Deft. provided a written statement to the Court, for review, and inquired if the proposition 36 halfway house program is available for him. Following colloquy between Court and Deft, Court stated it will not impose the program in this case. DEFT. GRIMES ADJUDGED GUILTY of COUNT 1 - ATTEMPT MURDER WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON IN VIOLATION OF A TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER (F); COUNT 2 - BURGLARY WHILE IN POSSESSION OF A DEADLY WEAPON IN VIOLATION OF A TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER (F); and COUNT 3 - BATTERY WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON CONSTITUTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESULTING IN SUBSTANTIAL BODILY HARM IN VIOLATION OF A TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER (F). Ms. Botelho argued as to imposition of sentence, and requested small habitual criminal treatment be imposed, for use of deadly weapon enhancement, on Counts 2 and 3. State's Exhibits presented (See Worksheets.). Ms. Hojjat made no objections to the Exhibits. Court reviewed Deft's written statements. Ms. Hojjat objected to adjudication of Count 3, based on trial proceedings. Ms. Botelho argued in support of adjudication; and provided case law from Jackson vs. State, to the Court. Upon review, Court stated it needs more time to finish reviewing the supporting case law, before making a decision. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED. Court provided a copy of the case law to Ms. Hojjat. CASE RECALLED. Ms. Hojjat requested to a transcript from trial, to verify if a record was made on dismissal of Count 3, as State may have agreed to it. Court advised counsel to request a CD recording of the trial from the Recorder, and listen to the trial proceedings, to verify.

5 THE COURT: State versus Bennett Grimes, C276163-1.

6 MR. MORGAN: Good morning, Judge. Shawn Morgan for the State.

7 THE COURT: The record shall reflect the presence of the Defendant in 8 custody.

9 MR. HILLMAN: Roger Hillman, Public Defender's office for Mr. Grimes.
10 We're going to plead not guilty.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Grimes?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: You have a right to a trial within 60 days. Have you discussed
14 this with your lawyer? It's called your speedy trial rights.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: And do you intend to waive or invoke your speedy trial rights?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Invoke.

18 THE COURT: Okay. The Defendant having invoked his speedy trial rights,
19 the matter will be set as close to the 60-day mark as the Court's schedule permits.

20 THE CLERK: Thank you. Your jury trial will be December the 13th at 1:30.
21 The calendar call, December the 6th at 8:30, in Department 12.

22 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Grimes, you have previously been asked your full 23 true name? No? What's your full true name?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Bennett Goldeen [phonetic] Grimes.

25 THE COURT: And how old are you?

1 THE DEFENDANT: I'm 32.

2 THE COURT: And how far did you go in school?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Completed the certified diploma. Received a diploma.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So do you read, write, and understand the English
5 language?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: You've been provided a copy of the information that charges
8 you in three counts with attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon in violation of 9 a temporary protective order, burglary in violation of a temporary protective order,
10 and battery with use of a deadly weapon constituting domestic violence resulting in 11 substantial bodily harm in violation of a temporary protective order?

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, I haven't received that.

13 THE COURT: You remember your proceedings in Justice Court?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Do you remember those charges from Justice Court?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Actually they added more charges that day, that last day,
17 so this would probably be new, the first time I would get the updated paperwork.

18 THE COURT: Okay. What were the charges in Justice Court?

19 THE DEFENDANT: They weren't -- they didn't include the TPOs.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry --

21 MR. HILLMAN: Right. They added the enhancement.

22 THE COURT: Okay. But the attempt murder, the burglary, and the battery
23 with use of a deadly weapon are charges that you recall?

25 yeah.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So you did read that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, I read that.

3 THE COURT: Okay. State, in addition to the temporary protective order
4 language, and I assume the date of the -- date of the protective order, what else
5 changed in the language?

6 MR. MORGAN: Judge, I added -- after the hearing, I added that the burglary,
7 count two, was while in possession of a firearm and the correct spelling of the 8 victim's name.

9 THE COURT: And the correct spelling of the alleged victim's name?

10 MR. MORGAN: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So, sir, you understand basically what the changes are.
12 They changed the spelling of the alleged victim's name and so do you understand
13 the charges against you?

14 THE DEFENDANT: No. He just said something about a firearm.

15 MR. HILLMAN: There is no firearm. It was a knife.

16 MR. MORGAN: Oh, excuse me. While --

17 THE COURT: Deadly weapon.

18 MR. MORGAN: While in possession of a deadly weapon.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So do you understand the charges against you?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Um -- it's --

21 THE COURT: You're going to have a seat and I'll recall the case. Read it all 22 so that you're very comfortable.

23 THE DEFENDANT: No, I was going to ask you just one quick question.

24 THE COURT: What's your one quick question?

25 THE DEFENDANT: It said possession of a knife, but I didn't -- I didn't enter

1 the premises with a knife.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Well that's something that your lawyer can file a writ on.

3 THE DEFENDANT: All right.

4 THE COURT: Right now is not a time to discuss the validity of the charges.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Right.

6 THE COURT: The time right now is to just discuss have you read 'em and do
7 you understand them? That's all we talk about right now.

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, when can I file that writ?

9 THE COURT: Your lawyer will file that writ if he -- after he talks to you and 10 thinks it's appropriate to file.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Um --

12 THE COURT: So I'm going to go back to my original question. Do you
13 understand the charges?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Okay. You're going to have a trial -- if your lawyer files a writ
16 that will ruin your chances for a speedy trial. So that's something you have to talk
17 about before he actually does it.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Right.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

21 MR. HILLMAN: Thank you, Judge.

4 MR. MORGAN: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Case C276163. Mr. Grimes is present. He's in custody.
6 Okay. Mr. Saxe do you have -- it appears this motion is moot 'cause the second
7 amended Information -- I don't think you filed this motion, I think Mr. Hillman did but 8 you're standing in for him.

9 MR. SAXE: Correct.

10 THE COURT: It appears to be moot because it appears it was a clerical error
11 and the State has filed a second amended Information and it says deadly weapon, it 12 does not say firearm.

13 MR. SAXE: Correct.

14 THE COURT: So, it's moot, and it's off calendar.

15 MR. MORGAN: Yes Judge. Shawn Morgan for the State. In speaking with

RECORDED BY: KERRY ESPARZA, COURT RECORDER

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, THURSDAY, JUNE 7, 2012, 8:59 A.M.

2 MR. HILLMAN: Judge, could we call Grimes, please?

3 THE COURT: What page?

4 MR. HILLMAN: It is on page five.

5 THE COURT: 2276163.

6 MR. HILLMAN: This is Ms. Hojjat's. She's going to argue the motions.

7 Mr. Grimes did not come today, he refused to come. But I don't think we need him
8 here to argue these motions.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Is this your client that keeps forgetting to come? Or 10 that keeps not wanting to come?

11 MR. HILLMAN: This is a different client of mine that doesn't want to come to 12 court.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

14 MR. HILLMAN: I don't take it personal though.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Good. All right. Do you want to just start with the first 16 request?

17 MS. HOJJAT: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor. Nadia Hojjat, number
18 12401. We are requesting, well, actually, based on the State's response, to save --

19 THE COURT: Well, I can just go through it, number one I'm going to grant to 20 the extent they exist and it appears that the State's handed over everything that they 21 do have so far. Number two, the State's indicated they have complied with that; do 22 you agree?

23 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor, based on the State's response.

24 THE COURT: Okay. It's granted. Number three, I will grant to the extent it
25 exists. And again, the State says that they have complied with that; do you agree?

1 MS. HOJJAT: Based on the State's response, we'll agree.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Number four, the State says they are not aware of any
3 of this evidence; however, if they become aware of it, they will provide it to you;
4 and so that is granted as well.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Number five, the State, again, is not aware of any their 7 witnesses that are informants; however, I'm assuming if the State does become 8 aware of that, they'll provide it; is that correct?

9 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: So that is granted. Number six, again, I would grant this 11 normally. Again, the State says this doesn't exist. But to the extent that it exists, it's 12 granted. Number seven, the State indicates that there is none known. This is a 13 interesting request, I haven't seen this one before. But to the extent that it would 14 exist, it is granted.

15 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Number eight, the Court is going to grant this as to prior 17 felonies or crimes that involved honesty, truthfulness, or untruthfulness; is there
18 anything that you want to add?

19 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: I don't think you're entitled to the juvenile records because 21 they're sealed.

22 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor --

23 THE COURT: You're not entitled misdemeanors unless it goes to truthfulness
24 or untruthfulness, but go ahead.

25 MS. HOJJAT: If I may, Your Honor, the reason we're requesting the full

1 N.C.I.C. record is pursuant to the Brady line, Brady, Kyles, Giglio, the information
2 doesn't necessarily have to be admissible at trial for us to be entitled to it. For 3 example, for the reason that if, for example, the alleged victim gets up there and 4 says, I've never hit anybody before and she has a misdemeanor battery charge,
5 then that does suddenly become admissible even though prior to trial misdemeanor
6 battery would not be admissible and it's not a crime of honesty or dishonesty.

7 THE COURT: Not necessary -- not necessarily, you'd have to live with her
8 answer. If she said, I've never hit anybody, and you said, Have you ever been 9 convicted of a misdemeanor battery, and she said, No, you'd be stuck with the 10 answer no. You wouldn't be able to impeach her with her criminal record because 11 you can't bring in extrinsic evidence.

12 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, at that point we would argue that it goes to 13 bias. And pursuant to Lobato, bias is always not a collateral matter, it is a matter
14 that we can impeach on. But so we would, we're not asking for -- we're basically
15 just asking for the State to run an N.C.I.C., which we don't have access to, and to 16 provide us with the results of that. And we think we're entitled to under Brady,
17 Kyles, Giglio and their progeny.

18 THE COURT: I'm going to grant it and order that the State turn over any prior 19 felonies or crimes that go to truthfulness or untruthfulness only.

20 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.

21 THE COURT: The rest of it is denied. Number nine, the State indicates that 22 there is none. However, if any -- I mean, there is none now, none are going to come
23 to light later, correct?

24 MS. BOTELHO: I'm not aware of any that should be coming in, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Number 10 is granted to the extent that it exists. And of

1 course, number 11 you're entitled to all statements made by any of the witnesses in
2 this case, so that's granted.

3 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you. And Your Honor, on that one --

4 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

5 MS. HOJJAT: -- I'm sorry, specifically what you're requesting on number 11 is 6 that it's come to our attention through the preliminary hearing that the victim, in the 7 seconds before this incident occurred, was texting people, and we believe that goes 8 to her state of mind, that those texts could reveal what she was thinking, what she 9 was planning on doing, and we believe -- we request that the State provide us with 10 those text messages.

11 MS. BOTELHO: And, Your Honor --

12 THE COURT: The victim was texting prior to --

13 MS. HOJJAT: In the seconds before this incident happened, she specifically 14 said that she was sending out texts to people.

15 THE COURT: The victim?

16 MS. HOJJAT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Who was the victim of -- who was the alleged victim of attempt 18 murder?

19 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And domestic violence and all that, her state of mind?

21 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, there is some question as to who the initial 22 aggressor was in this case.

23 MS. BOTELHO: And Your Honor --

24 THE COURT: You mean, like, if she's texting, I'm going to get the defendant, 25 that type of thing?

1 MS. HOJJAT: Possibly, we don't know what those texts say.

2 MS. BOTELHO: And, Your Honor, I'm appearing on behalf of Mr. Morgan
3 who is the lead counsel on this particular case. I'm not aware of any subpoenas that 4 we have issued for the victim's records, particularly the victim's text messages. If 5 the defense finds it relevant and, you know, something they would like to present in 6 their case in chief or something that they would like to have for impeachment or 7 whatever else, whatever purpose they see fit, I would ask that the defense issue a
8 subpoena and, you know, obtain that information.

9 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, it's our --

10 THE COURT: It's really hard to get because do you know that's been 11 interpreted as a phone call? Text messages have been interpreted as phone calls.
12 It's like intercepting a phone call. And I don't know how long text messages are 13 kept. Are you suggesting that the State's supposed to somehow go to a carrier of 14 the victim and get those text messages?

15 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, given that these could be inconsistent
16 statements by the victim, it's our position that pursuant to Brady, Kyles, Giglio, we 17 were -- the State should have done that immediately when it became known that --

18 THE COURT: The State --

19 MS. HOJJAT: -- as soon as she mentioned that she was sending texts and 20 that if they didn't and they're now lost, that would be a failure to collect.

21 MS. BOTELHO: Your Honor, if we had not subpoenaed them, that means we 22 did not see any exculpatory or nature in the text messages.

23 THE COURT: Well, they're not -- they're not in your possession either.

24 MS. BOTELHO: And it's not in our possession, it's not something that we 25 sought. If it's important to the defendant's case and the presentation of his case, we

1 would suggest that -- that they issue a subpoena. They would have to go through
2 the same channels that the State would have to go to obtain that particular
3 information.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. HOJJAT: But, Your Honor, pursuant to federal law, that State has an 6 obligation to seek out, it's not just to turn over inconsistent statements that are in 7 their possession, they have an obligation to seek out this information. And when it's 8 been revealed 14 days after the incident happened that this information existed,
9 they had an obligation to seek it out. If it's their position that it's no longer available,
10 then that was a failure to collect.

11 THE COURT: I don't know if that's their position or not.

12 MS. HOJJAT: If it is still available, they have -- if it's not their position, then 13 they have an obligation to seek it out and provide it to us if it's inconsistent.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to deny the request to have the State
15 somehow subpoena the text messages, but the defense is free to attempt to get 16 them. Number 12, that is granted. Number 13, that's granted to the extent it's 17 required by statute only. Number 14 --

18 MS. HOJJAT: And number 14, given the State's response, we would not 19 provide that information to the defendant, it would just be for our own investigative 20 purposes for trial.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I've had this issue before, they can give all updated
22 information except as to the victim. And if you want to speak to the victim, and, I
23 mean, I've had this come up numerous times, we can set a date, time, and place
24 where the victim will become available if -- is the victim he or she?

25 MS. BOTELHO: She.

1 THE COURT: Where she can speak to you if she wants to. Okay?
2 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.
3 THE COURT: Number 15 is granted. And you can prepare the order.
4 MS. HOJJAT: I'm sorry, Your Honor, there's three more.
5 THE COURT: There's only 15. Oh, I'm sorry, that I went to -- I forgot the last 6 page, number 16.
7 MS. HOJJAT: And number 16, what we're specifically asking for is, I believe 8 we do have --
9 THE COURT: The 9-1-1 calls?
10 MS. HOJJAT: -- the 9-1-1 calls from the male, the victim's father, but we don't 11 have the victim's actual 9-1-1 call.
12 THE COURT: Okay. It's granted.
13 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.
14 THE COURT: Number 17 is granted to the extent they exist. Number 18 is 15 granted.
16 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: Thank you.
18 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.
19 MR. HILLMAN: Thanks, Judge.

25 RECORDED BY: KERRY ESPARZA, COURT RECORDER

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, TUESDAY, JUNE 12, 2012, 9:20 A.M.

2 THE COURT: C276163. He's present, he's in custody, it's on for calendar
3 call. Okay, it's my understanding Mr. Hillman's going to ask for a continuance in 4 open court.

5 MR. HILLMAN: I have a written motion. Thank you. And we sent a copy to 6 your J.E.A. yesterday, Judge, and the State.

7 THE COURT: What's the State's position?

8 MR. MORGAN: Judge, the State would ask counsel to provide a specific and 9 articulate reason for the need for the continuance. I think that just using --

10 THE COURT: More than his client wouldn't talk to him?

11 MR. MORGAN: Well, I -- he said that that was repaired, and really the issue
12 that I read was outstanding discovery issues that need to be finalized and minor
13 investigation to be completed. I just think that using the buzz word that they would 14 be ineffective isn't a basis, shouldn't be a basis for a continuance without some 15 specific reason.

16 Obviously, the State's position is at some point the victim needs closure
17 in this case, Judge. She was stabbed 17 times in the face and chest and every time
18 she looks in the mirror, she thinks of the victim -- of the defendant. And not only 19 that, but she has to have the fear of this case hanging over her head every single 20 day and, you know, continuance after continuance, I never opposed Mr. Hillman's
21 prior continuances, but at some point --

22 THE COURT: How many times has it been continued?

23 MR. MORGAN: Three or four, I believe.

24 THE COURT: Okay, then you're going to probably have to give me -- he's 25 talking to you, right?

1 MR. HILLMAN: Yes, we had broken down to the point on Friday where I
2 thought I was going to have to withdraw and we would not be able to do this trial at 3 all because it was to the point where my further representation of him would be
4 detrimental to his interests. It was that bad. Ms. Hojjat in her --

5 THE COURT: With you?

6 MR. HILLMAN: With me -- in her --

7 THE COURT: Okay, and I'm telling you, if you can't get along with 8 Mr. Hillman, I mean --

9 MR. HILLMAN: Judge, could I interrupt for one second?

10 THE COURT: Sure.

11 MR. HILLMAN: And the problem that we have -- I came to understand some 12 things about Mr. Grimes at that point in time. He just really doesn't understand what 13 we're doing here. We finally got down to some very basic facts, he gave me some 14 information --

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. HILLMAN: -- that we need to follow up on, that we have not followed up,
17 we're not going to be able to follow up on before next week.

18 THE COURT: Tell me what they are.

19 MR. HILLMAN: It has to do with medical investigation regarding a medical 20 condition he has that may or may not come into play in our defense. Those records
21 are down in Riverside, California.

22 THE COURT: What would they be relevant to?

23 MR. HILLMAN: They'd be relevant to his physical health.

24 THE COURT: To intent?

25 MR. HILLMAN: And to a potential -- a potential self-defense scenario in this

1 particular case. I've talked with his --

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. HILLMAN: -- subsequently, I've talked to his parents, if we cannot find 4 the doctor that treated him, we may be able to find some other people who were 5 aware that he was in a wheelchair for six months, that he is considered disabled,
6 and that he was shot, which has an effect upon his mental bearing and an effect as 7 to what happened in this particular case.

8 There's also the issue of the -- the text messages that was brought up
9 last week in the discovery motion, we'd still like to see if we can get those. In talking 10 to our investigators, it's not going to be something that can be done in a couple of 11 weeks. It generally takes, I believe they told me six weeks or so to get. And I
12 understand that State's --

13 THE COURT: But you think this --

14 MR. HILLMAN: -- point of view, and I wouldn't -- and I understand the Court's 15 point of view about continuances, we've had several continuances, part of that time
16 when there was a continuance, I was out of the office and was unable to be in 17 contact with Mr. Grimes.

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MR. HILLMAN: And that's hindered our ability to get ready. But the bottom
20 line is is we kind of had a meeting of the minds, finally, between Mr. Grimes and I,
21 and I now understand why he has had the attitude that he's had. He's not
22 disrespectful of me, he's just more frustrated than anything else. And he and I
23 were -- were like this for most of this case. We've worked through that now and we 24 now -- I now understand what I need to do to adequately prepare for this case. And 25 there are a few things left to do.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. MORGAN: I think in --

3 THE COURT: But it goes to a self-defense issue?

4 MR. HILLMAN: We don't know if we're --

5 THE COURT: Potentially?

6 MR. HILLMAN: -- going to present a self-defense issue or not, but it's 7 something that we do need to prepare for.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. MORGAN: I mean, obviously, this isn't -- there's not going to be a 10 penalty phase, so there's no mitigation evidence or --

11 THE COURT: Right.

12 MR. MORGAN: -- that Mr. Hillman described --

13 THE COURT: That's why I asked him specifically what's it relevant for and he 14 told me for a potential self-defense. Because I agree, I mean, that stuff sounds like 15 mitigation.

16 MR. MORGAN: That's the State's position on that. As to the text messages, 17 obviously, I mean, I'm sure this Court's well aware, I think the likelihood of having 18 the substance of text messages going on a year ago is pretty much nonexistent, the 19 likelihood of there being substance of text messages.

20 THE COURT: That's what I think, but --

21 MR. MORGAN: So I think that that's just a waste of time, personally. And the 22 State would still object to the continuance.

23 MR. HILLMAN: And I had always hoped that we'd be able to eventually work
24 this case out. But there's never been an offer made by the State either on this.

25 MR. MORGAN: And the State --

1 MR. HILLMAN: And that's --

2 THE COURT: So, it's not going to happen.

3 MR. HILLMAN: And they don't have to make an offer, I understand that.

4 THE COURT: Yeah, well, yeah, so it's not going to happen.

5 MR. HILLMAN: Right.

6 THE COURT: So it's going to go to trial.

7 MR. HILLMAN: And Mr. Bennett's looking at a lot of time if we lose.

8 THE COURT: Yeah, he is.

9 MR. HILLMAN: And I -- and just personally, I'd feel better if -- if we did these
10 things to kind of feel like we're prepared, and I don't think I can prepare an effective 11 case for him at this point in time.

12 THE COURT: How much time do you need?

13 MR. HILLMAN: About 60 days would be good.

14 THE COURT: Okay, then I'll grant the motion to continue. And we'll reset it
15 on the next stack. And you know, Mr. Grimes, that you have to continue to, you
16 know, communicate with Mr. Hillman; you understand that, right?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: I mean, he's on your team.

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: You got that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

22 THE COURT: All right, because if you don't communicate with him, it doesn't 23 mean I'm going to give you a new lawyer; do you understand that? You'll have to 24 suffer that.

25 THE DEFENDANT: Correct.

1 THE COURT: But it sounds like, from what Mr. Hillman told me, that you've
2 gotten it all worked out, okay, and you're going to tell him where he has to go to get
3 all this medical information, right?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am, I'll help him out.

5 THE COURT: Okay. If that's the case, that should be pretty easy.

6 MR. HILLMAN: I think so, we should have no problem getting this ready in 7 60 days.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 THE CLERK: Calendar call August 21 at 8:30; jury trial August 28 at 1:30.

10 MR. HILLMAN: Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: You're welcome.

12 MR. MORGAN: Thank you, Judge.

RECORDED BY: KERRY ESPARZA, COURT RECORDER

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 2012, 9:50 A.M.

2 THE COURT: State of Nevada versus Bennett Grimes, C276163. He's
3 present. He is in custody. It's on for defendant's motion to dismiss for failure to 4 gather evidence.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Good morning, Your Honor, Nadia Hojjat, number 12401, on 6 behalf of Mr. Grimes. And, Your Honor, if we may approach about --

7 MR. MORGAN: Various issues.

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 MR. MORGAN: Thank you.

