Q Okay perfect. Just to clarify about lifetime started lifetime supervision in 2007, correct? supervision, probation and parole. Now these are all 2 A Yes. separate things, right, they are separate institutions? 3 3 Q So by the time you became assigned as his A They are separate agreements that they sign. 4 4 probation officer he had basically been on probation for Q So lifetime supervision, earlier did you say it 5 about five years? was a kind of probation and parole, but it is a 6 6 A Lifetime supervision? completely different kind of supervision? 7 7 Q Yes. I'm sorry. Lifetime supervision. A No. I would not say it is completely different. 8 8 I would say the outcome of your violation will be A Yes. 9 9 Q Okay. So after you availed yourself of the different. If you violate your parole you are going to 10 10 information from the notes left by the previous go back to the Parole Board to answer. If you violate 11 11 supervising officers, did it ever come to your attention 12 lifetime supervision I will file charges for a new 12 that he was ever arrested on a prior violation for 13 felony, which is a new case. 13 violating lifetime supervision? Q Understood. They are separate ways of being 14 14 supervised, correct. Just like you had to get A I do not recall. 15 15 Q He did actually, and I'm sure you know this specialized training to do lifetime supervision versus 16 because I know you said that you went through the notes, 16 probation versus parole; is that correct? 17 that he did not become homeless up until I believe it was 17 A I don't supervise them really any differently. 18 February of 2013, correct? 19 19 A I would say January. A I would not say that there is very much 20 20 Q January? 21 21 variation. A I would say January. Q So you are assigned to that specialized unit in 22 22 Q So based upon the notes left to you by the prior March, that is when you first started getting your cases? 23 lifetime supervision officer, he was able to maintain a 23 24 A March 2013. 24 stable residence for that prior time period? Q So are you still currently assigned to that 25 118 116 A He had a residence. I do not know how stable it 1 detail? 1 2 was. A I am. 2 Q So he had been reporting the exact same Q So previously to becoming Mr. McNeill's lifetime 3 3 residence for the last five years? supervision officer, he did have other lifetime A Oh, I don't know about that. I don't know if it supervision officers before you, correct? 5 was the last five years. I just know as I look back he A He did. 6 was staying at a Casino Center address. That's all I Q He had four lifetime supervision officers to be 7 know. 8 exact before you? 8 Q So that's the only address you remember from the 9 A Okay. 9 prior note? 10 Q Is that not correct? 10 A I did not look back or count. I can only go off A Yes. From the file, yes. 11 11 Q And reviewing those prior case notes, I am sure 12 of what you say. 12 you are aware that he was employed previously to you Q Okay. So when you received this case were you 13 13 becoming his supervising officer? in receipt of a file? 14 A I know at one time he did report employment. I 15 A I was. 15 don't know what those dates are. Q Were there notes from previous lifetime 16 16 Q Okay. There were also periods of unemployment, 17 supervision officers in that file? 17 correct? 18 A There was. 18 A Yes. Q Did you avail yourself of that information when 19 19 Q Now based on those prior case notes, to your 20 you became his case manager? 20 knowledge, he had previously submitted to urinary 21 A Yes, I looked back at the file. 21 analysis, correct? Q Did you become aware of the fact that he did in 22 22 A Yes, he did. fact have four previous probation officers? 23 23 Q Which is the drug testing that you say he had A I know he had previous officers. I did not 24 24 25 refused you? count the number. 119 117

Q Okay. So we have already established that he

A I don't know what happened in the past. I don't 1 know. He could have been. I do not have any proof in A Yes. 1 Q Now based on those prior case notes, I am sure 2 front me or a computer to show me he was at home or 2 you are aware that Mr. McNeill was previously put on a 3 wasn't at home. GPS monitoring when he first started his lifetime 4 Q Okay. From here on out, when I ask you 5 questions I mean from the time in which you became his supervision? 5 6 A I was not aware of that, no. 6 probation officer. 7 Q You were not aware of that? 7 A Since March 2013? 8 A No. 8 Q Yes. Q Did you ever see any indication in the case 9 9 A Okay. 10 notes that he had violated any kind of GPS? Q So you previously testified that when you became 10 MR. COOPER: Objection, Your Honor. She was not 11 his probation officer, you did what you usually do which 11 aware that he was on GPS so how is she going to know if 12 is attempt to contact the person you are assigned to 12 13 he violated GPS. 13 supervise? 14 THE COURT: So the objection is that it's 14 A Yes. He is on lifetime supervision. 15 outside of this witness' knowledge? 15 Q Did you try to contact him? MR. COOPER: It's outside and technically asked 16 16 A I did. and answered in the last question and assumes a fact not 17 Q And you said you were you unable to contact him? 17 18 A I believe I wrote something along the lines of I 18 in evidence. MS. BONAVENTURE: Well, Your Honor, just because 19 attempted to contact him but was unable by phone to make 19 20 she says she doesn't know whether he was on GPS contact with him. I don't know if that meant I got a 20 monitoring doesn't meant that she wouldn't know there is 21 voice mail or the phone got disconnected. I'm not sure. 21 a violation as a result of not following the GPS monitor. 22 I just know I was unable to get ahold of him. 22 THE COURT: If she knows. Overruled. 23 Q At that time did you annotate your notes in the 23 THE WITNESS: I do not know if he was violated 24 case file saying that you suspected him of being a 24 25 122 on any GPS system. 25 120 potential absconder? BY MS. BONAVENTURE: A Yes. Q But you did previously testify that he was never 2 Q Can you for the jury's sake explain what an 2 3 previously violated? 3 absconder is? 4 A I don't recall. I believe I said I do not A An absconder is someone who is no longer 4 5 recall. I don't know if he was or was not. I was only reporting as directed by the Parole and Probation Office. 5 6 concerned with what he does under my supervision. Q But when you recall the previous case notes, do 6 Q And so he had been pretty much making most, if 7 you recall whether or not Mr. McNeill had made his 7 not all, of his monthly reports based on those prior case February 2013 appointment which was the month that 8 immediately predated the month you became his supervising notes? 9 A He had been showing up submitting monthly 10 10 officer? 11 A I believe it is but I would not be able to 11 reports. 12 Q And by showing up you mean presenting himself confirm that without the file in front of me. 12 13 physically at the Department of Parole and Probation? Q Would it refresh your recollection to see it? 13 14 A I would be able to see the monthly report and A Yes. 14 15 Q So based on the prior case notes in the file, the date on it to see if that is a monthly report with 15 some other supervising officers did in fact conduct house 16 16 the February date. 17 MS. The actual physical date he map not whether I looked up a map on my own on Google 11 11 reported is on 8/15. I entered it in the computer on 12 earth. 12 8/19 and that's where I got that date from. Q You made no mention of that at preliminary 13 Q So you entered -- it was a typo that you entered 13 14 14 hearing? into the computer? 15 A I was not asked that question. 15 A It is not a typo. It is just -- so he comes in Q Okay. Mr. McNeill report toed you in March of 16 16 on the 16th and I see him. But lets say that was a 2013. He reported to you in April of 2013. He reported 17 Thursday, so that was my Friday. I come back on Monday 17 to you in March of 2013 -and I would enter when it happened. So on the computer, 18 A May, yes. 19 it puts in that date, which would have been the 19th. 20 Q Yes, I meant May. And you had said on direct 20 Q Okay. that some other officer was his officer for the month of 21 21 A So when I am looking at the computer it will say 22 June? 22 8/19 this is what happened, this is what I saw when it A Yes. I believe Office White was his officer. I 23 23 actually it occurred on the 15th. wasn't transferred. I don't know if it was May or June. 24 24 Q And I see corroborating proof of that. In fact 25 Q It was sandwiched right in there, yeah. 25 131 129 01/06/2015 03:29:27 PM Page 128 to 131 of 207 most egregious offenses passed the law on October 1st, 1995.

I, of course, was quoting NRS 176.0931 that clearly states that, you know, lifetime supervision is where these 23

After the banter, I decided that he was just going to want to continue to argue. I had explained to him that he would report as instructed by his officer. And at that point he said that he wasn't going to be coming in. And I told him, Well, if you don't comply, if you don't report, if don't do what you are ordered to do, then there will be a warrant issued.

Q Any day.

A Yes. When I review a crime report, warrant request, it's routine that I put in there that I reviewed it, if there needed to be some corrections or additions I would make notes that that needs to be done and send to the officer to be done.

And then once a report would be finalized and it was acceptable then I would put another chronological entry noting that it was accepted and sent to the officer and forwarded to the District Attorney's Office, something like that.

term "fugitive document" and I have to be honest, at the time at the bench, and you used it again now, it doesn't really resonate with me. I have a very specific idea of 3 what, to me, a fugitive document is, but that doesn't 4 necessarily mean that it isn't. That just did not 5 resonate with me, as I said. Can you help me understand on what basis do you argue that it's a fugitive document? I mean, clearly, it is a document that was signed by this defendant. That's not protested as I understand. And clearly it was a document that was part and parcel of the process.

Are you suggesting that it is fugitive because it should not have been signed at the time that it was signed, or I guess I am not clear on what you mean by it being a fugitive document.

MS. HOJJAT: I guess I can rephrase the terminology for the Court, I guess. Basically, what I am saying is lifetime supervision, nothing about lifetime supervision commences, nothing having to do with lifetime supervision commences until all prior terms, sentences have been finished, including parole, probation and imprisonment.

If he was still incarcerated in prison, he was not on lifetime supervision. It is not a valid document.

the day, there is a point in time when someone is releasing from incarceration and they get their stuff, 2 they sign something and they walk out the door. So 3 presumably it could be signed as he was walking out the door. Presumably it could be signed at some other time. I don't think that is the point. 6

I think really the argument is this document is something that the defendant signed. You argued that it had relevancy. I allowed it to be admitted. We are just making a record now I think primarily of what was argued at the bench and ultimately trying to set forth so that there is clarity for the Court when we had this bench conference at the time that this document was objected to, this was the nature of the discussion.

So rather than sort of embellish on the argument now too much, along those lines do you have anything that you want to either put in the record that was said at the bench that we haven't covered or do you have anything else specific to add --

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- I am not going to change my mind and kick the document out.

MR. COOPER: Just as a base, I think they said it was a fugitive document and I think the Court also agreed it wasn't a fugitive document when it was signed

Essentially, it was a document that was signed regarding lifetime supervision before anybody had any authority

2 over him via lifetime supervision. It's very clear. 3

There is no authority of lifetime supervision. It 4 doesn't begin until after everything is done and

did you want to respond? MR. COOPER: Their argument factually flawed in the sense of when you are on lifetime supervision you have to at some point sign your lifetime supervision agreement. Why would they release someone from prison and then let them run around the streets and then weeks later say, Hey, oh, by the way, we did not have you sign your Lifetime Supervision Agreement.

Obviously, there has to be a first time for it to be signed and the only reasonable time for that to be is when they are still in prison when we can still find them and we can say, Hey, you are about to get out in ten days. You need to sign this Lifetime Supervision Agreement because this is explaining to you the terms of your lifetime supervision that you are --

THE COURT: Well, before we go too much further down the road of making either argument sound ridiculous and counterargument that that's ridiculous, at the end of by the defendant and it obviously has relevance in this case and I think that should be enough.

THE COURT: That is the Court's ultimate determination was that the document is relevant. That there were three variations on this Lifetime Supervision Agreement in terms of when they were signed. I can't speak to for purposes of the admissibility of the evidence, I could, but I am not going to speak to in terms of whether or not the NDOC is following a procedure in which perhaps is in some way flawed because of some interpretation that defense counsel has that others may share that it really shouldn't be done until he has 12 completed his term of incarceration. 13

I think it would have been inappropriate to address that issue in terms of their protocol through this ruling. What this court is looking at is whether or not there was any issue as to the authenticity of the document, the fact that the defendant signed the document, the facts that I do want to put in the record that at the bench the main concern expressed, and it was expressed on the record in the previous argument as well when we were discussing redactions prior to starting the trial, that the main concern about that particular exhibit version of Lifetime Supervision Agreement was that Mr. McNeill had written "under duress."

That testimony was not elicited at this time. Yes, it is still remaining on the document. I did not redact it. Should the jurors choose to look at that exhibit when they go to deliberate, they may very well 4 see it, but there was no testimony or information 5 elicited that indicated that indicated that this type of protesting occurred then prior to Officer Mangan or 7 anything else, so at this point I think that record is completed as to that. 9 10

The only other objection that took place during Officer Mangan's testimony was an initial objection as she began responding to a question from Mr. Cooper regarding what is lifetime supervision and she was explaining what it means to her and she was liking it to a type of parole and probation and there was an objection posed as to she should not testify to the law.

I honestly I cannot recall if I sustained or overruled the objection but I did ask Mr. Cooper to further clarify that we were just looking for what specifics of lifetime supervision applied to this defendant in this case and the witness's knowledge with regard to that.

But I think she was allowed to sort of finish her knowledge base and I think I indicated it was relevant for her to share what she understands it to be

THE COURT: Well, we'll have the reference for the record and the Court will obviously have it as well.

MS. HOJJAT: Yes. Basically, to supplement what we were saying at the bench, obviously, we have this time to make a more protracted argument, but what we were saying is we did object to relevance and we said that it's not an accurate statement of the law.

Essentially, I believe I said some of the requirements are not enumerated into 213,1243. And then at that point things were getting longer and we were told that we would put this on the record later.

But essentially our position is that NRS 213.1243 lays out very specifically and enumerates the 13 conditions that Parole and Probation have the authority to impose on sex offenders. We completely agree that the Department of Parole and Probation does have the authority to impose conditions, but the plain language of the statute lists the conditions. It enumerates every single one and there is no catchall phrase. There is no subordinate as it deems necessary to impose any other conditions. There is no statement of any other conditions set forth by the Division, nothing like that. There is no catchall that allows Parole and Probation to set whatever regulations they want to. The enumerated regulation gives Parole and with the understanding that we are ultimately going to provide to the jurors the clarification of what the law is in regards to this case.

And so is there anything that either counsel said that they would like to add to the record for that objection?

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. I wanted to ask that that objection also kind of supplement the previous objection that we discussed about the Lifetime Supervision Agreements and knowledge because our objections on those two were kind of connected. We objected and said that she should not be instructing the jury on what the law is and what lifetime supervision is and further objected that she was giving an incorrect statement. And when we objected to the lifetime supervision agreement we objected to relevance as well at the bench to all three documents.

Specifically, to Exhibit 2, we objected to it being a fugitive document but we also stated to the Court that the Lifetime Supervision Agreement was not an accurate statement of the law and we objected on that ground.

And just to supplement that record, I do have a copy of NRS 213.1243 that the defendant is being charged under. I mean, you can mark it as a court exhibit --161

Probation -- essentially, it says that we have decided P and P is the best organization to take care of this because they supervise many other people in the sense that they are equipped to do this, but it doesn't give 4 them the cart blanche that exists in Parole and Probation statutes and that these are Parole and Probation statutes for sex offenders that do give Parole and Probation those catchalls and that cart blanche and express and enumerate

those things that are in the Lifetime Supervision 9 Agreement. 10

Those are not contained in NRS 213.1243, so our 11 objection was that this is not a relevant document because it is not an accurate statement of law. And in 13 fact it is an inaccurate statement of the law that can 14 confuse the jury. 15

THE COURT: All right. I am assuming that we will have tomorrow is the settling of the jury instructions with regard to jury instructions on this point. But we will address that then.

19 Mr. Cooper, do you have anything you want to add 20 on this point or if you want to reserve further 21 discussion for the jury instructions tomorrow. 22

MR. COOPER: I would reserve for the jury 23 instructions since these issues have already been ruled 25 on.

THE COURT: Okay. And the main part of me 2 putting this in the record now is so that what occurred at the bench conference is in the record because obviously it wasn't otherwise reported contemporaneous with the discussion. But appreciate the foreshadowing for the discussion tomorrow.

The other bench conferences that occurred, I noted five, there may have been more. There was two during State's opening and three during the defense opening. And the one that I noted specifically at the beginning of the State's opening, again, went to the issue of whether or not counsel could speak to what the law of lifetime supervision was.

There was some discussion about whether or not that had actually been broached or simply a statement of what the charge was. And then we again clarified that the discussion should proceed by counsel not generally discussing what the law requires because that is something that is ultimately what the Court will instruct on and the jury will need to apply to the facts, but that to speak specifically as to what the evidence is intended to show or is expected to show with regard to this particular defendant's requirements. So I did in fact sustain that objection.

I honestly can't pull together my notes of what 164

The State pointed out that we were objecting to something that we had originally asked for but there was a modified ruling. Part of what we wanted was not granted and then there was a modified ruling.

And so our position is that the Court's ruling at this point is that she cannot render any expert opinion because her expert notice was stricken. That she can testify to things she observed as a layperson and to the financial reasons for termination. And so we objected to what we believe was going into the professional diagnosis.

THE COURT: The only clarification I need is I am not certain it was my intent behind my ruling, although the wording of it may have given that impression. The issue that was raised was with regard to notes that appeared to opine to being moderate, I believe, in parentheses, at best, to re-offend and some aspect of that in these notes and what began the discussion and the Court determined that it would be inappropriate and those statements needed to be redacted for her to do that.

However, the Court did indicate that she could testify as the professional that she is in her treatment the second or if there were more objections during the State's opening. I know that there was at least one other. I don't think it was significant. It was simply some guidance as to the tenor of the discussion but I don't remember the specifics.

MS. HOJJAT: I believe it was again relating to the instructions of law essentially that -- oh, I'm sorry. It was to the statement about what Marcia Lee would be testifying to. That was the second objection that we made because --

MS. BONAVENTURE: No progress.

MS. HOJJAT: Right. There was a ruling about her not being able to get into expert testimony. To clarify the defense's position on that, the defense had originally been requesting that she can't testify to anything other than those two things that were checked off.

My understanding is that that defense request was denied. There were redactions made. It was ordered that she could not testify to any predictions about future conduct and that she could not testify to any sort of -- anything having to do with expert testimony due to the insufficient notice, but that she could testify to things as aggressive behavior in therapy only as it relates to what she observed, not from a professional of the defendant and the determination of that counseling 1 and the basis for that and the circumstances. And so I am concerned about the way you are phrasing what you 3 believe the Court's ruling to be that somehow she is a 4 lay witness who can only testify to certain things. 6

She is a professional and she is able to testify to her professional encounters with the defendant. What she is not able to do because she wasn't noticed as an expert witness is opine to something of a particular expertise that has not been allowed or established. But as a counselor in this context her counseling with this defendant and the circumstances of it and the circumstances of the conclusion of it are all fair game to testify to. So I just want to make sure we are not on different pages as far as that goes.

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, I think we were on different pages. And for the record, I guess we did not receive a CV and we did not receive actual reports, so the defense would ask the Court to reconsider -- we misunderstood the ruling because --20 21

THE COURT: And I don't disagree you are misunderstanding the ruling, so let me try to say it one 22 more time. Anything up to the conclusion of her treatment of the defendant, she can testify to. I never said otherwise. What you were concerned about is if she were to be allowed to testify to her belief of what his 2 likelihood to re-offend is or other aspects that would 3 call for her to have been noticed as an expert witness and that expertise to be established to give that kind of 4 5 testimony. I wasn't going to allow it because, again, this was just provided to you and this was something that we hadn't had notice of as an expert.

But her ability to testify as a percipient witness and her treatment is -- I guess, I don't think we're saying different things unless somehow once she got up there and said, Well, I was counseling and this is what as a counselor I observed. And you are going to go, Oh, no, objection because that requires expert testimony. I'm going to overrule that. If we're on the same page, then, okay, we're on the same page.

But I can't imagine that what you are suggesting is that this treating physician as a percipient witness to her treatment of this individual she can't testify about her treatment and her observation during her treatment. That's not what you are suggesting, is it?

MS. HOJJAT: What we are suggesting is because the State has talked about him acting out in the group session. Our suggestion was for percipient things that she had observed, such as him acting out. That's different in my one-on-one with him, not reaching to 168

THE COURT: And I remember distinctly you indicating can she just testify to what were the underpinnings again of her determination but not beyond that. So I am sorry if there was confusion on that point. That's ultimately my responsibility, but I'm glad we ironed that out today.

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. In that case, we would ask that the State be ordered to bring us a CV. If she is going to be rendering opinions based on her training and experience, we still don't have a CV to this day. My understanding just from Googling, I don't see any sort of training that she has actually had as a sex offender counselor. I have seen marriage and family counseling as the only counseling experience that she has. I am sure there is other stuff, I just don't have a CV, so I don't know about it.

THE COURT: Do you have one handy? MR. COOPER: I don't have a CV for her.

MS. HOJJAT: And the Court can see where our concern comes from if defense counsel -- if her degree isn't even remotely related to sex offender and she has no training.

THE COURT: Actually, no, I would not agree with you, counselor, because I happen to know any number of expert conclusion, but saying in my one-on-one with him I didn't believe he was making any progress. 2 3

It is our position that's still an expert opinion. We haven't had the opportunity to challenge it and she wasn't properly noticed as an expert and we still dont' have a CV to challenge her on.

THE COURT: Then we were not on the same page because I clearly, I believe, sorry, I can't say that because if it wasn't understood it wasn't clear and that is my responsibility, that anything that led to her determination that treatment was concluded or terminated and the basis upon that determination of treatment was fair game to testify to. I never said in my opinion that it wasn't. I never intended to say that it wasn't.

I simply felt that you were correct in your 16. assessment that she could not further opine to something that would fall into the realm of an expert type report of this is what I think he is going to do in the future. That it was speculation and that it was expert.

But in terms of her being able to say that she did not feel that -- whatever underpinning there were for the termination of the counseling in terms of not making progress, which is clearly marked, and the nonpayment, she can testify to those and I don't believe I ever indicated she couldn't testify to those.

marriage and family therapists where their training is across the board on many, many things and I am not sure that I would agree that you can automatically presuppose that she doesn't have it. But you can cross on that and you can find out what she has.

So, again, you seeing her CV in advance -- he doesn't have it. I can't make him give it to you. And she is not being allowed to be an expert and I don't want to get into the territory of, oh, now you have a CV so now she can testify. And the State is going to ask if she can testify to all this other stuff that I've already precluded.

Bottom line is that she has one with her tomorrow, then I will give you a few minutes to take a look at it and see what you want to do with it. You have already done your research, you can see what you think she has. If you believe that marriage and family therapy licensing doesn't give her any of that background, you know, go for it. It very well may be that she's gotten it from other sources. 20

I get it that you want to go into that area because you believe that her percipient witness testimony 22 of her evaluation of him during the term of her handling of him and why she checked the box, little or no progress, opens the door to, you know, wanting to now question her credentials, go for it. But it is not going to be reliant on you getting a CV in advance and if you don't have a CV now she's an expert and you can't -that's not what is happening here.

