her "book of trade" and knew that the customer information provided by 28 Ms. Islam was limited to the customers' name, address, telephone number and contact

1 information.

2 23. GSR did not misappropriate a trade secret belonging to Atlantis;

3 24. GSR did not tortuously interfere with a contract between Sumona Islam and 4 Atlantis.

5 25. GSR did not interfere with a prospective economic advantage belonging to 6 Atlantis.

7 26. There is a lack of any evidence in the record that supports the claim of Atlantis
8 that GSR misappropriated Atlantis' trade secrets and therefore, Atlantis has failed to meet its 9 burden of proof.

10 27. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam admitted that she had taken certain
11 information from ATLANTIS in the form certain spiral notebooks.

12 28. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam testified that she had not shown the 13 information in the form of the spiral notebooks to any representative of GRS.

14 29. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam testified and confirmed that she 15 was told by the representatives of GSR not to bring anything with her except for herself and her
16 relationships.

17 30. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam testified and confirmed that she
18 had told representatives of GSR that she did not bring trade secret information with her or that 19 she had information belonging to ATLANTIS.

21 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

22 1. The non-competition agreement between Sumona Islam and Atlantis, in 23 prohibiting casino employment in any capacity was overly broad and unenforceable as a matter
24 of law.

25 2. That absent an enforceable employment contract or non-competition agreement
26 with Atlantis, GSR could not as a matter of law, interfere with contractual relations between 27 Sumona and Atlantis.

28 3. A customer's name address, and contact information is not a trade secret under

1 NRS 600A.010. GSR did not misappropriate any trade secrets which belonged to Atlantis by
2 allowing Sumona Islam to upload this information into its data base.

3 4. GSR did not improperly obtain the information concerning players listed above as
4 set forth in 600A.030 and had a good faith reliance on Ms. Islam's assurances that all the names
5 provided were part of her personal "book of trade"

6 5. The failure of Atlantis to produce any credible evidence at trial that GSR
7 misappropriated trade secrets belonging to Atlantis constitutes ~~"objective speciousness"~~. That ^{that}
8 ~~subjective~~ bad faith is shown by the Plaintiff's knowledge of certain facts as set forth in the
9 findings of facts above; the decision to move forward against GSR and the extent of the litigation
10 against GSR despite a lack of direct evidence against GSR. This is a sufficient basis for an 11 award of attorney fees pursuant to NRS 600.060. Defendants are not required to prove a 12 negative and under the objective specious standard a lack of evidence in the record of 13 misappropriation; in addition to the actions as set forth above; is enough to show that the claim
14 of misappropriation was made in bad faith (Sasco v. Rosendin Electric Inc., 143 Cal. Rptr. 3d 15 828, 207 Cal. App 4th 837 (CA 2012)) and entitles GSR to Attorney's fees and costs in this 16 matter.

17 6. That Atlantis sought, obtained, and maintained a preliminary injunction in this 18 matter that included names which Atlantis knew were not trade secrets under NRS 600A.010 and
19 continued to maintain that injunction even when it knew that those names were art of Sumona
20 Islam's personal book of trade in order to thwart competition for those players from GSR and
21 said conduct is evidence of bad faith entitling GSR to an award of attorney's fees and costs.

22 7. That the claims against GSR are dismissed and judgment entered in favor of the 23 Defendant GSR and GSR is entitled to an award of costs pursuant to NRS 18.110.

24 8. GSR is also entitled to bring an appropriate motion for fees and costs pursuant to 25 an offer of judgment dated May 20, 2013 under NRCP 68 and NRS 17.115.

CONCLUSION

9. Judgment in favor of Defendant GSR against Plaintiff ATLANTIS.

20 ~~PROPOSED~~ FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

21 This matter came on for a non-jury trial on July 1, 2013 before the Court, Honorable
22 Patrick Flanagan, District Judge, presiding. The Court heard evidence for 9 days and the 23 arguments of counsel on the 10th day of trial. The Court, having carefully considered all of the 24 exhibits in evidence, the testimony of the witnesses, trial statements of the parties, and the 25 arguments of counsel, hereby issues the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

26 ///

27 ///

Findings of Fact

1. On or about April 15, 2008, ISLAM became an employee of the Golden Road Motor Inn, Inc., dba Atlantis Casino Resort Spa ("ATLANTIS").

2. On April 15, 2008, ISLAM executed the ATLANTIS Online System User Agreement ("Online System User Agreement"). Among other terms, the Online System User Agreement prohibits unauthorized downloading or uploading of software and information.

3. On April 15, 2008, in conjunction with her employment with ATLANTIS, ISLAM also executed an agreement with ATLANTIS concerning its Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct Acknowledgement and Conflicts of Interest Statement. This agreement ("Business Ethics Policy"), was again signed by ISLAM on January 23, 2009, February 26, 2010 and January 19, 2011. This policy in section 3.1 identifies confidential information as all nonpublic information regarding the company's operation and business activities and those of its customers and suppliers. Nonpublic means any information that is not officially disclosed through means such a press releases or other forms of publication, where it is not common knowledge. Section 4.4 prohibits the disclosure of inside information to persons outside the company or other persons within the company who are not authorized to receive such information. Pursuant to the terms of the Business Ethics Policy, ISLAM agreed not to disclose confidential information including customer lists or customer information (such as player tracking or club information) to any unauthorized persons, either during or after her termination, and not to take any documents or records belonging to ATLANTIS after her departure. She also agreed not to profit from confidential information of ATLANTIS. ISLAM's agreement to the terms of this contract was a condition of her employment with ATLANTIS.

4. On April 15, 2008, in conjunction with commencing her employment with ATLANTIS, ISLAM executed the ATLANTIS Company Policy regarding Company Property, Proprietary Information, and Trade Secrets (hereinafter referred to as "Trade Secret Agreement"). This agreement, including any updates, was again signed by ISLAM on January 23, 2009, February 26, 2010 and January 19, 2011. This agreement provides that any improper

2 violation of state and federal trade secrets laws and also warns that such violation is punishable
3 both civilly and criminally.

4 5. ISLAM was hired to be an Executive Casino Host at ATLANTIS. When she
5 was hired, she was under a contractual obligation to her former employer, Harrah's, which
6 prohibited her from working in a same or similar position within six months after separation
7 from employment at Harrah's. In order to honor this obligation, ATLANTIS placed her in the
8 position of concierge manager. She worked in the hotel side of the operation of the 9 ATLANTIS and not in the gaming side of the operation until the expiration of the six month
10 restriction imposed by her agreement with Harrah's. Thereafter, she was transferred to the 11 gaming operation and began her employment as a host.

12 6. When ISLAM began to work as a host at ATLANTIS, she brought with her
13 what she claimed to be her personal book of trade. ISLAM has identified Exhibits 75 and 80
14 as her book of trade.

15 7. Steve Ringkob, indeed almost every witness, testified that there were certain
16 items that hosts were entitled to take with them from property to property and that a host's
17 book of trade is the host's property and "nothing is wrong with her taking this information
18 wherever she goes." However, he also testified that the player's gaming history and tracking at 19 the ATLANTIS would become proprietary information.

20 8. Although the term "casino host book of trade" has been defined variously, it has
21 generally been defined as those names and contact information of guests with whom the host
22 has developed relationships through their own efforts. Ringkob defined it as those guests with 23 whom the host has developed a relationship and it was not information coming from the casino.

24 9. The evidence is clear that ISLAM intentionally downloaded, by hand copying
25 from the ATLANTIS computer screen, players' names, contact information, level of play,
26 game preferences and other proprietary information from the ATLANTIS Casino's, casino
27 management system, Patron Management Program.

1 10. On February 26, 2010, ISLAM signed a Non-Compete/Non-Solicitation
2 Agreement with ATLANTIS ("Non-Compete Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Non-
3 Compete Agreement, ISLAM agreed that she would not, without the prior written consent of
4 ATLANTIS, be employed by, in any way affiliated with, or provide services to any gaming
5 operation located within 150 miles of ATLANTIS for a cooling off period of one year after the
6 date that the employment relationship between she and the ATLANTIS ended.

7 11. During ISLAM'S employment at ATLANTIS, she had access to and worked
8 with highly sensitive trade secrets and proprietary and confidential information of the 9 ATLANTIS. This information included customer and guest lists, customer information and 10 data including player contact information, tracking and club information, guest preferences and 11 gaming tendencies of the guests. This information included not just the information for guests
12 assigned to her, but also information for guests assigned to other hosts.

13 12. Before and during ISLAM'S employment, ATLANTIS undertook significant
14 precautions to maintain the secrecy of its confidential information. These efforts included
15 disabling USB ports in the computers at ATLANTIS, not providing or allowing printers, and 16 monitoring all emails that are sent to recipients off property.

17 13. Despite the precautions taken to protect ATLANTIS' confidential trade secret
18 information, during her employment at ATLANTIS ISLAM copied guest information by hand
19 from the screen of the ATLANTIS computer onto spiral note pads. Ms. ISLAM, in her
20 handwritten notes in spiral notebooks, which she identified as hers, copied players' names,
21 contact information and also the designation of whether or not they played table games or slots.
22 The information copied had the notation of the guests' marker information, for purposes of 23 knowing what their credit limit was. Some notations included information regarding previous 24 gaming results and losses incurred by that player. This is information Ms. ISLAM testified that 25 she wrote down from the ATLANTIS computer. A copy of some of those spirals is found in 26 Exhibit 80.