10 [Bench conference as follows:]

11 MR. MORGAN: Hi, Judge, how you doing?

12 THE COURT: Good, thank you.

13 MR. MORGAN: So, Roger, I don't know if you heard, is having some medical 14 issues.

15 MS. HOJJAT: Roger Hillman is scheduled, he's the first chair on this.

16 THE COURT: You'll tell me later, right?

17 MR. IMLAY: Right.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MS. HOJJAT: He will not be back in the office until August 30th, the trial is set
20 to go on August 28th right now. So the defense would have been ready to go, we 21 were anticipating announcing ready at calendar call; however, these medical issues
22 were unforeseen and we are going to be asking for this case to be pushed back to 23 the next stack because Mr. Hillman will be out for a significant period of time and 24 won't be able to prep in the weeks before the trial.

25 THE COURT: Does it need to be assigned to somebody else?

1 MR. IMLAY: No, he'll be back on the 30th.
2 THE COURT: Okay.
3 MR. MORGAN: Judge, here's my concern, between us, September 14th is 4 going to be my last day in the office.
5 THE COURT: Where are you going?
6 MR. MORGAN: I'm moving to Portland.
7 THE COURT: Shut up.
8 MR. MORGAN: Yeah, just for change of scenery.
9 THE COURT: What?
10 MR. MORGAN: Going to -- I'm just ready for a change of scenery, I guess.
11 MR. IMLAY: He's tired of the desert.
12 THE COURT: Wow, geez, he's tired of the judges?
13 MR. IMLAY: The desert.
14 MR. MORGAN: No, no, no.
15 MR. IMLAY: Yeah, that's what he's --
16 MR. MORGAN: Never.
17 MR. IMLAY: -- that what he told me, but --
18 MR. MORGAN: Yeah, so that being the case, you know, I've had a long 19 relationship with this victim. I've had the case from the beginning. She is ready for 20 this case to go forward. We speak monthly. And I really am invested in this case
21 and would like to try it before I leave.
22 THE COURT: And when do you leave?
23 MR. MORGAN: September 14th is my last day.
24 THE COURT: Well, I don't know what you want me to do, I can't force --
25 MR. MORGAN: I understand.

1 THE COURT: -- Mr. Hillman to come back ill.

2 MR. MORGAN: Well, if he comes back on the 30th, I would request that we
3 either kick the trial a week or two weeks at the latest, two weeks is as far as we can
4 do it for me to be able to still try it. That would be my request.

5 MS. HOJJAT: And we do oppose that request just because Mr. Hillman's
6 going to be out for such a long period of time.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, this is an attempt murder case. No one's invoked?

8 MR. MORGAN: No, everyone's waived.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, I'm not going to try --

10 MR. MORGAN: Okay. All right.

11 THE COURT: -- force the case to trial. I'm sorry.

12 MR. MORGAN: It's okay. Just the victim is really, you know, she -- this case
13 just hangs over her head and she's -- she called me --

14 THE COURT: I understand.

15 MR. MORGAN: -- yesterday, actually, before Ms. Hojjat said, and she's like,
16 Are we really going to go this time, and I really need to get closure on this and move
17 on and so, just -- I would just -- was hoping to be able to push it.

18 THE COURT: Okay. But I have Mr. Hillman out.

19 MR. MORGAN: I understand.

20 THE COURT: And now you moving to Portland.

21 MR. MORGAN: I understand.

22 THE COURT: So I have a double problem.

23 MR. MORGAN: Okay.

24 THE COURT: So I have, I mean, I'm assuming there's a D.A.?

25 MR. MORGAN: The D.A.'s not an issue. Ms. Botelho's very competent.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. MORGAN: And she will take this --

3 THE COURT: So she is going to --

4 MR. MORGAN: -- and run with it.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. MORGAN: Yeah.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So you want me to -- do you want to rule on the 8 motion?

9 MS. HOJJAT: I mean, at this point, I know that Mr. Grimes would feel more
10 comfortable if Mr. Hillman was here for the motion. We had initially kicked the 11 motion anticipating Mr. Hillman would be back. We didn't anticipate the health
12 issues. So if we could possibly push it back to after the 30th so that Mr. Hillman can 13 be present for the motion.

14 THE COURT: Okay. But at this point we have to --

15 MR. MORGAN: Vacate the trial date.

16 THE COURT: -- vacate the trial date.

17 MR. MORGAN: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: Okay. I don't even know if I could give you two weeks into 19 September, that's probably my civil stack.

20 MR. MORGAN: I see. Okay.

21 THE COURT: I probably would do it, if everybody was in agreement, but I
22 don't think that's fair to Mr. Hillman.

23 MR. MORGAN: I know.

24 THE COURT: If he's coming back from health issues, to say, oh, and by the 25 way, I want you ready in a week to do an attempt murder case.

1 MR. MORGAN: I understand. I don't want to be insensitive.

2 THE COURT: And this was a stabbing, right?

3 MR. MORGAN: Yes.

4 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MR. MORGAN: I don't want to be insensitive to Mr. Hillman, I just, I feel I
6 have to speak on behalf of the victim and voice my concerns.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And the problem, well, I mean, what's the problem with 8 this motion? I'm told that the knife is in evidence. If you want to test it, test it. So, I
9 mean, I don't think it's the State's responsibility to test it for fingerprints for all this
10 stuff that you think it should be tested for. So if you want to sit around and wait for it,
11 you know, I think that's your -- your problem

12 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, our concern on this, I've spoken with people
13 who understand the science a little bit better than I do, and I guess my 14 understanding is that at this point it's too late to test it because fingerprints
15 evaporate over time apparently. And it's been so long at this point that it was in the 16 custody of the State, we were under the impression that it would be tested because 17 DNA testing was done on the knife, that basically at this point a test wouldn't yield
18 accurate results of whose fingerprints were on there.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, who are you relying upon? Experts? Or other
20 people in your office?

21 MS. HOJJAT: Other people in the office, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay. If you want to test it, I'll allow you to have, you know, I'm 23 assuming it's bagged somewhere.

24 MR. MORGAN: Uh-huh.

25 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, it is.

1 THE COURT: If you want to test it, you can have it. I don't know if that's true
2 or not. I don't know -- I don't want to rely upon what other people say in the office,
3 but certainly --

4 MS. HOJJAT: Right.

5 THE COURT: -- if you want that knife and you want to test it for fingerprints,
6 DNA, whatever it is because you think it goes to your self-defense, feel free. I'll 7 allow you to have it.

8 MS. HOJJAT: Okay.

9 THE COURT: You just have to waive any chain-of-custody issue.

10 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, at this point I guess my --

11 THE COURT: Do you want it?

12 MS. HOJJAT: -- my request at this point, Your Honor, would be if we can 13 continue the motions so I could actually speak with -- I can go back and contact an 14 expert and find out whether it really is that the fingerprints at this point would have 15 evaporated and it's not -- because I don't want to test it and then the State's going to 16 come back and say --

17 THE COURT: I don't think an expert's going to say, I can't pull any prints off
18 of that right now. They're going to want to look at it and see if they can because --

19 MR. IMLAY: We may be able to give a time period as far as the oils.

20 THE COURT: -- they need to look at -- they need to look at the type of knife.
21 They need to look at the type of surface.

22 MS. HOJJAT: Right.

23 THE COURT: There's a lot of things that go into --

24 MS. HOJJAT: Right.

25 THE COURT: -- whether a print --

1 MS. HOJJAT: And the --

2 THE COURT: -- even can be found on something.

3 MS. HOJJAT: -- the concern I have at this point, Your Honor, is that if we test
4 it and the prints aren't found, there would be an element of burden shifting there
5 because self-defense does still require the State to prove beyond a reasonable
6 doubt that wasn't self-defense. And so --

7 THE COURT: Sure, it does. Absolutely.

8 MS. HOJJAT: -- it's our position it was their burden to test that knife, and they 9 didn't do it. And for us to now test it would be taking on a rule of investigation that 10 they should have done and then they're going to turn around and use that against --

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MS. HOJJAT: -- us, all these months later.

13 THE COURT: That's fine. So you're telling me you don't want the knife
14 tested? That's fine.

15 MS. HOJJAT: At this point I'd need to consult with Mr. Hillman to see what he 16 wants. He is technically the first chair on this case. If we could potentially just push 17 off this --

18 THE COURT: Because I'm not sure I agree with you that it's the State's 19 responsibility to test it for fingerprints to somehow overcome your theory of 20 self-defense. If the fact that they didn't test it for fingerprints, the jury says, oh, wow, 21 we believe, you know, it's self-defense; therefore, not guilty, great. But --

22 MS. HOJJAT: Right.

23 THE COURT: -- I'm trying to tell you so that if you want to test it, I'm going to 24 allow you to test it.

25 MS. HOJJAT: Okay.

1 THE COURT: You don't have to.

2 MS. HOJJAT: Right.

3 THE COURT: Because sometimes that takes away an argument that you
4 want to make that they should have tested it, they had it, and they didn't.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Right. At this point if I could consult with Mr. Hillman before
6 informing the Court of whether -- as to whether we'd like to have it tested or not, just
7 because I don't -- I don't feel like I should be the one making that decision.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Then I'll continue it for one week.

9 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.

10 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: For that. And I guess --

12 MR. MORGAN: I don't think Mr. Hillman'll be back in a week.

13 MS. HOJJAT: Could we potentially continue after --

14 THE COURT: Well, you can call him on the phone. No? Okay.

15 MS. HOJJAT: There -- I do think --

16 MR. IMLAY: Could we do it --

17 MS. HOJJAT: -- the issues might be --

18 MR. IMLAY: -- yeah, can we do it after the 30th?

19 MS. HOJJAT: -- stress and heart related, if we can push to after the 30th? I
20 just don't want to burden him with this case right now. I'm sorry.

21 MR. MORGAN: The first week of September, I think probably be best for him.

22 MR. IMLAY: Yeah, that would be best.

23 MR. MORGAN: And the State has no opposition to that obviously.

24 THE COURT: Someone else can probably make this decision. Mr. Imlay
25 could way easy make this decision.

1 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. In that case, a week is fine.

2 THE COURT: I mean, I know you could look at this and make this decision.
3 You could make this decision. I don't think you need Mr. Hillman to make this -- it's 4 basically a strategy decision.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Yeah, and the problem, because Mr. Hillman is the first chair
6 and it's an attempt murder case, that's why I just didn't want to, for P.C.R.
7 purposes --

8 MR. IMLAY: Right.

9 MS. HOJJAT: -- somebody outside the case making the decision, but 10 whatever Your Honor prefers.

11 MR. IMLAY: Yeah, we're okay with that, one week's fine.

12 THE COURT: One week, okay.

13 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: But I'll give you a new trial date now.

15 MR. MORGAN: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Okay?

17 MR. MORGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.

19 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you.

20 [End of bench conference]

21 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Grimes, based upon the representations made by 22 your lawyers, it appears as though Mr. Hillman's going to be out 'til after August 30th,
23 so I'm going to have to vacate your trial date. And I'll reset it at this -- as soon as 24 possible on the next -- the next stack. Is October going to be okay?

25 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 THE COURT CLERK: Calendar call will be October 2 at 8:30; jury trial will be
3 October 9th at 1:30.

4 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And then we're going to continue this motion for one
6 week for the defense to let me know whether they would like the opportunity to test
7 that knife.

8 MR. IMLAY: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT CLERK: August 23, 8:30.

12 MR. MORGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: State versus Grimes, C276163.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: He's present. He's in custody.

6 MR. MORGAN: Thank you. Shawn Morgan for the State. Ms. Hojjat is the 7 person from the Public Defender's Office who wants to be here for the opposition. I
8 saw her down in DC 17. I've got the calendar in Adair that starts at 9:30, so I have 9 to be there at 9:15. I'm just concerned. I don't know if the Court --

10 THE COURT: You're late.

11 MR. MORGAN: -- would pass it for a week?

12 MS. DIEFENBACH: We were going to ask for September 10th for when Mr.
13 Hillman came back as well.

14 THE COURT: That's fine.

15 MS. DIEFENBACH: Does the Court -- all right with the Court?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me, Your Honor, I don't know what happened in 17 the proceedings the last time I was here on the 14th, is there anyway I can be 18 notified of that?

19 THE COURT: Mr. Hillman's -- what? You don't know what happened at the 20 proceedings?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, the last moment I was here, at the last
22 appearance.

23 THE COURT: Your attorney is -- your attorney is out.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, but there was something that --

25 THE COURT: Right, they had to tell me at the bench what was wrong with

1 your attorney.

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, I thought that they --

3 THE COURT: He's out.

4 THE DEFENDANT: No, I thought they sent --

5 THE COURT: It's none of your business why he's out.

6 THE DEFENDANT: I thought they had sent it to the lab.

7 THE CORRECTIONS OFFICER: Quiet Grimes.

8 THE DEFENDANT: I'm talking to Your Honor.

9 THE CORRECTIONS OFFICER: You're done.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me?

11 THE COURT: Okay. What? Go ahead. What is it?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Oh, I thought I had sent out for lab results or something 13 like that?

14 THE COURT: No. There's no talk about any lab results. There's a motion to 15 dismiss for failure to gather evidence at this point.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

17 THE COURT: I mean that's just -- that's -- I mean I'm looking at the notes;
18 there was a conference at the bench. Based on representations made by Counsel, I
19 ordered the matter continued. Oh, I did say to determine whether or not the defense
20 is seeking to have the alleged weapon tested? I probably did make some remarks
21 'cause I know that's in my head.

22 MS. DIEFENBACH: Okay.

23 THE COURT: That it -- the weapon is in custody and I know that's the basis
24 of the motion. If you want to have the weapon tested, that might be an other issue
25 you might want to bring before the Court.

1 MS. DIEFENBACH: And unfortunately, Your Honor, I am merely standing in
2 just for procedural purposes --

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MS. DIEFENBACH: -- so I'm not really familiar at all with the case.

5 THE COURT: I'm not sure it's really a failure to gather evidence, than a
6 failure to conduct every test known to mankind on the weapon.

7 MR. MORGAN: I think Ms. Hojjat wanted to discuss with Mr. Hillman the 8 issues that Your Honor brought up at the bench, whether or not they were going to 9 seek testing of the weapon.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MS. DIEFENBACH: And I'm not -- and I'm not certain, what we're doing with 12 that, Your Honor I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS DIEFENBACH: But we are asking for it to be passed so that both 15 attorneys can be present for that.

16 THE COURT: All right. But I think I probably did make some representation
17 to the parties that if they wanted the weapon tested I would probably allow that.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Yeah, I was just wondering if it took place or not 19 or if it came back with any results or anything?

20 THE COURT: No, they didn't -- the Defense hasn't even asked for it yet.

21 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

22 THE COURT: You want September 4th, is that what you --

23 MS. DIEFENBACH: September 10th, please.

24 THE COURT: Oh, September 10th.

25 THE COURT CLERK: That's a Monday, can we do it Thursday?

1 THE COURT: That's a Monday. So yeah, uh-huh.

2 MS. DIEFENBACH: Oh, I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT CLERK: September 13th Thursday.

4 MS. DIEFENBACH: That will be -- that'll be fine. Thank you so much.

5 MR. MORGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

APPEARANCES:

RECORDED BY: KERRY ESPARZA, COURT RECORDER

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2012, 9:17 A.M.

2 THE COURT: State of Nevada versus Bennett Grimes, C276163. He's
3 present. He's in custody.

4 MS. HOJJAT: Good morning, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 MS. HOJJAT: Nadia Hojjat, number 12401, and Roger Hillman --

7 MR. HILLMAN: 3076.

8 MS. HOJJAT: -- for Mr. Grimes. This is on for the defense's motion to 9 dismiss for failure to gather and preserve evidence. Your Honor, basically in this 10 case the knife was impounded by officers and the impound report clearly states that 11 there was apparent blood and visible fingerprints.

12 THE COURT: I got all that. So let me ask you a question --

13 MS. HOJJAT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: -- do you want it tested?

15 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, it's our --

16 THE COURT: Do you want it tested because we're before trial?

17 MS. HOJJAT: No, Your Honor. We do not want it tested because it's our 18 position that that is burden-shifting on the State's part. I know that the State
19 mentioned that in their motion, but they had an obligation --

20 THE COURT: Okay, that's fine. You don't want to test it --

21 MS. HOJJAT: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: -- because I don't think you have a basis to bring this motion.

23 MS. HOJJAT: And Your Honor did indicate that at a bench conference last 24 time we were in court, I would like to just make my record on this issue.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry.

1 MS. HOJJAT: No worries.

2 THE COURT: I just thought we could cut to the chase. So I apologize.

3 MS. HOJJAT: And I apologize, we just -- we'd like to make our record, this is 4 an attempt murder case.

5 THE COURT: Sure.

6 MS. HOJJAT: At this point, a knife was impounded, the knife had visible
7 fingerprints, visible blood on it. It's been sitting in impound for a year now.
8 Fingerprints, based on the -- basically the material, the oil, the density of the oil, they 9 evaporate, a year later, the reason that the defense doesn't want it tested at this 10 point is because the State had an obligation to test it one year ago when those 11 fingerprints were fresh and could actually be lifted and could actually be compared.

12 At this point, first of all, it's burden-shifting for them to suggest that we 13 have an obligation to test it; second --

14 THE COURT: I didn't say you had an obligation.

15 MS. HOJJAT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: So let me make that clear. I said I would allow it.

17 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: If that's what the defense wanted.

19 MS. HOJJAT: And we weren't presenting --

20 THE COURT: So I'm not quite sure how it could be material if you don't even 21 want to know what it says or what the results are.

22 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, the problem is, we'd like to know what it said a
23 year ago. We don't want to know what it says today when fingerprints have 24 evaporated and the evidence isn't, basically, in proper condition.

25 THE COURT: There's no evidence that those fingerprints have been

1 evaporated or all that stuff that you have just said.

2 MS. HOJJAT: The problem is that fingerprints --

3 THE COURT: Or that the integrity of the prints have been --

4 MS. HOJJAT: -- do erode, they do evaporate.

5 THE COURT: -- compromised.

6 MS. HOJJAT: And I wasn't suggesting that Your Honor had suggested that 7 you were burden-shifting, but that the State did suggest in their motion that we had 8 an obligation to test that if we want it tested. And it's our position that that's not the 9 case, the State does have a burden to rebut a self-defense argument beyond a 10 reasonable doubt.

11 THE COURT: Yes, they do.

12 MS. HOJJAT: And so it is still their burden. When we've got a case when 13 both individuals had injuries on them, both individuals were bleeding when the police
14 arrived, there's a knife, there's blood on the knife, there's fingerprints on the knife.
15 It's been sitting there for a year now.

16 THE COURT: One person had 20 stab wounds and the other one didn't.

17 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, we're actually rebutting that as well because 18 it's my understanding there weren't 20 any wounds. I think --

19 THE COURT: Okay

20 MS. HOJJAT: -- the medical reports indicated maybe there were pokes and 21 scratches totaling 17.

22 THE COURT: There were what? Say that again, what did you call it?

23 MS. HOJJAT: They were stab wounds, there were lacerations, pokes, there 24 was -- they weren't stab wounds --

25 THE COURT: Pokes?

1 MS. HOJJAT: -- is our understanding of reading the medical report.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Lacerations --

3 MS. HOJJAT: Lacerations --

4 THE COURT: -- stab wounds are kind of the same thing to me, but go ahead.

5 MS. HOJJAT: -- lacerations less than three millimeters deep, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. HOJJAT: And so at this point, we're presenting to Your Honor that 8 either -- Your Honor has indicated that you will not be dismissing this case pursuant 9 to our motion, but we would be asking for a jury instruction to the jury that they must 10 presume that the fingerprints of the victim, Anika Grimes, would have been on that 11 knife had it been tested.

12 THE COURT: Based on what? I mean, because the State is -- the State
13 does not have the obligation to test the blood, they have no obligation to test the 14 prints. They have the burden of proof, okay, and you certainly can point that out at 15 the time of trial, and the jury can consider that. But there is no rule that says they 16 have to test every single piece of evidence and gather every single -- they, I mean, 17 in fact the case law is contrary, the police are not required to do all that.

18 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, certainly they're not required to test every 19 single thing in every single area or that could possible exist within a case.

20 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

21 MS. HOJJAT: But when there's a weapon that is clearly the weapon that the 22 State is going to be alleging was the instrument used in the case, when they put in 23 their own impound report, Apparent blood and visible prints on the blade --

24 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

25 MS. HOJJAT: -- then at that point they, it's our position they do have an

1 obligation. The case law certainly says that there's not necessarily an obligation to 2 go out far and wide following every possible unlikely lead that exists, but when 3 there's evidence sitting in their laps, yes, they do have an obligation to collect and
4 preserve and test it. That's why Daniel's motion exists, that's why Daniel case --
5 Daniel's case law exists because there is a minimum burden of testing.

6 THE COURT: But it was collected, it was preserved.

7 MS. HOJJAT: And when it's been sitting in impound for a year, Your Honor,
8 fingerprints do evaporate. That's the science of fingerprints. They, depending on 9 the oils in the person's hand, depending on the person, we have no way of knowing
10 whether her fingerprints were on there a year ago or not. And that's the worst part, if 11 we have it tested today, it's not simply that it might come back with one person's or 12 not another person's, we have no way of knowing whether something is evaporated
13 or not, there's just no way to test that. But we know that that does happen. We 14 know that today a fingerprint might be here, it might be sitting in impound for a year,
15 and a year later, that fingerprint will no longer be there.

16 And that's why it's -- there is no remedy for the defense at this point in 17 testing that knife. We've been left with no remedy in this situation. And that's why
18 we think that we are entitled to a jury instruction --

19 THE COURT: Because you believe that the fingerprints on the knife would 20 have been the victim's?

21 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: The victim alleged in here?

23 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And it's -- was this her house?

25 MS. HOJJAT: It was her house. However --

1 THE COURT: And her kitchen?

2 MS. HOJJAT: -- she testified --

3 THE COURT: And her utensils?

4 MS. HOJJAT: -- Your Honor, she testified at preliminary hearing that the knife
5 had just been washed and that she did not touch it and that she never held it. And
6 so her fingerprints should not be on that knife. If she told the truth there, her
7 fingerprints should not be on that knife. If her fingerprints were on that knife, that
8 would be both impeachment evidence and evidence going to show that Mr. Grimes
9 acted in self defense.