She checked the box "little or no progress." She is allowed to testify why she checked the box and what she observed and that doesn't change. But if you want to go after what you believe her credentials or her training or her expertise is to do that I don't have a problem with you doing that and I will give you some time to take a look at her CV if she has one with her tomorrow.

But we have already determined that she's already an expert and we already determined that she cannot testify to certain things that would require that, okay?

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, just to correct the record, all of her reports were previously handed over and in my discovery review that I previously was -- we are talking about all of her reports were contained in there. I don't know what they are talking about a final report or something like that, but every report she ever made was given to them previously.

THE COURT: I was more focusing on the documents that we reviewed yesterday in terms of what needed to be redacted from them or not redacted from them, so that's all I understand we were talking about. If there is 3 something --4

MS. HOJJAT: The only comments I had made, yes, we did receive monthly therapy assessments. It's basically like a two-sentence synopsis. When I said we didn't receive the report, what I meant was typically speaking, when a therapist or psychiatrist, people with those credentials sit down and talk with someone for an hour or more usually the report gets generated particularly upon termination or things like that, a little bit more detailed, a little bit more like what we see in competency court or things like that where there's some sort of assessment. Here's what we talked about, here's my assessment of what I'm basing it on. What I am saying is we did not receive one. We did receive the monthly two-sentence synopsis.

THE COURT: It sounds like whatever there was you did receive, so we'll work with that.

Bear with me here, I noted we have three bench conferences during the opening of the defense. The first is related to sort of a counterargument of that you were commenting on the law in basing the comments in regard to when lifetime supervision would kick in and the way that that was being argued.

I sustained that objection sort of the same way 2 I did from the State's side basically that you needed to 3 keep it to what the law that was applicable in this case 4 was about starting after he had completed his other 5 proponents of his sentence. And then be specific as to 6 requirements with regard to this defendant and so that is 7 how we will address the first one. 8

Does anybody have anything further to add to that?

MS, HOJJAT: I will submit, Your Honor.

MR. COOPER: No, Your Honor. 12

THE COURT: The second bench conference was an objection made by Mr. Cooper that there were certain facts not in evidence that were being testified to and it would not be able to be brought into evidence unless the defendant himself testified. Specifically, a reference to the fact that he was without employment and some other things that the argument was made that that evidence would only be able to come in if the defendant testified.

The counterargument at the bench was that, no, if in fact, this information exists in these monthly 22 reports, or the check-in reports with the parole and probation officer but that ultimately the PO had noted or the defendant had noted and then the PO had further with these records indicated things and there was a whole argument about whether it was hearsay, whether it was a hearsay exception there was some business records. There 3 was some argument that opened the door if those are 4 business records other business would come in.

Ultimately the Court determined that it was information contained in a record. It was a defendant statement. There was any number of basis upon which hearsay would be excepted even if hearsay would be applicable in the circumstances. And, of course, was this being offered for the same thing that he was in fact unemployed.

But the opening statement was fair game to go into this information because they were contained in the Probation Department's official record and they were provided by the defendant.

Does anybody have anything that they want to add to that objection or that bench conference?

MS. HOJJAT: I will submit it, Your Honor.

MR. COOPER: No, Your Honor. 20

THE COURT: And then the last objection that I 21 noted was, again, related to facts not being in evidence.

And I believe I sustained this objection but this was 23 specifically related to the argument that was being made 24 in the defense's opening going into sort of the state of mind of whether the PO liked Mr. McNeill, whether Mr. McNeill liked the PO, whether this was a clash of 2 3

I didn't preclude the theory of the defense in terms of that clash of personalities but I did indicate that there couldn't be any testimony with regard to the defendant's opinion of whether the PO liked him because, again, that would be something that unless the defendant took the stand there would not be any independent evidence of that and it was not likely to be elicited testimony from the PO, so I did preclude that but I did allow the theory of the defense to still be argued.

Does anybody have anything to add to that? MR. COOPER: No, Your Honor.

MS. HOJJAT: Submit it, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Those are the bench 16 conferences that I noted. Can anybody think of anything that I did not note. There might have been a few minor ones here and there that sort of follow-ups to other ones that have already been addressed and sort of clarification.

And then my ruling was made on the record in terms of whether I sustained or overruled. But I don't h have any other bench conferences that I thought had substance that needed to be put into the record.

that you had already talked to him and he understood he wasn't to comment on the law. 2

MR. COOPER: My intern talked to him and he said he was not going to comment on the charge and lewdness 4 with a minor charge. And I think there was another thing he wasn't supposed to talk about.

THE COURT: Well, we had the discussion about we weren't going to comment on the law.

MR. COOPER: And he did neither one of those things.

THE COURT: But this discussion, and I distinctly heard that and actually looked over because I think I anticipated that there would be an objection was of a general nature not related to this particular defendant, however, obviously was talking about lifetime supervision as being required in certain circumstances.

Again, I guess I will take it under advisement and we'll address it tomorrow if you believe it needs a mistrial and/or a curative instruction. Again, I did not perceive it as it was occurring that it would be anything that would require a mistrial or anything that would be inappropriate.

The difficulty that we have here, again, and I think this all comes back to the mistrial, and I did have my law clerk pull those few cases while we were on the MS. HOJJAT: I don't recall any, Your Honor. There was one new matter that the defense wanted to raise. We did not object to the testimony at the time because it was so fast and we did not want to draw the jury's attention to it, but we are moving for a mistrial again.

Sergeant Zana was up there -- and, again, we ask that they be admonished before they testify not to say anything other than he is a sex offender, he's on lifetime supervision. And he started on, Well, this is one of the 23 most serious offenses and that's how they get on lifetime supervision and these are more serious sex offenses and he touched on that.

We didn't want to draw the jury's attention to it but they were specifically supposed to admonished not to be saying things like that so we would be moving for a mistrial.

THE COURT: I don't remember there being a discussion about an admonishment of the kind of specificity that you are talking about. We certainly had the discussion and I actually looked at Mr. Cooper before we called the sergeant in --

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: -- to say do you need to talk to 24 him. And you indicated, no, so it was my presumption break and take a look at a few of them. All of these circumstances that go to not wanting to discussing incarceration goes because we are trying to avoid the fact of a prior criminal history coming to the jury's attention such as that would be used against him to bias 5

the defendant or in this circumstance in terms of a sex offense that requires lifetime supervision without necessarily it biasing them against the defendant, 8 this the defendant. He is a defendant with a sex offense 10 subject to lifetime supervision. There is no 11 sugarcoating that. There is no sanitizing that further 12 than what we have had. And the testimony here is not 13 going to be anything other than what these individuals 14 would, I believe, already perceive to be of a convicted 15 felon who is under lifetime supervision. 16

But the reality is this is the charge. This is

So I fail to see how there is manifest injustice that would be occasioned by a reference of a general nature to a lifetime supervision applies to a certain type of crime. And that's just giving you, again, the benefit of my thoughts.

But I will certainly take it under advisement 22 and I will give a final determination on whether or not 23 to grant a mistrial, whether or not to give a curative 24 instruction, or whether or not to do neither.

But at this point, again, I am failing to see where this type of required or proposed sanitizing is required in a case such as this.

MS. HOJJAT: Very well, Your Honor. Would the Court prefer to reserve my argument for tomorrow?

THE COURT: No. I would like to complete the arguments now and make my ruling tomorrow. I am guessing that the settling of instructions is not going to be as quick as I anticipated and then my putting together the instructions is not going to be as quick, so this is one of the reasons why I want to get it done now.

MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.

Just to finish my argument, our argument is it rises to manifest injustice. At this point, I understand the Court's position that this is what it is. It is a sex offender. It is a violation of lifetime supervision, and that's correct. But the Court and attorneys are coming from a place of familiarity with the law. The jurors do not have familiarity with the law and they do not need familiarity with these specifics of the law.

It's one thing to tell them he's a sex offender and he's on lifetime supervision. They don't know what that means. They don't know what that means. They don't know what level offense rises to a sex offender on lifetime supervision.

credit for. That they don't know that a lifetime supervision is not your run-of-the-mill case. 2

I guess they want to assume that they don't know that. But, I mean, it does not rise to the level of manifest injustice by any stretch of the word.

Like the Court already said, the charge is the charge. Violation of lifetime supervision by a sex offender. They know he's a sex offender and they know he's a convicted felon. They know that he has a lot of different requirements that he needs to abide by.

I mean the common sense argument is that obviously the State is not going to waste their resources 12 on making someone do all these conditions if they are just peeing in a park. I mean, it just doesn't make any sense for them to think that the jury doesn't already know any of the stuff that has already come out.

And I think the curative instruction to tell the jury that, Hey, you can't think about that or it can't 18 enter into your deliberation is sufficient because -- and I don't have any cases because this is kind of being sprung on me, but I do remember previous cases that I have read where other things that have come out in front of the jury.

For example, in a case it comes out that someone is incarcerated but it's not this type offense. It's not

What will happen with each of the State's witnesses is it's becoming familiar that they are backdooring in evidence. The first one talking about incarceration. The second one talking about one of the 23 most serious sex offenses. And I may be misquoting him but I'm trying to get it specific. He said it's one of the 23 more serious sex offenses, that's how you get on lifetime supervision.

So, now the jury is hearing, well, one of the more serious ones. He was sent to prison for this. It is putting evidence before the jury that the jury does not need to make this determination. And it's become evidence on top of evidence on top of evidence. It seems like a little bit on its own but when you take the evidence in conjunction with each other, it's painting an impression for the jury that is not relevant and is incredibly prejudicial.

THE COURT: Mr. Cooper.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I think a curative instruction should be sufficient. I believe anymore, I guess, harmful to the defendant than saying imprisonment or incarceration or whatever it was that my first witness did say.

I guess I believe that the jury knows more about the law than the defense is attempting to give them an ex-felon in possession. It is not a lifetime supervision case, but it did come out that he was incarcerated. I think it magnifies the situation the 3 prejudicial effect is far greater when the jury should be 4 seeing this guy as a first time offender and he has never done anything wrong before or anything like that, when in 6 fact that's not the case here. And I have seen those 7 cases be upheld when they had a curative instruction. 8 9

THE COURT: Well, the case law that I saw indicated that this primary concern when the reference to incarceration either in the past or currently, and there is cases on both, go to the issue of whether or not it revealed that there is a prior criminal history or a criminal history related to the defendant in question.

There is no issue with regard to the fact that there is a criminal history with this defendant in this case based on these charges. But that alone isn't the concluding factor.

Ultimately, the one statement of the document being signed while incarcerated, it was not set forth in a time frame. It wasn't set forth in terms of length of 21 incarceration. It was a reference that was absolutely 22 ended and admonishment given to the witness and a 23 curative instruction given to the jury. 24

The only other mention of anything related to

THE COURT: Okay. We discussed several things up at the bench on Mr. McNeill's matter, including but not limited to the trial schedule. My understanding is that both sides are calling ready; is that correct?

MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. JONES: That is correct, Your.

THE COURT: Okay. And so I went through and showed you the Judge's calendar, and so you said you would be ready to go on Monday picking a jury at 1:00 p.m.

Then the Department is advising me that you would be dark in the trial on Tuesday, not because she is not doing anything but because she has a full docket that day. And then you could start 10:30 on Wednesday.

And then for the record, how many witnesses is it for the State?

MR. JONES: Your Honor, for the record, three to four witnesses and one to two days.

THE COURT: And the defense told me up at the bench that you concurred in that estimate. You may have more witnesses but that you concurred it might be able to be done in two days. 1. MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes, Your Honor. 2 THE COURT: But if it wasn't done then I have 3 advised the parties that the next available date for 4 trial would be July 15th at 10:30. So the understanding 5 is maybe you will finish on Wednesday, but if you don't 6 when you are picking a jury you have to keep in mind the schedule, which is a Monday, Wednesday, Tuesday trial. 8 So everybody is in agreement with that and we 9 know that going in, right? 1.0 MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes, Your Honor. 11 THE COURT: State, right? 1.2 MR. JONES: Yes, Your Honor. 1.3 THE COURT: Okay. And you said three to four 1.4 witnesses, one to two days. Any out of state? 1.5 MR. JONES: I show no out of state. 16 THE COURT: How about for you, any out-of-state 17 witnesses? 1.8 MS. BONAVENTURE: No, Your Honor. 1.9 THE COURT: Do you have witnesses? 20 MS. BONAVENTURE: At this point, Your Honor, 21 that is unknown. 22 THE COURT: Okay. So the trial is set. Let's 23 go then to Defendant's Motion for Discovery. I would 24 like to go to the last page, starting with Number 1, any 25 and all written sworn statements made by agents in the police department, including but not limited to the P and P file.

State, your response to this was that you -MR. JONES: We have disclosed everything that should be disclosed, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And that you have requested it from McNeill or that you already got it? It says that you requested it from McNeill on page 6 of your response.

MR. JONES: I am going to submit on the written opposition with respect to that question, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Did you get it yet?

MS. BONAVENTURE: Your Honor, we did get a substantial amount of discovery based on Number 1. I did have one issue, Your Honor, based on facts that have come to light. Apparently there was an arrest -- or two arrests which were in July of 2013 and October of 2013, which I believe had to do with violations of his lifetime supervision.

What we have been trying to do, Your Honor, is get violation reports that went along with those violations as they will have bearing on the case and is relevant to our defense.

We attempted to get those files, the court files, through the Clerk's Office and we were told that we had to get an order from the Court releasing those documents for us to acquire it and it was never turned over by the State, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So in this case you have violation reports from July and October of 2013 pending in the case that is the subject of the trial, the one that he's on probation for or should have been on lifetime supervision for. I mean, that's what I am trying to understand what it is you want the Court to give you.

MS. BONAVENTURE: I would like the Court to grant me an order releasing the documents that were filed in that case by either the State or the P and P officer that went to very similar charges that are very reminiscent in this case that have to do with violations of his lifetime supervision.

THE COURT: Okay. So let's just go back to the request. The request says give us McNeill's file. The answer says, the State's response, copy of all relevant information as legally required to the extent any exist contained in the P and P file for Mr. McNeill has been requested and will be provided once received.

So you are telling me that what was provided from Mr. McNeill's file did not include those things; is that what you are saying?

MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes.

THE COURT: And you believe that the Court has 1 them on the left side of the file? 2 MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes. 3 THE COURT: Any objection? 4 MR. JONES: Your Honor, I'm sort of standing 5 here with my hands tied because I was not aware of that 6 particular request. I am covering this matter for 7 Jonathan Cooper. 8 THE COURT: Don't take this the wrong way, but I 9 don't know what your objection possibly is. 10 MR. JONES: I don't know what it would be 11 either, Your Honor, but I --12 THE COURT: I am going to let you know out of 13 courtesy, I hope I'm not cutting you short, but your 14 motion is granted. You need to submit an order that 15 requires the Clerk's Office to produce a copy of the left 16 side of the file of the subject case. Do you have a case 17 number for the record, not this case but the other case. 18 MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes, Your Honor. There is two 19 case numbers. One is 13-F11219-X, the other is 20 13-F17150-X. 21 THE COURT: So are you saying that both of these 22 cases were bound over to district court? 23 MS. BONAVENTURE: No, Your Honor. I am saying 24 that these were filed and nothing ever came from them. 25

But they are violation reports that I believe were filed in order to even get them to that place that has information that would be relevant to our case that was not turned over.

THE COURT: Okay. I can order production by the Clerk's Office anything on the left side file of the district court case. I have no power to get these documents in a justice court case that was never bound over, so I'm kind of confused.

If you have a pending district court case where there was a violation the Court prepared and it's on the left-hand side of the file with the PSI and everything else, I can get you that. If, however, you have documents that you believe to be out of a justice court case you are in the wrong court. I have no ability to order discovery there. I don't even know what they have.

But, I mean, if it's a violation report prepared by P and P it should be in some district court case, no?

MS. BONAVENTURE: Not that I know of, Your Honor. It was never turned over and there has never been any other violation in this defendant's record.

THE COURT: My Clerk's Office told you need a court order -- I mean you're in the wrong Clerk's Office, Number 1; you have to go to justice court.

Even if I give you an order you are still going to have to go to the Justice Court's Clerk's Office. We're not the keeper of the justice court record.

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, just to clarify the record, that was what we were requesting. We were requesting an order to serve on the Justice Court Clerk's Office.

THE COURT: That's fine.

MS. HOJJAT: It's not a district court violation of --

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. HOJJAT: -- lifetime supervision so the case is filed in the justice court, discovery that was turned over to the justice court. The cases were just never pursued. We believe there is exculpatory material in that discovery, that's why we are trying to get our hands on it.

THE COURT: I will sign an order for the Justice Court Clerk to provide any and all records on file for 13-F11219-X and 13-F17150-X.

Number 2, any and all lifetime supervision agreements signed by Mr. McNeill from 2007 and 2012.

State, your response was any and all lifetime supervision agreements have been requested and provided once received.

MR. JONES: And, Your Honor, I show those are provided. That information has been previously provided. 1 MS. BONAVENTURE: And, Your Honor, upon a review 2 of my file we have the one from 2012 but we do not have 3 the one from 2007. THE COURT: Okay. Is it something that would 5 normally be kept? I mean this is one of those things 6 where it's not in Mr. McNeill's file and has nothing to 7 do with this particular case, or the underlying case that 8 is the subject of trial. 9 THE DEFENDANT: Begging the Court's pardon. Ιt 10 is specifically of November of 2007. 11 MS. BONAVENTURE: It does have to do 12 specifically with this case, Your Honor. It is the 13 lifetime agreement that was signed that resulted in his 14 responsibility and which was violated in this case. 15 MR. JONES: Your Honor, according to the copy I 16 have it says this information has been provided. 17 THE COURT: Okay. Counsel, can you show that to 18 her, please. 19 MR. JONES: Yes. 20 THE COURT: Can you make another copy? 21 MR. JONES: I will do that and give it to 22 defense as soon as this hearing is over, Your Honor. 23 THE COURT: Okay. So that will be produced in 24 court today. 25

Number 3, cease and desist letter. 1 MS. BONAVENTURE: We have it, Your Honor. 2 THE COURT: Okay. Number 4, letter from sex 3 offender counseling referred to by both Probation 4 Officers Ashley Mendez and Marsha Lee at preliminary 5 hearing. 6 MS. BONAVENTURE: We have one, Your Honor. 7 THE COURT: Okay. Standard State requirement if 8 there has been any inconsistent statements made to you or 9 any representative of your office that you have to 10 produce those and advise the defense of their existence. 1.1 MR. JONES: And I will submit on our response, 12 Your Honor. 13 THE COURT: I am going to ask that you make a 14 record of that at the time of trial. You asked for it 15 and that the State's position is during pretrial 16 conferences they don't have to give you that information. 17 So that the inquiry can be made for the record, you 18 reserve that at the time of trial. 19 Next, any information on criminal history of any 20 material witnesses in the case. Is this more than 21 probation officers? 22 MS. BONAVENTURE: It is their probation officer, 23

MS. BONAVENTURE: Your Honor, I just include that as standard language.

THE COURT: Okay. You understand in order to keep their peace officer certification they cannot be convicted of any crime. Post would not allow them to continue on their job at this point. And if they were to get a conviction at any time during the term of their employment there's audits, there's intermittent criminal background checks.

And so are you withdrawing that or do you want a ruling?

MS. BONAVENTURE: I want a ruling, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. It's denied as being an unreasonable burden and waste of taxpayer money.

MS. BONAVENTURE: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So you did say you have a writ that you filed. I don't have a copy of it. The parties are asking me to set that on the 7th so it gets heard before the trial.

And then you said something else. Was there something else you wanted to discuss?

MS. BONAVENTURE: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Sir, you are Number 1 to go to trial on Monday, July 7th, at 1:00. There is a writ pending that has just been filed that will be heard that morning and a couple of discovery issues will have to be addressed by the judge at that time. Good luck. MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you. (Proceedings were concluded.)

1 LAS VEGAS, CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA 2 MONDAY, JULY 7, 2014, 9:00 A.M. 3 PROCEEDINGS 5 THE COURT: Call the State of Nevada versus Steve McNeill. 6 MR. COOPER: Jonathan Cooper on behalf of the 8 -State. 9 MS. BONAVENTURE: Xiomara Bonaventure on behalf 10 of the State. 11 MS. HOJATT: Nadia Hojjat. 12 THE COURT: Good morning. Thank you. 13 I've got the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, 14 I've got the State's return to that. There was an issue 15 raised in the return, and there's not been a reply filed, 16 so I just want to address the issue first with regard to 17 the timeliness of the Petition, if you could. 18 MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes, Your Honor. As far as 19 the timeliness goes, there had been an issue with the filing because this was the trial that was set on a 20 21 60-day-speedy-trial setting, we only received the transcript on the 6th of June. The 21st day would have 22 23 been, I believe, the 27th, 28th of June. I had given this to my secretary, I believe, the 24th of June, which was within that filing period. I believe she attempted to file the writ and it was rejected.

I do have communication between my secretary,
Carolyn Gray, and somebody from your office, Jamie Combs, your law clerk, I believe, trying to figure out exactly what the problem was because it was getting rejected from the Clerk's Office.

Apparently, things were only able to be figured out by the 30th, at which pointed it was officially electronically e-filed, Your Honor.

At this point, it was filed on the 30th, although, we did attempt to file it previous to that time and simply had to deal with the procedural aspects of it.

On top of that, Your Honor, the State has already had time to reply. They have replied. I don't seen any prejudice at this point in time to the State.

MR. COOPER: Well, Your Honor, there is prejudice because obviously if I was given my statutory allowed ten days to actually respond my response would have been a lot more in depth. I actually would have went into the facts a little bit more. This was set on a short setting. I did not get this until, I believe, Tuesday of last week, and so I had two days to respond to a writ, and pursuant to statute I am actually supposed to have ten judicial days to respond. So I don't even know how it got short set, but regardless of that, it was untimely, so I think it's procedurally barred based on that fact alone.

THE COURT: Well, you know, we were originally looking at the record that Arraignment Master DeLaGarza saw that if everything, you know, went before us then there would be an even earlier request, but the transcript didn't come out. There is some question about when the transcripts were due. It's pretty close.

While I don't typically give too much leeway on these things, I am not going to consider this a bright line procedural bar. I think there is some good cause for the circumstances of the delays.

I am actually growing ever increasingly concerned about how long it's taking these transcripts to come out. I have another case on the calendar today where we have been looking for something since April. It is still not there from what we can see from the record.

So I don't know what the circumstances were, but I'm going to give, since it was just a few day swing, the benefit of the doubt in terms of the procedural component of this. I'm going to deem it as it is possible that it is untimely, however, I am going to exercise my discretion to show good cause for that few days of untimeliness and I'm going to proceed substantively.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, also the other problem is I had no idea this was even going to come. Obviously, they could have contacted my office and let me know, Hey, we've been trying to file this writ, or something of that nature.

I did not find out until after calendar call.

Calendar call happened in front of Judge Togliatti. The defense and the State announced ready. It's not until that afternoon where I get a writ. I don't understand how somebody can announce ready on a trial and then file a writ a couple hours later. I just don't think it makes sense.

