1 months for use of a deadly weapon, concurrent to Count XII; Count XIV – 40-180
2 months, consecutive to Count XIII;

3 3. On July 10, 2000, the Nevada Supreme Court denied Petitioner's
4 direct appeal; remitter was issued on August 7, 2000;

5 4. On January 8, 2001, Petitioner's first Petition for Writ of Habeas
6 Corpus (Post-Conviction) was filed.

7 5. On April 10, 2001, the District Court denied Defendant's Petition for 8 Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). The petition was later remanded by the 9 Nevada Supreme Court so that Petitioner could have the assistance of appointed 10 counsel. Petitioner filed a supplemental memorandum of points and authorities on 11 January 13, 2004. That petition was denied in a written decision issued by this Court
12 on December 9, 2004.

13 6. On December 1, 2006, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the 14 District Court's denial of Defendant's Petition. Remittitur was issued on December 15 27, 2006.

16 7. On February 19, 2009, Defendant filed a Second Petition for Writ of 17 Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

18 8. On August 17, 2009, the District Court denied Defendant's Second
19 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

20 9. On September 9, 2009, Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal.

21 10. On May 7, 2010, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the District
22 Court's denial of Defendant's Second Petition. Remittitur was issued on June 4, 2010.

23 11. On November 26, 2014, Defendant filed the instant Third Petition for 24 Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

25 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

26 1. NRS 34.726(1), governing "Limitations on time to file...", requires 27 that a petition for a writ of habeas corpus "must be filed within 1 year after entry of 28 the judgment of conviction or, if an appeal has been taken from the judgment, within 1 year after the Supreme Court issues its remittitur." Late-filing of a petition may be excused from procedural default if the Petitioner can establish good cause for delay in bringing the claim. Id. Good cause for late-filing consists of a showing that: (1)
"delay is not the fault of the petitioner"; and (2) "dismissal of the petition as untimely will unduly prejudice the petitioner." Id. at (1)(a)-(b).

1 2. To avoid dismissal the defendant must plead and prove specific facts
2 that demonstrate good cause for his failure to present claims before and actual
3 prejudice. See State v. District Court, 121 Nev. 225, 232, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074
4 (2005).

5 3. In order to demonstrate good cause, a petitioner must show that an 6 impediment external to the defense prevented him or her from complying with the 7 state procedural default rules. Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503, 8 506 (2003).

9 4. The court may excuse the failure to show good cause where the
10 prejudice from a failure to consider the claim amounts to a fundamental miscarriage
11 of justice. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 887, 34 P.3d 519, 537 (2001).

12 5. NRS 34.810(2), governing "Additional reasons for dismissal of 13 petition," requires that "[a] second or successive petition must be dismissed if the 14 judge or justice determines that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief
15 and that the prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are 16 alleged, the judge or justice finds that the failure of the petitioner to assert those 17 grounds in a prior petition constituted an abuse of the writ."

18 6. The petitioner has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts
19 that demonstrate both good cause for failing to present a claim or for presenting a
20 claim again and actual prejudice. NRS 34.810(3). See also State v. Haberstroh, 119
21 Nev. 173, 181, 69 P.3d 676, 681 (2003).

22 7. A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either
23 were or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds
24 both cause for failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual
25 prejudice to the petitioner. Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 621-622, 28 P.3d 498, 507
26 (2001).

27 8. Unlike initial petitions which certainly require a careful review of the 28 record, successive petitions may be dismissed based solely on the face of the petition.
Ford v. Warden, 111 Nev. 872, 882, 901 P.2d 123, 129 (1995).

 9. Application of the statutory procedural default rules to post-conviction habeas petitions is mandatory. State v. District Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112
P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005).

 10. Meritless, successive and untimely petitions clog the court system and undermine the finality of convictions. Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 358, 871 P.2d 944, 950 (1994).

