Defendant not present. Mr. Jackson advised he attempted to subpoena the documents from the District Attorney's office, however, he was told the information would not be produced; and the alleged victim's credibility is an issue. Additionally, Mr. Jackson claimed the State is providing the alleged victim with money and gifts.

Ms. Beverly argued against Mr. Jackson's allegations, stating that bribing the alleged victim with monies and/or gifts is criminal, and Mr. Jackson's claims are false. Ms. Beverly also argued that defense counsel has not met the requirements that would necessitate a psychiatric evaluation.

Court NOTED it is not believable that the State would do such an act, and there is no evidence to corroborate Mr. Jackson's claims; however, he may file any Motions he wishes. Further arguments by counsel.

COURT ORDERED, Defendant's Motion is DENIED, noting there is no basis for an examination, and this is not the type of case for such evaluation. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, State to provide documentation if the witness was paid or compensated; Defendant's presence WAIVED.

Mr. Jackson argued that the victim is receiving funds from the Attorney General's office which shows they are showing undo influences over one of the witnesses. The Court instructed Mr. Jackson that he needs more back up regarding his allegations; hearsay is not enough. Mr. Jackson stated that that they provided funds to help this individual move. The Court reiterated that someone telling Mr. Jackson something is still not enough; affidavits need to be done. Additionally, Ms. Beverly already informed counsel that they did not do what is being alleged. Further arguments by Mr. Jackson. The Court advised that it will not make a special order compelling the victim to speak to the investigator; if she wishes to speak to the investigator, it is up to her. A member of the Court's staff checked with the interpreter's office and an interpreter was not ordered in advance. Colloquy regarding witnesses. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Jackson said the defendant testified to the Grand Jury in English and works in a casino. The Court stated that the matter will proceed today and parties can do what they can.

Anita Iral SWORN AND TESTIFIED. HAZEL IRAL SWORN AND TESTIFIED. The Court noted that this is one of these situations where everyone is telling the truth, but what does it mean. Plaintiff received money because of being in the foster system, which has nothing to do with the testimony in this case. There is no evidence of prosecutorial misconduct as the police did not force her to testify and there was no improper coaching. COURT FINDS, there was nothing improper done to influence the victim's testimony; will copy the CPS records for the State and defense. FURTHER, motion to continue trial is DENIED as Hazel Iral seems to have worked through the issues and is poised, therefore there is no reason to continue the trial. Mr. Jackson stated he wants an individual psychological evaluation due to the attempted suicide. COURT FINDS, suicide attempt does not make testimony no credible and there is nothing to suggest she wasn't being truthful about the reason for the attempt; here credibility as a witness is intact. - Mr. Jackson argued in support of the Motion, citing the "Cunningham" case, and stated pursuant to the Nevada Supreme Court, the State is not required to allege the exact date of an offense charged; however, whenever possible, should do so as closely thereto as possible. Mr. Jackson further argued that the issue of age will be critical, and the State needs to give notice when those alleged incidents occurred; and moved to dismiss for violating Defendant's due process rights.

Opposition by Ms. Beverly, citing the "Wilson" case, and argued that the State is not attempting to hide any information; further, the date in the Indictment is when Defendant was residing with the Iral family, and the end date is when the police became involved. Further arguments by counsel.

Court stated its findings, NOTING that although the State could have pled this case more specifically, Defendant's due process rights are not violated, and adequate notice was provided; additionally, the State will have to prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt, including the age of the witness(es).

The Court further stated that Mr. Jackson was told at the bench that he was putting the cart before the horse and that this Court has nothing against Mr. Jackson nor his client, but does disagree with his conduct. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Leah and Ms. Lavelle stated that this comported with their recollection. Mr. Jackson stated that he feels that the Court is biased against him. The Court informed Mr. Jackson that the fact that he disagrees with the Court's rulings is not a basis for recusal. Ms. Beverly objected to Mr. Jackson's motion for recusal; the potential juror has done her job for thirteen years and said she could be fair. QUESTIONING OF JUROR OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE OTHER JURORS. COURT ORDERED, for cause challenge is DENIED. FURTHER, Mr. Jackson's renewed motion to recuse is DENIED as well. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Jury selection. CONFERENCE AT BENCH. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Colloquy regarding jury selection. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Jury SELECTED AND SWORN. Indictment read by the clerk. Evening recess. MATTER CONTINUED.

- IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Opening statements by Leah Beverly. Mr. Jackson reserved the right to opening statements at this time. EXCLUSIONARY FULE INVOKED. Testimony and exhibits presented per worksheet. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. The Court instructed Ms. Leah to show any evidence to Mr. Jackson prior to showing it to the jury. Mr. Jackson requested that the bench conferences be recorded. The Court explained to him that this Courtroom is not equipped to comply with his request. The Court reminded counsel not to make speaking objections, but to object properly. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Testimony and exhibits presented per worksheet. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. The Court informed counsel that it may be possible to record the bench conferences, however Ms. Olsen contacted IT and they cannot come to the Courtroom right away; it may take some time due to their scheduling. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Testimony and exhibits presented per worksheet. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. The Court discussed the fact that the State's witness divulged that the Defendant requested counsel.

Mr. Jackson MOVED for a mistrial. The Court informed counsel that it can't cure a negative inference. It may be able to be cured by asking about the right to counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion for MISTRIAL is DENIED. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Mr. Jackson MOVED or a mistrial and wanted the record to show his continuing request for a mistrial. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Testimony and exhibits presented per worksheet. CONFERENCE AT BENCH. Testimony and exhibits per worksheet. Evening recess. MATTER CONTINUED.

- OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. The Court informed counsel that the technology for recording bench conferences will not be ready today. Colloquy regard issue of detective's testimony from the previous day. Pursuant to constance interruptions to the Court by Mr. Jackson, the Court admonished him as to his constant interrupting, rudeness, belligerence. The Court informed him that if it does not cease, Mr. Jackson will be subject to sanctions.

The Court stated its recollection that Ms. Leah stopped questioning the detective after his response; Mr. Jackson is trying to cause his own mistrial. COURT ORDERED, motion for mistrial is DENIED for the reasons already stated. Further arguments by Mr. Jackson. The Court again stated that there are no grounds for a mistrial. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. CONFERENCE AT BENCH. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Testimony and exhibits per worksheet. Mr. Jackson said he intended to ask about the payments received by the victim for CPS. COURT ORDERED, that is DENIED; issue has been gone through many times. Arguments by Mr. Jackson that he wants to check into the defendant's mental status. COURT ORDERED, DENIED. COURT FINDS, there is no reason to discuss her mental status. Mr. Jackson stated he has a right to ask if she was taking drugs. The Court informed him that this is not a case that is not clear. Frankly, the Court informed Mr. Jackson is preposterous because parties watch her video for two hours. The fact that she was hospitalized for a suicide attempt and was depressed after she was taken from her home is not a surprise. IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. Testimony and exhibits presented per worksheet. The State RESTED. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY. The Stated objected to Mr. Jackson's first witness as he did not provide a five day notice; she requested an offer of proof of the relevance of calling this witness. Mr. Jackson advised this witness is going to testify as to Hazel's voracity. The Court recognized that the notice was untimely, but will allow her testimony.
