BRANDON B. McDONALD, ESQ. states:

1. Declarant is the attorney for Appellants in this case and makes this declaration based upon personal knowledge.

2. Counsel requested an extension pursuant to NRAP 26(b)(1)(B) on August 21, 2015 by telephone. The previous day I had emailed the clerk of the court requesting an extension by email, as I had been in depositions all day and the day before.

3. I had requested a five day extension since the depositions which were being taken had gotten much more involved than anticipated, and gone from being scheduled for a few hours to taking almost all day. Additionally a key staff member who assists with the brief has been dealing with serious personal issues, and I was unable to have his assistance in the meantime.

4. Because I made the telephonic request the day after the reply brief was due, my request was denied by the clerk.

5. Declarant has filed the reply brief. The reply brief is only one day delinquent.

6. Declarant requests that the reply brief be filed on the docket, and not be rejected for the minor delay.

7. I declare under penalties of perjury under the law of the state of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED this 22nd day of August, 2015.