10 THE COURT: Anything from the State?

11 MS. BOTELHO: Your Honor, is there a particular point you'd like me to 12 address? I set forth in our motion, first of all, the Court already pointed out the 13 State, police are not under any obligation to test or gather every single piece of 14 evidence. The defense is pointing out to the fact that the evidence or fingerprints
15 may have evaporated, I would contest that. It's basically an assumption. They want
16 to know that, you need to test it. We've -- there have been times where we've been 17 able to get fingerprints years and years and years later. I mean, there's just no
18 factual basis for that particular claim. No one's looked at it.

19 And as far as the claim of burden-shifting, we're not shifting anything. It
20 is the State's contention that the defense wants to know whether or not the victim's 21 blood and fingerprints are on the knife to assert or proffer or support a claim of 22 self-defense. If that is the case, they need to test the knife. They need to go
23 forward and make the necessary arrangements and get that done. The State does 24 not need it for our case in chief. I understand we have burden of proving, not only 25 beyond a reasonable doubt the elements of this particular crime, but also to rebut

1 the self-defense claim. I get that. We don't think it's necessary for that.

2 Yes, it has been in impound for a year, which also gives credence to
3 the fact that they've had a year, they wanted it tested, they could have done so. It is 4 readily available, we could have made the necessary arrangements.

5 And with regard to the victim's fingerprints being on the knife, there are
6 lots of other ways, I mean, this is pure argument for the jury, there are other ways
7 that the victim's fingerprints could have been there. How about the fact that she was 8 stabbed, poked, or given lacerations 20 different times? She could have grabbed
9 the knife to defend herself from this really vicious and brutal attack. Arguments that 10 can be made if they want this particular evidence to support self-defense, it's 11 available.

12 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, to clarify, I -- we don't want to know
13 whether -- what fingerprints are on the knife today, we want to know what 14 fingerprints were on that knife a year ago. And there's no way to know what 15 fingerprints were on that knife a year ago. And that evidence that is potentially,
16 highly exculpatory is Brady. And that means they did have an obligation to collect it 17 because exculpatory evidence, they do have obligation to collect and hand over to 18 defense.

19 THE COURT: Okay. At this time the Court's going to deny the motion. State 20 can prepare the order.

21 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, I'm sorry, one more thing, just for the record,
23 the State did say that we had a year to test this knife, we were unaware that this 24 knife was not being tested for fingerprints and DNA. We saw an impound sheet that 25 said it's being sent to the lab for testing, and we assumed when that impound sheet

1 says, Obvious, visible fingerprints and blood, that that testing was going to be done.
2 We found out a week or two before this motion was filed. As soon as we got the
3 results back, we saw that this testing hadn't been done, we filed the motion. So, it's 4 an inaccurate statement to say that we've had all this time to test it. We were under 5 the impression that testing was being done based on the impound sheet.

6 THE COURT: Okay. But they didn't test it the day they took it in, which is the 7 day you wanted to know, right?

8 MS. HOJJAT: It's my understanding the testing was done pretty soon
9 thereafter, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Which was the day you wanted -- you wanted to know the day
11 that knife was taken into evidence whose prints were on it. And any -- any day after 12 that, you say the prints would have evaporated.

13 MS. HOJJAT: Well, Your Honor, over time prints evaporate, and certainly 14 after a year, yes, they -- they could very well likely have evaporated. However, it's 15 our understanding the testing was done fairly soon thereafter. We didn't receive the 16 results until just a month or two ago when this motion was filed. And so we were 17 under the impression --

18 THE COURT: What testing did they do?

19 MS. HOJJAT: They did DNA skin cell testing, but not the test -- DNA of the 20 blood, they avoided the blood deliberately.

21 THE COURT: What was the result?

22 MS. HOJJAT: I don't have the DNA results right now, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: I thought you said you got the results?

24 MS. HOJJAT: I don't have them currently at this moment in court. But I do
25 have the results.

1 THE COURT: You don't remember what they were?

2 MS. HOJJAT: I believe the DNA --

3 THE COURT: Whose DNA?

4 MS. HOJJAT: -- results indicated that only Ms. Grimes's skin cells were on 5 the knife handle.

6 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

7 MS. HOJJAT: Which would support our contention that she was the only one
8 holding that knife because this is not her blood, this is her skin cells.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Then we'll see you on October 2nd.

10 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.

11 MR. MORGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2012, 10:55 A.M.

2 * * * * *

3 (Outside the presence of the prospective jury panel.)

4 THE COURT: Good morning. State of Missouri versus
5 Bennett Grimes, C276163. Mr. Bennett is -- I'm sorry, Mr.
6 Grimes is present. He's in custody. Both sides ready to go?

7 MS. BOTELHO: The State is ready, Your Honor.

8 MR. HILLMAN: Yes, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Did you all state your
10 appearances?

11 MS. BOTELHO: Not yet. Agnes Botelho for the State,
12 Your Honor.

13 MR. BURNS: Patrick Burns for the State.

14 MR. HILLMAN: Roger Hillman.

15 MS. HOJJAT: Nadya Hojjat for the Defendant.

16 THE COURT: Okay. The jury panel is here and ready
17 to go, they're lined up. Does anybody want to have anything
18 outside the presence?

19 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, we did have a motion in 20 limine.

21 THE COURT: Yes, that's right. We do have to address
22 that. You know, I don't know if we have to address that now.
23 And did the State file an opposition?

24 MS. BOTELHO: We did not file an opposition. Mr.
25 Hillman and I spoke in my office during the --

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: I seem to agree.

2 MS. BOTELHO: -- and we spoke about certain things;
3 however there might have been a misunderstanding as to what
4 Ms. Hojjat's position was. All we were asking with regard to 5 the motion in limine, what Mr. Hillman and I spoke about, Your
6 Honor, is the State is definitely in agreement that we do not 7 need to bring out the acts or the facts of what led to the 8 TPO; but the fact there was a temporary restraining order in 9 effect at the time of this offense is certainly relevant.
10 It's probative.

11 It's actually one of the charged elements in two of 12 our offenses and the fact that he -- there was a TPO was 13 certainly talked about in the 9-1-1 calls as the reason both 14 the victim and her mother, you know, state to the police of 15 wanting the police to come in and remove the defendant from 16 the apartment.

17 Also the fact that there was a TPO in effect also 18 goes towards -- it's relevant towards the burglary charge;
19 burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon in violation
20 of a TPO certainly goes towards his intent. He knew he wasn't 21 supposed to be there. There was a TPO in effect certainly 22 that told him he should not be anywhere near the victim or the 23 apartment.

24 So yes, we agree we do not need to talk about the 25 facts. If the jurors have questions about it, we certainly

1 can tell them that it's not appropriate to talk about the
2 underlying facts of the TPO, just that that it was in effect.

3 MS. HOJJAT: And, Your Honor, basically the defense's
4 position is we will stipulate to the fact of the appeal for 5 the fact that it is elements that have been charged. We
6 understand the State does have a burden of proving beyond a
7 reasonable doubt everything they're charging, and so we will
8 stipulate to those elements to the fact of the TPO.

9 The reason we don't want the jury to hear about it is 10 because it's our position that it -- it's actually far more
11 prejudicial than probative in the sense that as soon as the 12 jurors hear there's a TPO, the first question in their mind is 13 going to be, Well, what caused the TPO? What was going on?
14 Was it violent behavior?

15 And this jurisdiction does allow jurors to ask
16 questions. It's more than likely we're going to get a
17 question. Obviously because there's been no bad acts motion
18 here the question won't be answered and then the juror's going 19 to be sitting there wondering why the question -- why the 20 question can't be answered. It just -- it opens a Pandora's
21 box.

22 We think that the fact that Mr. Grimes shouldn't have 23 been there is very apparent from the fact that he shoved his 24 way into the apartment, and we're not disputing the fact that 25 he did shove his way into that apartment. The fact that

1 somebody wouldn't -- somebody saying, "leave my apartment,"
2 this person shoved their way in, they're saying, "get out, get
3 out," he's not getting out, it makes perfect sense to call
4 9-1-1.

5 The fact that there wasn't a TPO there doesn't
6 matter. Nobody's going to be sitting there going, Well, why
7 did you call 9-1-1? No. The facts are clear that he shoved
8 his way into this apartment. He was told to leave repeatedly.
9 He didn't leave. And so it's not particularly probative as to 10 the motive of the victim calling 9-1-1, but it is highly 11 prejudicial in what the jurors are going to be thinking about 12 Mr. Grimes and what they're going to be speculating on when 13 they should be listening to evidence.

14 THE COURT: And it's an enhancement.

15 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I mean, really because I -- I reviewed
17 all the statutes and it's just -- it's clearly just an 18 enhancement.

19 MS. BOTELHO: And one other thing, Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: [Inaudible] two enhancements in some of 21 the charges.

22 MS. BOTELHO: We do. And another thing that I'd just 23 like to point out factually is that the victim and the 24 defendant were married at the time, and that could also come
25 into play. I mean, they're married; but she's kicking him out

1 of an apartment. A lot of --

2 THE COURT: Were they married and living together or
3 were they married and separated?

4 MS. BOTELHO: They were married, separated --
5 separated because of the TPO and --

6 THE COURT: Well, not probably because of the TPO;
7 probably because of the act that led to the TPO.

8 MS. BOTELHO: Well, separate because of the acts that 9 led to the TPO, absolutely. I understand, Your Honor, it is 10 an enhancement, but again it goes towards burglary, it
11 explains the entire story. Everyone -- the victim, the 12 mother, the dad, they all make reference to the fact that 13 there was a TPO during the 9-1-1 calls, that is why they were 14 in kind of enhanced fear or an enhanced state of suspicion
15 when the Defendant came into the home. He knew he was not 16 supposed to be there and -- the Court's indulgence.

17 And, Your Honor, Mr. Burns just pointed out the fact
18 that, you know, with regard to the enhancement, the jury
19 should get to hear the facts and circumstances that would 20 prove the enhancement. And it is certainly -- certainly 21 probative and we can cure the, you know, the prejudicial --
22 the overly prejudicial nature, of course, by not getting into 23 the facts and just simply stipulating that there was one in 24 effect; on that particular day he was not to be there near 25 that home or near the victim.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Anything else?

2 MS. HOJJAT: Judge, as I said, we're willing to
3 stipulate to it so that the jury doesn't need to hear that 4 there's a TPO. Simply whatever -- if he's found guilty of 5 something, whatever he's found guilty of, we are basically
6 pleading him guilty to the area of the TPO, we're willing to 7 do that.

8 THE COURT: If you stipulated to a TPO, the jury
9 doesn't have to hear that, so I'm not quite sure -- a private,
10 secret stipulation?

11 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, basically what we're asking for is 12 for it to just be removed from the charging document, removed 13 from the jury verdict. Simply it will be something --
14 essentially because a violation of a TPO is and in itself a 15 misdemeanor, and it's also an enhancement in this case on 16 these charges. Basically we would plead him guilty to the 17 enhancement of the TPO. The jury doesn't need to hear about 18 it. Doesn't need to be in the charging document. Doesn't
19 need to be on the jury verdict.

20 THE COURT: Do you know what that means plead him
21 guilty, you know, plead him guilty to the deadly weapon
22 enhancement too? I mean, I think this is more of an 23 enhancement issue. I know you made the analogy to the 24 ex-felon in possession of a firearm, I'm not quite sure it's 25 the same thing. You know, I don't know if it's that.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 It's not like a DUI Third where we don't want the
2 jury to know the person has multiple DUIs, therefore they're
3 here on a felony DUI. I mean, it's -- it's the facts. I
4 guess I'm trying to figure out how you think I can keep the 5 facts from the jury? I mean, the State charged it like this,
6 there was a TPO in place, the law allows for enhancement.

7 If you violate the TPO, just -- it appears to me it's 8 the same thing as a deadly weapon, it's a one to 20. It's the 9 same thing. It's an enhancement. I mean, the gang
10 enhancement, you have to have expert testimony on that, right?
11 I don't know of any enhancement where we don't let the jury
12 hear about it. They're going to hear about the deadly weapon.
13 We let them hear about gangs. We let them hear about --
14 here's the TPO.

15 MS. HOJJAT: And, Judge, it is our position that this
16 is like the DUI Third. We believe that this is more closely
17 analogous to that. I do believe I looked -- looked at the 18 statute --

19 THE COURT: If I do that, in a Post Conviction your 20 client's going to raise, The judge should have let it go to 21 the jury and let the jury make that determination.

22 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, it's my understanding --

23 MS. BOTELHO: Absolutely, according to appenda --
24 appendi [phonetic].

25 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 MS. HOJJAT: It's my understanding that looking at 2 the law, and perhaps I looked at this wrong, but it's my
3 understanding that there's only one enhancement per charge
4 that can actually be toward a greater sentence.

5 THE COURT: I totally agree with you.

6 MS. HOJJAT: And there's already more -- there's 7 already one enhancement on each of the charges that the TPO is 8 attached to.

9 THE COURT: I agree with you. If he is convicted of 10 attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon in violation of a
11 temporary protective order, yes, one enhancement could apply.
12 They're exactly the same. They're both one to 20. But, yeah,
13 it's my belief it's my decision which enhancement to use at 14 the time of sentencing if the jury found both enhancements.

15 MS. HOJJAT: And that's correct, that's true, Your 16 Honor; however in this case given that there's a knife at 17 issue, and nobody's disputing there's a knife at issue, we're 18 disputing Mr. Bennett's or Mr. Grimes' intent and the facts
19 that led to the injuries, but there's no dispute of a weapon.
20 If he is found guilty of attempt murder or battery, the deadly
21 weapon is going to be there. This enhancement is -- he will 22 be found guilty of the enhancement if he's found guilty of the 23 attempt murder or the battery.

24 THE COURT: I know from previous motions you're going
25 to contend that he has a complete defense to this, that he was

1 acting in self defense.

2 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And that the victim was actually the 4 perpetrator.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor, and that's precisely
6 what we're contending, but if the jury doesn't believe us,
7 essentially if the jury finds that the State has met their 8 burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt of the attempt
9 murder or the battery, the deadly weapon is somewhat attached.

10 They can't find an attempt murder without the deadly
11 weapon in this case because the only reason they're finding 12 the attempt murder is that they found that he used the knife;
13 that he was the one in possession of the knife and that he 14 used the knife. And so basically the fact of the TPO is 15 simply something there that is going to lead the jury to 16 presume prior bad acts by Mr. Grimes.

17 THE COURT: Anything else?

18 MS. BOTELHO: I'll submit to the Court, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. At this time the motion is denied.

20 MS. HOJJAT: You Honor, in that case -- I'm sorry, I
21 didn't mean to interrupt.

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 MS. HOJJAT: I apologize.

24 THE COURT: No, go ahead.

25 MS. HOJJAT: In that case, Your Honor, we would just

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 ask for what Ms. Botelho indicated the State was willing to
2 agree to, which is not to allow the facts that led up to the 3 TPO.

4 THE COURT: No, I agree.

5 MS. HOJJAT: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: I agree, I don't think that's relevant.

7 Everyone ready? Okay. Does everyone have a jury list?

8 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 (In the presence of the prospective jury panel.)

11 THE COURT: Okay. No, no. Is he 22? Are you -- is 12 he --

13 THE MARSHAL: Yes, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Then he should be in the first 15 seat. So it should be 22, 23, 24, 25, 26. Bear with us.
16 There's a reason for this. It's just so all the attorneys and 17 myself know which seat you're in. Right next to him. No, no.
18 That's okay. Just stop and put them in order. 22, 23, 24,
19 25. Officer, are there only four seats there? There's one
20 more. Please bear with us. There's one more seat. And 27
21 starts on the back row. Sorry you ended up by yourself over
22 there.

23 THE MARSHAL: Judge, I apologize for the --

24 THE COURT: No, no, no problem. No problem. Do the 25 parties stipulate to the presence of the jury venire?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Judge.

2 MR. HILLMAN: Yes, Judge.

3 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, ladies and
5 gentlemen, and welcome to Department 12 of the Eighth Judicial 6 District Court. You have been summoned here today to serve as 7 jurors in a criminal case entitled State of Nevada versus
8 Bennett Grimes, Case C276163. Before I do allow the attorneys
9 to speak to you and give you a brief statement of the facts,
10 I'm going to introduce some of the members of the staff and 11 tell you what they do.

12 In front of me is Kerry. Kerry is a court recorder
13 in Department 12. She takes down everything that is being 14 said in the courtroom at all times. At some point she'll be 15 called upon by myself to prepare a written transcript, which 16 means she will listen to the audio and she will transcribe
17 verbatim everything that is being said.

18 So if you're called upon to address the Court or the 19 lawyers, I ask that you please state your name and the badge
20 number that's been provided to you by the Jury Commissioner
21 before responding so we have an accurate and clear record of 22 who is speaking at all times. To my right is Susan. Susan's
23 the clerk of the court.

24 In Department 12 it's her job to keep the official
25 record. She takes the official minutes. She takes charge of

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 the evidence that will be introduced at the time of trial.
2 You know, during trial and during jury selection you will
3 probably see Susan doing other things because she also has to 4 do other work while we're here in trial as well.

5 You've already met the court marshal in Department
6 12. He takes charge of the security. He's also the person
7 that takes charge of the jury panel. Throughout this process
8 of selecting the jury and after we do have a jury selected,
9 myself, the attorneys, the parties, the staff in Department
10 12, with the exception of the officer, we're not permitted to 11 have any communication with you whatsoever outside of the 12 courtroom.

13 So if there's anything that you wish to address to 14 the Court or the lawyers, you do it inside the courtroom on 15 the record with everyone present. The court marshal is the 16 only one that's permitted to have any communication with you
17 outside of the courtroom. The court marshal is the person
18 that will come -- just like he brought you in today, he'll be 19 the person when we take recesses that comes and gets you and 20 brings you back in when we're about to begin court again.

21 All right. At this time I'm going to allow the State
22 of Nevada to introduce themselves. They're going to give you
23 a brief statement of the facts that they believe will come out
24 at the time of trial. They're also going to read their 25 witness list. I ask you to pay close attention to the names

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 of the witnesses who will be called to testify in this matter
2 because at some point I will ask you if you're familiar with
3 any of the witnesses who will be called upon to testify. Go
4 ahead.

5 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning,
6 ladies and gentlemen, potential jurors. My name is Agnes
7 Botelho. I am a Deputy District Attorney. I, along with my
8 co-counsel, Patrick Burns, are the prosecutors in this 9 particular case. In this case the State is alleging that the 10 Defendant, Bennett Grimes, on January -- excuse me -- July 22,
11 2011, entered the home or the apartment of his wife, Anika
12 Grimes, unlawfully and in the home he stabbed her multiple 13 times.

14 To prove our case, the State intends to call the 15 following witnesses, the following are officers with the Las 16 Vegas Metropolitan police Bobby Hoffman, Sam Diaz, Lori
17 Crickett, Rodney Hodson, Christopher Embree, Michael Perkins,
18 Steven Thaxton, Louise Renhardt, Kenny Delzer, Michael Brewer,
19 Daniel Tomaino, Michelle Tavarez, Kellie Gauthier, Bradley
20 Gallup, Julie Marschner, Christopher Boddie, Justin Zinger, 21 Celina Cruz, Jeffrey Lang, Tracy Brownlee.

22 And the following are witnesses that are not
23 officers: Anika Grimes, Stephanie Newman, Earl Newman, Doctor
24 Wasden, Doctor Beverly Hughes, Doctor Deborah Kuhls, Doctor
25 Rachel Weber, Mark Zucaro, and Melanie Robinson. Thank you.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Hillman.

4 MR. HILLMAN: Thank you, Judge. Good morning, ladies
5 and gentlemen. My name is Roger Hillman, I'm an attorney.
6 This is Nadya Hojjat, she's co-counsel in this case. This is
7 our client, Bennett Grimes. Witnesses that we may call are:
8 Julie Marschner, Khris -- and I can't read his last name --
9 Soonthornsawad, and Joclyn Fornero. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Okay. At this time the clerk is going to 11 call the roll of the panel of prospective jurors. When your 12 name is called, if you will please say "present" or "here."

13 (Clerk called the roll of prospective jury panel.)

14 THE COURT: Anyone whose name was not called by the 15 clerk of the court? Let the record reflect no response from 16 the panel. If you all will please stand and raise your hands
17 so the clerk can administer the oath.

18 (Clerk administered the oath.)

19 THE COURT: Thank you. Ladies and gentlemen, we're 20 about to commence what is called voir dire examination. The 21 term "voir dire" means to tell the truth. During this process
22 you'll be asked questions bearing upon your ability to sit as 23 fair and impartial jurors. To accomplish this result, various 24 questions will be asked of you by myself or counsel for the 25 parties.

1 On occasion some of these questions will seem
2 somewhat personal. While we do not wish to unnecessarily pry
3 into your personal lives, the questions are necessary so that
4 counsel and the Court can make an intelligent determination as
5 to your capabilities to serve fairly and impartially.

6 I want you to know that myself and the attorneys and 7 all other persons involved in this case are concerned with 8 having this matter tried by jurors who are completely
9 open-minded, neutral, objective, and unbiased in their
10 thinking. [Inaudible] discretion is best in neutral
11 [inaudible] examination of jurors.

12 As I stated previously, I will personally conduct the 13 voir dire, but I will give the attorneys the opportunity to 14 participate in the questioning. It is important that you know
15 the significance of full, complete, and honest answers to all
16 the questions we're about to ask you.

17 I caution you not to try to hide or withhold anything
18 which might indicate bias or prejudice of any sort by any of 19 you. Should you fail to answer truthfully or if you hide or 20 withhold anything touching upon your qualifications, that fact
21 may tend to contaminate your verdict and subject you to 22 further inquiry even after discharged as jurors.

23 Your decision should be based upon all of the 24 evidence during the trial, not based upon preconceived
25 prejudice or bias. I will conduct a general voir dire

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 examination of all of you while you're seated in the audience.
2 After those general questions, the clerk will call names that
3 I instruct her to using the order provided to us by the Jury
4 Commissioner to fill the jury box.

5 At some point during the process of selecting a jury
6 the attorneys for both sides have the right to ask that a
7 particular person not serve as a juror. These requests are 8 called challenges. There are two types of challenges:
9 Challenges for cause and peremptory challenges.

