- My office address is 1601 S. Rainbow Blvd., Suite 160, Las Vegas, Nevada 89146.
- 3. The decent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), filed a complaint on behalf of Adams' mother and his estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007. On October 31, 2007, my office submitted interrogatories to Fallini. Those interrogatories were never answered. My office also submitted requests for admissions and Plaintiff's first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident
- 4. Fallini never responded to any of these requests. To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant.
- 5. On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), I filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008.
- 6. I attempted to amicably resolve the discovery dispute and obtain a copy of Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, I sent letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery.
- 7. I have attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, I contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. I was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. I left a message with my phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came.
- 8. On March 18, 2009, I again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. I was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. I left a message with my phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came.

9. On March 23, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. This motion was heard on April 27, 2009. I was unable to attend, but my associate attended. I am informed that the Defendant's attorney, Mr. Kuehn, attended the hearing. Mr. Kuehn did not oppose the motion to compel and agreed at the hearing it was warranted. Mr. Kuehn provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests. Mr. Kuehn agreed sanctions were warranted, however, he disputed the amount of sanctions. This Honorable Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. Defendant never complied with the Order.

- On June 16, 2009 my office filed a Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim due to Defendants complete failure to comply with discovery requests and this Court's Order. The Defendant's counsel again attended the hearing and again provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests, but stated Defendant would comply with discovery requests. This Honorable Court denied Plaintiff's Motion to Strike based on Defendant's counsel's promises to comply. This Honorable Court did, however, order Defendant to comply with the Order granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests by August 12, 2009 or Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim would be stricken. The Court also ordered Defendant to pay a $1,000 sanction.
- 11. To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests. Defendant's counsel has paid the $1,750.00 in sanctions as ordered by the Court.

25 | /// 26 | /// 27 | /// 28 | ///

12. Plaintiff is entitled to the discovery responses, and in fact, Defendant has admitted as much on more than one occasion. Nevertheless, Defendant refuses and continues to refuse to respond. As the Court is aware, it is preferable for Plaintiff to place Defendant's insurance carrier on notice of the claim before obtaining a judgment in favor of Plaintiff; otherwise, Plaintiff fears Defendant's insurance company will refuse to pay the claim.

Lane, and John P. Aldrich, Esq., of 25 Aldrich Law Firm, Ltd., appearing on behalf of the Plaintiffs, with Harry Kuehn, Esq., appearing on 26 behalf of Defendant, the Court hereby orders as follows: 27 28 Page 1 of 6

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Court, having been presented the following facts by Plaintiff's counsel and having received no opposition to the facts by Defendant, makes the following findings of fact:

- 1. This lawsuit arises out of an incident that occurred on or about July 7, 2005. At approximately 9:00 p.m. on that day, MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Adams") was driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, when he collided with a Hereford cow ("cow") owned by Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini"). Adams died at the scene as a result of the impact.
- 2. The decent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), filed a complaint on behalf of Adams' mother and his estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007.
- 3. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff submitted interrogatories to Fallini. Those interrogatories were never answered. Adams also submitted requests for admissions and its first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident.
- 4. Fallini never responded to any of these requests. To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant.
- 5. On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008.
 - 6. Plaintiff attempted to amicably resolve the discovery dispute and obtain a copy of

Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, Plaintiff sent letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery.

- 7. Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Aldrich, attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, Plaintiff's counsel contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came.
- 8. On March 18, 2009, Mr. Aldrich again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 1.)
- 9. On March 23, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. This motion was heard on April 27, 2009. The Defendant's attorney, Mr. Kuehn, attended the hearing. Mr. Kuehn did not oppose the motion to compel and agreed at the hearing it was warranted. Mr. Kuehn provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests. Mr. Kuehn agreed sanctions were warranted, however, he disputed the amount of sanctions.
- 10. At the hearing on April 27, 2009, this Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. Defendant never complied with the Order.
- 11. On June 16, 2009 Plaintiff filed a Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim due to Defendants complete failure to comply with discovery requests and this Court's Order. The Defendant's counsel again attended the hearing and again provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests, but stated Defendant would comply with discovery requests.

- 12. The Court denied Plaintiff's Motion to Strike based on Defendant's counsel's promises to comply. This Court did, however, order Defendant to comply with the Order granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests by August 12, 2009 or Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim would be stricken. The Court also ordered Defendant to pay a $1,000 sanction.
- 13. To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests. Defendant's counsel has paid the $1,750.00 in sanctions as ordered by the Court.
- 14. Plaintiff is entitled to the discovery responses, and in fact, Defendant has admitted as much on more than one occasion. Nevertheless, Defendant refused and continues to refuse to respond.
- 15. Because Defendant failed and refused to follow this Court' order and provide the requested information, Plaintiff brought an Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant and Her Counsel Should Not Be Held in Contempt. The Order to Show Cause was granted, and a hearing was scheduled on September 28, 2009. A conference was held in chambers, so as to avoid embarrassment to Defendant's counsel. Following the conference, the Court ordered:
 - (A) That Defendant's counsel shall have until close of business on October 12, 2009, to comply with the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and provide responses to Plaintiff's Request for Production of Documents, including the requested insurance information.
 - (B) That if Defendant does not provide the above-described information by October 12, 2009, Defendant's counsel will be held in contempt of court and will be fined $150.00 per day, beginning October 13, 2009, until said information is provided. The days shall be calculated on a seven-day week.
 - (C) That if the above-described information is not provided by October 12, 2009, the Court will strike defendant's pleadings in their entirety. Plaintiff will not need to renew any motion regarding its request to strike defendant's pleadings; Plaintiff will be able to simply submit an Order Striking the Pleadings for signature by the Court.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the Findings of Fact, as set forth above, the Court makes the following conclusions of law:

- 1. Pursuant to NRCP 34, Plaintiff has the right to request documents which are discoverable pursuant to NRCP 26. According to NRCP 34, Defendant has 30 days from receipt of the requests for production of documents to provide appropriate responses.
- 2. NRCP 34(b) permits a party to seek relief under NRCP 37(a) if the party who receives discovery requests fails to respond appropriately. NRCP 37(a) provides that the Court may enter an order compelling a non-responsive party to disclose the requested information.
- 3. This Court has at least three times entered an order compelling Defendant to respond to Discovery requests.
- 4. NRCP 37(b)(2)(c), permits "an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof," for discovery abuses. "Selection of a particular sanction for discovery abuses under NRCP 37 is generally a matter committed to the sound discretion of the district court." Stubliv. Big Int'l Trucks, Inc., 107 Nev. 309, 312-313, 810 P.2d 785 (1991) (citing Fire Ins. Exchange v. Zenith Radio Corp., 103 Nev. 648, 649, 747 P.2d 911, 912 (1987) and Kelly Broadcasting v. Sovereign Broadcast, 96 Nev. 188, 192, 606 P.2d 1089, 1092 (1980.))
- 5. The Nevada Supreme Court held that default judgments will be upheld where "the normal adversary process has been halted due to an unresponsive party, because diligent parties are entitled to be protected against interminable delay and uncertainty as to their legal rights." Hamlett v. Reynolds, 114 Nev. 863, 963 P.2d 457 (1998) (citing Skeen v. Valley Bank of Nevada, 89 Nev. 301, 303, 511 P.2d 1053, 1054 (1973).

Order to Show Cause why Defendant Susan Fallini and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court for her failure to comply with the Court's Orders dated April 27, 2009, July 17, 2009, and October 8, 2009 that Susan Fallini must produce all documents responsive to Plaintiff's discovery requests. Further, Defendant requests that both Defendant Fallini and her counsel be required to appear in Court, that Defendant and/or her counsel be sanctioned for Plaintiff having to bring this inotion, that the Court refer this matter to the State Bar of Nevada for consideration of disciplinary action, and that the Court impose stiff sanctions – Plaintiff suggests $5,000 immediately and $500 per day until Defendant complies – for Defendant's repeated failure to comply with the Court's Orders. If Defendant will not comply with the Court's Orders, or if both Defendant and her counsel are not present in Court, Plaintiff will request that the Court issue a bench warrant until Defendant complies.

This Motion is made and based upon all papers, pleadings and records on file herein, the points and authorities and any exhibits attached hereto, and such oral argument as the court may entertain at the time of the hearing on this matter.

Affiant, being first duly sworn, deposes and states the following:

1. I, John P. Aldrich, am an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Nevada and a partner in the law firm of Aldrich Law Firm, Ltd.

