Tracie K. Lindeman
Clerk of Supreme Court

Motion for Extension of Time (Third)

Appellant MICHAEL A. ECHEVARRIA, through his undersigned counsel, hereby requests an extension of time of 30 days, from May 14, 2015 up to and including June 13, 2015, to file and serve his opening brief and appendix. NRAP 31(b)(3). This is his third request. This motion is made and based on extreme and unforeseen circumstances, namely the unexpected death of undersigned counsel's grandmother, Dorothie J. Sterling, with whom undersigned counsel was very close, on May 2, 2015. (See attached.) Undersigned counsel has been out of the office for most of the past 10 days as a result, including 5 days spent in California where she lived attending to her funeral and various other matters related to and necessitated by her

Dorothie J. Sterling

Oxnard, CA

Dorothie J. Sterling made her transition on Saturday, May 2, 2015. Dorothie was born in Pasadena, CA on October 25, 1926 but Oxnard was home for 65 years. She was an elementary school teacher for the Oxnard School District for 30 years and after retiring in 1985, was elected to the Oxnard Board of Education and served 13 years. She also taught in Germany for a year.

Dorothie was a wonderful, fantastic and phenomenal woman and has met many people and touched many lives. She traveled and lived a full life with beloved family and friends. She was so full of love and kindness and forgiveness. She lit up whatever room she was in and showed love to all of those in it.

Dorothie was preceded in death by her husband, Clarence Sterling, her son Clarence Ray Sterling, Jr. , and her sisters Patricia, Joan and Sarah and her brother Robert (Bob) Fulton. She is survived by her daughter Francie and her husband Ken, her daughter-in-law Eileen, her sister Marge Fulton, grandsons Beau and his wife Carmen, Felix and his wife Lulu, Ebon and his wife Rachel and many great-grand children and nieces and nephews in Texas and throughout the country. She is also survived by her long time best friend and house mate Connie Wilson and her children, grand children and great-grand children.

A celebration of Dorothie's life will be held at Camino Del Sol Memorial Center and Funeral Home in Oxnard on Saturday, May 9th at 11:00 AM.