And the problem is I did not get my ten days response, so if this writ is going to be heard substantively, I would actually ask for my ten-day time to actually sit down and do a complete response. That would actually bump his trial date. Pursuant to statute if he files a writ his 60 day trial date is waived.

So again, it was the case where I put together an extremely quick response; as you can see it's only a couple of paragraphs. It puts the State in a very bad position where I am expected to go forward with trial today and now we are going to hear a writ and I've only had two days to respond to it.

MS. BONAVENTURE: Your Honor, if I could respond to his comments?

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. BONAVENTURE: I actually showed up at calendar call surprised that nobody had received copies of my writ. In fact, if you do pull the transcript you will 100 percent see that. It was my understanding that the writ had already been filed the week before, and that the DA had already been sent a courtesy copy at that point, which is why I was also extremely unhappy that the Court had not yet received a copy, and it was Judge Togliatti sitting in on that day.

THE COURT: Yes. There had been some communication -- my law clerk is confirming for me so we have it in the record -- been some communication from your office November 26th, as indicated. And so, again, whatever the circumstances were, this is why I feel there is good cause to find that to the extent that it could be deemed untimely, once the dust settles when exactly it was filed and when exactly it was due that there is good cause and it came when it came.

But Mr. Cooper has asked for additional time to supplement his return to the Petition. I agree with his assessment that the filing of the writ does effectuate the waiver of his right to speedy trial, so at this point I am inclined to consider his request for additional time to file further or a more supplemental, more established

1 response if he so wishes. 2 What is your position on that, Ms. Bonaventure? 3 MS. BONAVENTURE: Well, Your Honor, I would ask just for a moment of the Court's time so I can confer 4 5 with my client. So I do want to trail it. 6 THE COURT: Yes. Why don't you take a few 7 minutes and we will recall it. MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you, Your Honor. 9 10 THE COURT: Let's recall page 10, McNeill. 11 Ms. Bonaventure. 12 MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you very much, Your 13 We had a chance to speak to Mr. McNeill. He 14 would like to at this point continue to invoke his right to a speedy trial. Based on that we will withdraw the 1.5 16 writ under consideration. 17 THE COURT: All right. If he wants to withdraw 18 the writ we will proceed with trial if you're ready. 19 MR. COOPER: I am, Your Honor. 20 THE COURT: Then we will proceed with trial 21 today. 22 MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, one additional 23 matter. I do have an Amended Information. I actually 24 went through the transcripts in this matter and in the transcripts Mr. Zadrowski actually amended the Complaint.

It was just never transferred into the actual Information. So I have the page of the transcript where the amendment happened.

It is one minor amendment on Count 1, Your Honor. It says the original Complaint -- I believe that Honor. It says the original Complaint -- I believe that he signed the document in 2007. And I added in "or November 2012." That actually is what conforms to the Criminal Complaint that changes line 64 of the transcript. I do have a copy for the defense.

It goes from -- just for some reason it was a typo that didn't get changed in the actual Information itself.

Can I approach with this Amended Information, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

Ms. Bonaventure, any questions or concerns about that?

MS. BONAVENTURE: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. So we have the amended charging document and it looks like we can proceed.

Well, then, I will state for the record I accept the representations that the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus has now been withdrawn and that we will proceed with trial at 1:00. We will bring the jury up and begin the selection.

It would be my hope that we would have opening statements if everybody is prepared to do that. The only reason I suggested that was because I don't know how long jury selection would or should take. I typically do it very quickly. We have not had occasion, I don't think, with either counsel here for a trial but you may have spoken with your colleagues. The questions that I will allow are of a general nature to the panel to see what positive responses are had and then follow-up inquires of those positive responses.

There will be some opportunity for individual questioning following up on questions that I asked of the panel. But ultimately the voir dire is usually a fairly quick process. I know we do not have the ability to do trial tomorrow. I know you are aware of that. And then we are reconvening on Wednesday and I am unavailable the remainder of the week, so if we don't complete by Wednesday then we are looking to have to carry it over to the next week, but as you know, I have a trial that needs to get started on Monday, so it would be a little tricky. I am trying to create as many efficiencies and get us as much trial time in as possible.

MS. HOJATT: Your Honor, we are prepared to do opening statements today. The only thing that I was going to suggest is if it gets to about 4:00 or 4:30 and we are done finishing that voir dire, my suggestion was 1 going to be that we do the preliminary objections to the 2 jury. And then because there is that Tuesday off, I 3 think openings are going to be relatively short here. 4 Again, it is going to depend on when voir dire finishes, 5 but because openings literally are so short it might be 6 just a little easier for the jury in terms of retaining 7 information. 8 9

THE COURT: It's not my favorite thing to do when they're in the shock of realizing that they ended up on the panel and to then end up do opening statements at the same time.

MS. HOJATT: Right.

THE COURT: So depending on the timing of it, let's just see how we do with voir dire.

Again, I have a set of questions; they are not lengthy. They would be mostly general type questions to elicit positive responses, not a one by one type of thing. But beyond that I think we can create some efficiencies. Let's see how it goes. We'll have the panel here at 1:00 and be ready to get started.

MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor.

MS. HOJATT: Thank you, Your Honor.

MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: I understand we have some 6 housekeeping matters.

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. First, at this point the defense cannot proceed. Mr. McNeill was brought and he is dressed out but he is in jail shoes. Bright orange socks and jail shoes. They have not provided him with --

* * *

THE COURT: Does he want to take his socks off? MR. HOJJAT: You know, he's only got the jail sandals. THE COURT: Do you think people would realize that? I'm not trying to be weird about it --

MS. HOJJAT: I know.

THE COURT: -- I just don't think that much of somebody in those shoes without the socks.

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, our concern is even without those socks, those are sandals. Essentially 21 it would be him sitting in trial with sandals. It's 22 pretty obvious something is going on, the implication that he is in custody is very strong given that he 24 doesn't have regular shoes. 25 there's different things that we've had.

But I would like to try to get the shoes, but we have a whole panel sitting out there ready to go. I appreciate that this is not your fault, but I do not know why somebody was brought up here without shoes unless, obviously, he didn't have any in his mix, but why didn't we know that and why didn't we take care of that, you know what I mean. Why didn't we get him the shoes. Why wasn't there the communication regarding that -- and this is just rhetorical.

What else do we have that we need to address? MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, other than that, the defense did have two other preliminary matters. First, there was no bad acts motion by the State in this case. There was no motion to bring in any prior bad acts, but we would be moving for this State to admonish all of their witnesses and make sure that all of their exhibits don't mention any prior bad act.

Obviously, this is a sex offender failure to 20 comply with lifetime supervision, so it's a little bit unique in that respect, however, in terms of details about the prior bad acts or anything like that, no motions have been filed.

Specifically relating to two issues I wanted to address in light of the fact that no bad acts motion had

I am trying to contact somebody from my office to see if we can come up with some shoes, but at this point we need my client to have regular shoes before we can proceed.

THE COURT: Well, let's try to find him some shoes. What size is he?

MS. HOJJAT: 14.

THE COURT: Here's the thing, I don't want to speak to how and when I think we should proceed because he doesn't have the proper shoes, but there are always some indicia with the ones who are in custody. Sometimes there are things that make it patently obvious that someone is in custody and we still have to proceed and we still can tell the jury to disregard it if it gets to that point. I do not anticipate that happening here.

There is not a black-and-white rule that it has to be a certain dress out or a certain way. I have had questions come up -- I always try to accommodate -- but I have had questions come up because the person is wearing the same outfit every day for the week of trial and that's an indicia that he's in custody and other things. I don't think that the jury does not necessarily pay attention to those types of details, but at the end of the day, we can't necessarily eliminate it. We have been filed. First, is the name of the prior offense that he was convicted of. It is a sex offense relating to a minor, victim under the age of 14.

There is case law directly on point. I have brought a copy for the Court and for the District Attorney that essentially says if the defense is willing to stipulate that he is -- in that case it was ex-felon possession of firearm case, but here we are willing to stipulate he is a sex offender.

We would ask that this jury not be informed of what the underlying offense was. And the United States Supreme Court case Goldcheek (phonetic) specifically said that where the defense was willing to stipulate it was a felony it was more prejudicial than probative. The jury did not need to know what the underlying felony was.

We would like to stipulate that he is a sex offender and for the jury not to be informed of what the underlying sex offense was. There is no probative value in what the underlying sex offense was. The only probative value in this case is that he is a sex offender and that he is on lifetime supervision. We will stipulate to both of those.

MR. COOPER: This issue was just brought up right now so I haven't had a chance to actually thoroughly read the case they're citing. But I do officers of the court; why do we have them here. I mean, generally know what that case refers to. I have heard of it before. And that case was a felon case.

Obviously, this court is fully aware that any felon found in possession of a firearm, it's a crime. So just stipulating to the fact that a felon is enough. In this case, stipulating to the fact that he's a sex offender is not enough because he has to also be on lifetime supervision.

The JOC I have actually explicitly lays out that he is further ordered a special sentence of lifetime supervision. Just being a sex offender is not enough for me to prove my case. I have to also prove that he is on lifetime supervision --

THE COURT: But they said they would stipulate to that as well. 15

MR. COOPER: If they are stipulating to he's on lifetime supervision as well --

THE COURT: Yes. They said they would stipulate to both.

MR. COOPER: Okay. I'm sorry.

THE COURT: At first when we first started talking we were just talking about the one stipulation, 22 but at the conclusion she indicated, correct me if I'm wrong, that he would stipulate to both predicates for the crime and I think in that respect it does seem that that 7 time to review to ensure that the redactions were complete because people are human and mistakes do get 2

3 MR. COOPER: The other issue is that, again, I 4 was just brought this issue right now, is that Marcia 5 Lee, who is his therapist, is expected to testify on 6 Wednesday and my understanding is that individuals that 7 are some type of sex offenders get certain counseling, 8 other type of sex offenders get a different type of 9 counseling. So for her to go into detail about the type 10 of counseling he was receiving and how he was not 11 actually being compliant with that therapy, she is going 12 to have to go into detail about he was doing this kind of 13 counseling and it bodes the question why was he in that 14 kind of counseling versus the other kind of counseling. 15

There are a lot of different issues that get raised. And I like I said, if I would have known about this issue earlier, if there was a motion in limine filed or something like that I would have definitely been able to address these issues, so I am kind of put in a bad situation.

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, if I may address that? THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 MS. HOJJAT: Well, actually Marcia Lee was going 24 to be the second issue that we wanted to address with the is sufficient and we don't need the other details.

MR. COOPER: So he would agree that he is a sex offender and that he is on a sentence of lifetime supervision.

I guess the only issue would be the redacting of documents because I just now received this information. And I would say a majority of my documents do mention the fact that he has an attempt lewdness with a minor.

For example, the Lifetime Supervision Agreement dated from November of '07, the Lifetime Supervision Agreement dated from December of '07, the Lifetime Supervision Agreement, again, dated from I think this is 2012. All of these say "attempt lewdness with a minor" in the very first paragraph.

I would have to actually sit down and redact these documents. I wish I would have known this issue was going to come up before and I could have done that previously. But, obviously, now I need to take time to actually revise these documents to conform with any court order.

THE COURT: Well, I think we would have time to do that in that, you know, if we were to get to openings, I don't know that any of that would be shown to the jury. But we would have to take the time to do that; you could have a staff member do that. We would just need to have

Court. First, as to the State's statement about motions in limine. Motions in limine are issues that can be raised by objection during trial. There is no required 3 motion in limine. So for the State to say that somehow 4 it's our burden to somehow litigate something like this ahead of time --6

THE COURT: No. I think all the State is saying is this is a lot of maneuvering that he's going to have to do to make sure that witnesses are prepared and that documents are accurate so what is not supposed to go to the jury doesn't, and he hasn't had a heads-up. That's all I hear him arguing.

So in fairness, if and when you all knew you were going to have this stipulation and you were going to not have all this stuff in the record, you should have given him a heads-up so he had time to do it, that's all.

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, as to the issue of Marcia Lee, that is actually the second issue we wanted to address. 19

First and foremost, Your Honor, Marcia Lee was not properly noticed as an expert in this case. We 21 received a document saying that she was going to be called to testify. We didn't receive a CV from Marcia 23 Lee. We didn't receive any sort of -- I mean we received 24 summary reports but there is no report from Marcia Lee 10

Just to give an example, in competency court we receive reports saying competent or incompetent and there's a report that backs it up. Here's what was said, here's what was argued, here's what the exchange was, this is why I find this person is incompetent. No such report has been produced from Marcia Lee. No CV was given to us by Marcia Lee. She had not been properly noticed as an expert.

Additionally, the reason for termination, the only thing we received that explains the reason for termination is a document that essentially says that Marcia Lee determined she thinks he is going to re-offend. That's not admissible, Your Honor. That's, again, no bad acts motion was filed and, frankly, it's not even a bad act. It's an anticipated potential future bad act that's why he was terminated from counseling.

And I have that document, the termination summary, if I can approach with a copy for the Court so the Court can see precisely what it is.

THE COURT: You may.

MS. BONAVENTURE: And, Your Honor, if I may, I did bring this up prior to trial with Mr. Cooper at our because that crosses the line into expert testimony.

Certainly if she is just going to get up there and say, I treated him, he was terminated. We are not 3 objecting to her testifying to that. We are objecting to testimony that goes into expert opinion because there was not proper expert notice, CVs weren't prepared, reports weren't prepared. And, frankly, the opinion is about future behavior that hasn't been shown in this case.

I mean, again, I could say that a bad acts motion needs to be filed to bring in testimony that is that prejudicial but it is not even a bad act that is something that occurred. It something that she believes may occur in the future. That's our understanding of why he was terminated from the counseling. And we just don't believe it's appropriate and that no proper motion has been filed for that kind of opinion to be presented to the jury.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I do not anticipate her saying that. When I talked to her in length, she did not say the reason she terminated him was because she thought he was going to be a danger in the future. There was some other reason given to me as to why she terminated him. I will get those out. But obviously I know it would be prejudicial for me to get that he might re-offend in the future. I don't plan on going down that final review and I asked him, I need the CV for Marcia 1 Lee, you have her noticed as an expert. And he said, I'm not calling her as an expert in the sense that she needs 3 to testify to expert opinions. 4

THE COURT: It was not my understanding that he wasn't calling her as an expert. All I heard him say was that he was -- you know, one of the predicates to the violation and the predicate acts, the predicate to Count 1 was that he was terminated from the sex offender counseling and that is one of the underlying for the violation of lifetime supervision. It's one of the and/or's but there's a number of matters.

So, I mean, he's on notice that that's a possibility and this is the witness that would testify that he was in fact terminated. We can certainly figure out what the parameters of that examination would be, but I don't think it's a basis to exclude her as a witness.

MS. HOJJAT: We are not moving to exclude her. THE COURT: Oh, okay.

MS. HOJJAT: We're just -- the reason I brought it up in that light was because Mr. Cooper seemed to be implying that -- at least what I heard was he was talking about tier offender and type of treatment that was going to be received and determinations that were made from the treatment, those are things we will be addressing too

2 And I don't plan on asking her for her expert 3 opinion or anything like that regarding his ability to do anything. I am just going to strictly ask her about what she did in this specific case with this specific defendant and why he was terminated in this specific 7 case. There is not going to be any opinions or anything 8 like that from this witness.

THE COURT: Well, we will have to tread lightly. But this last little piece that you said determining when you talk about, you know, why she terminated because she does say in her own report here, He lacks integration of the treatment concepts such that he is a moderate, at least, risk to re-offend given the opportunity.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, if the Court wants me to admonish her not to say he's a moderate risk to re-offend, that's fine. I can make sure I admonish her. I actually planned on admitting that document, so I can have that redacted out of there as well.

THE COURT: Well, it's a fine line to walk, right. I mean, she terminated him. Why did she terminate him. There's some reference to inability to pay, going back through the file. So I don't know if it was a pay issue. I don't know if it was a -- you normally make the evaluation of somebody likelihood to re-offend when you are completing your process, not 2 that's your reason to cut someone loose. So I'm assuming 3 that the reason that she ended it was because he wasn't 4 coming or he wasn't paying and it wasn't anything to do 5 with this. And this was sort of like now that it's done, 6 here's what I think my thoughts are. I mean that makes 7 sense to me why she would put that there.

So I think depending on when you talk to her what her basis for the termination was but I think you would need to assess that, but I would like her to be admonished that any speculation that she might have had even if it's based on her, again, expertise or her thought process of once she terminated as his therapist what she thought would happen in the future she can't testify to that.

She can only testify as to what caused the separation from the treatment or what caused the termination. Now, if it is anything other than failure to appear or pay, and it goes into things that would go into the facts and the details of her supposition that he's going to re-offend, then we would have to figure out 22 how we do that.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I can tell it is things other than being able to be pay. I don't think it's going to go into his ability to re-offend. It was

THE COURT: If the underlying basis for 2 violation of lifetime supervision in addition to some of 3 these other things that are listed that the officers can testify to. If the doctor is going to testify to being 4 terminated, what is the relevancy of the basis for the termination?

7 MR. COOPER: Your Honor, she is going to say that he was terminated, but then obviously she is going to need to explain why he was terminated. 9

THE COURT: Why? What's the relevance? As long as I can make an analysis for the balance of the relevancy against the substantial prejudice. What was clearly a substantial prejudice here, potential from what

14 you are describing to me she is going to say. 15

MR. COOPER: Well, Your Honor, I guess I was not 16 detailed enough as to what she was going to say. Basically, all she is going to say is he was aggressive

18 in group and he was not complying with what I told him to 19 do. She is not going to go down any road about how he's going to re-offend or anything like that. So, I mean, 20 21 that is basically what she is going to say. He didn't do

22 what I wanted him to do. He said that he wanted to leave 23 so I said, that's fine, you can leave. And that was it.

24 That is basically my questioning for her.

basically his behavior in the program itself. And I can 2 make sure to admonish her not to say that she thinks he is going to re-offend or anything like that. So that should be fine.

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, I think, again, we are getting into -- basically this sheet without the handwritten portion talking about re-offending, we are not objecting to this sheet without that handwritten portion because I think it fairly reflects little or no progress, refused to make payment. That we're not objecting to. We think that that's appropriate testimony.

But once we are starting to get into -- if she is going to start talking about behavioral and my expert opinion, that behavior indicated it wasn't going to be successful, things that are expert opinions, again, she was not noticed as an expert.

MR. COOPER: And I did not say I was to going have an expert opinion, Your Honor. She can say what she observed him do in classes in treatment and she can say that that was either beneficial to the group, that hurt the group. She can say everything like that. I am not 22 asking her, In your expert opinion does that behavior make you think that he is going to re-offend? I don't plan on going down that road whatsoever.

3 MR. COOPER: Exactly, Your Honor. 4 THE COURT: Okay. Did you want to discuss it 5 further?

MS. HOJJAT: If the Court wants us to object 6 7 contemporaneously we can certainly do that. Again, our position is little or no progress in treatment is what we 9 received in the termination find. That is a big 10 difference from aggressive in group. I mean, aggressive, 11 again, it is implying a bad act. It's implying some sort of violent tendencies it sounds like. 12

Our position would be that -- and I agree with 14 the Court's assessment of relevance versus probative nature. Probative nature they need to show that he was terminated. We are not trying to keep them from showing he was terminated. We just think that couldn't make payments and little or no progress in treatment, which is precisely what was checked off on the termination sheet is sufficient to reach that probative value and it would limit the undue prejudice that would otherwise result from things like aggressive to group, which we have not heard before today.

MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, I'm going to need to be able to explain what do you mean by little or no progress in treatment, and she's going to say, Well, he 2 acted like he was entitled. He didn't want to do things, blah, blah, blah. She is not - I mean, these are the violations. It's not like I am going out on a limb right 4 5 6 THE COURT: From counsel's explanation of what 7 the testimony will be I believe that that testimony is 8 valid. It is relevant and it is not outweighed by substantial prejudice. I do still though want Mr. Cooper 9 10 to admonish the witness that anything that would go into her expertise area of her evaluation of him as a 11 12 candidate likely to re-offend or anything in that regard 13 is not permissible. I do believe that going into that 14 analysis, that discussion would be substantially 15 prejudice and would outweigh the relevancy. 16

MR. COOPER: I agree.

22 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor. 23 And we would just ask in line with the Court's 24 ruling that all witnesses be admonished on that because I 25 know POs are often aware of what the counselors say and

1 THE COURT: All right. Keep checking on that if 2 you can.

3 The difficult balance here is that if this 4 gentleman is going to be convicted on these charges it can't be because of any kind of bias or prejudice of him because of what his prior conviction is. And the line 7 that we have to walk here has to be because, again, he 8 fits the elements of these crimes.

And the line that we have to walk here is how much information comes in about the prior such that and we get the predicate but we don't inflame and we don't cause concern.

As I look at this, I don't disagree that the first part of this is handwritten notation could be complimentary or a positive, that he has completed his homework, he passed his history by a polygraph.

But then going into the lacks integration of the treatment concept, you know, again, this is all sort of talking about who he is as this convicted sex offender and those kinds of details of treatment I am worried about crossing that line.

So because there are some things that are positive and there are some things that are negative, out of an abundance of caution if the termination summary needs to come in to show that he was in fact terminated, we would ask that all of State's witnesses be admonished not to talk about anything about risk to re-offend or things like that they might be aware of.

And we would also ask that that document -we're not necessarily objecting to its entry but we would ask that that handwritten portion be redacted.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I would agree, and I will make sure my witnesses are admonished. Obviously, I am not going to backdoor the Court by any means, however, on the document, again, I would agree that maybe the last part of that sentence needs to be redacted, such that he 12 is a moderate at least risk to re-offend, but I think Steven completed his homework -- actually it's beneficial to him -- however it appears he lacks integration or the treatment concept. I think that should be left. The only thing that should be redacted is, "such that he is a moderate at least risk to re-offend given the opportunity."

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, we would ask that the whole paragraph be redacted.

THE COURT: The most difficult balance in this whole case, and I really do appreciate that we have the time to talk about this, but just because it's weighing on my mind, what's the status on the shoes, anything?

MS. BONAVENTURE: No. I haven't heard anything.

it should come in with all of the handwritten portions 2 above the date of intake, date of last session and the amount owed. Anything in that small paragraph that is 4 sort of adjacent to Section B should be redacted. 5

MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you, Your Honor, THE COURT: And, of course, that is just part and parcel of the various redactions that are going to be necessary to remove the reference to charge and to remove 9 anything that would run afoul of the stipulation.

Now, I don't know, Mr. Cooper, that I got it nailed for the record. Do you accept the stipulation to 12 the fact that he is a convicted sex offender and subject 13 to lifetime supervision, and I appreciate the 14 difficulties of the need to redact and admonish the witnesses, but do we think we can accomplish that by 15 16 Wednesday? 17

MR. COOPER: I can redact it and have everything done by Wednesday, yes. Obviously, for the record I would just object. I think my previous recitation of the facts as well as the law about whether or not the JOC is admissible was appropriate and should come in, but obviously I understand the Court's order and I will make sure everything is redacted.