2. My office address is 1601 S. Rainbow Blvd Suite 160, Las Vegas, Nevada 89146.

3. I have personal knowledge of the contents of this document, or where stated upon information and belief, I believe them to be true and I am competent to testify to the facts set forth herein.

On March 23, 2009 – more than a year ago – Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. On April 27, 2009, this Honorable Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. Defendant never complied with the Order.

On June 16, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim due to Defendants complete failure to comply with discovery requests and this Court's Order. The Defendant's Counsel attended the hearing and again provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests, but stated Defendant would comply with the Court's Order and respond to the discovery requests. This Honorable Court denied Plaintiff's Motion to Strike based on Defendant's counsel's promises to comply. This Honorable Court did, however, order Defendant to comply with its prior Order and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests by July 12, 2009 or Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim would be stricken. Defendant's counsel paid a total of $1,750 in sanctions, as ordered by the Court.

6. After Defendant again failed to comply with an Order of this Court, on August 31, 2009, Plaintiff brought an Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Susan Fallini and Her Counsel Should Not be Held in Contempt. The Court issued an Order to Show Cause which required the attendance of both Defendant Susan Fallini and her counsel, Harry Kuehn, Esq. After a hearing in chambers on September 28, 2009 – a hearing at which Defendant Susan Fallini did not appear – the Court issued an Order on Plaintiff's Order to Show Cause, dated October 8, 2009, that Susan Fallini must produce all documents responsive to Plaintiff's discovery requests by October 12, 2009. The Court further ordered that if Defendant did not supply the requested information by October 12, 2009, Defendant's counsel would be held in contempt of court and would be fined $150.00 a day, beginning October 13, 2009. Further this Court ordered that if the requested information was not provided by October 12, 2009, the Court would strike Defendant's pleadings in their entirety. To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests. On November 6, 2009 an order was entered Striking Defendant's pleadings. As of the date of this Motion, Defendant's counsel owes Plaintiff more than $25,000 for not complying with this Court's Order.

- Plaintiff has expended significant time and resources in attempting to get Defendant to comply with discovery requests. Defendant and/or her counsel have never provided any reason for her failure to respond to discovery or to comply with the Court's Order. Rather, Defendant's counsel has on more than one occasion acknowledged to the Court that Defendant must provide the required information, but continues to fail to do so.
- Plaintiff first requested the information she is seeking more than a year ago. Plaintiff 8. has a right to know what insurance is available, or if there is any insurance at all. Plaintiff must learn this before she can proceed with seeking a judgment; otherwise, Plaintiff runs the risk that the judgment will not be enforceable as to any insurance that may apply to the case. Plaintiff is also concerned that as more time passes (and the economy continues to struggle), Defendant could be disposing of or wasting assets.
- Defendant's counsel has not been candid with the Court. On at least two occasions Mr. Kuehn has made specific representations to the Court that he and/or his client would provide the requested information. Mr. Kuehn's actions have served only to delay justice for Plaintiff. Defendant's dilatory stall tactics are inappropriate, and Plaintiff asks the Court to grant Plaintiff's Motion for Order Shortening Time. Further, at the hearing on September 28, 2009, Defendant's counsel made specific representations that he had contacted his malpractice insurance carrier and that they would be contacting him (and perhaps Plaintiff's counsel) immediately. However, no insurance attorney has made any effort to intervene in this matter. I am concerned about that representation made by Defendant's counsel as well.

This lawsuit arises out of an incident that occurred on or about July 7, 2005. At approximately 9:00 p.m. on that day, MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Adams") was driving his 1994. Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, when he collided with a Hereford cow ("cow") owned by Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini"). Adams died at the scene as a result of the impact.

The decedent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), filed a complaint on behalf of Adams' mother and his estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff submitted interrogatories to Fallini. Those interrogatories were never answered. Adams also submitted requests for admissions and its first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident

Fallini never responded to any of these requests. To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant.

On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008.

Plaintiff attempted to amicably resolve the discovery dispute and obtain a copy of Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, Plaintiff sent Previously, in Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and Motion to Strike, Plaintiff attached the discovery documents, prior orders, etc., mentioned in the Statement of Facts. Those documents number dozens of pages. Plaintiff's counsel does not attach those documents to this Motion as well for three reasons: (1) because they have already been presented to the Court, (2) to avoid unnecessary copy expense to Plaintiff, and (3) Defendant has never disputed the Statement of Facts or the documents referenced therein.

letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery.

Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Aldrich, has attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, Plaintiff's counsel contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came.

On March 18, 2009, Mr. Aldrich again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came.

On March 23, 2009 – nearly nine months after propounding the discovery and more than a year ago – Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. This motion was heard on April 27, 2009. The Defendant's attorney, Mr. Kuehn, attended the hearing. Mr. Kuehn did not oppose the motion to compel and agreed at the hearing it was warranted. Mr. Kuehn provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests. Mr. Kuehn agreed sanctions were warranted, however, he disputed the amount of sanctions. This Honorable Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. Defendant never complied with the Order.

On June 16, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim due to Defendants complete failure to comply with discovery requests and this Court's Order. The Defendant's counsel again attended the hearing and again provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests, but stated Defendant would comply with discovery requests. This Honorable Court denied Plaintiffs Motion to Strike based on Defendant's counsel's promises to comply. This Honorable Court did, however, order Defendant to comply with the Order granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests by July 12, 2009 or Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim would be stricken. The Court also ordered Defendant to pay a $1,000 sanction.

Defendant still did not comply with the Court's Order and failed to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests. On August 31, 2009, Plaintiff brought an Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Susan Fallini and Her Counsel Should Not be Held in Contempt. The Court issued an Order on Plaintiff's Order to Show Cause, dated October 8, 2009, that Susan Fallini must produce all documents responsive to Plaintiff's discovery requests by October 12, 2009. The Court further ordered that if Defendant did not supply the requested information by October 12, 2009, Defendant's counsel would be held in contempt of court and would be fined $150.00 a day, beginning October 13, 2009. Further this Court ordered that if the requested information was not provided by October 12, 2009, the Court would strike Defendant's pleadings in their entirety. To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests.

On November 6, 2009, an order was entered Striking Defendant's pleadings. As of the date of this Motion, Defendant and/or her counsel owes more than $25,000 for not complying with this Court's Orders.

Plaintiff is entitled to the discovery responses, and in fact, Defendant has admitted as much to this Court on more than one occasion. Plaintiff has a right to know what insurance is available, or if there is any insurance at all. Plaintiff must learn this before she can proceed with seeking a judgment; otherwise, Plaintiff runs the risk that the judgment will not be enforceable as to any insurance that may apply to the case. Plaintiff is also concerned that as more time passes (and the economy continues to struggle), Defendant could be disposing of or wasting assets.

Defendant's counsel has not been candid with the Court. On at least two occasions Mr. Kuehn has made specific representations to the Court that he and/or his client would provide the requested information. Mr. Kuehn's actions have served only to delay justice for Plaintiff. Defendant's dilatory stall tactics are inappropriate, and Plaintiff asks the Court to grant Plaintiff's Motion for Order Shortening Time.

Defendant's inappropriate actions have resulted in substantial needless litigation and have precluded Plaintiff from obtaining judgment in this matter. It is not the undersigned's purpose or goal to cause difficulties with the State Bar of Nevada for Defendant's attorney, but Plaintiff believes it would be appropriate to refer Defendant's conduct to the State Bar of Nevada for consideration of possible discipline.

Because of Defendant's and/or her counsel's repeated refusal and failure to comply with this Court's Orders, and the substantial length of time that has passed, I respectfully request that this Court set the hearing on the Order to Show Cause as soon as practicable so as to avoid further delay in the proceedings.

Π.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

PLAINTIFF RESPECTFULLY REQUESTS THIS COURT ISSUE AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY DEFENDANT SUSAN FALLINI AND HER COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT FOR FAILURE TO ABIDE BY THE COURT'S ORDERS. PLAINTIFF FURTHER REQUESTS BOTH DEFENDANT FALLINI AND HER COUNSEL TO BE ORDERED TO PERSONALLY APPEAR IN COURT ON THE DAY OF THE HEARING, AND THAT THE COURT CONSIDER FURTHER SANCTIONS AGAINST DEFENDANT

This Court has authority, pursuant to NRS 22.030, to enter an order to show cause why Susan Fallini and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court for failing to comply with this Honorable Court's orders of October 8, 2009, July 17, 2009 and April 27, 2009, ordering Defendant to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests.