27 14. Ms. ISLAM testified that in the fall of 2011, she was becoming dissatisfied with 28 her employment at the ATLANTIS. She testified that she had not been given a raise, that she

1 had only been given one bonus and not the quarterly bonuses that she states were promised to
2 her, she felt isolated in her interpersonal relationships with other employees at the ATLANTIS
3 and she had come to a point in her career where she believed that if she was ever going to make
4 more money, she would have to seek employment elsewhere.

5 15. The evidence is that on or around October, Ms. ISLAM learned from Ms.
6 Antonetti that the Grand Sierra Resort ("GSR") was hiring new employees. Through an online
7 application, ISLAM applied for and interviewed with the GSR to obtain a position as a host.

8 16. At about that time, Ms. ISLAM asked Mr. DeCarlo for a copy of her Non-
9 Compete Agreement with the ATLANTIS.

10 17. Sometime in December and January, two interviews took place. The first was 11 with Ms. Hadley, at the GSR. Ms. Hadley testified that she was impressed with Ms. ISLAM.
12 She testified she did not ask for ISLAM's book of business at that time.

13 18. A second interview was arranged between ISLAM and Hadley and Flaherty of 14 the GSR. At that time, a more in-depth discussion took place relative to Ms. ISLAM's book of 15 business. Mr. Flaherty testified and it's confirmed by the transcript of a subsequent interview
16 that he told Ms. ISLAM not to bring anything from the ATLANTIS to the GSR, to bring
17 nothing, but herself and her relationships.

18 19. During the course of the interview process, ISLAM and representatives of GSR
19 discussed the fact that ISLAM was subject to an agreement restricting her employment with a
20 competitor of ATLANTIS and ISLAM provided GSR with a copy of the Non-Compete
21 Agreement. This conduct is consistent with ISLAM's testimony of her behavior when applying
22 for the position with the ATLANTIS. She testified that she provided a copy of the Harrah's
23 Non-Compete to the ATLANTIS prior to their offering of employment to her.

24 20. The testimony is that GSR then passed the ATLANTIS Non-Compete
25 Agreement to its legal counsel. Legal counsel apparently reviewed that and gave the green
26 light to hire Ms. ISLAM.

1 21. Ms. ISLAM was concerned that ATLANTIS would initiate litigation against her
2 and sought assurances that GSR would provide legal representation to her should there be
3 litigation over the Non-Compete. GSR agreed.

4 22. ISLAM terminated her employment as an Executive Casino Host with the
5 ATLANTIS on January 19, 2012 and accepted an offer with GSR as an Executive Casino Host
6 on the same day.

7 23. ISLAM began work at GSR at the end of January, 2012.

8 24. The ATLANTIS alleges that soon after ISLAM terminated her employment,
9 ATLANTIS employees discovered that ISLAM had falsely modified, destroyed, falsely
10 changed and/or sabotaged confidential, proprietary, trade secret information of ATLANTIS,
11 including customer data belonging to the ATLANTIS on its online system to her benefit and
12 the benefit of GSR and to the detriment of ATLANTIS.

13 25. The evidence adduced in this matter by Ms. ISLAM herself and other witnesses
14 of the Plaintiff is that Ms. ISLAM did change the addresses, telephone number and/or the email
15 addresses of guests that had been coded to her in the ATLANTIS' casino customer or guest
16 database.

18 ATLANTIS, the guests who had been assigned to her at the ATLANTIS were distributed
19 amongst the remaining ATLANTIS hosts who attempted to contact those guests to maintain
20 and establish a continued relationship with the ATLANTIS. Shortly thereafter, those hosts
21 reported difficulty, indeed inability to contact the guests. It quickly became apparent that the
22 contact information had been sabotaged. ATLANTIS staff testified that they restored old
23 copies of the Patron Management data to a location in the computer system where the auditors
24 could access the information and the information was restored to the Patron Management
25 Program, the guest marketing database, in a relatively short period of time.

26 27. Additionally, the evidence showed that none of the information was changed in 27 the LMS database, which is the database known as the Lodging Management System that 28 controls the hotel operations.

1 28. ISLAM testified that she did not show either Ms. Hadley or Mr. Flaherty the
2 spiral notebooks which contained the information she had wrongfully taken from the
3 ATLANTIS' database. Nevertheless, after her employment by the GSR began, Ms. ISLAM
4 began to input that information, the information taken from the ATLANTIS and contained on
5 the spiral notebooks, into the GSR database.

6 29. The testimony from the GSR representatives is that the database fields accessed
7 and completed by ISLAM are limited. They restrict the information that a host could input to
8 name, address, telephone number and contact information. There are no fields for a host to 9 themselves input information regarding a player's gaming history, level of play or preference of 10 game.

11 30. Both Ms. Hadley and Mr. Flaherty testified they never saw the spiral notebooks
12 containing the information ISLAM had wrongfully taken from the ATLANTIS' database.

13 31. After the database sabotage was discovered by the ATLANTIS, ATLANTIS'
14 general counsel, Debra Robinson, wrote a letter to GSR advising them that Ms. ISLAM was
15 subject to a Non-Compete, Non-Disclosure Agreement and that she may have confidential
16 information and ATLANTIS demanded the GSR cease and desist from the use of that 17 information and return it forthwith.

18 32. In response to the cease and desist letter from ATLANTIS to the GSR and Ms.
19 ISLAM relating to the ATLANTIS' concerns about ISLAM's employment, the counsel for the 20 GSR sent a letter rejecting the assertions of the ATLANTIS and essentially maintaining that
21 there was nothing confidential or proprietary that had been acquired by GSR and that all
22 information provided by Ms. ISLAM came from her own personal relationships and her book
23 of business.

24 33. The ATLANTIS reasonably initiated litigation.

25 34. On April 27, 2012, ATLANTIS filed its Complaint for relief with seven causes
26 of action.

27 35. On May 9, 2012, this Court, through its sister Department, entered a Temporary
28 Restraining Order barring Ms. ISLAM from any employment with GSR. That Order was

1 extended by Order of this Court dated July 5, 2012 which also applied to GSR. Thereafter, the
2 parties stipulated to a Preliminary Injunction ending this case pending the case's resolution.

3 36. To the extent appropriate and to give intent to this order, any finding of fact
4 should be found to be a conclusion of law. Similarly, to the extent appropriate any conclusion
5 of law shall be deemed a finding of fact.

7 Breach of Contract – Online Systems User Agreement, Business Ethics Policy, Trade 8 Secrets Agreement as to ISLAM

9 1. The elements for establishing a breach of contract claim are: (1) A valid and
10 existing contract was entered into between Plaintiff and Defendant; (2) Plaintiff performed or
11 was excused from performance of the contract; (3) Defendant breached; and (4) Plaintiff
12 sustained damages as a result of the breach. Reichert vs. General Insurance Co. of Amer., 68
13 Cal. 2d 822, 69 Cal. Rptr. 321, 442 P.2d 377 (1968); Marwan Ahmed Harara vs. Conoco
14 Phillips Co., 375 F. Supp. 2d 905, 906 (9th Cir. 2005).

15 2. In order to succeed on a breach of contract claim in Nevada, a plaintiff must 16 show "(1) the existence of a valid contract, (2) a breach by the defendant, and (3) damage as a
17 result of the breach." Saini v. Int'l Game Tech., 434 F. Supp. 2d 913, 919-920 (D. Nev. 2006),
18 citing Richardson v. Jones, 1 Nev. 405, 405 (1865).

19 3. In its first cause of action the Plaintiff alleges the violation of three contracts.
20 These are the Online User Agreement, the Business Ethics Policy, and the Trade Secrets
21 Agreement. These agreements were signed by Defendant ISLAM and a representative of 22 Plaintiff, ATLANTIS. This Court finds that these are valid contracts. The Court further finds
23 that the Defendant ISLAM breached these contracts.

24 4. Based upon the fact that ISLAM downloaded players' names, contact
25 information, level of play, game preferences and other proprietary information from the 26 ATLANTIS Casino's, casino management system, Patron Management Program, the Court
27 finds that she has breached these contracts and that the ATLANTIS has suffered damages as a 28

1 result of the breach. Consequently, the Court finds in favor of the Plaintiff and against
2 Defendant Sumona ISLAM on the first cause of action.

3 5. The Court finds that damages should be awarded in favor of ATLANTIS and
4 against ISLAM on this claim. These are made up of compensatory damages of $10,941 plus an
5 additional $2,119 to repair the database, totaling $13,060.

6 Breach of Contract—Non-Compete Agreement as to ISLAM

7 6. The Non-compete/Non-solicitation Agreement was signed by ISLAM and a
8 representative of ATLANTIS in 2010. The law presumes that all parties have the freedom to
9 contract and establish the terms of employment between themselves. However, restrictive
10 covenants are not favored in the law. The determination of the validity of such a contract as 11 written is governed by whether or not it imposes upon the employee any greater restraint than 12 is reasonably necessary to protect the business and the goodwill of the employer.

13 7. A restraint of trade is unreasonable if it is greater than that required to protect 14 the person for whose benefit the restraint is imposed or imposes an undue hardship on the 15 person restricted. Hansen v. Edwards, 83 Nev. 189, 426 P.2d 792 (1967). See also, Jones v.
16 Deeter, 112 Nev. 291, 294, 913 P.2d 1272, 1274 (1996).

17 8. The public has an interest in seeing that competition is not unreasonably limited
18 or restricted.

19 9. In the instant matter, this Court finds that the term restricting employment for a
20 period of one year is reasonable and necessary to protect the interests of the ATLANTIS.