1 11. Petitioner had one year from August 7, 2000, the date the Nevada
2 Supreme Court issued the remittitur from the judgment from a direct appeal, to file
3 the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

4 12. Petitioner failed to establish good cause for the delay in filing the 5 instant post-conviction Petition. This Court has previously held that (1) Petitioner 6 procedurally defaulted his claim by failing to file his successive petition prior to 7 December 21, 2007, one year after the Sharma-Mitchell claim became available for 8 inclusion in a habeas petition and (2) Petitioner failed to demonstrate a colorable 9 claim of innocence.

10 13. Petitioner's reliance on Martinez v. Ryan to establish good cause for 11 delay is misplaced because Martinez v. Ryan does not address state procedural bars.
12 See Martinez v. Ryan, 132 S.Ct. 1309 (2012); Brown v. McDaniel, 130 Nev. Adv. Op.
13 60, 331 P.3d 867, 870 (2014).

14 14. The Petition is a successive Petition and it presents claims that have 15 been presented in an earlier proceeding.

16 15. Petitioner failed to establish good cause for failing to present the 17 claims earlier. Accordingly, the Petition lacks merit, and therefore, is denied.

18 ORDER

19 THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Writ of Habeas 20 Corpus (Post-Conviction) shall be, and it is, hereby DENIED.

21 Dated this 9 day of December, 2014.

3 3. On July 10, 2000, the Nevada Supreme Court denied Petitioner's
4 direct appeal; remitter was issued on August 7, 2000;

5 4. On January 8, 2001, Petitioner's first Petition for Writ of Habeas
6 Corpus (Post-Conviction) was filed.

7 5. On April 10, 2001, the District Court denied Defendant's Petition for 8 Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). The petition was later remanded by the 9 Nevada Supreme Court so that Petitioner could have the assistance of appointed 10 counsel. Petitioner filed a supplemental memorandum of points and authorities on 11 January 13, 2004. That petition was denied in a written decision issued by this Court
12 on December 9, 2004.

13 6. On December 1, 2006, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the 14 District Court's denial of Defendant's Petition. Remittitur was issued on December 15 27, 2006.

16 7. On February 19, 2009, Defendant filed a Second Petition for Writ of 17 Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

18 8. On August 17, 2009, the District Court denied Defendant's Second
19 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

20 9. On September 9, 2009, Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal.

21 10. On May 7, 2010, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the District
22 Court's denial of Defendant's Second Petition. Remittitur was issued on June 4, 2010.

23 11. On November 26, 2014, Defendant filed the instant Third Petition for 24 Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

25 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

26 1. NRS 34.726(1), governing "Limitations on time to file...", requires 27 that a petition for a writ of habeas corpus "must be filed within 1 year after entry of
28 the judgment of conviction or, if an appeal has been taken from the judgment, within
1 year after the Supreme Court issues its remittitur." Late-filing of a petition may be excused from procedural default if the Petitioner can establish good cause for delay in bringing the claim. Id. Good cause for late-filing consists of a showing that: (1)
"delay is not the fault of the petitioner"; and (2) "dismissal of the petition as untimely will unduly prejudice the petitioner." Id. at (1)(a)-(b).

1 2. To avoid dismissal the defendant must plead and prove specific facts
2 that demonstrate good cause for his failure to present claims before and actual
3 prejudice. See State v. District Court, 121 Nev. 225, 232, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074
4 (2005).

5 3. In order to demonstrate good cause, a petitioner must show that an
6 impediment external to the defense prevented him or her from complying with the 7 state procedural default rules. Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 71 P.3d 503,
8 506 (2003).

9 4. The court may excuse the failure to show good cause where the
10 prejudice from a failure to consider the claim amounts to a fundamental miscarriage
11 of justice. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 887, 34 P.3d 519, 537 (2001).

12 5. NRS 34.810(2), governing "Additional reasons for dismissal of 13 petition," requires that "[a] second or successive petition must be dismissed if the 14 judge or justice determines that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief
15 and that the prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are 16 alleged, the judge or justice finds that the failure of the petitioner to assert those 17 grounds in a prior petition constituted an abuse of the writ."

