DOCKETING STATEMENT CIVIL APPEALS

GENERAL INFORMATION

All appellants not in proper person must complete this docketing statement. NRAP 14(a). The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in screening jurisdiction, classifying cases for en banc, panel, or expedited treatment, compiling statistical information and identifying parties and their counsel.

WARNING

This statement must be completed fully, accurately and on time. NRAP 14(c). The Supreme Court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate. Id. Failure to fill out the statement completely or to file it in a timely manner constitutes grounds for the imposition of sanctions, including a fine and/or dismissal of the appeal.

A complete list of the documents that must be attached appears as Question 26 on this docketing statement. Failure to attach all required documents will result in the delay of your appeal and may result in the imposition of sanctions.

This court has noted that when attorneys do not take seriously their obligations under NRAP 14 to complete the docketing statement properly and conscientiously, they waste the valuable judicial resources of this court, making the imposition of sanctions appropriate. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 344, 810 P.2d 1217, 1220 (1991). Please use tab dividers to separate any attached documents.

- ☐ Child Custody
- ☐ Venue
- ☐ Termination of parental rights

6. Pending and prior proceedings in this court. List the case name and docket number of all appeals or original proceedings presently or previously pending before this court which are related to this appeal:

Not applicable

7. Pending and prior proceedings in other courts. List the case name, number and court of all pending and prior proceedings in other courts which are related to this appeal (e.g., bankruptcy, consolidated or bifurcated proceedings) and their dates of disposition:

Kevin Adrianzen v. Paige Petit, D-13-489540-N consolidated with D-13-489542-D, Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Division, Clark County, Nevada, August 18, 2014

8. Nature of the action. Briefly describe the nature of the action and the result below:

This case involves a divorce and custody petition (D-13-489542-D) and petition for name change (D-13-489540) of a minor child (of the divorcing couple). The two cases were consolidated. The divorce decree awarded joint legal custody and primary physical custody to appellant, Paige E. Petit. The surname of the minor child was changed from Ryder Petit to Ryder Petit-Adrianzen.

The appellant is not, in this appeal, challenging the divorce or custody issues, per se. This appeal does NOT involve child custody or visitation.

Rather, in this appeal, the appellant is only challenging the legal bases for a change of the surname of the minor child.

9. Issues on appeal. State specifically all issues in this appeal (attach separate sheets as necessary):

The case concerns a mother who gave her infant child her surname on the child's birth certificate while married. First, the primary issue is whether the "best interests of the child" standard pursuant to "clear and convincing" evidence should be applied to whether to change the surname of a minor child born in wedlock. This court does not seem to have decided this issue, only with respect to non-marital children. Secondly, if "clear and convincing" is the standard, what specific factors, if any, should be analyzed in deciding whether a name change is in the best interest of the child? Lastly, NRS 440.280 holds that unmarried women may either give their newborn children their own surnames, or with acknowledgment of paternity and her consent, give the newborn the father's surname. However, the statute is silent regarding whether or not married women have the freedom to name their children with their own surnames, or have to consent to their husbands' surname (or the addition of their husbands' surnames as a hyphenated surname), without their consent.

10. Pending proceedings in this court raising the same or similar issues. If you are aware of any proceedings presently pending before this court which raises the same or similar issues raised in this appeal, list the case name and docket numbers and identify the same or similar issue raised:

Not applicable

11. Constitutional issues. If this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute, and the state, any state agency, or any officer or employee thereof is not a party to this appeal, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

☐ N/A

☐ Yes

☒ No

If not, explain: Although this appeal could be interpreted to challenge the constitutionality of NRS 440.280(5) and (6), it is an exceedingly narrow challenge limited to the Supreme Court's review of its internal consistency and the effect of statutory silence regarding naming authority of married mothers of newborns versus unmarried mothers of newborns. It is not a wholesale attack on the statute, nor will a successful review necessarily invalidate it.

12. Other issues. Does this appeal involve any of the following issues?

☐ Reversal of well-settled Nevada precedent (identify the case(s))

☒ An issue arising under the United States and/or Nevada Constitutions

☒ A substantial issue of first impression

☒ An issue of public policy

☐ An issue where en banc consideration is necessary to maintain uniformity of this court's decisions

☐ A ballot question

If so, explain: The authority of a married woman to unilaterally name her newborn child with her own surname is apparently an issue of first impression with application to more individuals apart from the appellant, so may be considered "substantial." Since the equal treatment of married and unmarried parents is implied, it is also a constitutional issue.

13. Trial. If this action proceeded to trial, how many days did the trial last? 1

Was it a bench or jury trial? Bench

14. Judicial Disqualification. Do you intend to file a motion to disqualify or have a justice recuse him/herself from participation in this appeal? If so, which Justice?
Not applicable

Worksheet A -Primary Physical Custody Child Support Calculation Worksheet

You must fill out this worksheet and attach it to the document you are filing which asks for a primary physical custody arrangement. Primary physical custody exists when one parent has physical custody of the child more than 60% (219 days) of the time calculated over a one year period.

① : Determine Gross Monthly Income (GMI) of the non-custodial parent.

Hourly wage $7.25	X	Hrs/Week 40	=	$290	X	Pay Periods 52	=	Yearly income $15,080	÷	Months 12	=	GMI $1,257
-----------------------	---	----------------	---	-------	---	-------------------	---	---------------------------	---	--------------	---	----------------

② : Determine Obligation.

GMI $1,257	X	Formula Percentage (0.18 for 1 child, 0.25 for 2 children, 0.29 for 3 children, 0.02 increase for each additional child) 0.18	=	Monthly child support (rounded to the nearest dollar) $226
----------------	---	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---	----------------------------------------------------------------

③ : Apply the presumptive maximum if necessary. This amount changes every year on July 1st. Make sure you are using the most current chart.

Income Range		Presumptive Maximum Amount Usually, this is the maximum amount a parent may be required to pay per month per child.
If the Parent's GMI is At Least	But Less Than
$0	$4,235	$630
$4,235	$6,351	$693
$6,351	$8,467	$758
$8,467	$10,585	$819
$10,585	$12,701	$883
$12,701	$14,816	$945
$14,816	No Limit	$1,010

④ : Deviations. If you are requesting an amount of child support that is lower or higher than the amount in ② or ③, if applicable, your reason(s) for requesting a different amount must be based upon one of the following factors. (☒ check all that apply)

<input type="checkbox"/> The cost of health insurance	<input type="checkbox"/> The cost of childcare	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The relative income of both parents
<input type="checkbox"/> Special educational needs of the child	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The amount of time the child spends with each parent	<input type="checkbox"/> Any other necessary expenses for the benefit of the child
<input type="checkbox"/> The age of the child	<input type="checkbox"/> Legal responsibility of the parent for the support of others	<input type="checkbox"/> The value of services contributed by either parent
<input type="checkbox"/> Any expenses reasonably related to the mother's pregnancy and confinement	<input type="checkbox"/> The cost of transportation of the child to and from visitation if the custodial parent moved with the child from the jurisdiction that ordered the support and the non-custodial parent remained	<input type="checkbox"/> Any public assistance paid to support the child

◆ Explain: Defendant is not employed and does not have any income. Imputing minimum wage for 40 hours per week would make support for the minor child more equitable between the plaintiff and the defendant. In addition, plaintiff is seeking primary physical custody that will incur more expenses than the non-custodial parent, the defendant.