21 10. This Court finds that the term restricting employment within 150 miles from 22 ATLANTIS is reasonable. It encompasses the markets of Sacramento and the evidence
23 supports the threat that Thunder Valley and indeed other Northern California casinos pose to 24 the casinos of Northern Nevada.

25 11. The Court finds, however, that the total exclusion from employment with a
26 competitor is unreasonable. This Court finds that excluding the employment of an individual
27 such as Ms. ISLAM, who has attempted to create a career in this industry from any role in any
28 casino in any capacity is an unreasonable restraint on her and it imposes an undue hardship on

1 Ms. ISLAM and it is a restraint that is greater than that required for the protection of the person
2 for whose benefit the restraint is imposed, the ATLANTIS. Therefore, the Court finds the
3 Non-Competition contract unenforceable and dismisses the second cause of action related to
4 breach of that contract.

5 Conversion of Property as to ISLAM

6 12. The elements of conversion are that a defendant exercises an act of dominion
7 wrongfully exerted over the personal property of another in denial of or inconsistent with title
8 rights therein, or in derogation, exclusion or defiance of such rights. M.C. Multi Family
9 Development, L.L.C. v. Crestdale Associates Ltd., 124 Nev. 901, 910, 196 P.3d 536 (2008)
10 citing Evans v. Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., 116 Nev. 598, 606, 5 P.3d 1043, 1048 (2000).

12 13. The caselaw here states that conversion generally is limited to those severe,
13 major and important interferences with the right to control personal property that justified
14 requiring the actor to pay the property's full value. Courts have noted that this remedy in 15 general is harsh and is reserved for the most severe interferences with personal property.

17 14. The Court finds that the evidence adduced shows that the interference with the 18 property of the ATLANTIS was not severe, that the information, although altered, was not lost
19 and was easily restored. One measure of that is the fact that the damages sought for the 20 restoration expense is de minimus in light of the value of not only Ms. ISLAM's book of trade,
21 which she estimated at $3.5 to $4 million, but the operation of the ATLANTIS itself.
22 Therefore, this Court finds that the Plaintiff has failed to establish the elements of conversion
23 and the third cause of action is therefore dismissed.

25 Tortious Interference with Contractual Relations and Prospective Economic Advantage as to ISLAM

26 15. To establish intentional interference with contractual relations, ATLANTIS
27 must show: (1) a valid and existing contract; (2) the defendant's knowledge of the contract; (3)
28 intentional acts intended or designed to disrupt the contractual relationship; (4) actual

1 disruption of the contract; and (5) resulting damage. Sutherland v. Gross, 105 Nev. 192, 772
2 P.2d 1287, 1290 (1989).

3 16. The elements of the tort of wrongful interference with a prospective economic
4 advantage are: (1) a prospective contractual relationship between the plaintiff and a third
5 party; (2) the defendant's knowledge of this prospective relationship; (3) the intent to harm the
6 plaintiff by preventing the relationship; (4) the absence of a privilege or justification by the
7 defendant; and, (5) actual harm to the plaintiff as a result of the defendant's conduct. Leavitt v.
8 Leisure Sports, Inc., 103 Nev. 81, 88, 734 P.2d 1221, 1225 (1987); Las Vegas-Tonopah-Reno
9 Stage v. Gray Line, 106 Nev. 283, 792 P.2d 386, 388 (1990).

10 17. Based upon the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Frantz v. Johnson, 116
11 Nev. 455, 999 P.2d 351(2000), this Court is directed to look to the specific evidence adduced at 12 trial to determine whether or not the acts of a defendant are more appropriately adjudicated
13 under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act than under a claim for tortious interference with contract
14 or prospective economic advantage. In an examination of the facts here, this Court has 15 determined that the facts adduced in this trial make it more appropriate that the claim against 16 Sumona ISLAM be adjudicated under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act.

17 Violation of Uniform Trade Secret Act, NRS 600A.010 et. seq. as to ISLAM and GSR

18 18. To establish a misappropriation claim under NRS § 600A.010 et. seq., the

21 ¹ "Misappropriation" per NRS 600A.030(2) means:

- 22 (a) Acquisition of the trade secret of another by a person by improper means;
23 (b) Acquisition of a trade secret of another by a person who knows or has reason to know that the trade secret was
24 acquired by improper means; or
25 (c) Disclosure or use of a trade secret of another without express or implied consent by a person who:
26 (1) Used improper means to acquire knowledge of the trade secret;
27 (2) At the time of disclosure or use, knew or had reason to know that his or her knowledge of the trade
28 secret was:
(I) Derived from or through a person who had used improper means to acquire it;
(II) Acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or
(III) Derived from or through a person who owed a duty to the person seeking relief to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or
(3) Before a material change of his or her position, knew or had reason to know that it was a trade secret and that knowledge of it had been acquired by accident or mistake.

1 through use, disclosure, or nondisclosure of the use of the trade secret; and (3) the requirement
2 that the misappropriation be wrongful because it was made in breach of an express or implied
3 contract or by a party with a duty not to disclose. Frantz v. Johnson, 116 Nev. 455, 466, 999
4 P.2d 351, 358 (2000).

5 19. A trade secret is information that derives independent economic value, actual or
6 potential, from not being generally known to and not being readily ascertainable by proper
7 means by the public, as well as information that is subject to efforts that are reasonable under
8 the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. NRS 600A.040.

9 20. The determination of what is a trade secret is a question of fact for the trier of
10 fact. Frantz, 116 Nev. at 466, 999 P.2d at 358. The caselaw indicates that contractual
11 restrictions alone or designations alone do not control whether or not a particular design,
12 compilation, or mechanism is a trade secret. To determine whether or not an item is a trade
13 secret, the Court considers these factors. First, the extent to which the information is known
14 outside the business and the ease or difficulty with which the information could be properly
15 acquired by others. Second, whether the information was confidential or secret. Third, the 16 extent and manner in which the employer guarded the secrecy of the information. Fourth, the 17 former employee's knowledge of the customer's buying habits and other customer data and
18 whether this information is known by the employer's competitors.

19 21. There was a consensus amongst all the witnesses that in the case of a customer
20 with whom a host has established a relationship, that customer's name, address, contact
21 information is not a trade secret. All of the witnesses here have identified certain items that
22 they consider trade secrets in the gaming industry and these are well-qualified witnesses who
23 have spent decades in this industry. Those items have been identified as, (1) player tracking
24 records; (2) other hosts' customers; (3) initial buy-ins; (4) level of play; (5) whether the player
25 plays table games or slots; (6) time of play; (7) customers' personal information that is personal
26 to them, such as a Social Security number; (8) customers' casino credit; (9) customer's location,
27 whether they are an international, regional or local player; (10) marketing strategy; (11)
28 customers' birth date, which one witness testified was critical for credit accounts; (12) tier

1 levels, which is different than player ratings, they are more specific in terms of measurement;
2 (13) comp information for the player; (14) players' history of play; (15) players' demographics;
3 (16) players' financial information; (17) the company's financial information; (18) the
4 company's marketing strategy; (19) other employees' information and customer information.
5 The Court does not by this list deem this list to be exclusive. There may be other instances and
6 other items that are properly designated as trade secrets, however, this was the evidence
7 adduced in this trial.

8 22. This Court finds that this information is not known outside of the business of the 9 ATLANTIS. Indeed, the previous 19 items are not easy to learn, in fact, it is difficult to 10 acquire this information properly.

11 23. This Court further finds that there is no question that this information was 12 confidential within the ATLANTIS and that has been demonstrated amply by the extent and 13 manner in which the ATLANTIS took steps to guard the secrecy of this information.
14 Specifically, Mr. Woods testified that there were no printers and that the USB ports on the 15 computers were restricted, that the hosts had no ability to print or download guest lists. He 16 further explained that security access was determined by the job designation. There was 17 testimony that the passwords for this access were changed frequently and therefore it has been
18 established beyond any reasonable doubt that the ATLANTIS considered all of this
19 information a trade secret and this Court does so find.

20 24. This Court finds that the information written down in the spiral notebooks
21 which Ms. ISLAM identified as hers was taken from the ATLANTIS' computer and is not
22 information open to the public.

23 25. This Court finds that Ms. ISLAM has violated not only the terms and conditions
24 of her contract, but also has committed a violation of the Uniform Trade Secrets Act.

25 26. This Court finds that Damages are appropriately awarded against ISLAM for 26 violation of the Uniform Trade Secrets Act and awards damages totaling $10,814.

1 Declaratory Relief

2 27. The sixth cause of action filed by the Plaintiff is a request for declaratory relief.
3 The Courts grants and denies this claim as follows.

4 28. This Court finds that the Online System User Agreement is a valid contract.
5 This Court finds that the Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct Agreement is a valid
6 contract. This Court finds that the Trade Secrets Agreement is a valid contract. This Court
7 finds that the Non-compete Agreement is overbroad and unenforceable. This Court also finds
8 that those contracts have been breached.

9 29. This Court finds that the Defendant has violated the Uniform Trade Secrets Act
10 and that the Plaintiff has suffered damages.

11 Proof of Damages

12 30. There are two distinct damage models proffered in this case. One is based on 13 theoretical win based upon a customer lifetime value analysis proffered by the Plaintiff. The 14 other is a damage analysis based on actual win - loss proffered by the Defendants in this case.

15 31. This Court has examined all of the exhibits in support of both models. This 16 Court has listened to the testimony of Brandon McNeely, who testified on behalf of the 17 Plaintiff in support of a valuation based upon theoretical wins. This Court finds that the 18 customer lifetime value analysis is a solid one and is supported by scholarly research and 19 empirical data.

