Clerk of Supreme Court

8 MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME FOR DOCKETING STATEMENT

9 Appellant hereby moves for a 12-day extension of time for filing the docketing statement.
10 This is appellant's first request for such an extension. The docketing statement is now due on 11 August 6, 2015, and appellant is requesting an extension until August 18, 2014.

12 The docketing statement in this case is unusually complex, primarily regarding questions
13 relating to appellate jurisdiction (timeliness and appealability). There were multiple judgments
14 and motions in the district court, creating complexity on jurisdictional issues. Appellant's 15 attorneys are in the process of preparing the docketing statement, but due to its complexity and 16 unusual content, counsel cannot complete it by the present due date.

17 Additionally, appellate counsel Robert Eisenberg has been informed that trial counsel
18 (Edward Kainen) and the client (Kirk Harrison) are out of town this week. Appellate counsel
19 needs to consult with them regarding answers to docketing statement questions.

20 Accordingly, appellant requests an extension until August 18, 2014, for filing the 21 docketing statement.