10 Challenge for cause means that a juror has been
11 excused because his or her answers to some of the voir dire
12 questions indicate that he or she would have a difficult time
13 in giving a fair and impartial hearing to the case. I will 14 ask the attorneys to pass or waive prospective jurors for a
15 cause challenge when they are done questioning the prospective
16 juror.

17 A peremptory challenge means that a juror can be 18 excused from duty without counsel having to give a reason for 19 the excusal. Please do not be offended should you be excused 20 by either of the challenge procedures. They are simply a part
21 of the procedure designed to protect the rights of the parties
22 under our system of government.

23 If you wish to respond to a question individually and 24 in the affirmative, please raise your hand, state your name,
25 and provide us with the badge number that was given to you by

1 the Jury Commissioner.

2 Is there anyone on the panel who has ever been
3 convicted of a felony? The record will reflect no response
4 from the panel.

5 Is there anyone who is not a United State citizen?
6 The record will reflect no response from the panel.

7 Is there anyone who is not a resident of Clark
8 County, Nevada? The record will reflect no response from the 9 panel.

10 Is there anyone who has such a sympathy, prejudice,
11 or bias relating to age, religion, race, gender or national 12 origin, that you feel would affect your ability to be an 13 open-minded, fair, and impartial juror? Go ahead, sir. You
14 can stand up, that would be helpful. Thank you very much.
15 Your name and badge number?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Antonio Jackson.

17 THE COURT: You have to speak up a little bit, Mr.
18 Jackson.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Antonio Jackson.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Badge number 040. My 22 reason --

23 THE COURT: Yeah, I asked you a question and you rose
24 -- I asked a question of the panel and you raised your hand.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Right. My reason I

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 wouldn't put another black male in jail for something I truly
2 believe he didn't do so.

3 THE COURT: Well, would that apply to anyone
4 regardless of their race? You wouldn't want to put anyone in 5 jail for something they didn't do?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: [Inaudible.]

7 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Don't worry. I'm not going to ask
10 anybody to put anybody else in jail. Does that make you feel 11 better?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I guess.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any prejudice or bias
14 that you want to discuss with me?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Well, my bias is like I
16 said as far as what this case represents as far as another
17 black man getting accused of doing something, I don't
18 [inaudible].

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I don't think he did it
21 so --

22 THE COURT: Who?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I wouldn't be able to --
24 I wouldn't be able to give my -- I wouldn't be able to give my 25 -- I'd be biased.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I just wouldn't want to
3 see [inaudible].

4 THE COURT: Okay. You said "I don't think he did
5 it."

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Right. I wouldn't -- it
7 would be very hard.

8 THE COURT: All right. I want to go back to that "I
9 don't think he did it."

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Right.

11 THE COURT: Do you know the Defendant? Do you know
12 Mr. Grimes?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I do not.

14 THE COURT: Do you know anything about this case?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: No.

16 THE COURT: Have you heard any evidence --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: [Inaudible.]

18 THE COURT: -- that you've already come to a
19 conclusion?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I wouldn't be able to --
21 I wouldn't -- just on the fact that he's black, I wouldn't be 22 able to say, Okay, regardless of what certain testimony was.

23 THE COURT: So regardless of what is happening in 24 this courtroom, you could not sit on a panel and be fair and 25 impartial if the Defendant is African American?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Correct.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Because?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Too many in prison now
4 for a lot of things they probably didn't do.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So you have a belief there's 6 people in prison for things they didn't do --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Right.

8 THE COURT: -- and therefore you're going to right
9 that wrong in this case?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I wouldn't.

11 THE COURT: Okay. If you sat on this panel and the 12 State proved their case by proof beyond a reasonable doubt,
13 would you be able to return a verdict of guilty?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: No.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Why not? The State proves their 16 case, they've met their burden of proof, you would say "not 17 guilty"?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Yes.

19 THE COURT: And let a person that did it go?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: I mean, I would have to 21 -- I would have to have seen him actually do it. I mean, like
22 okay [inaudible].

23 THE COURT: Okay. If there was a white person
24 sitting there, would you have to have seen that person do it
25 in order to find them guilty?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Yes.
2 THE COURT: Okay. So it doesn't matter?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: No.
4 THE COURT: What -- okay, so it's really not a race
5 thing?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: No.
7 THE COURT: It's, you know, you don't think you can 8 be fair and impartial unless you actually witnessed an 9 incident?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Correct.
11 THE COURT: Okay. And you don't know Mr. Grimes?
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: No.
13 THE COURT: Okay. And if you were a witness to the 14 crime, do you think we'd let you sit on the jury panel?
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Probably not.
16 THE COURT: Okay. But you believe you'd have to be a
17 witness to a crime in order to be a fair and impartial juror?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 040: Exactly.
19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. You can have a seat.
20 Okay. Anyone else that wishes to respond to that question?
21 The record will reflect no further response from the panel.
22 Are there any of you who are acquainted with the 23 Defendant in this matter, Mr. Grimes? Anyone that knows Mr.
24 Bennett Grimes? The record will reflect no response from the
25 panel.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 Are there any of you who know his attorneys? The
2 record will reflect no response from the panel.

3 Are there any of you who are acquainted with the
4 Deputy District Attorneys who are assigned to prosecute this
5 matter? Go ahead. Your name and badge number?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 008: Janet Robertson, 008. I
7 work for the District Attorney's Office.

8 THE COURT: Okay. What do you do?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 008: Legal secretary.

10 THE COURT: For who?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 008: Tommy Panda.

12 THE COURT: Okay. You can have a seat. Anyone else?
13 The record will reflect no response from the panel.

14 The District Attorney's Office employs many deputies
15 and other personnel. Is there anyone who has such a close
16 relationship with either the District Attorney, Mr. Steve 17 Wolfson, his deputies, or other members of his staff that you
18 feel might affect your ability to serve as a fair and 19 impartial juror in this particular case? The record will
20 reflect no response from the panel.

21 Are there any of you on the panel who are acquainted
22 with any of the witnesses whose names were previously
23 mentioned by the attorneys? Anyone who is familiar with any 24 of the witnesses who will be called to testify? The record
25 will reflect no response from the panel.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 We do expect this case to take about 2 to 3 days. We
2 expect to be done by Friday, but when I say that I always like
3 to make sure that jury panels know I'm making an estimate, my 4 best estimate. So if we didn't finish on Friday, we would be
5 back here on Monday.

6 But based upon my communication with the attorneys
7 and my familiarity with the case, I think that we will be done
8 by Friday. You can have -- are you okay, sir? Do you like --
9 do you want to stand up?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: I can only sit like 15
13 minutes at a time. I had a back operation so I can't sit for 14 any length of time.

15 THE COURT: And that's 0052, Mr. Ernest Thompson.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Are you okay today?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: Just uncomfortable.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: So I need to stand.

21 THE COURT: That seat is not comfortable?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: No, ma'am.

23 THE COURT: Sorry.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: That's okay.

25 THE COURT: If you feel like you want to stand up, it

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 looks like we put you in the right place. Please feel free to
2 stand up. If you have to move around, please feel free to do
3 that. Just don't walk out without telling me, okay?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: No, I'm not going to.
5 I'm just going to stay.

6 THE COURT: All right. I'm just making sure. Okay.
7 You just need to move around, right?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: Just stand.

9 THE COURT: Feel free.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 052: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anyone who feels that 12 serving for that amount of time would be such an undue burden
13 on you that it would make it impossible for you to be here?
14 I'm just going to start on the front row. Go ahead, sir.
15 Your name and badge number.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: Chad Hanson, 008. I'm an 17 orthopedic surgeon and there's no one else to cover my 18 practice.

19 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. It's Mr. Hanson, your 20 badge number is 0013.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: Sorry.

22 THE COURT: All right. You're an orthopedic surgeon?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: Yes.

24 THE COURT: All right. And no one to cover your
25 practice?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: Correct.

2 THE COURT: Who's covering it today?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: I am currently. I
4 finished surgery --

5 THE COURT: You're not, you're in court.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: I finished surgery at 7 9:00 a.m. I'm oncall at three hospitals currently.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I have a feeling that if you're 9 oncall, you obviously told them that you're doing jury duty?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: I was hopeful to be 11 excused rather early.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: Generally during business
14 hours, emergent stuff kind of waits until after clinic is over
15 and so -- but tomorrow I have a full clinic.

16 THE COURT: What does that mean? You have a full 17 day?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: That means I have 40
19 patients that I'm the only person that could see them. Friday
20 I have surgery all day that no one else can perform.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Hanson. Anyone
22 else? Anyone on the front row? Go ahead, ma'am.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 016: Janice David, Badge No.
24 0016. Until Friday I should be okay, but if it goes beyond
25 that, I'm a court reporter, self-employed, and I usually have

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 quite a challenge getting my courtroom covered on Tuesdays
2 should it go there.

3 THE COURT: Do you work in the courthouse?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 016: Not this one. Next
5 Tuesday I will be in Goodsprings.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Go ahead, sir.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Ruben Placido, 80017.
8 I'm the only one to take my daughter to school and picking her
9 up from school.

10 THE COURT: How old is she?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: She's 15, and we don't
12 have any school bus in our area available.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So she's a sophomore in high
14 school?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So you could take her to school;
17 that wouldn't be a problem because we don't start before 7:00.
18 She starts at 7:00 a.m.?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: 7:00 a.m.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And they get out around --

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: 1:30.

22 THE COURT: 1:25.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: 1:25.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And you pick her up everyday?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Do you work full time?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: My wife's the only one
3 that's working.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I quit the job just 6 because once she start with school, you know, she go to 7 Northwest Career, that school, and it's too far from our --
8 from our place and we don't have --

9 THE COURT: Okay. So she goes to one of the I guess
10 -- do they call them -- is it magnet still?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Magnet school.

12 THE COURT: Magnet high schools. I thought if your 13 child went to a magnet high school they had to provide bus
14 transportation?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: We don't have any school
16 bus available in our area.

17 THE COURT: Again I thought if your child went to a 18 magnet school, the school district provided transportation; is 19 that not true?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I don't think so.

21 THE COURT: Have you ever checked?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, we talk to them
23 about it and they said there's no available for our -- because 24 of our distance.

25 THE COURT: So she can't like hop on a Centennial bus

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 and get dropped off at Northwest? You know what I'm talking
2 about? Because Centennial High School is in that area. I
3 mean, there's lots of schools there. There's a high school, a
4 middle school, and then technical school.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am, it's too far
6 from our place.

7 THE COURT: What side of town do you live on?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I live on Pecos, around
9 Pecos and Oxinger.

10 THE COURT: Who's going to pick her up today?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Me.

12 THE COURT: Okay. You're not going to be excused by 13 1:30.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Okay, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have someone to do it
16 today?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I think my wife work in 18 the -- she's an OR nurse and she works from 8:30 to 7:30.

19 THE COURT: Okay. 8:30 a.m.?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: To 7:30 p.m.? What are her days off?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Seven o'clock, yes.

23 THE COURT: What are her days off?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Sometimes it's days off
25 are Tuesday.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Works four days, right? Three days off?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yeah, so --

3 THE COURT: What are her three days off?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Tuesday, Saturday and 5 Sunday.

6 THE COURT: She doesn't have them in a row?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: That's -- that's --
8 that's her schedule.

9 THE COURT: Okay. If you were asked to be here,
10 would you be able to make arrangements for your daughter to be 11 picked up? You'd be able to take her in the morning, but we 12 generally go til 5:00 o'clock. Would you be able to make 13 other arrangements?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I could try, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else on that

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Your Honor, Kirk Sanford,
18 Badge No. 0026.

19 THE COURT: Good morning.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Good morning. I'm the 21 CEO of a [inaudible] company and I have --

22 THE COURT: CEO of?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: CEO of a payment company,
24 a financial services company --

25 THE COURT: Okay.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: -- in the gaming
2 industry, and I have meetings that are set up. I think we
3 have a very busy schedule with clients that are visiting from 4 out of town. And while it wouldn't be unduly burdensome for
5 me --

6 THE COURT: Just a minute. We got to get the 7 cellphones off. If you have a cellphone, just put it on 8 silent or turn it off because it interferes with --

9 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I borrowed this from my son.
10 I don't know how to turn it off.

11 THE MARSHAL: I'll try. I did tell the jurors to 12 shut off their cellphones, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Okay. You used your son's. Okay.
14 That's okay. Maybe we can figure out how to --

15 THE MARSHAL: I'll try to shut it off.

16 COURT RECORDER: What was your badge number, sir?

17 THE COURT: Kerry, that's okay. I don't need his 18 badge number. Mr. Sanford, so you're a CEO of a financial 19 service company for the gaming industry?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Okay. What does that mean?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: And I have -- well, I
23 provide various forms of payment solutions to casino operators
24 around the world, and while it's not unduly burdensome for me
25 to attend, I do have prior meetings that were established with

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 people that are traveling in that may now be burdensome for
2 them if they have to change tickets and the cost to do so as
3 well as any hotel arrangements that they may have made.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Could you rearrange the meetings?
5 We're not here at night.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: No. I understand, but
7 these meetings occur in the day. They were already
8 established and some of these are day trips established and it
9 would really -- might be burdensome for them given, you know,
10 last-minute change notices for tickets or hotel
11 accommodations, so I just wanted you to take that into 12 consideration.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: So not so much for me,
15 but for others.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I -- and I just -- for my own
17 edification, you've had this jury summons for quite some time?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Understood.

19 THE COURT: Right?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: It's been a couple --
21 maybe a few weeks, yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: And I'm sorry, Your 24 Honor, I tried to plan for that but -- and therefore I pushed
25 meetings more to Thursday evening and Friday, but if it

1 extends beyond that then into the following week, I didn't
2 anticipate that may be required.

3 THE COURT: Why does everyone think they're going to 4 come here and be excused?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I didn't think that.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I thought that perhaps it
8 would be a day or two days [inaudible] and it wouldn't be an 9 issue.

10 THE COURT: This is a pretty short trial in terms of 11 the kind of trials I do. The next one I'm going to do is 12 going to be really long, it's going to be about a month.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Fair enough.

14 THE COURT: You want to come for that one? I'm just 15 kidding. I'm just kidding.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: If I get enough advanced
17 notice I'll make sure.

18 THE COURT: But two to three -- I really was just 19 kidding.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I know.

21 THE COURT: But two to three days is a very short
22 time period for trials -- I mean for serving for that amount
23 of time. Doesn't sound like it's going to be a burden for 24 you, but it may be a burden for other people that are relying
25 upon you?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Correct.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have other people that work
3 for you?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I do.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: But they come to see me,
7 I'm the CEO of a company, it's a start-up company in a
8 start-up scenario. CEO is sort of instrumentally involved in 9 the organization.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Sanford. Thank you
11 very much for being here. Anyone else on the second row? Go
12 ahead, ma'am.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: Vijaya Rajagopal, and the 14 Badge No. is 080028.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: This, you know, death in 17 the family last week --

18 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: And they have some 20 [inaudible] some services in California so I was hoping that I
21 could attend for Saturday.

22 THE COURT: In California?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: And my [inaudible] in 24 India, she passed away last week.

25 THE COURT: If you need to go to a funeral on

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 Saturday, we're not in session on Saturdays.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: No, but I have to fly on 3 Friday.

4 THE COURT: What time?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: I have not booked the 6 ticket because I knew that I had to come here.

7 THE COURT: Could you book your ticket for after 5:00
8 o'clock?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: Yeah, I could.

10 THE COURT: Okay. But the services are on Saturday?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: Yeah, Saturday and the 12 following week they have funeral services planned. It's like
13 10th day through 13th day, that's what they're doing, you
14 know, the religious ceremonies.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So the 10th day to the 13th day
16 you need?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: Yeah, yeah.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 028: So that's -- that's 20 Monday -- that's Saturday, Sunday, Monday.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, ma'am. Anyone else
22 over there? Go ahead, sir.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: My name is Adam Rovit, it
24 is Badge 080030. I'm a physician and --

25 THE COURT: What, do we have two doctors?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: Yes, at least I guess.

2 THE COURT: Yeah, at least.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: I'm a sub-specialist of 4 one of only two in the city.

5 THE COURT: What do you do?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: I'm a pediatric
7 ophthalmologist.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: I served on a jury trial,
10 criminal, three years ago, and it was a significant burden for 11 my practice and my patients.

12 THE COURT: Okay. How long was that trial?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: Three days.

14 THE COURT: All right. And it's -- so obviously you
15 were able to do that, but it was a burden?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: It was a significant
17 burden in terms of canceling, rescheduling. You know, I felt
18 at the time it was part of my civic duty and I served.

19 THE COURT: You feel like you got called back too
20 soon, is that what I'm sensing?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: I think so. I mean, I
22 don't know what the schedule is. I was in another city and I
23 was never called in 15 years and I got called here twice in 24 three years.

25 THE COURT: You must be doing something right. That

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 is -- that is pretty quick.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 030: Right.

3 THE COURT: But you can get a jury summons I think
4 every 18 months. They can't call you within 18 months, okay?
5 Thank you. Thank you very much for being here. Anyone else?
6 Go ahead, sir.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Hi. Peter Pryor, 0037.

8 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Pryor.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: This gentleman here, I
10 have a back problem, nerves and spinal damage from an injury,
11 and I have to walk over a quarter of a mile to get to a bus to 12 get here. The bus to get to here is a certain time. If I
13 miss the bus, the Court will probably be mad at me for showing
14 up late.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Is it a problem getting to the 16 bus?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: It's over a quarter-mile
18 walk and when my back's not feeling right, it takes me a lot
19 longer to get there.

20 THE COURT: Okay. But you were able to plan
21 accordingly today?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I left my house before
23 8:00, and I got to the jury selection room at 9:28.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: So it took me over an

1 hour and a half --

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: -- to go about seven
4 blocks.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So you're within seven miles of 6 the courthouse?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I think it's [inaudible].
8 I'm on Charleston and -- between Charleston and Sahara on 9 South Sandhill.

10 THE COURT: Charleston and Sahara makes no sense.
11 They both run --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: They both [inaudible],
13 I'm on South Sandhill, right in the middle of both of them.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Well, would you be --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: [Inaudible.]

16 THE COURT: Would you be able to do it if you were 17 asked to be here?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Well, like I say, if it's 19 bad weather or if I miss the bus and the thing starts -- the 20 trial starts at 8:00 or 9:00 in the morning and I'm 15 or 20
21 minutes late, then I'll --

22 THE COURT: We would all be waiting for you.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: -- then I'll probably be 24 cooked.

25 THE COURT: You won't be in trouble, but we'd all be

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 waiting for you.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So you would be able to plan
4 accordingly?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I'd try to get here, but
6 like I said, if I miss it, I don't want to hold everybody up.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Well, you would.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I don't want to be in 9 trouble for being late.

10 THE COURT: You won't be in trouble. Why do you
11 think you're going to be in trouble? Okay. Thank you very 12 much for being here, Mr. Pryor. Anyone else over there?
13 Third row? Anyone else that wishes to respond to the Court?
14 Okay. The record will reflect no further response from the
15 panel.

16 Are there any of you who believe that for any other
17 reason you would be unable to serve as a juror in this 18 particular case? The record will reflect no response from the
19 panel.

20 Is there anyone on the panel who's ever been engaged
21 in law enforcement work or have a spouse or close relative
22 who's ever been engaged in law enforcement work? Okay. We'll 23 start over here.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Nick Schettino, 080005.
25 My niece is a DA in New York.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. How long has she been a DA in New
2 York?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Five or six years.

4 THE COURT: How often do you talk to her?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Actually she's coming in 6 this weekend to see me. I talk to her, you know, every couple
7 of weeks.

8 THE COURT: You ever talk to her about what she does
9 for a living?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yes.

11 THE COURT: What do you talk about?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Just about when the case
13 is over, she just, you know, mentions them. I saw her in the 14 paper a couple of times. She had some big cases.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about her employment that
16 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. You understand that if you were 19 selected to be a juror on this panel you would not be 20 permitted to discuss this case with her or anyone else? You
21 would only be permitted to speak it with -- speak about this 22 case with your fellow jurors and only after you have been
23 released to deliberate upon your verdict?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yes.

25 THE COURT: So you wouldn't be able to call up your

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 niece, or if she was here, talk to her at all about this case;
2 do you understand that?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Would you comply with that order?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Anyone else? Go
7 ahead, sir.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: My name is Gordon Brooke,
9 Badge No. 080011. My brother and my ex-brother-in-law were 10 law enforcement officers.

11 THE COURT: Where?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: Elko, Nevada for my
13 brother-in-law, and Tucson, Arizona for my brother.

14 THE COURT: Anything about their employment that
15 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: I don't think so, I just 17 want to let you know.

18 THE COURT: All right. You're the only one who can 19 tell me whether it would affect your ability --

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: I think I can do it, but 21 they're both officers and we've talked about difference cases
22 and, you know, they're patrol officers and what they have to 23 deal with.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: Stuff like that on day to

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 day, we talk about many times.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: Okay.

4 THE COURT: That's fine. Anything about that that
5 would affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in
6 this particular case?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 011: I don't think so, no.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Anyone else? Go
9 ahead, ma'am.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Karen Augspurger, 080021.
11 My brother-in-law was District Attorney of Lincoln County and 12 now he works in Henderson as an attorney.

13 THE COURT: Anything about his employment that would
14 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I don't think so.

16 THE COURT: Okay. You're the only one who can tell
17 me.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.

19 THE COURT: All right. You understand you won't be 20 able to discuss this case with him?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And you understand you won't be able to 23 call him up and ask him any questions?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And you'll comply with that order?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else on this
3 first row? Second row? Okay. You're up.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I'm up, huh? Vicky
5 Woodside, 080036. My son's a corrections officer.

6 THE COURT: Who does he work for?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: High Desert.

8 THE COURT: Anything about -- so he works for the 9 State of Nevada?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: All right. Anything about his employment
12 that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

14 THE COURT: Okay. You know you wouldn't be able to 15 discuss the case with him?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Right.

17 THE COURT: Does he live here in Las Vegas?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: So he commutes?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yeah, they drive back and 21 forth everyday.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about his employment that
23 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else on the

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 second row? Third row? Anyone else that wishes to address
2 the Court on that? The record will reflect no response from
3 the panel.

