Re: ADKT 0501

Dear Ms. Brown:

This letter is written to provide comment and respectful objection to the proposed NRAP Rule 3F, specifically Section (3) titled "Submission."

There are many areas of eminent domain and inverse condemnation that are still unsettled. Accordingly, the general prohibition of briefings and oral arguments could severely prejudice our clients in what are extremely important constitutional proceedings. Additionally, I feel limiting a party's right to brief and/or argue their position in a constitutional eminent domain proceeding before the Nevada Supreme Court could impact due process and notions of fundamental fairness.

Thank you for your consideration of my concerns.

Sincerely,

Kermit Waters