NRS 22.040 provides:

When the contempt is not committed in the immeditate view of and presence of the court or judge, a warrant of attachement may be issued to bring the person charged to answer, or, without prevoius arrest, a warrant of commitment may, upon notice, or upon an order to show cause, be granted; and no warrant of commitment shall be issued without such prevoius attachement to answer, or such notice or order to show cause

NRS 22.010 further provides in pertinent part:

The following acts or omissions shall be deemed contempts:

3. Disobedience or resistance to any lawful writ, order rule or process issued by the court or judge at chambers.

In the present case, Defendant has repeatedly disregarded and disobeyed this Court's Orders. Susan Fallini and her counsel are in contempt under NRS 22.010 because they disobeyed three of this Court's Orders to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests.

Notwithstanding proper attempts and due diligence of service of a lawfully obtained Order, Susan Fallini and her counsel have acted in bad faith and failed to provide NRCP 16.1 disclosures and has failed to respond to any written discovery propounded by Plaintiff. Plaintiff submitted her initial interrogatories to Defendant on October 31, 2007, and continued sending various discovery requests through July 2, 2008. Plaintiffs submitted interrogatories, requests for admission, and two sets of requests for production of documents, including a request that Fallini produce all related insurance information regarding the incident.

Despite these discovery requests, Defendant has failed and refused to cooperate or respond. Plaintiff's counsel has made phone calls and submitted letters to Fallini's counsel notifying them of these discovery requests to no avail. Nevertheless, Fallini failed to provide any of the information as requested despite the extension. Plaintiff was then forced to file a motion to compel. Defendant did not oppose the motion, but agreed it was warranted. Defendant still failed to comply with the order.

Defendant has failed to produce any sort of discovery despite numerous formal requests, followed by phone calls and letters for nearly a year and a half from the initial submission of interrogatories on September 10, 2007. As shown above, Plaintiff has made several good faith efforts to procure the discovery without court intervention, including re-opening discovery and extending the deadline. Plaintiff finally sought court intervention and this Court issued an order compelling Defendant to comply with discovery requests. Nevertheless, Defendant continues to show no interest in cooperating with discovery guidelines or this Court's order. Defendant's failure to comply with this Court's order and all discovery requests has completely halted the normal adversary process.

Plaintiff requests that Defendant be required to produce all insurance information including a declaration sheet. Defendant further requests that both Defendant Fallini and her Counsel be required to appear in court to answer as to why they should not be held in contempt of Court, and why the Court should not impose stiff sanctions – Plaintiff suggests suggests $5,000 immediately and $500 per day until Defendant complies – for repeated failure and refusal to abide by this Court's Orders. If Defendant will not comply with the Court's Orders, or if both Defendant and her counsel are not present in Court, Plaintiff will request that the Court issue a bench warrant until Defendant complies.

This Court is authorized pursuant to NRS 22.040 to issue an appropriate order to show cause why Susan Fallini and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court. This Court is further authorized to order sanctions against Susan Fallini for Plaintiff having to bring this motion and for Defendant's counsel's utter lack of respect for the Court, its Orders and its authority.

Ш.

CONCLUSION

The Court has authority pursuant to NRS 22.040 to issue and order to show cause why Defendant and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court. Further, this Court has inherent powers to sanction inequitable conduct. Under both authorities, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court order Susan Fallini and her counsel both appear in court to show cause why sanctions, including civil contempt sanctions, a bench warrant and monetary sanctions, should not be issued against her and her counsel. Plaintiff further requests that the hearing on the Order to Show Cause be held as soon as practicable.

Lane, and John P. Aldrich, Esq., of Aldrich Law Firm, 25 Ltd., appearing on behalf of the Plaintiffs, with Thomas Gbson, Esq., appearing on behalf of 26 Defendant, the Court hereby orders as follows: 27 28 Page 1 of 8

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Court, having been presented the following facts by Plaintiff's counsel and having received no opposition to the facts by Defendant, makes the following findings of fact:

- 1. This lawsuit arises out of an incident that occurred on or about July 7, 2005. At approximately 9:00 p.m. on that day, MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Adams") was driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, when he collided with a Hereford cow ("cow") owned by Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini"). Adams died at the scene as a result of the impact.
- 2. The decent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), filed a complaint on behalf of Adams' mother and his estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007.
- 3. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff submitted interrogatories to Fallini. Those interrogatories were never answered. Adams also submitted requests for admissions and its first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident.
- 4. Fallini never responded to any of these requests. To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant.
- 5. On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008.
 - 6. Plaintiff attempted to amicably resolve the discovery dispute and obtain a copy of

Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, Plaintiff sent letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery.

- 7. Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Aldrich, attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. Harry Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, Plaintiff's counsel contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came.
- 8. On March 18, 2009, Mr. Aldrich again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 1.)
- 9. On March 23, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. This motion was heard on April 27, 2009. The Defendant's attorney, Mr. Kuehn, attended the hearing. Mr. Kuehn did not oppose the motion to compel and agreed at the hearing it was warranted. Mr. Kuehn provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests. Mr. Kuehn agreed sanctions were warranted, however, he disputed the amount of sanctions.
- 10. At the hearing on April 27, 2009, this Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. Defendant never complied with the Order.
- 11. On June 16, 2009 Plaintiff filed a Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim due to Defendants complete failure to comply with discovery requests and this Court's Order. The Defendant's counsel again attended the hearing and again provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests, but stated Defendant would comply

- The Court denied Plaintiff's Motion to Strike based on Defendant's counsel's 12. promises to comply. This Court did, however, order Defendant to comply with the Order granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests by August 12, 2009 or Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim would be stricken. The Court also ordered Defendant to pay a $1,000 sanction.
- 13. To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests. Defendant's counsel has paid the $1,750.00 in sanctions as ordered by the Court.
- 14. Plaintiff is entitled to the discovery responses, and in fact, Defendant has admitted as much on more than one occasion. Nevertheless, Defendant refused and continues to refuse to respond.
- Because Defendant failed and refused to follow this Court' order and provide the 15. requested information, Plaintiff brought its first Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant and Her Counsel Should Not Be Held in Contempt. The Order to Show Cause was granted, and a hearing was scheduled on September 28, 2009. A conference was held in chambers, so as to avoid embarrassment to Defendant's counsel. Following the conference, the Court ordered:
 - That Defendant's counsel shall have until close of business on October 12, (A) 2009, to comply with the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and provide responses to Plaintiff's Request for Production of Documents, including the requested insurance information.
 - That if Defendant does not provide the above-described information by (B) October 12, 2009, Defendant's counsel will be held in contempt of court and will be fined $150.00 per day, beginning October 13, 2009, until said information is provided. The days shall be calculated on a seven-day week.
 - (C) That if the above-described information is not provided by October 12, 2009, need to renew any motion regarding its request to strike defendant's pleadings; Plaintiff will be able to simply submit an Order Striking the Pleadings for signature by the Court.

Defendant and her counsel failed to provide the information at issue by October 12, the Court will strike defendant's pleadings in their entirety. Plaintiff will not

- Defendant and her counsel failed to provide the information at issue by October 12, 2009. Consequently, on or about November 4, 2009, the Court entered its Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order Striking Answer and Counterclaim of Defendant Susan Fallini and Holding Defendant's Counsel in Contempt of Court. Pursuant to said Order, Defendant's counsel, Harold Kuehn, Esq., was held in contempt of Court and was ordered to pay to Plaintiff's counsel, John P. Aldrich, Esq., $150.00 per day, beginning October 13, 2009, and continuing to accrue until the information described above is provided. The Order provided that the days shall be calculated on a seven-day week, and that the Order shall constitute a judgment upon which Mr. Aldrich can execute. Interest on unpaid balances was ordered to accrue at the statutory rate.
- 17. Again in contravention of the Court's orders, Defendant and her counsel have failed and refused to provide the information they have been ordered to provide. Deefindant's counsel's utter refusal to abide by the Court's orders has stalled and frustrated the litigation process.
- 18. On or about April 7, 2010, Plaintiff again brought an Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Susan Fallini and Her Counsel Should Not Be Held in Contempt of Court and Possible Sanctions Be Imposed. On or about April 19, 2010, the Court entered the Order to Show Cause and set a hearing for Monday, May 24, 2010.
- 19. As with the prior Order to Show Cause (and several other motions), despite personal service on Defendant's counsel, neither Defendant nor her counsel responded in writing to the Order to Show Cause.
- 20. The Court held a hearing on Monday, May 24, 2010. Thomas Gibson, Esq., the law partner to Harry Kuehn, Esq., appeared on behalf of Defendant. Defendant Susan Fallini did not appear at the hearing.