4 Is there anyone on this panel who believes they may 5 not be able to follow all the instructions of the Court on the 6 law even if the instructions differ from your personal
7 conceptions of what the law ought to be? Anyone who believes
8 they cannot follow the law as given to you by myself? The 9 record will reflect no response from the panel.

10 As a follow-up to the previous question, in any
11 criminal trial the members of the jury sitting collectively
12 are the judges of the question of fact. As the Judge in this 13 case, I'm the judge of the questions of law. It's my 14 responsibility to be sure that I give instructions on the law
15 that apply to this particular case.

16 It would be a violation of a juror's duty if he or 17 she tried to render a judgment based upon what he or she 18 believed the law to be if that differed from my instructions.
19 With that in mind, is there anyone who feels they cannot be 20 fact finders and follow my instructions on the applicable law
21 in this case? The record will reflect no response from the
22 panel.

23 Under our system there are certain principles of law
24 that apply in every criminal trial. They are that the 25 information filed in this case is a mere accusation and is not

1 evidence of guilt. That as Mr. Bennett Grimes sits here today
2 he is presumed innocent and therefore the State must prove all
3 of the allegations in their charging document by proof beyond
4 a reasonable doubt.

5 Is there anyone who does not understand or believe in 6 these basic precepts of American justice? The record will
7 reflect no response from the panel.

8 Does anybody know anything about this case other than 9 what's been stated in the courtroom here today? The record
10 will reflect no response.

11 [Inaudible] panel, at this time, ladies and 12 gentlemen, I'm going to have the attorneys meet me out in the 13 hallway. We'll just converse for a couple of minutes and then
14 we'll be right back in here. So Court is still in session.
15 The officer will remain with you and we'll be right back.

16 (Pause in proceedings.)

17 THE COURT: We locked him out. Sorry about that.
18 Sorry. Sorry, Mr. Hillman. Do the parties stipulate to the 19 presence of the jury panel?

20 MR. HILLMAN: Yes, ma'am.

21 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor.

22 MS. HOJJAT: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you. There being no objection, the 24 clerk's going to call the first 23 names provided to us by the 25 Jury Commissioner. When your name is called, please take your

1 seat in the jury box. The court marshal will help you figure
2 out where you need to sit.

3 (Clerk announced the 23 names for the panel.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. The people that are still
5 remaining on the first row, if you'll please stand up and just 6 stand in the back and as soon as we seat the first 23 we'll
7 let you know where you can have a seat. You can go sit back
8 there on a back row, that's perfect. Thank you.

9 (Clerk continues to announce names for the panel.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Mark -- is it Whelchel?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Good morning. How long have you lived in
13 Clark County?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Thirty years.

15 THE COURT: Your employment, training, education
16 background?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Licensed marriage and 18 family therapist and [inaudible] master's degree.

19 THE COURT: What's your master's degree in?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Marriage and family
21 therapy.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Married.

6 THE COURT: Okay. How long has she done that?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Twelve years.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.
10 THE COURT: How many?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Four.
12 THE COURT: Are any of them old enough to be
13 employed?
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.
15 THE COURT: All of them?

17 enough, yes.
18 THE COURT: Okay. Will you start at the top and you

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: My oldest is 30, he's a
21 worship pastor. My next oldest is 24, he's a worship pastor
22 also.
23 THE COURT: Okay.
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: My next is 21, he is a
25 waiter.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: And my next is 18, and
3 she's a college student.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Well, she doesn't have to be
5 employed?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: That's right.

7 THE COURT: She's a full-time student?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Any reason why you could not be a
10 completely fair and impartial juror --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: No.

12 THE COURT: -- if you were selected to serve on this
13 panel?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: No.

15 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Thank you very much for 16 being here. Mr. Nick Schettino, how long have you lived in 17 Clark County?

9 THE COURT: Business. Your marital status?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Married.

11 THE COURT: Is your wife employed?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No, she's retired.

13 THE COURT: She's not employed?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: [Inaudible] in 5 counseling.

6 THE COURT: What do you do for a living?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Right now I'm retired. I
8 have taken on special projects at a high-risk high school.

9 THE COURT: You're retired, but you've taken on a
10 project?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Uh-huh.

12 THE COURT: At a high school that has high-risk
13 children?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Uh-huh.

15 THE COURT: Are those all yeses?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Yes, they are.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Remember Kerry --
18 because if you say uh-huh, that's what's going to come up on 19 my transcript, okay? And so this project, what does it
20 require you to do?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: We just work with getting 22 kids who are extremely short with credits in order to try to 23 help them graduate. This particular school has a lot of 24 opportunities for them to be placed in different situations so
25 that they are more likely to graduate.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Can you just give me an example? Like
2 what? So you go into this high school that has high-risk kids
3 and these are kids that probably wouldn't graduate but for 4 your help?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Well, there are
6 traditional -- well, this is a traditional high school.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: But they don't have as 9 many programs in place to assist kids. This particular school
10 has gotten grants from different organizations to help pay for 11 the kids to finish their education.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So do you get paid?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Do I get paid?

14 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. And so what do you -- I mean, are 17 there classes? Tutors? Proficiency help? What do you do?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: There's classes. There's 19 tutoring. There are situations where we send them to an
20 option of online schools so that they can work at their own
21 pace if they are credit deficient so that they can move more
22 quickly through the course work and have an opportunity to 23 graduate versus staying at the traditional, you know, one-
24 period through six-period day and not being able to catch up.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Married.
2 THE COURT: Is your husband employed?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Retired.
4 THE COURT: Okay. What is your husband retired from?
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Teaching, high school

7 THE COURT: How long did he do that?
8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Thirty-two years.

23 THE COURT: In Mid --
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Sorry -- Midvale outside
25 of Salt Lake City, Utah.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. How long has your son been a

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: About -- for about
4 probably the last 15 years.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know what kind of -- what
6 he does? Does he patrol? Is he a detective?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: He's a -- he does a
8 patrol.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about his employment that
10 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: No.

12 THE COURT: You know of any reason why you could not
13 be a completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected
14 to serve on this panel?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: No.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you for being here.
17 Mr. Robert -- would you pronounce your last name for me?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Wilczynski, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Wilczynski. Thank you. How long have 20 you lived in Clark County?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Fourteen years.

22 THE COURT: Your employment, training, education
23 background?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Two years of college. I
25 spent most of my career in human resources management.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Most recently I'm

4 THE COURT: Your marital status?

6 THE COURT: Is your wife employed?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: No, she's been a

9 THE COURT: Do you have children?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Yes, one daughter.
11 THE COURT: Is she old enough to be employed?
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Yes.
13 THE COURT: What does she do?
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: She's currently
15 unemployed as well.
16 THE COURT: Okay. Any reason why you could not be a

18 serve?
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Your Honor, I've been 20 asking myself that while I stand here for a while.
21 THE COURT: Okay.
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I'd like to think I can 23 be.
24 THE COURT: Okay.
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I should tell you,

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 though, my daughter was in an abusive relationship with the
2 father of our granddaughter. In fact, [inaudible] now. And I
3 -- I think I can put that out of my mind but the similarity of 4 the situations.

5 THE COURT: That you just -- so your daughter was in
6 a situation --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: She's never been
8 seriously injured.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: But the father of our 11 granddaughter she lived with at the time was abusing her
12 verbally and physically.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Never anything that had 15 gone to court or anything like that. Police were called 16 several times and they got security [inaudible] in a hotel and 17 pretty much cut off relation with him for the past several 18 years.

19 THE COURT: All right. So how long has it been since 20 this has gone on?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Probably about five
22 years, but it was kind of a hot button with me.

23 THE COURT: Okay. I understand, you're a father. Is 24 there anything -- I mean, you understand that has nothing to 25 do with this case?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Right. I understand
2 that.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: It's just I -- I -- I
5 knew this fellow I thought pretty well.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Kind of a guy who
8 [inaudible] shirt off his back, great guy. More I found out
9 about him, I just couldn't believe it. Made me really
10 cynical.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about your 12 personal issues that would affect your ability to be fair and
13 impartial in this case?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I'd like to think not.
15 I'm in human resources, obviously I have to mediate a lot of 16 things and try and be fair and impartial in those situations
17 and I think I've done a good job of it.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Well again, everybody that comes 19 to this courtroom, comes to this courtroom with lots of life
20 experiences, okay? I don't expect you to leave them at the 21 door; but, well, I guess I kind of do expect you to leave them
22 at the door. I mean, can you leave that experience at the 23 door, listen to the evidence that you hear in this case and 24 judge this case solely upon what you see and hear in the 25 courtroom and the instructions on the law and nothing else?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I think that I can.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Well --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I just thought I should
4 make you aware of the situation.

5 THE COURT: No, I appreciate that because obviously 6 it caused you to think that maybe you should disclose that,
7 right? Okay. Is there anything about that situation that's
8 going to affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I don't believe so, Your 10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Well, you keep saying, "I don't think so,
12 I don't believe so," and you're the only one that can tell me.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I guess I'm having a hard
14 time coming up with a hard yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Until I'm in the 17 situation I'm not sure I really know.

18 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me ask you this 19 because I can't -- I cannot wait until you've heard all the 20 case and you go back to deliberate and you get back in the 21 deliberation room and you start talking about your daughter's
22 situation; and that has nothing to do with this, do you
23 understand that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Yeah, I -- I don't think
25 I would do anything like that.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I'm just worried about
3 how subconsciously it might affect my train of thought.

4 THE COURT: All right. Well, that's what I'm worried
5 about too. Is it going to do that? Is it going to impede
6 your ability to look at the evidence objectively --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I don't know, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: -- and weigh it fair and impartially?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I can't honestly say, no,
10 it won't.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So you think what's happened to 12 your daughter could -- do you believe that what's happened to 13 your daughter should affect Mr. Bennett Grimes?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Not at all.

15 THE COURT: Neither do I, because would that be fair?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Are you a juror that's going to 18 allow that to affect your judgment?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Again I would hope not.
20 I believe that I can keep them separate.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I'm not -- I'm not hopeful that 22 your questions are good enough right now. I mean, you have to 23 be able to say you can or you can't, okay? Someone that's 24 kind of on the fence, generally that's not really a yes; and 25 both of these parties, they're entitled to fair and impartial

1 treatment.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: I agree completely.

3 THE COURT: Okay. If you -- if you have family
4 members sitting in Mr. Bennett Grimes' seat, would you want
5 someone like yourself sitting on the panel?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Probably not.

7 THE COURT: Why not?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Because again I can't be 9 sure --

10 THE COURT: It's always a good question, isn't it?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: It is. Again I just 12 can't be 100% positive.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And the reason is if you had a
14 family member sitting over there, you'd want them to have a
15 fair and impartial trial, would you not?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Yes.

17 THE COURT: In front of a panel of their peers,
18 listen to the evidence in the case, correct?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Yes.

20 THE COURT: And base their decision on the law and 21 the evidence they heard in the courtroom, right?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Yes.

23 THE COURT: And nothing else?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Right.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Are you a person that can do that?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Again I can't give you a
2 hard yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 029: Sorry, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: That's okay. I'm just going to ask you
6 to just go sit on the back row. And at this time I'm going to 7 ask Daniel Davenport -- Mr. Davenport, if you will come up and
8 take Seat No. 18. Okay. Mr. Davenport, I'm going to ask you
9 a few questions. How long have you lived in Clark County?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Five years.

11 THE COURT: Where did you move from?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: St. Louis.

13 THE COURT: What's your education background?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Bachelor's degree.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No.
2 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Single.
4 THE COURT: Do you have children?
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No.
6 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a
7 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to
8 serve on this panel?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No, but I was --
10 THE COURT: What's "no but"? Go ahead.
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: I just want to let you
12 know I recently had a traumatic experience.
13 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Do you feel comfortable
14 sharing it with everybody or --
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Sure.
16 THE COURT: Okay. I just want to make sure.
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: About four months ago my 18 best friend was murdered in a domestic violence situation back
19 in St. Louis.
20 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Okay. It was your best
21 friend. In the relationship, who was your best friend?
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: My friend, Deandre.
23 THE COURT: Is that -- was that the woman or the man?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: The guy.
25 THE COURT: The guy?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: Okay. He was murdered in like a domestic
3 violence type of situation?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Can you just generally tell me
6 what the facts are? I mean generally, you don't have to be
7 real specific. It was in St. Louis, correct?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And you were here?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yeah, I was here.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: I was here. There was an

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: And he was asked to 16 leave, he didn't leave, and someone else was called and it
17 escalated to that outcome.

18 THE COURT: Who was -- so somebody -- a third person
19 was called in?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: By the --

21 THE COURT: Did the mom murder your friend or the 22 third person?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No. The third person, 24 the guy that was --

25 THE COURT: Okay. The third party. Has that third

1 party been arrested?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No, because it was
3 supposedly self defense.

4 THE COURT: Okay. That -- was that person arrested?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No.

6 THE COURT: Not even arrested? Is that a no?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So you -- and you're -- again I'm 9 asking you to tell me things that I assume you heard third
10 person --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yes.

12 THE COURT: -- is that correct?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about that 15 situation that's going to affect your ability to be fair and
16 impartial in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Can you set that aside and -- and 19 do your job as a juror based on the evidence you see and hear
20 in the courtroom and the law as given to you by myself?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. I'm sorry you had 23 to tell us that. I apologize. Elizabeth Denny, how long have

21 THE COURT: And it's obviously okay for you to be

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yeah.

24 THE COURT: What's the rule with magnet schools, do
25 you know?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: There should be a bus,

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: [Inaudible] one mile.

7 THE COURT: Is that still the rule?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: [Inaudible.]

9 THE COURT: Okay. How long have you been a bus

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Do you like it?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: It's all right.

16 THE COURT: All right. I won't ask you anymore
17 questions. Your marital status?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Married.

19 THE COURT: Is your husband employed?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes. Transportation
21 supervisor.

22 THE COURT: For?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: School district.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any children?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes, two.

3 THE COURT: What do they do for a living?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: My son's a corrections

6 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a
7 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to
8 serve on this panel?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.
10 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you for being here.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I was in New York state,
19 it was in [inaudible], city of Water [inaudible].
20 THE COURT: So you've been retired for 17 years or

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: She works for Loomis.
25 THE COURT: For?

6 THE COURT: So three children?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Are they old enough to be employed?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Can you tell us what each does for a

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: My son's out of work

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yes.

22 THE COURT: What do they do?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: They hook up part-time

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a
2 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to
3 serve on this panel?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Well, for the 22 years I
5 was on the fire department --

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: -- I would go out on
8 domestic calls where people have been stabbed.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that is going to
10 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I could never understand
12 why a male would stab another female but.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. I didn't hear you.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Why a male could stab
15 another female; but I don't know the reason for this case.

16 THE COURT: All right. So over --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: As I was treating, they
18 were -- guys were usually drunk. They usually took off. I
19 never speak to them.

20 THE COURT: Okay. That was -- you've been retired
21 for at least 17 years, correct?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yes.

23 THE COURT: All right. And apparently during your 24 job as a firefighter you had to come upon situations where 25 somebody had been stabbed by somebody else?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Stabbed, shot, beat with 2 bones.

3 THE COURT: Okay. How long did you do it?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Twenty-two years.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So you probably saw your fair
6 share of things?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Anything about your employment, your 9 former employment that's going to affect your ability to be 10 fair and impartial?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: I'm pretty -- I could do
12 it, I believe. I just wanted to be fair to bring it up so
13 everybody here would know.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anything about your 15 prior employment that's going to interfere with your ability
16 to be fair and impartial?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. Mr. Richard 19 Evans?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Good morning. How long have you lived in
22 Clark County?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: About ten months.

2 THE COURT: Thank you for responding. Your education
3 background?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: One year college, and

6 THE COURT: So you moved out here to retire?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: Yes.
8 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: Married.
10 THE COURT: Is your wife employed?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: She's retired as well.
12 THE COURT: What did she do?
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: She was an office
14 manager.
15 THE COURT: Do you have children?
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: I have a stepson.
17 THE COURT: Okay. One child?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: What does he do for a living?
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: He's a manager for a
23 fast-food restaurant.
24 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: No.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 038: You're welcome.

5 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Brian Kuntz. How long

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 041: I'm currently unemployed.

15 THE COURT: Your marital status?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 041: Single.

17 THE COURT: Do you have children?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 041: No, ma'am.

19 THE COURT: Do you know of any reason why you could 20 not be a completely fair and impartial juror if you were 21 selected to serve on this panel?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 041: No.

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you very much for being 24 here. All right. At this time, ladies and gentlemen, it's 25 12:30. We are going to recess for lunch. During this recess

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 you're admonished not to talk or converse amongst yourselves
2 or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial
3 or read, watch or listen to any report of or commentary on the 4 trial or any person connected with this trial by any medium of 5 information, including without limitation newspapers,
6 television, the Internet or radio, or form or express any 7 opinion on any subject connected with this trial until the 8 case is finally submitted to you.

9 You're further admonished you may not communicate
10 with anyone, including your fellow jurors about this case on 11 your cellphone, through email, Blackberry, iPhone, text
12 messaging, through Twitter, any blog or website, through any
13 Internet chat room or by way of any other social networking
14 website including but not limited to Facebook, MySpace,
15 LinkedIn and YouTube.

16 We're going to be in recess until 1:45. After lunch,
17 you'll come back up to the fourteenth floor in which the 18 officer will meet you and he'll bring you back in. Before I
19 excuse you, can I just speak to the officer for one minute?

20 (Pause in proceedings.)

21 THE COURT: Okay. At this time, ladies and 22 gentlemen, you're excused. We'll see you at 1:45. Thank you.

23 (Court recessed at 12:32 p.m. until 1:54 p.m.)

24 (Outside the presence of the prospective jury panel.)

25 THE COURT: This hearing is taking place outside the

1 presence of the jury panel. Mr. Bennett Grimes is present.
2 Generally, especially when a jury comes in, I like people to
3 stand up. It's just, you know, out of respect, okay? But
4 thank you, you can have a seat. All right. Because you don't
5 want the jury to think you're not being respectful, okay? Do
6 you have something that has to be done before I bring the 7 panel back in?

8 MR. HILLMAN: Just briefly.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Hillman.

10 MR. HILLMAN: When Ms. Hojjat and I left the 11 courtroom for the lunchroom break, we tried to wait to make 12 sure that the elevator well was clear of jurors. We came 13 around the corner and saw Janice David.

14 THE COURT: What badge number?

15 MR. HILLMAN: She is Badge No. 16 in Chair No. 7.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. HILLMAN: And that's all --

18 THE COURT: The court reporter?

19 MR. HILLMAN: Yes. That's all --

20 THE COURT: The court reporter who knows better?

21 MR. HILLMAN: Well, it wasn't her fault. She was 22 just waiting for the elevator. We walked around the corner,
23 there she was, we turned around and went -- and backtracked.
24 So we're wondering if the Court would consider telling them
25 that if we run into them on the street or anywhere else, we

1 can't say anything to them and we're not being rude. That's 2 all.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So nothing happened? You just saw
4 her.

5 MR. HILLMAN: Nothing happened. We just want you to 6 add that extra instruction.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. HILLMAN: Okay.

9 THE COURT: I usually do.

10 MR. HILLMAN: Right, you usually do, but I don't
11 remember hearing it this morning.

12 THE COURT: I don't remember either, Mr. Hillman.

13 MR. HILLMAN: And I didn't want to wait until the end
14 because I would forget by then.

15 THE COURT: Okay. But she didn't say anything to 16 you?

17 MR. HILLMAN: No, nothing was said.

18 THE COURT: Okay. But you think she might be worried
19 because you turned around and ran?

20 MS. HOJJAT: It just -- it appeared --

21 MR. HILLMAN: It was --

22 MS. HOJJAT: -- we walked, took one look at her,
23 turned right back around and walked back out again.

24 THE COURT: Okay. No problem.

25 MR. HILLMAN: It was a little awkward, that's all.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. No problem. I'll be happy to do
2 it. Before we went to lunch the only person that I allowed to 3 leave was Janet Robertson, 0008, but everyone else should
4 still be here with us. So we'll bring them in. I just have a
5 few questions to ask the panel as a whole, and then after that
6 I'm going to turn the panel over to the State.

7 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I have just a few more questions. You
9 can bring them in.

10 (In the presence of the prospective jury panel.)

11 THE COURT: Sir, I know you have issues with your 12 back. You can sit wherever it is that's most comfortable for 13 you, okay? Okay. If you want to come over here where there's 14 less people so you don't -- you can sit on the second row
15 right there if you want to. Or you can sit in that chair,
16 it's up to you. All right.

17 Do the parties stipulate to the presence of the jury
18 panel as a whole?

19 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. HILLMAN: Yes, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Okay. At this time my -- I have a few 22 questions left for the panel of 23 only. So if you are in the 23 first 23 these questions pertain to you and if you'd like to 24 respond in the affirmative, again please raise your hand,
25 state your name and your badge number before responding to my

1 question.

2 Anyone on the panel 1 through 23 that's ever served
3 as a juror before; ever been called, actually was on the jury
4 panel? Go ahead, sir.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Mark Whelchel, No.
6 080001. I've been --

7 THE COURT: How many times.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: I've been called three
9 times, I've served on one jury.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know if that was civil or 11 criminal?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Criminal.

13 THE COURT: Was that here in Clark County?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.

15 THE COURT: How long ago was it?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Probably about eight
17 years ago.

18 THE COURT: So it was in this building?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: No, it wasn't this
20 building, so it may have been longer.

21 THE COURT: Was it the other -- I can't even remember
22 how long we've been in here.

23 MR. HILLMAN: Me either.

24 THE COURT: Have we been in here for at least eight
25 years? I don't know. I'm so sorry.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: I'm not sure either.
2 THE COURT: It was the other courthouse?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.
4 THE COURT: Okay. Were you -- it was a criminal
5 case?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.
7 THE COURT: Were you selected to be the foreperson?
8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: No.
9 THE COURT: Without telling us what your verdict was,
10 was the jury able to reach a verdict?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.
12 THE COURT: Anything about that experience that would
13 affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in this
14 case?
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: No.
16 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Anyone else that's ever
17 served as a juror before? Go ahead.
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Karen Augspurger, 080021.
19 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror?
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.
21 THE COURT: How many times?
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Two.
23 THE COURT: Civil or criminal?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Two civil.
25 THE COURT: Both were civil?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Uh-huh.
2 THE COURT: Is that a yes?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.
4 THE COURT: Okay. In either of those cases were you
5 selected to be the foreperson?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.
7 THE COURT: Was the jury able to reach a verdict?
8 Don't tell us what the verdict was; but in both cases was the 9 jury able to reach a verdict?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.
11 THE COURT: Anything about those experiences that 12 would affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in
13 this particular case?
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.
15 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else that's ever
16 served as a juror before? Go ahead, ma'am.
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Vicky Woodside, 080036.
18 THE COURT: How many times?
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Once.
20 THE COURT: Civil or criminal?
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Criminal.
22 THE COURT: And that was here in Clark County?
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yeah. Yes.
24 THE COURT: Were you selected to be the foreperson?
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Without tell us what your verdict was,
2 were you able to reach a verdict?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Anything about that experience that would
5 affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this
6 particular case?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

8 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else that's ever
9 served as a juror before? Go ahead, ma'am.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: 080027.