THE COURT: Okay. We will go ahead and note the stipulation for the record that that is how we would what we need to accomplish, Mr. McNeill, is your counsel 2 is doing a lot of talking for you, obviously, when it comes to certain things like whether or not you would 4 intend to testify on your own behalf, which we won't discuss that until it's closer to the time to do that. 5

But for purposes of today, as we are proceeding, we have you through your counsel indicating that you are choosing to do a stipulation to a particular fact, that particular fact being that you are someone who is currently subject to a requirement of lifetime supervision, that you did in fact sign the Lifetime Supervision Agreement back in 2007, and then another one it sounds like in 2012, although I haven't seen the reference to that.

And if you stipulate to those facts then that means that there is not the same requirement on the State to establish all the details to establish those facts to the jury. You would just stipulate and agree to them. But if you do that, you are stipulating to facts that are a component of the crime charged. So it's not the same as stipulating that you are guilty, but it is basically stipulating that you are guilty to a fact which may in turn result in you being found guilty to the charge as a whole.

Do you understand what all that means? Do you

1 inquiry can be with regard to that, although it is still 2 very limited, that it might implicate something that 3 today we've otherwise agreed to try to redact in the 4 record and have not introduced. 5

But in keeping with what we were trying to do, we would probably need to address that in some fashion unless it's already likely that the defendant won't testify. So I think what would happen is I would like to canvass Mr. McNeill at the appropriate time regarding his desire to testify. I typically do that after the State rests, before the defense begins their case. If they are going to have witnesses then maybe later in the case, but before if they are not going to have witnesses, certainly before we bring the jury back.

If something were to occur that he would wish to testify certainly that canvass whether he wishes to or doesn't wish to would include what could be gotten into as far as the prior history. But typically it is what the charge is and not the details and the background, but that there was a charge --

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- or what the conviction was only if there was to be some representation with documentation necessarily be provided.

So, again, I am not sure we are going to cross understand the circumstances of what you are doing?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I can comprehend that.

THE COURT: Okay. Can I just get you to indicate for the record then what it is you are agreeing to for purposes of this hearing; what fact or facts are 5 6 you agreeing to stipulate to.

THE DEFENDANT: I am agreeing I am a sex offender and I am on lifetime supervision.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else that we should canvass or question to complete the record?

MS. HOJJAT: I think the record is -- 11 THE COURT: As long as we heard it from 12 Mr. McNeill directly, which is what we need to achieve, 13 14 and so we have.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, my other issue would just be that if Mr. McNeill did decide to testify the State still would be able to introduce his certified JOC pursuant to statute because it is still within the time period allowed and everything like that. None of the rulings that happened today affect the State's right to go forward with impeachment with the JOC. I just wanted to make sure that we are clear on that point.

THE COURT: I would agree with you in terms of 24 the fact if you look at what the State's rights are with a conviction that's been within ten years and what the that line and have a problem, but I don't know until we get there. And I am assuming at this point there has 3 been some discussion but it is unlikely that Mr. McNeill is going testify. We'll just leave it at that to be 5 determined at a future date.

Anything else that we need to cover -- well, just to summarize, there is a stipulation that has been accepted by counsel and by the Court that Mr. McNeill is a convicted sex offender subject to lifetime supervision, as such, that obviates the need to go into what the actual prior conviction in 2004 was for.

The records that are going to be -- the evidence that is going to be introduced by the State will be 13 redacted to remove reference to the prior charge and the witnesses will be admonished not to go into the details of the prior charge. And further, there was an issue raised with regard to the treatment provider and that there is no CV been provided so that treatment provider will not be qualified or be able to testify as an expert, but will be allowed to testify as a percipient witness to the treatment, the reasons of the termination of the treatment but no details further as to what was the offense or how that would be ranked.

And then as far as the further need to canvass as far as the defendant testifying, we will do that in the normal course and address any issues that might be 2 implicated by that testimony should he give it at that 3 time. 4 Is there anything that we need to cover further? 5 MS. BONAVENTURE: No, Your Honor. 6 MS. HOJJAT: I do not think there is anything 7 further, Your Honor. Just the defense's objection based 8 on the shoes. 9 MS. BONAVENTURE: And I have Mr. Gutierrez right 10 now going down to the murder team who has a closet full 11 of stuff and they are checking right now to see if they 12 have size 14 shoes. And we do have pretty big guys on 13 the homicide team, 14 THE COURT: Okay. Officer, what is the rule 15 with regard to the socks; do we have to keep those on? 16 UNIDENTIFIED OFFICER: No. If they don't have 17 socks we will provide socks for them, but we didn't have 18 socks or shoes for him over at the jail. 19 THE COURT: All right. I was just curious.

I will give it a little bit longer, but in all 21 honesty, it would be my intention if we cannot locate 22 shoes within the next 10 or 15 minutes that we would remove the socks and allow him to proceed with the sandals. Again, I look at those and I don't necessarily

6 know when the shoes get here. 7

MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor. MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you, Your Honor.

(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)

THE COURT: All right. I guess we are ready to bring the jury in.

(Jury enters the courtroom.)

13 THE COURT: Welcome to Department 25 of the 14 Eighth Judicial District Court. My name is Kathleen 15 Delaney. I am the district court judge who will be 16 presiding over the trial. You have been sent to 17 Department 25 as potential jurors for the case of the 18 State of Nevada versus Steve Dell McNeill, and the record

19 will reflect the presence of counsel for the State,

20 counsel for the defense and the defendant.

In a moment we will give you a little bit more 22 information with regard to the case specifically, but I will do some introductions right now because we need to first and foremost find out if there are any of you here

25 today that are familiar with any of us, and whether or perceive those to be anything that would be indicative of 2 - plus the way he is seated with his feet adjacent to 3 the desk and where the jury panel is going to be, he 4 might stand up briefly to be introduced, but other than

5 that -- oh, do we have shoes? 6 MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes, size 13's are on the way,

7 Judge, 8 THE COURT: We'll make them work. All right. 9 Good to know.

I looked through the list and I did not 11 recognize any names on the potential panel. We did bring 12 forward a slightly additional number of people just necessarily I would think be canvassing folks on, you 15 know, well, I take that back, we might have to go into

13 because, again, even though we're not going to 14

16 and I typically would with any kind of sex offense, I

17 would typically when I do the part of the questioning

18 about whether or not you have had any prior involvement

19 with the legal criminal justice system and we talk about victim of crime or accused of crime, I will typically in 20 21 any case that involves a sex offense further inquire

22 specifically about whether there has been any sex abuse 23 or sex history. So I will be doing that.

24 And, again, just a fine line to walk in terms of 25 depending on what panel we get is how much detail to go not that will interfere with your ability to serve as 2 fair and impartial jurors.

3 We will also get into some discussion and details about the length of this trial and whether or not there is any conflicts of your ability to serve.

6 I can always tell when I see folks coming in, especially on a Monday afternoon, oftentimes they would rather be anywhere but here. But I'm sure you can 8

9 appreciate that if you feel that way, certainly parties 10 to the case who have endeavored to be prepared, but 11 obviously this matter has been unable to be resolved in 12 any other way, that we need to have that fair and

13 impartial jury that will be attentive to the details of 14

the case here and do their duty as jurors. 15

So we just really appreciate your service in advance, and we also want to be sure that you are going to be honest and candid in all of your responses to our questions.

But I do have one piece of business before we get started and that is that I will ask each of you to stand and pay attention to my court clerk here. Raise your right hand and she will swear you in as possible jurors.

THE CLERK: You do solemnly swear that you will well and truly answer such questions that may be put to

(Potential jurors answer affirmatively.)

THE COURT: Thank you. Noting that everyone appears to have taken the oath and not objected to the oath. At this time, I will take a moment to introduce you to the remainder of my staff, then I am going to ask the counsel for the State to introduce themselves and to give a brief a synopsis of the case as well as what witnesses he intends to call.

And then I am going to turn it to counsel for the defendant and find out what witnesses they intend to call and that way we can take a question to each of you as to whether or not you are familiar with any of us.

What will happen is any question that is posed 16 to you either by the Court or by counsel if you have an answer to give to the question, raise your hand and then you will be called on by me to give your answer. And I usually call on the folks in the order in which you were seated. And of course the order in which you were seated is the order in which you came into the courtroom starting in the far back row further left, and then all the way down to the front and then with the remaining panel there.

I should also just give a little bit of something extraordinary happens you can be pretty sure 2 that you are not going to be called forward, but we never know. If you are in the front of this secondary panel, 3 it is very possible that you may be filling one of the seats, but we never know. But I like to give folks sort of the understanding of why you are seated where you are 7 and what's going on.

So let me introduce the rest of my staff present 8 in the courtroom. I've got my marshal, who just stepped 9 out of the courtroom, Jonathan Crenshaw. You have 10 already seen him as he has escorted you into the courtroom. I have a court clerk, Kristen Brown. I have 12 a court reporter, Brenda Schroeder. Behind the scenes I 13 have a judicial executive assistant, Cindy Springberg. I 14 have a law clerk Jamie Combs. And I have an extern for the summer who's name is Eli Trodatt. That's my staff. 16

I am going to now turn it over to Mr. Cooper to ask you to introduce yourself and any potential witnesses for the State, and then we will hear from the defense.

MR, COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor.

Greetings, ladies and gentlemen. My name is 22 Jonathan Cooper and I am a deputy district attorney with the Clark County District Attorney's Office. The 23 defendant in this case is charged with violation of 25 lifetime supervision by a convicted sex offender and one background so you understand what's going to happen today. A lot of times there is the question of why is there a certain number of people to my right in the jury

4 box, and why are there a certain number of people seated behind counsel table. And here's the reason for that, 5

6 We utilize the selection method that hopefully will expedite things and make things go a little bit quicker 7 and that is we ultimately need for this trial to qualify 8 9 24 people.

Ultimately, 14 of those will serve; 12 as jurors to deliberate and two alternates. So 14 of course will be geared throughout the course of the trial, but the 12 will deliberate. And if there is a need to call on an alternate then we can do so.

So we have to qualify 24 people because ultimately each side has the opportunity to preempt five 16 people to serve and allow for the final 14 to be decided. 17 So essentially if you are in the first 24 seats to my 18 right, unless some reason comes up that you cannot serve, you will be in that qualified panel. If some reason comes up that you cannot serve and you are excused then we fill those empty seats with the group to my left 22 behind counsel table staring with the first row, first seat and then on down through the remaining of the panel.

So if you are in the back of the panel, unless count of prohibited acts by a sex offender.

2 These violations and prohibitive acts were said to have occurred between December 2012 and March 2014. 3 In my case-in-chief I plan on calling three witnesses;

Probation and Parole Officer Ashley Mangan, Probation and Parole Sergeant Brian Zana, and licensed therapy Marcia 6 7 Lee. Thank you.

It Wednesday, midmorning, about 10:30 for opening statements 11 12 should be okay but ... 12 and presentation of evidence. 13 THE COURT: I would not anticipate this trial We do anticipate absent some unique 13 14 going that long. Now if you were to travel on Monday, circumstances that even with a lunch recess on Wednesday 14 15 when would you be returning? that we would be able to at least deliver the case to you 15 16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 679: Monday, and we're for deliberations on Wednesday. Now, whether or not that 16 17 coming back this Saturday. is late enough in the day that you would elect to come 17 18 THE COURT: I do not -- the difficulty with this back another day to deliberate or to further deliberate 18 19 is if we finish on Wednesday in terms of deliberating -that day. But it is our belief that we can complete this 20 if we finish on time to deliver the evidence to you and trial within that two day time frame. 20 21 you are able to start your deliberations, then it is up 21 Is that still true for counsel? 22 to you whether you continue through on Wednesday to MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. 22 THE COURT: All right. So it is essentially two 23 deliberate and reach a verdict, or you need to come back. 23 24 If you need to come back, you would probably come back on days of your time, with the second day being Wednesday 24 Thursday. The Court would not be available on Thursday, 25 approximately 10:30 in the morning. So unlike some 25 40 42

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 531: Thank you. THE COURT: All right. Seat 6, then, next juror in line. THE CLERK: Juror No. 001, Brian Lagomarsino. THE COURT: Now, for the remainder of the time we are going to inquire of the panel, we are going to mainly focus our attention to the group here in the first 24 seats. The folks over there, pay attention because if you are called forward you may be asked some of the similar questions. But for now we are going to try to get to know

12 these folks a little bit better and find out in fact if there are any conflicts that you may have that would require you to be excused from this trial, based on the subject matter of the trial, the circumstances of the trial, we are going to figure that out now. I do not anticipate that, but we have some questions we need to ask.

So we are going to focus our attention on these 24 folks here. But, again, I do ask you to pay attention just in the event that you might be called forward. Once we have fully qualified the 24 folks, then the remainder of you will be excused. But until then you are still part of our potential panel.

The first thing then that I guess I would like restored, but typically a convicted felon would lose the 2 right to vote. Do you vote? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 531: No, I haven't. THE COURT: Is that by choice? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 531: That's by choice. THE COURT: All right. Well, we need to work on that. Honestly, it is impossible for me to speak to what your ability to serve is based on the fact that this was 10 in Ohio and I don't know if you would have needed to do anything specific or if that would have come naturally with the paperwork upon your discharge from your probation.

You were not honorably discharged because you had to serve a term of incarceration. Do you remember what the paperwork was when you finished up?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 531: Yeah, basically, I was on probation. And after I did the six months and I got out free and clear. Honestly, I really don't know.

THE COURT: Well, that's good to know. Just out of an abundance of caution, I am going to go ahead and 21 22 excuse you because I really don't know and I would hate for you to serve and there be any questions with regard 24 to those circumstances. So start voting, we will wish you well and you are excused.

to remind you is that you did just take an oath, and to be honest in your answers to all of our questions. It is never our intention to pry into your personal lives or in circumstances that would be uncomfortable for you, but we do by nature of ensuring justice be done and be fair to both sides of the case, the State and the defense, that 10 or not impartial that would be a problem for our case. 11

So I just want to remind you again that you did 12 take an oath. As we commence this process, there may be 13 some times that I refer to notes just to be sure I haven't missed anything and that we are covering 15 everything that we need to cover. 16

We have already talked about the length of this 17 trial. We know that you are not likely to have hardships with what we anticipate to be the time of the trial. I do want to remind everybody about something that is very, very basic in our criminal justice system and make sure that I have your responses to that,

This is, again, a criminal trial. That means 23 that you as the members of the jury are sitting collectively as the judges of the questions of facts in the case. And as the judge in this case I am the one who any of the parties in the case, but just to confirm, is 1 there anyone in the panel who is in anyway familiar with 2 3 the facts or the circumstances of this case? All right, 3 4 Seeing none. 4 5 What I would like to do at this time then is I 5 would like to ask individually, one by one, and you can 6 6 7 remain seated if you can speak up a little bit and if not 7 8 we may ask you to stand. 9 You will see a set of questions on the board, 10 hopefully you can see them, and if not I can certainly assist you by reading the questions to you. But we would 11 11 12 like to get to know you a little bit better, who you are, 12 13 what job you currently have or if you were recently 13 Sir. 14 retired or unemployed, what job or jobs you have had 14 15 recently. A spouse or domestic partner and what is their 15 16 occupation. If you have any children old enough to work 16 17 what is their occupation and for whom. 17 18 This whole idea here is to identify here whether 18 19 there are inadvertently perhaps some connections to the 19 20 facts and circumstances of the case. 20 21 And also how long have you lived here. If it 21 has been less than five years we would like to know where 22 22 23 you have lived previously. And we would also like to 23 24 know whether you have had jury service before, what type 24 25 and whether a verdict was reached, not what it was, and 25 55 whether or not you were the foreperson. 1 1 2 Let me start with the juror in the Number 1 2 3 position. Can you go ahead and answer the remaining 21 questions. 22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 008: My wife's name is 23 Lonnie Argyle. She is a pharmacy technician at UMC. No

THE COURT: And what does she do? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 060: She is a housewife. I have a daughter and she is not working. She is a student at Berkley University. I have been in Las Vegas since 1990. I have been a juror before. 6 THE COURT: Do you remember if it was a civil or 7 a criminal case? 8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 060: Criminal. 9 THE COURT: And did you actually start any part 10 of the jury trial process? 11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 060: No. I was kicked 12 out of the jury. 13 THE COURT: So you were not actually selected? 14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 060; No. 15 THE COURT: I see. That question is geared more 16 towards people who were in fact selected and maybe there 17 was a deliberation process and whether or not they were 18 the foreperson. But I am happy to know that you were 19 called but you were not actually selected; is that 20 correct? 21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 060: Yes. 22 THE COURT: Thank you. 23 24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Gianni Cardoza. 25 My number is 166. (Jurors exit the courtroom.)

THE COURT: The woman in the back, it's up to you guys whether or not you want to ask her any questions. She was pretty adamant that she was not going anywhere in her drawing her line in the sand. I did not 20 want to just let her go because I didn't want to open the door for others, but I would suggest that we could either 21 -- my inclination is that we do all the questioning and 22 then get to the point where we'll discuss privately that 23 way you don't have to do it in front of the panel if you 24 have somebody for cause.

The discussion about whether we are going to excuse anybody for cause will take place out of the presence of the jurors either up at the bench or in the hallway. If it is really just that one that remains then so be it.

But what will happen, Mr. Cooper, when you finish you don't have to say I pass the panel. You can just say I have completed my questions. And then you can undertake your questions. And then we will deal with whatever cause issues there might be.

If you really feel strongly about one and you don't want to inquire further because you think you have gotten to the point where there is really no going back and no rehabilitation, you can ask to approach and we can discuss that potential juror then. But typically I would rather complete it. Let you complete, and then we will talk and have our cause discussion about who is going to go and who is going to stay. I don't know if you want to inquire of that individual, you are welcome to. I just know that she was pretty adamant.

MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, I might have missed this for the preemptory challenges. Is it four and then one for the alternate?

THE COURT: No, five. The alternates will be 24 the last two seated. 25 prevented us from having trial tomorrow has now been -- I don't know how to describe it -- something has occurred 2 unexpectedly that will now free up that time for us 3 tomorrow. 4

And what the Court intends to do is do what it 5 would have liked to have done from the beginning, which 6 is run the trial dates consecutive and get the trial finished for certain by Wednesday so we did not have any 8 concern or question about the time frame. 9

When I mentioned and we talked about the hardships and not having trial tomorrow, is there anybody that would have a problem with having trial tomorrow?

Seeing no hands that is good to know. It is 13 likely, however, from what we know about the witnesses' 14 availability because with that issue we also had to determine who was available. We still will be present 16 for the remainder of trial on Wednesday but it is quite 17 certain that we will be able to deliver the evidence to 18 you and allow you to begin your deliberations sometime 19 midafternoon on Wednesday. 20

And, of course, depending on your time frame for deliberation, that you would be able to complete on Wednesday. So it does not mean that we don't come on Wednesday it just means that we will absolutely be certain we will complete on Wednesday. So I just wanted

MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor. MS. HOJJAT: But we can exercise all five on whoever?

THE COURT: Absolutely.

MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.

The State just handed over some monthly reports. We already had these monthly reports in evidence. Some of them need to be redacted. The State just handed over their proposed redactions. We are going to make a copy of this. We might have some proposed additional redactions. We are going to work with the State to see if we can reach redactions that everybody is comfortable with, if not, we may need to address it with the Court.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. HOJJAT: But at this point it looks like hopefully we can reach a state that everybody is happy with and we can just go forward tomorrow morning.

THE COURT: Okay. Sounds good.

(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)

THE COURT: So something has come up that I just want to bring to the panel's attention and see if anybody would have an issue. When you came in here today and we talked about the time frame for the trial, the two days, that has only changed slightly and here's what the change is. The Court's obligation that it had that would have to clarify that. Does anybody have a question or concern about that? All right. Thank you very much. 2 3

96

I will invite Mr. Cooper at this time to inquire of the panel.

MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor.

Ladies and gentlemen, the process of jury selection is a little bit of a unique process. It allows the attorneys both for the prosecution and the defense to ask you guys questions in order to ascertain if you guys are the best suited jurors for this case in particular. And everyone is suited to sit on different types of 12 cases.

For example, if there was a law suit over the producers of the game of Drone, or something like that, because I love that show, I wouldn't be able to sit on that jury. I would be bias. And that is because of our life experiences, our opinions, everything of that nature.

So there are no right or wrong answers to any of my questions. There is only your answers. And with that said. I know we all remember back in middle school, I know Ms. Schultz does, when the teacher picked on us in front of the whole class and made us answer a question and it's kind of a nerve-wracking experience. I am going to ask a couple of questions that will be a little less you are in fact on the panel, will instruct you on how to do that. Some of those instructions will cover what is the charge and what are the elements of the charge and what is the State's burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt those elements of those charges. That's what the instructions are. That's all we are talking about when we say "follow the law." This isn't hypothetical out in somewhere land where something is going to be offensive to your dignity or anything like that. This is very specific to this case and what has been alleged in this case and what the burden is by the State to prove this beyond a reasonable doubt to the charges in this case.

And ultimately we will also have instructions that will help you understand what the defendant's rights are and how to carry out your job. So with that clarification, is there any reason that you believe that you would not be able to apply the law as I give it you if you are empaneled?

THE COURT: You may.

(Discussion held at the bench.)

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I am going to sustain the objection and take a different tactic to see if maybe we can make it a little clearer to the potential jurors what we are talking about here when we say follow the law, what the jury instructions will actually entail. And your duty as jurors to follow those instructions.

Go ahead.

MR. COOPER: So if there were a law given to you, you said if you disagree with your morals you wouldn't be able to follow it.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Right. MR. COOPER: Okay. I guess do you have an example where that could happen?

THE COURT: Actually, I am going to interrupt on that because I want to try to clarify here. There aren't going to be any instructions that I can imagine would offend yours or any other person's morals. The instructions are exactly these, how you as jurors carry out your duties. You need to understand what you are supposed to do.

The instructions that will be read to you, if Does your opinion still remain the same based on the Judge's recitation?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 008: Which question? 3 MR. COOPER: On whether or not you would be able 4 to follow the law and instructions? 5

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 032: Yes.

MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor. I am done with my questioning.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Ms. Bonaventure. 12

MS. BONAVENTURE: Thank you. 13

So we have all heard from Ms. Alarcon. We know she has a very strong opinion at this point in time. She did say that she cannot be impartial. She says right now if she was asked whether or not he was guilty she would say he was guilty.

Who else here shares that opinion? Anybody else share that opinion? Okay. Well, we have something that is very important. It's called the presumption of innocence. At this point in time, as Mr. McNeill sits there by every law in this land, by the Constitution of the United States he is considered innocent.

