Re: concern about Family law matters/ ICA

TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY: [Signature]
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

While it has been repeatedly represented during various presentations regarding the ICA that family law issues would not be defaulted to the ICA, it now appears that is exactly what is happening.

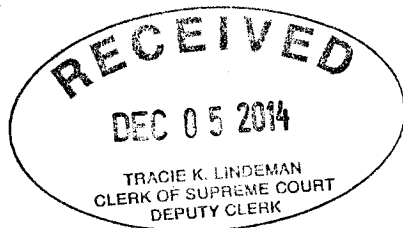

Questions: If there is no automatic default to the ICA for family law matters,

- a) what is the presumptive referral process, and
- b) what is the possible triage intended under the new format?

Sincerely,