18 6. The petitioner has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts
19 that demonstrate both good cause for failing to present a claim or for presenting a
20 claim again and actual prejudice. NRS 34.810(3). See also State v. Haberstroh, 119
21 Nev. 173, 181, 69 P.3d 676, 681 (2003).

22 7. A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either
23 were or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds
24 both cause for failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual
25 prejudice to the petitioner. Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 621-622, 28 P.3d 498, 507
26 (2001).

27 8. Unlike initial petitions which certainly require a careful review of the 28 record, successive petitions may be dismissed based solely on the face of the petition.
Ford v. Warden, 111 Nev. 872, 882, 901 P.2d 123, 129 (1995).

 9. Application of the statutory procedural default rules to post-conviction habeas petitions is mandatory. State v. District Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112
P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005).

 10. Meritless, successive and untimely petitions clog the court system and undermine the finality of convictions. Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 358, 871 P.2d 944, 950 (1994).

11. Petitioner had one year from August 7, 2000, the date the Nevada Supreme Court issued the remittitur from the judgment from a direct appeal, to file the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction).

12. Petitioner failed to establish good cause for the delay in filing the instant post-conviction Petition. This Court has previously held that (1) Petitioner procedurally defaulted his claim by failing to file his successive petition prior to December 21, 2007, one year after the Sharma-Mitchell claim became available for inclusion in a habeas petition and (2) Petitioner failed to demonstrate a colorable claim of innocence.

13. Petitioner's reliance on Martinez v. Ryan to establish good cause for delay is misplaced because Martinez v. Ryan does not address state procedural bars. See Martinez v. Ryan, 132 S.Ct. 1309 (2012); Brown v. McDaniel, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 60, 331 P.3d 867, 870 (2014).

14. The Petition is a successive Petition and it presents claims that have been presented in an earlier proceeding.

15. Petitioner failed to establish good cause for failing to present the claims earlier. Accordingly, the Petition lacks merit, and therefore, is denied.

ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction) shall be, and it is, hereby DENIED.

Dated this 9 day of December, 2014.

- IN CHAMBERS CONFERENCE. Bailiff advised Court and counsel there is a problem with juror #9. Juror #9 brought into chambers and advised Court and counsel that after jury selection, before she arrived home, her husband received a phone call, from a male stating he new his wife, however he called her by her middle name, and that she is on "HIS" trial and as she is the only black person left on the panel, he wants her to remain on the panel. Further, the male appeared to be calling through a third person, and requested he be allowed to call back when juror was home. Her husband told him NOT to call back. Mr. Wommer requested juror be allowed to remain on the panel. Juror stated she is afraid to remain on the panel. IN THE ABSENCE OF THE JUROR. Arguments by counsel as to whether or not she should be excused. COURT ORDERED, it will EXCUSE juror #9 out of the abundance of caution, and FURTHER, DEFT. TO HAVE NO PHONE OR VISTING PRIVILEDGES until the CONCLUSION of this trial. IN THE PRESENCE OF JUROR #9. Court advised juror #9 she is excused from serving any further, and stated she should call chambers if she receives anymore phone calls. LATER: In the absence of State's counsel, Mr. Wommer advised pursuant to the problems with juror #9 and some information he received, he believes the jury has been tainted and would move for a mistrial. Court directed Mr. Wommer to state the information he received for the record and as an officer of the Court. Statement by Mr. Wommer. Court advised it wants an in-camera hearing with the State, and it wants to individually question each juror before rendering a decision on the mistrial. IN THE PRESENCE OF ALL COUNSEL, in the ABSENCE of deft. Court advised it was going to swear in each juror individually and question them as to whether they have been contacted outside these proceedings, regarding these proceedings. Counsel requested it be a general question. Jurors 1-8, 10-12, and alternates 1&2, sworn and testified individually, and each stated they have not been contacted by either side as to this trial, nor have they read or heard anything about this trial. IN THE ABSENCE OF THE JURY, but in the presence of deft. Mr. Wommer moved for a mis-trial based on possible jury tampering, contamination, and the inference of improper conduct of the deft. Further, he feels his creditability with this jury has been exasperated. Arguments by counsel. COURT stated findings and ORDERED, motion DENIED. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. COURT ORDERED, alternate juror #1, to replace juror #9. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. IN THE ABSENCE OF THE JURY. Mr. Wommer advised he will be moving to dismiss CTS 7-13, the kidnapping charges and wanted to put the Court and State on notice. Statement by Mr. Owens regarding State's interpretation of the law.