- During the hearing, Mr. Gibson indicated he had not seen the file and provided no valid excuse for Defendant's or Defendant's counsel's failure and refusal to abide by the Court's prior orders. Mr. Aldrich also advised the Court that over 220 days had passed since the Courtimposed sanction began to accrue, and that over $30,000.00 was now due pursuant to that sanction.
- 22. Mr. Gibson made specific representations to the Court that the client, Defendant Susan Fallini, was unaware of the status of this case. Mr. Gibson also made specific representations that he would obtain the information at issue immediately and provide it to Plaintiff. Mr. Aldrich requested that the Court impose a $5,000.00 sanction, as well as a $500.00 per day sanction, starting on May 25, 2010, until Defendant provides the information. The Court imposed the $5,000.00 sanction upon Defendant's counsel. The Court advised both counsel that the Court would give Defendant until June 1, 2010 to comply with the Court's prior orders before increasing the daily sanction from $150.00 per day to $500.00 per day.
- 23. Plaintiff's counsel also requested that the Court issue a bench warrant for Defendant Susan Fallini, given her failure to appear as ordered by the Court on two occasions. The Court declined to do so at the hearing on May 24, 2010, but indicated it may be willing to do so if Defendant does not comply this time.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the Findings of Fact, as set forth above, the Court makes the following conclusions of law:

- 1. Pursuant to NRCP 34, Plaintiff has the right to request documents which are discoverable pursuant to NRCP 26. According to NRCP 34, Defendant has 30 days from receipt of the requests for production of documents to provide appropriate responses.
- 2. NRCP 34(b) permits a party to seek relief under NRCP 37(a) if the party who receives discovery requests fails to respond appropriately. NRCP 37(a) provides that the Court may enter an order compelling a non-responsive party to disclose the requested information.
 - 3. This Court has at least four times entered an order compelling Defendant to respond NRCP 37(b)(2)(c), permits "an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof," for discovery abuses. - Defendant has provided no responses whatsoever, nor has Defendant objected to any request. Defendant has failed on at least four occasions to comply with this Court's Order. At no time has Defendant or her counsel given any excuse or justification for their failure and refusal to abide by the Court's orders.

- Defendant has been given ample opportunity to comply with the Court's Orders. 7. Defendant has halted the litigation process and the additional sanctions of $5,000.00 immediately and $500.00 per day beginning June 1, 2010, if Defendant does not comply with the Court's prior orders, are appropriate under the circumstances.

DISTRICT COURT

NYE COUNTY, NEVADA

ESTATE OF MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS,) by and through his mother JUDITH ADAMS, individually and on behalf of the ESTATE,

Plaintiffs,

SUSAN FALLINI, DOES I-X and ROE CORPORATIONS I-X, inclusive, Defendants.

CASE NO. DEPT: NO. :

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, the Estate of MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Michael"), by and through his mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), individually and as Executrix for her son's Estate (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Plaintiffs"), by and through the law firm of ... EDWARD J. ACHREM & ASSOCIATES, LTD., for their claims and causes of action against the Defendants, and each of them, hereby allege as follows:

26

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

- 1. At the time of his death, Michael was 33 years old and was a resident of Orange County, California. He was unmarried and had no natural or adopted children. His mother, Judith, is the administrator of her son's estate and also a resident of Orange County, California. Because the incident set forth below occurred in Nevada, Plaintiffs voluntarily subject themselves to, and will be bound by the jurisdiction of this Court.
- 2. Upon information and belief, Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini") is the owner of a Hereford red cow. As more fully set forth below, this cow was wandering freely on SR 375 highway, at Nye mile marker 33, in Nye County, Nevada on or about July 7, 2005.
- 3. Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as DOES I through X, and ROE CORPORATIONS I through X, inclusive, and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are further informed and believe that one or more of the parties which may be responsible for some portion of the damages being sought by the Plaintiffs as a result of Michael's death on July 7, 2005 may include persons, partnerships, corporations, other owners, governmental subdivisions and/or other persons and entities, the identities of which have not yet been determined. Because such names are currently unknown, Plaintiffs have listed them collectively as DOE Defendants and ROE CORPORATION Defendants and will seek leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when they have been ascertained.

- Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the fictitiously named Defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrence described herein and that Plaintiffs' damages, including Michael's death, were proximately caused by such conduct.
- Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants was the agent and/or employee of each of the remaining Defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter alleged, were acting within the course and scope of such agency, employment or contract. On July 7, 2005, around 9:00 p.m., Michael was lawfully driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, Nevada. At that time and place, a Hereford cow suddenly appeared in the travel portion of the roadway, blocking Michael's path. Although Michael was traveling at a lawful rate of speed, it was not possible for him to avoid a head-on collision with the cow. As a direct and proximate result of the collision, Michael's Jeep rolled over and left the paved highway. Michael died at the scene.
 - Plaintiffs contend that at all times herein mentioned, Michael acted reasonably, had a right to use the highway, and did nothing to cause or contribute to his death. Plaintiffs further contend that Defendants, and each of them, owed a continuing duty of care, which included without limitation, (a) the duty to control the Hereford cow by providing boundary fencing that would keep it away from passing motorists; (b) the duty to monitor all of Defendants' cows, including the one that caused Michael's death, and to take reasonable precautions to prevent them from wandering many miles away; and (c) the duty to warn drivers traveling along the highway that cattle would, or could be present in the area in which they were driving.

In addition to the duties set forth above, Defendants and each of them also had a separate and independent obligation to illuminate the Hereford cow by marking it with an inexpensive florescent tag, or similar device, so that the cow could be seen more easily by persons who were driving on the highway at night, such as Michael.

Plaintiffs contend that, despite constructive and/or actual notice by the Defendants of the extreme hazard that was posed by a wandering Hereford cow at night, the Defendants and each of them, (a) failed to control the Hereford cow by providing boundary fencing that would keep it away from passing motorists; (b) failed to monitor all of Defendants' cows, including the one that caused Michael's death, and to take reasonable precautions to prevent them from wandering many miles away; and (c) failed to warn drivers traveling along the highway that cattle would, or could be present in the area in which they were driving.

In addition to the above, Defendants and each of them also failed to illuminate the Hereford cow by marking it with an inexpensive florescent tag, or similar device, so that the cow could be seen more easily by persons who were driving on the highway at night, such as Michael.

As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' negligent acts and omissions, in the manner described above, Michael was killed. As a result, his Estate and heir(s) have been generally and specially damaged in a sum well in excess of These damages include, without limitation, pain and suffering, as well as severe emotional distress, from the time of the accident until the moment of Michael's death, the loss of the quality and enjoyment of Michael's life, and the loss of Michael's company, companionship, society, comfort, attention, services and support.

10. As a further direct and proximate result of the Defendants' negligent acts and omissions, in the manner described above, Michael's Estate has incurred incidental, funeral and burial expenses in an amount not yet fully ascertained, but which will be set forth in full at the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, expressly reserving their right to amend this Complaint at the time of the trial of the actions herein to include all items of damages not yet ascertained, hereby pray for damages against Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

- For general damages in excess of $10,000.00;

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On November 29, 2006, Plaintiffs Estate of MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS, by and through his mother JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), individually and on behalf of the Estate, filed a complaint in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County, Nevada, alleging, among other things, the wrongful death of Michael David Adams ("Michael").

On December 29, 2006, Defendant Susan Fallini ("Fallini"), filed a Demand and Motion for Mandatory Change of Venue. Subsequently, the parties, by and through their counsel, stipulated and agreed to dismiss the pending action in Clark County, Nevada, without prejudice, so that the matter could be heard in Nye County, Nevada.

On March 14, 2007, Defendant Fallini, filed an Answer to Plaintiffs' Complaint and a Counterclaim in Nye County, Nevada. On March 30, 2007, Plaintiffs filed a Reply to Defendant's Counterclaim. Subsequently, Fallini filed an objection to Pahrump as the forum for the litigation and a Motion to have the matter heard in Tonopah. However, that Motion was denied and the case proceeded in Pahrump.