11 THE COURT: Your name?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Karen Hopkins.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Hopkins. How many times?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Once.

15 THE COURT: Civil or criminal?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Civil.

17 THE COURT: That was here in Clark County?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Were you selected to be the foreperson?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: No.

21 THE COURT: Without telling me what your verdict was,
22 were you able to reach a verdict?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: No.

24 THE COURT: No?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: No.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: So what happened?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: The judge just dismissed
3 us and said there wasn't enough information to make a
4 decision.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Were you ever excused to
6 deliberate your verdict?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: [Inaudible.]

8 THE COURT: Okay. So at some point in the trial the 9 judge says, "you're discharged, you can go home." Is that a
10 yes?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: At the end, yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. And you did not have to 13 deliberate?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Right.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that that would 16 affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in this
17 case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: No.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else? The record will 20 reflect no further response from the jury panel.

21 Have you or anyone close to you, such as a family
22 member or friend, ever been the victim of a crime? Have you
23 or anyone close to you, such as a family member, friend, ever
24 been the victim of a crime? And other than what potential
25 jurors have already informed the Court. Go ahead, ma'am.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 Your name and badge number?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Llendy Hernandez, Badge
3 No. 080024. My dad was murdered in 2006.

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: My dad was murdered in 6 '06.

7 THE COURT: 2006?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Was that here in Clark County?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No. Moreno Valley,
11 California.

12 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. I'm sorry I have to 13 ask you these questions. Did they catch --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

15 THE COURT: All right. Is it still unsolved?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: The DA said it was out of 17 their hands and couldn't do anything about it until the State
18 -- they don't know anything and it's still a mystery to my 19 family still.

20 THE COURT: Okay. I don't know what that means, "the 21 DA said it's out of our hands."

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't know either. I
23 was 18. I wasn't sure of the verbiage. [Inaudible.]

24 THE COURT: All right. But they never arrested
25 anybody?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

2 THE COURT: They never had any suspects?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They had a suspect, but I
4 guess they fled the country, or I don't know.

5 THE COURT: Was it a robbery or something like that?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No, he was shot at a --
7 the restaurant he owned, like right after Christmas.

8 THE COURT: Okay. It doesn't sound like you know
9 much of the circumstances? Is that a no?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, I don't.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that experience
12 that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, I'm just upset
14 because like I felt like there was no justice done for my dad,
15 and I don't know, I just feel like the system didn't work in 16 our favor in our case. I'm upset about it til this day,
17 [inaudible] family.

18 THE COURT: Of course.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: My future, I had to drop
20 out of college because I couldn't pay for it.

21 THE COURT: Oh my gosh.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: My sister as well. We 23 lost our home. We lost everything. So, yeah, I'm upset til
24 this day.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I apologize. I hope you

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 didn't interpret my questions as, Are you not upset, because I
2 would expect you'd probably be upset the rest of your life
3 over it. But you -- do you think it's the -- do you blame the 4 judicial system?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, I mean --

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: -- I see other small
8 cases of people go to jail for just like small things. I
9 mean, this is a father that was murdered and they never had to 10 do anything about it so.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So you believe the police didn't 12 do anything about it?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't think they did
14 everything they could, no.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So obviously the police were 16 called?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

18 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, because you were 18; you
21 were an adult, right?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, I just turned 18.

23 THE COURT: Okay. What I'm going to be asking you,
24 are those based on your personal knowledge or what your mom or 25 family members told you?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: What our attorney told
2 us. We sued -- because it was a restaurant, there was like a
3 concert going on so I guess they hired --

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: -- more people to check
6 the guns and weapons and whatnot; they didn't do their part so
7 the case just settled last -- two weeks ago I believe and I
8 told our attorney, you know, what happened to this guy that
9 killed our dad, was he ever caught? He was like, no, well,
10 they don't know. The guy is still out there. And that's all,
11 that's all that I know. I obviously didn't want to go back to 12 that [inaudible].

13 THE COURT: All right. Now it was in a -- it was in 14 your father's restaurant? Is that a yes?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And there was a concert there?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

18 THE COURT: And who -- and there was somebody, door
19 people, security that was --

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Security guards.

21 THE COURT: -- supposed to check for guns?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

23 THE COURT: Okay. But somehow a gun got in there?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Uh-huh.

25 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And do you -- I mean, do they think your
3 father was randomly shot or was more than one person shot?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It was just my dad. They
5 -- it was just my dad. Nobody else was hurt.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And you don't know if it was 7 random or what the motive was?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And the police never arrested
10 anybody?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

12 THE COURT: Okay. What is it you think the police
13 could have done that they didn't do?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They could have 15 investigated why it was [inaudible] -- I don't know, kept in 16 touch with us to see how, you know, they needed further
17 information from us to help in the system to catch whoever did
18 this to him.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Did the police -- do you know what 20 their investigation was?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm -- I'm sorry, what is it
23 you think they should have investigated if you're not sure
24 what they did investigate?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: What was the cause of

1 them going in there, like what was the motive? Like why him?
2 We -- I'm left with like no answers, so I -- I don't know.

3 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It's okay.

5 THE COURT: Have you ever spoken to the police
6 directly?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't even know who to
8 contact over there. I mean this is like six years ago outside
9 of where we live in Orange (sic) County. This is all in a
10 different county and [inaudible] so I wasn't even sure of the 11 resources that I could use there, who to contact or anything.

12 THE COURT: So who was like the person that would 13 speak for the family to the police?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Our attorney.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Have you ever asked the attorney
16 who is it, who's the detective, who's a homicide detective,
17 who can I contact?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They were in contact with 19 my mom. I really didn't --

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: -- get into it. I was 22 just [inaudible]. Kind of hurts too much to go back.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So they were in contact with your 24 mother? Is that a yes?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

 UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: All right. All right. But you're not
2 really sure what investigation was done?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right, I don't.

4 THE COURT: You don't know what leads they have?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

6 THE COURT: But somebody told you that whoever it
7 was, they fled the country?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I'm not sure the country,
9 they just said they couldn't find the person, that they're
10 still out there.

11 THE COURT: So they — they have a suspect, they've 12 ID'd somebody? A person?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: That's what my attorney
14 said, yeah, that they know who did it but they don't know
15 where he's at.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So they know who did it or they 17 have a suspect?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

19 THE COURT: And they just haven't been able to 20 apprehend that suspect?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Correct.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm assuming you're hopeful
23 that at some point they will be able to apprehend him and 24 prosecute him?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. How do they know how they come to
2 the conclusion that this is who did it, we just can't find
3 him?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't know. I didn't
5 want to ask too many questions, to be honest.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't know. I didn't
8 want to ask too many questions. Honestly, like it felt like
9 kind of like the less I knew the better. I just didn't want
10 to go back to that day; so I don't feel comfortable about 11 this. I really don't. Sorry.

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't feel comfortable
14 talking about this.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. But you brought it up
16 to me.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right, because --

18 THE COURT: So that's -- I'm just trying to -- would 19 you feel more comfortable coming up here at the bench? Okay.
20 Is there anything about -- so you're okay talking about it
21 with everybody else? Because you can talk about it like that 22 or we can come up to the bench and it will just be me and the 23 lawyers. Would that make you feel better? No. Okay. And 24 again, I'm sorry that you have to talk about it. I'm really
25 sorry. Is there anything about that particular incident that

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this
2 case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Then you're going to have to come
5 up here, all right?

6 (Bench conference transcribed as follows.)

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Ms. Hernandez.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It's okay.

9 THE COURT: Hopefully you're more comfortable if 10 we're just up here. Let the record reflect Ms. Hernandez is 11 present at the bench, 0024, as well as all four lawyers.
12 Okay. Because I've asked you repeatedly if you could be fair
13 and impartial, and you said, Yes. Now you said you think that 14 what happened to your father might affect you here. How so?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I'm just really bitter
16 about the situation and I'm just upset and also in opening I
17 was --

18 THE COURT: Okay. Let's not go onto anything else
19 yet. Okay. You're bitter and upset.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And that's completely
22 understandable, okay? And that was in another jurisdiction,
23 right?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Benita [phonetic].

25 THE COURT: [Inaudible], California, there was

1 another police department.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

3 THE COURT: That was another state.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And you clearly think they didn't
6 do enough to solve this?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Although they clearly have 9 somebody, they've ID'd somebody, they just can't find that
10 person.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: That's what our attorney
12 said.

13 THE COURT: That's what you think?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I'm not 100% sure, but
17 that's what our attorney said.

18 THE COURT: Okay. That's what you think. Let me
19 just remind everybody we're still in session

20 and we're recording at the bench. Thank you. Would 21 you use what happened there against the parties
22 in this matter?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I just feel like my 24 emotions are going to get in the way.

25 THE COURT: Okay. How so?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I just don't believe in
2 the court system. I just don't feel like -- there's other
3 things that happened to me as well and I just don't --

4 THE COURT: Okay. You don't believe in the court
5 system in California?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Does that mean that Nevada, you
8 don't believe in the court system here?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, I've never been to 10 -- well, I just have a lot of different factors that are -- I
11 know that are going to impair my judgment as far as --

12 THE COURT: Go ahead and tell me what they are.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Like I also had a gun to 14 my head for 45 minutes while I was 8 months pregnant, they
15 shoplifted the whole entire store, and I'm kind of like -- I
16 don't want --

17 THE COURT: Okay. Wait a minute. You were 8 months
18 pregnant at some point, when was this?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: This is in '08.

20 THE COURT: So two years -- '08, '09, '10, like four
21 years ago?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I have anxiety attacks.

23 THE COURT: Just a minute. Were you some place and 24 someone was committing a robbery?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I was a store manager at

1 RadioShack, two black men came into the store with a gun, put
2 it to my head, 45 minutes, this is after my dad died so you
3 could just --

4 THE COURT: Oh, yeah, I can't even imagine.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: My son came out a month
6 earlier than he should have with a hole in his chest. I
7 [inaudible], I get anxious around black people. I'm not --
8 I'm not racist, but I just don't [inaudible].

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I just try to put all
11 this stuff aside, but I can't.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So you were working at RadioShack
13 as a manager and a robbery went down and you were held at 14 gunpoint? Is that a yes?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Did the police come and investigate?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Did they catch the people that did it?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Did you have to go to court and 21 identify them?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

23 THE COURT: Did you go to court and testify?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

25 THE COURT: You didn't have to do anything?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.
2 THE COURT: So what happened?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I was traumatized.
4 THE COURT: No, I mean I -- of course you were, I
5 apologize. I'm trying to figure out what happened with the
6 case.
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They were caught.
8 THE COURT: Police caught them?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.
10 THE COURT: And then what happened to the 11 perpetrators? Was it more than one?
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It was two.
13 THE COURT: It was two. What happened to them?
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They were locked up
15 because they also robbed three other RadioShacks and some 16 Gamestops.
17 THE COURT: How do you know that?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Because the detective
19 that followed me to the emergency room told me after -- he's 20 saying that they finally caught these guys [inaudible] or --
21 THE COURT: Good.
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: -- shoplifting or
23 whatever at other stores.
24 THE COURT: But you didn't have to identify them?
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

1 THE COURT: You didn't have to testify?
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.
3 THE COURT: What, did they enter a guilty plea?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I have no idea.
5 THE COURT: But they're locked up where and for how 6 long?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: In San Diego. I don't
8 know how long.
9 THE COURT: Okay. Did you follow the case at all?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No, I didn't want to. I
11 had to go --
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I had to go see a
14 psychologist because I was like traumatized from the incident.
15 I get anxiety attacks here and there and I just don't feel
16 comfortable.
17 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you want to tell us?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No. That's it.
19 THE COURT: Okay. So you were a victim of crime and 20 also your father was a victim. You think that's going to 21 impede your ability --
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Oh, yeah.
23 THE COURT: Okay. I have to finish asking my 24 question because Kerry is taking down everything. What 25 happened between this morning and lunch?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I was trying to like get
2 over it and move on and not let it hold me back from my life,
3 but it's hard, you know. Just I can't let it -- my dad's
4 situation, I can't let it past me. My situation, okay, I'll
5 grow up from it one day, but not now. I'm not ready to -- I
6 just don't want my judgment and my feelings and whatnot to get
7 in the way of a man's case; I just don't feel like that's
8 right.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Neither is one that happened to 10 you. So do you think that because what happened to you you're 11 going to convict him regardless of the evidence?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't -- I don't know.
13 I just --

14 THE COURT: Okay. You're the only one that can tell
15 us.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't -- I'm just 17 angry.

18 THE COURT: And you have every right to be, okay?
19 But if you're picked as a juror and you listen to both sides
20 put on their case and after you've heard all of the evidence
21 if you believe the State failed to carry their burden of proof
22 by proving beyond a reasonable doubt, would you have any 23 problem entering a not guilty plea?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Honestly, I don't know.
25 I just don't think that I'm suitable for this one, at least.

1 The whole criminal thing with my dad and what happened to me,
2 I'm just -- I don't want to do this.

3 THE COURT: Could you answer my question? If you sit
4 in this trial, you're picked as a juror, and you believe the 5 State hasn't met their burden of proof, they didn't prove 6 their case by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, would you have
7 any problem entering a not guilty plea -- I'm sorry, not
8 guilty verdict? I'm sorry. Have any problem returning a not
9 guilty verdict?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, like I'm saying, he 11 didn't do it and they're going to have him free.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Listen to my question. You sat
13 through the case, you've heard all of the evidence. You go
14 back to deliberate and you believe the State did not meet
15 their burden of proof, they didn't prove their case, okay?
16 Would you have any problem returning a not guilty verdict?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Vice versa. If you sat through
19 the case and the State put on -- both sides put on their case
20 and you heard the evidence and the State did meet their burden
21 of proof by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, could you return
22 a guilty verdict?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: What do you mean? My 24 head is somewhere else right now. I'm just kind of shocked
25 and embarrassed, to be honest.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: If you're selected to serve as a juror.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

3 THE COURT: And after you've heard all of the 4 evidence and after being instructed on the law you believe the
5 State has met their burden of proof by proof beyond a
6 reasonable doubt, would you have any problem returning a
7 guilty verdict?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

9 THE COURT: And you already told me if they don't
10 meet their burden of proof, you won't have any problem
11 returning a not guilty verdict, correct?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right. I just --

13 THE COURT: Do we have to worry about whether you're 14 going to take out on either side what happened to you?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I feel like I will; like
16 I feel like I would want to put someone because what happened
17 to me and my dad. Like I know it's weird [inaudible], I don't 18 -- it's just I don't feel like -- I don't know, I just --

19 THE COURT: You feel like you want to put someone in 20 jail regardless of who it is?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No, I just feel -- I
22 don't know. [Inaudible] am I going to have everything
23 [inaudible].

24 THE COURT: Are you on any medication for anxiety?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No. I was supposed to go

1 to the doctor today but I had to cancel it because I was here.

2 THE COURT: What kind of doctor is he?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Just a general doctor, it
4 was just a doctor because I can't [inaudible] sometimes, you
5 know. I was [inaudible] anxiety at times. I feel my 6 [inaudible] so --

7 THE COURT: In '08?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: In '08, and I stopped
9 taking medication. I was like I need to get on it because I'm 10 so stressed out.

11 THE COURT: So in '08 you were placed on medication
12 for anxiety?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Just for -- just that one
14 time when I was in the emergency room, the doctor --
15 [inaudible] emergency room, told me to go see a doctor, get on 16 anxiety medication, I never did.

17 THE COURT: So the ER doctor diagnosed you with 18 anxiety?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Just because I -- because 20 of what happened, you know, I was all stressed out.

21 THE COURT: What kind of medication?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Xanax. I just took it
23 that one time he gave it to me.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So you've had one prescription for 25 anxiety and four years have gone by and you haven't ever taken

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 any other medication?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

3 THE COURT: Or had to see another medical doctor for
4 it?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Not for that, no.

6 THE COURT: For anxiety?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

8 THE COURT: Never?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. You have a concern
11 about this case, you feel like you're going to put somebody in 12 jail because of what happened to your dad, what does it mean?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I just want justice done.
14 Like --

15 THE COURT: For your father?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, yeah.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I agree.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I'm not saying like put 19 someone in jail if they didn't do it. I'm just saying like in 20 this case if he did do it and he gets free, that's going to 21 kill me. [Inaudible], that's going to really leave me with 22 just a -- it doesn't work, the system doesn't work.

23 THE COURT: Okay. You understand that your father
24 could still see -- I mean, there still could be justice in 25 your father's case?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: But nobody cares to look
2 into it, you know.

3 THE COURT: How do you know? You haven't even talked
4 to anybody that's handling the case; how do you know?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, wouldn't they
6 contact us to have our information? Like wouldn't they let
7 our attorneys know? I mean --

8 THE COURT: I suggest you find out who [inaudible]
9 your father's case and you call him yourself; that would be my 10 suggestion.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't know where to 12 start from.

13 THE COURT: You're an adult. You can do it. Call
14 your attorney. You're obviously not an attorney. Find out
15 who's been -- who was assigned your father's case and do it
16 yourself. They'll talk to you. they'll talk to you and tell
17 them you want updates. Call them every other month if you
18 want to and find out for yourself instead, you know, taking 19 what other people tell you. That's what I would do. It might 20 make you feel better too. You're allowed to do that, okay?
21 Maybe you can satisfy yourself. It's up to you. There's no
22 statute of limitation on murder. If they catch the person 20
23 years from now they can try them, did you know that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Huh-huh.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So hopefully your family will get

1 justice for what happened. Okay. All of that aside, you've
2 had some pretty significant things that happened to you.
3 You're a young person, okay? Is that going to interfere and
4 impede your ability to be a fair and impartial to Mr. Grimes?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: You're asking me a
6 question that I don't know until I get, you know, until I go
7 through it. Like I don't want to answer the wrong way or tell
8 you, No, I'm going to be perfectly fine, when I know I'm not.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Because you're allowed to be upset
10 about what happened to you and happened to your father.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

12 THE COURT: I can't tell you, Don't be upset about 13 that, okay? You're allowed to be upset about that. The only
14 thing that would be inappropriate is if you say, You know
15 what, these bad things happened to me, they didn't catch the 16 person that did this to my father, so I'm going to stick it to 17 somebody else.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, no, I'm not going
19 to do that. I'm not crazy. You know, I don't want --

20 THE COURT: Okay. It sounds like you're -- you're 21 not necessarily fond of the judicial system.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, you asked the 23 question if anybody had seen or been murdered, I answered --

24 THE COURT: I didn't say that. I said "been a victim
25 of a crime."

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: Yeah, I did. And it's horrible.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I didn't want [inaudible]
4 today so I didn't want [inaudible].

5 THE COURT: That's why I wanted you to come up here.
6 That's why -- I mean, nobody else can hear us. I mean, they
7 know we're talking but they can't hear the content. Are you a
8 person that these things that have happened to you, are they 9 going to hamper your ability to be fair and impartial to the 10 State of Nevada? Because they're prosecutors, they're 11 prosecuting the defendant. You understand that?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

13 THE COURT: [Inaudible] fair to the State of Nevada?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, I'll try, yeah.

15 THE COURT: [Inaudible] fair to the defendant, Mr.
16 Grimes?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes, I don't know him.

18 THE COURT: Okay. I assume you don't know him
19 because I already asked you that so. Anyway, you'll listen to 20 the evidence?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Uh-huh.

22 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. You'll follow the law as given to 25 you by myself?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, I understand it sounds
3 like you don't want to be here.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I don't.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Do you think anybody wants to be
6 here? I bet you if I took a hand -- I'd get everybody raising
7 their hand saying they don't want to be here.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

9 THE COURT: I get that.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I mean, I don't want to 11 be here for different reasons, not because I'm going to miss
12 work or my kids. It's emotional stress, that's why I don't 13 want to be here.

14 THE COURT: Okay. You think something bad is going
15 to happen during the trial to you physically?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

17 THE COURT: I mean, I don't want to compromise your
18 health. It doesn't sound like I'm going to if you're required
19 to be here. Everything okay so far?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: Other than this; I understand you want to 22 talk about this.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

24 THE COURT: Okay. But other than that, have you been 25 okay?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Uh-huh.

2 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. If you're selected to be on this
5 panel, are you going to be able to sit here for the next
6 couple of days and listen to the evidence?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, I mean --

8 THE COURT: Okay. Will you follow the law?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Will you hold the State to their burden
11 of proof?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And if they don't meet that burden of 14 proof, you have any problem returning a verdict of not guilty?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything that's going to 17 interfere with your ability to be a fair and impartial to 18 either side?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

20 THE COURT: Okay. Does either side wish to ask
21 questions? Go ahead.

22 MS. BOTELHO: I have a question.

23 MR. HILLMAN: Okay.

24 THE COURT: The District Attorney will be allowed to 25 ask you some questions up here, okay?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 MS. BOTELHO: I'm wondering if [inaudible] problem
2 [inaudible] with this case, it sounds like you're the victim
3 of a serious violent crime, the gun incident, [inaudible], and
4 [inaudible] your father's kind of a violent-type case. Do you
5 think that the nature of this case that you would [inaudible]
6 presenting evidence, this is a -- the crimes that are charged
7 in this case involve violence, are you going to be okay
8 listening to the facts like that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It depends how gruesome
10 there are, honestly. You know, it's very emotional for me.
11 It's just kind of -- it's just a lot.