- IN THE ABSENCE OF THE JURY. Deft's presence waived for purpose of this hearing. Mr. Kohn advised State intends to put in evidence of a robbery of a mini mart 3/29/98 and advised of status of that case. Further, noted there is a difference in description given by witnesses and deft's appearance at that time; the fingerprint taken out of the cash register was of a Tony Smith, whom deft. does not know, and there are some juvenile records that indicate deft. may have been in custody of the juvenile detention facilities, although that could not be verified. Mr. Kohn objected to this coming in as it is so damaging. Arguments by counsel. Court noted it's concern about the record from juvenile Court and whether or not deft. was in custody at time of robbery. Mr. Owens requested opportunity to verify this first. Mr. Kohn noted for the record witness stated the person that robbed this mini mart had a one inch beard and deft. never had facial hair growth at time. Arguments by counsel mitigating and aggravating circumstances and probative versus prejudicial value. Court advised it is concerned especially with that robbery if there is a doubt and if STate can prove deft. was not in custody then court will accept that as prima facia that deft. was in custody and could not have committed that robbery. COURT directed State to see if they can find a log as to deft's custodial status. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Opening statements by counsel. Counsel stipulated to mark new exhibits offered either next in order or use the same numbers as with first trial beginning with a "P". IN CHAMBERS CONFERENCE IN THE ABSENCE OF THE JURY AND DEFT. Counsel stipulated to strike portions of the first parargraph and instruct witnesses to not read portions stricken. COURT SO ORDERED. Mr. Kohn objected to witnesses testifying as to what impact the robbery had on them, not the murder and moved for mistrial as that is not appropriate for a penalty hearing. Arguments by counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. IN THE ABSENCE OF THE JURY, and in the presence of the deft. COURT noted Mr. Kohn objected to the one portion of the letter and instructed witness not to read portion stricken. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Tammy Wolfe, Division of Parole and Probation present. Argument by Mr. Kohn regarding first degree murder versus second degree murder with regard to State v. Byford. - Court indicated an area of concern involves ineffective counsel. Ms. Burke requested an evidentiary hearing concerning the issue of psycho-neurological examination and counsel is seeking a new psycho-neurological examination. Court noted there is an over-usage of federalization issue, and that issue should be raised on direct appeal. COURT ORDERED, status check SET on setting an evidentiary hearing (full argument) on the limited issue of neurological issue.

- Ms. Burke advised Court there is issue of failure to look for neurological examination at time of trial and there are other issues included in Petition. Mr. Owens pointed out this case was transferred to this Court from another Department, Defendant's counsel is attempting to broaden the scope of the Hearing and he would suggest the Court set this over for a week or two to allow for review of the file and to define the scope of the Evidentiary Hearing. Mr. Owens said all the briefs have been submitted and Court can rule what the scope of the Hearing is to be. Ms. Burke said there was no argument on neurological issue and there is to be full argument after Evidentiary Hearing; have not argued other issues in Petition. Mr. Owens objected saying this would open up the entire thought