20 32. This Court has also considered Mr. Aguero's testimony and reviewed his expert
21 report, which is Exhibit 32. The Court has also reviewed Brandon McNeely's reports and the
22 Exhibits included within Exhibit 59, A, B, C, D and E.

23 33. The Court has also considered the testimony of Mr. Frank DeCarlo when he 24 testified about the mitigation marketing costs, and Lilia Santos, who testified to the loss of
25 guests of the ATLANTIS to the GSR.

26 34. Having considered both models, this Court feels the more appropriate model in 27 this particular case is the actual win-loss model. That model is based upon the data provided by 28

1 both parties, the hard data and an analysis that is well reasoned and supported not only by the
2 evidence, but scholarly review.

3 35. Therefore, the compensatory damages as to Defendant ISLAM, as previously
4 described will be on the first count for breach of contract, $10,941 plus an additional $2,119.
5 As to the violation of the Uniform Trade Secret Act, judgment will be in favor of Plaintiff,
6 against Defendant ISLAM in the amount of $10,814.

7 Punitive Damages

8 36. The Plaintiff has requested punitive damages be awarded in this case and this
9 Court finds that punitive damages are warranted here.

10 37. Ms. ISLAM testified that her actions were malicious, as they were intended to 11 hurt the ATLANTIS. Despite whatever reason she may have felt justified her actions, her
12 actions were unjustified, they were willful, they were malicious, and they were intentional.

13 38. Punitive damages have a two-pronged effect. One is to punish the transgressor
14 and the other is to serve as an example to deter others similarly situated from engaging in the 15 same conduct. Therefore, there are several factors to be taken into consideration, including the 16 willfulness of the conduct, the public interest that is at stake, and not the least of which is the 17 Defendant's financial condition. Ms. ISLAM testified that she makes $80,000 per year. This 18 Court is assessing significant compensatory damages against her. However, the Court feels 19 that a significant punitive damage is necessary in order to deter others from violating those 20 contracts between the ATLANTIS and its employees. This Court therefore has determined that 21 a punitive damage award of $20,000, representing one quarter of her annual salary, is an
22 appropriate punishment to Ms. ISLAM.

23 Attorney Fee Award

24 39. The Uniform Trade Secrets Act also provides for the award of Attorney's fees in 25 the case of willful and malicious misappropriation.

26 40. Having found in favor of the Plaintiff as the prevailing party against the 27 Defendant ISLAM, under the circumstances of this case, this Court will award attorney's fees
28

1 and litigation costs. Those fees will be awarded after appropriate affidavit of fees and the
2 memorandum of costs are timely submitted.

3 Injunctive Relief

4 41. This Court further finds that this is an appropriate matter in which to impose a
5 Permanent Injunction, pursuant to NRS 600A.040, prohibiting ISLAM from any further use of
6 the trade secret information at issue until such time as the information becomes ascertainable
7 by proper means by the public or is otherwise no longer a Trade Secret as defined by NRS
8 600A.030(5). In this regard, ISLAM is Ordered to destroy any and all customer lists obtained
9 from or originating from ATLANTIS, including specifically the spiral notebooks, copies of
10 which have been marked at trial as Exhibits 6, 80 and 81. Further, ISLAM is Ordered to purge
11 from any electronic record or physical records, any and all information (including any 12 information not previously produced by her in the litigation which is subsequently located)
13 which has been identified in this decision as a trade secret, originating from the ATLANTIS.

14 CONCLUSION

15 42. Judgment in favor of ATLANTIS against Defendant ISLAM.

16 DATED AND DONE this 26 day of AUGUST, 2013.

24 FINDINGS OF FACT AND
25 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND
26 JUDGMENT

27 This matter came on for a non-jury trial on July 1, 2013 before the Honorable Patrick
28 Flanagan, District Judge, presiding. The Court having heard the testimony of witnesses, reviewed the exhibits submitted into evidence and having heard the argument of Counsel finds in favor of
action alleged against it and awards Defendant MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC d/b/a GRAND
SIERRA RESORT attorneys' fees pursuant to NRS 600A.060 and costs pursuant to NRS 18.110
and further makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law

29 FINDINGS OF FACTS:

- 30 1. That in 2005 Sumona Islam became a casino host for Harrah's Casino in Reno.
- 31 2. That during the course of her employment with Harrah's she developed a list of 32 players with information concerning those players commonly known as her "book of trade"
- 33 3. In April 2008 Sumona Islam left Harrah's and became employed by Plaintiff

1 Golden Road Motor Inn as a host at the Atlantis Casino.

2 4. At the time of her employment at Atlantis, Sumona provided a copy of her "book
3 of trade" to Atlantis which was incorporated into the Atlantis data base. During her employment
4 with Atlantis, she obtained additional players whom she included in her "book of trade".

5 5. In January 2011 Sumona Islam entered into a non-competition agreement with the
6 Atlantis which provided that she could not be employed by any casino in any capacity within 150
7 mile radius for one year from her termination of employment with Atlantis.

8 6. In January 2012 she applied for a position as an executive casino host with GSR,
9 a hotel casino in Reno owned by Defendant MEI-GSR HOLDINGS INC.

10 7. She informed GSR of her non-competition agreement with Atlantis and provided
11 a copy of that document to GSR. GSR sent the document to its counsel for review and received
12 an opinion that the agreement was unenforceable as written.

13 8. At the time of her hiring GSR through its agents told Sumona Islam not to bring 14 any information from Atlantis, except for herself and her relations.

15 9. Although Ms. Islam was in possession of spiral notebooks in which she had 16 copied information from the Atlantis' data base, she did not give or show those notebooks to 17 anyone at GSR.

18 10. Upon her hiring in January 2012, Sumona entered certain information from her
19 "book of trade" into the GSR database. This consisted of approximately 200 guests, that she
20 wished to be assigned to her as a host based on her statement that she had prior relationships with 21 these individuals.

22 11. The GSR database restricted the information which could be inputted by hosts to 23 a player's name, address telephone number and contract information and has no fields in which
24 Sumona could have inputted player ratings, casino credit history, or player history.

25 12. A customer's name, address and contact information are not trade secrets.

26 For purposes of this litigation it was determined that the following would constitute a trade secret

27 a) player tracking records;

28 b) other hosts customers;

- c) initial buy-ins;
- d) level of play;
- e) table games;
- f) time of play;
- g) customer's personal information such as a Social Security number
- h) customer's casino credit;
- i) customer's location, whether they're international, regional or local player beyond any information contained within the customer's address;
- j) marketing strategy;
- k) customer's birth date;
- l) customer's tier ratings;
- m) comp information ;
- n) player's history of play;
- o) player's demographics;
- p) players' financial information;
- q) company's financial information;
- r) company's marketing strategy;
- s) other employee's information and customer information.

13. In April 2012 house counsel for Atlantis sent a letter to GSR stating that Sumona had taken proprietary information from the Atlantis computers and changed other customer information in the Atlantis database.

14. Counsel for GSR informed plaintiff that Ms. Islam denied taking any proprietary information from Atlantis and requested Atlantis to provide the information which it believed had been misappropriated by Ms. Islam. Plaintiff did not provide any information.

15. Atlantis filed suit against Ms. Islam and GSR alleging that GSR had tortuously interfered with Atlantis' non-competition agreement, tortuously interfered with a prospective economic advantage belonging to Atlantis and violation of NRS 600A.010 commonly known as the Nevada Trade Secret Act.

1 16. Plaintiff sought a preliminary injunction which enjoined GSR from using any
2 information provided to it from Sumona Islam. GSR took reasonable steps to insure good faith
3 and timely compliance with the injunction.

4 17. Atlantis knew that among the names it claimed were misappropriated were names
5 which were legally and properly included in Ms. Islam's "book trade" but despite this knowledge
6 brought and obtained an injunction preventing GSR from marketing to these individuals from 7 August 27, 2012 through the trial of this matter in 2013.

8 18. Atlantis presented no credible evidence that GSR had a duty to investigate the 9 names in Ms. Islam's "book of trade" beyond making inquiries of Ms. Islam. To the contrary
10 there was credible testimony that casinos have a right to rely on the host's statements.

11 19. GSR provided a list of all the names and information concerning those individuals
12 added to the GSR data base by Ms. Islam which showed that the information was limited to the 13 individual player's name, address and contact information. None of which constitutes a trade
14 secret under NRS 600A .10.

15 20. Atlantis presented no credible evidence that GSR had tortuously interfered with 16 its non-competition agreement with Islam. Atlantis knew that GSR had hired Ms. Islam based on 17 its attorneys legal opinion that the agreement was overly broad in denying Ms. Islam the right to 18 work in any capacity in any casino. Atlantis further knew or should have known that the non-
19 competition agreement was overly broad and unenforceable and unenforceable as a matter of law
20 but continued to prosecute the claim.

21 21. Atlantis presented no credible evidence that GSR misappropriated any 22 information constituting a trade secret and in fact maintained the litigation and the injunction to
23 include names of persons which it knew and admitted at trial were legally in Ms. Islam's book of 24 business and that she was entitled to provide to GSR.

25 22. Atlantis continued and maintained the litigation against GSR for misappropriation
26 of trade secrets even when it knew that GSR was acting in good faith by relying on Ms. Islam's
27 assertions concerning her "book of trade" and knew that the customer information provided by 28 Ms. Islam was limited to the customers' name, address, telephone number and contact

1 information.