In fact, you heard Judge Delaney when you sat proof was in that case? down after she read you your oath that he is considered 1 2 innocent at this point by all accounts. 2 Does anybody have any concerns or issues with 3 3 4 that at this point? 4 5 Your badge? 5 6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 976. 6 7 MS. BONAVENTURE: Ms. Ash, you said that you 7 8 would not be impartial because you read a lot of criminal 8 9 9 novels. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 976: True crime novels. 10 10 I just think by the time something gets to court they've 11 11 got enough evidence to declare the person guilty. I am 12 12 13 just old and I am set in my ways. I'm sorry. 13 MS. BONAVENTURE: That's fine. I am, too, also 14 an avid reader of crime novels. Obviously, my profession 15 15 in and of itself contradicts what you are saying. I have 16 16 read many crime novels, would you agree it cuts the other 17 17 18 way, too, that somebody has been wrongly accused? 18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 976: I don't know. For 19 19 20 the last 20 years it just seems like everybody bargains 20 21 unless they have the dead nuts on it. 21 MS. BONAVENTURE: I'm sorry. The what on it? 22 22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 976: Just the stone cold 23 23 Amendment is. 24 facts to, you know. 24 25 MS. BONAVENTURE: So you thought -- I don't want 25 111 to put words in your mouth. 1 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 976: No. It's just that 2 3 the District Attorney's Office is not going to spend 3 4

A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't. It was almost 20 years ago. All I remember the thing that actually happened. We were there for five minutes. MS. BONAVENTURE: Yes. I'm sorry about that. I am sure you put a lot of time and consideration to everything that was presented before you. The burden at trial in a civil case is much different than the burden at a criminal trial, as I am sure you can appreciate. The burden is much higher. In fact, the State, Mr. Cooper, has to prove every element of every charge that he puts before you. In fact, I and my co-counsel, Ms. Hojjat, can 14 sit there and twittle our thumbs the entire time and not say one word and it would still be the State's responsibility to prove to you every element of the charge. We have absolutely no burden in this courtroom to prove anything. We do not have to prove that Mr. McNeill is innocent, which leads me to his right not to testify. Does anybody know -- well, you all said you watched NCIS and CSI. Who heard of the Fifth Amendment? Okay. Ms. Schultz, can you tell me what the Fifth PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 958: You have the right 113 their time on a case that they are not probably 4 99 percent sure it is going to be in his favor. 5 MS. BONAVENTURE: Okay. Well, speaking as a 6 person who has gotten not guilty in courtrooms, I have to 7 respectfully disagree with you. But I absolutely respect 8 9 your opinion. Does anybody else share that opinion? No. 10

Everybody here understands the presumption of innocence? Great. So we all understand that is a pretty important concept here. Another concept that is really important here is it's the State that has the burden to prove Mr. McNeill is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Somebody here said they sat on a civil jury. Can you raise your hand.

Did it not come to resolution?

A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They settled. In fact we had just got in the jury room and we had not been there more than five minutes and they came in and interrupted us and said that they had settled.

MS. BONAVENTURE: Okay. That's a lot of time to 24 invest in something. Do you remember what the burden of 25 112 not to incriminate yourself.

MS. BONAVENTURE: And do you believe that that right extends to trial?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 958: Absolutely. MS. BONAVENTURE: Absolutely true. He has the 5 right not to incriminate himself. He does not have to take that stand. But there is a lot of reasons why 7 people decide not to take the stand. Can you think of 8 9 one?

Sir, what's your badge number?

A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 909.

MS. BONAVENTURE: Can you think of any reason 12

why Mr. McNeill wouldn't take the stand? 13 14

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 909: No. It's up to him whether he wants to take the stand or not.

MS. BONAVENTURE: Do you agree that maybe he would be afraid to take the stand?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 909: No. Like you said, there are certain reasons why he might not want to take the stand. 20

MS, BONAVENTURE: He may be shy --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 909: Or whatever. He can 22 refuse. That's his business. 23

MS. BONAVENTURE: Right. As a matter of fact I might even tell him not to take the stand. As his

any way. So I just want to be sure that you would 2 understand that that is the instruction and that you 3 would be able to follow it. 4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: Yes. 5 THE COURT: Ms. Taylor, same question to you. 6 Would you understand that instruction and would you be 7 able to follow that instruction if you were to be on the 8 panel and deliberate? 9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: (No audible 10 11 response.) THE COURT: Regardless of what it is that you 12 might like to see and regardless of whether or not you 13 can perhaps in your mind think of hypothetical reasons 14 why someone would not testify, would you be able to 15 recognize that this is a constitutional right. There are 16 a myriad of reasons why that might be exercised and that 17 ultimately that cannot be used as a basis for your 18 deliberations. Would you be able to respect that and be 19 able to follow that? 20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: I think I would have 21 a hard time with it. 22 THE COURT: I don't typically like to ask these 23 24 kind of open-ended questions because of course everybody has their own views and I don't necessarily want to 25 131

But there is no requirement on the defense to prove innocence. In fact innocence is already in place, right, 2 So I only give that additional information and 3 in no way, shape or form am I trying to put you on the 4 spot. I a just want your candid reason for why this would be difficult for you to help me better understand 6 the thought process. 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: I have always had a 8 hard time with -- my life has always been very black and 9 white. Very little grey in between. And so I just don't 10 understand why somebody would not want to speak up for 11 12 themselves. THE COURT: Maybe they do, but for many reasons 13 they don't. Can you shift your black and white focus 14 over to the idea that the State proved beyond a 15 reasonable doubt the elements that lead to a finding of 16 guilt on the charges or they do not and that be your 17 focus and not be your focus on what you need or expect to 18 hear from the defense. 19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: I can try. I can 20 21 give it a good try. THE COURT: I appreciate your candor. 22 I will invite counsel now to make your further 23 inquiries and then give the State an opportunity to 24 follow up to any of those questions. 25 influence anybody else's views, but I guess, I am a little surprised by your answer. I'm going to be candid 2 with you. Just because of the other answers you had 3 given indicate to me that overall you appear to be able 4 to be a fair and impartial juror, and it would seem 5 strange to me that that issue would be something that 6 might mean that you could not be fair and impartial. 7 What I am really ultimately asking you is can 8 you be fair and impartial. And part of that goes along 9 with this idea of whether you understand why or not, 10 there is the basic issue the State has to prove beyond a 11 reasonable doubt. The defense doesn't have to do a 12 single thing. They don't have to put on a single 13 witness. They don't have to do anything. 14 If the State proves its burden and you find so, 15 so be it, and if they don't and you find so, so be it. 16 But the defense does not have to do a thing. And when 17 folks begin to maybe go back to what they have seen on TV 18 or read in books believe that somehow that this is a 19 civil case, if you will, why one side has to prove 20 something and the other side has to defend something and 21 prove guilt, prove innocence, that's not how this works 22 at all. Period. End of story. 23 The State has to prove guilt. If they don't 24 meet their burden, then they don't meet their burden. 25

MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor. Just to 1 follow-up on questions to the State's? 2 THE COURT: Yes. And Mr. Cooper has the 3 opportunity to follow up. MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor. 5 Mr. Morales, the Judge just read directly the 6 instruction you will be given at the end of the case. 7 When you said, Well, when you put it like that, then, 8 9 yes. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: Yes. 10 MS. HOJJAT: But what you said earlier was, The 11 way I was raised, kind of my whole life the way I thought 12 if you don't have anything to hide why don't you tell 13 your side. And you also said if he doesn't take the 14 stand he has something to hide. 15 Now, obviously, you will be given the 16 instruction that you should not think those things while 17 you are deliberating. But it sounds like something that 18 you felt strongly about your whole life. This is not 19 something that you just walked into the courtroom today 20 and thought, You know what, if that guy doesn't take the 21 stand, I think he's got something to hide. You have 22 always felt you don't have anything to hide you have to 23 tell your side of the story? 24

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: Right.

MS. HOJJAT: And that has been ingrained in you for years and years. 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: Since I was a little 3 4 him? 4 kid. 5 MS. HOJJAT: So let me ask you, if you are 5 6 selected for jury service and Mr. McNeill chooses not to 6 7 testify, do you think you could put aside the way you 7 8 felt your whole life about this idea and not hold it 8 9 against him at all if he doesn't testify? 9 10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: Um --10 11 MS. HOJJAT: There is no wrong answer. We just 11 12 12 want the truth. 13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: You are making a lot 13 14 of sense. I think I should not think about the way I 14 used to think, the way I was raised. Even though in the 15 15 past my dad was the one, you know, if it was black, even 16 16 17 if it's yellow, it's black. That is the way he thinks. 17 18 MS. HOJJAT: You think you could do that? 18 19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: Yes. 19 MS. BONAVENTURE: So you do not think you will 20 20 21 have a problem if he does not testify? 21 22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 907: No. 22 23 behalf. MS. HOJJAT: Thank you. 23 24 And, Ms. Taylor, I guess even in speaking with 24 asking me to go against, and I think you were going to 25 the judge, it sounds like this is something you feel 25 135 say, I don't want to put words in your mouth, but strongly about as well? 1 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: Yes. 2 MS. HOJJAT: And it sounds like this is not 3 3 4 your deliberations. Do you think you can follow that instruction or do you think, If I get back there I am going to be thinking about it and I might hold it against PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: Like I can try. That's all I can say. I don't know what the circumstances are. MS. HOJJAT: Well, you do know what is ahead of you. But what I am asking is the one thing I am asking if you knew he is not going to testify, if you knew he is not going to testify do you think you could tell us -let me rephrase the question. If you were sitting in Mr. McNeill's seat, you were the one on trial and there was a potential that you weren't going to be testifying and there was a juror sitting in the panel who felt the way you felt, who was saying, You know what, I'm going to try, but I can't be sure that I wouldn't hold it against him if she didn't testify, would you want that juror sitting on your jury? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: I can't answer that because you are asking me to try to go against - I don't understand why somebody won't testify on their own MS. HOJJAT: Okay. You just said, You are something that you just came up with today. You have 4 always felt this way? 5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: That is how I was 6 raised. You stood up for yourself and that's how I have 7 8 always been. MS. HOJJAT: And in fact we actually talked a 9 little bit to some of the jurors why somebody would chose 10 not to testify and you heard those reasons? 11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933; Yes. 12 MS. HOJJAT: But you still, you know, just in 13 the back of my mind it's going to be why isn't he 14 testifying, he must have done something wrong if he is 15 16 not testifying. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: I do not understand 17 why somebody would not want to stand up for themselves. I was raised you stand up for yourself and that's how it 19 20 has always been. MS. HOJJAT: Okay. You heard the jury 21 22 instruction word for word, the instruction that you will be given if you are chosen for the jury, the instruction says that you cannot hold it against Mr. McNeill at all if he doesn't testify. That it cannot even enter into basically go against what you thought for a very long PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: Yes, exactly. So what are you asking me? MS. HOJJAT: I am asking you not to hold it against him. Can you do that? 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: That's how I have been raised. It was pounded in my head for years and years and years as a child. 10 MS, HOJJAT: So just sitting there you can't say 11 for sure I won't hold it against him? 12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 933: No, I can't. 13 MS, HOJJAT: I appreciate your honesty. 14 Now, ladies and gentlemen, you were told that 15 the charges here are violation of lifetime supervision by 16 a sex offender. That means Mr. McNeill is a convicted 17 sex offender who is on lifetime supervision. 18 The judge instructed you that you are to presume 19 him innocent. The presumption of innocence is going to 20 go whether or not he violated lifetime supervision not to whether or not he is a sex offender. You are going to hear in this trial that Mr. McNeill is a convicted sex offender. Is there anybody here who thinks, You know what, 138

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: I would only look at that charge.

MS. HOJJAT: Does anybody here feel differently? Seeing no hands.

I have no more questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We'll qualify the panel and that allows me to excuse the remainder of the panel. But we have qualified the 24 that we need to qualify to ultimately wind up with a panel of 14. I am going to 20 allow the attorneys now to complete their final selection 21 process. The remainder of you are excused. I do believe to visit the scene of any acts or occurrences made mention of during the trial unless specifically directed to by me and you are not to investigate this case or anyone who has anything to do with this case on your own or undertake any legal or factual research on your own.

Those are the very, very basic general instructions. Basically, what will happen is obviously each day when you return here tomorrow at 1:00 -- but you never know who might be in the hallway, it might be a witness, we just don't want anybody to misunderstand if we happen to see you if you run into us somewhere and say, Nice day or Hello or wave and somebody from across 18 the hallway sees that and doesn't understand that that is not a conversation about the case. We just try to avoid improper appearances.

So you can converse with and speak to the marshal, but otherwise the rest of us will not converse with you. The safest people to talk to are the ones wearing the jury badges just like you because they are

So what is going to happen now is counsel is going to make their final selection, and unlike in previous times when I read off names and numbers that meant that you are excused then you know that you are on the panel. The final selection will leave us with a panel of 14 individuals, 12 of who will deliberate and two of whom will be alternates throughout the course of the trial. You will not know obviously which of you are the alternates.

I am going to read some basic instructions to sort of orient you for how the process will continue for those of you who are able to and will in fact remain on the panel. And for those of you who are not selected, we just want to thank you again. It's been a long afternoon and we appreciate your service very much.

I should also note for those who are going to be returning tomorrow that we are going to start tomorrow at 1:00 p.m., so you will have the morning free and maybe you can get some work in, and we do expect to break at or around 5:00. Typically we don't go past 5:00. Today, of course, I wanted to make sure we had the full panel before I let the remainder go. So that is for your schedule tomorrow.

During the course of this trial, the attorneys 24 for both sides, the parties, the witnesses and court 25 under the same admonishment.

You are not to discuss this case with anyone, not to do any research to try to understand the case better. Whatever your verdict is will be based on the evidence that is provided in this trial as you find it to be, and the law as I give it to you in the instructions at the end of this case. And then you will deliberate from that and that alone.

Again, this is a criminal case brought by the State of Nevada, oftentimes referred to as the State. And it is based upon what will be the information or a charging document. That will be read to you tomorrow before we begin opening statements, and you will have a specific understanding of what the charges are that have been filed against Mr. McNeill.

You need to be reminded, however, and I have already gone over this a little bit in the questioning of the jury panel, but that this charging document is simply that. It is simply a charge. It is not in any sense evidence of the allegations it contains. The defendant has pleaded not guilty to these two charges that are set forth in the information that you will hear tomorrow.

The State, therefore, has the burden of proving each of the essential elements of the charges beyond a reasonable doubt. As the defendant sits there now he is innocent. And unless and until he is proven guilty by the State he will remain so.

The purpose of this trial is to determine whether the State will meet the burden. It is your primary responsibilities as jurors to find and determine the facts.

Under our system of criminal procedure you are the sole judges of the facts. You are to determine the facts from the testimony you hear and the other evidence including exhibits introduced in court. Anything you hear or see outside of courtroom is not evidence and may not be considered by you.

It is up to you to determine the inferences which you feel may be properly drawn from the evidence. At times I may sustain objections or direct that you disregard certain testimony or exhibits. You must not consider any evidence to which an objection has been sustained or which I have instructed you to disregard.

Anything that you may, again, have seen or heard outside of the courtroom is not evidence and must be disregarded. You must also not be influenced in any degree by any personal feelings or sympathy or prejudice against the State or the defendant. Both sides are entitled to the same fair and impartial consideration. When considering the weight and value of the testimony of verbally by you engaging with the witness. What will happen is once the witness questioning has commenced and completed then I will invite jurors if they have questions to write a question down. You will all be given notepads and pens, and you will write your question or questions down. 6

I will then go over the questions with counsel and if they are permitted to be asked, they are proper questions and done in the proper format, then we will ask it of the witness. The Court will read the questions verbatim to the witness. The witness will answer and counsel will be given an opportunity to follow-up.

There is no right or wrong way to do it, it's just that you are governed by the same rules that counsel are governed by. So obviously you can't ask something that would be impermissible to be asked, and you may or may not know what that is, but the Court will make that determination.

And your questions of course should be based on what evidence and questioning has already taken place, things for clarification or further questioning on certain topics that have been asked. But anything that is outside of the scope of what has been asked is also not available to you. And there may be other restrictions. But you do not have to worry about that.

any witness you may take into consideration the appearance, attitude and behavior of the witness, the interest of the witness in the outcome of the case, if 3 any, the relation of the witness to the defendant or the State, the inclination of the witness to speak truthfully 5 or not, and the probability or improbability of the witness's statement and all of the facts and 7 circumstances in evidence, thus, you may give the 8 testimony of any witness just such weight and value you believe the testimony of the witness is entitled to 10 receive. 11

There are two kinds of evidence; direct and circumstantial. Direct evidence is testimony by a witness about what that witness personally saw or heard or did. Circumstantial evidence is testimony or exhibits which are proof of a particular fact from which if proven you may infer a second fact.

You may consider both direct and circumstantial evidence in deciding the case. The law permits you to give equal weight to both. But it is of course for you to decide how much weight to give to any of the evidence.

This is something new that most jurors are not familiar with if they haven't served recently, but you are given the opportunity to yourself ask questions of the witnesses when they testify. This is not done

If you have a question please do not hesitate to write it down during the course of the testimony because, again, at the end I will ask for questions and you will show me by way of hand if you have a question and my marshall will collect it and bring it to me and then we will 6 proceed. 7

Remember that the questions must be factual in nature and are designed to clarify information already presented. Of course you may not place any undue weight on a response just because a juror asked it and you should not have any adverse inference drawn if the Court determines not to ask a question. Do not speculate as to why that may be the case; there could be any number of 14 reasons.

Opening statements and closing arguments of the 15 attorneys are intended to help you in understanding the 16 evidence and applying the law, but they are not 17 themselves evidence. Until this case is submitted to 18 you, again, you must not discuss it with anyone even your 19 fellow jurors. You cannot discuss it with anyone 20 outside, I think everyone knows that, and anyone else 21 means family members and friends. You can of course let 22 them know that you are on a criminal trial jury but that 23 is it until the case is done and you are discharged, at 24 which point you can discuss it with anyone in any way you 166

If for any reason you cannot hear a witness or you have any other reason to get the Court's attention during the course of while we are in trial, please raise your hand. I will acknowledge you and you can make a written note or you can give a note or speak to the marshal on a break.

I will take regular breaks with witness testimony to let everybody have the opportunity to use the restroom and stretch their legs. Again, if you need to get in touch with the Court let the marshal know.

I may take notes during the course of the trial of what the witness's is testimony. Please do not make any inference from that action. I am required to prepare for legal arguments and any objections that may be made by counsel and also to put things in the record that are appropriate to put in the record that might take place outside of the jury's presence.

You, of course, should be prepared to take your own notes. You are not required, but we will provide a notepad and pen for you to do that.

Following the State's case the defendant may present evidence if they chose and the Deputy District 4 Attorney may cross-examine the witnesses. However, as I have said and we talked about repeatedly in this voir 6 dire process, the defendant is not obligated to present any evidence.

After all of the evidence has been presented, I will instruct you on the law. After the instructions on the law have been read to you, each side has the opportunity to present oral argument in closing.

What is said in closing just like what is said in opening is not evidence. It is simply designed to summarize and interpret the evidence, remind you what has been provided into evidence and give you suggestions on how to interpret.

Since the State has the burden to prove the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt to each of the charges and the elements of each of those charges the State has the right to open and close the argument.

After the arguments have been completed you will retire to deliberate your verdict. Again, let me remind you that until the case is submitted to you do not talk to each other about it or anyone who has anything to do

You will not have a transcript at the end of the trial to consult and readbacks are very, very difficult. And if while you are deliberating want to identify a necessary part of the trial be read back you have to be very specific about what that is so the reporter can gather her notes. That is not encouraged, so we are encouraging you to take notes during the course of the trial.

Of course we do not want you to be so busy taking notes of certain testimony that you miss subsequent testimony. So you really have to figure out how to balance receiving the information and taking notes that will help remind you at the end of trial.

The trial will proceed in the following manner. The Deputy District Attorney will make an opening statement, which is an outline to help you understand what the State intends to prove. Of course, again, you are reminded that is not in and of itself evidence. That is simply helping you to understand what is coming and what the State will prove.

Next the defendant's attorney may but does not have to make an opening statement. Opening statements serve as introductions to the evidence to the party making the statements intend to prove.

The State will then present its evidence and with it until the end of the case when you go to the jury room to decide on your verdict.

Do not talk with anyone else about this case or 3 about anyone who has anything to do with it until the 4 trial has ended and you have been discharged as jurors. Anyone else includes members of your family and friends. You may tell them that you are a juror on a criminal case but do not tell them anything else about it until after you have been discharged by me.

The further detailed instructions obviously that you will need to have some of these will be repeated and then additional instructions added including, again, the elements of the charges and all of the instructions you need to have will be made available to you when the case closes before closing arguments and you will each get a copy set so that you have that to refer to. And you will also have all the evidence that was presented in the trial at the time you deliberate and you will have the form of verdict for you to complete your duty.

I will check in with counsel at this time to see where we are in the process.

MS. BONAVENTURE: On the last one. We're almost done.

THE COURT: All right. So as soon the counsel will complete their selection process we will announce who the 14 jury members. If any of you do need a letter 2 from the court for your work, we will be happy to provide 3 one to you, you just have to let the marshall know and my JEA will prepare one for you. And you will get 4 additional instructions from the marshal. 5 Okay. It looks like we are ready to go. 6 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, may we approach 7 briefly? 8 THE COURT: You may. 9 (Discussion held at the bench.) 10 THE COURT: I appreciate the opportunity to 11 clear up with counsel a question that they had. We have 12 now done that. The 14 names are now going to be read and 13 let me remind you if you do not hear your name you will 14 remain until the names are all called and then you will 15 be excused. 16 17

THE CLERK: Juror No. 1 is Jason Alper; Juror No. 2, Gerald Rivera; Juror No. 3, Brian Lagomarsino; Juror No. 4, Jeffery Swain, Juror No. 5, Jacob Spooner; Juror No. 6, Isaac Vilchez; Juror No. 7, Jason Moore; Juror No. 8, Idalia Rice-Wilson; Juror No. 9, Justin Walker, Juror No. 10, Gilbert Canales; Juror No. 11, Steven Manning; Juror No. 12, James Bakkedahl; Juror No. 13, Bonnie Schultz, and Juror No. 14 is Joey Hamilton.

THE COURT: All right. If you did not hear your your deliberations, how long that takes of course depends on how long you wish to take in those deliberations. 2

Thank you. I will go ahead and excuse you for 3 today. We will see you back tomorrow at 1:00. Thank 4 5 you.

(Jurors exit the courtroom.)

THE COURT: We do have some things that we need to put on the record. There was a challenge raised and I apologize I misunderstood the nature of the challenge. When counsel asked to approach, the challenge that was raised was that the five preemption selections made by the State were all to white males. The same as the 12 defendant. There was some discussion here at the bench 13 with regard to the basis, appropriate basis for a Batson 14 challenge and whether or not that would be an appropriate 15 basis which is why I had indicated that I wanted to have 16 that discussion on the record. I had made a determination based on the full argument that was made at the bench that the Court would not change the makeup of the panel as selected by counsel, but that I would allow for argument to be made in the record.