Mr. Owens FILED Reporter's Transcript of Jury Trial, Tuesday, January 25, 2000, 1:30 P.M. Session IN OPEN COURT. COURT ORDERED STATUS CHECK CONTINUED ONE WEEK. Ms. Burke noted Defendant was transported from Ely and requested he remain in Las Vegas so she can meet with him. - Court inquired of Mr. Owens if he was requesting the entire file. Ms. Burke said request is for all papers, memorandums, notes; as near as she can tell that is the entire file. Court said State is not entitled to the entire file. Mr. Owens said the State served the Psychiatrist and Psychologist and they refused to give the State medical records; Defendant was in therapy with them for over a year and maybe some of the tests they administered covered the issue. Court said it would review the documents in-camera, because the Court knows what the State is looking for. Ms. Burke said State's request was too broad. Mr. Owens said State wants all the data off any tests Defendant was given and Mr. Kohn told Judge to let him think about that. Court said it was not going to require Ms. Burke to turn over the entire file.

Ms. Burke addressed Mr. Kohn's selection as Public Defender, said she has to withdraw as Defendant's counsel; has talked to Robert Langford about becoming Defendant's new counsel. Ms. Burke said she has talked to neurologist about doing the tests. Mr. Owens said trial may have to be continued and he has talked to Mr. Kohn and District Attorney David Roger. COURT ORDERED matter CONTINUED. COURT FURTHER ORDERED matter also placed on calendar for CONFIRMATION OF COUNSEL (ROBERT LANGFORD) in one week.

Court noted it has not seen any records and/or reports. Mr. Schwartz advised thus far the doctors have not honored the subpoenas. - COURT ORDERED DEFENDANT'S PRESENCE WAIVED. Court indicated it understood Mr. Langford came into case after this issue was raised. Court expressed concern that Defendant was only seventeen years old and records produced outline his entire life; his schooling, Child Protective Services issues, etc. Dr. Lewis Etcoff wrote the Court a letter, he complied with subpoena and gave the Court the raw data, provided the Court with all his records. Court said it would ask for more direction from the State, because the doctor expressed concern as to his ethical obligations to protect his client's privacy. Court said it would like more direction from the State, because records are from elementary school forward; records are essentially this Defendant's entire life history. Mr. Schwartz indicated he would discuss with Mr. Owens. Court instructed counsel to get together, discuss matter and come to Chambers to discuss matter informally.

PRESENT: Owens, Christopher J. Attorney

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Defendant Maxey not present and Ms. Burke requested his presence be WAIVED; COURT SO ORDERED. Ms. Burke said defense counsel has decided not to file Writ of Mandamus. Ms. Burke said to expedite matter, she is not waiving objection to turn over these materials or that they are admitted and she would like some clarification. Mr. Owens said there is a proposed Order as to the nature of what the Court is going to turn over. Court said the documentation has been reviewed in-camera and the Clerk has two separate envelopes that are to be made a part of the record; one envelope contains those documents to be turned over to counsel and the other contains those documents that will not be turned over. COURT ORDERED ALL DOCUMENTS SEALED; the documents contain raw data, billing records, Dr. Etcoff's therapy notes, etc. Counsel suggested Evidentiary Hearing date be set and they will submit their objections, if any, to the various documents. Ms. Burke pointed out Order should say neurological testing, NOT psychological. Court said Ms. Burke can take Order, revise it and allow Mr. Owens to review prior to submitting for the Court's signature.

Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding Dr. Etkoff's concerns regarding the privacy issues and Court said when the two parties are done with documents, they are to return their copies to the Court. Mr. Owens said since Defendant is not going to file his Petition, records are not in evidence. Court said records are going to be in evidence at Evidentiary Hearing; they are coming in. Ms. Burke said there is a relevancy issue and she is not agreeing records are admitted, just there is a possibility they are going to be introduced. Court said it is aware of Dr. Etkoff's concerns regarding privacy issues and the doctor complied with a Court Order to turn over these records. As to evaluating the raw data, the Court said it could only be evaluated by someone with the proper training to do so. COURT ORDERED documents are to be used by counsel only for the purpose of this litigation and issue as to whether documents should be shredded at a later date will be addressed after all Hearings are completed. Court indicated it would have copies of the documents to be turned over to counsel made for them, one set for each attorney. COURT ORDERED the word psychological STRICKEN and changed to neurological in Order. Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding work product and not attorney/client privilege and Mr. Owens said there are some items that are expressed as attorney/client privilege. Ms. Burke argued these are not medical records, they are counseling, treatment and diagnosis. Court said psychological records are medical records and that can be reflected in the Order. COURT ORDERED MATTER SET FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING. Court instructed Mr. Owens to prepare an Order to Transport Defendant Maxey for the date of the Evidentiary Hearing.

