AMENDED MOTION FOR EXTENSION TO FILE APPELLANT'S REPLY BRIEF

Appellant Raymond Khoury requests 30 days, until August 28, 2015, to file his reply brief. NRAP 31(b)(3). The brief was originally due June 29, 2015 and is currently due July 29, 2015.

This is Khoury's second request for extension, and first by motion, after receiving the current answering brief. (Khoury previously requested an extension pending his motion to strike a prior answering brief. The motion to strike was granted, mooted the motion for extension.) After the current answering brief was filed, the parties stipulated to one extension pursuant to NRAP 31(b)(2).

While Khoury's counsel has prepared a draft of the reply brief, additional time is needed because of events that involved all three members of the new appellate team working on the brief. These attorneys have been drawn into two emergency evidentiary hearings, taking time away from work on the brief. In addition, the associate primarily responsible for researching the important issues presented in this case had to take time off work to assist his spouse, who was facing medical and family situations.

Dated this 29th day of July, 2015.