2 23. GSR did not misappropriate a trade secret belonging to Atlantis;

3 24. GSR did not tortuously interfere with a contract between Sumona Islam and 4 Atlantis.

5 25. GSR did not interfere with a prospective economic advantage belonging to 6 Atlantis.

7 26. There is a lack of any evidence in the record that supports the claim of Atlantis
8 that GSR misappropriated Atlantis' trade secrets and therefore, Atlantis has failed to meet its 9 burden of proof.

10 27. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam admitted that she had taken certain
11 information from ATLANTIS in the form certain spiral notebooks.

12 28. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam testified that she had not shown the 13 information in the form of the spiral notebooks to any representative of GRS.

14 29. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam testified and confirmed that she 15 was told by the representatives of GSR not to bring anything with her except for herself and her
16 relationships.

17 30. That early on in the litigation Defendant Islam testified and confirmed that she
18 had told representatives of GSR that she did not bring trade secret information with her or that 19 she had information belonging to ATLANTIS.

21 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

22 1. The non-competition agreement between Sumona Islam and Atlantis, in 23 prohibiting casino employment in any capacity was overly broad and unenforceable as a matter
24 of law.

25 2. That absent an enforceable employment contract or non-competition agreement
26 with Atlantis, GSR could not as a matter of law, interfere with contractual relations between 27 Sumona and Atlantis.

28 3. A customer's name address, and contact information is not a trade secret under

1 NRS 600A.010. GSR did not misappropriate any trade secrets which belonged to Atlantis by
2 allowing Sumona Islam to upload this information into its data base.

3 4. GSR did not improperly obtain the information concerning players listed above as
4 set forth in 600A.030 and had a good faith reliance on Ms. Islam's assurances that all the names
5 provided were part of her personal "book of trade"

6 5. The failure of Atlantis to produce any credible evidence at trial that GSR
7 misappropriated trade secrets belonging to Atlantis constitutes ~~"objective speciousness". That~~ PF
8 ~~subjective~~ ^{that} bad faith is shown by the Plaintiff's knowledge of certain facts as set forth in the
9 findings of facts above; the decision to move forward against GSR and the extent of the litigation
10 against GSR despite a lack of direct evidence against GSR. This is a sufficient basis for an
11 award of attorney fees pursuant to NRS 600.060. Defendants are not required to prove a 12 negative and under the objective specious standard a lack of evidence in the record of 13 misappropriation; in addition to the actions as set forth above; is enough to show that the claim
14 of misappropriation was made in bad faith (Sasco v. Rosendin Electric Inc., 143 Cal. Rptr. 3d
16 matter.

17 6. That Atlantis sought, obtained, and maintained a preliminary injunction in this 18 matter that included names which Atlantis knew were not trade secrets under NRS 600A.010 and
19 continued to maintain that injunction even when it knew that those names were art of Sumona
20 Islam's personal book of trade in order to thwart competition for those players from GSR and
21 said conduct is evidence of bad faith entitling GSR to an award of attorney's fees and costs.

22 7. That the claims against GSR are dismissed and judgment entered in favor of the 23 Defendant GSR and GSR is entitled to an award of costs pursuant to NRS 18.110.

24 8. GSR is also entitled to bring an appropriate motion for fees and costs pursuant to 25 an offer of judgment dated May 20, 2013 under NRCP 68 and NRS 17.115.

ORDER

On August 5, 2013, Plaintiff, GOLDEN ROAD MOTOR INN, INC., dba
ATLANTIS CASINO RESORT SPA (hereafter Atlantis), filed its Verified
Memorandum of Costs. On August 7, 2013 Defendant, SUMONA ISLAM (hereafter Islam), filed her Motion to Retax Costs. On August 19, 2013, Atlantis filed its Opposition to Defendant Sumona Islam's Motion to Retax Costs and Affidavit of Counsel in Support of Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendant Sumona Islam's Motion to Retax Costs. On September 3, 2013, Islam filed her Reply in Support of Motion to Retax Costs.

1 On August 21, 2013, Atlantis filed its Motion for Costs and Attorney's Fees,
2 and Affidavit of Counsel in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Costs and Attorney's
3 Fees. On September 3, 2013, Islam filed her Opposition to Atlantis' Motion for 4 Attorney's Fees and Costs. On September 10, 2013, Atlantis filed its Reply and 5 Affidavit of Counsel in Support of Plaintiff's Reply to Motion and submitted the 6 matter for decision.

7 On September 30, 2013, Defendant, MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC dba GRAND
8 SIERRA RESORT (hereafter Grand Sierra), filed its Memorandum of Costs. On 9 October 3, 2013, Atlantis filed its Motion to Retax Costs of Defendant Grand Sierra 10 Resort. On October 9, 2013, Grand Sierra filed its Reply to Plaintiff's Objection to 11 Defendant GSR's Memorandum of Costs. On October 17, 2013, Atlantis filed its 12 Reply in Support of Plaintiff's Motion to Retax Costs of Defendant Grand Sierra 13 Resort and submitted the matter for decision.

14 On October 19, 2013, Grand Sierra filed its Motion for Attorney's Fees. On 15 November 1, 2013, Islam filed her Response to Grand Sierra's Motion for Attorney's
16 Fees. On November 4, 2013, Atlantis filed its Opposition to GSR's Motion for Award
17 of Attorney's Fees and Costs and Affidavit of Counsel in Support of Plaintiff's
18 Opposition to GSR's Motion for Award of Attorney's Fees and Costs.

19 Costs: Atlantis

20 The Atlantis seeks recovery of $17,130.61 in costs pursuant to NRS 18.020.
21 This court has reviewed the invoices filed in support of the requests for cost
22 reimbursement. This court finds the costs expended by the Plaintiff in this matter 23 to be both reasonable and necessary. This Court has also reviewed the 24 documentation and billing to determine the allocation of costs attributable to work
25 performed against Defendant Islam and co-defendant Grand Sierra. This court finds 26 that all but $60.00 is attributed to Ms. Islam. Therefore, Plaintiff is hereby awarded 27 costs in the amount of $17,070.61.
28

1 Costs: Grand Sierra

2 Grand Sierra seeks recovery of $37,009.74 in costs pursuant to NRS 18.110.
3 Included in the request is $18,026.15 in expert witness fees for Mr. Aguero. This 4 request is extraordinary. This requests is deficient in itemization and justification.
5 This court has reviewed Mr. Aguero's report.(Ex. 37) The majority of his report
6 consists of his resume. While this court relied upon Mr. Aguero's report in 7 formulating its finding, this resulted in an award of damages of $23,874.00.¹ Based 8 upon the court's review of the expert report, the witness' testimony and the final 9 award, the court reduces the award of expert witness fees to $3,000.00.

10 Grand Sierra seeks an award of $2,073.24 for two volumes of the trial
11 transcripts. While undoubtedly of some assistance to trial counsel, this expense is 12 not a necessary cost of litigation.

13 Grand Sierra seeks $11,337.79 in travel and lodging expenses for counsel.
14 Grand Sierra is seeking to recoup the expenses of air, rental car, meals and lodging
15 for both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cohen.² Mr. Johnson represented the Grand Sierra 16 at trial, giving the opening statement, cross-examining witnesses, presenting the 17 Grand Sierra's case-in-chief and closing arguments. While Mr. Cohen undoubtedly 18 provided some assistance to Grand Sierra, his participation was more opaque.³ This 19 court is without any information as to Mr. Cohen's participation in pretrial
20 proceedings or incurred other expenses involved in this litigation. Grand Sierra 21 provides scant documentation and itemization to support these expenses. As such,
22 this court finds an award for costs of travel and lodging for Mr. Johnson to be more
23 appropriate in this case. This court will excise the $4,369.50 sought for Mr. Cohen's
24 airfare travel to Reno. Therefore, Defendant Grand Sierra Resort is awarded costs 25 in the amount of $15,540.85.

¹ The final award of $43,874 included $20,000 in punitive damages not attributable to Mr. Aguero's work.

28 ² Defendant Grand Sierra Resorts employed Johnson/Cohen, a Las Vegas firm whose principals attended every day of trial. Any adjustment in the award of costs is no reflection on the client's choice of Las Vegas counsel.

³ Mr. Cohen did raise one objection at trial, which was sustained.

1 The Award of Attorney's Fees

2 Generally speaking, the district court may not award attorneys' fees absent
3 authority under statute, rule, or contract.⁴ The Nevada Supreme Court has upheld
4 an award of attorney's fees to a "prevailing party."⁵ After weighing all the relevant 5 factors, the district court may award up to the full amount of fees requested.

6 On the other hand, where the court has failed to consider many factors,
7 and/or has made no findings based upon the evidence that the attorney's fees are 8 reasonable and justified, it is an abuse of discretion for the court to award the full
9 amount of fees requested. Beattie v. Thomas, 99 Nev. 579, 588, 688 P.2d 268, 274
10 (1983); but see MRO Communications, Inc. v. AT&T Co., 197 F.3d 1276, 1284 (9th 11 Cir. 1999)(where affidavits and exhibits submitted in support, and in opposition to,
12 the motion for attorneys' fees were sufficient to enable a court to consider each of 13 the four factors outlined in Beattie and conclude the amount of fees was reasonable 14 and justified, the court did not abuse its discretion in awarding attorney's fees 15 without making specific findings on the four factors).

16 In this case, this court presided over this entire litigation, culminating in a 17 multi-week bench trial. As such, this court is familiar with the quality of the 18 advocacy of the attorneys, the character of the work performed by the lawyers and 19 the result of those efforts. The court has considered the Beattie factors in reaching 20 its findings.