- Ms. Burke presented a letter to the Court and stated Deft's problem has been getting a neurologist to test the defendant in CCDC and the letter explains the problems we have run into. Dr. Farrow explains in the letter that the defendant needs an EEG at minimum to check for brain damage, however he can not do this test in the atmosphere of the jail because its not normal surroundings. Court noted it previously offered the courtroom for this examination. Ms. Burk stated the equipment in the doctors office is not portable. The Court noted it is not comfortable transporting the defendant around town for exams. Mr. Owens stated there are real security issues here by letting the defendant out of CCDC for these tests. COURT ORDERED, it is not convinced the doctor can't do the exam outside of his office. This Court will be in the Regional Justice Center soon and the Court has been told by the Detention Center they have a place where these exams can be done. Ms. Burke stated this would have to be done after hours and requested a two week continuance to speak with the doctor. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, DEFT. TO REMAIN IN CCDC.

- Court stated she has no received copy of MRI report from the doctor or any additional briefs. Further, Court noted Judge Douglas limited the issue as to neurological only. Ms. Burke advised MRI has been done and is normal. Further, doctor stated he did not have anything additional to add as there was no additional findings. On ineffective assistance of counsel, Ms. Burke argued it was due to not ordering MRI or Cat Scan. Court stated it is not appropriate to argue entire petition over again. Ms. Burke stated she would rely upon the briefs. Further, Court noted Deft. did not receive death penalty. Ms. Burke argued second prong cannot be met as there is no prejudice and no need for evidentiary hearing as there is no findings in the MRI. Court stated she believes letter from doctor indicates MRI was normal and ORDERED, letter to be made part of the record. Ms. Burke stated she has tried contacting the doctor for a report. Colloquy regarding specifically mentioning Federal Constitution grounds to go forward in Federal Court. Mr. Owens objected to declaration. Court stated Federalization was raised by Justice Douglas. Mr. Owens argued no evidence as to failure to Federalize and requested Court recognize as a whole. Further colloquy. Court stated you do not have to state is violating the U.S. Constitution when stated an objection. Further argument by Ms. Burke. Mr. Owens argued issue should have been raised on direct appeal. COURT ORDERED, Petition DENIED IN IT'S ENTIRETY and believes it is important to have doctor's report for the record. Ms. Burke advised she will pursue getting the report from the doctor. Further, Ms. Burke stated she never had the opportunity to argue other issues and requested to be allowed to argue those issues. Court stated she believes there was sufficient argument as to all issues and ORDERED, request DENIED. Ms. Burke stated as to issue of Breach of Fiduciary Duty, Deft. was made a ward of the State due to abuse and neglect. Further, as to the issue of Felony Robbery versus First Degree Premeditated Murder, Ms. Burke argued instruction was wrong as to the Robbery. Additionally, Ms. Burke argued no specific verdict form and does not know the basis Deft. was found guilty on. Court inquired if the State used Robbery as aggravating factor. Mr. Owens stated he believed they did. Court stated she believes this is a McConnell issue and advised she has allowed additional briefing. Ms. Burke stated it may have McConnell issues. Court inquired if counsel wants to wait for decision on McConnell issue or counsel can brief. Mr. Owens argued no death penalty imposed so why is McConnell an issue. Further argument by Ms. Burke. Additional colloquy. COURT ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check and counsel has ten (10) days to get letter from doctor and then the State can prepare the order. FURTHER ORDERED, Deft. to be transported back to the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC).
