TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DIRECTING ENTRY AND TRANSMISSION OF WRITTEN ORDER

This is a proper person appeal from a decision denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. The documents before this court do not contain a written order memorializing the court's decision made on January 8, 2014. A copy of the written order is essential to a determination of this court's jurisdiction to consider this appeal.¹ The district court shall have 60 days from the date of this order to: (1) enter a written order, (2) inform this court in writing that it is reconsidering its decision, or (3) inform this court in writing that additional time is needed to enter the written order. In the event the district court enters a written order (or has already entered a written order of which this court is ¹Prior to the entry of a final written judgment, and the timely filing of a notice of appeal, the district court technically retains jurisdiction over appellant's case. See Bradley v. State, 109 Nev. 1090, 1094-95, 864 P.2d 1272, 1275 (1993). In a criminal case, a notice of appeal filed after announcement of the decision, but before entry of the written judgment or order is deemed to have been filed after such entry and on the day thereof.