21 This court has also considered Defendant Islam's objections and request for 22 apportionment of fees between herself and co-defendant Grand Sierra Resort. This 23 court has reviewed plaintiff's billing invoices in an attempt to allocate fees between 24 the co-defendants. This court has reviewed, in camera, the billing statements of

27 ⁴ See Albios v. Horizon Communities, Inc., 122 Nev. 409, 132 P.3d 1022, 1028 (2006), citing State Department of 28 Human Resources v. Fowler, 109 Nev. 782, 784, 858 P.2d 375,376 (1993).

⁵ For attorneys' fees purposes, a plaintiff is prevailing if he succeeds on any significant issue in litigation which achieves some of the benefit he sought in bringing the suit. See Women's Federal Savings & Loan Association v. Nevada National Bank, 623 F.Supp. 401, 404 (D. Nev. 1987).

1 counsel for the Atlantis and Grand Sierra. This court finds apportionment of fees
2 sought by Atlantis against Ms. Islam to be appropriate in this case.

3 The Atlantis Attorney's Fees

4 The Atlantis seeks an award of $364,422.00 in attorney's fees against Ms.
5 Islam. In reviewing the invoices of Atlantis counsel, this court finds that 84.71% of 6 the fees in this matter were expended toward the claims asserted against Ms.
7 Islam. This court finds the fees to be reasonable and justified. Based upon said
8 review, Plaintiff is hereby awarded attorney's fees in the amount of $308,711.00.

9 The Grand Sierra Resort Attorney's Fees

10 By separate Order dated November 6, 2013, this court has directed counsel 11 for the Grand Sierra to submit a more detailed billing statement in support of their 12 Motion for Attorney's Fees. Therefore, at this time, Grand Sierra's Motion for 13 Attorney's Fees is DENIED without prejudice.

14 IT IS ORDERED:

15 Plaintiff Atlantis is awarded $17,070.61 in costs and $303,711.00 in 16 attorney's fees.

17 Defendant Grand Sierra is awarded $15,540.85 in costs. Grand Sierra's
18 Motion for Attorney's Fees is DENIED without prejudice.

12 Corporation, d/b/a ATLANTIS CASINO
13 RESORT SPA

Case No.: CV12-01171

Dept No.: B6

14 Plaintiff,

15 vs.

16 SUMONA ISLAM, an individual; NAV-RENO-
17 GS, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company,
18 d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT; ABC
19 CORPORATIONS; XYZ PARTNERSHIPS;
20 AND JOHN DOES I through X, inclusive.

21 Defendants.

22 AMENDED VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

23 Business Court Requested

24 Plaintiff GOLDEN ROAD MOTOR INN, INC. d/b/a ATLANTIS CASINO RESORT
25 SPA ("PLAINTIFF" or "ATLANTIS"), by and through its counsel of record, Laxalt & Nomura, 26 Ltd., amends its Verified Complaint For Damages filed with this Court on April 27, 2012 and 27 alleges the following complaint against Defendants SUMONA ISLAM ("ISLAM") and NAV-

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. GOLDEN ROAD MOTOR INN, INC. is a Nevada domestic corporation with its principal place of business in the State of Nevada.

2. ISLAM is a resident of Washoe County, Nevada.

3. GSR is a Nevada limited liability company with its principal place of business in the State of Nevada.

4. Plaintiff does not know the true names and capacities or involvement, whether individual, corporate or otherwise, of the Defendants named herein as ABC CORPORATIONS, XYZ PARTNERSHIPS, and JOHN DOES I through X, inclusive. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief alleges that each of the Defendants designated herein as ABC CORPORATIONS, XYZ PARTNERSHIPS, and/or DOE is negligently or otherwise legally responsible in some manner for the events and happenings referred to herein, and that each negligently or otherwise caused injury or damages proximately suffered by the Plaintiff, as more particularly alleged herein. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief alleges that ABC CORPORATIONS or LLC's, XYZ PARTNERSHIPS, and/or DOE engaged in the operation of gaming and the hosting of gaming clients at the premises commonly known as the Grand Sierra Resort/GSR. Plaintiff prays leave to amend this Complaint to show their true names and capacities when the same have been finally determined.

5. The actions of the Defendants and their employees and/or agents, whether or not within the scope of their agency, were ratified by the other remaining individual, corporate or partnership Defendants.

6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over ATLANTIS' Amended Complaint due to the venue clause contained in the agreement between ATLANTIS and ISLAM regarding company property, proprietary information, and trade secrets and because the allegations complained of below occurred in Washoe County.

1 II.

2 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

3 7. ATLANTIS hired ISLAM on or about April 16, 2008 as a Concierge Manager.

4 8. On April 15, 2008, prior to commencing her employment with ATLANTIS,
5 ISLAM executed the ATLANTIS Online System User Agreement ("Online System User
6 Agreement").

7 9. On April 15, 2008, prior to commencing her employment with ATLANTIS,
8 ISLAM also executed an agreement with the ATLANTIS concerning its Business Ethics Policy
9 and Code of Conduct Acknowledgement and Conflicts of Interest Statement. This agreement
10 ("Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct Agreement"), including any updates, was again
11 signed by ISLAM on January 23, 2009, February 26, 2010 and January 19, 2011.

12 10. On April 15, 2008, prior to commencing her employment with ATLANTIS,
13 ISLAM also executed the ATLANTIS Company Policy regarding Company Property, 14 Proprietary Information, and Trade Secrets (hereinafter referred to as "Trade Secret
15 Agreement"). This agreement, including any updates, was again signed by ISLAM on January 16 23, 2009, February 26, 2010 and January 19, 2011.

17 11. On February 26, 2010, ISLAM signed a Non-Compete/Non-Solicitation
18 Agreement with the ATLANTIS ("Non-Compete Agreement").

19 12. ISLAM terminated her employment as an Executive Casino Host with the 20 ATLANTIS on January 19, 2012.

21 13. Throughout ISLAM's employment at ATLANTIS she had access to and worked 22 with highly sensitive trade secrets and proprietary and confidential information of the 23 ATLANTIS, both online and offline, including but not limited to customer lists or customer 24 information or data (such as player tracking or club information), related to matters of 25 ATLANTIS' business.

26 14. In or about March, 2012, ATLANTIS began receiving complaints, and continues
27 to receive complaints, from its established guests that ISLAM contacted them on behalf of GSR
28 and extended offers for them to play at GSR.

15. In or about March, 2012, ATLANTIS discovered that ISLAM had modified, destroyed, changed or sabotaged confidential, proprietary, trade secret information of ATLANTIS, including but not limited to customer data belonging to the ATLANTIS on its online system.

16. On April 6, 2012, ATLANTIS issued cease and desist letters to ISLAM and GSR with respect to their use and potential use of the confidential, proprietary and trade secret information of the ATLANTIS. ATLANTIS received a response on April 18, 2012 from counsel for GSR and ISLAM wherein all allegations against ISLAM and GSR were denied.

III.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Breach of Contract— Confidentiality Agreement as to Islam)

17. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-16 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

18. Pursuant to the terms of the Online System User Agreement, ISLAM, among other things, agreed that all information on ATLANTIS' online system, including but not limited to communications created, sent and received using ATLANTIS' online systems was the property of ATLANTIS, and agreed to maintain confidentiality of the proprietary information / trade secrets of the ATLANTIS including but not limited to guests or perspective guests of the ATLANTIS.

19. Pursuant to the terms of the Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct Agreement, ISLAM agreed not to disclose confidential information including customer lists or customer information (such as player tracking or club information) to any unauthorized persons, either during or after her termination and not to take any documents or records belonging to ATLANTIS after her departure. She also agreed not to profit from confidential information of the ATLANTIS.

20. Pursuant to the terms of the Trade Secret Agreement, ISLAM agreed, among other things, that all ATLANTIS property including intellectual property such as hotel or casino

1 customer/guest lists with facts about those customers' preferences, histories and other personal
2 or business information, was to remain with the ATLANTIS both during and after her term of
3 employment. ISLAM also agreed that any knowledge of ATLANTIS' intellectual property had
4 by her must not be used or disseminated to any other person or entity for any purpose. Finally,
5 ISLAM also agreed not to use or disseminate any ATLANTIS property, tangible, intellectual or
6 otherwise, in any way that may potentially benefit any person or entity other than ATLANTIS.

7 21. ISLAM breached the above agreements with the ATLANTIS both during and 8 after her employment by taking confidential information and intellectual property owned by the 9 Atlantis and using it to her advantage and the advantage of GSR, her subsequent employer, and 10 to the detriment of ATLANTIS.

11 22. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of ISLAM's breaches of 12 confidentiality, ATLANTIS has suffered general and special damages in an amount in excess of 13 Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

14 23. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its 15 claim against ISLAM and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred
16 herein.

17 24. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as 18 more fully set forth below.

20 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

21 (Breach of Contract— Non-Compete Agreement as to Islam)

22 25. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation
23 set forth in paragraphs 1-24 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation
24 contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

25 26. Pursuant to the terms of the Non-Compete Agreement, ISLAM agreed that she 26 would not without the prior written consent of the ATLANTIS be employed by, in any way
27 affiliated with, or provide services to any gaming business or enterprises located within 150 28

1 miles of ATLANTIS for a period of one year after the date that the employment relationship
2 between she and the ATLANTIS ended.

3 27. ISLAM also agreed that the Non-Compete Agreement was the minimum
4 necessary to protect the ATLANTIS in the use and enjoyment of the confidential information
5 and good will of the business of the ATLANTIS.

