DEPUTY CLERK

NOTICE OF DISCLOSURE

This appeal from an order of the district court dismissing appellant's petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenges actions of the parole board in denying appellant parole. The court and parties are advised that the undersigned represented appellant before the pardons board and secured a commutation of his sentence when I was a practicing criminal defense attorney. In my present capacity as Chief Assistant Clerk of Court, I keep argument minutes and conference notes on behalf of the justices but do not vote in case deliberations. Should any of the parties object to my role as court clerk in this case, they shall notify the court within 10 days from the date of this notice.

It is so ORDERED.