12 MS. BOTELHO: Do you think that while we're
13 presenting the case and the defense [inaudible]
14 cross-examining witnesses and things like that, and we had to 15 show you pictures because they're -- it's going to be part of 16 the evidence and stuff you would have to look at, and 17 deliberate, do you think -- do you have or do you think it
18 would take you back to the two incidents that you have been a
19 part of, have been the victim of, and then will that --

20 THE COURT: Well, what's your question? Are you
21 going to be able to look at the evidence, even though some of 22 the evidence might not be pleasant? It might be gruesome.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I mean, that's what 24 [inaudible] medical records of people in car accidents. And 25 this is like [inaudible] hurts me [inaudible].

1 THE COURT: But we told you there's probably going to
2 be photographs.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Are you going to be able to look
5 at the evidence as far as photographs?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

7 MS. BOTELHO: Do you think -- I imagine it will 8 elicit some kind of reaction from you, and not just the 9 typical reaction, but maybe to take you back to the victim
10 part of your -- are you going to be able to put that aside and 11 just look at the evidence just from what we present to you,
12 just what you hear in court, what you see as far as evidence,
13 are you going to be able to set aside all the other things?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Honestly, I don't know.
15 I will try to do my best. Emotionally, as far as emotions I
16 can't really control, but I will try to have a different
17 [inaudible] but it's like [inaudible].

18 MS. BOTELHO: When you say "justice," that means
19 justice for the State? Or justice for the defendant as well?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: For the defendant as 21 well. I don't feel [inaudible.]

22 MS. BOTELHO: Okay.

23 MS. HOJJAT: I have a couple questions.

24 THE COURT: Can you just [inaudible]?

25 MS. HOJJAT: Sure.

1 THE COURT: Will you state your name so Kerry can
2 just get used to your voice?

3 MS. HOJJAT: Oh, sure. This is Nadya Hojjat. So you
4 were obviously the victim of a violent crime, you said there
5 was a gun pointed at your head?

6 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 MS. HOJJAT: That's a [inaudible] incident for you?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

11 MS. HOJJAT: [Inaudible] violence circumstances as 12 well that was happening?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

14 MS. HOJJAT: [Inaudible] screaming?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible] just me by 16 myself.

17 MS. HOJJAT: Just by yourself?

18 THE COURT: You were in the RadioShack all by 19 yourself?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: By myself. It was in the 21 morning so they [inaudible].

22 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. Was he yelling at you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: He asked me to shut up
24 and I was telling him  [inaudible].

25 MS. HOJJAT: All right. So he's yelling at you, he's

1 cursing at you?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: He got [inaudible] out of
3 my [inaudible].

4 MS. HOJJAT: Right, and obviously very traumatic. In 5 this case there is going to be talk of screaming, there's 6 going to be people back and forth were screaming at each
7 other. There's going to be some language used. Do you think
8 that hearing that kind of stuff will take you back?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I wonder.

10 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. Okay. I mean, obviously you went 11 through a lot, [inaudible] absolutely to be [inaudible] by 12 that. You said you were traumatized by what you went through
13 [inaudible]?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

15 MS. HOJJAT: If you hear that -- well, actually I
16 [inaudible] raise that. Should you -- you wanted justice?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: For my dad.

18 MS. HOJJAT: [Inaudible.] And you felt like there
19 wasn't justice for your dad?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

21 MS. HOJJAT: If you hear that somebody's injured,
22 [inaudible] justice for that person?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

24 MS. HOJJAT: Of course. Now if there are 25 circumstances around how that person got injured, could you

1 take those circumstances into account?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

3 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. So even if you're hearing that
4 somebody got injured, could you still, if the State failed to 5 meet their burden, return a verdict of not guilty?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I didn't hear you.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Can you repeat that?

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 MS. HOJJAT: If you're hearing that somebody got 11 injured, if you're hearing that there was some yelling, some 12 screaming going on but the State fails to meet their burden of 13 proof beyond a reasonable doubt, could you still find Mr.
14 Grimes not guilty?

15 THE COURT: I think she's already answered these 16 questions several times by me.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

18 MS. HOJJAT: Good. Okay. And now, and this one's a
19 little bit different in terms of if you think maybe he did it
20 but they failed --

21 THE COURT: Okay. Huh-huh-huh. It's a reasonable
22 doubt standard. Don't try to quantify it and don't use any 23 other words except what the Supreme Court indicated you're 24 allowed to use.

25 MS. HOJJAT: Your Honor, I just -- if we could have a

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 bench conference?

2 THE COURT: No.

3 MS. HOJJAT: Okay.

4 THE COURT: It's -- it's been stated so many times.
5 You can -- I'm not going to allow you to quantify it and use
6 different words.

7 MS. HOJJAT: Right, and I'm not trying to quantify it
8 so much as my concern, and that's why I wanted to do this
9 outside the presence --

10 THE COURT: No. I mean, I could [inaudible] to your 11 question and it's not appropriate, so go ahead.

12 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. My 13 concern [inaudible] is because a lot of times jurors tell us,
14 you know, we thought maybe but --

15 THE COURT: Okay. Now you're trying to have a
16 conversation with me. If you want to ask her or do you want
17 to question, go ahead.

18 MS. HOJJAT: All right. I guess my question to you
19 would be if a family member of yours was sitting in Mr. Grimes
20 seat, would you want someone with your mindset on that jury?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

22 MS. HOJJAT: No.

23 THE COURT: Why not?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Because I don't trust
25 somebody else's emotions that are going to dictate my family

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 member's future.

2 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. So you're concerned that maybe
3 your emotions will end up dictating Mr. Grimes' future?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, like I told the 5 Judge, I don't know until I'm there, but I will try to put my 6 emotions aside and be a fair person and, you know, look at 7 this case, not my own cases, whatnot.

8 MS. HOJJAT: Okay.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Because it's strange because 10 you're telling all of us you can be fair and impartial, you
11 can listen to the evidence, and you can follow the 12 instructions of law. If -- if you had a family member being 13 [inaudible], isn't that the type of jury you would want?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And let me ask you, if that was 16 your family member, would you want a juror like yourself, and 17 you say, "no," so --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, no, because --

19 THE COURT: So explain to us why you would say "no."

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Because I wouldn't know
21 what their train of thought is at that moment and like if 22 they're going to -- if they're going to like use their past to
23 -- to move this -- to [inaudible] on this man's future, I
24 don't [inaudible].

25 THE COURT: Right, but are you -- are you the person

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 that's going to do that?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No. I wouldn't want to.

3 THE COURT: Okay. You understand, none of us,
4 neither side, nobody wants you to judge this case based upon
5 what happened to you or your father?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

7 THE COURT: You get that, right?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Nobody wants you to put someone in 10 jail regardless of what the evidence is because something bad
11 happened to your family, you get that, right?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So explain to us why your answer
14 is different when the attorneys ask you, If you had a family
15 member sitting at that table you wouldn't want a juror like
16 yourself? What kind of juror would you want?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Someone that hasn't gone
18 through any [inaudible] so they have a better, like clear
19 state of mind, I guess.

20 THE COURT: You got to be at least 18 years old to 21 sit on a jury. I mean, do you think there's anybody in the 22 world that reaches 18 without any life experience?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, no, I know everyone
24 has their own experience.

25 THE COURT: Of course.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Some people deal with it
2 differently and don't let it, you know, haunt them and
3 [inaudible] I guess. I mean, with my -- with what happened to 4 me, with whatever happened to my dad, I'm just --

5 THE COURT: So you want someone on the jury that's 6 had no life experience, because that would be impossible?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I understand.

8 THE COURT: You understand that? Okay. So really
9 we're all just looking for a panel of jurors that can be fair
10 and impartial, listen to the evidence, weigh it appropriately,
11 and follow the instructions on the law; do you understand
12 that?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Are you a person that can do that?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. We're not telling you forget about 17 what happened to you. And no one's going to tell you, You're 18 not allowed to think about what happened to you during this 19 trial, because I can't control your thoughts. Nobody can.
20 What we're asking you to do is set it aside and not let it
21 affect your ability to consider and weigh the evidence in this
22 case and render a decision accordingly; do you understand
23 that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Can you do that? I mean, we just want to

1 hear yes or no. If you think you can, do it. Just tell me.
2 We're asking you questions different ways and I'm getting
3 completely different answers.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I just don't --

5 THE COURT: And I have to be the one to determine
6 whether you can be on the panel or not.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I just think it's going
8 to be a lot of emotional stress on me.

9 THE COURT: And -- and so that's why I asked you,
10 okay, because quite frankly, any case should give you stress.
11 If you're sitting as a juror, I don't care what case it is,
12 you should be under stress. That's called doing your job.
13 That's appropriate, all right? But I don't want to compromise
14 your health, and that's why I asked you, Am I going to 15 compromise your health if you're required to be here? I don't 16 want to do that. I mean, I don't want to do that, okay? So
17 I'll ask you that again. Am I going to compromise your 18 wellbeing and your health if you're required to be here?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Well, I don't know. I
20 had a doctor's appointment today at 2:30. I am canceling it.
21 Like I said, I'm having shortness of breath and my heart's
22 beating fast, and I feel like I'm going to have an anxiety
23 attack. I don't -- I don't --

24 THE COURT: I mean -- I don't know, things like that 25 don't necessarily bother me or think you can't be on the jury

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 because every case I sit on, I get nervous, I get stressed
2 out. Sometimes I can't eat. I can't sleep half the time,
3 right? That's the way it should be because what we do is
4 very, very serious.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right.

6 THE COURT: Okay. But that's me. [Inaudible] do for 7 Llendy. So I want to know about you. Is that going to 8 compromise your health? I don't want to send you into a spin
9 of something that's going to cause you to be [inaudible]; but
10 it sounds like you haven't seen any doctor since this happened
11 in 2008 until today in 2012. So have you been okay for the 12 last four years?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah.

14 THE COURT: You haven't had to see a doctor?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

16 THE COURT: All right. So were you going to the 17 doctor today for like a well-check-up or a -- I mean what -- a
18 general practitioner?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible] new doctor.

20 THE COURT: She's what?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: My new doctor. Just a
22 new doctor, just general, yeah.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And if you went to the doctor,
24 what were your complaints?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Shortness of breath and

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 [inaudible] permission [inaudible].

2 THE COURT: Okay. Do you feel sick?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No, I just feel my heart
4 beat [inaudible] went up. I -- sorry.

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.]

7 THE COURT: Okay. Just let me know when you're ready
8 to continue.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: I mean [inaudible] needed
10 to [inaudible].

11 THE COURT: Well, clearly we need people to do it,
12 that's why we're here, okay? But again, I'm going to state it
13 and I don't know how much more I can say. I don't want you --
14 I don't want to compromise your health. I don't want to send 15 you to the hospital. I don't want to make you sick.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Right, [inaudible].

17 THE COURT: It's not going to happen?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

19 THE COURT: Okay. You're healthy enough to sit on 20 this panel?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. You've had some horrific things
23 happen to you in your life and nobody's discounting that, do
24 you understand that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: And I feel terrible I didn't ask you
2 about it, but I have to ask you about it. Is that going to --
3 is your past going to interfere with your ability to give
4 these parties here a fair and impartial trial?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Will you be able to listen to the 7 evidence that's presented by both sides?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Will you follow the instructions on the 10 law as given to you by the Court?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And you understand we're not going to 13 give you any instruction that says, Consider your past and how 14 it's affected you in determining what decision to render in 15 this case; you understand that, right?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

17 THE COURT: I mean, I'll give you exactly the 18 opposite. I'll tell you you can only use your common sense
19 and the evidence that's presented to you and the instructions
20 on the law; do you understand that?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand this is serious?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

24 THE COURT: You understand that both sides and 25 myself, we're just interested in getting a jury, you know,

1 that's composed of people that are open-minded, fair, neutral,
2 and unbiased and have no prejudice; do you understand that?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Are you a person that can do that?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything else you want to 7 tell us?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No. I told you all my 9 story.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I'm glad you smiled. I appreciate
11 that.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It's so embarrassing.

13 THE COURT: It's not. It's not embarrassing.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It is.

15 THE COURT: We're not going to -- I mean, it's not 16 embarrassing. A, it's just your life, okay, and you have no
17 control over it. All right. So I'm just going to let you go
18 back up and take your seat and I'm going to move on if 19 everyone is okay? Are you okay? All right. But I just want
20 to tell you that when I -- when I'm done, both sides have the 21 right to have to question the panel, so [inaudible] the 22 question, but I'm not going to let them question you about
23 this because we've had like 45 minutes to do it up here, okay?

24 So if there's anything you want to ask about this
25 particular issue, [inaudible] any other issue you can, but I'm

1 not going to allow her to go back down as soon as I'm done and
2 somebody open that wound again. I mean, she's been very
3 truthful and honest and I spent a lot of time up here. So if 4 there's any question, ask her now?

5 MS. HOJJAT: I just have a couple more, I'm sorry,
6 kind of related to what was said up here. You mentioned
7 earlier that black people make you uncomfortable because of 8 what you went through with the robbery.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Uh-huh.

10 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I apologize.

11 MS. HOJJAT: You -- obviously Mr. Grimes [inaudible]
12 is an African American gentleman. Do you think that's going
13 to affect your ability to be completely impartial, like can 14 you be completely impartial about his race?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It won't affect me
16 because [inaudible].

17 MS. HOJJAT: Okay.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It's [inaudible].

19 THE COURT: I didn't hear the answer.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It won't make me
21 uncomfortable because [inaudible], [inaudible].

22 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. But when you're making a decision
23 about whether or not he's guilty, do you think the fact he's 24 African American will affect your decision even just a little 25 bit?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

2 MS. HOJJAT: No. Okay.

3 THE COURT: So you're not going to consider his race
4 in --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

6 THE COURT: -- determining whether the State met its 7 burden, correct?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Correct, I won't.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. HOJJAT: Now obviously you were the victim of a
11 violent crime from an African American individual. Has that 12 created any sort of feeling that maybe African American people
13 are more violent?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Not anymore.

15 MS. HOJJAT: Not anymore, but you did have those --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: At one point I did, yeah.

17 MS. HOJJAT: Okay. Has it created any sort of 18 feelings in you that you believe an African American person is 19 more likely to have committed a violent crime?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

21 MS. HOJJAT: Okay.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: [Inaudible.] The person
23 that killed my dad was Mexican.

24 THE COURT: And that's based upon what you've been 25 told?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Uh-huh.

2 THE COURT: Say yes.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I just want to ask one more
5 question because you said your family was involved in some 6 kind of civil suit as a result of what happened to your
7 father. You said you sued somebody?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: We sued them.

9 THE COURT: Who did you sue?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: The security guards that 11 were supposed to help -- keep the place safe.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So whatever company provided the 13 security guards you sued over negligent security?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes, but they weren't
15 [inaudible].

16 THE COURT: They were what?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They [inaudible]. They 18 didn't want to give us anything.

19 THE COURT: But you said it just settled?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yeah, it just settled
21 like two weeks ago. Like it's only going to give us 300 bucks
22 out of pocket for my dad [inaudible].

23 THE COURT: Okay. You don't have to tell us what the 24 settlement was, but were you satisfied with that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.

1 THE COURT: No?
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.
3 THE COURT: It wasn't $300, was it?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: It was $311, yeah.
5 THE COURT: You settled for $311?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: A month, for like the 7 next [inaudible].
8 THE COURT: Okay. Did the company declare
9 bankruptcy?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: They had no insurance, so
11 he's paying out of pocket, all the trustees, all that.
12 THE COURT: Okay. So kind of like you can't squeeze
13 blood out of a turnip, is that the term?
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Something like that.
15 THE COURT: Because I don't want you -- is that kind
16 of what your family decided? Okay. There's no --
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: But we had no options.
18 THE COURT: Yeah. You had no options.
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: That was it.
20 THE COURT: Heck with that. That stinks, huh?
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Uh-huh.
22 THE COURT: Okay. You're not going to hold that
23 against any parties here, right?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: No.
25 THE COURT: Okay.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 MS. HOJJAT: So let me make this my final question.
2 Just taking into account the victim [inaudible] that your
3 family has had, the violence that you've personally
4 encountered, the distrust you have of the justice system, and
5 the fear that you said you have of African Americans when 6 you're alone like that --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: A year ago [inaudible].

8 THE COURT: That's like ten compound questions.
9 Okay. Why don't you ask her, Considering everything that 10 you've disclosed to us up here?

11 MS. HOJJAT: Considering everything that you've 12 disclosed to us up here, do you think you could be a fair and 13 impartial juror in this case?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. Okay. I'm going to let you
16 go. Again I want to thank you for answering our questions.
17 And again I won't permit them to ask any questions about this
18 ~~unless we ask to approach the bench. If they have to ask~~
19 anything else, we won't do it in front of the other jurors,
20 okay? And you don't have to tell any of the other jurors what 21 we spoke about up here, okay?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Okay.

23 THE COURT: And you can tell the court marshal if 24 anyone tries to discuss with you your private matters, he can
25 let me know [inaudible] court marshal, okay?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 024: Okay. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Thank you very much. You can take your 3 seat.

4 (End of bench conference.)

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much for your
6 patience and your courtesy, I appreciate that for allowing me
7 to conduct that up here at the bench. The question pending
8 before the panel is: Have you or anyone close to you, such as 9 a family member, friend, ever been the victim of a crime? I
10 just want to make sure there was nobody else that wanted to 11 respond to the Court. Go ahead, sir.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: You mean like car
13 thieves?

14 THE COURT: Your name and badge number?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Anthony Martino, 080020.

16 THE COURT: Go ahead.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Car break-ins, is that 18 considered --

19 THE COURT: That's a crime.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Someone broke into my car
21 once. Stole my --

22 THE COURT: All right. Was that in Clark County?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: No, in Arizona.

24 THE COURT: All right. How long ago was that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Twelve years ago.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Anything about that that would interfere
2 with your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: No.

4 THE COURT: Anyone else? Go ahead, ma'am. Your name
5 and badge number?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Michala Reinholtz,
7 080018. About 10 years ago when I was in Salt Lake City our 8 house was broken into.

9 THE COURT: Anything about that that would interfere
10 with your ability to be fair and impartial?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: No.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Did you call the police?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Was it your home?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. The home that you share with your 17 husband and child?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: It was my boyfriend at 19 the time.

20 THE COURT: Okay. But it was your home?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And you called the police?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Did they come?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: They did.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Did they investigate?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: What was the result?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: Nothing really. It --
5 they were pretty sure it was teenagers who kicked in one of 6 the windows and came in and stole stuff, but no one saw
7 anything so that was pretty much it.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that that would
9 interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial in this
10 case?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: No.

12 THE COURT: Thank you. I saw -- go ahead, sir.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Jason Morgan, 080022.

14 Just house gotten broken into this last May, kicked the front
15 door, the alarm went off though and nothing was stolen, but 16 police report and all that was done.

17 THE COURT: Was anybody home?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: No, just the two dogs.

19 THE COURT: All right. But did the alarm chase them
20 off, scare them off?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: I know the alarm went
22 off. When we got home the front door was cracked, the dogs
23 were sitting in the doorway so.

24 THE COURT: Was anything taken?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: No, not that we know of.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. So probably you could conclude the
2 alarm and the dogs scared them away?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Yeah, yeah.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that that would
5 interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: No.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else? Go ahead, sir.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Had a home break-in too.

9 THE COURT: Your name and badge number?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Kirk Sanford, 0026.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I had my home in Utah
13 broken into about two years ago.

14 THE COURT: Anything about that that would interfere
15 with your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Did you call the police?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Did the police respond?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Was it investigated?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: They took some 23 fingerprints and they know who it is but he's still on the -- 24 still on the loose [inaudible].

25 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: They haven't been able to
2 apprehend him yet. They've identified the suspect.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that that would
4 interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial to the 5 parties in this matter?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: No, I don't think so.

7 No.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Anyone else?
9 Okay. The record will reflect no further response from the --
10 I'm sorry -- from the jury panel.

11 Have you or anyone close to you, such as a family
12 member, friend, ever been accused of a crime? Go ahead, sir.
13 Your name and badge number? You don't have to look at your 14 badge to give me your name.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Ruben Placido, 80017.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Go ahead.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: [Inaudible] burglarizing
18 my own house because of the divorce dispute.

19 THE COURT: You got accused of burglarizing your own
20 home?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: And it was in the midst of a divorce?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Who accused you?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: The attorney of my wife.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. What happened as a result of those
2 accusations? Were charges brought against you?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: It was just I spent two
4 months in jail in L.A. County because -- and more than a month
5 in Everett, Washington jail.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You spent jail -- you spent time
7 in jail in L.A. and in Washington?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am, because I was

9 --

10 THE COURT: That doesn't make sense. Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I was on vacation from,
12 you know, the Philippines at that time.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: And when I came back --

15 THE COURT: Okay. So when you came back in the 16 airport?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: -- and they picked me up
18 in the airport.

19 THE COURT: In Washington?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: They said I had -- no, in 21 L.A.

22 THE COURT: Okay. You were coming through L.A?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: They told me that I'm a
24 fugitive.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Was there a warrant for your

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 arrest?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: They just handcuffed me
3 and that's all, I didn't see anything.

4 THE COURT: Okay. What happened as a result of that?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well --

6 THE COURT: You were never convicted, I assume?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Between the truth and
8 responsibility, they told me to plead guilty so I can go home
9 the next day. That was in Everett. And --

10 THE COURT: Is that where you lived with your wife at 11 the time, in Everett, Washington?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: That's my first wife.

13 THE COURT: Your first wife. Okay. And your first
14 wife's the one that accused you of breaking into the home?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: Okay. And what did you plead guilty to?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, a misdemeanor
18 because they told me that, you know, if I plead guilty I'm not 19 going to spend more time and I can go home, and the 20 responsibility that I've got was my parents was in Indiana and 21 they're over 66-years-old.

22 THE COURT: So you plead guilty to a misdemeanor?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: All right. And how long ago was that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: It was 1995, '94, '94.

1 THE COURT: Anything about that that would interfere
2 with your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, I have be -- I'm
4 going to be fair for what, you know, they done to me.

5 THE COURT: From what you're telling me, I mean, I
6 don't know everything, but that kind of stinks.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well --

8 THE COURT: You don't think you were treated fairly?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Right.

10 THE COURT: Okay. You don't -- you didn't -- are you
11 saying you didn't break into your wife's house?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, you know, I was 13 asking --

14 THE COURT: Well, you said it was your house.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, because we bought
16 that house.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: You know, I have to spend
19 time --

20 THE COURT: Were you in the midst of getting divorced
21 and your wife was living in the house and you were not living
22 in the house? Had you moved out?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, they -- they give 24 me -- restriction order.