6 28. ISLAM further agreed that damages cannot fully and adequately compensate
7 ATLANTIS in the event of a breach or violation and that, without limiting the right of 8 ATLANTIS to seek all other legal and equitable remedies available to it, ATLANTIS shall be 9 entitled to injunctive relief, including but not limited to a temporary restraining order, temporary 10 injunction and permanent injunction to prevent any such violations or any continuation of such 11 violations.

12 29. ISLAM terminated her employment with ATLANTIS on January 19, 2012, and,
13 upon information and belief, became employed with GSR on or about January 30, 2012.

14 30. GSR is a gaming business or enterprise located within 150 miles of ATLANTIS.

15 31. ATLANTIS has not consented to ISLAM'S employment with GSR.

16 32. ISLAM has breached the Non-Compete Agreement by accepting employment
17 with GSR prior to January 19, 2013.

18 33. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of ISLAM's breach of the Non-19 Compete Agreement, ATLANTIS has suffered general and special damages in an amount in 20 excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

21 34. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its 22 claim against ISLAM and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred
23 herein.

24 35. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as 25 more fully set forth below.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

2 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

3 (Conversion of Property as to Islam)

4 36. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation
5 set forth in paragraphs 1-35 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation
6 contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

7 37. Pursuant to the terms of the Business Ethics Policy and Code of Conduct
8 Agreement, ISLAM agreed that ATLANTIS' online systems are ATLANTIS' property, were 9 provided for her business purposes use to increase her production and effectiveness and that the 10 purpose of the agreement was to ensure use of ATLANTIS' online systems in a productive
11 manner. ISLAM further agreed not to profit from confidential information of the ATLANTIS
12 and not to make false or artificial entries in the books and records of the company for any reason.

13 38. Within 18 days before she voluntarily terminated her employment with 14 ATLANTIS, ISLAM falsely modified, destroyed, falsely changed and/or sabotaged confidential,
15 proprietary, trade secret information of ATLANTIS, including but not limited to customer data 16 belonging to the ATLANTIS on its online system to her benefit and the benefit of GSR and to 17 the detriment of ATLANTIS.

18 39. Specifically, ISLAM exercised wrongful control over ATLANTIS property
19 without legal justification and without the consent of ATLANTIS by making address, telephone 20 number and/or email address changes to ATLANTIS hotel or casino customer/guest data that she 21 knew to be false or incorrect which resulted in a taking, use or interference with ATLANTIS 22 property.

23 40. As a result of ISLAM's wrongful conversion, ATLANTIS customers and guests
24 did not receive regular ATLANTIS offers, and in some cases instead received offers of play from 25 ISLAM and GSR. The fact that some ATLANTIS customers received these direct 26 communications is known as they called ATLANTIS to complain that they had been solicited by 27 ISLAM and GSR.

41. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of ISLAM's Conversion, ATLANTIS has suffered general and special damages in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

42. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its claim against ISLAM and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred herein.

43. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as more fully set forth below.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Tortious Interference with Contractual Relations and Prospective Economic Advantage as to Islam and GSR)

44. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-43 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

45. ATLANTIS has an actual Non-Compete Agreement with ISLAM.

46. GSR was aware of the Non-Compete Agreement before or immediately after it hired ISLAM.

47. ATLANTIS has a business relationship with the individuals on its customer/guest lists.

48. ISLAM intentionally, improperly and without privilege, interfered with the prospective economic advantage between ATLANTIS and the individuals on its customer/guest lists by inducing or otherwise causing the prospective economic advantage not to occur. ISLAM did this by: (1) sabotaging ATLANTIS customer/guest lists which caused its customers/guests not to receive offers from ATLANTIS which they might otherwise have accepted and (2) transmitting offers of play at GSR to existing customers of ATLANTIS contained on its confidential and proprietary customer/guest lists which either caused them to play at GSR

1 instead of ATLANTIS or caused ATLANTIS to increase its offer of play or incentives to them in 2 competition with GSR.

3 49. GSR intentionally, improperly and without privilege, interfered with the 4 performance of the Non-Compete Agreement between ATLANTIS and ISLAM by inducing or 5 otherwise causing ISLAM to accept employment with GSR in breach of the Non-Compete
6 Agreement wherein ISLAM agreed that said agreement was the minimum necessary to protect 7 ATLANTIS in the use and enjoyment of confidential information and the good will and business
8 of the ATLANTIS and by facilitating the interference or directly causing the interference
9 through the transmittal of offers and solicitations.

10 50. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of ISLAM and GSR's tortious
11 interferences, ATLANTIS has suffered general and special damages in an amount in excess of 12 Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

13 51. At all times material hereto, the Defendants, and each of them, have acted 14 fraudulently, oppressively, in conscious and malicious disregard of the rights of Plaintiff, and in 15 furtherance of their own financial interests, such as to justify the assessment of punitive damages
16 for the sake of punishment and to deter similar action in the future in a just and reasonable 17 amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

18 52. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its
19 claim against ISLAM and GSR and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit
20 incurred herein.

21 53. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as 22 more fully set forth below.

23 VII.

24 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

25 (Violation of Uniform Trade Secret Act, NRS 600.A.010 et. seq., as to Islam and GSR)

26 54. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation
27 set forth in paragraphs 1-53 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation
28 contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

1 55. Pursuant to the terms of the Trade Secret Agreement, ISLAM agreed, among 2 other things, that all ATLANTIS property including intellectual property such as hotel or casino
3 customer/guest lists with facts about those customers' preferences, histories and other personal
4 or business information, was to remain with the ATLANTIS both during after her term of
5 employment. ISLAM also agreed that any knowledge of ATLANTIS' intellectual property had
6 by her must not be used or disseminated to any other person or entity for any purpose. Finally,
7 ISLAM also agreed not to use or disseminate any ATLANTIS property, tangible, intellectual or
8 otherwise, in any way that may potentially benefit any person or entity other than ATLANTIS.

9 56. ISLAM breached the above referenced agreement(s) with the ATLANTIS both 10 during and after her employment by taking confidential information and intellectual property
11 owned by the Atlantis and using it to her advantage and the advantage of GSR, her subsequent 12 employer, and to the detriment of ATLANTIS.

13 57. Said confidential information of the ATLANTIS constitutes a trade secret as it 14 derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and 15 not being readily ascertainable by proper means by the public or any other persons who can 16 obtain commercial or economic value from its disclosure or use and ATLANTIS took reasonable 17 efforts to maintain its secrecy.

18 58. ISLAM and GSR, through improper means, have and will likely continue to 19 misappropriate the trade secrets of ATLANTIS.

20 59. As a direct, proximate and foreseeable result of ISLAM and GSR's 21 misappropriation of the trade secrets of ATLANTIS, ATLANTIS has suffered general and 22 special damages in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

23 60. At all times material hereto, the Defendants, and each of them, have acted with 24 willful, wanton and reckless behavior in misappropriating the trade secrets of the ATLANTIS 25 such as to justify the assessment of exemplary damages in an amount not exceeding twice the 26 award for the misappropriation.

61. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its claim against ISLAM and GSR and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred herein.

62. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as more fully set forth below.

VIII.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Declaratory Relief as to Islam and GSR)

63. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-62 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

64. NRS 30.030 et seq., among other things authorizes the Courts of this State to declare the rights, status, validity and other legal relations of and between persons as they may be affected by a contract, statute or deed.

65. Plaintiff herein asserts that the aforementioned agreements are valid contracts that the respective Defendants have breached as alleged above and that Defendants have violated NRS 600A.010 et. seq. also as alleged above.

66. Accordingly, this Court has the power and authority to declare the rights and obligations of these parties in connection with the various contracts and the applicable Nevada statute and laws. Specifically, and without limitation, this Court can and should declare that the aforementioned agreements are valid contracts that have been respectively breached by Defendants and that Defendants have violated the Uniform Trade Secrets Act at NRS 600A.010 et. seq. entitling Plaintiff to immediate injunctive relief and damages.

67. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its claim against ISLAM and GSR and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred herein.

68. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants and each of them as more fully set forth below.

2 SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

3 (Injunctive Relief as to Islam and GSR)

4 69. ATLANTIS repeats, realleges and incorporates herein each and every allegation
5 set forth in paragraphs 1-68 of its Amended Complaint, as well as each and every allegation
6 contained in every other Claim for Relief, as if fully set forth herein.

7 70. ATLANTIS has an interest in protecting confidential and proprietary information
8 and trade secrets related to its business.

9 71. In an effort to protect its confidential and proprietary matters related to its 10 business, ATLANTIS mandates that its employees execute the aforementioned agreements both 11 upon commencement of their employment and regularly throughout their employment.

12 72. ISLAM executed all such agreements referenced above, some multiple times.

13 73. ISLAM breached these agreements and continues to breach them.

14 74. ATLANTIS is entitled to an injunction precluding ISLAM from further breaching
15 the terms of the agreements.

16 75. ATLANTIS will suffer irreparable harm by ISLAM'S continual breaches of the 17 terms of the agreements if the relief requested by ATLANTIS is not granted.

18 76. ISLAM will not be burdened by complying with the terms of the agreements to 19 which she previously agreed to abide.

20 77. ATLANTIS requests injunctive relief in the form of an order precluding ISLAM
21 from further breaching the terms of the agreements.

22 78. ISLAM and GSR are subject to injunctive relief per NRS 600A.040 due to actual 23 or threatened misappropriation of the trade secrets of ATLANTIS.