The Early Case Conference in this matter was held on June 15, 2007. The parties, by and through their respective counsel, filed a Joint Case Conference Report on October 23, 2007. Thereafter, on October 31, 2007, Plaintiffs served the Defendant with written discovery requests, including Requests for Admission, Requests for Production of Documents, and Interrogatories. (See Exhibit 1). To date, Defendant has not responded to the written discovery requests, nor has Defendant requested an extension in which to respond.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the time of his death, Michael was 33 years old and a resident of Orange County, California. He was unmarried and had no natural or adopted children. His mother, Judith, is the administrator of her son's estate and also a resident of Orange County, California. The incident that caused Michael's death occurred in Nevada.

Defendant Fallini, is the owner of a Hereford red cow that was wandering freely on SR 375 highway, at Nye mile marker 33, in Nye County, Nevada on or about July 7, 2005. On said date at approximately 9:00 p.m., Michael was lawfully driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375. The Hereford cow suddenly appeared in the travel portion of the roadway, blocking Michael's path. Although Michael was traveling at a lawful rate of speed, it was not possible for him to avoid the head-on collision with the cow. As a direct and proximate result of the collision, Michael's Jeep rolled over and left the paved highway. Michael died at the scene.

On October 31, 2007, Plaintiffs served Fallini with Requests for Admission. To date, the Requests for Admission have not been answered, and therefore are deemed admitted. Therefore, the following are additional facts that must be taken into consideration by the court:

- 1. Fallini's property is not located within an "open range" as it is defined in NRS 568.355.
- 2. Fallini is the owner of the cow that is mentioned in the Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein ("subject cow").
- 3. It is the common practice of Nye County, Nevada ranchers to mark their cattle with reflective or luminescent tags.
- 4. The subject cow was not marked with a reflective or luminescent tag.
- 5. The subject cow crossed a fence to arrive at the location of the subject accident described in the Complaint on file herein.

- 6. Fallini's cattle had previously been involved in incidents with motor vehicles on the roadway.
- 7. Fallini does not track the location of her cattle while they are grazing away from her property.
- 8. Fallini does not remove her cattle from the roadway when notified that the cattle are in a roadway.
- 9. The subject cow was not visible at night.
- 10. Fallini was aware that the subject cow was not visible at night prior to the incident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.
- 11. The subject cow was in the roadway of SR 375 at the time of the incident that is the subject matter of the Complaint on file herein.
- 12. The subject cow's presence in the roadway of SR 375 was the cause of the motor vehicle accident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.
- 13. Fallini did not know the location of the subject cow at the time of the incident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.
- 14. The presence of a reflective or luminescent tag on the subject cow would have made the subject cow visible at the time of the incident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.

III.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. STANDARD OF REVIEW.

Pursuant to NRCP 56(c), a Motion for Summary Judgment "shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." NRCP 56(c). A genuine issue of material fact is one where the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the non-moving party.

Posadis v. City of Reno, 109 Nev. 448, 851 P. 2d 438 (1983). In the present matter, there are no genuine issues as to any material fact, and therefore, Plaintiffs are entitled to summary judgment.

Although the non-moving party is entitled to have the evidence and all reasonable inferences accepted as true, See City of Boulder City v. State of Nevada, 106, Nev. 390, 793, P. 2d 845 (1990), citing, Wiltsie v. Baby Grand Corp. 105 Nev. 291, 774 P. 2d 432 (1989), if the moving party is able to "show that one of the elements is clearly lacking as a matter of law," then summary judgment is appropriate. Joynt v. California Hotel & Casino, 108 Nev. 539, 542, 835 P. 2d 799, 801 (1992). (internal quotations and citations omitted).

When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in Rule 56, the adverse party may not rest upon mere allegations of his pleading, but must, by affidavit or otherwise, set forth specific facts demonstrating the existence of a genuine issue for trial. See NGA #2, LLC.

v. Rains. 113 Nev. 1151, 1157, 946 P. 2d 163, 167 (1997); Boland v. Nevada Rock & Sand. Co., Nev. 108, 894 P. 2d 988, 990 (1995). The non-moving party "is not entitled to build a case on the gossamer threads of whimsey, speculation, and conjecture." Collins v. Union Fed Savings & Loan.

99 Nev. 284, 302, 662 P. 2d 610, 621 (1983), quoting, Hahn v. Sargent 523 F. 2d 461, 469 (1st Cir. 1975), cert. denied, 425 U.S. 904, 95 S. Ct. 1495, 47 L. Ed. 2d 754 (1976). A party opposing summary judgment may not rely on the allegations of his pleadings to raise a material issue of fact where the moving party supports his motion with competent evidence. Garvev v. Clark County. 91

Nev. 127, 130, 523 P. 2d 269, 271 (1975).

Here, the Plaintiffs support their motion with competent evidence, and the Defendant may not simply rely on the allegations set forth in her pleadings to raise material issues of fact. Therefore, based upon the facts and argument set forth below, Plaintiffs are entitled to summary judgment.

B. PLAINTIFFS' REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION TO DEFENDANT, SUSAN FALLINI, MUST BE DEEMED ADMITTED.

NRCP 36 provides in relevant part:

(a) ... The matter is admitted unless, within 30 days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow, or the parties may agree to in writing, subject to Rule 29, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by the party's attorney. ...

(b) Effect of Admission. Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. ... Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission for any other purpose nor may it be used against the party in any other proceeding.

Written discovery requests were served upon the Defendant on October 31, 2007. (See Exhibit 1). Pursuant to NRCP 36(a), Defendant had 30 days to respond to Plaintiffs' Requests for Admission, or the Requests for Admission are deemed admitted. Allowing three days for mailing, the discovery responses were due no later than December 3, 2007, four months ago. To date, Defendant has neither responded to the Requests for Admission, nor has she requested an extension to respond to the same. As such, the Requests for Admission are deemed admitted pursuant to NRCP 36. Pursuant to NRCP 36(b), the admissions made by the Defendant are conclusively established.

Therefore, the following statements are conclusively established as undisputed facts in this case:

1. Fallini's property is not located within an "

Nev. 44, 51 (2005). In the instant matter, the Defendant owed Michael a duty of care to control her cattle and to prevent the cattle from endangering the lives of others. Defendant owed Michael a duty to mark her cattle with reflective or luminescent tags.

Defendant breached the duty of care that she owed to Michael because the subject cow was not marked with a reflective or luminescent tag. Fallini was put on notice that her cattle were endangering people's lives because the cattle had previously been involved in incidents with motor vehicles on the roadway. However, Fallini continued not to track the location of her cattle while they are grazing away from her property. Defendant further breached the duty of care that she owed to Michael because the subject cow was not visible at night, and Fallini was aware that the subject cow was not visible at night prior to the incident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.

Fallini's negligence was the direct and proximate cause of Michael's death. The subject cow was in the roadway of SR 375 when Michael was traveling on SR 375. The subject cow's presence on SR 375 was the cause of the motor vehicle accident that killed Michael. Defendant admits that the presence of a reflective or luminescent tag on the subject cow would have made the subject cow visible at night and the accident that caused Michael's death could have been avoided. Thus, Fallini's negligence was the cause of Michael's untimely death. As such, summary judgment is proper with regard to all elements except damages. Damages need to be proven up at a hearing on the matter. Fallini's negligence caused Michael's death, but that is not the full extent of the damages caused by Fallini's negligence.

D. WRONGFUL DEATH/ LOSS OF CONSORTIUM.

NRS 41.085 provides in relevant part:

2. When the death of any person, whether or not a minor, is caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another, the heirs of the decedent and the personal representatives of the decedent may each maintain an action for damages against the person who caused the death, or if the wrongdoer is dead, against his personal representatives, whether the wrongdoer died before or after the death of the person he injured. If any other person is responsible for the wrongful act or neglect, or if the wrongdoer is employed by another person who is responsible for his conduct, the action may be maintained against that other person, or if he is dead against his personal representatives.

- 3. An action brought by the heirs of a decedent pursuant to subsection 2 and the cause of action of that decedent brought or maintained by his personal representatives which arose out of the same wrongful act or neglect may be joined.
- 4. The heirs may prove their respective damages in the action brought pursuant to subsection 2 and the court or jury may award each person pecuniary damages for his grief or sorrow, loss of probable support, companionship, society, comfort and consortium, and damages for pain, suffering or disfigurement of the decedent. The proceeds of any judgment for damages awarded under this subsection are not liable for any debt of the decedent.
- 5. The damages recoverable by the personal representatives of a decedent on behalf of his estate include:
 - (a) Any special damages, such as medical expenses, which the decedent incurred or sustained before his death, and funeral expenses; and
 - (b) Any penalties, including, but not limited to, exemplary or punitive damages, that the decedent would have recovered if he had lived, but do not include damages for pain, suffering or disfigurement of the decedent. The proceeds of any judgment for damages awarded under this subsection are liable for the debts of the decedent unless exempted by law.