25 THE COURT: Restraining order?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Restraining order.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So during the divorce your wife
3 got a restraining order against you?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yeah, and I even asked my
5 wife to get my tools because I was an -- I am electrician and
6 I need my tools at that time --

7 THE COURT: Okay. So --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: -- that time and then --

9 THE COURT: Let me just ask you this. Because it was 10 in the midst of a divorce, you apparently hadn't moved
11 everything out of the house, your wife gets a restraining
12 order against you, and you went back to the house anyways?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I didn't move anything.

14 All -- everything is --

15 THE COURT: Did you go back to the house anyways?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: -- what's in my house.

17 Yeah. I asked him permission.

18 THE COURT: You asked who for permission?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: To my wife just to get my 20 tools and some of my clothes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And then she called the cops on
22 you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: And called the cops.

24 THE COURT: What did you learn about that? Don't
25 call back, there's a restraining order.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: As I said, you know, half
2 an hour after that they got two cops and, you know, telling me
3 to get out that property, and then -- and then -- and then I
4 went back to Indiana, and then when I took a vacation, when I
5 came back I got handcuffed and they told me that I was a
6 fugitive and I have a, you know, a case in Washington, in 7 Everett, Washington.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So was the charge violation of a
9 temporary restraining order or was it a home burglary? What 10 were the charges?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Said I'm burglarizing my 12 house, what they indicated on the --

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So you don't think you
14 were treated fairly?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well --

16 THE COURT: Although you said you had went back in 17 violation of the restraining order.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I don't know, but, you
19 know, my wife told me to get out of here and I don't have any 20 house or home and that -- in Everett, Washington, so I went 21 back to Indiana where I came from.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Why did the restraining order get 23 -- what was the -- how come your wife asked for a restraining
24 order? What was the background in getting the restraining
25 order?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I don't know.

2 [Inaudible] of me, I didn't even know what's -- what's
3 happening. She just wanted to divorce me, that's all.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So part of a divorce and she got a
5 restraining order, but you have no idea why she did?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Because I tried -- ma'am,
7 I tried to, you know, work out my marriage and think she
8 doesn't [inaudible]. I tried to talk to her and she doesn't 9 want to talk.

10 THE COURT: She didn't want to talk to you?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: So that's probably --
14 that's why the [inaudible].

15 THE COURT: Okay. And that was a long time ago? And 16 you're married to someone else, right? Yes?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: And you even have a daughter, right? You
19 have a 15-year-old daughter?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Is -- is the wife you're with, is 22 that her mother? Yes?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So is there anything about what 25 happened in 1995 that would interfere with your ability to be

1 fair and impartial to the parties here today?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Anyone else? The
4 record will reflect no further response from the panel.

5 Is there anyone on the panel who would have a
6 tendency to give more weight or credence or less weight or 7 credence to the testimony of a police officer simply because 8 the witness is a police officer? Okay. The record will
9 reflect no response from the panel.

10 Is there anyone on the panel who believes they cannot
11 wait in forming their opinion as to what the appropriate
12 result should be in this case until you have heard all of the 13 evidence and after you have been instructed on the law by the 14 Court? Anyone who believes they cannot do that? Okay. The
15 record will reflect no further response from the panel.

16 At this time I'm going to turn the panel over to the 17 State of Nevada. Both sides have an opportunity to question
18 the panel. We just have one [inaudible] goes pretty quickly
19 because neither side is permitted to ask you any questions
20 that I have already asked you. State of Nevada can address
21 the panel?

22 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor. May I use the 23 --

24 THE COURT: Of course, of course.

25 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you.

1 MS. BOTELHO: Good afternoon, everyone. [Inaudible]
2 all raise your hand too quickly for this first question, but
3 who's excited to be here?

4 THE COURT: Oh, come on.

5 MS. BOTELHO: Who actually wants to serve on this
6 jury? Who's excited to do that? No one is raising their 7 hand. So what are some of the reasons why, besides all the,
8 you know, the reasons that we've already discussed with Judge
9 Leavitt, what are some of the reasons why you're kind of 10 hesitant to serve on a jury?

11 THE COURT: You know what? I'm -- you know what?
12 Excuse me. I don't know if I want to hear all this again.

13 MS. BOTELHO: Okay.

14 THE COURT: I think I've already asked everybody all
15 the reasons. But, sir, did you want to address the Court?
16 Your name and badge number?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: It's Phillip Jennings,
18 0006.

19 THE COURT: Okay. What did you want to tell me?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: The company I work for,
21 they don't make up my pay difference and I'm a construction
22 worker, and I'm currently working now but, you know, I might 23 be working this week and not working the next week the way the 24 construction is now and I just can't afford not to make money
25 when I have an opportunity to make money.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: I understand that and it's probably --
2 everybody in the courtroom would probably be able to say that
3 too.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Oh, I understand that
5 too.

6 THE COURT: So I just want to make sure, if you're 7 required to be here for the next couple of days, are you going 8 to be able to pay your bills or are you going to be on the 9 streets?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: I'll be able to pay them
11 but.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Just be tight?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Excuse me?

14 THE COURT: It would be tight?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

16 THE COURT: But you can be here?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19 MS. BOTELHO: And I'll move on, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Thanks.

21 MS. BOTELHO: Judge Leavitt already asked everyone on 22 the panel whether or not you or anyone close to you has ever
23 been convicted of a crime. I want to focus a little bit more 24 on something a little focused. Have you or anyone close to 25 you ever been the victim of domestic violence? And I see Mr.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 Whelchel, Juror No. 0001.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: As a marriage family
3 therapist, not somebody close to me, but one of the things in 4 my work, I'm on like a panel that serves people who have been
5 victims of violent crime and just in general in marriage
6 [inaudible] therapy who are often working with people who --
7 where there's domestic violence, so, you know, 10 to 20
8 sessions with somebody who has -- has been a victim. So not 9 necessarily again that it's a personal relation or close but.

10 MS. BOTELHO: So you're familiar with at least
11 through your work victims of violent crime?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.

13 MS. BOTELHO: In your work, sir, do you also deal
14 with those that have been charged with domestic violence or 15 kind of on the opposite end of the spectrum?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Very rarely. I have, but 17 not as often.

18 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. Now does your contact or through 19 your work -- my understanding is you're a marriage counselor.
20 Would your experience with domestic violence victims through 21 your work, would that affect your ability to sit in on this
22 particular type of case?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: No.

24 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. So you could set aside your 25 experience with other domestic violence victims and not use

1 that when you're deciding the evidence and whether we've met
2 our burden in this case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Correct.

4 MS. BOTELHO: Anyone else? Yes, ma'am. Ms.?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Karen Augspurger, 0021.

6 Yes.

7 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, ma'am.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: My first husband hit me.

9 MS. BOTELHO: I need to ask this, ma'am. Would that 10 experience with your ex-husband -- first of all, ex-husband;
11 so how long have you not been with him?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Thirty-five years.

13 MS. BOTELHO: Your experience 35 years ago with your 14 first husband, would that weigh in on your ability to decide
15 the facts and circumstances in this case, just based on that,
16 the facts and evidence that we present to you?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.

18 MS. BOTELHO: So are you saying that you
19 automatically sympathize with the victim simply because you
20 are a victim yourself?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Probably I would.

22 MS. BOTELHO: Earlier when Judge Leavitt asked is 23 there anything about your experiences that would prevent you
24 from being a fair and impartial juror, I don't think you
25 raised your hand, but did this just kind of trigger a memory?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Uh-huh.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Is that a yes?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Augspurger?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Because again, I questioned the panel at 7 length. Is there something about your past that's going to,
8 interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Because it kind of sounded like
11 you just told the District Attorney that there was. So -- so
12 what happened? You said something with your first husband?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Uh-huh.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. What happened?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: He was an alcoholic.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: And he would come home
18 and be angry and hit me and it wasn't to the point where I
19 ever had to be hospitalized or anything like that, but it was 20 very scary.

21 THE COURT: It was not appropriate at all?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Okay. You got divorced, right?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Did you ever call the police?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.
2 THE COURT: Okay. Why not?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I honestly can't answer
4 that. I don't know why.
5 THE COURT: That's okay.
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I was embarrassed.
7 THE COURT: That's perfectly -- yeah, okay. So you
8 lived with it until you got divorced?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Uh-huh.
10 THE COURT: Is that a yes?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes, it is.
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: And it wasn't all the
14 time.
15 THE COURT: Okay.
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: It was probably three or 17 four times.
18 THE COURT: Okay. Did you have -- were children
19 involved?
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes, one [inaudible], my 21 oldest son.
22 THE COURT: Okay. How long ago was it?
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: 1970 -- [inaudible] 1975
24 to 1979.
25 THE COURT: Is there anything about your experiences

1 with your former husband that would interfere with your
2 ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I -- I'm going to say
4 yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. What is it?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I -- I wish I could -- I
7 mean, I wish I could divorce myself from it, but I don't think
8 I would be able to.

9 THE COURT: All right. Who are you not going to be 10 able to be fair to?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Probably the Defendant.

12 THE COURT: Okay. And does that mean -- I'm trying 13 to get at why do you think you're not going to be fair? What 14 are you going to do that's not going to be fair? Are you
15 going to disregard the evidence and judge this case based upon
16 what happened to you?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No, I think I could do
20 that. All I know is there's just a feeling there and I can't 21 explain, you know, whether it's going to change me or not. I
22 think I could -- I mean, I would do my best to try to be fair
23 and impartial about it, but I, you know, if I can't say
24 positively that I would, then maybe I shouldn't be on it.

25 THE COURT: Okay. This happened 30 plus years ago?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Uh-huh.

2 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. The only reason I'm correcting you
5 is because Kerry has to remember to type this all down --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I'm sorry.

7 THE COURT: -- at some point, so thank you. And
8 again, I'll ask you what I've asked some of the -- your fellow
9 jurors. Are you going to be able to listen to the evidence if 10 you're selected to be a juror?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Are you going to follow the law as 13 given to you by the Court?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Will you judge this case based solely 16 upon what you see and hear in the courtroom and nothing else?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Because neither side wants you to 19 judge this case based solely upon what happened to you.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: I know that.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand that?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes, I do.

23 THE COURT: Do we have to worry about you saying, you
24 know, This happened to me in my first marriage so I'm going to 25 stick it to somebody?

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Oh, no.

2 THE COURT: And since I'm on a jury now I'm going to
3 stick it to this person?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No, I wouldn't do that.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Because all we're looking for --
6 everybody has life experiences. We're just looking for people
7 that can set those aside and not consider them as a part of 8 your deliberations as a juror because you understand it would 9 be very inappropriate to go back in the jury deliberation room
10 and say, I don't need to deliberate because I've made up my 11 mind because of what happened to me, and so this person is 12 going to have to pay because of what happened to me; do you
13 understand that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Or vice versa. The State wouldn't want
16 you to do that either, Well, I'm going to rule in favor of 17 them because of what happened to me for whatever reason; do
18 you understand that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes, I do.

20 THE COURT: Are you a person that would do that?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: No.

22 THE COURT: Okay. In your deliberations will you set
23 aside what happened to you in your personal life and judge
24 this case based solely on the evidence and the law?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes, I will.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Will you -- will you be able to be
2 fair and impartial to both sides?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. State of Nevada can take over.

5 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you, Your Honor. Thank you,
6 ma'am. Anyone else has been the victim of domestic violence
7 or anyone close to you a victim of domestic violence? I see
8 no more hands.

9 I already asked another juror this, but have you or 10 anyone close to you ever been charged with domestic violence;
11 not just convicted, but charged?

12 THE COURT: Your name and badge number?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Phillip Jennings, 0006.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Jennings, you were charged with --
15 what were you charged with?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Domestic violence, I
17 believe.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So you were accused of a crime at 19 some point?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: I -- I don't know if I
21 was accused of it, but I went to Court.

22 THE COURT: If you were charged, you were accused.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Okay.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So you -- did you get arrested?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Okay. And you had to go in front of a
2 judge?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And somebody handed you a charging
5 document and said, We're charging you with a crime and this is 6 what it is?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Not yet, I guess so, yes.

8 THE COURT: Well, I don't know. I'm not trying to 9 talk you into it. I'm just trying to figure out what it was.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: I pleaded not guilty, and 11 they made me go to the -- some schooling thing and that was 12 that.

13 THE COURT: When did this -- because if you plead not
14 guilty, I can't tell you to do anything as a judge.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: No, I plead no contest,
16 that's what it was.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So you entered a form of a guilty
18 plea and you were adjudicated guilty of a crime. What were 19 you convicted of?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Domestic violence.

21 THE COURT: Was it a misdemeanor?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. When was this?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Probably around 1992-ish.

25 THE COURT: During -- and was it here in this

1 jurisdiction because you've been here quite a while?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Do you remember what courthouse you went
4 to? Do you know if you went to -- did you go to City Hall?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: I think so, yes. That's
6 the one by the bus station there, used to be the bus station.

7 THE COURT: Uh-huh. The old City Hall?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. The new City Hall, am I pointing
10 in the right direction? Right? Okay. The new City Hall is 11 really pretty and it's right over here --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yeah, it was in --

13 THE COURT: But --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: -- it was in '92 or so,
15 so it was the old one.

16 THE COURT: Okay. And you went over there and you
17 plead guilty to a misdemeanor?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: All right. Anything about that that 20 would interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: No, I just answered
22 because they asked.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Who was -- who made the 24 accusations against you? Who was the other person that it was 25 alleged --

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: My girlfriend, we live
2 together.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And you knew -- did she call the 4 police on you?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Oh, yeah.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Were you there --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Oh, yeah.

8 THE COURT: -- when she called the police?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And the police came and what happened?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: They arrested me.

12 THE COURT: All right. Do you think you were treated
13 fairly?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yeah. Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. And you believe you could be 16 fair and impartial in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Anything about that that would interfere
19 with your ability to sit as a juror on this particular case?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: No.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

22 MS. BOTELHO: Thank you. Anyone else, anyone close
23 to you or you yourself been charged with domestic violence? I
24 see no more hands, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Thank you.

1 MS. BOTELHO: Next question is: How many of you have
2 ever witnessed a domestic violence incident, except for the
3 [inaudible]?

4 THE COURT: Mr. Pryor?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Would that be before or 6 after?

7 THE COURT: Can you please -- it's Mr. Pryor. Will
8 you state your badge number, Mr. Pryor?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: 0037.

10 THE COURT: You were -- do you mind standing up? You
11 were -- you witnessed domestic violence?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: No, I helped with the 13 first aide and I was on a call.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Right. And you've already --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: A stabbing call.

16 THE COURT: You've already told us about all of that,
17 correct?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 037: Right.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 MS. BOTELHO: Any other hands? I see no more hands,
21 Your Honor.

22 All right. Judge Leavitt already asked you about 23 whether or not you know someone, you know, close friend or 24 relative that works for law enforcement. I'm going to kind of 25 change the question a little bit. Do any of you have or have

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 any of you had a positive or negative contact with law
2 enforcement? I see no hands.

3 How many of you or do any of you watch crime
4 investigation shows like CSI?

5 THE COURT: Are there any of you who don't watch
6 them?

7 MS. BOTELHO: That might be the better question.

8 THE COURT: There's a few of you that don't watch
9 them. Maybe one, two, three, four, five, six.

10 MS. BOTELHO: Don't watch. Okay.

11 THE COURT: Maybe five or six that don't watch them.

12 MS. BOTELHO: We seem to have a few on both sides,
13 some watchers and non-watchers. To those of you who watch, I
14 take it that you realize that those are TV shows? Crime is 15 not necessarily solved in 45 minutes with state of the art,
16 you know, satellite -- satellites zoom in and, you know, 5,000
17 percent to find a fabric or that hair follicle on carpet and 18 that that solves the case? It doesn't work like that in real 19 life, we all agree on that?

20 There are other shows, though, not like CSI but 21 they're more like reality crime shows, like the First 48 or 22 Real Interrogations, anybody watch those kinds of shows?
23 Okay. I saw some hands go up.

24 To those of you who watch those shows, do you also 25 realize that those shows kind of portray different types of

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 evidence and different ways to solve a case? That those
2 pieces of evidence may not all be present in one case? There
3 are different types of evidence that are presented, will you
4 all agree to that?

5 How many or do any of you know any attorneys, someone
6 close to you, close friend you hang out with or family member?

7 THE COURT: Other than what's already been disclosed
8 because we have some family -- we have some members of the 9 panel that indicated they had family members that are 10 attorneys.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: [Inaudible.]

12 MS. BOTELHO: [Inaudible.] Juror No. 0005.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yes.

14 MS. BOTELHO: She's the D.A. in New York?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yes.

16 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. And, sir, you are?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Anthony Martino, 080020.

18 MS. BOTELHO: Yes, sir.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: My brother-in-law is an 20 attorney. And actually I forgot to mention this, that my

21 cousin's wife in Arizona is an attorney. I think she works
22 for the State. I really -- I'm not close to her or anything
23 like that, but I think she does something with the --

24 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. Your brother-in-law, does he 25 live here?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: No.

2 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. Are both of these lawyers in
3 your family in Arizona?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: One is in San Francisco.

5 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. And you said the one in Arizona
6 may practice for -- may work for the State, but you're not 7 sure what?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Yeah. I think she may be 9 a prosecutor or something for the county or the state or 10 something like that.

11 MS. BOTELHO: Do you speak to that family member
12 regularly?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Not that often.

14 MS. BOTELHO: And you ever discuss her cases?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Well, one time I was in 16 Arizona, one time a few years ago I was a witness to a
17 [inaudible] and at Christmas dinner mentioned it, she was 18 like, well, that might be an issue for me, so she disclosed it
19 to whoever she was working with.

20 MS. BOTELHO: Okay.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: I haven't seen her in a
22 couple years so.

23 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. What about the brother-in-law,
24 do you speak to him about his work as an attorney on his 25 cases?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 020: Not really, but it's
2 corporate stuff.

3 MS. BOTELHO: Okay.

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: What was the question?

5 MS. BOTELHO: Do you have any close friends or 6 relatives that are attorneys? Yes. Mr. Sanford?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

8 MS. BOTELHO: Juror No. 0026.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

10 MS. BOTELHO: Who do you know, sir?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Specific names or --

12 MS. BOTELHO: How are they related to you?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Personal friendships and 14 business; business-related generally.

15 MS. BOTELHO: Is that here in Las Vegas?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes, it is.

17 MS. BOTELHO: Do you talk to them about -- do any of 18 them practice criminal law?

19 THE COURT: Do you have any close friends --

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: No, I don't believe they

21 --

22 THE COURT: Mr. --

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: They -- they -- but they 24 run practices here [inaudible].

25 THE COURT: Mr. Sanford, do you have close friends

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 that are attorneys?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. How many?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Probably half a dozen?

5 THE COURT: So six?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yeah.

7 THE COURT: That you socialize on a consistent basis?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. What are their names?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Greg Garman [phonetic],

11 Gordon and Silver.

12 THE COURT: Greg?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Garman.

14 THE COURT: Garman. Okay. What did you say? Did

15 you say Gordon and Silver?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Gordon and Silver.

17 THE COURT: That's the name of a law firm. Which

18 one? Gordon or Silver do you know?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: It's both, it's the name

20 of the law firm.

21 MR. HILLMAN: I think he said that's who Mr. Carmen

22 works for.

23 THE COURT: That's where he works. Okay. I'm sorry.

24 I'm sorry. Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: [Inaudible.]

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I thought you said Gordon and
2 Silver. Nevermind. Go ahead.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Sharon Green.

4 THE COURT: Sharon Green.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Kim Sinatra.

6 THE COURT: Kim Sinatra.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Barry Conbraco

8 [phonetic].

9 THE COURT: Barry Conbraco.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: There were some others,
11 I'm just drawing a blank.

12 THE COURT: Okay. But the names you've given us, and 13 Gordon -- well, I don't know. They might do some -- they do
14 do some criminal because Dominic Gentile is there.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes, [inaudible].

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I met Dominic on several
18 occasions. He's in social service.

19 THE COURT: All right. You understand I told some of 20 the other jurors that while if you're selected to be a juror
21 on this panel you won't be permitted to discuss this case with 22 anyone, including your fellow jurors until you've been asked
23 to go back and deliberate upon your verdict, do you understand
24 that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: I do.

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 THE COURT: Okay. So you understand you can't call
2 up any of these lawyers and ask them any questions about this
3 case?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes, ma'am.

5 THE COURT: And that if you see them within the next
6 few days while you're impaneled, the only thing you can tell
7 them is that you're a juror on a criminal case, you're not
8 permitted to tell them anything else; do you understand that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Would you comply with that order?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 MS. BOTELHO: Anyone else have an answer to that
14 question?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I know [inaudible]. I
16 work for --

17 THE COURT: Okay. Wait just a minute. That's Mr.
18 Schettino?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Badge No. 0005. Go ahead.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Besides my niece being a
22 D.A., I worked in a legal compliance department. I worked 23 [inaudible] 25 lawyers so 20 years [inaudible]. I used to go
24 [inaudible].

25 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. And that was during your

1 employment as -- what was your position?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I was associate director
3 of [inaudible].

4 MS. BOTELHO: And so you worked with a lot of
5 attorneys?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.

7 MS. BOTELHO: Was this in a criminal --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No, it's mostly 9 arbitrations.

10 MS. BOTELHO: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Of course we had a clause
12 in our thing you couldn't take us to court, you had to sign an 13 arbitration agreement [inaudible] arbitration.

14 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. Do you still maintain contact
15 with these individuals?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No, not normally.

17 MS. BOTELHO: Okay. So you wouldn't be talking to 18 them at all through the case even though the judge asked you
19 not to. Any other potential jurors who know attorneys? Okay.

20 Court's indulgence? I just have one more follow-up
21 question for -- I believe it's Juror No. 00043, Daniel
22 Davenport. Hi, Mr. Davenport. Sir, earlier Judge Leavitt
23 asked you or you indicated to us that you -- your best friend
24 had been murdered, [inaudible] your friend was involved in a
25 domestic kind of relationship, had to leave the home, was

UNCERTIFIED ROUGH DRAFT

1 killed by a third party, and I think you said something to the
2 effect that nothing happened to that first party because it
3 was allegedly self defense or something like that.

4 Sir, do you harbor any -- I don't know how to phrase
