- 35. I understand that if I am appointed a temporary guardian:
 - The court will set a hearing within 10 days to decide whether to extend the temporary guardianship.
 - I will have to attempt in good faith to notify the adult's relatives and any other required person of the temporary guardianship and the hearing to extend the temporary guardianship. If I do not, the court can terminate the guardianship.
 - The court can extend the temporary guardianship only if there is clear and convincing evidence that the adult still needs a temporary guardian. If extended, the guardianship usually can only be extended for two 60-day periods.
- 36. Certificate of Incapacity must be filed showing the need for a guardianship over the proposed protected person. For a temporary guardianship, the certificate must show that the proposed protected person faces an immediate and substantial risk of physical or financial harm, or needs immediate medical attention, and is unable to respond to the risk of harm or obtain the medical care. The certificate must be completed and signed by one of the following:
 - A physician who is licensed to practice medicine in this State or who is employed by the Department of Veterans' Affairs;
 - A governmental agency in this State which conducts investigations; or
 - Any other person whom the court finds qualified to execute a certificate.

 - Require the funds to be placed into a blocked account.
 - Require you to obtain a bond in an amount equal to the total amount of the proposed protected person's liquid assets.

If there are people you did not contact (because you can't find them or because contacting them would put the child in danger), you must list their names and the reason you did not contact them.

After you file this paperwork, you will have to notify them again by sending copies of your filed paperwork by certified mail or personal service.

- 39. I understand that if I am appointed a temporary guardian:
 - The court will set a hearing within 10 days to decide whether to extend the temporary guardianship.
 - I will have to attempt in good faith to notify the child's relatives and any other required person of the temporary guardianship and the hearing to extend the temporary guardianship. If I do not, the court can terminate the guardianship.
 - The court can extend the temporary guardianship only if there is clear and convincing evidence that the child still needs a temporary guardian. If extended, the guardianship usually can only be extended for two 60-day periods.