One of the things that I did note at the bench was that a large number of the remaining jurors are also white males and that was just noted in terms of the

For those of you who are remaining thank you in advance for your time today. We very much appreciate, the counsel and the Court, that you will serve as jurors in this case and fairly and impartially deliberate once you receive the evidence and the law from me.

We are going to start tomorrow at 1:00 with opening statements and we will read the Information and take at least two of the three witnesses who were identified by the State which then should complete our afternoon.

I am still trying to determine the return time on Wednesday. It is possible that it could be as late as 14 1:00. It will really depend on what the Court's calendar 15 looks like. I will certainly be able to tell you tomorrow whether or not we will return in the morning or 16 in the afternoon. Right now I would say it will most likely be the afternoon on Wednesday as well. So at least your mornings are free and hopefully will have as little impact on your work and personal life as possible.

But, again, very serious business that we will be doing here in terms of determination of whether the State meets its burden on the charges of Mr. McNeill.

And we do anticipate completing at 5:00 24 tomorrow. Once we provide the case to you and you begin discussion.

But let me go ahead and turn it over to counsel record on this challenge.

2 for Mr. McNeill to make any further argument or clearer MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor. Yes, we 5 were challenging the fact that all five of the State's 6 preemptory challenges were white males. I understand the Court's characterization of who is left on this panel, however, the defense would respectfully disagree in terms of Mr. Rivera who is a Hispanic male. I think Mr. 10

Vilchez is a Hispanic male. Ms. Rice-Wilson is an 11

African-American female. So there are people -- we are 12 not just looking at a panel that is all white males. 13

THE COURT: And Mr. Canales is Hispanic.

14 MS. HOJJAT: Yes. And Mr. Canales is a Hispanic 15 male. All of the challenges to white males, frankly, it 16 shows a pattern of conduct and so we raised a Batson 17 challenge at the bench. The Court did deny that 18 challenge. We did ask the State for race-neutral reason. 19 THE COURT: The State indicated that we would --

20 let's just be clear, too, of the five preemptions there 21 was not a dispute raised as to Juror No. 1, Darrell Hoss 22 23

MS. HOJJAT: That's correct. 24

THE COURT: -- as we know, and I don't think we 25 necessarily made any record yet of the cause challenges, 2 but Mr. Hoss was the one juror that the State asked to 3 have removed for cause. The Court determined that he did 4 not reach the level of bias that would be necessary to 5 remove him for cause, that he had indicated ultimately that he would do his analysis, fair and impartial. 6

He indicated concern and questions about the criminal justice system, primarily it appeared to be a bias of the system as a whole against both sides. In any given criminal case I felt that his responses were sufficient that he had not exhibited a basis for the Court to excuse him for cause, so I did encourage that if 12 there was going to be an excusat it would have to be a 13 preemptory challenge which the State exercised as their fifth of their challenges. So that one was not being disputed.

But as to Jury No. 3, Jace Mande; Juror No. 16, Richard Benson; Juror No. 21, Martin Burgess; and Juror No. 24, John Burris. And I am referencing these jurors by their seat number not the juror number. Just to be clear in our record, Juror No. 055, Jace Mande; Juror 927, Richard Benson; Juror No. 000, Martin Burgess, and Juror No. 006, John Burris, those are the ones that are being challenged.

MS. HOJJAT: That's correct, Your Honor. Those 175 reason. We are seeing four white males kicked off of this jury and we would ask the State for a race-neutral 2 3 reason.

THE COURT: Mr. Cooper, you did indicate that 4 you had race-neutral reasons. I had speculated at the 5 bench that I can determine race-neutral reasons to at least two of the four that are being challenged by them. I wanted to give you the opportunity -- my basis, just so it's clear in the record, for not allowing the jurors to 9 step out and have this discussion before anyone was 10 excused was I do not believe that Batson would apply in 11 this circumstance; however, to the extent that that 12 Batson does apply in this circumstance we need to have a 13 complete record. And I will ask Mr. Cooper at this time 14 if he has race-neutral reasons. 15

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. And I would 16 concur with the Court's assessment, I think Batson does not apply in this type of scenario. I would also note 18 from my calculation, obviously, I did not go into 19 anyone's ethnicity or background. But there were still 20 eight white males that were still on the jury even now. 21 So, obviously, I was not just kicking white males. I 22 mean I had to kick someone. There was a lot of white 23 males on this jury. So by default a lot of white males 24 are going to be kicked.

are the challenges we raised at the bench.

THE COURT: And your basis for believing that Batson would apply to white males is simply that they share the same race identification with the defendant and therefore that's the circumstance --

MS. HOJJAT: Well, Your Honor, in this case they do share the same race identification as the defendant, however, that is not the basis for the challenge. It is our position that Batson stands for the idea that no group should be discriminated against based on their gender that Batson and the follow-up case -- I apologize, I cannot remember the name of the case, but the case dealing with gender essentially that race and gender --

THE COURT: An Alabama case.

MS. HOJJAT: Right. That those cases say race and gender should not be a basis for discrimination and it doesn't matter whether the individual is of a classification that is classified as a minority or classified as a majority. The idea is a person should never be excluded from service based upon their race or ethnicity.

And in this case we have five white males kicked. One of whom we understand the State raised a cause challenge on, but the other four of whom there does not appear to be as far as we can see a race-neutral

But with that said, Your Honor, going through my race-neutral reason, I think the juror that was in position 3, Mande, I think that was the first person I kicked. He actually indicated that he had a dispute with police officers back in New York. He seemed to indicate that it was, I guess, a very contentious dispute and police officers were subsequently falsifying issues with him or his business in order for them to drum up business on themselves.

Obviously, this Court is aware, my witnesses in this case are law enforcement and he had prior bad experience with law enforcement and could definitely taint his ability to be fair and impartial when he sees somebody with a badge get up there and says something happened. That was my reason for that juror.

Benson, I think that was the juror in position 16, Richard Benson. He indicated that he was arrested for drug possession and littering. Obviously, the littering is not as concerning as drug possession, but he had a bad interaction with police officers. He also indicated that he had no kids. That was also a concern to the State as well. 22 indicating to me that he had no real responsibilities. I think he also indicated that he was also single. He is 2 single, he has no kids and he gets picked up for drugs 3 and littering and that was not the type of person that I 4 would want on my jury because obviously he has shown that 5 he does not really have that much in responsibility, and 6 in this case that is going to be very important to 7 actually ascertain what the responsibility of the defendant had, whether or not they were reasonable to a 9 certain extent, and whether or not he followed through 10 with those responsibilities. For someone that does not 11 have the responsibilities that a lot of people his age 12 have, I would say I did not want him on my jury. 13 THE COURT: Okay. 14

THE COURT: Can you be more specific on that concern.

MR. COOPER: And the next one was Burgess. Mr. Burgess, he also indicated that he did not have children as well. He did have a wife, but he didn't have children. Again, a man of that age without children doesn't have the responsibility, not that's he wrong in that, he just doesn't have the responsibility that someone with children have so he might not look as favorably upon the responsibilities that are being put 22 upon this defendant thinking that they are overburdensome, that he shouldn't have to go through with

MR. COOPER: I did not say that, Your Honor. He 1 was single, had no kids and he also was arrested for drug 2 possession and littering. 3 4

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, I do have some responses to that.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. HOJJAT: The third prong of Batson is the defense has the opportunity to present the race-neutral reason are pretextual. At this point we would submit to the Court that the State has now made a reference that two individuals were stricken, at least partially because they had no kids. Mr. Lagomarsino also indicated that he has no kids. Mr. Vilchez also indicated that he has no kids.

14 In terms of that being the reason for Mr. Benson 15 and Mr. Burgess to be kicked -- in terms of Mr. Benson 16 being kicked because he had some sort of criminal arrest, 17 Mr. Morales pretty much confessed to first degree 18 kidnapping during voir dire today and he was not kicked 19 off of the jury. He is not a white male. So, I mean, if 20 we are talking about people who committed crimes and had 21 contact with law enforcement, he was arrested for some 22 really serious charges; kidnapping and assault with a 23 deadly weapon. He was not kicked off. He is not a white 24 male. We have Mr. Lagomarsino, we've got Mr. Vilchez who 181

And then also he did indicate that he took a law class in college and he seemed to be very proud about that so I think that he might try to interpret the law in his own way and not give full deference to this court that's due. And that's actually the same reason I kicked the last one, Burris, No. 24. He was an attorney. He made a lot of statements that basically he knows what the burden is and that people are -- I think he said people are wrongfully accused or something.

He said a couple things to me that indicated to me that he had somewhat of a bias against the prosecution and actually as he was leaving he looked at the defense attorneys and said, Good luck. So, I mean, it seemed that he did have a bias and that bias was confirmed when he said good luck to them. So I had a reason for him as well.

And that would be the same reason I had for Mr. Burgess who took a contract law class and there was some contracts that are going to be involved in this case and he might think he knows too much,

THE COURT: Okay. Anything you would like to 21 22 add?

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. And I just want 23 to clarify, the only reason given for Mr. Benson was that 24 he has no kids, right?

has no children. So we would submit to the court that these are pretextual race-neutral reasons to kick these people off the jury. 3 4

In fact, there were quite a few people who talked about having had contact with law enforcement who haven't had arrests who were not kicked by the State.

MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, I can't kick everyone. That's not as simple as it goes. I have to base it on their answers so that's why I kicked them. It had nothing to do with their race. I can't kick everyone. I don't know what I'm supposed to do.

MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, if I can just finish the record. I apologize.

THE COURT: No, go ahead.

14 MS. HOJJAT: As to Mr. Burris, I mean, he 15 indicated that he would follow the burden and follow the 16 presumption of innocence. He certainly didn't say anything about knowing better than anybody what the 18 burden is or understanding, you know, he's going to 19 follow his own law, he's not going to follow the Court's 20 instruction. I heard him say, Good luck as he walked out 21 of here. He kind of looked at both tables and said, Good 22 luck to everybody and walked out. We certainly didn't 23 interpret him as saying good luck to us. It seemed like 24 he was talking to all counsel in general who were going

THE COURT: Well, again, the Court indicated it does not feel that Batson would apply in these circumstances to the extent that that would apply in these circumstances the Court would find that there is race-neutral basis that has been articulated. I understand you're arguing it's pretextual because there may be others that on balance maybe that one should have been struck before this one was struck, but as counsel pointed out there are only a certain number of challenges. Just a couple things that I would add for the record for what they're worth. There are 8 white males by my count that remain on the panel out of 12 that will deliberate. There are 9 total out of the 14 including the one alternate. If Mr. Burris had not been selected he would have been the alternate instead of Mr. Hamilton, so we remain with a white male in the second alternate position, just not Mr. Burris. And, again, by my count there are 8 white males of the 12 that will ultimately be deliberating unless we have a jurger for whatever reason and have to go to an			REPORTER'S CERTIFICATE STATE OF NEVADA) ss. But the Court did make the determination that the panel would remain as is and I trust we will have fair and impartial jurors that will help us receive the evidence and weigh it and reach a verdict. So I will go ahead and conclude today and see you all at 1:00 tomorrow.

I do need to know that at some point tomorrow I will get jury instructions?

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Because I can't receive them on Wednesday morning and still have the opportunity to settle them and get them ready to go. If I can get them at least - well, it depends. As long as I have them by the time we leave court or sometime in the evening, just not too late, it gives me an opportunity to work on them.

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. (Proceedings were adjourned.)

LAS VEGAS, CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA 1 TUESDAY, JULY 8, 2014, 1:00 P.M. 2 PROCEEDINGS 3 4 THE COURT: Is there anything we need to address 5 before we bring in the jury? 6 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. We did have a 7 couple of preliminary matters outside the presence. 8 First, before we start with the legal 9 preliminary matters, when we were coming up one of the 10 jurors scurried in the elevator and got in behind us and 11 got in the elevator with us and we just ignored him, but 12 if we could just ask the Court to remind them that we are 13 not ignoring them, it's just --14 THE COURT: I did read that in the instructions 15 when you were doing your selection yesterday. 16 MS. HOJJAT: Right. He tried to say hi and we 17 just ignored him. 18 THE COURT: I told them that we were not to even 19 acknowledge them, but I will remind them of that. 20 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you very much, Your Honor. 21 As to the legal matters --22 MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I'm sorry. Can we also 23 just when the juror comes in maybe at the next break we 24 can just put on the record what juror that was. 25 4

MS. HOJATT: Thank you. The reports from March 29, 2013 and April 15, 2013, the areas with the red 2 tabs the DA has agreed to redact. What we are worried 3 about is for the March report, the DA has agreed to 4 redact reference to the knife on page 2 of the March 5 report; however, there is also reference to unemployment 6 and food stamps that we would ask to be redacted. 7 We believe there is no probative value to the 8 9 fact that he is receiving unemployment benefits or food stamp benefits. We are not disputing he was transient, the DA will be able to present that to the jury that he was transient. But we believe that unemployment and food stamps are prejudicial.

A lot of people feel very, very strongly about government entitlement, about individuals receiving entitlement. A lot of people have a lot of prejudices towards people who receive entitlement.

We did not voir dire the jury on this issue. It is not probative to any fact in this case. It is not probative to a single alleged violation. It's not probative to the fact that he's a sex offender. There is just no probative value to the fact that he's on food stamps and unemployment.

There's probative value to the fact that he was transient and living on a street corner, and those aren't

MS. BONAVENTURE: It's the one that sits in the far corner over there.
2
           MS. HOJJAT: Yeah, Vilchez I think. I believe 3
   it's Juror No. 9, the young Hispanic male, Vilchez.
4
            THE COURT: All right. We'll verify that with 5 him and we will remind them in the record.
6
            MS. HOJJAT: Okay. He did not say anything and 7 we didn't say anything. I don't see any problems with 8
    it. I just do not want the jurors to think we are 9 ignoring them or anything.
10
            THE COURT: I covered it yesterday but I will 11

12 remind them of this now that they are in fact on the panel.

MS. HOJJAT: Thank you very much, Your Honor. As to the legal matters, we did put it on the 16 record yesterday that we had received the State's proposed redactions from the Division of Parole and Probation that we were working on with the State to agree upon the redactions. We have agreed upon most of the redactions. There are two matters that we wanted to bring to the Court's attention that we disagreed on.

21 THE COURT: All right. 22 MS. HOJJAT: If I could approach with the 23 relevant reports. 24 25

facts that we are trying to get redacted. But the fact that he is on food stamps and unemployment we would ask to be redacted.

THE COURT: What is your other issue and then we'll hear from Mr. Cooper.

MS. HOJJAT: The second page of the August report, we received these reports last week, Your Honor. To put this in context, all of these Division of Parole and Probation monthly reports we received this last week. There is some notes jotted at the bottom.

There is one in particular that talks about no one time weekly OV. We did not know what that was. We were just being informed today and the Parole and Probation officer did say that she tried to put him on once weekly office visits. There was no testimony on this at the preliminary hearing. This was not included in any reports, police report, Parole and Probation reports that we originally received.

18 None of the discovery that we had up until last 19 week mentioned that. And then once we received that we 20 didn't know what "OV" was. It is only today that we are 21 learning what that is, so we would ask that that be 22 redacted as well given that the defense has had no notice 23 24 of this.

And, frankly, it's a new theory of the case that

Failure to have his address approved and failure to change his address after he moved were allegations but not registering every 30 days has never been an allegation in this case. And it has not been contained in any of the reports.

THE COURT: Just looking back and then looking obviously at the prior Amended Information but not the one that we are going to read to the jurors --

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- but I have as the basis for the violation: Failure to submit a UA, failing to report, failing to have residence approved, failing to cooperate with supervising officer, failure to maintain and abide by curfew and being terminated from counseling.

MS. HOJJAT: Right. And we are not opposing the first two bullet points. We are only asking that the last two bullet points be redacted. And when we are talking about failing to report in the information, the testimony at preliminary hearing and what was contained in the police report and the original Parole and 24 Probation reports that we received was after August of

THE COURT: Well, I think more importantly they are arguing relevancy.

MR. COOPER: It is relevant because obviously this officer is going to have to be able to attest how he was being able to live. He is a homeless individual, so she is not going to get into he was panhandling or breaking the law or anything like that.

I mean, he had a governmental entitlement there's prejudicial effect. But she needs to be able to say that he wasn't living at a homeless shelter, which she actually tried to get him into and he said no. And one of the reasons for that is because he already had food stamps, so he didn't really have to go to a homeless shelter. He was actually getting unemployment benefits which actually goes directly to why he was not employed.

So there is no prejudicial effect whatsoever and I think it is probative.

THE COURT: I am not sure I am tracking to the 22 probative value. I apologize. Bear with me. I did eat lunch so I should be more in tune, but why does your officers need to go into the details by what means he was living. The whole point is, is it not, where he

2013. That has always been the theory of the case that we were given. That's always been the theory of the violation that we were given was between August of 2013 and March of 2014. This now talking about refusing to 4 report once a week. 5

THE COURT: Well, one of my points of confusion, and I apologize, you had referenced that you had reports from March 29th of 2013, and April 15th, 2013, but you actually handed me a report from August 15th.

MS. HOJJAT: I'm sorry. I meant August not April.

THE COURT: So this is within the time frame.

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. It's just the idea of him having to report once a week and it has never been brought up before.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything further before I hear from Mr. Cooper?

MS. HOJJAT: There was one other matter.

THE COURT: Okay. My clerk just informed me that there may be some dispute as to how the Second Amended Information was going to be handled. But we'll deal with that later.

All right. Mr. Cooper, on these two concerns with regard to the Parole and Probation monthly reports.

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. Your Honor, the identified his address to be and she went there and he wasn't there for her search. Or what is the probative value of the use of government entitlement, if you want to call them that. I agree that there are people who differ on these type of things. I don't know that this is substantially prejudicial, but I also don't know that it's relevant. If there is relevance then we have to determine that it's substantially prejudicial and would be excluded, but I am not seeing the relevancy. MR. COOPER: Your Honor, my position is I think it is relevant in order to be able to ascertain how he was able to live. This officer --

THE COURT: For what purpose to prove your case?

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, because this officer was trying to get him into some type of homeless shelter.

He didn't go to that homeless shelter. Obviously, if he 17 would have went to that homeless shelter, because he 18 didn't have money or something of that nature, he would have actually had a bed, had an actual place she could 20 have went to see him at this Catholic charity. 21 Because he decided not to do that because he was 22 getting food stamps, that's why he was sitting on the 23 street or laying behind the church or wherever he was 24 laying at.

But it all goes back to I tried to get him into a Catholic charity, he didn't want to go because he 2 already had money.

3 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, if I could just 4 respond? 5

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. HOJJAT: The State is almost trying to turn it into a bad act. That plays directly into the stereotypes and the prejudice.

THE COURT: Well, what is your theory about why he wasn't living somewhere where she could go and find him, because he had to live on the street, right? I mean, isn't that your theory? I mean, I am not trying to put words in your mouth. I don't know what you are going to present to the jury; I haven't heard it yet.

But your defense, or at least your counter to --I mean, the bottom line is he has requirements as a convicted sex offender to comply with lifetime supervision agreement requirements.

MS. HOJJAT: Right.

THE COUR: He didn't do that. One of your arguments, I'm assuming, is he couldn't do that or some reason why he didn't do that. Or, maybe your argument just is that he was there and she just didn't find him. I don't know.

for me why you were trying to make the argument that this is why he was where he was or doing what he was doing. 2 So if you are not in that realm, I hear you, but 3 something you said made me think otherwise. 4

MS. HOJJAT: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Anything further on that?

MS. HOJJAT: On that matter --

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, obviously, I am not going to sit here and say that the probative value is so outlandish. It is slight probative value, but the prejudicial effect has to substantially outweigh the probative value. I mean, all they are doing is just speculating that maybe one juror might not like people that get food stamps or might not like somebody that has a government entitlement. It is just complete speculation. 16

Obviously, I understand that having a knife in his pocket or something like that is not necessarily a bad act, that is prejudicial. I understand that. I have agreed to redact that part already. The food stamps, I don't understand why they are so mad about it.

THE COURT: The part from "had knife on him" all the way down is redacted. I do not find the relevancy of any of those entries.

MS. HÖJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.

But I mean to the extent that you are going to be talking about who this gentleman is and why he wasn't 2 certain places or doing certain things, I would think there would be relevancy to all of those components.

MS. HOJJAT: Well, Your Honor, no, I'm sorry. The issue of fact here is did he register correctly? He has an obligation to register where he is staying. He does not have an obligation to stay anywhere in particular.

THE COURT: Understood.

MS. HOJJAT: The only obligation he has is to not stay within a certain distance of a school and children and things like that.

The question of fact here is was he staying at the place he was registered. Did he move and fail to register his new address. The question of fact here isn't why was he transient, let's get into a philosophical debate about why he was transient.

And the State it trying to turn the fact that he was on entitlement into a bad act by saying because he was seeking entitlement he is not trying to better himself. That's exactly the prejudice that people have against these types of programs.

THE COURT: Well, it was something you said, Counsel, and now I've forgotten what it is that triggered 25

THE COURT: As to the other matters you were 1 arguing, Mr. Cooper, with regard to the August 15, 2013 2 monthly report which has references to no UA and no curfew. 4

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. Basically, those are notes that actually were written by the defendant's supervising officer during the actual interview. I guess I understand that no questions were asked of the officer at the preliminary hearing whether or not he tried to put him on a one time a week check-in, but that doesn't mean that this information doesn't come.

Obviously, it is directly probative as to whether or not he was complying with his supervising officer's recommendations, which is one of the theories that he wasn't complying with supervision.

15 Basically, what happened is the officer says, I 16 am going to put you on a one time a week check-in. He 17 said, No, I'm not going to do that. That's all I am 18 going to get into. Just because somebody did not ask the 19 question at prelim doesn't mean it's not probative, it 20 doesn't mean that it's not relevant. 21

And I am actually checking my e-mail right now. It might have been as late as two weeks ago because I know we did a file review and I didn't have these items. But the file review was done before the calendar call.

And I would say I am 99 percent sure that I sent all of these items before calendar call, which would have been 2 last Monday.

Again, I have to check my e-mail to verify the date but I am very sure I would have sent them before the calendar call date. If I didn't, at the very latest they would have received them on Monday or Tuesday of last week.

They had an ample opportunity to talk to the officer. They have the officer's information. They know where she works at. They could have easily called her and could have easily have asked her these questions. I mean, just because they didn't do their own research to determine what OV meant, it's not the State's fault. And I should be able to get into it because it goes directly to one of the elements of my charges.

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, it is a brand new theory of the case that the State has never before 18 asserted. It is a theory of the case that wasn't consumed in the preliminary hearing transcript. It wasn't contained in a police report that was filed. It wasn't contained in the original Parole and Probation 22 report that was filed.