As set forth above, the Defendant's negligence is the cause of Michael's death. Michael's death caused his mother, Judith, to suffer immense sorrow and grief. Michael's mother has forever lost the companionship, society, and comfort of her son's presence. As a result, Judith requests that the Defendant be held accountable for Michael's wrongful and untimely death, and that her Motion for Partial Summary Judgment be granted. However, the extent of the damages caused by Fallini's negligence is an issue for the trier of fact, because Michael's untimely death is but one of the consequences of Fallini's negligence.

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, based upon the foregoing, Plaintiffs hereby respectfully request that the Court enter partial summary judgment against Defendant, finding Defendant liable for Michael's death. Damages will be shown at a prove-up hearing to be set at a later date..

- 3. It is the common practice of Nye County, Nevada ranchers to mark their cattle with reflective or luminescent tags.
- 4. The subject cow was not marked with a reflective or luminescent tag.
- 5. The subject cow crossed a fence to arrive at the location of the subject accident described in the Complaint on file herein.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

FACTS

This lawsuit arises out of an incident that occurred on or about July 7, 2005. At approximately 9:00 p.m. on that day, MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Adams") was driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, when he collided with a Hereford cow ("cow") owned by Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini"). Adams died at the scene as a result of the impact.

The decent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith") filed a complaint on behalf of Adam's estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff submitted interrogatories to Fallini. (Exhibit 1.) Those interrogatories were never answered. Adams also submitted requests for admissions and its first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. (Exhibits 2 and 3, respectively.) A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident. (Exhibit 4.)

Fallini never responded to any of these requests To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant.

On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008. (Exhibit 5.)

Plaintiff has attempted to amicably resolve this discovery issue and obtain a copy of Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, Plaintiff sent letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery. (Exhibit 6.)

Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Aldrich, has attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, Plaintiff's counsel contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 7.)

On March 18, 2009, Mr. Aldrich again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 7.)

As of the date of the signing of this motion, Plaintiff still has received no discovery from the Defendant. Due to the egregious nature of Defendant's failure to comply with discovery rules by providing responses to routine requests, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter an order compelling Defendant to comply with discovery rules and provide appropriate responses, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

DEFENDANT FALLINI SHOULD BE COMPELLED TO PRODUCE DISCOVERY PURSUANT TO NRCP 34 and 37(a) FOR FAILING TO PROVIDE ANY DISCOVERY RESPONSES

Pursuant to NRCP 34, Plaintiff has the right to request documents which are discoverable pursuant to NRCP 26. According to NRCP 34, Defendant has 30 days from receipt of the requests for production of documents to provide appropriate responses. Defendant has provided no responses whatsoever, nor has Defendant objected to any request.

NRCP 34(b) permits a party to seek relief under NRCP 37(a) if the party who receives discovery requests fails to respond appropriately. NRCP 37(a) provides that the Court may enter an order compelling a non-responsive party to disclose the requested information.

Pursuant to NRCP 34(b) and 37(a), Plaintiff respectfully requests that Defendant be compelled to respond to the requests for production of documents propounded upon Defendant by Plaintiff, including a specific order that Defendant provide any and all information related to insurance policies of Defendant that do or may provide coverage for the subject matter. The Court has already found that Defendant is liable for the death of Mr. Adams, and Plaintiff is entitled to the information sought before trial.

B. DEFENDANT FALLINI SHOULD BE COMPELLED TO PRODUCE DISCOVERY PURSUANT TO NRCP 16.1 AND NRCP 37 FOR FAILING TO PROVIDE ANY DISCOVERY RESPONSES

NRCP 16.1 states in pertinent part:

RULE 16.1. MANDATORY PRE-TRIAL DISCOVERY REQUIREMENTS

(a) Attendance at Early Case Conference. Within thirty (30) days after service of the answer by the first answering defendant, and thereafter as each defendant answers the original complaint or an amended complaint, the attorneys for the parties, who must possess authority to act and knowledge of the case obtained after reasonable inquiry under the circumstances, shall meet in person for the purpose of complying with subdivision (b) of this rule. The attorney for the plaintiff shall designate the time and place of each meeting which must be held in the county where the action was filed, unless the parties agree upon a different location. The attorneys may agree to continue the time for the case conference for an additional period of not more than ninety (90) days. The court, in its discretion and for good cause shown, may also continue the time for the conference. Absent compelling and extraordinary circumstances, neither the court nor the parties may extend the time to a day more than one hundred and eighty (180) days after service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant in question. The time for holding a case conference with respect to a defendant who has filed a motion pursuant to Rule 12(b)(2)-(4) is tolled until entry of an order denying the motion.

- (b) Meet and Confer Requirements; Mandatory Discovery Exchanges. At each case conference, the attorneys must:
- (1) Exchange all documents then reasonably available to a party which are then contemplated to be used in support of the allegations or denials of the pleading filed by that party, including rebuttal and impeachment documents;
- (2) Request with reasonable specificity from the opposing party all other documents, discoverable within the scope of Rule 26(b), that may support the allegations of the pleading filed by the requesting party, including rebuttal and impeachment documents. The opponent must (A) provide the additional documents, or (B) agree to provide the additional documents as soon as they are reasonably available, or (C) explain why the documents will not be provided;

(Emphasis Added). If a party fails to comply with NRCP 16.1, the adverse party may compel discovery pursuant to NRCP 37(a), as set forth in Section A above.

Defendant has failed to provide NRCP 16.1 disclosures and has failed to respond to written discovery propounded by Plaintiff. Plaintiff submitted her initial interrogatories to Defendant on October 31, 2007, and continued sending various discovery requests through July 2, 2008. Plaintiffs submitted interrogatories, requests for admission, and two sets of requests for production of documents, including a request that Fallini produce all related insurance information regarding the incident.

Despite these discovery requests, Defendant has failed and refused to cooperate or respond. Plaintiff's counsel has made phone calls and submitted letters to Fallini's counsel notifying them of these discovery requests to no avail. (Exhibits 6 and 7.) Nevertheless, Fallini failed to provide any of the information as requested despite the extension.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant this motion to compel and order Defendant to provide appropriate responses to the Plaintiff's requests for production of documents, with a specific order to produce a copy of any and all documentation relating to any insurance policy that does or may provide coverage to Defendant for the instant case.

C. DEFENDANT FALLINI SHOULD BE HELD SUBJECT TO SANCTIONS UNDER NRPC 37 FOR FAILURE TO FOLLOW DISCOVERY RULES

Rule 37(a)(4) states in pertinent part:

NRPC 37(a)(4) Expenses and Sanctions

- (A) If the motion is granted or if the disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed, the court shall, after affording an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the motion was filed without the movant's first making a good faith effort to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action, or that the opposing party's nondisclosure, response or objection was substantially justified, or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.
- (B) If the motion is denied, the court may enter any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and shall, after affording an opportunity to be heard, require the moving party or the attorney filing the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.
- (C) If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may enter any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and may, after affording an opportunity to be heard, apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

(Emphasis Added).

Similarly, NRCP 37(d) provides:

(d) Failure of Party to Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Request for Inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails (1) to appear before the officer who is to take the deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of subdivision (b)(2) of this rule. Any motion specifying a failure under clause (2) or (3) of this subdivision shall include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the party failing to answer or respond in an effort to obtain such answer or response without court action. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

Page 6 of 8

In the instant case, Plaintiff's filing of this motion is necessitated by the fact that Defendant has failed to produce any sort of discovery despite numerous formal requests, followed by phone calls and letters for nearly a year and a half from the initial submission of interrogatories on September 10, 2007. As shown above, Plaintiff has made several good faith efforts to procure the discovery without court intervention, including re-opening discovery and extending the deadline. Nevertheless, Defendant has shown no interest in cooperating with discovery guidelines, resulting in the filing of this motion. Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that sanctions be levied against Defendant in the form of an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,600 and costs in the amount of $50.00, for a total of $1,650.00, as set forth in Mr. Aldrich's affidavit.

