MEMORANDUM

I, CRAIG W. DRUMMOND, ESQ., am a duly qualified, practicing and licensed attorney in the State of Nevada and State of Missouri and appointed counsel for Defendant DONALD TAYLOR in the above-captioned case. Appellant's counsel submits his second request for a forty-five (45) day extension of time in which to file Appellant's Opening Brief and Appendix. This request is being made because of recent major health issues and hospitalization of the wife of counsel for the Appellant. These issues were unforeseen and, unfortunately, took counsel out of the office and away from being able to work on this case in order to provide care and comfort for his spouse who was only recently released from the hospital.

This is an appeal from a Judgment of Conviction for which Appellant is serving a life sentence. Appellant filed a Notice of Appeal on April 4, 2014 and Case Appeal Statement on April 8, 2014. This Honorable Court granted the first extension on August 7, 2014 for Appellant's Opening Brief and Appendix, which are now due September 22, 2014.

Pursuant to NRAP 26(b), this Court for good cause shown can enlarge the time prescribed by the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure to perform any act, or may permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time. This case involves complex issues in which Appellant is serving a life sentence for which a detailed review is required.

Appellant respectfully moves for an enlargement of time of forty-five (45) days, making said brief and appendix due November 6, 2014. This will give Appellant sufficient time to thoroughly review the issues in his appeal. The first extension was granted on August 7, 2014.

DATED this 12 day of September, 2014.
