RE: GUARDIANSHIP COMMISSION

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my interest in serving on the proposed Guardianship Commission. My position with AARP affords me perspective and experience from the view of the caregiver and concern for the welfare of the protected person. AARP was instrumental in passing the Care Act, which became effective January 2016. I participate in the Dementia Friendly Nevada initiative, which focuses on the needs of dementia patients and their caregivers which affects our state's growing elderly population. One of the main pain points in dealing with dementia issues in our state is the ability to get a diagnosis early enough that the patient still has capacity to make guardianship/planning decisions.

I have attached my resume for your review. My background in the legal field and my work with policy at the state puts me in a unique position to understand the intricacies of the law while providing valuable input and perspective from the agencies and caregivers I work with through AARP. Guardianship will continue to be a growing issue in our state as we have surpassed Florida as the number one destination state for retirement in the nation.

Thank you for your consideration and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Lynda Hascheff

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Community Outreach Director AARP Nevada

July 2016 – Present

Challenged to work with staff, volunteers, members, state and community partners, and other AARP units to achieve AARP's social impact and member value goals. Engage volunteers in community outreach, AARP priorities, grassroots activities, and educational forums. Charged with managing 350 state volunteers through projects, local events, and growth through our continuum of opportunities. Directly responsible for engaging members, community partners, and volunteers from diverse communities in AARP priorities and community presence work. Leverages professional networks and established community leadership role to develop a presence in communities through strengthening visibility, volunteer capacity, building community partnerships, delivering programs, media presence, activities and outreach to AARP members. Responsible for managing five of the seven state budgets within strategic goals.

Executive Director Moms on the Run

June 2014 – July 2016

Moms on the Run is a small but mighty non-profit in Reno, Nevada. It supports patients in breast and/or gyn cancer treatment. It provides financial support for rent, mortgages, car payments, food, kid's glasses, plane tickets to get loved ones to the area for end of life goodbyes, etc. It is a financial safety net for expenses that are not covered by any other agency. We were usually the one resource that saved patients from losing their homes or losing everything once they lost their job due to illness. Our typical recipient was single, head of household.

* * *

I was honored to be hired as their first ever Executive Director and I was charged with managing the day-to-day operations of the organization and building our community presence. This included meeting with patients to determine their eligibility and the scope and length of their financial need. I was the grant writer, bookkeeper, and community outreach partner. I was the lead on all grassroots fundraising events which included an annual 5k/10k run, a motorcycle poker run, a fashion show and a "pinkout" party. I was the volunteer program manager and solely responsible for our annual budget, reporting to a Board of Directors. We strived to do most of our fundraising through grassroots methods so that our funds were 'unrestricted' and allowed us to meet the needs of our community in real time. I was charged with developing community partnerships and collaborations to develop financial resource strategies that ensured our dollars were used at their highest and best use.

Project Manager
Governor's Office of Economic Development

May 2013 – June 2014

Delivered project management services to C-level executives in areas of autonomous systems, commercialization, technology and boards and commissions. Charged with overseeing all boards and commissions to ensure adherence to the open meeting law. Developed policies and procedures for new areas of expertise including the states FAA application to become one of the first nine states to be given FAA approval for autonomous systems (e.g. drones). Worked closely with the Director of Commercialization and Technology on grant funding to our higher education units for developments in areas of new technology. Participated on councils involving venture capital funding and angel funding through our agency. Was project manager for new legislation that was approved and needed to go live such as the Emerging Small Business Program under Assemblywoman Irene Bustamante Adams. Managed a small staff of five and managed budgets for several projects. Oversaw the remodel and expansion of our offices to a local historic building.

Office Manager/Chief of Staff
Pierre Hascheff, Attorney at Law
Elected Official

June 1995 – May 2013

This was a sole practitioner law practice and he was also a Reno City Councilman.

I ran the every-day operations of the law office including management of staff, meeting with clients, producing legal documents and budget management. I was charged with bringing our building into compliance with the ADA requirements. I was Chief of Staff to the elected official including managing constituent concerns, responding to committee and council correspondence and managing all boards and commissions he served on. This included preparation of materials and summary briefs on each council/commission meeting.