III.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the above, Plaintiff's request an Order compelling Plaintiffs to provide discovery as requested, particularly responses to Plaintiff's requests for production of documents. Plaintiff further requests that the order specifically mention that Defendant must provide any and all documents relating in any way to any insurance policy which does or may apply to the instant case. Finally, Plaintiff requests an Order granting attorney's fees and costs for having to prepare the current Motion and travel to Pahrump, Nevada for the hearing.

Re: Adams v Fallini

Dear Mr. Kuehn:

Discovery requests were sent to your client, Susan Falllini, quite some time ago. I have never received any responses. One of the requests was for your client to produce the insurance policy information she carried on her ranch and cattle. At this time I respectfully request that you produce this information within ten (10) days of receipt of this letter. Failure to do so will result in me filing a motion to compel.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kindest Regards,

- I have attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. 6. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, I contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

FACTS

This lawsuit arises out of an incident that occurred on or about July 7, 2005. At approximately 9:00 p.m. on that day, MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Adams") was driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, when he collided with a Hereford cow ("cow") owned by Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini"). Adams died at the scene as a result of the impact.

The decent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), filed a complaint on behalf of Adam's estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff submitted interrogatories to Fallini. (Exhibit 1:) Those interrogatories were never answered. Adams also submitted requests for admissions and its first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. (Exhibits 2 and 3, respectively.) A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident (Exhibit 4.)

Fallini never responded to any of these requests. To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant.

On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008. (Exhibit 5.)

Plaintiff attempted to amicably resolve the discovery dispute and obtain a copy of Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, Plaintiff sent letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery. (Exhibit 6.)

Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Aldrich, has attempted to discuss this discovery issue with

Defendant's counsel, Mr. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, Plaintiff's counsel contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 7.)

On March 18, 2009, Mr. Aldrich again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 7.)

On March 23, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. This motion was heard on April 27, 2009. The Defendant's attorney, Mr. Kuehn, attended the hearing. Mr. Kuehn did not oppose the motion to compel and agreed at the hearing it was warranted. Mr. Kuehn provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests. Mr. Kuehn agreed sanctions were warranted, however he disputed the amount of sanctions. (See Affidavit of Catherine Hernandez, Esq., attached hereto as Exhibit 8.) This Honorable Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. (Exhibit 9.) To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to all Plaintiff's discovery requests. Further, Defendant has failed to pay the sanctions ordered by this Honorable Court.

П.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT FALLINI'S ANSWER SHOULD BE GRANTED

Pursuant to NRCP 34, Plaintiff has the right to request documents which are discoverable pursuant to NRCP 26. According to NRCP 34, Defendant has 30 days from receipt of the requests for production of documents to provide appropriate responses. Defendant has provided no responses whatsoever, nor has Defendant objected to any request. NRCP 34(b) permits a party to seek relief under NRCP 37(a) if the party who receives discovery requests fails to respond appropriately. NRCP 37(a) provides that the Court may enter an order compelling a non-responsive party to disclose the requested information. This Court has entered an order compelling Defendant to respond to Discovery requests. Defendant has failed to comply with this order.

NRCP 37(b)(2)(c), permits "an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof," for discovery abuses. "Selection of a particular sanction for discovery abuses under NRCP 37 is generally a matter committed to the sound discretion of the district court." Stubli v. Big Int'l Trucks, Inc., 107 Nev. 309, 312-313, 810 P.2d 785 (1991) (citing Fire Ins. Exchange v. Zenith Radio Corp., 103 Nev. 648, 649, 747 P.2d 911, 912 (1987) and Kelly Broadcasting v. Sovereign Broadcast, 96 Nev. 188, 192, 606 P.2d 1089, 1092 (1980.)) In Hamlett v. Reynolds, despite orders from the discovery commissioner and the district court, as well as having monetary sanctions imposed, Hamlett refused to comply with Reynold's discovery requests. Finally, after a year of attempts to force Hamlett to comply, the district court struck Hamlett's answer and entered default against him as a failure to comply with discovery orders. Hamlett appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court held that default judgments will be upheld where "the normal adversary process has been halted due to an unresponsive party, because diligent parties are entitled to be protected against interminable delay and uncertainty as to their legal rights." Hamlett v. Reynolds, 114 Nev. 863, 963 P.2d 457 (1998) (citing Skeen v. Valley Bank of Nevada, 89 Nev. 301, 303, 511 P.2d 1053, 1054 (1973).

In the present case Defendant has failed to provide NRCP 16.1 disclosures and has failed to respond to any written discovery propounded by Plaintiff. Plaintiff submitted her initial interrogatories to Defendant on October 31, 2007, and continued sending various discovery requests through July 2, 2008. Plaintiffs submitted interrogatories, requests for admission, and two sets of requests for production of documents, including a request that Fallini produce all related insurance information regarding the incident.

Despite these discovery requests, Defendant has failed and refused to cooperate or respond. Plaintiff's counsel has made phone calls and submitted letters to Fallini's counsel notifying them of these discovery requests to no avail. (Exhibits 6 and 7.) Nevertheless, Fallini failed to provide any of the information as requested despite the extension. Plaintiff was then forced to file a motion to compel. Defendant did not oppose the motion, but agreed it was warranted. Yet, Defendant failed to comply with the order.

Defendant has failed to produce any sort of discovery despite numerous formal requests, followed by phone calls and letters for nearly a year and a half from the initial submission of interrogatories on September 10, 2007. As shown above, Plaintiff has made several good faith efforts to procure the discovery without court intervention, including re-opening discovery and extending the deadline. Plaintiff finally sought court intervention and this Court issued an order compelling Defendant to comply with discovery requests. Nevertheless, Defendant continues to show no interest in cooperating with discovery guidelines or this Court's order. Defendant's failure to comply with this Court's order and all discovery requests has completely halted the normal adversary process. Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that NRCP 37 sanctions be levied against Defendant and her answer be stricken for her blatant failure to comply with this Court's order and the discovery rules.

Plaintiff further requests that this Court issue another Order to Defendant Fallini to provide information regarding any applicable insurance policies Plaintiff must notify Defendant's insurance prior to Plaintiff obtaining a default judgment and collect against such insurance policies. Estate of Lomastro v. American Family Insurance, 195 P.3d 399 (2008).

Lane, and John P. Aldrich, Esq. 27 appearing on behalf of the Plaintiffs, no other counsel present, the court having reviewed the Motion 28 for Partial Summary Judgment and the Joinder to the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, having reviewed all pleadings and papers on file herein, and having heard the arguments of present counsel; and good cause appearing therefore,

THE COURT HEREBY ENTERS THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS OF FACT:

- 1. Fallini's property is not located within an "open range" as it is defined in NRS 568.355.
- 2. Fallini is the owner of the cow that is mentioned in the Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein ("subject cow").
- 3. It is the common practice of Nye County, Nevada ranchers to mark their cattle with reflective or luminescent tags.
- 4. The subject cow was not marked with a reflective or luminescent tag.
- 5. The subject cow crossed a fence to arrive at the location of the subject accident described in the Complaint on file herein.
- 6. Fallini's cattle had previously been involved in incidents with motor vehicles on the roadway.
- 7. Fallini does not track the location of her cattle while they are grazing away from her property.
- 8. Fallini does not remove her cattle from the roadway when notified that the cattle are in a roadway.
- 9. The subject cow was not visible at night.
- 10. Fallini was aware that the subject cow was not visible at night prior to the incident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.
- 11. The subject cow was in the roadway of SR 375 at the time of the incident that is the subject matter of the Complaint on file herein.
- 12. The subject cow's presence in the roadway of SR 375 was the cause of the motor vehicle accident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.
- 13. Fallini did not know the location of the subject cow at the time of the incident that is the subject of the Complaint on file herein.

1	14. The presence of a reflective or luminescent tag on the subject cow would have made
2	the subject cow visible at the time of the incident that is the subject of the Complaint
3	on file herein.
4	THE COURT HEREBY ENTERS THE FOLLOWING CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:
5	1. Defendant Fallini had and duty to ensure that the subject cow was not in the roadway
6	at the time of the incident described in the Complaint.
7	2. Defendant Fallini had a duty to follow the common practice of Nye County, Nevada
- 8	ranchers and to mark her cow with reflecting or lumination tags.
9	3. Defendant Fallini breached the duty of care to the decedent, as set forth in the
10	Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.
11	4. As a result of Defendant Fallini's breach, the decendent, Michael David Adams, was
12	killed.
13	5. Defendant Fallini is liable for the damages to which Plaintiff is entitled, in an amount
14	to be determined at a later time.
15	IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to
16	the issue of Defendant's duty and breach of duty is hereby GRANTED.

