MEMORANDUM AND POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I, CRAIG W. DRUMMOND, ESQ., am a duly qualified, practicing and licensed attorney in the State of Nevada and State of Missouri and am counsel in the above-captioned case. Appellants submit their first request for a thirty (30) day extension of time in which to file Appellants' Opening Brief and Appendix. Appellants' Counsel needs additional time due to conflicts in scheduling with other trial matters, recent personnel changes in the firm, current holiday leave schedules for personnel, and to continue to research caselaw related to this issue.

This is an appeal in a civil case and is the second time that the Appellants have been required to appeal a District Court Order related to this case. The first appeal being via a Writ of Mandamus which was granted in Case 61690. This current appeal is where the District Court granted a Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment and dismissed the Appellants' entire case. Appellants believe that this action was in error.

Pursuant to NRAP 26(b), this Court for good cause shown can enlarge the time prescribed by the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure for perform any act, or may permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time.

Appellants respectfully move for an enlargement of time of thirty (30) days, making said brief and appendix due January 25, 2015. This will give Appellants sufficient time to thoroughly review the issues in their appeal. No other extensions have been requested.

DATED this 22 day of December, 2014.