24 79. ATLANTIS has been required to retain the services of an attorney to prosecute its
25 claim against ISLAM and GSR and is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit
26 incurred herein.

27 80. Wherefore, Plaintiff pleads for judgment against Defendants and each of them as 28 more fully set forth below.

1 X.

2 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

3 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against the Defendants, and each of them, as
4 more fully set forth below.

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, while expressly reserving its right to amend this Amended
6 Complaint up to and including the time of trial to include additional Defendants, additional 7 theories of recovery, and items of damage not yet ascertained, demands judgment against the 8 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

- 10 1. General damages in excess of $10,000;
11 2. Special damages in excess of $10,000;
12 3. Punitive or exemplary damages in an amount in excess of $10,000;
13 4. For a temporary restraining order;
14 5. For declaratory and permanent injunctive relief;
15 6. For pre and post-judgment interest;
16 7. For reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit; and 17 8. For such other and further relief as the Court deems to be just and appropriate.

18 Affirmation Pursuant to NRS 239B.030

19 The undersigned does hereby affirm that the preceding document does not contain the 20 social security number of any person.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All appellants not in proper person must complete this docketing statement. NRAP 14(a). The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in screening jurisdiction, classifying cases for en banc, panel, or expedited treatment, compiling statistical information and identifying parties and their counsel.

WARNING

This statement must be completed fully, accurately and on time. NRAP 14(c). The Supreme Court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate. Id. Failure to fill out the statement completely or to file it in a timely manner constitutes grounds for the imposition of sanctions, including a fine and/or dismissal of the appeal.

A complete list of the documents that must be attached appears as Question 26 on this docketing statement. Failure to attach all requested documents will result in the delay of your appeal and may result in the imposition of sanctions.

This court has noted that when attorneys do not take seriously their obligations under NRAP 14 to complete the docketing statement properly and conscientiously, they waste the valuable judicial resources of this court, making the imposition of sanctions appropriate. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 810 P.2d 1220 (1991). Please use tab dividers to separate any attached documents.

- 2 ☐ Child custody
3 ☐ Venue
4 ☐ Termination of parental rights

5 6. Pending and prior proceedings in this court. List the case name and docket number of all appeals or original proceedings presently or previously pending before this court which are related to this appeal:

6 This is the first appeal arising from this District Court proceeding.

7 7. Pending and prior proceedings in other courts. List the case name, number and court of all pending and prior proceedings in other courts which are related to this appeal (e.g., 8 bankruptcy, consolidated or bifurcated proceedings) and their dates of disposition:

9 Not applicable.

10 8. Nature of the action. Briefly describe the nature of the action and the result below:

11 This is a commercial civil lawsuit involving claims sounding in breach of contract, 12 conversion of property, tortious interference with contractual relations and prospective economic advantage and violations of the Nevada Uniform Trade Act. Atlantis brought 13 these claims, as appropriate, against Islam and GSR and the results of each are outlined below.

14 1. Breach of Contract

15 This claim was brought only against Islam as contractual privity only existed between Islam and Atlantis. The suit was brought based upon the contended breach of four 16 contracts between Islam and Atlantis. The District Court found in favor of the Atlantis, finding a breach as to three of these. However, the District Court found the fourth 17 contract, the Non-Compete/Non-Solicitation Agreement, unenforceable. Although finding the restriction appropriate as to length and geography, the District Court 18 determined that the total exclusion from employment with a competitor within the geographic region was an unreasonable restraint on trade, greater than required for the 19 protection of the Atlantis. Therefore, the District Court found the Non-Compete/Non-Solicitation Agreement unenforceable and dismissed the breach of contract claim 20 grounded upon that agreement.

21 2. Conversion of Property

22 The Atlantis sought to hold Islam liable for conversion of its property. In particular,
Atlantis contended, and Islam admitted, that she had made false entries into the Atlantis 23 marketing database for the purpose of interfering with the business relationship between the Atlantis and its established and known guests. Atlantis contended that this resulted in 24 the property of the Atlantis, the correct information regarding these 87 guests, to be withheld from the Atlantis for a period of time during which Islam, on behalf of the GSR, 25 could market and solicit to these guests without having to compete with marketing and solicitation efforts from the Atlantis. The District Court found in favor of Islam as to this 26 claim, determining that the interference with the property of the Atlantis was not severe, that the information, although altered, was not lost and was easily restored.

1 3. Tortious Interference With Contractual Relations and Prospective Economic 2 Advantage

3 A. Tortious Interference With Contract pled against GSR.

4 Atlantis alleged that GSR interfered with the Non-Compete/Non-Solicitation Agreement
5 between Atlantis and Islam by employing Islam in a position which was the same 6 position she held at the Atlantis and in direct and purposeful competition with the 7 Atlantis. It was further contended that GSR did so with the expectation (and then 8 following employment with the knowledge) that Islam was utilizing the intellectual 9 property of the Atlantis in her efforts on behalf of the GSR. The District Court below
10 found in favor of the GSR on this claim based upon the fact that it found the Non-11 Compete/Non-Solicitation Agreement between Islam and Atlantis to be unenforceable.

12 B. Tortious Interference With Prospective Economic Advantage pled against GSR
13 and ISLAM

14 The Atlantis also contended that Islam and GSR had tortiously interfered with the 15 prospective economic advantage held by it with regard to the trade secrets in question and 16 particularly the commercial relationship between the Atlantis and the over 200 known 17 gaming guests of Atlantis whose information had been misappropriated by Islam. The 18 District Court determined that based upon this Court's decision in Franz v. Johnson, 116
19 Nev. 455 (2000) that the claims were more appropriately adjudicated under the Uniform
20 Trade Secrets Act than under a claim for tortious interference with contract or prospective
21 economic advantage. Thus, the claim was considered in that light and as described 22 below, the District Court found violations by Islam, but no violation by GSR.

23 4. Violations of the Nevada Uniform Trade Secret Act as against Islam and GSR

24 Atlantis contended violations of the Uniform Trade Secret Act ("UTSA") by both Islam
25 and GSR. Although Islam was working for GSR, the District Court found in favor of 26 GSR and against Atlantis on this claim.

27 In reaching its decision the District Court awarded general and punitive damages against 28 Islam finding that her violation was unjustified and that her actions were willful,
29 malicious and intentional. Further, the District Court imposed a Permanent Injunction
30 pursuant to NRS 600A.040, prohibiting Islam from any further use of the trade secret 31 information. The District Court also awarded attorney's fees in favor of Atlantis and 32 against Islam, pursuant to statute and based upon its finding that Islam's actions
33 constituted willful and malicious misappropriation.

34 In addition to finding no violation of the UTSA by GSR, the District Court awarded 35 attorney's fees against Atlantis and in favor of GSR. This award was sua sponte and no 36 basis was given by the District Court in its oral decision from the bench. The Findings of 37 Fact and Conclusions of Law and Judgment, from which Atlantis appeals, grounded the 38 award upon a finding that the litigation was maintained in bad faith and that attorney's 39 fees were appropriately awarded under an objective specious standard.

40 9. Issues on appeal. State concisely the principal issue(s) in this appeal (attach separate 41 sheets as necessary):

42 This appeal raises five primary issues. They are as follows:

43 1. Whether the District Court's ruling represents appropriate enforcement of the UTSA
44 against GSR.

2. Whether the District Court's determination that the Non-Competition/Non-Solicitation Agreement between Atlantis and Islam was overbroad and unenforceable based upon its prohibition of employment with "any gaming business or enterprise" is erroneous.

3. Whether the District Court erred by making a sua sponte award of GSR's attorney's fees against Atlantis.

4. Whether the District Court erred by finding in favor of Islam and against Atlantis on the conversion claim.

5. If intellectual property is not a trade secret, is it at least property which when possessed by someone who is not its owner should be ordered returned?

10. Pending proceedings in this court raising the same or similar issues. If you are aware of any proceeding presently pending before this court which raises the same or similar issues raised in this appeal, list the case name and docket number and identify the same or similar issues raised:

None.

11. Constitutional issues. If this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute, and the state, any state agency, or any officer or employee thereof is not a party to this appeal, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

☒ N/A
☐ Yes
☐ No

If not, explain:

12. Other issues. Does this appeal involve any of the following issues?

☐ Reversal of well-settled Nevada precedent (on an attachment, identify the case(s))
☐ An issue arising under the United States and/or Nevada Constitutions
☒ A substantial issue of first impression
☒ An issue of public policy
☐ An issue where en banc consideration is necessary to maintain uniformity of this court's decisions.
☐ A ballot question

If so, explain:

As described above, this case will frame two issues of important Nevada public policy, one of which is also an issue of first impression. The issue of first impression is related to what is and is not a trade secret within the primary industry in Nevada, gaming, and more particularly whether a guest list including the name, address and contact information is or is not a trade secret and whether intellectual property which is not found to be a trade secret is still property that can and should be ordered returned when in the possession of a non-owner.

The second issue of important public policy is the legality of a non-compete agreement which contains a blanket prohibition of employment with any competitor in any position versus a prohibition that is more narrowly tailored to the specific position held by the employee; and whether in a circumstance where the employee subsequently becomes employed in the same position, the broad language prohibiting employment in any position is grounds to defeat the enforcement of the contract.

13. Trial. If this action proceeded to trial, how many days did the trial last? 11 days
Was it a bench or jury trial? Bench Trial

14. Judicial disqualification. Do you intend to file a motion to disqualify or have a justice recuse him/herself from participation in this appeal. If so, which Justice?

No.