Maybe it was handed over last Friday rather than last Monday. We are talking about the difference of a 25

THE COURT: I am not as persuaded by the timing of it as I am what is contained here and whether it is in fact a new theory. I don't perceive it to be a new theory of the case. The hearing department failed to 7 cooperate and there are any number of them that seem to 8 fall within. I am not going to have a false impression of who the defendant is and what the defendant did. 10

Ultimately, at the end of day, this officer is going to testify to what occurred in terms of supervision and you are going to be able to cross-examine. But I will not require redaction of the August 15th, 2013 report. It falls within the time frame that has been argued. It falls within the theory of the case and it is in fact who he is and what he was doing.

The time frame of the disclosure is not persuasive for any basis to exclude it. I find it relevant. I find it not overly prejudicial because or required to be excluded because of the timing.

So the August 15th report, no redactions 23 required. And the March 9th report, the required redactions that are outlined. 24 week then, but the point is they had 60 days to turn this over from lower level and we were in justice court before that. This is not something that we've had time to know 3 about or look through. And this wasn't two pages that 4 was handed over to us. This was a big chunk of discovery 5 that was handed over to us last week. We are talking 6 about, I would guesstimate in the realm of over 50 pages 7 of discovery that was handed over to us that we're going 8 through. 9

Today we show up and we hear, Oh, OV means office visit. By the way, we told him he had to report once a week and he didn't report once a week. This is the first time we are hearing that.

The not register every 30 days, again, this is not something that was talked about at prelim. This 16 isn't something that was in the police report. This 17 isn't something in a P and P report. And when they handed over a big chunk of discovery like that last minute we are trying to do the best we can to go through everything. We didn't request a continuance. We didn't know about this until this morning.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, it is kind of misleading that I handed over 50 pages of discovery. I mean, they were all 50 pages like this (indicating).

And there was one other issue, if I may 1 approach? 2 3

THE COURT: Yes, please.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I will have to step out to the copy machine and make copies of the redacted version because I will be using this for my first witness.

7 THE COURT: Well, how long do we anticipate our 8 openings?

MS. HOJJAT: Five minutes. 10

MR. COOPER: Ten maybe.

THE COURT: Okay. 12

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, the other issue was I believe P and P Officer Zana will be testifying today.

We are not objecting to him; he was noticed. The only 15 thing is we want to make that the witnesses are 16 admonished about is because he is a supervisor to Officer 17 Magnan we just wanted him to be admonished not to be

Magnan. 20

We are not objecting to things that he directly 21 perceived or did himself in relation to this case, but we 22 don't want bolstering where he is just repeating things 23 that Officer Magnan has told him. We only want him to be 24 testifying to direct involvement. Anything else would be hearsay and we would like him to be admonished of that before he gets on the stand.

MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, I understand the rules of evidence, that I will not be offering any hearsay. But in full candor to the Court, I did speak to my first witness about not talking about the charge and everything like that, as we discussed yesterday. I talked to Officer Zana but I forgot to tell him that, so if we can take a break after my first witness so I can step out and admonish him not to have the hearsay, which I don't think will be an issue, but to make sure that he doesn't talk about that charge because I did forget to do that last night.

THE COURT: I would like you to remind him, of course, he is not to talk about the charge. Let's just say prior sex offense is I think the language that we agreed upon.

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And I do think if you could advise him because sometimes it's not clear. Unless you direct your questions a certain way or unless you make the admonishment to your witness as you are questioning. Sometimes it is not clear when they are testifying if it is something that they have direct knowledge of or if it's know from somebody else. And so I do need them to 20 work for her. If we push it to 11:30 or something I am sure I can get the word to her.

2 THE COURT: Let's just start at 11:00. We'll 3 make sure we're ready to start. We'll take a lunch break 4 somewhere in there and maybe after that testimony, 5 depending on where we are, I still need time to settle 6 instructions. 7

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. And that was my last witness, so I don't know if you want to just settle instructions. We can send the jury to lunch, settle instructions.

THE COURT: Take a little bit longer time to settle them. Like I said, I believe I was going to be getting them today --

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: One of the things I need, you are going to have your stock but you are going to have some that are going to be directly in opposition to the ones they are proposing or newly proposed and I need to be able to -- I cannot just get two chunks -- I mean, I can do that, but it is going to take me a hell of a lot longer to get through everything and figure out what 22 matches up. Give me a break. Give your stock and give me your specials, if you want to call them that, if you have specific ones where you know, and you tell me which 22 be admonished that if he is testifying that the presumption is going to be that it's from his own direct 2 knowledge.

If he gets into obviously something that was hearsay and there isn't some exception that would allow it, if defense objects to it, obviously, we'll deal with it. But it would be helpful to not have that if we can avoid it.

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. THE COURT: Did you have something? MS. HOJJAT: That was it, Your Honor.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I do have a few issues to address with the Court as well. The first is just a scheduling matter. I know we talked about 1:00 tomorrow, but the issue is when I spoke to my witness last night she initially thought she was going to be testifying Wednesday morning because I thought the Court was going to be dark today, and then I told her we might be starting at 1:00. She indicated that she had cleared her schedule for the morning --THE COURT: How early in the morning, because I

21 have a calendar. 22 23

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor, I am actually doing that calendar, so hopefully it won't be too long. When I talked to her 11:00 a.m. would actually of theirs is in dispute.

And this can all be done by e-mail. Say, here's our proposed and we think these match up with those and this is basically what we're ditching out for these topics, and here's the extra ones that we're proposing, if you can. I mean, give me a little bit of where your 6 thought process is at so that we can expedite the settling of them the following day at lunchtime. 8 9

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: If there's not that many that are being disagreed upon, that's fine. I don't usually take that long to settle them. But I want to get everything as prepared as possible because I am not going to have a lot of time once we settle them to actually pull the 14 final set together. And I do that myself. I don't 15 delegate it to you all because then it has to go back to 16 staff and then it takes forever. And I don't delegate it 17 to my staff because they are not in here and they don't 18 know what we discussed. So I just need some time to do

19 that and the more information you can give me the better. 20

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. 21 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. Would Your Honor 22 like us to send you a copy with cites and without cites? 23

THE COURT: You can just send them with cites. 24 But I need you to e-mail them to me before we wrap for MS. HOJJAT: We will have them to you.

MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, the only other issue, I know that the defendant is already stipulating to the fact that he is a sex offender and that he is on lifetime supervision, but my understanding is that stipulation needs to be made in front of the jury because obviously me just asking a witness --

THE COURT: We had this discussion yesterday, Mr. Cooper, why are we revisiting this now?

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, only because it's a procedural matter of the actual stipulation because my understanding is that they were talking about me just asking a witness, Is he a sex offender. That's not a stipulation.

that time that we did not need to have a particular stipulation stated to the jury and I talked about if we 2 were going to do that how we were going to do that and 3 that my preference would be something along the lines of 4 when we are reading the information that we would 5 indicate the parties have stipulated to this situation 6 and that there's the information. And we talked about 7 that and I don't know that that was rejected but we had 8 some discussion. But we are not going to have them stand 9 up in front the jury and say this is what we agreed to. 10 MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. I understand. 11

I'm sorry. I must have missed the part when we talked about actually reading the information. That is completely fine with me, Your Honor. I just needed the jury to know that we stipulated to these facts. I don't care who says it, just the jury needs to know, because the jury obviously doesn't know what's going on in here right now, so when I get up there and start asking all these questions and doing all this other stuff they will 19 have no idea that it is a stipulated fact that he is a 20 sex offender. 21 22

THE COURT: Well, like I said, we had that discussion yesterday about how we needed to do it and I thought we settled on that it would be inquired of and come out at some point in the trial that these facts had

A stipulation is them actually agreeing to the fact in front of the jury. And I just want to make sure we're clear on that because if that's not what they are doing, then that's not a stipulation and obviously we are right back at square one.

I can ask my witness if he is a sex offender no matter what; I don't need their permission to do that.

THE COURT: Well, I thought we had addressed this more than just it would come up with this witness. We addressed this first of all that we had the stipulation in the record, which was going to lead to the Second Amended Information, which I still don't have.

MR. COOPER: I have it right here, Your Honor. THE COURT: And that right there was going to have the reference to the date in which we find the agreement to be under lifetime supervision and it was going to have the reference to the prior sex offense, that it was able to be referenced that he had these chief characteristics. The whole point was just to have that in place in advance with counsel so that it removed the references and we had the redaction so that the actual prior charge was out. Then it opened the door to be able to obviously ask the witness to deal with that. I talked about and yesterday we went back and forth and I was convinced at been agreed to. But if there is going to be a dispute or 1 some confusion on that point, I will make the statement to the jury to clear it up in conjunction with the 3 information is the way I intended to handle it yesterday when we were first discussing. 5

But let me hear from counsel what your concerns are. MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, I would submit to the Court, I think the way we worked it out yesterday was I stood up in voir dire and said, He's a sex offender; we're not arguing he's not a sex offender.

THE COURT: So what's the problem with me saying it as a stipulated fact in conjunction with the information?

MS. HOJJAT: That's fine.

15 MR. COOPER: That is fine with the State as 16 well, Your Honor. I apologize. I must have 17 misunderstood what we talked about yesterday. I thought 18 they had only agreed to allow me to ask a witness if he 19 was a sex offender and that would not be a stipulation. 20

Obviously, if the Court tells the jury it's 21 stipulated that he's a sex offender and stipulated that 22 he is on lifetime supervision, I am fine with that. That 23 is not a problem with the State. 24

01/06/2015 03:29:27 PM

to statute and my JOC I would also be giving out the year 2 he was convicted as well as the county he was convicted in. And the county is important because pursuant to the statute I can only prosecute someone in the county in 4 which they were subsequently put on lifetime supervision or something like that. It does not necessarily matter where the violations happened. It matters were they were convicted at.

So as long as the stipulation just says he was convicted in Clark County in 2004, he's a sex offender and he's on lifetime supervision, the State has no problem with that stipulation.

THE COURT: Well, we discussed the stipulation of he's a convicted sex offender and that he is on 14 lifetime supervision and that was what I would say.

You would then elicit the remainder, if necessary, testimony from your witness. I don't know that the stipulation was ever agreed to in specific detail, although in the Amended Information it does specify when he went on the lifetime supervision and that he had a prior sex offense on a certain date in Clark County.

22 MR. COOPER: I would not be able to get into my 23 JOC. And my officer, she would get objected to for 24 hearsay if she said that he was convicted in 2004 in 25 28

So that was all just information we put it in. It is not changing any theory of the case. It is not 2 adding any additional -- it's not taking away from any defenses or anything like that. They have already agreed he is on lifetime supervision. They have already agreed 5 that he's a sex offender. I think it clears up the 6 language and I don't think that there is any substantive 7 issues to his rights. The statute says that the court may permit the information to be admitted at the time for verdict if no different or additional charges are added, which is not the case in this situation, and the substantial rights of the defendant are not prejudiced. And I don't know in any way why his rights would be prejudiced just by taking out information.

15 MS. HOJJAT: I'm sorry. I just want to clarify. 16 Is all of this argument over the fact that he took out 17 the fact that the Lifetime Supervision Agreement was signed --19

THE COURT: Sounds like it.

Clark County because she has no personal knowledge. She was not even working with P and P in 2004 in Clark 2 County. 3

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, we'll waive the objection.

THE COURT: You will waive the objection. Okay. We're fine. I will say the stipulation. You will get to the information.

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. I do have the Second Amended, and I am sure there will be some objections to it, so I have not filed it yet, and I will show a copy to the defense.

But basically, Your Honor, as this court is fully aware, the State has the ability to amend the Information up until before a verdict and that is pursuant to NRS 173.095. The State would actually be admitting their information because the initial Amended Information gave a lot more information that is actually isn't required by the statute.

I do have the statute right here and the statute specifically says that an individual that is on lifetime supervision that violates lifetime supervision is guilty. There is no mention of the date in which they signed an agreement. There is no mention of anything of that nature.

convicted of a "certain sex offense." We would ask that it just say "of a sex offense." That is what we discussed yesterday. 3

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, this issue I put "certain" is because every sex offense doesn't actually require lifetime supervision, so that would actually be an incorrect statement of the law that I would have in my Information and then that would create problems going forward in the future because every sex offense does not require lifetime supervision.

MS. HOJJAT: We stipulated that he is on lifetime supervision.

MR. COOPER: But the problem is only certain sex offenses require lifetime supervision, so --

14 MS. HOJJAT: We stipulated that he is on 15 lifetime. 16

THE COURT: Well, the Information still has to 17 be sufficient and it's not incorrect that not every sex 18 offense requires lifetime supervision. I think this is 19 the proper way to say it and I'm mot understanding or 20 hearing why that wording would be problematic. 21

MS. HOJJAT: It sounds seedy saying that he's a 22 certain sex offender. We'd be okay saying having been 23 convicted of a sex offense requiring lifetime 24 supervision. A certain offense just sounds like, wink, wink, we all know it's something really bad. It has a certain connotation. 2 MR. COOPER: Your Honor, that is not the 3 connotation I meant. 4 THE COURT: So it's something you might object 5 to but you don't have the means to correct it and reprint 6 7 it? MR. COOPER: I thought they might object to the 8 actual language, the actual part that they didn't object 9 to. That's what I thought they were going to object to. 10 THE COURT: If you needed to make a change, how 11 were you going to do it? 12 MR. COOPER: It's from the --13 THE COURT: If I want to change something in 14 here, how are we going to do it? 15 MR. COOPER: I have multiple different copies 16 with me right now, Your Honor. 17 THE COURT: Hard copies? 18 MR, COOPER: Yes. 19 THE COURT: I need an electronic version. Where 20 is your electronic version? 21 MR. COOPER: It's on my work computer, Your 22 Honor. But I have a hard copy that fixes the problem. 23 THE COURT: I like the language "convicted of a 24 sex offense requiring lifetime supervision." Do you have 25 32

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. THE COURT: Can we do that? MR. COOPER: And, Your Honor, just so I am clear, what is the exact language you want? THE COURT: At line 4, "having in 2004 been convicted of a sex offense requiring lifetime supervision." So that removes any of the questions or concerns. It addresses your concern, I believe, and still has a correct statement so that we're not just saying sex offense that may not require it despite that it's clear. My clerk has worked out a way to read the Information without having to have the Second Amended electronic version right now. So we are going to do that somewhere later today, tonight, figure that out. But my clerk has basically taken the version you handwritten and handed us so she can read it to the jury. So we have the them in. So I want to make the change. You made some 16 unilateral decisions to change and add and take out where we didn't have that discussion yesterday. We had a particular discussion of what was going to be changed. You didn't do it, Mr. Cooper, fair enough. But you 19 should have showed them and you should have showed the 20 Court so we could have a version we could work with and 21 have an electronic version so we could adjust it. We 22 don't have one. I would like to get one so we can make 23 the adjustment and get it done and print it and be good 24 to go.

THE COURT: You may.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I sent that all at the same time. All I did was take the whole stack I have and sent it all over. I don't know why they don't have it but I sent it. And I can look in my e-mail and --

THE COURT: Mr. Cooper, I will look at it and maybe my ruling is going to be to stay the way that it is and we won't have a problem.

MS. HOJJAT: And if the Court can see, they are both dated 2004.

10 THE COURT: I'm not concerned about the timing 11 of when they were produced. I'm just trying to get this 12 nailed down what evidence we are going to put in front of 13 this jury. 14

I'm sorry, what is it you wanted to say?

15 MS. HOJJAT: As the Court can see, they are both 16 dated in 2007. We were under the impression we had the 17 Lifetime Supervision Agreement from 2007. The new one says "under duress" next to his signature. We did not 19 have that in the copy we have. 20

THE COURT: Well, these are two different documents entirely.

22 MS. HOJJAT: They are two different documents. 23 We had the one that has multiple pages. 24

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I went through all my 35

MS. HOJJAT: And the Court is literally holding everything that we received in terms of Lifetime Supervision Agreements. And our objection is to the words "under duress."

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I just found it. I did send it. I have an actual e-mail that I sent directly to them under the attachment and it says right here the e-mail name was "Discovery for McNeill." I don't have the page number for some reason. But it says Steve McNeill under duress. It's that document. I don't know 14 why they don't have it. I sent it. I can show my e-mail to the Court.

THE COURT: Any idea why there would be two full Lifetime Supervision Agreements?

MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. I can actually explain that to the Court. Basically, what happened is 20 that when he was in prison they make them sign a Lifetime Supervision Agreement in front of his caseworker or someone like that. And then as soon as he gets out and goes directly to the Department of Parole and Probation 24 they make them sign another one. I don't know why but 36

12 MR. COOPER: Your Honor, my intern was gracious 13 enough to go upstairs and my secretary is doing it now, 14 but I believe we can start without it. 15

18 THE COURT: As soon as you reach your seats 19 please remain standing and my clerk will swear you in. 20

they do. And then after that when the actual terms of his probation period are actually completely articulated 2 they make them sign a third one that encompasses 3 everything. So there is a total of three different 4 documents. 5

THE COURT: Do we have all three? MR. COOPER: Yes. All three have been provided.

THE COURT: And they are all redacted? MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Counsel, come get your copies. These are obviously all the agreements. You can explain the under the duress. This is not a point -- it sounds like it has been provided. It sounds like it is part and parcel of this documentation and we will just address it.

We know that the defendant has agreed to certain things and not agreed to certain things and we need to get the testimony in before the jury so they can weigh it.

Any other matters to discuss before we bring the jury in?

MS. HOJJAT: No, Your Honor.

MR. COOPER: No, Your Honor, I just want to give your clerk my exhibits and we do have to make some redactions. And I know that is going to take some time because the redactions just got changed on this 37

THE COURT: Thank you everybody. Please take your seats. We appreciate you patience very much while we addressed some housekeeping matters to make sure that we would have everything ready so we can proceed uninterrupted once we get started today. 6

Before we get started, though, there is one preliminary matter. We just want to be sure that the folks are reminded of at least one instruction that I went over yesterday and that is it is very important that you understand that none of the participants in the case, 10 the counsel, parties, staff cannot acknowledge you or 11 talk to you in any way, although the Court can 12 acknowledge you, or respond to you or talk to you in any 13 way whatsoever. So if you just happen to come across us we must ignore you. It is our ethical obligation.

15 Please don't read anything into it or think that 16 we are being rude or antisocial. It's just our ethical 17 obligation. And it would really help us if you did not 18 acknowledge us or interact with us in any way so then we 19 do not have to feel so bad when we have to ignore you. 20 21

So, again, that is just the nature of the beast and it doesn't happen very often, so I just wanted to 22 remind everybody of that because over the course of today and tomorrow that may very well occur. 24 25

As I indicated, yesterday, we would begin the trial today with the reading of the charging document in this case so you understand what the charges specifically are. I want to remind you again as I indicated yesterday that this charging document is just that, a charging document. It is not in any sense evidence of the allegations it contains.

The defendant has pleaded not guilty to the charges, and therefore, the State has the burden of proving each of the elements of the charge beyond a reasonable doubt.

At this time I will ask my clerk to please read the charging document.

THE CLERK: District Court, Clark County, Nevada, State of Nevada, Plaintiff, versus Steve Dell McNeill, Defendant, Case No. C-14-297725-1, Department No. 25. Second Amended Information.

The State of Nevada, County of Clark, Stephen B. Wolfson, District Attorney, within and for the County of Clark, State of Nevada, in the name and by the authority of the State of Nevada informs the court that Steve Dell McNeill, the defendant above named having committed the 22 crimes of violation of lifetime supervision by a convicted sex offender, category B felony, NRS 23 213.1243-53481 and the prohibited act by a sex offender, 24 category D felony, NRS 179D.441, 179D.441, 179D.447, enforcement agency before three business days passed and since he changed his address from his last registered address at Main and Wyoming, Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada to his current unknown address.

Steven B. Wolfson, Clark County District 5 Attorney, signed by Jonathan Cooper, Deputy District Attorney to which the defendant has entered a plea of not 7 guilty. 8 9

THE COURT: Thank you. At this time I would invite the State to make opening remarks.

MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor.

Ladies and gentlemen, the defendant, Steve McNeill was convicted of a sex offense in 2004. As part of his sentence he was required to register and also to be sentenced to a term of lifetime supervision pursuant to Nevada law.

Lifetime supervision is a program ran by the Nevada Department of Public Safety through their Division of Probation and Parole. And essentially the offender he is given a probation officer. They are required to check in on a regular basis and there is also conditions on that as well. They have to let their probation officer know where they are living, who they are living with. 23 24

MS. HOJJAT: Judge, I am going to object. If we can approach? 42

You may proceed, Mr. Cooper.

MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor.

As I was saying, the defendant had conditions to abide by while on lifetime supervision. He had to let his probation officer know where he is living. He had to report, things of that nature.

And the probation officer also would assign tasks to the offender as well. For example, a probation officer could assign a task to complete counseling or something like that.

14 Now, for the most part the defendant did his 15 requirements until about December of 2012 when he finally 16 just had enough and was fed up with everything. He 17 didn't want to do it anymore. The evidence will show 18 that in December of 2012 he stopped following his 19 Lifetime Supervision Agreement. 20 21

You will hear from Marcia Lee, who is a licensed therapist and she was also the counselor for the 22 defendant during his sex offender treatment, she will 23 talk to you about how he began to get aggressive. How he 24 was disruptive in group and how he was showing little or 43

no progress in his treatment. 1 MS. HOJJAT: Objection. May we approach? 2 THE COURT: Please approach. 3 (Discussion held at the bench.) 4 THE COURT: The objection is overruled. 5 You may proceed, Mr. Cooper. 6 MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor. 7 Marcia Lee will tell you that she gave him 8 several opportunities to fix his behaviors but he didn't. 9 He told her, I don't want to be here. So he was 10 terminated from counseling. 11 You will also hear from Officer Ashley Mangan, 12 and she works with the Department of Parole and Probation as a parole officer, and she was the defendant's supervising parole officer starting in March of 2013.

Now the defendant was on lifetime supervision well before March of 2013. But like in a lot of offices, people in Probation and Parole they get promoted, they switch positions, so the offender doesn't always have the same probation officer.

And Officer Mangan will tell you that as his 22 probation officer his behavior got worse. It did not get better when she started supervising him. He was refusing to do drug tests. He was refusing to be put on a curfew. He didn't live where he said he was living. He even told need to take a step back and look at the bigger picture. This case starts in 2007 not 2005. 2007 is the year that 2 Steve McNeill was placed on lifetime supervision. He is 3 a sex offender. I told you that in voir dire. No one is trying to hide the ball. Steve is a sex offender and he 5 is on lifetime supervision but he got placed on lifetime 6 supervision in 2010. 7

To be clear, you are going to hear lifetime supervision is not probation, it's not parole. The State talked about it as part of his sentence.

Lifetime supervision, what you are going to hear is what sex offenders are required to do after their sentence is done, after they paid their debt to society.