Dear Mr. Kuehn:

Discovery requests were sent to your client, Susan Falllini, quite some time ago. I have never received any responses. One of the requests was for your client to produce the insurance policy information she carried on her ranch and cattle. At this time I respectfully request that you produce this information within ten (10) days of receipt of this letter. Failure to do so will result in me filing a motion to compel.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kindest Regards,

ohn P. Aldrich

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

This lawsuit arises out of an incident that occurred on or about July 7, 2005.¹ At approximately 9:00 p.m. on that day, MICHAEL DAVID ADAMS ("Adams") was driving his 1994 Jeep Wrangler on SR 375 highway in Nye County, when he collided with a Hereford cow ("cow") owned by Defendant SUSAN FALLINI ("Fallini"). Adams died at the scene as a result of the ¹ Previously, in Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and Motion to Strike, Plaintiff attached the discovery documents, prior orders, etc., mentioned in the Statement of Facts. Those documents number dozens of pages. Plaintiff's counsel does not attach those documents to this Motion as well for three reasons: (1) because they have already been presented to the Court, (2) to avoid unnecessary copy expense to Plaintiff, and (3) Defendant has never disputed the Statement of Facts or the documents referenced therein.

The decent's mother, JUDITH ADAMS ("Judith"), filed a complaint on behalf of Adams' mother and his estate on November 29, 2006 and properly served Fallini with process. Fallini filed her Answer and Counterclaim on March 14, 2007. On October 31, 2007, Plaintiff submitted interrogatories to Fallini. Those interrogatories were never answered. Adams also submitted requests for admissions and its first set of requests for production of documents on October 31, 2007. A second set of requests for production of documents were submitted to Fallini on July 2, 2008, requesting information as to Fallini's insurance policies and/or carriers that may provide coverage for damages that occurred as a result of the incident. (Affidavit of John P. Aldrich, Esq., attached hereto as Exhibit 1.)

Fallini never responded to any of these requests. To this date, Fallini has not produced any responses of any kind to Plaintiff's written discovery requests. Despite an extension requested by Plaintiff and granted by the Court, the discovery period has lapsed without any responses being provided by Defendant. (Exhibit 1.)

On or about April 7, 2008 (and again on May 14, 2008 with a Certificate of Service), Plaintiff filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Defendant did not oppose that motion and the Court granted that Motion on July 30, 2008. Notice of entry of the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment was served on Defendant on August 15, 2008. (Exhibit 1.)

Plaintiff attempted to amicably resolve the discovery dispute and obtain a copy of Defendant's applicable insurance policies, but to no avail. On February 24, 2009, Plaintiff sent letters to Defendant's counsel seeking responses to the discovery. (Exhibit 1.)

Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Aldrich, has attempted to discuss this discovery issue with Defendant's counsel, Mr. Kuehn, as well. On or about March 6, 2009, Plaintiff's counsel contacted the office of Defendant's counsel. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 1.)

On March 18, 2009, Mr. Aldrich again contacted the office of Mr. Kuehn. Mr. Aldrich was informed that Mr. Kuehn was not available. Mr. Aldrich left a message with Mr. Aldrich's phone number and asked that Mr. Kuehn return the call. No return call ever came. (Exhibit 1.)

On March 23, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel Defendant's Production of Documents, including information regarding any insurance policies that may provide coverage for the incident as contemplated in the Plaintiff's second request for documents. This motion was heard on April 27, 2009. The Defendant's attorney, Mr. Kuehn, attended the hearing. Mr. Kuehn did not oppose the motion to compel and agreed at the hearing it was warranted. Mr. Kuehn provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests. Mr. Kuehn agreed sanctions were warranted, however, he disputed the amount of sanctions. This Honorable Court granted the Motion to Compel and awarded John Aldrich, Esq., $750.00 in sanctions for having to bring the motion. A Notice of Entry of Order on the order granting the motion to compel was entered on May 18, 2009. It was served by mail on Defendant on May 14, 2009. Defendant never complied with the Order. (Exhibit 1.)

On June 16, 2009 Plaintiff filed a Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim due to Defendants complete failure to comply with discovery requests and this Court's Order. The Defendant's counsel again attended the hearing and again provided no explanation as to why Defendant failed to respond to all discovery requests, but stated Defendant would comply with discovery requests. This Honorable Court denied Plaintiff's Motion to Strike based on Defendant's counsel's promises to comply. This Honorable Court did, however, order Defendant to comply with the Order granting Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests by August 12, 2009 or Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim would be stricken. The Court also ordered Defendant to pay a $1,000 sanction. (Exhibit 1.)

To date, Defendant has failed to comply with the order of this Honorable Court and respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests. Defendant's counsel has paid the $1,750.00 in sanctions as ordered by the Court. (Exhibit 1.)

Plaintiff is entitled to the discovery responses, and in fact, Defendant has admitted as much on more than one occasion. Nevertheless, Defendant refuses and continues to refuse to respond. As the Court is aware, it is preferable for Plaintiff to place Defendant's insurance carrier on notice of the claim before obtaining a judgment in favor of Plaintiff; otherwise, Plaintiff fears Defendant's

PLAINTIFF RESPECTFULLY REQUESTS THIS COURT ISSUE AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY DEFENDANT SUSAN FALLINI AND HER COUNSEL SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT FOR FAILURE TO ABIDE BY THE COURT'S ORDER

This Court has authority, pursuant to NRS 22.030, to enter an order to show cause why Susan Fallini and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court for failing to comply with this Honorable Court's orders of July 17, 2009 and April 27, 2009, ordering Defendant to respond Plaintiff's discovery requests.

NRS 22.040 provides:

When the contempt is not committed in the immeditate view of and presence of the court or judge, a warrant of attachement may be issued to bring the person charged to answer, or, without prevoius arrest, a warrant of commitment may, upon notice, or upon an order to show cause, be granted; and no warrant of commitment shall be issued without such prevoius attachement to answer, or such notice or order to show cause

NRS 22.010 further provides in pertinent part:

The following acts or omissions shall be deemed contempts:

3. Disobedience or resistance to any lawful writ, order, rule or process issued by the court or judge at chambers.

In the present case Defendant has disobeyed this Court's Order. Susan Fallini and her counsel are in contempt under NRS 22.010 because they disobeyed two of this Court's Orders respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests.

Notwithstanding proper attempts and due diligence of service of a lawfully obtained Order, Susan Fallini and her counsel have acted in bad faith and failed to provide insurance information as required in her NRCP 16.1 disclosures and failed to respond to any written discovery propounded by Plaintiff. Plaintiff submitted her initial interrogatories to Defendant on October 31, 2007, and continued sending various discovery requests through July 2, 2008. Plaintiff submitted interrogatories, requests for admission, and two sets of requests for production of documents, including a request that Fallini produce all related insurance information regarding the incident.

Despite these discovery requests, Defendant has failed and refused to cooperate or respond. Plaintiff's counsel has made phone calls and submitted letters to Fallini's counsel notifying them of these discovery requests to no avail. Nevertheless, Fallini failed to provide any of the information as requested despite the extension. Plaintiff was then forced to file a motion to compel. Defendant did not oppose the motion, but agreed it was warranted. Yet, Defendant failed to comply with the order.

Defendant has failed to produce any sort of discovery despite numerous formal requests, followed by phone calls and letters for nearly a year and a half from the initial submission of interrogatories on September 10, 2007. As shown above, Plaintiff has made several good faith efforts to procure the discovery without court intervention, including re-opening discovery and extending the deadline. Plaintiff finally sought court intervention and this Court issued an order compelling Defendant to comply with discovery requests. Nevertheless, Defendant continues to show no interest in cooperating with discovery guidelines or this Court's order. Defendant's failure to comply with this Court's order and all discovery requests has completely halted the normal adversary process.

This Court is authorized pursuant to NRS 22.040 to issue an appropriate order to show cause why Susan Fallini and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court. This Court is further authorized to order sanctions against Susan Fallini for Plaintiff having to bring this motion.

Ш.

CONCLUSION

The Court has authority pursuant to NRS 22.040 to issue and order to show cause why Defendant and her counsel should not be held in contempt of court. Further, this Court has inherent powers to sanction inequitable conduct. Under both authorities, Plaintiff respectfully requests that