13 MR. COOPER: Your Honor, can we approach? 14

(Discussion held at the bench.) 16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. The 17 objection is sustained. And with that clarification you 18 may proceed. 19.

MS. HOJJAT: Steve was not placed on lifetime supervision until any term of probation or parole is expired. Lifetime supervision is a different thing than 22 parole or probation. Steve was placed on lifetime 23 supervision in 2007. 24

Probation and Parole that he was doing them a favor for 1 showing up. 2

Then in August of 2013, the defendant sent Parole and Probation a letter. And basically the letter said he was not going to comply anymore. He was done. And he did just that. He didn't show up to Parole and Probation. He did not call his officer. His officer tried to locate him, she couldn't find him. And this went on for nine months until March of 2014. The defendant was in the wind.

The evidence will show that on several different occasions the defendant violated the terms of his lifetime supervision and he also committed an act that is prohibited by sex offenders.

And at the close of the evidence I will ask you to return a verdict of guilty on both counts. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Cooper.

Ms. Hojjat.

MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.

Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. The State just started talking to you about 2012, 2013. Officer Mangan. They want you to focus in. They want this case

21 22 to be about very little. And that's why you just heard 23 very little from the State. 24

To understand what is going on in this case, you 45 registered his address, he had a job. He was paying for his apartment and he was trying to get along. And he 2 continued doing that in 2007 until 2013. 3

There were ups and downs during that time 4 period. Everybody has experienced ups and downs during 2007 and 2013. During that time Steve lost his job.

During that time he wasn't able to have a place to stay 7

because he couldn't afford his apartment. 8

MR. COOPER: I'm sorry. Your Honor, may we 9 approach again? 10 11

THE COURT: Yes.

(Discussion held at the bench.)

12 THE COURT: The objection is overruled. You may 13 proceed. 14

MS. HOJJAT: As I was saying, you are going to hear that in 2007 Steve was checking in with his officer. He had a place to stay. He had a job. He was doing his best. Same with 2008. Same with 2009. Same with 2010. Same with 2011. Same with 2012.

19 You are going to hear Steve was doing his best 20 to follow the rules. During that time between 2007 and 21 2013, his parole officer changed four different times. 22

When I say parole officer, I mean lifetime supervision 23 officer. Four different people supervising him. 24

And in all that time not a single one ever

25

15

arrested him for violation of lifetime supervision. Not a single one said, Steve, you are not registered at the 2 right address. Steve, why aren't you employed. Steve, you failed to check in. He was doing what he was told to 4 5 do.

So what changed in 2013. You are going to hear Steve, he was still the same person, he was following the rules in 2007 to 2013. But in March of 2013, his officer changed. In March of 2013 someone new is assigned, Officer Mangan.

This is a guy who for five and a half years had made every check-in, had always registered his address, had always been doing what he needed to do and had never been arrested for violation of lifetime supervision.

Before she set eyes on him, in her mind he was a possible absconder. On their first meeting she asked him where he was staying. He told her, I'm registered at a street corner. I am homeless right now, I told my last PO, I'm registered to a corner. I'm registered to a corner.

MS. HOJJAT: So Steve gets arrested. Steve gets released. At that point, you are going to hear there was a personality difference between Steve and Officer Mangan. You are going to hear that that relationship deteriorated quickly. You are going to hear they didn't get along. You are going to hear they had words. You are going to hear when Steve went into her office and she started setting new guidelines, she set guidelines such as a curfew. You are going to hear she tried to set a curfew on a homeless person. That's one of the violations.

But you are going to hear that he was never actually placed on at least one of the curfews she claims he violated. There were multiple curfews; 5:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m., 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. It changed. And because Steve said no she considered that a curfew of violation.

You are going to hear that at least one of the curfews she put on him she never even drove out to actually see if he was there. His statement was, no.

corner. He said, Well, no, I don't stand on this corner 24/7. She said, If I drive by that corner you'd better be standing on that corner. He said, I'm not there all the time. I stay other places sometimes. I am generally there.

At their second meeting she told him, If you are not there when I go check, I'm arresting you. Violation of lifetime supervision. You are registered to a corner, you can stand on that corner.

He's transient, he's homeless. You are going to hear, their third meeting, she arrested him for violation of lifetime supervision. This is the same Steve who since 2007 had never been arrested for violation of lifetime supervision. Four different parole officers, never picked up for a single violation.

Officer Mangan is his officer for one month, three meetings, possible absconder, arrested for violation of lifetime supervision. That arrest did not stick. She was told, No, we're not doing this. Steve is released.

By this time Steve got the message. Officer Mangan does not like him. Officer Mangan does not like 22 him and she wants to put him exactly in the seat he is sitting in today.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I'm sorry. May we

She accepted his curfew violation.

You are going to hear that there was a lot of back and forth between Officer Mangan and Steve. You are going to hear all of this started happening in March of 2013. Five and a half years Steve was following all the conditions of his lifetime supervision.

You are going to hear that a lot of them have to do with the fact that he is transient. One of the conditions you heard about is that he did not have a job. You are here today to determine if he committed a category B felony because he did not have a job.

11 Ladies and gentlemen, Count 2. The State said 12 he violated a condition. They did not tell you what it 13 was. The Information that was read to you, he moved and 14 didn't change his address. You are going to hear that 15 Officer Mangan this time when she submitted charges again 16 changed things up a little bit from last time. 17 The first time she submitted charges they got

18 denied. Second time she submitted charges they were a 19 little more detailed. A little more comfortable. She 20 learned. This time she submitted two. This time she 21 said, When I drove to that location he wasn't there. He 22 must have moved. He moved and he didn't change his 23 address. He's has a entirely new felony all on his own, 24 That's how you get Count 2. 51

Ladies and gentlemen, this case is about 1 personality differences. This is a case about a new officer, hasn't been supervising people long, and you are going to hear that from her. It is a case about Steve, 4 who is not always the easiest person to get along with. It is a case about a rookie who wanted to clear off her 6 desk. She wanted to get a file off her desk. Have one 7 less person to supervise. 8 At the end of this case we are going to ask you 9 to find Steve McNeill not guilty on Count 1 and Count 2. 10 Thank you. 11 THE COURT: Thank you. 12 Mr. Cooper, are you ready to call your first 13 witness? 14 MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. 15 THE COURT: One of the things that I wanted to 16 address and remind the jury, we did go over so many 17 instructions yesterday and it was very quickly done and I 18 wanted to remind you that although these are opening 19 statements, they are not evidence themselves. They are 20 there to help you understand what the evidence will be 21 and help guide you in your understanding as the case 22 proceeds. 23 However, there were mentions made of two facts 24 that the parties have stipulated to. The fact that the 52 defendant was under an agreement of lifetime supervision

I went through a police academy and 25 54

That evidence that you will 4 determine what the facts from the evidence will be what comes through the witnesses and the exhibits that are 6 received. 7 At this time, Mr. Cooper, if you are ready to 8 call your first witness. 9 MR. COOPER: Thank you, Your Honor. 10 The State's first witness is Officer Ashley 11 Mangan. 12 THE COURT: Officer Mangan, please remain 13 standing and my clerk will swear you in. 14 15 16 Whereupon, ASHLEY MANGAN, 17 was administered the following oath by the court clerk. THE CLERK: You do solemnly swear that the testimony you give in this action shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth so help you God. THE WITNESS: I do.

THE WITNESS: Ashley Mangan. A-s-h-l-e-y, graduated that. And then when I graduated the academy I put in for Parole and Probation and received field training experience for that specific division.

Q What type of training do you go through in the academy?

A In the academy you are dealing with learning laws, officer safety, firearm practice, things of that

Q What about your field training, what did you learn doing that?

A I followed around a senior officer, watched them supervise offenders. Learned how an offender is supposed to report. What is expected of them and what our job is as an officer to make sure that they are complying with conditions.

Q Do you have any other police experience?

16 A I was a correctional sergeant with the 17 Department of Corrections for seven years. 18

Q Did you work at a particular prison?

Q I want to turn your attention to March of 2013.

Do you recall this time period? 22 23

A Yes.

Q What was your assignment in Parole and Probation 24 during that time period? 55

COOPER: Q Are you aware if he is a convicted sex offender? A He is. Q And pursuant to his conviction is he required to comply with the requirements of lifetime supervision? A Yes, he is. It does say so at the top. 6 Q Is this a true and correct copy of the document 7 that you kept in your file? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Do you use that document every day in the co- 10 of your duties?	ŧ

A Lifetime supervision is a type - I would describe it as a type of parole where - it's not really parole, though, if you violate lifetime supervision you would be subject to new felony charges. Where, if you violated parole you would just be subject to parole violation.

There is specific conditions that the Parole Board mandates that the offender comply by. Things like reporting, residence, reporting to your officer, curfew, submitting to urine analysis and things of that nature. They sign that agreement saying that they will abide.

Q Let me ask you this, how is an offender made aware of these conditions?

A Usually, there is a Lifetime Supervision Agreement that is signed by the offender and by the officer.

television, radio, Internet or social media of any kind, or to form or express any opinion on any subject 2 connected with the trial until the case is finally 3 submitted to you. 4

(Jury exits the courtroom.)

THE COURT: I will ask the witness to please step down while we have this discussion,

(Witness exits the courtroom.)

It is my intention before we resume with this jury to address this most immediate issue in the record, but also to address the others to the best of my ability.

I think I have most of my notes and certainly a lot of the things overlap and we just kind of verified each time you approached the bench.

So let's take care of, first of all, objections related to this witness starting with the last one first, which was the testimony I did ask Mr. Cooper to create some foundation about the circumstances of when each of these would be signed and how they interrelate with each

That elicited the testimony of at least one point in time the defendant had been incarcerated. Certainly did not raise any other specifics as to his current status or anything else. But the mere fact that he has been incarcerated then prompted their request for

Q Can you explain for the ladies and gentlemen of 1 the jury how that whole process works when they get on 2 lifetime supervision? 3

A Well, he was incarcerated with --

MS. HOJJAT: Objection. THE COURT: Basis?

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Do you need to approach?

MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

(Discussion held off the record.) THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I am going to go ahead and ask the jury to take a brief recess. We have some matters that we need to place in the record and resolve a couple of matters before we resume.

So I do need to admonish you. Our supreme court 16 requires us to admonish every jury at every break whether it be a short break or a lunch break or an evening recess because they are that important. So let me read this to you now.

During the recess, you are admonished not to talk or converse among yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with the trial or read, watch or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial or any person connected with the trial by any medium of information including without limitation newspaper, the bench conference, which then prompted counsel to request a mistrial. 2

So at this point I would ask for you to please state for the record your basis upon which you believe this testimony warrants a mistrial.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor. We did object and 6 moved for a mistrial at the bench. It is completely

7 improper for a witness to be talking about prior incarceration. And all of the State's witnesses should be admonished before they even got on the stand that they 10

are not supposed to talk about prior incarcerations. 11

Obviously, P and P officers are in a delicate position, 12

they know about prior incarcerations and the State should 13 be admonished not to talk about those things. 14

Foundation for a document is was this signed in 15 July of 2007? Yes. It was signed in July of 2007. 16

There is no need to get into incarceration to lay a 17

proper foundation. It is the date that it was signed. 18 Was he already on lifetime supervision at that point, yes 19 or no. 20 And the State's argument at the bench was that 21 this foundation that was needed that we had addressed 22 with you was absolutely not the foundation that was 23 needed. The foundation for the document was when it was 24 signed date-wise and whether he was on lifetime supervision at this time not whether he was sitting in custody. 2

It is completely improper for a State's witness to talk about him sitting in custody and they should have been admonished and they know not to talk about it.

THE COURT: And maybe they were and maybe at this point in the discussion it is what popped out. But what I am not hearing, Counsel, is that it reaches to the standard of requiring a mistrial and why it cannot be cured by a curative instruction to the jury at this time.

Again, let's keep this in perspective. This is a charged crime for someone who has already been 12 stipulated to the facts of and the charging document makes clear, a convicted sex offender. It is not outside the realm of possibility that the jurors would have some 16 belief or understanding that there might have been some sort of incarceration at some point. I understand that we obviously typically would not elicit this testimony. But why would this matter require a mistrial versus a curative instruction?

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, there isn't an instruction that -- it's information that can't be erased from the minds of the jury.

THE COURT: What is prejudicial about it to the level of it creates manifest injustice? If you are not law specifically lays forward the type of offenders that could be put on lifetime supervision; it's only the worst of the worst. It's tier three offenders only. So to 3 state somebody gets probation or something like that or whatever they are saying, it doesn't really bode by the 5 law. And I looked it up earlier today.

The problem also is that I was just about to admit the document and then they say that it's a fugitive document. But then I get to lay foundation as to why there's three different documents. The foundation as to why there is three different documents --

THE COURT: You are obviously arguing, Mr. Cooper, that it was okay for this witness to lay the 13 foundation that he signed it while he was incarcerated, she could have laid the foundation that there is a initial time that there is a document signing. There's a 16 second time that there is a document signing, there's a third time there is a document signing. This is essentially the same document that the defendant is asked to sign at various times for various reasons without actually going into the fact that he's incarcerated.

Are you actually trying to argue to me that it is part of the foundation that she had to say that he was incarcerated?

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, the document itself going to argue for me why you need a mistrial using the law and the case law and the standard, then we are done 2 with this discussion. 3

I don't want to hear anymore about what you think might be in the minds of the jury. I am done with those conversations at the bench. Okay.

What is the standard and why does it meet it? MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, it is prejudicial for the level of manifest injustice because there is multiple potential penalties -- even an individual who is sentenced with lifetime supervision it speaks to the nature of the underlying offense which they've already been precluded from hearing about, and it speaks to the severity of the underlying offense and incarceration occurred as opposed to probation lifetime supervision after a term of probation.

They've also heard that lifetime supervision occurs after probation, which is a true fact. It's prejudicial to the level of manifest injustice because it's telling them this was a really bad crime. This wasn't just a crime, this was a really bad crime that warranted prison time. Bad guy right there, that's what it tells them and that is highly prejudicial.

THE COURT: Mr. Cooper.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, first and foremost, the talks about the fact that he was incarcerated. The document that they had already agreed to the redactions of. I redacted the document and then they said this was 3 fine. I get it marked and then we actually go forward to 4 admit and the document says --6

THE COURT: Which document are we talking about now, 2, 3 or 4?

MR. COOPER: All three of them say it. All 8 three of them say State of Nevada to imprisonment in the Nevada state prison system for the crime of. The only 10 thing I was supposed to do was take out the part that 11 said the crime. That was it. That's what we agreed to. 12 I did that. They agreed to my redaction. It says it in 13 the document. 14

So I do not understand how it can be prejudicial for her to say he was in prison when the document says he was in prison. And that is how the document is written because he wasn't given probation. That mischaracterizes 18 what happened, that mischaracterizes why he was on 19 lifetime supervision. That mischaracterizes why this 20 officer gave him certain requirements.

21 And I think it is prejudicial to the State to 22 not be able to get down that road. Because we already 23 know he's a sex offender. We already know he's on lifetime supervision. Do they want to argue that any person that might do anything is subject to lifetime supervision, which is not the law and it's not --

THE COURT: I just want you to argue what the standard is and whether it meets the standard of manifest injustice.

MR. COOPER: It doesn't meet the standard of manifest injustice, Your Honor, because these documents that I have already provided that have been marked and have already been approved by opposing counsel --

THE COURT: I am anticipating another objection is forthcoming, Mr. Cooper, that they don't think that that language should be on the document either, so why don't you address that now, whether it's appropriate for that to be part and parcel of this case or not.

And if either of you have some cases that you want to throw at me that I am not aware of feel free.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, I do not have any case law off the top of my head. I didn't know this issue was going to come up.

Yesterday when we redacted this document -- they had these weeks ago. They knew what was in the document, so for them now to say that it needs to be -- I mean, it's argument, it needs to be redacted, it's whatever they want to do. But the fact is yesterday we sat down, we talked about this earlier this morning. We got the

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, we believe that it should not mention that he was sentenced to imprisonment. We believe that that should also be redacted. It is not proper for the jury to hear that this defendant has been in prison. There is case law on that. I apologize, I do not have specific cases to give to the Court. I did not anticipate this coming up.

THE COURT: That's fine. The Court needs to make a ruling. The Court's aware of the case law to the best of my ability. I don't have the citations in front of me either.

We have a specific case here with a specific charge and I guess ultimately what I am asking you to establish for me is why you believe -- I mean, we have already sanitized this through our discussion that the prior charge under which he was convicted, I agree, we didn't need that to make the predicate case. And that potentially could be substantially prejudicial beyond what was necessary obviously and relevant about the fact that there was a prior sex offense.

THE COURT: This is not about whether they agreed or disagreed. This is about whether this should be in the document, okay, and this is where we are now. But at the end of the day, whether this should be in the document or not, I just want to hear your final argument.

MR. COOPER: It should be in the document, Your Honor, because that is the reason he was on lifetime supervision. That's what happened in his case to get him to lifetime supervision. He was not on probation first. He did not go straight from parole. So all these different things play into the case as to why he wasn't responding to this officer, because if he had a parole officer first then it would be a different situation with a parole officer acted one way and my lifetime supervision officer acted another way. But that's not what happened in this case. He went directly from prison to lifetime supervision and I think that's important.

THE COURT: Okay, Counsel.

MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, if I am understanding the State's argument, I think it is prejudicial to them if they don't bring in the fact that he was incarcerated. There is no case law that says that.

I think this is a very different situation.

1 This is a situation where, in fact, this individual was 2 incarcerated, in fact, this person went directly to lifetime supervision from incarceration.

While we typically would not want to inflame the jurors by suggesting somebody spent time in prison and somehow that now they see the basis of the circumstances or that they are currently incarcerated. At the end of the day, this is somebody who was convicted of an offense that warrants him being in prison and he was in prison.

We are not going to overemphasize it but I am not familiar with case law that would require me to further sanitize this case to create some other impression or leave open the question of whether or not he was ever incarcerated. That is not where we are at in this case. That is not what this case is. But I just give you that flavor of my thought process.

MS. HOJJAT: I appreciate that, Your Honor. We would submit to the Court that hearing about incarceration greatly aggravates the impression of the underlying charge. I understand the Court saying these are the facts of this case but a lot of cases have a lot of facts in terms of this defendant's priors. That's what this is essentially, Your Honor, the fact that this is a sex offense and the fact that he's on lifetime supervision are necessary for the charge here. We 1 understand that. We have stipulated to that. But the fact that he was in prison before is not 3 necessary for them to establish that he did not change 4 his address or didn't go to counseling. It's not 5 relevant. There's no relevancy to him having been in 6 prison to the elements of their charges that they need to 7 establish. Especially since we are not talking about an 8 individual who got out of prison yesterday and started 9 allegedly committing these violations today. We are 10 talking about a five-and-a-half-year gap between the time 11 that he was in prison and the time that these alleged 12 violations had occurred. THE COURT: Which you established in your opening.

MS. HOJJAT: Things that happened so long ago just in general even when we are talking about bad acts that are admissible, when we look at the time span and how long ago something occurred, relevancy decreases as we go back in time. We are talking about something that has nothing to do with the elements here. The elements here, the elements that they need have already been met. 22 We stipulated to them. There is nothing about the imprisonment that they need in this case. There is 24 nothing about the imprisonment that makes it more or less that that is typical for these things to be signed multiple times, are these the multiple variations of 2 them, et cetera, without asking this witness to further 3 potentially go into those circumstances, okay? 4 MR. COOPER: Yes, Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: But the mistrial request, again, is 6 denied and we will do this further redaction. 7 MS. BONAVENTURE: And, Your Honor, permission to 8 lead for this purpose. 9 10

THE COURT: Just for this purpose. I thought you were going to lead already with these are multiple documents, are they the same thing type of thing. You just kind of show them to her and this is where they came from.

So at the end of the day, we don't need this in the testimony, I agree with counsel, at the base of this the fact that he was incarcerated at some point in time is not relevant to your predicate charges; however, I do not believe we need to declare a mistrial at this point.

MR. COOPER: Your Honor, would you like me to talk to my witness right now so we don't have this happen again?

THE COURT: We will bring her back in and admonish her before we bring the jury back in.

MR. COOPER: Do you want her to come back to the

The imprisonment is solely prejudicial and it's implications of what the underlying crime are. And what the underlying crime was is not relevant to this case but for the fact that he's a sex offender and he is on lifetime supervision.

THE COURT: Anything further, Mr. Cooper? MR. COOPER: Nothing further.

THE COURT: I am going to redact the reference to imprisonment in the first paragraph of each of the documents. The motion for mistrial is denied. I am going to give a curative instruction to disregard the reference to incarceration. I believe that is sufficient. I will indicate that that is not relevant to the charge in terms of imprisonment.

At the end of the day, I believe this is not the manifest injustice necessary to require a mistrial. It was a reference to that there was a time when this individual was in jail, as I said, likely to be in the thought process, in the mindset of all of the jurors. We 20 are not going to belabor the point but we will redact the reference here so that it doesn't come up in the future 22 and we will ask to disregard.

And then the additional foundation, I will give 24 you the permission, Mr. Cooper, to lead and just indicate 25

A I believe I tried to make a phone call to his listed phone number and I was not able to get through.

Q Did that cause you any concern?

A Not at that moment, no, because it is common for offenders to have nonworking phone numbers.

Q At that point did you also know whether or not he had a stable residence or he was homeless?

A At that point I believe he was homeless. 12 Q So you actually had contact with him on 13

A I did.

Q Can you describe for the ladies and gentlemen of the jury how that contact happened? What you were doing? What happened at that point?

A Yes. On that day I was out in the field away from the office. And I had got a call from another 20 officer who was at the office and said that one of my offenders was there trying to drop off a monthly 22 reporting statement --23

Further down if he has been attending counseling I like to address that with sex offenders. And just kind of get a general idea of what is going on in his life. Q Now there also seems to be some handwriting on the left-hand side; do you see that handwriting in the Q And whose handwriting would that be? A That's my handwriting. Q Are you actually able to make out what that Q What does it say? A It says "5:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. curfew." And by your address it says "no spot he lays his head." Q What does that mean? A Basically that means he does not have a fixed address, so he is homeless so he is putting down that he lives at Main and Colorado at the corner there, but he probably does not lay specifically on that exact corner so there is no specific spot where he lays down his head.

Q Now, at any point during your supervision of the defendant did you tell him that he needed to stand at a certain corner at all times? A Not at all times. But if his residence is going to be Main and Colorado then he needs to be there at Q Now, Main and Colorado, does that signify to you that he was in fact homeless?

Q And the 5:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. curfew, what does

A It means between 5:00 p.m. and 5:00 a.m. he needs to be at the corner of his address he reported as Main and Colorado.

Q Now, does he have to report that specific intersection or can he report like a landmark or

A No. He has to report a specific -- It would be cross streets, I guess, a landmark would be helpful but they have to report some physical address.
